

18. Please provide copies of all reports transmitted to Council since January 1, 2012.

No formal report have been transmitted to the Council by our office, however the DCCAH as recently completed studies. The latest of which is the "DC Creative Space Study" that surveys the needs of the creative industries within the District in order to assess what types of spaces best serve their needs. Please find the executive summary of the "DC Creative Space Study" in the following pages.