Councilmember Vincent C. Gray, Chairman of the Committee on Health, and Councilmember David Grosso, Chairman of the Committee on Education, announce a joint public oversight roundtable on “The Department of Behavioral Health’s Proposed School-Based Behavioral Health Comprehensive Plan”, to be held on Monday, June 5, 2017 at 11:00 a.m. in Room 500 of the John A. Wilson Building, 1350 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20004.

On June 5, 2017, the Committees on Health and Education will hold a joint public oversight roundtable on the Department of Behavioral Health’s proposed School-Based Behavioral Health Comprehensive Plan. This plan proposes to increase the number of schools that host a school mental health clinician by spreading them across multiple schools and requiring them to perform prevention activities rather than the direct clinical services that they currently provide. The direct services will instead be provided by community based organizations, including the Department of Behavioral Health’s Core Service Agencies.

The Committee invites the public to testify at the roundtable. Those who wish to testify should contact Malcolm Cameron, Committee Legislative Analyst at (202) 654-6179 or mcameron@dccouncil.us, and provide your name, organizational affiliation (if any), and title with the organization, preferably by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, June 2, 2017. Witnesses should bring 15 copies of their written testimony to the hearing. The Committee allows individuals 3 minutes to provide oral testimony in order to permit each witness an opportunity to be heard. Additional written statements are encouraged and will be made part of the official record. Written statements may be submitted by e-mail to mcameron@dccouncil.us or mailed to: Council of the District of Columbia, 1350 Pennsylvania Ave., N.W., Suite 113, Washington D.C. 20004.
