Responses to FY2017 Performance Oversight Questions DC Public Schools

Agency Operations

Q1: Provide the following enrollment data for DCPS:

- a. DCPS student enrollment by grade for each school for School Year 2016-2017 (“SY”) (based on the final audited enrollment report) and SY2017-2018 (audited);

One of our five core goals in the DCPS strategic plan, A Capital Commitment 2012-2017, was to increase DCPS’ enrollment to 50,000 students by 2017. While we fell slightly short of this goal, we made significant progress. Our total audited FY17 enrollment reached 48,555.

We believe that a growing student enrollment is one indication of the health of the school district, and we have set a goal in our new strategic plan to reach 54,000 students by 2022. We also set a goal around re-enrolling 90 percent of our students.

Our reported enrollment for FY18 is 48,171. Both the FY17 audited and FY18 reported enrollment numbers are based on reported enrollment as of October 5, 2017.

See Q1 Attachment_DCPS Enrollment and Summer School Data FY17 and FY18 (Tabs 1 and 2) for FY17 audited and FY18 reported DCPS student enrollment by grade for each school.

- b. Summer school enrollment, broken down by grade for Fiscal Year 2013 (“FY”), FY14, FY15, FY16, and FY17; and,

The five-year breakdown of summer school enrollment, as well as FY18 projections are included in Q1 Attachment_DCPS Enrollment and Summer School Data FY17 and FY18 (Tab 3). The 2018 projections are preliminary and do not include students who will be served through programming run by community-based organizations.

- c. What is the proposed summer school enrollment and budget for FY18.

We project to serve 9,252 students in Summer School 2018 with a budget of $4,888,259.45. This number does not include students being served by community-based organizations, including Summer Youth Employment Program (SYEP) participants. Q1 Attachment_DCPS Enrollment and Summer School Data, FY17 and FY18 (Tab 4) details the projected enrollment for all centrally-managed DCPS summer programming. The FY18 projections are subject to change based on student need and availability of funds.

Q2: The following questions are regarding the DCPS out-of-boundary (K-12), application, and pre-K lottery process:

- a. How many and what percentage of students applied through the lottery for SY13-14, SY14-15, SY15-16, SY16-17, SY17-18? Please provide the numbers for each category—out-of-boundary, application, and Pre-K.

Prior to 2013, DCPS managed two internal lotteries - one for applicants to grades PK3-12 in non-selective DCPS schools, referred to as the Out-of-Boundary (OOB) lottery, and the other for applicants to DCPS selective high schools, referred to as the High School Online Application. Each of these lotteries saw comparable numbers of applicants for SY12-13 and SY13-14 seats. Approximately 7,200 students applied to at least one DCPS school through the out-of-boundary lottery in both years, with 25% coming from DCPS and roughly 33% coming from outside DCPS (the remainder were not yet enrolled in school). For the high school online application, the number of selective high school applicants was also comparable for SY12-13 and SY13-14, with more than 2,000 students applying for admission and half of those applicants coming from within DCPS.

In the fall of 2013, the lottery process for DCPS changed dramatically with the introduction of the My School DC lottery, which allowed families to apply to DCPS and charter schools in one online application. With the introduction of the My School DC lottery, DCPS saw an increase in the number of unique applicants interested in DCPS. Within this common lottery for SY14-15 seats, DCPS saw an increase in applicants, with 12,381 applying to at least one school within DCPS by the My School DC deadline. The My School DC lottery also replaced the lottery for our selective high schools, and DCPS saw a modest increase in applicants to selective high schools in SY14-15, with 2,166 applicants choosing at least one selective high school.

In the chart below, the data shows that the largest group of unique DCPS applications apply to Pre-Kindergarten, with more than 6,000 seeking either a PK3 or PK4 slot in both SY16-17 and SY17-18. In addition, the number of students applying to selective high schools continues to increase.

*The “# of Student who Applied to Selective High School (9-12th)” is a subset of the “# of Students who Applied to Out-of-Boundary Lottery (K-12th)”.

†SY14-15 to SY17-18 reports unique applicants who applied by the initial My School DC deadlines.

b. How many and what percentage of students in each school are out-of-boundary for SY16-17 and SY17-18 (to date)?

Similar to last year, approximately half of all DCPS students attend a school other than their in-boundary school. In some cases, this is because students are attending alternative or specialized programs, but it is also common for students to simply attend an out-of-boundary school that may better meet a student’s needs.

- In SY16-17, 51% of students in PK3-12 attended a school other than their in-boundary school, this includes students attending a citywide, alternative, or specialized school.
 - Schools with Highest OOB%: Hardy MS (77%), Stuart-Hobson MS (75%), Tyler ES (74%)
 - Schools with Lowest OOB%: Janney ES (7%), Lafayette (12%), Hendley ES (14%)
- In SY17-18 (to date), 50% of students in PK3-12 attended a school other than their in-boundary school, including citywide, alternative, and specialized schools.
 - Schools with Highest OOB%: Tyler ES (72%), Stuart-Hobson MS (72%), Hardy MS (71%)
 - Schools with Lowest OOB%: Janney ES (8%), Lafayette (13%), Mann ES (13%)

Please refer to Q2 Attachment_SY17-18 Out of Boundary Enrollment to Date for a detailed breakdown of out-of-boundary enrollment across all of DCPS.

Q3: Provide any updates to DCPS’ policy with regard to designated Early Stages seats for Pre-K3 and Pre-K4. In the response please indicate how DCPS determines the number of Early Stages seats available at each school, how students are placed, and the process/policy for releasing Early Stages seats to a non-Early Stages student.

There have been no policy changes this year with regard to how Early Stages priority seats are assigned and used. Early Stages seats are reserved for un-enrolled three- and four-year-old children who are newly identified as eligible for special education and require services in a general education setting. Ensuring the availability of seats into which these children may be enrolled is required in order to comply with IDEA.

DCPS reserves seats in PK3, PK4, and Mixed Age classrooms at every DCPS elementary school based on geographic trends in the identification of children with special needs, previous patterns of use, and the need to have inclusive settings available across the city. If it is determined that a child’s IEP can be implemented in a general education setting, the child is offered a seat in his/her neighborhood school. If a PK3 or PK4 seat is not available at the neighborhood school, Early Stages will offer a seat at the next closest school that has a seat available. The offer location may also be informed by circumstances that are unique to the child or school (e.g., ADA accessibility, sibling attendance). Early Stages does not enroll children who are not eligible for special education into these seats. Unfilled PK4 seats are generally released at the beginning of the school year and may then be filled from the lottery waitlist. PK3 and Mixed Age seats are reserved all year in order to accommodate newly identified children.

Q4: Describe any changes made in the last fiscal year to DCPS’ practices for Medicaid billing? In particular, please provide the following information on Medicaid billing for school-based services:

In FY16, the Department of Healthcare Finance (DHCF) increased DCPS’ claims reimbursement rates for Medicaid-covered health services. This claiming revenue now represents an increased percentage of our overall Medicaid revenue, with the remainder derived from audits of cost settlement reports.

a. DCPS’s total Medicaid billing and total Medicaid received for FY17 and FY18 to date;

In FY17, our total Medicaid reimbursement was $14,920,048.63. In FY18 to date, we have received $6,746,670.92 in claims revenue. Audits of our FY17 and FY18 cost settlement report are pending. The attached documents outline Medicaid Revenue, services, and billing by school.

Q5: The following questions are regarding the DCPS food service program:

a. What were the approved budgets, the actual expenditures, and the actual revenue (please include funding sources) for food services in FY17 and FY18 to date?

Please see Q5 Attachment 1_Food Service Budget and Data tabs 1 -3 for the FY17 and FY18 year-to-date budget and expenditures for food services.

- b. For each food service vendor please list the total number of meals served in FY17 to date, broken down by fully paid meals, free, and reduced priced meals for each meal service (i.e. breakfast, lunch, snack, and supper).

Meals served by each food service vendor are detailed by pay status for each service and service period in Q5 Attachment 1_Food Service Budget and Data, tab 4.

- c. Detail the total school meal participation rates in FY13, FY14, FY15, FY16, FY17, and FY18 to date for breakfast, lunch, snack, and supper.

Our meal participation rates remained steady with a slight decrease in breakfast and supper for SY16-17. However, snack and supper quantities for the same time have increased. See Q5 Attachment 1_Food Service Budget and Data, tab 5.

Please note: Because of the nature of afterschool programming, we do not calculate the percentage of meals served for snack and supper. We only monitor total of number of meals served. This is consistent with how we have reported this information in past years.

- d. Provide the student surveys for each food service vendor for FY17 and FY18 to date.

- Q6: Explain any emergency response procedures in place for DCPS as it relates to on-campus emergencies, including any calls to 911 made during the school day. Also please discuss how in FY17 and FY18 to date the agency communicates, trains, and ensures the practice of school safety plans and drills.

DCPS maintains a comprehensive multi-hazard emergency response plan - the School Emergency Response Plan and Management Guide (the Red Book). The Red Book provides guidance, defines roles and responsibilities, and lays out emergency response procedures that assist schools in responding to and recovering from critical incidents. It also establishes the framework for creating, reviewing, and updating the emergency and crisis response plans for individual schools.

The entire public emergency response plan is available online at School Emergency Response Plan Guide esa.dc.gov/page/school-guides-and-protocols. Each school has an additional operational plan that includes the school-specific evacuation maps and a listing of staff members who play specific roles during critical incidents. Classroom and office staff personnel also have access to emergency response procedures through the School Emergency Flipchart (Q6 Attachment_School Emergency Red Book Flip Chart 2016). The flipchart serves as a quick reference, abbreviated form of the Red Book that outlines response strategies to critical incidents for teachers and staff.

There are six basic procedures utilized in response to emergencies:

- Building Evacuation
- Alert Status
- Lockdown Procedures
- Shelter-in-Place
- Severe Weather Safe Area Procedures
- Drop, Cover, and Hold

Schools hold practice drills throughout the year in accordance with Red Book guidance. The following drills are required:

- One fire drill per month;
- Two lockdown drills per year;
- Two emergency evacuations (500 feet) from building per year; and
- One severe weather drill per year.

DCPS recommends that schools participate in the FEMA “Great Shake Out” earthquake awareness event held in October, as well as two reverse evacuation drills, and one alert status drill during the school year.

As a part of DCPS’ normal operation, when an emergency occurs, the Incident Commander (IC), (typically the principal or designee), will decide, based on the situation, which universal emergency response procedure/s to implement. When a critical incident occurs, it is managed by the smallest group of responders necessary; first, by school emergency response teams (SERT), according to their school’s unique emergency response plan, as well as by contacting local first responders (e.g., calling 911). Next, a call to 911 is followed by a call to DCPS Office of School Security (OSS) and the Executive Support Team (EST) Manager at DCPS central office.

Communications, Trainings, and Exercises

In March 2016, as part of the FY16 Audit and Inspection Plan, the Office of Inspector General (OIG) engaged DCPS to conduct a special assessment of the emergency response planning and readiness of the district’s schools. DCPS provided responses to the OIG report findings in September 2016. Among a number of findings, DCPS concurred with the formulation of a new, dedicated Emergency Planning & Guidance (EP&G) team within the DCPS Office of School Security (OSS). DCPS has also begun providing guidance and technical assistance and training for schools, using the Emergency Safety Alliance (ESA) web portal. DCPS continues to work to satisfy several recommendations from the OIG audit, including:

- identifying a software platform to track schools’ emergency response plans;
- implementing a communication strategy to schools relative to their emergency response plans;
- developing a parent guide to emergency preparedness; and
- collaborating with Fire and Emergency Medical Services (FEMS) to approve schools’ emergency response plans.

EP&G has conducted the following trainings and or activities:

- designed, trained, and structured SERT trainings for 105 schools, 225 school-based staff, and 19 new principals at New Principals Institute (these trainings are ongoing);
- supported 98 school-based staff in gaining FEMA Incident Command System (ICS) certification;
- trained 40 school-based staff and Central office staff in Parent-Child Reunification procedures;
- trained 10 school-based staff in fire safety prevention training (in partnership with FEMS);

- hosted train-the-educator training for School Behavioral Threat Assessments;
- provided Adult Sexual Misconduct in Schools: Prevention and Management training, offered through the Seattle Public School District for more than 50 DCPS leaders, psychologists, and counselors; and
- provided monthly emergency response scenario guidance and training opportunities through school-based newsletters and email updates.

EP&G works closely with the Department of General Services (DGS), Metropolitan Police Department (MPD), the DC Homeland Security and Emergency Management Agency (HSEMA), FEMS, and the District Department of Health (DOH), to support our schools' emergency preparedness efforts.

- Q7: Provide the following information for SY16-17 and SY17-18 to date for each school:
- a. The total number of security personnel (including MPD officers, special police officers, private non-SPO security personnel, and/or other) assigned to the school;
 - b. The number of MPD officers assigned to the school;
 - c. The number of special police officers assigned to the school;
 - d. The number of private non-SPO security personnel assigned to the school; and
 - e. The number of any other security personnel assigned to the school.

DCPS School Security Overview

DCPS ensures the safety of schools, staff, and visitors through (1) our licensed Special Police Officers, (2) contracted security officers (managed by MPD), (3) emergency planning policy and procedures, and (4) physical security features such as cameras, door alarms, and weapons abatement equipment. The district's contracted security services are covered by an MOU with MPD (originating back to 2005).

MPD also places School Resource Officers (SROs) from their School Safety Division (SSD) in our schools. These officers are organized by a cluster model (not assigned to specific, individual schools). SROs check in with schools and respond during emergencies.

DCPS, MPD, and Contracted School Security Personnel Numbers (SY16-17):

- DCPS school security personnel included:
 - 111 MPD Officers (School Safety Division/SSD) - one Inspector, three Lieutenants, 17 School Resource Sergeants, and 90 SROs;
 - 28 Special Police Officers (DCPS) - one Director, one Captain, and 26 Special Police Officers (SPO); and
 - 313 Contracted Security Guards- 277 Security Officers referred to as "Guard 1" in the contract, and 36 Special Police Officers referred to as "Guard 2" in the contract.

*Guard 1 and Guard 2 are licensed in the District of Columbia. Guard 2 officers have the legal authority to make lawful arrests; Guard 1 officers does not have this authority and cannot search, detain, arrest, or engage in physical contact with individuals. Neither level officer is permitted to carry firearms.

DCPS, MPD, and Contracted School Security Personnel Numbers (SY17-18):

- This school year, DCPS school security personnel includes
 - 111 MPD Officers (SSD) - one Inspector, three Lieutenants, 17 School Resource Sergeants; and 90 SROs;
 - 28 DCPS Special Police Officers - one Director, one Captain, and 26 Special Police Officers; and
 - 313 Contracted Security - 277 Guard 1 Security Officers and 36 Guard 2 Special Police Officers.

While these numbers have remained consistent over the last 2 years, DCPS went from 292 to 313 contracted officers from SY15-16 to SY16-17. The increase reflects significant growth in the physical footprint of DCPS's modernized buildings, including Ballou, Brookland, Roosevelt, Duke Ellington, and Marie Reed. Additionally, the securing of temporary spaces such as Murch trailers at UDC, Coolidge trailers, and Maury trailers requires more personnel.

DCPS Security Personnel: Additional Details

The DCPS School Security team has 28 staff - one Director, one Captain (Patrol Commander), as well as lead and shift supervisors, the latter being a group that directs the SPO force monitoring school grounds and performing routine security checks of buildings and security equipment. DCPS School Security operates 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. The security coverage is divided into three shifts: 6:00 am -2:00 pm, 2:00 pm to 10:00 pm, and 10:00 pm to 6:00 am. The 1st shift supports schools during morning arrivals and throughout the school day, with each officer assigned to approximately 12 schools.

More substantively, the officers on the 1st shift perform walkthroughs, check in with school administrators and contract security guards, physically check on security equipment, and follow up on incident reports and work orders related to security features or equipment. On the 2nd shift, they provide similar support to schools, including afternoon dismissal and athletic and evening school events. The 3rd shift patrols schools, conducts nightly perimeter checks, and responds to alarm activations and emergencies on DCPS properties. In addition, officers complete school security/safety inspections, conduct weapon screenings, and issue barring notices to individuals. Certain SPOs are also assigned to monitor communications at the Unified Command Center. Finally, officers assist with SafePassage, a DME initiative designed to have staff observe and assist in the community as students travel to and from school.

Please see Q7 Attachment 1_ J1 Contract Guard Deployment Schedule.

Q8: The following questions are regarding DCPS' school security program:

a. What is the cost for school security contracts in FY17 and FY18 to date? Please breakout personnel versus other costs.

The DCPS school security contract for FY17 totaled $22,008,367.79. To date through January 8, 2018*, $9,072,464.95 has been spent and FY18 contract is projected at $21,886,613.00. This contract is for personnel services (contracted security guards in schools) managed by MPD. MPD is responsible for the administration of the contract and oversight of the school security contractor. DCPS school security officials collaborate with MPD and have established agreements to formalize our respective responsibilities.

DCPS purchases and maintains all security equipment in schools, including x-ray machines, hand wands, video cameras, alarms, and radios. Below are the equipment maintenance costs:

- $324,983.38 for a maintenance contract with RapiScan for all walkthrough and x-ray machines
 - Please see Q8 Attachment 1_ Rapiscan Service Contract Quote and Q8 Attachment 1_ Rapiscan Service Agreement.
- $39,099.04 for radio services with the Office of Unified Communications.
 - Please see Q8 Attachment 2_ FY18 - Citywide Radio MOU - Fully Executed 11 21 2017 - with Attachments.
- $1,055,196.00 for a maintenance contract with Vision Security for surveillance cameras and computer equipment.

- Please see Q8 Attachment 3_Bilateral MOD No 6 - Vision Security Solutions GAGA-2016-C-0028 - 8-14-17 and Q8 Attachment 3_DCPS Annual Doorphone Service 2017-2018_Split years_09-14-2017 Vision Security.
 - $9,000.00 for two xray machines at Phelps HS with AutoClear.
 - Please see Q8 Attachment 4_AUTOCLEAR NEW GENERAL CONDITION TERMS 2012.
- This spending captures how much has been spent this contract year, which began July 7, 2017, not the fiscal year, so the year-to-date number is our spending over the first 6 months of this new contract.

b. Please describe the role for each type of school security personnel pursuant to the relevant contract.

The roles and positions related to the contract administration, guards, and management can be found in Q8 Attachment 5_School Security One-Pager. This information is also found within the security contract.

c. Provide a copy of each contract for school security personnel for FY17 and FY18.

The contract for all school-based security personnel for FY17 and FY18 can be found in the MPD DCPS Guard Contract. Please see Q8 Attachment 6_MPD DCPS Guard Contract.

d. Please provide any training manuals, regulations, directives, or other documents that instruct school security personnel on their roles and responsibilities.

DCPS School Security has compiled all of our protocols into the draft of the school security manual, to further explain and assist school leaders in managing security in their buildings. The purpose is to ensure schools know more about our processes and procedures and the roles of officers—contracted, MPD, and DCPS. We have shared the draft with MPD for their comments and we are currently engaged in small roundtables with principals in an effort to get additional feedback and respond to any gaps. Attached is the Interim Handbook. Please see Q8 Attachment 7_Interim School Security Handbook.

e. Please describe the professional development or training opportunities offered to school security personnel SY16-17 and SY17-18 to date. Please specify if any training is related to adolescent development; positive youth development; restorative justice; de-escalation techniques; and youth mental health.

During SY16-17, the MPD/DCPS security vendor (Allied Barton, Inc.) developed and conducted the mandatory 40-hour training curriculum in collaboration with DCPS staff based on: 1) contract requirements; 2) crime trends; 3) DCPS recommendations to enhance student climate; and, 4) MPD security assessment. The 40-hour training included the following:

- Customer Service/Public Relations
- De-escalation and Restorative Justice
- Use of Force
- Emergency Preparedness and Guidance
- Leadership Expectations
- Weapons Abatement Screening
- Incident Report Writing
- School Security Orders via Prescribing Authority
- Patrol Technique
- Drugs & Drug Paraphernalia
- DCPS Regulation & Policy and the Role of School Security

For more information, please see Q8 Attachment 8_ Spring 2017 4 Day 40hr Training Curriculum (3.)

During SY17-18, the mandatory 40-hour basic training has been conducted for all new hires. Additionally, supplemental training has been conducted which includes:

- Conduct and Appearance
- Observation, Description & Report Writing
- Patrol Techniques
- Magnetometer, X-Ray Machine, CCTV, Radios, Equipment & Screening
- Diversity
- School Security Orders
- Effective Communications
- Ethics
- Visitor Control
- Sexual Harassment
- Availability of Social Services
- Emergency Response: Violence, Bomb Threats, Terrorism, and Natural Disasters

Please see Q8 Attachment 9_ School Security Training Syllabus V.1 2017-2018.

f. How many allegations of school security personnel misconduct were reported to DCPS during FY17 and FY18 to date? How were the allegations investigated? What were the results of the investigations?

In FY16-17, there were two cases that involved school security (contractors only). FY17-18, there has only been one allegation, to date. By contract, the contracted security guards are required to forward incident reports to DCPS OSS and MPD by the end of the day of operation. School administrators are also required to report incidents, particularly if they involve DCPS or contracted staff. Incidents that involve students or other workers are immediately referred to the DCPS Investigations Team that works to complete and close investigations within 30 days. If there is a potential criminal offense, MPD investigates the matter first; then, DCPS Investigations Team conducts its investigation after MPD has completed their work.

g. What information, if any, does DCPS provide students explaining their rights while interacting with school security personnel and the procedure for reporting a complaint?

Students' rights are covered primarily by DCMR Chapter 24 – and, in part, by DCMR Chapter 25. Students are exposed to this information during orientation and in school handbooks. The district's Student Grievance Process is also available on the DCPS website. We do not currently provide any specific guidance to students regarding their rights while interacting with school security; however, DCPS has formed an internal working group to develop a policy related to students being questioned and interacting with school security.

DCPS security officials may interview students when trying to gather more information about a school-related incident, and when students are involved in a disciplinary situation or other violation that could rise to the level of criminal liability, parents are notified. School administrators also inform parents of concerns brought forth by students and make sure that they are present during additional questioning.

h. Please provide any agendas, notes, summaries, attendance numbers, or other materials from the monthly security guard feedback meetings conducted during SY16-17 and SY17-18 to date.

As the contract administrator, MPD schedules and convenes regular meetings (typically monthly) with the security contractor, where compliance issues and changes in schedules or duties are discussed. DCPS participates in these meetings. Additionally, DCPS conducts School Safety Committee meetings. School leaders and safety POC's meets regularly with MPD to discuss security issues and performance issues of security personnel in schools. For more information, please see Q8 Attachment 10_ School Safety Committee Meeting Agenda.

i. Has DCPS surveyed or asked students to provide feedback on performance and interactions with school security personnel during SY15-16 and SY16-17? If yes, please provide the key findings or results.

Annually, DCPS administers the Student Satisfaction Survey and regularly communicates with school leaders regarding their satisfaction with contracted security. While there has not been a process to survey students regarding school security personnel, our annual student satisfaction survey does address the following topics relative to students:

- I feel safe at my school;
- I feel safe outside around the school;
- I feel safe traveling to and from school;
- I feel safe in the hallways and bathroom of the school;
- I feel safe in my classes; and
- I feel safe around my peers when an adult is not present.

Student satisfaction safety index results for SY15-16 was 83%, and we are happy to report it increased slightly in SY16-17 to 86% affirmative. Please see Q8 Attachment 11_ Student Survey Satisfaction Results.

Human Capital

Q9: Please give a narrative description of recruitment efforts by DCPS along with an accounting of the expenditures for recruitment in FY17 and FY18 to date. Please include a description of the recruitment efforts the Office of Human Capital undertook in FY17, including the Capital Commitment Fellowship, and recruitment initiatives focused on men of color, special education teachers, and bi-lingual teachers. Please also indicate how many new teachers were brought into the 40 lowest performing schools as a result of the recruitment efforts.

Teacher Recruitment and Selection

Recruitment Strategy

DCPS leverages a multi-faceted strategy to attract applicants to teaching positions. Key recruitment activities fall under the following categories: marketing and advertising, proactive sourcing, campus and community partnerships, outreach to experienced teacher-leaders, and expansion of partnerships to recruit teachers in high-need content areas.

Marketing and Advertising: DCPS posts teacher vacancies on a variety of sites for both general and subject-specific teacher recruitment. Some prominent sites include Education Week, National Council for Teachers of Mathematics, National Science Teachers Association, and the National Association for Bilingual Education. We also continue to leverage our recruitment website, www.joindcpublicschools.com, which targets candidates for roles across the school district including teacher, school leader, and central office roles. We pursue very limited print advertising, but feature advertising on websites, social media, and via e-mail.

In order to meet talent needs for special education classrooms in the district, we place online postings and print ads with targeted networks including: National Association of Special Education Teachers (NASSET), Council for Exceptional Children (CEC), and American Association on Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities (AAIDD).

In order to attract teachers of color and especially males of color to DCPS, we are very intentional in developing postings and ads that feature teachers of color, as this reflects the diversity among our existing teacher force and student body. Additionally, we identify sites to post where we are more likely to reach diverse teaching candidates, such as Diversity Recruitment Partners or National Alliance of Black School Educators. We have seen a steady increase in the number of males of color being hired into the district. Twenty percent of teachers hired this past fall were males of color, which is four times the national average. This is in comparison to 15% males of color being hired in 2016, and 12% in 2015.

This past year we also worked with OSSE to add new effectiveness-based licensure pathways, which will allow more diverse candidates to enter DCPS as teachers. Of the total hires last year made through the new effectiveness-based licensure pathway, we project approximately 4% (n=30) were candidates of color.

Proactive Sourcing: DCPS is implementing a comprehensive strategy for headhunting (also known as sourcing or mining) to attract experienced teachers. To pursue teaching candidates, our team proactively identifies teachers across the country who have a demonstrated track record of success working in a high-need school. We especially focus on school districts with student demographics comparable to DCPS, in order to increase the cultural responsiveness and awareness a prospect would bring regarding the needs facing our students and community. Additionally, we recruit in districts with high English Learner populations, particularly in the Southwest and across the eastern seaboard, as this is a growing and urgent skill set needed among teachers in DCPS. Once candidates are identified, we invite them to participate in one-on-one prospect cultivation calls as well as group webinars. These calls offer a forum for us to share details of promising initiatives and progress in DCPS that might inspire teachers to join our efforts to provide a world-class education to all of our students. Over the past three years, we have sourced and cultivated more than 64,000 prospects. Of the candidates passively sourced, roughly 10% engage in conversations with the teacher recruitment team, and roughly 3% of teachers passively sourced complete our entire selection process.

Campus and Community Partnerships: Our campus outreach focuses primarily on attracting candidates for hard-to-fill and specialized subject areas. For example, we engage in outreach to universities with strong programs in bilingual education, autism, and Montessori education. Additionally, as teachers of color represent only 18% of the teaching force nationwide, we actively recruit teachers graduating from Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs) as well as Hispanic Serving Institutions (HSIs). HBCUs continue to produce a greater number of Black teachers entering the workforce, roughly 50% of the total each year. Where possible, we recruit from graduate programs in education as well, as they are somewhat more likely to include experienced teachers who are pursuing additional development.

Additionally, we are closely tracking student teachers who are receiving training in our schools to cultivate them to apply early for teaching positions. This past school year, we have worked closely with our local university partners (specifically: American University, George Washington University, Howard University, Catholic University, and Trinity University) to promote opportunities for graduate-level student teachers to fulfill their practicum and field experience requirements by being employed as an educational aide in the district. This allows student teachers to receive compensation while completing their degree, while becoming deeply immersed in a DCPS school community. We also reach out to all student teachers to encourage them to submit a teaching application for the upcoming school year.

Last year, DCPS hosted 129 student teachers across 30 schools. Moving forward, we will continue the work of expanding school access to student teachers in more DCPS schools, specifically schools further east in the city. One specific example of this is through the Chancellor joining the American University School of Education advisory board. This partnership will allow student teachers to be placed in schools across the city that represent the cultural relevancy of our students.

The teacher recruitment team also formally manages the District's contract with Teach for America (TFA). We provide staff with information about how the cohort is performing and how they can support Corps Members to develop through coaching over the course of the school year. Additionally, we expect our pipeline partners to attract diverse talent. For the upcoming cohorts, we anticipate at least 40% of their teachers will be people of color.

Talent Pipelines: In DCPS, we know that teaching talent will play a crucial role in meeting our goals for students. As a result, through the years of our Capital Commitment Fellowship (CCF), we have recognized top performing teachers before they even begin in our classrooms and actively incentivize them to teach in the District's high-poverty schools. Moving forward, we will expand on this work to recruit strong experienced teachers for LEAP Leader positions across the district, while continuing to drive the strongest performers to our priority and ESY schools through providing incentives, such as individualized support throughout the hiring process and district-level early offers.

Of the 278 TeachDC candidates that entered DCPS, 80% (223) went to high-poverty schools (including the priority schools). Ninety-seven (35%) of TeachDC candidates went to our priority schools.

Last year, we piloted a new partnership with our colleagues in the Office of Teaching and Learning from the Global Education Team with the Peace Corps, called the DC Global Language Corps. This fellowship allows returned Peace Corps volunteers to bring their knowledge and deep language skills from their Peace Corps service county to our schools by becoming world language teaches. We anticipate expanding the pilot for this school year, and will work closely with our local university partners that have strong alumni rates of students entering the Peace Corps (e.g., American University).

Another new partnership formed last year was through the Office of Instructional Practice (now Office of Equity) and Relay Graduate School of Education. This residency program serves as an internal pipeline for current educational aides to move into full-time lead teacher positions. We anticipate the expansion of this pipeline for the upcoming school year as well.

As our work is highlighted in the Capital Commitment through Strategic Priority 2, we are continuing to identify the need for either expanding our current pipeline partnerships, or whether additional pipelines are needed to ensure we are building robust pipelines of diverse teachers and teachers in high-need content areas.

Selection Strategy

DCPS ensures that candidates complete a rigorous, competency-based assessment process that will be predictive of their future performance in DCPS classrooms. Our selection strategy ensures that the high-quality candidates are thoroughly screened and made available for school leaders early in the hiring season so they can appropriately staff their buildings. Our selection criteria align with the DCPS Essential Practices (EP) that are used as the basis for IMPACT evaluations. We hire Teacher Selection Ambassadors (TSAs) to conduct interviews and rate candidates on their instructional expertise. These TSAs are high-performing DCPS teachers who have themselves demonstrated skill in meeting the highest standards of IMPACT and exhibit strong content knowledge. Portions of TSA training are identical to that of principals and other instructional leaders, to ensure their ratings of instructional competencies align with how teachers will ultimately be evaluated if they are hired. TSAs interview candidates whose subject areas match theirs, which allows TSAs to leverage their context expertise in screening candidates.

Competencies Assessed

Teaching candidates are assessed on the following competencies:

- Instructional Expertise
 - Standards-based and developmentally appropriate planning and content delivery
- Track Record of Success
 - Evidence of prior achievement with students
- Core Values / Beliefs
 - Familiarity with challenges of urban schools and belief that all students can achieve at high levels
- Communication Skills
 - Ability to convey information clearly and accurately

Selection Process

Step 1: All candidates apply through an Online Application. DCPS works closely with OSSE to ensure that candidates who advance beyond the application meet OSSE’s minimum requirements for licensure. Through questions and essays, the online application assesses the competencies outlined above.

Step 2: All candidates participate in a 20-30-minute Phone Interview. This phase consists of questions that dive deeply into the competencies of instructional expertise, core values and beliefs, and focus on student achievement.

Step 3: Based upon performance in the phone interview, some candidates may be asked to submit a Video Upload of their classroom practice as additional evidence of their teaching practice and instructional expertise. This step is primarily for candidates who did not perform strongly during the phone interview stage, but also for candidates who are interested in becoming world language teachers.

Step 4: Candidates who successfully complete the phone interview stage will be placed in the pool of “recommended candidates,” from which principals select candidates to interview for hire. High-performing candidates’ materials are expedited to notify principals as early as possible of their availability for interviews and consideration. Furthermore, in partnership with researchers at Columbia Business School, we created candidate composite scores that provide principals with information about the candidate’s potential performance level on IMPACT. We used data from prior seasons to determine which elements of the selection process are most predictive of IMPACT performance and weighted those various factors to create the composite scores. This feature allows principals to more efficiently identify the highest potential candidates from among a large recommended pool.

In addition to ensuring there is a robust pool of high-quality candidates to staff all vacancies for the opening of school, we continue to provide support to schools to fill mid-year vacancies throughout the year through targeted sourcing, identification of available candidates for hard-to-fill content areas, and options for short-term coverage if needed.

While we continue to attract a high volume of candidates to teach in the district, we also have seen our retention rates increase over time. Our team implements several district-level retention strategies to retain our top-performing teachers, including:

- Standing Ovation: An annual gala executed in conjunction with the DC Ed Fund that recognizes highly effective educators.
- Opportunities Newsletter: A bi-weekly newsletter that promotes local and national professional development, fellowship, and internship opportunities for all teachers.
- Retention Emails: Emails that are sent to groups of highly effective educators (e.g., award winners, teachers in high-need content areas, teachers in priority schools) in December and April that serves as an opportunity for them to have a point of contact within central office with whom they can share relevant feedback.
- Central Office Fellowships: The Chancellor’s Teacher Cabinet allows a group of ~20 highly effective teachers to interface with the Chancellor and weigh in on key district policy recommendations monthly over the course of a school year. The Teachers Central to Leadership Fellowship allows 6 highly effective educators to intern in the central office for six weeks during the summer and work on a key district priority.

As we continue to focus on retaining top talent, we have begun to think about how to more successfully prepare new-to-DCPS teachers prior to the start of the school year. To that end, we are in the beginning stages of researching what a full induction program may look like for new-to-DCPS teachers.

Highly Effective and Effective Teacher Retention Rate

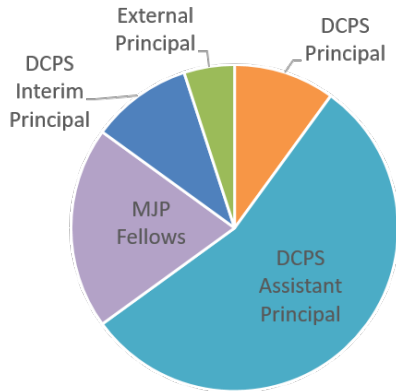

School Leader Recruitment and Selection

Recruitment Strategy

DCPS continues to identify and recruit high-potential school leaders for every principal vacancy, with a particular emphasis on instructional leadership. This is a continuing initiative. Internally, this talent will include high-potential leaders, such as Highly Effective Assistant Principals (APs) and members of the fourth cohort of the Mary Jane Patterson Fellowship. Externally, DCPS will identify and recruit award-winning school leadership talent from across the country for both Principal and AP vacancies. OTC, in collaboration with OIP, will continue to ensure that high-potential, rising DCPS leaders are preparing for the principalship through the Mary Jane Patterson Fellowship. OTC will continue to review School Leader IMPACT data of recent Principal and AP hires to determine if further enhancements to the selection process are warranted to improve the quality of hire. This year, the district’s focus on instructional leadership is expanding in support of the LEAP initiative and the increased role that school leaders have played in guiding instruction in recent years.

The majority of candidates appointed to the Principal position with DCPS continue to be internal, a consistent trend over the last three years. In SY17-18, 95% of Principal appointments came from the internal talent pool, with one external candidate being appointed to a Principal role for SY17-18.

School Leader Pipeline Data

	DCPS Principal	DCPS AP	MJP Fellow	DCPS Interim Principal	External Principal	External AP
SY17-18	2	11	4	2	1	0

Principal Selection Process

The DCPS principal application process consists of 7 steps:

1. Online Application:

During the online application, candidates are asked to provide a resume, answer questions around their educational background and work experience, and complete a written response to an instructional video. In this written response, candidates are asked to score the video based on the DCPS Essential Practices rubric, provide evidence for their scores, and identify a key level for improvement.

2. Phone Interview

Qualified candidates are scheduled for a 45-minute phone interview with current DCPS Leaders.

3. In-Person Interview

Candidates who pass the phone interview will be invited to an in-person interview day with various DCPS executive leaders. The in-person interview will be approximately two hours long.

4. Chancellor Interview

Based on recommendations from the in-person interviews, specific candidates will be invited to interview with the Chancellor. At this point in the process, the School Leader Recruitment & Selection team will also check each candidate’s professional references.

5. Candidate Pool

After the Chancellor interview, approved applicants are placed in the applicant pool and become eligible to participate in Community Panel interviews at schools that have principal vacancies.

6. Community Panel

As principal vacancies are announced, candidates in the approved pool are invited to participate in Community

Panels. The purpose of the panel is for the school community to give feedback to the Chancellor about candidate fit within a school community. Community Panels include school community members, parents, faculty, staff, and students of schools with vacancies.

7. Hiring

Based on the results of the community panel, the Chancellor will make all final principal hiring determinations. Official employment offers will be given by the Office of Talent & Culture.

Expected Numbers – SY18-19 Selection Season

The following table indicates the anticipated numbers of candidates at each stage of the selection process for SY18-19:

Online Application	300
Round 1: Phone Interview	117
Round 2: In-Person Interview	39
Final Round: Chancellor Interview	26

SY18-19 Principal Hiring Timeline

Retention

DCPS continues to implement an aggressive performance-based salary scale for Principals and Assistant Principals, as well as a bonus system for all Highly Effective school leaders, including special incentives to serve and continue leading in the priority schools. DCPS will also continue to target training and support to existing school leaders in a number of ways, including providing Principal Partners for first-year Principals and ensuring every Principal is managed and supported by a highly-experienced Instructional Superintendent – who each receive comprehensive training and support in “Blended Coaching” (from experts at the New Teacher Center). This year, we are aligning the Principal Partners so that they support new Principals in their own cluster, and we have also added in monthly Professional Learning Communities for first year Principals led by Principal Partners.

In addition, DCPS will provide opportunities for Principal representatives to participate in the Chancellor’s Principal Cabinet and on other system-wide committees. Finally, the quarterly Leadership Academies this year will assign each Principal to a Problem of Practice group, where Central Office leaders will strategize alongside principals to improve an issue or structure for SY17-18. Topics include Addressing the Achievement Gap, Special Education Supports, and Budget and School Planning.

- Q10: List the number of school-based physical, mental, and behavioral health professionals that were employed in each school in SY16-17 and SY17-18 to date. For each school, please describe:
- a) The personnel costs of these positions and the amount of these costs covered by Medicaid;

In SY16-17, DCPS employed 182.5 school-based social workers, 5 centrally managed social workers, and 3 art therapists (coded as social workers). In SY17-18, DCPS employs 179.3 school-based social workers, 5 centrally managed social workers and 3 art therapists (coded as social workers). All social workers are WTU employees with salaries that range from $55,209 to $127,790.

In SY16-17, DCPS employed 92.4 school-based, 14 centrally managed, and 9 Early Stages school psychologists. In SY17-18, DCPS employs 93 school-based, 15 centrally managed, and 9 Early Stages school psychologists. Most school-based psychologists are ten-month employees, while the central office and Early Stages school psychologists are twelve-month employees. The salaries for WTU school psychologists range from $55,209 to $127,790 and CSO school psychologists from $70,738 to $130,358.

In SY16-17, there were 109 school counselors. In SY17-18, there are a total 109.5 school counselors. School Counselors are WTU employees with a salary range of $55,209 to $127,790.

We will complete our FY17 Medicaid cost settlement report in June 2018. In FY16, 61.7% of our overall personnel costs were calculated to relate to service delivery for Medicaid-eligible students in Special Education and thus eligible for reimbursement through the cost settlement process.

- b) For each campus that lacks school-based physical, behavioral, and mental staff, please provide any plans that DCPS has to assist the schools to remediate their absence. Please provide a narrative description of such efforts in FY17, and to date in FY18.

Social Worker Staffing Gaps

In SY16-17, Dorothy Height ES, Hearst ES, Tubman ES, and Washington Metropolitan HS experienced short-term coverage gaps. To ensure continuity of services, DCPS hired a “Not to Exceed” (NTE) social worker to cover at Dorothy Height. Itinerant coverage was provided to Hearst ES, Tubman ES, and Washington Metropolitan HS as needed, to supplement the school-based teams. Kramer MS experienced two resignations and was supported by an itinerant social worker and existing school-based resources. Incarcerated Youth Program (IYP) was supported by staffing at Youth Services Center (YSC).

In SY17-18, Banneker HS, Drew ES, Randle Highlands ES, and Ross ES did not elect school social worker allocations and as such, they are listed as district gaps. School leaders are sometimes approved to make these decisions based on budget pressures and demonstrated options for meeting the need absent a position. Payne ES, Key ES, and Peabody ES currently have staffing vacancies. We expect that these vacancies will be filled in month of February. There are five candidates scheduled for interview in January. Payne ES is currently being supported through other existing school-based staff (social worker and school psychologist). Key ES and Peabody ES are currently being supported through itinerant social workers as needed for service delivery, assessments, and meetings.

Psychologist Staffing Gaps

In SY16-17, there were short and longer-term staffing gaps at the following schools: Amidon ES, C.W Harris ES, Orr ES, Nalle ES, Capitol Hill Montessori @ Logan, Hendley ES, Hyde-Addison ES, Kimball ES, the Youth Services Center (YSC), the Incarcerated Youth Program (IYP), River Terrace EC, Kramer MS, Noyes ES, Key ES, Langdon ES, Duke Ellington School of the Arts, Burrville ES, McKinley MS, Lafayette ES, Ross ES, Elliot-Hine MS, Smothers ES, Whittier ES, Ross ES, Phelps HS, and Smothers ES. Each of these schools was covered for psychological evaluations and multi-disciplinary team meetings by five (5) central office school psychologists. DCPS experienced 6 school psychologist resignations between August 2016 and June 2017, including one “no show”. DCPS contracted with a vendor to support the completion of psychological evaluations and between both central office staff and the vendor, school support was provided.

In SY17-18, Brent ES, Burroughs ES, CW Harris ES, Langdon ES, Luke C Moore HS, Noyes ES, Tubman ES, Stoddert ES, Stuart-Hobson MS, and Walker-Jones EC have vacant school psychologist positions. Vacant positions are supported through central office itinerant school psychologists. They provide coverage for a variety of multi-disciplinary meetings and conduct psychological evaluations. McFarland MS and Ballou STAY Schools did not elect school psychologist allocations and as such, they are listed as district gaps. McFarland received support through the co-located resources at Roosevelt. Ballou STAY received support through the co-located resources at Ballou HS.

Q11: Give a narrative description of recruitment efforts by DCPS as it relates to bi-lingual school-based physical, mental, and behavioral health professionals.

In an effort to recruit qualified bilingual school psychologists, we have used some traditional recruitment efforts such as newspaper ads and career websites. We have partnered with several universities with School Psychology programs, offering opportunities for internships for bilingual school psychologists. We have used informal networking through current bilingual school psychology staff for referrals. We have also implemented some targeted recruitment efforts in places like Puerto Rico.

DCPS is participating in the Association of Psychology Postdoctoral and Internship Centers (APPIC) match in hopes of hosting a Pre-Doctoral Psychology Training Program in SY18-19. We are currently recruiting interns from around the nation and world. Current applicants have many qualifications to include proficiency in multiple languages. Interns at DCPS would provide school-based counseling and complete psychological assessments for general education and special education students. Interns will receive a competitive wage of $27,600 for their services. Interns will be readied for employment with DCPS at the conclusion of their internship. Establishing an APPIC approved internship offers DCPS access to an international network of bilingual and other doctoral level trainees.

We have used similar efforts to recruit qualified bilingual school social workers, including:

- Traditional recruitment efforts, such as newspaper ads and career websites;
- Partnering with universities with School Social Work programs – again, offering opportunities for internships for bilingual school social workers;
- Tapping our current bilingual social workers’ professional networks; and
- Working with DCPS HR to identify bilingual social worker applicants.

For our recruitment of bilingual counselors, we worked with local universities that have Counseling departments (i.e., Howard, Trinity, UDC). In this collaborative effort, they have sent some great candidates who are qualified counseling professionals. The Office of Talent and Culture (formerly Office of Human Capital) supported our recruitment efforts through traditional methods such as hiring fairs, website presence, and advertisement. Also, we asked our current bilingual counselor staff for referrals of bilingual counselors from their professional networks.

Q12: Describe the professional developments opportunities provided/offered to DCPS staff that was in collaboration with other local education agencies for SY16-17 and SY17-18 to date.

Health and Wellness: DCPS provided professional development at the OSSE Health Summit in August 2017. DCPS’s Health and Wellness Team trained participants on DCPS’s Transgender and Gender Non-Conforming Policy Guidance. Public charter school educators and OSSE’s wellness staff attended the training.

Elementary Literacy: In FY16, we used Eventbrite to advertise and track our professional development attendance. Teachers from KIPP attended both Small Group Literacy (Guided Reading and Literacy Work Stations) and Foundational Literacy PD sessions.

Secondary Literacy: The Achievement Network (ANet) provides formative assessments to all DCPS schools and many charter schools in the District. ANet also provides additional Professional Development to a selection of DCPS and Charter schools on how to effectively use their assessment data to target instruction.

Social Studies:

- Real World History course. DCPS continues to partner with the Center for Inspired Teaching (CIT) to jointly offer an elective history class (Real World History), which focuses on the practical applications of history through study of the Great Migration and an internship at a local museum or historical site. The course is taught by a staff member from CIT and includes students from a number of DCPS and charter schools over the past two years, including: Maya Angelou PCS, Next Step PCS, SEED PCS, Capital City PCS, Cesar Chavez PCS, Richard Wright PCS, Washington Latin PCS, and EL Haynes PCS.
- Social Studies Professional Development. Teachers from nine local public charter schools receive biweekly email newsletters from DCPS which highlight information on professional learning opportunities offered by DCPS, as well as other local partner organizations (e.g., The Smithsonian Anacostia Community Museum, the National Museum of the American Indian, Teaching for Change, etc.). Teachers from those schools have periodically attended DCPS Professional Development Days. These charters include Two Rivers PCS, Center for Inspired Teaching, Friendship PCS, Perry St. Prep PCS, Cesar Chavez PCS, EL Haynes PCS, City Arts and Prep PCS, Paul PCS, and Washington Yu Ying PCS.

- We the People Congressional Hearings. As part of a collaborative, federal SEED grant being administered jointly across Virginia, DC, Maryland and West Virginia, teachers from DCPS and five charter schools have attended professional development to bolster their background knowledge about the U.S. Constitution. This training helps them teach this topic and to prepare students to participate in the We the People competition, a simulated congressional hearing competition for secondary students. In addition to DCPS, these charter schools include Chavez Capitol Hill HS, Chavez Parkside HS, Chavez Prep MS, Chavez Parkside MS, and DC Prep PCS.
- Mikva Challenge DC. This program provides teachers and students with training to pursue action civics, studying and taking informed action on problems in their local communities. DCPS has collaborated with Mikva Challenge DC to bring their curricular resources into our 12th grade U.S. Government, D.C. History, and English curriculum and a number of DCPS high schools have participated in their two main initiatives: Project Soapbox and the Action Civics Fair. Along with DCPS high schools, the following charter schools have participated in professional development and these competitions: SEED PCS, Center City PCS, Thurgood Marshall Academy, E.L. Haynes PCS, Capital City PCS, and Paul PCS.
- Street Law Inc. As part of a grant through Street Law Inc., DCPS along with Chavez School, Burke School, and Cathedral School participated in a two-day seminar on law-related education. The seminar highlighted content and strategies for teaching law and government and how to empower students to take action as a result of their learning.

World Language: Globe Fellows participated in a round of peer observations with Arlington Public Schools on March 23, 2017. Arlington Public School’s World Language Supervisor, Elisabeth Harrington, led the teacher cohort on a school visit to Washington Lee High School and Jefferson Middle School, followed by a debrief of instructional best practices.

English Language Learners: In addition, DCPS offered ESL teachers and counselors the opportunity to take courses at Trinity University, online through ASCD and in person through the DCPS Language Acquisition Division’s Fall, Spring, and Summer courses. In addition, all counselors had the opportunity to participate in the MELLFIN conference – a conference designed to offer participants the opportunity to learn more about successful strategies to support English Learner students and families currently being used in school districts in Maryland and Virginia. They were able to choose from workshops focused on Interventions and Strategies for Central American Youth, Recognition of Complex Trauma in School Settings, Evidence-based Family Engagement Practices, and the opportunity to unpack the newly released U.S. Department of Education Newcomer Toolkit among many others. For a detailed list of PD offered by the Language Acquisition Division, see Q12 Attachment_LAD Professional Development.Final.

Out of School Time: DCPS has worked with DME to train DCPS staff to participate in the Weikart: Center for Youth Program Quality, using the Youth Program Quality Assessment Tool. The pilot is currently happening at 4 afterschool sites: Truesdell EC, Bancroft ES, Brightwood EC, and West EC. DME has trained two program directors, two trainers, and two assessors who will work to train, coach, and assess the quality of afterschool programs.

DC Secondary Transition Community of Practice: DCPS continues to participate in the monthly DC Secondary Transition Community of Practice (CoP) sessions sponsored by the Office of the State Superintendent of Education (OSSE) and SchoolTalk DC. The CoP brings together transition experts from LEAs across the District in both non-public and public charter schools, as well as a cross-section of representatives from different organizations that include DC Government agencies, non-profits, institutions of higher learning, disability advocacy organizations, direct-service agencies, and transition-aged youth and their parents. The purpose of the CoP is to strengthen our individual and collective ability to increase and improve outcomes for transition-aged youth with disabilities as they leave secondary school and pursue work or higher education.

Secondary: In SY17-18, the College and Career Programs (CCP) division has worked closely with the following agencies for its Career Education professional development:

- OSSE, inviting their CTE Director to host a session on Virtual Job Shadow – an online career exploration tool
- Friendship Public Charter Schools, inviting their teachers to join Career Education PD days, field trips, and professional learning communities
- Early Horizons Day Care Centers, sending Career Education teachers in Early Childhood Education to observe high-quality instruction
- AVEDA Institute, sending Career Education Cosmetology and Barbering teachers to observe current instruction to lead to certification
- UDC-CC, to renew articulated credit agreements for Career Education students
- UDC School of Engineering and Applied Sciences, sending Career Education teachers to tour labs and network with higher education professors

Q13: List all the professional development opportunities provided to DCPS staff specifically on social emotional skills, behavior and classroom management in each of SY16-17 and SY17-18 to date, including a description of each training and/or activity.

School Mental Health: School psychologists and social workers are engaged in regular professional development in a variety of formats. Both disciplines participate in mandatory monthly case conferences to discuss student cases and practices to support struggling students. Additionally, traditional professional development offerings within the reporting period have been focused on trauma, evidence-based treatment, and the intersection between co-occurring disorders. The table attached provides specific information about formal professional development, for which continuing education units are offered.

School Climate Initiative (SCI) Schools: The School Climate Initiative (SCI) supports the development of a healthy and positive learning environment for all students. The SCI framework is composed of six components: (1) leadership, (2) educational environment, (3) routines and procedures, (4) student recognition, (5) teaching and learning, and (6) interpersonal relationships. Schools participating in the initiative are supported in addressing these six components through a phased approach which helps to increase implementation fidelity. CHAMPS is a classroom management model developed by Safe and Civil Schools. CHAMPS training was provided to SCI schools on an as-needed basis with identified teachers. CHAMPS trainings included an overview the STOIC model which consists of:

- Structuring the class for success
- Teaching expectations
- Observing and monitoring for follow through and reinforcement
- Interacting positively with students
- Correcting student behavior fluently

Bullying Prevention: Bullying Prevention training upon request familiarizing the school staff with the DCPS Bullying Prevention policy and their roles and responsibilities identified.

Social Emotional Learning:

- June 2017: two-day training for early adopter high schools (Anacostia, Roosevelt, and Wilson) on the selected SEL student curriculum, School-Connect. Selected teachers and support staff received training on the content and implementation of the School-Connect curriculum.
- July 2017: Second Step SEL curriculum training: 1-day teacher and support staff training for implementing schools on curriculum content and implementation.
- Pre-Service and District-wide PD Day SEL/Equity trainings for school staff:
 - August 16th: Pre-Service: Extended Year School Staff: 90-minute interactive training on Self-Awareness and Implicit Bias
 - August 23rd: Pre-Service: Traditional Year School Staff: 90-minute interactive training on Self-Awareness and Implicit Bias
 - September 22nd: School Staff PD Day: 75-minute interactive training on Self-Management and Mitigating Bias followed by a 30-minute small group debrief.
 - December 1st: School Staff PD Day: 75-minute interactive training on Social Awareness and Appreciating Diversity, followed by a 30-minute small group debrief.

LEAP: LEAP is a system-wide professional development program designed to support teachers in becoming truly expert at teaching their content so that every student across the city experiences relevant, engaging, and challenging instruction every day. Through LEAP, teachers engage in a weekly cycle of development in small content-specific professional learning communities (LEAP Teams). These development opportunities include weekly LEAP seminars and individualized coaching.

Over the course of SY16-17 and SY17-18, LEAP Summer Intensive and school year development for LEAP Leaders focused on building leaders' ability to coach teachers through different touchpoints, including observation and feedback in SY16-17, and modeling and co-planning in SY17-18. LEAP Leaders utilize these touchpoints to coach their teachers around classroom management, behaviors, and social emotional skills, in addition to coaching around content and instructional pedagogy.

IMPACT: IMPACT, DCPS' effectiveness system for all school-based staff, evaluates the performance of teachers, school leaders, and other school-based staff. IMPACT outlines clear performance expectations and ensures high-quality job-embedded feedback in order to support ongoing professional growth.

When teachers successfully foster and reinforce social emotional learning (SEL) best practices in their classroom communities, they enable conditions where all of the instructional best practices described by the Essential Practices rubric (used during IMPACT classroom observations) can thrive.

The IMPACT team offered 76 professional development opportunities focused on each of the five Essential Practices during SY16-17. To date, 20 additional sessions have been offered in SY17-18. These sessions provide teachers with an overview of key rubric concepts as well as opportunities to discuss best practice video examples.

The IMPACT team partners with instructional superintendents to ensure school leaders have continued opportunities to norm instructional practice through the lens of the Essential Practices during cluster meetings. Additionally, in SY16-17, the IMPACT team offered 98 learning walks to support school leaders in deepening their understanding of the Essential Practices rubric. To date, there have been 30 learning walks and video debrief experiences this year.

Leadership Academy: During three Leadership Academies (August 10, 2017, September 29, 2017 and December 1, 2017) Principals and Assistant Principals received SEL training. Below are the high-level outcomes from each of the sessions.

- August:
 - Create a shared understanding of what is social emotional learning (SEL) and what is social, emotional, and academic development (SEAD).
- September:
 - Identify opportunities and strategies to incorporate SEL into their own practice.
 - Develop a plan to integrate SEL competencies, primarily self-management into common school practices which impact the adult community.
- December:
 - Develop a plan to integrate the competency of social awareness into the adult community within your school.

 DCPS was able to reduce the cost of the value-added contract by both reviewing necessary contract requirements and engaging in a competitive contracting process.*

The IMPACTplus teacher and staff member bonuses in SY16-17 totaled $15,260,325, with FY17 projections expected to be $15,250,000. The IMPACTplus school leader bonuses and step increases in SY16-17 totaled $1,172,500, with FY17 projections expected to be $1,200,000.

Q15: The following questions are regarding IMPACT, DCPS’s system for assessing the performance of teachers, school leaders and other school-based staff:

- a) Define each rating (i.e., highly effective, effective, developing, minimally effective and ineffective), and list the number of employees that are in each rating category in SY13-14, SY14-15, SY15-16, SY16-17;
- b) Provide the total number of employees by ward who were ranked highly effective, developing, minimally effective, and ineffective for SY16-17;
- c) Detail the total number of teachers in each performance category that were rated under IMPACT in FY17 and FY18 and subsequently remained employed by DCPS as educators the following fiscal year. Please also provide this retention information by ward.; and
- d) What changes, if any, were made to IMPACT in FY17?

a. IMPACT Ratings for Teachers

All teachers receive a final score between 100 and 400, which corresponds to one of five final ratings: Highly Effective, Effective, Developing, Minimally Effective, or Ineffective.

- Highly Effective (Final score between 350 and 400): This rating signifies outstanding performance. Teachers who earn Highly Effective ratings are eligible to advance to the next Leadership Initiative For Teachers (LIFT) career stage, giving them access to a variety of leadership opportunities as well as increased recognition and compensation.
- Effective (Final score between 300 and 349): This rating signifies solid performance. Teachers who earn Effective ratings are also eligible to advance to the next LIFT career stage (up to the Advanced Teacher stage), albeit at a slower pace than educators who earn Highly Effective ratings. These teachers will progress normally on their pay scales.
- Developing (Final score between 250 and 299): This rating signifies performance that is below expectations. If after three years, however, an educator is unable to move beyond the Developing level, she or he will be subject to separation. In addition, teachers who earn Developing ratings will be held at their current salary step until they earn a rating of Effective or Highly Effective, and they will not advance on the LIFT career ladder.
- Minimally Effective (Final score between 200 and 249): This rating signifies performance that is significantly below expectations. If after two years, however, an educator is unable to move beyond the Minimally Effective level, she or he will be subject to separation. In addition, teachers who earn Minimally Effective ratings will be held at their current salary step until they earn a rating of Effective or Highly Effective, and they will not advance on the LIFT career ladder.
- Ineffective (Final score between 100 and 199): This rating signifies unacceptable performance. Individuals who receive this rating for one year will be subject to separation.

c. Retention

DCPS retains the vast majority of its best teachers as a result of the district's best-in-the-nation performance-based compensation system, its career ladder (LIFT), its professional development system (LEAP), and the leadership of its principal corps. In fact, from SY16-17 to SY17-18 DCPS retained 91% of its Highly Effective teachers and 87% of its Effective teachers in the classroom.

2016-2017 IMPACT RATINGS FOR SCHOOL LEADERS

- Highly Effective: This rating signifies outstanding performance. School leaders who earn Highly Effective ratings are tapped for district leadership opportunities, and receive performance bonuses.

- Effective: This rating signifies solid performance. School leaders who earn Effective ratings are provided with developmental opportunities throughout the school year and tapped for leadership development opportunities.
- Minimally Effective: This rating signifies performance that is below expectations. Instructional superintendents prioritize working with these school leaders to identify their specific developmental needs and provide targeted professional development. School leaders who earn this rating do not receive salary step increases.
- Note about Ineffective: Prior to SY16-17, any school leader who was non-reappointed was assigned a rating of Ineffective, regardless of the IMPACT score they received. Starting in SY16-17, non-reappointed school leaders were assigned the IMPACT rating that corresponds to their IMPACT score. Thus, starting in SY16-17, no school leaders were assigned a rating of Ineffective.

d. DCPS made several changes to IMPACT in FY17, in preparation for SY17-18.

IMPACT updates for LEAP Leaders (LEAP is the DCPS professional development system)

- The LEAP Leadership Framework (LLF) is a rubric that outlines the actions LEAP Leaders take to successfully lead LEAP Teams and is now included as part of IMPACT for all teacher, instructional coach, and assistant principal LEAP Leaders.
- Instructional coach LEAP Leaders now have a student achievement measure that recognizes the important role they play in promoting student achievement.

Transition of Group 4 teachers to other IMPACT Groups

- Group 4 teachers (school-based ESL) transitioned out of Group 4 and moved to other teacher IMPACT Groups better aligned to the subject, grade, and type of instruction they provide.

Addition of standardized goals for early childhood teachers who use the GOLD® assessment

- Early childhood teachers using GOLD® now have four required goals that reflect the work teachers do to maintain current GOLD® certification/professional learning requirements, and to collect robust and timely evidence of student growth as measured by the GOLD® assessment.

Essential Practices (EP) rubric updates

- Examples were added to all EP rubrics that highlight alignment between LEAP and each of the five Essential Practices.
- Indicator language for one standard in the early childhood version of the Essential Practices rubric was updated to highlight a variety of formative evidence collection techniques teachers may use.

New IMPACT Groups

- Six teacher LEAP Leader IMPACT Groups were added; these groups include existing teacher IMPACT measures as well as the new LEAP Leadership Framework.
- An IMPACT Group was added for non-LEAP Leader instructional coaches.

These individuals were encouraged by their managers throughout the year to access professional development in order to further increase their effectiveness.

Q17: How many Highly Effective teachers were there in the 40 lowest performing school during FY17? How many of them had been retained from FY16? How many stayed in their school for the current school year?

In SY16-17, 25% of teachers in the 40 lowest performing schools were rated Highly Effective. Of these, 91% were retained from SY16-17 to SY17-18 in DCPS, and 89% remained in their same school.

Q18: What percentage of teachers improved their evaluation rating between SY15-16 and SY16-17? Please include data for the following: Minimally Effective to Developing; Developing to Effective; Effective to Highly Effective.

Overall, 32% of returning teachers who were not at Highly Effective in SY15-16 improved their IMPACT rating from SY15-16 to SY16-17. Additionally:

- 66% of returning teachers who earned a rating of Minimally Effective in SY15-16 moved to Developing or higher in SY16-17.
- 54% of returning teachers who earned a rating of Developing in SY15-16 moved to Effective or higher in SY16-17.
- 24% of returning teachers who earned a rating of Effective in SY15-16 moved to Highly Effective or higher in SY16-17.

Q19: The following questions are in regards to the Teacher Leadership Innovation (TLI) program:

- a. How many teacher leader participants were there during SY16-17? Please also indicate how many schools.
- b. How many teacher leader participants are there in the current school year?
- c. What outcomes were observed as a result of investment in this program?

Overview: Teacher Leadership Innovation (TLI) Roles

First launched in the spring of 2013, TLI Teacher Leader roles are unique hybrid roles that allow teachers to spend part of their day teaching, and part of their day leading other adults in the building. Through SY15-16, TLI Teacher Leaders served in roles crafted at the school level, either leading a team, coaching teachers, or leading an initiative. In SY16-17, the TLI Teacher Leader role narrowed to focus specifically on doing the work of LEAP, DCPS's new approach to teacher professional development. TLI Teacher Leaders, along with instructional coaches and assistant principals, all serve as LEAP Leaders.

During SY17-18, TLI Teacher Leaders serve as LEAP content leaders, leading DCPS's teacher professional development at the school level. LEAP Leaders lead content specific teams through weekly cycles of content knowledge development, lesson planning, formative observations, and student work analysis tied to the DCPS curriculum. TLI Teacher Leaders also provide individualized coaching to teachers through LEAP.

How many teacher leader participants were there during SY16-17? Please also indicate how many schools.

In SY16-17, there were 174 TLI Teacher Leaders across 73 DCPS schools, representing elementary schools, middle schools, high schools, and education campuses.

How many teacher leader participants are there in the current school year?

During SY17-18, there are 150 TLI Teacher leaders serving 72 DCPS schools, representing elementary schools, middle schools, high schools, and education campuses.

What outcomes were observed as a result of investment in this program?

As a result of the implementation of TLI roles in schools since 2013, we've seen improvements in teacher practice and student achievement across schools who have participated in the pilot. In SY16-17, TLI Teacher Leaders did the work of LEAP, facilitating adult learning and coaching for teachers.

In the first year of LEAP (SY16-17) professional development, the following outcomes were observed:

- 96% of LEAP Leaders and principals agreed that LEAP was a valuable use of time
- 91% of LEAP Leaders and principals credit LEAP with improvements to their teachers' content knowledge and instructional practice, and 84% agree that LEAP is leading to improvements to their teachers' openness to feedback and collaboration.
- 84% of LEAP Leaders and principals saw improvements to their students' learning, and 82% saw improvements to their students' engagement as a result of LEAP.
- 62% of teachers agreed LEAP is a valuable use of time; 66% agreed it's leading to improvements in their teaching; 63% agreed it will lead to increased student learning.

Additionally, each year since 2013, we've seen a significant increase in the number of schools who have chosen to include TLI Teacher Leader roles at their campus.

- TLI Teacher Leader roles continue to exist in the majority of DCPS schools. In SY16-17, 73 DCPS schools included TLI roles, up from 29 schools in SY15-16. In the current school year, 72 DCPS schools include TLI roles. Note: Since LEAP went full-scale in SY16-17, and all schools were required to identify LEAP teams and LEAP Leaders when launching the program, the number of TLI roles did not see an increase between SY16-17 to SY17-18.

- We continue to see a substantial number of TLI Teacher Leaders serve as LEAP Leaders – who can be assistant principals, instructional coaches, or TLI Teacher Leaders.
- Finally, of the 29 DCPS schools who were part of TLI in SY15-16, 27 of those schools continued with TLI roles in SY16-17.

Q20: The Mary Jane Patterson Fellowship is DCPS’ internal pipeline that recruits Assistant Principals, Coaches, Teachers, and Central Office Leaders into a 1.5 year fellowship to prepare them for the principal-ship. Please provide an update on the impact and results of this program in FY17 and FY18 to date.

Since its inception, the Mary Jane Patterson Fellowship has selected, trained and supported five cohorts of Patterson Fellows. Currently, four cohorts of Fellows have completed the 18-month program, and 26 current principals are former Patterson Fellows. The fifth cohort of the Fellowship will end the residency phase of the Program in June 2018, and will prepare for the principal selection process. Our sixth cohort will be selected in March 2018, and began their learning journey in April 2018. By August 2017, 23% of principals completed the Patterson Fellowship.

Results for the first three cohorts indicate that:

- The School Leader IMPACT rubric is DCPS’s effectiveness assessment system. School leaders are rated on both their leadership according to the District’s Leadership Framework and on student outcomes. School leaders’ final ratings range between ineffective and highly effective. Patterson Fellows have an average score that lands in the effective range.
- Fellows are performing as well as, and in some instances, out-performing other DCPS principals who did not complete the Fellowship, especially in two of the six areas of the Leadership Framework. The Fellows outperform in the area of personal leadership, which encompasses a principal’s ability to engage in continuous self-improvement, communicate effectively, demonstrate cultural competence, and persevere in the face of obstacles. They also outperform principals who are not Fellows in the area of school operations.
- Nineteen of the 22 Fellow-led schools had Level 4 and 5 increases on the 2016-2017 ELA PARCC assessment, and 14 of 22 had Level 4 and 5 increases on the 2016-2017 Math PARCC assessment. This does not include Cohort 4 Fellows who were not leading schools at the time of the PARCC assessment.

Q21: How many exit interviews/surveys did the agency conduct in FY17? Please provide a breakdown of the factors that led respondents to leave DCPS. Also, please provide the overall percentage of school-based staff that left DCPS in FY17.

In exit interviews, the single largest factor for teachers and other WTU members who were leaving DCPS was relocation outside of the DCPS area; however, two aspects of school culture were tied for the next most common reason. For other staff, including principals and assistant principals, other attractive job opportunities were the most common reason for leaving DCPS.

DCPS conducted 922 exit interviews from October 1, 2015 – September 30, 2016 (FY17), including:

Q22: Have there been any accusations by employees or potential employees that DCPS has violated hiring and employment non-discrimination policies in FY17? If so, what steps were taken to remedy the situation(s)? Please indicate if this was an increase or decrease from accusations made during FY16.

DCPS has seen a decrease in discrimination accusations in FY17 compared with FY16. DCPS received 23 accusations of employment discrimination in FY17. DCPS has addressed specific complaints in a variety of ways: investigating the allegations and issuing adverse actions where complaints were founded; defending against complaints of questionable merit; and reaching mediated resolutions to complaints.

To prevent workplace discrimination, DCPS provides training for managers on Equal Employment Opportunity laws, including the federal and D.C. Family and Medical Leave Acts, Title VII of the Civil Rights of 1968, the DC Human Rights Act, and the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act.

Q23: Please describe the agency’s procedures for investigating allegations of sexual harassment or misconduct committed by or against its employees. List and describe any allegations received by the agency in FY17 and FY18, to date, whether or not those allegations were resolved.

DCPS takes all complaints of harassment and misconduct very seriously. Once a complaint is submitted, the allegations are reviewed by the Office of Talent & Culture’s (OTC) Labor Management & Employee Relations (LMER) division or the Student Grievance Team, depending on whether the submission involves staff or student misconduct allegations. When LMER receives a complaint, the submitting employee is invited to participate in an introductory interview and submit any additional relevant information the employee would like DCPS to review. LMER reviews the initial submissions and conducts additional witness interviews, reviews documents, and evaluates case information to determine if the complaint was founded.

DCPS is aggressively communicating DCHR’s sexual harassment training, including multiple reminder messages to staff and supervisors. We are also closely monitoring completion and providing follow-up supports to ensure all employees meet mandated deadlines.

DCPS received three complaints of sexual harassment in FY17. All cases were investigated, and then, appropriate action was taken.

DCPS has received five complaints of sexual harassment in FY18. All cases are investigated, and then, appropriate action is taken.

Office of Equity

Leadership Development

- Georgetown University's McDonough School of Business. From 2013 through 2015, DCPS partnered with Georgetown University to develop and support an Executive Master's in Leadership (EML) degree program for a select cohort of DCPS principals. In January 2017, DCPS re-established that partnership with support from the DC Public Education Fund and the Walton Family Foundation to launch the first-ever district-charter leader cohort of the EML program. This unique program welcomed its second cohort in January 2018, which includes five DC Public School principals, five DC Public School central office leaders, and ten DC charter school leaders. The DC Public School Leaders (DCPSL) EML program will enhance the skills and capacity of public school principals, while facilitating best-practice sharing across district and charter schools.

School Mental Health Partnerships

Current

- DCPS maintains an MOA with the Department of Behavioral Health (DBH) to provide mental health prevention, assessment, and treatment services for DCPS students. These services are a supplement to the DCPS School Mental Health Services currently available in schools. The DBH School Mental Health Program (SMHP) provides a broad spectrum of mental health services, including primary prevention, early intervention, assessment, and treatment services. DBH SMHP clinicians are located on-site to provide consultation, treatment, and linkages to additional services. Additionally, the Primary Project is a school-based, early intervention/prevention program which reduces "mild" difficulties with social-emotional adjustment in the classroom for identified prekindergarten/4 through third-grade students. The DBH School Mental Health Program currently provides services in 41 DCPS schools (5 of which are currently vacant).
- DCPS also works with these community organizations:
 - Mary's Center, which specializes in working with Latino students and families and providing mental health and community support services.
 - Wendt Center, which specializes in providing grief and loss treatment.
 - Connected Psychology, which specializes in clinical and developmental mental health services and teacher consultation.

New

- Latin American Youth Center (LAYC) – DCPS is working on an MOA with LAYC. Once complete, we will match LAYC to DCPS schools. LAYC specializes in working with middle and high school students and their families. LAYC also offers substance abuse treatment.
- Foundations of Home and Community (formerly First Home Care)- First Home Care was our largest community mental health partner, and we will be monitoring the program in its new model. The Foundation’s MOA is in progress.

It also outlines the referral relationship with JGA/Show Up-Stand Out. This MOA was in place for FY16 and FY17.
- DCPS has an MOA with the American Institute of Research (AIR) to assess the effectiveness of text messaging strategies in reducing elementary grade absenteeism. The intervention text messaging started in October and will continue throughout SY17-18. AIR uses School Messenger to send automated attendance messages to families in twenty-four (24) of our elementary schools that had a history of low In-Seat Attendance.
- New: DCPS expects to have (March 2018) a MOA with a vendor, who will provide a pilot student attendance communication tech solution for parents. Ballou, Luke C. Sessions will result in agreement, and agreements will be monitored for compliance.
- DCPS, through DC PEF, contracted with Tripod Education Partners in FY17 to support the district-wide administration of student surveys as part of IMPACT. In order to assure appropriate DCPS terms and conditions were in place, DCPS' Office of General Counsel drafted a separate MOU to append the contract with DC PEF. DCPS then used DC procurement processes to contract directly with Tripod for FY18; this contract includes 5 option years. - DCPS has an MOA in place with Relay Graduate School of Education that allows DCPS paraprofessionals to engage in Relay's two-year teacher residency program. Relay Teacher Residency participants make a two-year commitment to the program: one year as a resident teacher and one as the teacher-of-record. Relay's preparation is centered on frequent and deliberate practice of concrete teaching techniques and a gradual "on-ramp" to teaching responsibilities. Relay residents can be placed in ECE, Elementary, Secondary Math, Secondary ELA, Secondary Social Studies, or Secondary Science Classrooms. Residents who successfully complete this program are eligible for state certification, at the conclusion of year 1 for an Initial credential (providing they meet all state certification requirements under Option A1) and a master's degree and Standard credential at the conclusion of year 2.
- DCPS has a contract in place with Urban Teachers to provide a residency pipeline for DCPS. Urban Teachers Residency participants make a four-year commitment to the program. Residents spend their first year placed in mentor teachers' classrooms, before becoming teachers-of-record during the next three years. Urban Teachers preparation is focused on rigorous, clinically-based coursework and ongoing coaching and support. Urban Teachers residents can be placed in ECE, Elementary, Secondary ELA, or Secondary Math classrooms. Urban Teachers provides recruitment and selection support to identify outstanding recent college graduates and career changers.
- DCPS has an MOA with Latin American Youth Center (LAYC) to expand the family-focused college prep programs for our ELL families in FY17.
- DC Public Education Fund. Through a partnership with the DC Public Education Fund and funding from Chiefs for Change, DCPS has established a partnership with 2Revolutions to support the design, launch, and implementation of the DCPS School Design Lab.

Office of Secondary Schools

- In FY17, DCPS College and Career Programs (CCP) division maintained MOAs with Kaplan, Princeton Review, Transcend, and Bell Curves for test prep services. We also maintained MOAs with UDC, Georgetown, GWU, and Howard University for dual enrollment partnerships. CCP also entered into a MOA with DC CAP to manage the ongoing relationship between the organization and our schools. For FY18, CCP is writing a MOA with Catholic University and American University for the dual enrollment program expansion.
- In FY17, DCPS maintained an MOU with the Department of Youth Rehabilitative Services to provide an educational services program for youth at the Youth Services Center (YSC). This updated agreement with DCPS provides DYRS the ability to provide youth confined at the YSC with quality and appropriate educational services, including academic, career exploration, and vocational programs to meet the needs of individual students.

Office of Elementary

- MOU between DCPS/Early Stages and with each participating Child Development Center: DCPS/Early Stages provides more than 200 child development centers with an Ages and Stages Developmental screening tool kit and annual technical assistance to support developmental screenings for all children attending the participating child care centers.
- MOU between DCPS and NON DCPS head start programs: DC Public Schools has an agreement to provide service provisions for children with Individual Education Plans (IEP's) that attend Bright Beginnings, EduCare Child Centers, and the Rosemount Child Care Center. DC Public Schools determines whether or not a child is eligible for services, develops the IEP, and provides staff to deliver services at the child centers included in the MOU.
- Early Stages utilizes a leased vehicle to transport families, as needed, to and from their scheduled special education evaluations. The leased vehicle is a part of the citywide MOU for 2017 and 2018 between DCPS and DPW.
- MOU between DCPS and OSSE for Special Education Sustainability: Early Stages receives funding to hire and maintain staff that specifically work on transition of eligible DC children and families from the IDEA Part C program to the Part B program.

Q26: Provide the Committee with a list of all non-DCPS sponsored (i.e., not run or currently organized by a DCPS staff member) after school programs and partnerships (during the school day and after school) that operated in DCPS during SY16-17 and to date in SY17-18 by school.

DCPS values the partnerships that we have with a number of community-based organizations. Through these partnerships, students receive academic and enrichment opportunities both after school and during the regular school day.

Please see Q26 Attachment_ Afterschool and Daytime Partnerships, FY17 and FY18 for more information.

Q27: The following questions are regarding DCPS capital budget:

- a. Provide the capital budget for DCPS and all programs under its purview during FY17 including amount budgeted and actual dollars spent per project. Please include whether the project was a phase or full modernization; whether or not the project was completed on time; and indicate whether or not the project went over budget (i.e. was a reprogramming required to close out the project). If the project was over budget, provide the cost differential and the reason why.

- b. Provide the list of all stabilization and small capital projects for FY17. Please include a description of the project; amount budgeted and actual dollar spent per project; and the status of the work (completed or ongoing).

Please see:

Q27 Attachment_FY17 Modernization List with Expenditures.

Q27 Attachment 2_DCPS Small Capital and Stabilization Project Summary 01.17.18

- Q28: Provide a current list of all properties supported by the DCPS budget. Please indicate whether the property is owned by D.C. or leased and which agency program utilizes the space. If the property is leased, please provide the terms of the lease. For all properties please provide an accounting of annual fixed costs (i.e. rent, security, janitorial services, and utilities).

A current list of all properties supported by DCPS is shown in Q28 Attachment_DCPS Properties and Leases. Tab 1 also includes the terms of buildings leased by DCPS. Tab 2 shows buildings that are used or leased to other entities. Some of these buildings have been removed from the DCPS inventory, while a few remain in our inventory but are being used by other District entities. The Department of General Services is responsible for issuing and maintaining leases for all DCPS buildings.

Please see the attachment labeled "Q88 Attachment_Fixed Costs" for fixed cost information.

- Q29: Provide the updated DCPS school facility condition assessments that is conducted annually by DGS.

Please see attachment Q29 Attachment_FCA Summary.

- Q30: Since DCPS has taken over the community engagement responsibilities from DGS, provide a narrative description about the DCPS process for community engagement with school communities, SIT teams, and other stakeholder groups regarding school modernization. What are the official requirements for community consultation and engagement for school modernizations? Provide a timeline of the engagement process as part of the modernization timeline. Include a description of how feedback is utilized and impacts the final design and construction of the modernized facility.

DCPS is committed to making community engagement a key part of every school modernization. Throughout the modernization process, DCPS engages with a number of school, community, and government stakeholders to ensure that the project is in line with community needs and practices. We use a variety of vehicles to engage our communities and gain stakeholder feedback. Further descriptions of these engagement methods and information about all current DCPS modernizations can be found at: <https://sites.google.com/a/dc.gov/dcps-school-modernizations/>.

School Improvement Team (SIT)

DCPS forms a School Improvement Team (SIT) at the beginning of every modernization project. A SIT is an advisory group that provides the community perspective on a modernization project and is comprised of school administration, teachers, parents, city leadership, and community members. The SIT meets several times a year and meetings are focused around all major project milestones. The committee members are expected to participate in meetings from the beginning of design through the end of construction. The SIT's primary role is to provide the school and community perspective at several critical stages in the design process including the development of the vision for the modernized school as well as the schematic designs. SIT members have the opportunity to directly engage the modernization project's Design Team and give feedback throughout the process. The SIT is also responsible for disseminating information about the progress of the school improvement to their peers and constituencies represented on the School Improvement Team. Currently we have the following active SIT Teams:

- Murch ES
- Bancroft ES
- Orr ES
- MacFarland MS
- Bruce Monroe at Park View ES
- Maury ES
- Kimball ES
- Hyde-Addison ES
- Coolidge MS/HS
- C.W. Harris ES
- Houston ES
- Eliot-Hine MS
- Jefferson MS
- Capitol Hill Montessori at Logan EC
- Eaton ES
- West ES

Project Website

All projects have a project website, which are a hub of project information from the beginning of design through the opening of the modernized school. The website is the primary way that DCPS communicates information to the school community and all relevant information including presentations, meeting notes, and updates are posted on the website in a timely fashion. The website also includes an overview of the project as well as contact information for the project's primary point of contact at both DCPS and DGS.

Bi-Weekly Updates

Throughout the course of the project, DCPS publishes bi-weekly updates to provide stakeholders with an account of ongoing work. The bi-weekly update also includes information about upcoming meetings and milestones. When the project reaches the construction phase, this update includes pictures from the project site to document progress. This update is sent out to all interested stakeholders including school leadership, the SIT, and members of the school and neighborhood community.

Q31: Describe the steps taken by DCPS in FY17 and to date in FY18 to maintain or achieve Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA") compliance at its facilities. Please include a narrative about funding availability for schools and agreements or plans with the DGS.

DCPS values the accessibility of its buildings for all of our students, families, staff, and community. DCPS works closely with the DGS on both modernization projects and small capital projects to achieve ADA compliance in our school facilities. All of our modernization projects are required to meet ADA. In addition to the modernization projects, "small capital" projects have been completed to modernize existing and building new elevators.

Below is a summary of the projects that were completed in FY17 and planned for FY18 to improve the accessibility of our buildings. There is $1.75M in FY18 for ADA projects. The following facility projects were completed in FY16, and DCPS and DGS plan to complete the remaining projects in FY17:

Q32: DCPS has repeatedly testified before the Committee on Education about redeveloping/reopening the Shaw Middle School site in Ward 6. Please provide the Committee with an update on this work, including copies of the feasibility analysis reports for both sites.

DCPS is committed to re-opening the Shaw building as a DCPS school. The re-opening of the building would provide DCPS the unique opportunity to increase access to high quality programming for District students and families. DCPS is assessing multiple options for use of the facility and will engage community partners in developing the program.

Academic Achievement and Student Supports

Q33: Since the release of the five-year evaluation of the Public Education Reform Amendment Act (“PERAA”) there is emerging consensus on the need for a citywide approach to educating children and public school planning because students often moved fluidly between DCPS and public charter schools. During FY16 Performance Oversight, DCPS described working with the Deputy Mayor for Education on the District-wide goals and monthly meetings with sector leadership to discuss education and planning. Describe how these meetings and collaboration advanced in FY17 and FY18 to date and what, if any, initiatives or planning have come from them.

In FY16, the Deputy Mayor for Education (DME) launched a Cross-Sector Taskforce to bring together parents and community members from both traditional and charter public schools, so they can provide recommendations on improving the joint-planning of public education in DC. DCPS is represented on the Taskforce by the Chancellor and three staff: the Chief of Family and Public Engagement, the Deputy Chief of Strategic School Planning and Enrollment, and the Chief of Elementary Schools. The Task Force has been meeting for just under two years and is divided into two main working groups – Openings, Closings, and Siting Working Group (OCS) and the At-Risk Working Group (AR). The OCS group is tasked with identifying ways in which there can be increased collaboration on facility decision on where to open, close and locate schools. The AR group has been focused on ways to better serve at-risk students in the city. Both working groups have been working to develop recommendations that will be shared with the broader community for feedback in February 2018. All meeting materials can be found on the Office of Deputy Mayor for Education’s website at <https://dme.dc.gov/collaboration>.

Q34: Discuss and provide plans for how DCPS has taken recommendations from the PERAA evaluation for students with special needs and the possibility for increased collaboration and applied that to policy. How is the DCPS Strategic Plan incorporating these recommendations and works?

The Division of Specialized Instruction (DSI) was moved into the Office of Teaching and Learning (OTL) to ensure that the agencies’ focus is on student achievement and inclusion in DCPS. DSI created a 2016-2019 strategic plan with feedback from a range of stakeholders to ensure that students with disabilities have an excellent, free, and appropriate education. The strategic goals are to (1) increase academic achievement, (2) include more students, (3) involve families in their child’s success and (4) prepare students for college or the work force.

DSI is intimately involved in the new DCPS Capital Commitment Strategic Plan for 2017-2022. Strategic Priority 4: Educate the Whole Child, Core Initiative 6 is specific to students with IEPs. “DCPS will provide a rigorous, joyful and inclusive academic and social emotional learning experience to ensure that all students are college and career ready. We will strengthen instruction for special education students and English learners.”

Q35: DCPS stated improving the high school experience, rigor, enrollment, and overall academic achievement as part of its focus for the previous three school years. The following questions are regarding this work:

In DCPS’ 2017-2022 Capital Commitment, the district has articulated multiple goals that underscore the critical importance of high school rigor, enrollment, and overall academic achievement. In order for all students to feel loved, challenged, and prepared (Goal 4), the district must offer rigorous and engaging coursework that prepares students for success in college and in life. Additionally, Goal 6 outlines a goal of 90% re-enrollment and 54,000 total students served by DCPS. To achieve this goal, DCPS must offer engaging high school experiences that encourage students and families to choose to re-enroll each year. The responses below speak to efforts the district has made in these areas.

a. What is the status of advanced placement (AP) courses in all high schools? Has DCPS seen an increase enrollment in these courses as a result of this initiative? Has this initiative been maintained?

All high schools are required to have a minimum of 8 AP courses. Exceptions are made for Opportunity Academies and Ron Brown HS, which only has 9th and 10th grades this school year and thus does not have students enrolled in the upper grades where AP courses are traditionally taken. Two schools, School without Walls and Wilson High School, offer more than 20 AP courses.

DCPS has seen marked increases in both the number of students enrolled in AP courses and the number of exams taken. From SY15-16 to SY16-17, the total number of AP students increased 8%. The total number of exams increased 12%.

b. What additional training or professional development support is available to DCPS teachers who were teaching AP courses for the first time?

DCPS encourages all teachers to attend a four or five-day Advanced Placement Summer Institute at a partner site a minimum of once every three years. This year DCPS also offered one-day PD sessions facilitated by the College Board in five different content areas. Additionally, sessions for AP teachers on district-wide PD days have expanded to include offerings for several of the largest content areas. Finally, this year DCPS has sought to leverage the experience of AP teachers with track records of success, coordinating and leading co-observations of their classrooms.

c. What is the status of every high school offering 20 elective courses? Are electives the same at each school, why or why not?

As in the past years, DCPS published a menu of 42 Certified Electives for schools to choose from when building their SY16-17 schedule. The menu was carefully designed to include a few options from each discipline (ex. science, business, music), and to include options that were already common across the district. The goal was for every student to find some courses that interested him/her while also maintaining equitable options across the district.

DCPS felt this approach struck the best balance between school autonomy and Central Office guidance. Schools were free to choose any 20 courses from the menu of 42, based on the interests of their student population and the skills of their teachers. As a result, some popular courses like African American History were offered at nearly every school, while some popular courses like Health Problems of Urban Society were only offered at a few schools. No two schools have the same electives, but there is a great deal of overlap. For example, see the elective choices of Woodson HS and Eastern HS:

Woodson HS	Eastern HS
African American History	Acting I
Beginning Swimming	African American History
Body Cond & Fitness I	African American Literature

In SY16-17, all comprehensive high schools continued to offer 20 electives, and some schools even added additional electives. Overall, the numbers were similar to SY15-16 when the model was first implemented. Ballou HS was the only school to not meet the 20 elective requirement. However, Ballou HS was granted a waiver because they offer AVID as a class to every student in their building, and thus have less flexibility in their schedule. AVID is a program to help students learn the skills necessary for college-success by infusing and supporting instruction that's occurring in traditional classes.

School	Ward	# of Elective Courses in SY15-16	# of Elective Courses in SY16-17	Change
Anacostia HS	8	20	21	+1
Ballou HS *	8	16	19	+3
Cardozo EC	1	24	25	+1
Wilson HS	3	27	27	0
Coolidge HS	4	19	25	+6
Dunbar HS	5	20	24	+4
Eastern HS 	6	23	22	-1
Roosevelt HS	4	26	22	-4
Woodson HS	7	25	20	-5

* Ballou HS is offering the full AVID path (grades 9-12) for all students in support of the elective requirements.

 Eastern HS is getting credit for Marching Band and Concert Band because of their afterschool programming.

Please note that the numbers shared above do not exactly mirror the numbers shared at the FY16 Performance Hearing because of a change in the menu of Certified Electives in SY16-17. To accurately show a change in scheduling options from SY15-16 to SY16-17, DCPS re-calculated the SY15-16 baseline based on the SY16-17 menu. The menu expanded from 36 to 43 options, so most schools will appear to have more electives in SY15-16 under the new definition.

d. What additional support did Central Office provide high schools with smaller enrollments in creating and supporting new courses?

It is important to ensure that every student had equal access to a breadth of options, whether they attend a large or small school, and we invest resources to make that possible. When DCPS created the requirement in SY15-16, the district anticipated that many schools would need to offer additional courses, and not just replace existing ones. DCPS also anticipated that many elective courses would not be fully enrolled due to the constraints of scheduling at smaller enrolled schools. Accordingly, DCPS adjusted our school budget model to consider these requirements and allocated proportionally more teachers to our comprehensive high schools in FY16. DCPS then maintained these funding levels in FY17 and made a slight modification to the menu of Certified Electives in SY16-17 to emphasize courses that had more curricular resources available.

e. Did DCPS conduct any evaluation with high school students or teachers to measure the impact of these investments?

To measure the impact of the elective requirement, DCPS tracked the number of elective courses that schools built into their master schedules through the start of SY16-17. DCPS also conducted an analysis in the Fall of 2016 to determine whether students were actually enrolling in the courses and found that 63% of students were enrolled in at least one certified elective course, compared to 58% in the year prior. This was an important check to make sure the new elective courses were reaching students and finding an audience.

6. A description of efforts by DCPS in FY17 and FY18 to date to increase the number of students of color enrolling in AP courses.

Woodrow Wilson HS has a teacher-led committee called Minorities in Action that aims to make Wilson’s AP program more inclusive and welcoming to students of color. They sponsor such activities as the student-led AP recruitment fair.

Several other high schools have addressed the gap in AP enrollment through “AP For All” initiatives that automatically enroll all students in a given grade in a particular AP course (for example, all 10th graders at School Without Walls are enrolled in AP US History).

Q36: What was DCPS’s procedure for awarding diplomas for SY16-17 and what changes, if any will be made for approving and awarding diplomas for SY17-18?

DCPS is committed to ensuring that all graduating students’ transcripts have been properly verified. As of January 2018, DCPS is completing a comprehensive review of its graduation verification processes to ensure adjustments are in place for verifying graduation requirements in 2018 and future years.

DCPS is currently conducting a transcript review process (January-March) that looks like the following:

- DCPS evaluates all DCPS High Schools 12th grade student transcripts through a central-office-based process.
- Through the transcript evaluation process, DCPS confirms and/or identify the following components of the transcript review process for all students classified as Grade 12 in each DCPS High School:
 - First Year of 9th Grade is Properly Documented

- A DCPS High School Program of Study/Diploma Category is Properly Documented
- Transcript has an up-to-date detailing of ALL academic work that the student has completed throughout his/her high school tenure (i.e. documentation of courses and earned credits from transfer students that previously attended out of district, non-public, or international academic programs).
- The student transcript and Letter of Understanding (LOU) are symmetrical. LOUs are academic planning documents that inform students and families about students' progress toward graduation, so the LOU must correctly account for the courses and earned credits that are documented on a student's transcript.
- All courses that a student has earned credits for are appropriately calculated in its proper category, based on course requirements and assignments determined by the Office of Teaching and Learning. For example, a student is not receiving a Lab Science Credit for a Robotics Course because it is code with a "S" prefix designation. The student should receive an elective and/or CTE credit for the Robotics Course.
- Credit totals are aligned to a student's tally of courses required for graduation. For example, a student's LOU may reflect that he/she has earned 2 World History Credits; however, a review of the student's transcript may indicate that the student completed the same World History course twice. Because a student must complete World History I and World History II, the student would be deficient 1 World History Credit.
- A Student Transcript does not report missing or invalid marks.
- A Student Current Course Schedule properly continues a course of study pathway towards graduation.
- After a school's 12th grade transcripts review has been completed, DCPS provides school leaders and counselors with a notification of all errors and discrepancies found in the records of their students, as well as recommendations for correcting student data and/or resolving issues with a student's academic report.

To affirm a student's graduation status in June and August, DCPS works with points of contacts (POCs) at each school to verify graduation beginning in May and July, respectively. These POCs create reports of their graduates that are then sent to DCPS for verification. This report includes any third- or second- year graduates, and POCs are tasked with delivering both the report and Graduation Verification Principal Sign-off form, signed by principals, to confirm that all marks and community service hours for graduates are correctly recorded in DCPS' system.

DCPS then pulls its own report, and meets with each school's POC to ensure it matches theirs. Students migrate to what's called the Actual Graduate Report once they have received passing final marks for all graduation requirement courses and have fulfilled community service requirements. Once confirmed, each diploma/certificate is reviewed to ensure correct spelling of student names. DCPS then delivers diplomas/certificates to each school's POC, who then signs a Graduation Processing Form to confirm receipt of all necessary diplomas. All process documents are then placed in a binder with the graduation documents for that school year.

Finally, DCPS merges all of the high school reports into a comprehensive report, which is then used to update the graduation data appearing on students' transcripts, change students' grade level to "G," and withdraw graduates prior to rolling over to next school year.

For SY18-19, DCPS plans to start the transcript review process for potential graduates earlier in the school year, in September instead of January, to allow ample time for verification.

Q37: Provide the Committee with the official policy for DCPS regarding credit recovery and requirements for a student to gain credit for a course he/she previously failed. Include in the response a narrative description of how central office tracks credit recovery coursework for all students.

The Central Office vision for the Credit Recovery program is that students learn at high levels of rigor and are prepared to successfully re-engage in the standard high school or post-graduation program. Credit Recovery teachers are DCPS teachers that are rated highly effective. They are expected to provide a content area lead-approved copy of their credit recovery syllabi that includes coursework, assignments, project-based learning, tests, and quizzes with their grading rubric. Each student is required to have a file folder on the school site that includes completed work and grades that can be tracked centrally. Beginning in January of 2018, teachers are required to incorporate online learning tools, which students must complete fully as a part of the Credit Recovery course, in order to receive credit. Student progress in online learning can be tracked centrally. Teachers are required to maintain a gradebook manager that includes student grades and assignments and can be accessed centrally. The student database, Aspen, allows central office to track journal entries, grades, and any other documentation relative to student coursework.

Revised ECR policy and guidance manuals for each of the stakeholders' supportive roles in Credit Recovery will be fully implemented SY18-19. To fully implement the vision of a rigorous and effective program, central office will engage students, teachers, parents, school communities, and various central office teams to assure a pragmatic and student-centered approach. The Office of Teaching and Learning (OTL) will collaborate with various Central Office teams to implement clear syllabus and grading guidance designed for the purposes of credit recovery that is in alignment with DCPS' standards and scope and sequence. OTL will vet a competency based curriculum design for credit recovery that will have a blended learning model component. It will include a pacing guide, assessments, tests, project-based learning opportunities, and quizzes that establish mastery and can feed into the student database for calculation of progress reports and grades.

Improvements will be made in SY18-19 in supporting the central office ECR Specialists role by creating an ECR team that is solely focused on supporting schools' successful implementation of Credit Recovery.

Q38: A major budget initiative for DCPS during FY16 was the launch of the Empowering Males of Color program and further support was allocated in FY17. Please also give a description of DCPS' efforts and actions with regard to the EMOC program including outcomes.

In SY16-17, DCPS continued to support efforts and actions as part of the Empowering Males of Color (EMOC) program.

EMOC Innovation Grants launched in February 2016 to support schools in developing programming specifically addressing the needs of Black and Latino male students. Grants (nearly $1.7 million) were awarded to 16 schools for programs focusing one of more of the following areas: core instruction, interventions, school culture, and leadership. Programming ranged in scope from empowering males through performance at Patterson Elementary School to building global citizenry through international travel at Eastern High School. While 2nd-4th graders learned to code and program robotics at Noyes Elementary School, Stanton Elementary School students engaged in intentional community building. The impact of these programs can be seen in several ways, including:

- At Eastern High School we saw a higher number of program participants on track in ACGR.
- At Patterson Elementary School there was a positive impact on the broader school community culture and family engagement through Harambe, STEAM nights, and student performances.
- At Stanton Elementary School interactions between participants became more positive in nature and engagement increased. Students refer to one another as “Kings” and “Queens”. Additionally, student and staff mindset shifts were seen.

Overall, we saw high levels of participation, engagement and enthusiasm. Student academic outcomes varied by school, with no specific trend noticed.

The Leading Men Fellowship is an opportunity for recent DCPS graduates (ages 18-24) who are young men of color to serve in early childhood classrooms and receive coaching and support in pursuit of a degree in education. This 10-month, paid education training program creates a link between our career-ready high school programs and our pipeline to bring men of color into our classrooms as educators. The Literacy Lab is our partner for this program. In SY16-17 there were 10 fellows working in the following schools: Aiton ES, Amidon-Bowen ES, Walker-Jones EC (2), Thomas ES (2), Turner ES, CW Harris ES, and Raymond EC (2). Each month, fellows received training from The Literacy Lab and professional development organized by the DCPS EMOC Team. There were approximately 80 boys of color in classrooms with a Leading Men Fellow.

Leading Men Fellows’ classrooms had a statistically significant higher percentage of students meeting Kindergarten readiness standards compared to classrooms without Fellows. For example, 90% of students in Fellows’ classrooms met readiness standards in foundational physical skills, compared to 79% in other classrooms, and 74% of students in Fellows’ classrooms met Kindergarten readiness standards in math compared to 69% who did not have Fellows. Lastly, 86% of students in Fellows’ classrooms met social-emotional readiness standards compared to 79% in classrooms without Fellows.

The Leading Men Fellowship has been highlighted in the Washington Post, USA Today and other media outlets:

EMOC 1000: Our goal for all EMOC programs was to impact 1,000 male students of color. This essentially became the combination of the work of all the Innovation Grant Programs, as well as the work of Leading Men Fellowship. Last year we reached close to 850 male students of color directly through this work.

The Male Educators of Color Collaborative (MEOCC) launched in summer 2016 as a professional networking group within DCPS that engages DCPS male educators of color by creating spaces for fellowship and by providing opportunities to positively impact our students and our district. Several networking opportunities were provided during SY16-17, as well as an end of year convening, which featured a keynote speech from Chancellor Wilson, a panel discussion around engaging males of color in education, and a recognition ceremony for the Leading Men Fellows. Since the launch, more than 140 educators of color have joined the collaborative.

Ron Brown College Preparatory High School opened in August 2016 as the city's first public, all male college-prep high school. Dr. Benjamin Williams serves as the school's founding principal. The school emphasizes college and career programming with a goal of a 100 percent graduation rate from both high school and college.

Q39: Describe how DCPS has maintained investments during SY16-17 and SY17-18 to date to address the social and emotional needs of middle grades students.

The Middle Grades Initiative (MGI) was created to provide support to middle schools and assist in ensuring each sixth through eighth grade student enjoys a middle grades experience that is academically challenging, culturally enriching, diverse, and socially stimulating. The initiative, which provides $23,000 in travel, $5,000 in supplies, and $100,000 in personnel spending to support the hiring of one additional social emotional staff support position, began in SY14-15 and has continued each year at all schools with middle grades.

In addition to these supports, In FY18, DCPS provided additional resources to support expanding extra-curriculars for students in 6th grade.

Finally, DCPS invested in expanding athletics in FY18, which allowed schools to add archery, wrestling, lacrosse, unified basketball, and a free summer program for middle school students. Participation in middle school athletics is a valuable part of the overall middle school experience, enhancing students' school engagement and sense of belonging.

- Examination of data from the National Longitudinal Study of Adolescent Health showed strong evidence that school extracurricular activities were positively associated with adolescents' friendships, both supporting existing friendships and developing new ones. Friendship ties were more likely to exist among activity coparticipants while controlling for other friendship processes. The authors noted that extracurricular activities provide settings "within schools that are uniquely poised to promote friendships, as they are typically voluntary, safe settings that allow adolescents space to interact and engage with their friends." (Schaefer et al., 2011).
- A study looking at social adjustment in making the transition from middle school (8th grade) to high school (9th grade) found involvement in sports helped students with friendships during the transition. The authors wrote, "Continuous involvement in sports and initiation of academic activities was associated with having more friendships." (Bohnert et al., 2013).
- Involvement in a moderate number of activity domains, among academic/leadership groups, arts activities, clubs, and sports, promotes a greater sense of belonging at school, increased academic engagement, and higher academic performance as measured by grade point average according to a study of urban, ethnically diverse students (40.7% Latino; 16.8% African-American, 12.7% Asian-American, 11.2% Caucasian, and 18.5% other ethnicity or two or more ethnic groups). The study authors suggest that it is necessary for schools to "retain ample extracurricular opportunities in order to foster adolescents' sense of belonging at school and higher academic performance." They conclude that, "it is essential that schools offer a number of extracurricular activities that capture the diverse interests of the entire student body. Schools can maximize the impact of these activities by encouraging disconnected, low achieving students to join a couple of activities. At a time when school budgets face reductions, this type of research argues for the importance of maintaining a breadth of extracurricular opportunities for students attending urban high schools.” (Knifsend & Graham, 2012).

- Contributors to Organized Activities as Contexts of Development: Extracurricular Activities, After-School and Community Programs, noted that making diverse clubs and activities available to a wide range of students is important. The opportunity to embed one’s identity in multiple extracurricular contexts and to experience multiple competencies facilitates attachment to school and adjustment. Activity participation is also linked to affiliation with peers who are academically focused. Adolescents can benefit from this synergistic system when they have opportunities to participate in diverse activities. (Barber et al., 2005).

During SY16-17, two middle schools, Hart and Kelly Miller, received training and ongoing support to implement Restorative Justice (RJ) practices. tRJ practices support and provide opportunities for students to strengthen social and emotional skills through community building circles.

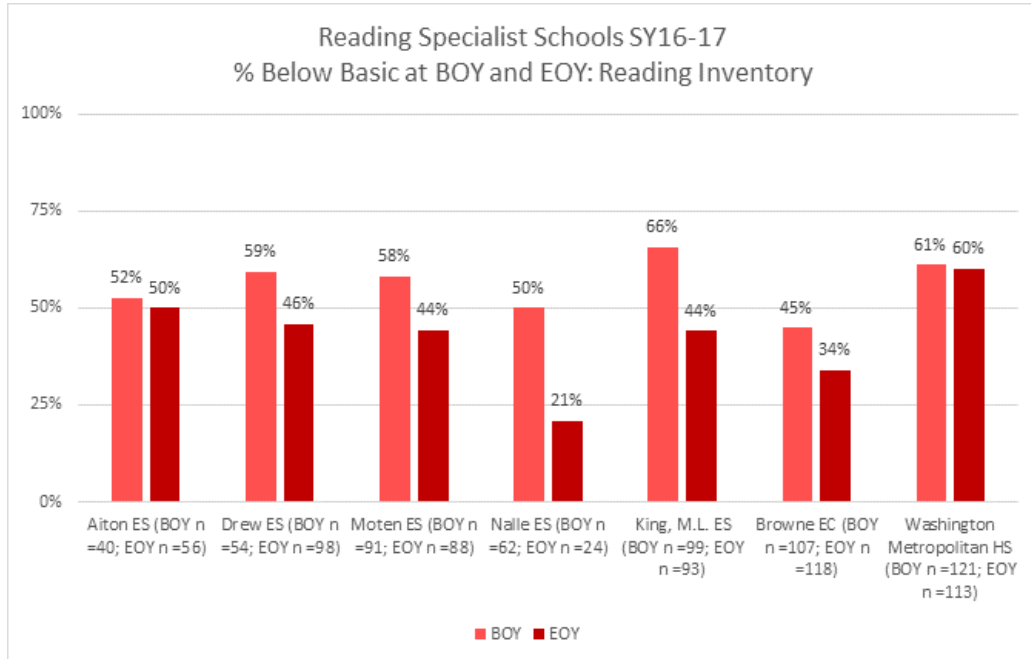

During SY17-18, DCPS purchased SEL curriculum for most middle schools. Nine of the 11 middle schools received training prior to the start of the school year on Second Step, a research and evidence based SEL curriculum for students, and began implementation during advisory blocks with all students. In addition, two of the eleven schools are implementing Developmental Design. One middle school (Deal) which has not yet adopted an SEL curriculum but has begun implementation of RJ practices thus beginning the process of supporting students’ social and emotional development through community circles.

Q40: During SY16-17, targeted schools received additional literacy personnel (Assistant Principals of Literacy, Reading Specialists, instructional coaches) as part of DCPS literacy goals. Please name those schools and describe gains made in literacy in FY16 and FY17. Also include schools participating with outside literacy partners for student assistance or partners for teacher supports for becoming reading specialists and provide all DCPS student outcomes in these programs as well.

After three years of investment, the Assistant Principals of Literacy initiative was replaced with the Assistant Principal – English Language Arts (AP-ELA) position within the LEAP initiative. DCPS used learnings from the APLs and their cohort model to move the district toward having all APs have an instructional focus and leading content specific PD in schools.

Reading specialists remain in schools. Reading specialists intervene with a caseload of approximately 25 to 35 students over the course of a year. DCPS measures the effectiveness of the role as a reduction in the number of students reading at the lowest levels over the course of a year. This is measured by DIBELS (Dynamic Indicators of Basic Early Literacy) and TRC (Text Reading Comprehension) for grades K-3, and by RI in grades 4-10). Every school with a reading specialist from the literacy investment schools reduced the number of students reading at the lowest levels, though the size of that reduction varied, as shown in the three graphs below. This year and last, Reading Specialists have monthly professional learning sessions to increase their capacity to address students’ needs.

Q41: Provide the total amount of funding that was allocated to and spent by each DCPS school for Title I in FY17 and FY18 to date. Please describe in detail how these funds were spent to enhance student achievement.

DCPS spent FY17 Title I funds on highly qualified instructional staff salaries, parent and family engagement activities, administrative costs to manage the grant funds, as well as school-specific initiatives such as the 9th grade academy, The Twilight Program, Inspiring Youth Program, Negligent and Delinquent Youth and Homeless Students, Reading Recovery and Literacy, and various instructional supports at Priority and Focus schools.

In FY18, in addition to continuing the programs from FY17, Title I funds will also be used to offer programming that supports students of color with an initial focus on maximizing the impact of Equity Support Programs: the Empowering Males of Color (EMOC) program and the Reign initiative. Lastly, Title I funds were also used to support the Summer School programs at participating Title I Schools in FY17, and will be utilized this way for FY18 as well.

Please see attachment labeled Q41 Attachment_ Title Allocations for the total amount of Title 1 funding, by school.

Q42: For each of the lowest performing schools, please provide a breakdown of the services and supports that were provided by the Office of School Turnaround (OST) in SY16-17, to accelerate their achievement. Please also detail by school the costs expended for these services and supports. Additionally, please provide a narrative description of the school improvement and turnaround methods the agency used in SY16-17 for each low performing school and how those indicatives impacted student achievement.

Goal 2 of DCPS' strategic plan A Capital Commitment 2012-2017 stated that the forty lowest performing DCPS schools (40/40 schools) will increase their math and reading proficiency rates by forty percentage points by SY16-17. To ensure that these schools are set up for success to achieve Goal 2, specific supports were developed to address individual school needs and accelerate student achievement.

First, we delivered a comprehensive set of supports for all 40/40 schools:

- Response to Intervention: DCPS' RTI process is a multi-tiered approach to the early identification of and provision of supports to students who struggle academically and/or behaviorally in the general education school setting. In SY16-17, all 40/40 schools completed and implemented school-wide RTI plans, with support from a central office RTI team.
- Human Capital: To ensure that the highest performing teachers are working in the 40/40 schools, we focused on attracting/hiring, growing, and keeping great teachers and principals at the 40/40 schools. Again in SY16-17, DCPS ensured that the first hiring fair of the season was exclusively for 40/40 schools and middle grades. Vacancies were loaded early for 40/40 schools to allow for earlier hiring. Also, we continue to offer higher performance-based bonuses for teachers and principals who receive a Highly Effective rating and work in 40/40 schools.
- Attendance and School Climate: DCPS maintained supports from the Attendance Matters initiative. In SY16-17, DCPS implemented its School Climate Initiative (SCI) in all 40/40 schools.

Second, we continued to provide targeted supports for targeted 40/40 schools, based on the individual needs of the schools:

- Extended Day Program: This is an opportunity for each 40/40 elementary school to extend school day until 4:15 PM daily (excluding Friday). The extra time is used to extend the literacy and math blocks, while providing enrichment and interventions at the individual student level.
- Ninth Grade Academies (NGA): The ninth grade academies are designed to provide critical support that lead to higher graduation rates. Ninth grade academies continued to experience success in SY15-16, with the first-time 9th grade promotion rate for the eight NGA schools increasing from 72% in SY14-15, to 74% in SY15-16, to 85% in SY16-17. The overall first-time 9th grade promotion rate for all high schools also increased - from 78% in SY14-15, to 84% in SY15-16, to 86% in SY16-17.
- Literacy Supports: Seven schools were staffed with Reading specialists using Title I. Reading specialists provide direct student support for our most struggling readers.
- Socio-emotional Supports: Each of our 40/40 middle schools was staffed with an Assistant Principal for Interventions (API), along with additional case management through a Wrapcare coordinator and a DBH clinician.
- Reading Partners: This is an opportunity for each 40/40 elementary school to have additional literacy support through a partnership.

DCPS provides a range of supports for its lowest performing schools, and because different schools need varying types and levels of support, the district provides differentiated support for each school. Each school has an assigned School Turnaround Specialist and a Data Specialist to support the planning and implementation for its turnaround plan, which incorporates various initiatives from other offices, as well as partnerships with external organizations (e.g., City Year, Turnaround for Children). These specialists work to ensure alignment of these different initiatives to each school's turnaround plan and support the school in maximizing its resources.

The Deputy Chief of School Turnaround and Performance (STP) continued to lead the work supporting 40/40 schools in SY16-17. The Deputy Chief worked with the Instructional Superintendents to implement best practices for rapid school improvement: ensuring the schools have strong academic leadership teams, addressing school climate, and focusing on teacher professional development, and RTI approaches. The STP division implemented Cluster X in SY16-17, a cohort of eleven 40/40 schools grouped together to receive strategic and targeted support from several DCPS offices (i.e., ELA curriculum, math curriculum, and family engagement). Data on the impact of the augmented support was inconclusive, so after the school year the decision was made to transition the cluster to the standard DCPS structure in the Elementary Division, while maintaining the benefit of the lower ratio of school leaders supervised by instructional superintendents.

Q42 Attachment_Focus Priority School Turnaround Initiatives with FY17 Title I Costs highlights the Title I expenditures for services and supports provided by STP in SY16-17.

Q43: Please provide a breakdown of which schools participated in extended day for SY16-17. Please also include which grades were impacted; how much additional time was added to the school day; and outcomes observed as a result of this investment.

DCPS' Extended Day program is not simply an after-school program, but an actual extension of the traditional school day. An hour of instructional time is added to at least four days of the school week, extending the school day until 4:15 PM. During this time, teachers spend more time on instruction, which gives students more time on academic tasks. Ideally, this instruction is delivered by the same teachers who students are with during the traditional school day, generating a natural extension of the school day. Attendance is not optional and this approach eliminates the non-instructional variance permitted in after school programming. In SY16-17, 30 schools participated in the Extended Day program – 20 elementary schools, 9 education campuses, and one middle school.

Overview of FY17

In FY17, DCPS implemented Extended Day at 30 schools. The chart below details which schools are participating as an entire student body, as well as those targeting specific grade levels. Select implementation focuses on specific students. Participation in Extended Day is voluntary for teachers and aides in accordance with the union contracts. As such, some schools from the FY17 cohort did not return the following year.

Looking forward to FY19

The Extended Day Cohort will continue programming at 25 current sites. In addition to these sites, the cohort anticipates providing programming to MacFarland Middle School’s newly expanded middle school. The Extended Day Cohort will also continue to strengthen its ability to ensure uniformity across the cohort regarding operating procedures and fidelity of programming implementation.

Q44: Describe DCPS’ efforts in FY17 and to date in FY18 to help students prepare for the SAT and ACT. Please include the number of students impacted by these efforts and observable outcomes as a result. Did DCPS see any improvements or differences in outcomes based on program (i.e., Princeton Review, Kaplan, Khan/College Board) or delivery method (i.e., in-class or online).

During FY17, the senior cohort increased their SAT scores by an average of 44 points from their first SAT in March 2016 to their final superscore in Spring 2017, raising the average score from 885 to 929; this is an especially strong outcome given that 92% of the Class of 2017 took the test at least once. In addition to test prep, increased attention from school leadership and a stronger college-going culture have played a part in increasing student scores.

In FY18, DCPS has expanded test prep programming to two additional schools, such that 18 DCPS schools have established test prep programming. In Fall 2017, 585 students enrolled in SAT prep programming. As in previous years, test prep programming has included free online resources offered through Khan Academy, as well as in-person services. In-person service provision and funding sources (in parentheses) are found in the table below.

At the conclusion of SY17-18, DCPS College and Career Programs (CCP) division will conduct additional analyses to assess the effectiveness of test prep programming by provider and delivery method.

DCPS hopes to expand dual language options across the city.

Schools seeking to begin a new dual language program must complete a number of steps:

- Notify the Office of Teaching and Learning (OTL) and the school's instructional superintendent in writing;
- Meet with members of the OTL Language Acquisition team to discuss implementation considerations;
- Conduct a community survey to determine the level of support;
- Submit an application to OTL and the school's instructional superintendent; and
- Develop a proposed five-year implementation plan.

Q46: Please provide the following information for the DCPS NAF academies for SY16-17 and SY17-18 to date:

- a) The school name and academy type;
- b) The number of students enrolled in each program;
- c) A description of the coursework for each academy type; and
- d) Any notable milestones or achievements in terms of student outcomes as a result of this program.

Please note that the following numbers reflect NAF academy enrollment as of January 3, 2018. The SY16-17 numbers represent the final numbers reported to NAF at the end of the school year and may be slightly different from the SY16-17 numbers presented in last year's Performance Hearing Questions, as rosters may have changed during the school year.

Q47: As part of the investment in high schools, during FY17 DCPS planned to invest in counselors and other supports to help guide students through high school and beyond. Please describe how this was accomplished and how the work is continuing in SY16-17. Indicate if the role and responsibilities of DCPS guidance counselors changed as a result of this investment. Please also provide the total number of guidance counselors in FY14, FY15, FY16, and FY17 and the ratio of guidance and/ or college and career counselors at each of the DCPS high schools in FY17 & FY18 to date.

To strengthen counseling services, DCPS ensures that all counselors receive the professional development opportunities necessary to address student needs. During SY17-18, DCPS continues to provide:

- A minimum of four district-wide professional development sessions on college- and career-readiness, and the use of data to make decisions for student success in high school and beyond;
- Tools to implement and manage effective school counseling programs; and
- Strategic alignment of counseling programs to a school's mission.

In SY17-18, the Inspired Youth Program and Youth Services Center are the only secondary schools that do not have school counselors. All comprehensive high schools and opportunity academies have at least one guidance counselor, with an average counselor-to-student ratio of 1:250. The exception to this ratio is Dunbar HS, which has a ratio of 1:584 (see table below).

The role of, and investment in, the guidance counselor has not changed; however, DCPS is providing additional support for students' college- and career-readiness through the College and Career Coordinator Initiative.

In SY16-17, DCPS piloted the College and Career Coordinator Initiative at Anacostia, Ballou, and Woodson High Schools (one coordinator at each of the listed schools, three total). College & Career Coordinators oversee proactive, targeted, and coordinated college and career guidance activities for 9th-12th graders with particular emphasis on 12th graders. Student pathways include 4-year degree, 2-year degree, career education, apprenticeship program, military, or employment. The initiative expanded in SY17-18 to include six additional schools: Cardozo EC, Columbia Heights EC, Dunbar HS, Coolidge HS, Eastern HS, and Roosevelt HS (nine total College and Career Coordinators).

Especially at our lowest performing high schools, we have found that many students graduate without a postsecondary plan in place. Having a full-time College & Career Coordinator whose exclusive responsibility is to ensure that all students are developing smart postsecondary plans and are receiving appropriate college and career supports, delivered cohesively and with fidelity, can help remediate this. Coordinators collaborate closely with School Counselors, DC CAP Advisors, and other members of school teams to achieve the following outcomes:

Postsecondary Planning:

- Every 10th, 11th, and 12th grader will have a postsecondary graduation plan
- Students will receive tailored supports to achieve their plans, whether college-bound or career-bound
- Increased college data sharing with principals and key school staff

College Exposure:

- 25% increase in college tours by providing college tours for at least 50% of 9-12th graders
- Increased actionable information to families on supporting students to college
- College & Career Expos

College Application:

- 3%-pt increase in FAFSA completion rates
- 90% FAFSA completion among eligible, college bound 12th graders
- 5%-pt increase in the percent of student with 1+ college application
- 5%-pt increase in college acceptance to colleges with 40%+ graduation rate
- SAT:
 - Implement SAT prep & administration with fidelity
 - Increased PSAT/SAT participation rate
 - Increased PSAT/SAT scores

Increased Supports to Career Bound Students, in the form of:

- Career Coaches
- Job training/Placement opportunities
- Mock Interviews
- Resume Workshops
- Career Bridge opt-in program for Career Bound students to access paid internships before graduation

Program outcomes from SY16-17 at Anacostia, Ballou, and Woodson include:

- 98% of seniors identified a postsecondary pathway during Summer 2016 so they could begin receiving tailored supports at the start of the school year
- 501 students participated in college tours
- Increased SAT participation rates
- College & Career Expos at all three schools

The nine FY18 College and Career Coordinators oversee proactive, targeted, and coordinated postsecondary planning activities for students in grades 9 through 12, with a particular emphasis on 12th graders. Coordinators help students develop a postsecondary plan that aligns with their skills and interests, and organize tailored supports to help students actualize their plans. Postsecondary plans are diverse, including four- and two-year degrees, career training programs, apprenticeships, military service, and immediate employment.

The College & Career Programs goals for this initiative in SY17-18 are as follows:

- 5 percentage point increase in the percent of students with at least one college application
- 5 percentage point increase in college acceptance to colleges with a graduation rate of at least 40%
- 90% FAFSA completion among eligible, college-bound 12th graders
- Organize college exposure opportunities (including college tours) for at least 50% of 9-12th graders
- 90% career portfolio completion for career-bound students, including a professional resume and at least one application to a postsecondary training program or job
- 85% of career-bound students receive a job or internship offer, or are accepted to a postsecondary training program; and 70% of career-bound students who were offered acceptance are placed

Q48: In SY13-14, DCPS established targeted Ninth Grade Academy programs at eight comprehensive high schools across the District to help first-year ninth grade students successfully complete the first year of high school. Please provide an update on the implementation and the outcomes observed in SY16-17. In your response, please include comments on the Ninth Grade Academies impact on truancy and attendance, promotion, and school climate.

The following data highlight outcomes in DCPS Ninth Grade Academies (NGA) in SY15-16:

- Ninth Grade Academies promoted 85% of academy students, up +31% from pre-academy promotion rates.
- In-seat Attendance is up slightly in academies, at 79%.
- Suspension rates are reduced to 10% suspended once and 5% suspended more than once, down 8% and 16%, respectively.
- Overall truancy rates are down 5% in academy schools, although academy students’ truancy rates increased 6% last year.
 - Anacostia, Ballou, Dunbar, Eastern, and Roosevelt all had increased truancy rates.
 - Cardozo and Coolidge had dramatically decreased truancy rates, down 20% and 47%, respectively.
- Academy implementation continued to strengthen. In SY16-17, Cardozo was the first academy to put all components in place.
- Close progress monitoring and frequent interventions continued to prepare students for future success. Instructional design and grading practices still vary, and are an ongoing focus of academy development.

Below are data showing the results of SY16-17:

Q49: Besides Ninth Grade Academies, please provide a detailed description of all efforts, programs, or initiatives, planned or undertaken, in FY17 and to date in FY18 to increase the graduation rate. For any listed programs, please identify how many youth are served, what specific services are provided, any plans for expansion, and the capacity of any program to serve students with disabilities and English Language Learners.

A diploma is a passport to what's next in life. As DCPS, it is our responsibility to graduate students with the skills to succeed in college, career, and beyond, and only when they have demonstrated mastery of the course material. We must keep expectations high for all students, support students in meeting those high expectations, and have the courage to improve. To do that, we are building strong high schools, with a profile of a DCPS graduate, so every student, parent, and community member knows what being a DCPS graduate means, and has confidence that our graduates are prepared for college, career, and life. We maintain clear focus on increasing graduation rates through two basic practices: first, DCPS identifies students who are off-track for graduation and does student-specific planning; and second, DCPS provides opportunities for those students to get back on track. Specific efforts and initiatives to support graduation are outlined below.

- The Adjusted Cohort Graduation Rate (ACGR) Tracker and ACGR Specialists support secondary school leaders in Clusters 8 and 9 (high schools) – from Principals and Assistant Principals to Counselors and Registrars – in tracking individual student progress toward on-time graduation. The ACGR Tracker provides an up-to-date view of course and transcript information for each student, as well as early warning indicators for students who are off-track, making it easier for schools to monitor all students beginning in their 9th grade year. ACGR Specialists provide support interpreting ACGR data, compiling student-level analyses, creating structural interventions, and implementing intervention plans to help students get back on track to graduate in four years. This work is done in alignment with the district's RTI initiative to provide student-specific intervention support. ACGR Specialists also support the high schools in their withdrawal process, collecting proper withdrawal documentation for removing exiting students from their ACGR cohort. In FY17, DCPS removed 554 students from our 2017 ACGR cohort by submitting proper withdrawal documentation to OSSE; this represented 75% of withdrawn students. DCPS' goal for cohort clean-up in FY18 is 80%.
- The Pathways Program was created in 2016 in response to the students in DCPS who are at risk, falling behind, and off-track to graduate high school and progress to post-secondary success. Pathways coordinators are full-time, school-based staff members at the following schools: Anacostia, Ballou, Ballou STAY, Cardozo, Columbia Heights Education Campus (added in SY17-18), Coolidge, Dunbar, Eastern, Luke C. Moore, Roosevelt, Roosevelt STAY, Washington Metropolitan, Wilson, and Woodson. Pathways coordinators review student academic data (through the ACGR tracker) and choose 30-50 off-track students who are failing courses to support intensively for the year. A key element of this support is working with each student to create and maintain an intervention plan that addresses root causes of the academic failure and establishes SMART goals for each of the courses the student is struggling in. The Pathways coordinator serves as the mentor and advocate for these students and helps ensure they receive the help they need to get back on track. Pathways served 536 students during SY16-17 and 90% (478) of these students had an active intervention plan.
 - In SY17-18, 435 students have already created an intervention plan with the support of their Pathways Coordinator and this number continues to grow daily. There are many additional students in our high schools who are off-track for graduation and/or failing courses, but are not served specifically by the Pathways program. There is still an expectation that these students have an intervention plan in place and documented in our student information system. This is tracked and monitored through the ACGR process. At the end of the first term in SY17-18, 3247 students in our high schools were identified as off-grade level and/or failing at least 2 classes; as of January 5, 2018, 2022 (62%) of these identified students had an active academic plan in place. Intervention plans are created and monitored by a combination of school staff – Counselors, Assistant Principals, Social Workers, RTI Coordinators – and are expected to be updated with relevant information at each term. Intervention plans should specifically address why a student is off-track to graduate (including previous and current course failure) and create a concrete path toward on-time graduation. These plans can include behavior and attendance interventions as well, but are mainly focused on academics.

- The International Academies (IA) at Cardozo EC and Roosevelt HS provide unique academic programming for recently arrived English learners (EL) in partnership with the Internationals Network for Public Schools (INPS). The IA programs employ the 5 Cope Principles of the INPS, which include heterogeneity and collaboration, experiential learning, language and content integration, localized flexibility and responsibility, and one learning model for all. Additional training is provided to program and school leaders, instructional staff, and social and emotional support staff, so that all members of the IA program staff are prepared to work with the student population and support academic achievement and social and emotional well-being. The leadership and IA staff also enjoy collaboration with the International Academies in Alexandria Public Schools and Internationals Schools of Prince George's County Public Schools. It should be noted that the IA programs enroll a large number of students who have experienced some level of limited or interrupted formal education, trauma experienced in the students' journey to the US, and challenges that occur when families are reunified following a lengthy separation. In addition, IA program staff work closely with LAD and community providers in order to support students' immigration needs to the extent possible.
 - The IA at Cardozo opened in SY14-15 with two team of students in grades 9-10, for a total of 196 students. In SY16-17, the IA at Cardozo covered all high school grades with over 300 enrolled students and its first full graduating cohort of 53 students, including 44 students as 4-year grads, 7 students as 5-year grads, and 2 students as 6-year grads. Although DCPS is measured by a 4-year ACGR by the OSSE, LAD and the IA leadership recognize that the students served in the IA programs may need more flexible graduation goals. A major accomplishment for IA at Cardozo was that the 2017 IA graduates were offered $2,064,560.40 in scholarship money. This was an incredible achievement for the students and their school. It is through the work led by the bilingual counselors that IA was able to support so many students through to graduation and post-secondary plans.
 - The IA at Roosevelt opened in SY16-17 with one team of students in grades 9-10, for a total of 135 students. In SY17-18, IA at Roosevelt serves a larger team of grades 9-10 and a modified 11-12 cohort, for a total of 237 students.
- Another initiative undertaken to ensure students are prepared to graduate is the Evening Credit Recovery program. In SY16-17, this was offered at Anacostia, Ballou, Cardozo, Coolidge, CHEC, Dunbar, Eastern, Inspiring Youth Program, Luke C Moore, Phelps, Roosevelt, Roosevelt STAY, Washington MET, Youth Services Center, Wilson, and Woodson. The Evening Credit Recovery program identifies students who have failed courses previously that will hinder them from graduating with their entering 9th grade cohort, and provides them with the appropriate course offerings to get them "on-track" or eligible for graduation, either through evening courses or summer school. Summer Credit Recovery programs, for example, allow DCPS to graduate approximately 300 students annually. Additionally, offering students opportunities to recover credits in the evening or in summer school, allows them to have access to diverse and grade-appropriate programming during the regular school day. This helps to maintain student engagement for our students most vulnerable to dropping out.
- Over the past two months, DCPS has engaged in an intensive review of policies and procedures related to graduation, and DCPS will be taking several next steps to improve these processes over the coming months. To ensure that all students who graduate have earned their diplomas, DCPS will do a comprehensive transcript review of all seniors, starting with the class of 2018, and will begin performing a monthly review of seniors' progress toward graduation. For those who are not on-track, instructional superintendents and school leaders will work with school counselors to ensure there is a plan in place to ensure every student's success.

Q50: Provide the following attendance data for the entire agency by grade level, by school or program that utilizes DCPS as an LEA, and by whether or not the students have an IEP, for school year 2016-2017 and the 2017-2018 school year to date. Include any non-public school attended by students with a disability:

- a. The number and percent of students with 1-5 unexcused absences;
- b. The number and percent of students with 6-10 unexcused absences;
- c. The number and percent of students with 11-20 unexcused absences;
- d. The number and percent of students with 21+ or more unexcused absences;

Please see Q50 Attachment_SY16_17 and SY17_18YTD Attendance Data for data responsive to Q50 items a-d. SY17-18 information can be found in tabs 1-3, and SY16-17 data can be found in tabs 4-6.

Note: As requested, this data reflects all unexcused absences for all DCPS students, including non-compulsory-aged students; therefore, this is not equivalent to reported truancy data.

- e. Of the truant cases for students who have missed 10+ days please state how many have been referred to CFSA and please provide a narrative describing the root causes of the unexcused absences; and Student Support Team (SST) conferences are held when a student reaches their 5th unexcused absence. Staff members are required to document the reasons for these absences (e.g., root causes). In general, students listed academic concerns, health, transportation, family issues, clothing, day care, “parentified” minors and executive life management issues, and “other” as the most persistent barriers to their regular school attendance. After 10 unexcused absences, students are deemed “chronically truant”, and those who are between the ages 5-13 and have accrued 10 all-day unexcused absences, are required to be referred to the District’s Child and Family Services Agency (CFSA). The information gathered at the five-day conference, if completed prior to the CFSA referral, is included as part of the referral.

Thus far this school year (as of January 15, 2018), 605 students accrued ten (10) or more all-day unexcused absences, resulting in the need for a CFSA referral. DCPS has referred 277 (46%) of these students. In SY16-17, 1,573 of 1,969 eligible students were referred.

- f. For cases involving students 14 years and older, how many per school have been referred to CSSD.

The following table shows the number of cases referred to CSSD by school during SY16-17:

Q51: What was the chronic absenteeism rate for DCPS for SY2016-2017?

DCPS's chronic absenteeism rate for SY16-17 was 31.1%. Note, that “chronic absenteeism” refers to students missing 10% of total school days, regardless of whether the absences are excused or unexcused, while chronic truancy triggers when a student accumulates 10 or more unexcused absences.

Q52: Provide an update on the work of the school-based student support teams. In your response please indicate number of students referred to and served by these teams in SY16-17 and SY17-18 to date. Please also identify the number of students referred for academic, attendance and/or behavioral concerns etc.?

For attendance only, in SY16-17, 19,792 students accrued five or more unexcused absences, resulting in attendance SST referrals. DCPS held SST meetings for 14,873 (75%) of these students. Thus far this school year (as of January 15), 10,804 students accrued five or more unexcused absences, resulting in attendance SST referrals. DCPS held SST meetings for 5,529 (52%) of these students. DCPS is providing on-the-ground supports for schools in implementing our attendance protocol and helping student support teams meet regularly to highlight and respond to student needs. Additionally, targeted support is being provided to 13 of our secondary schools. Thus, we are expecting compliance to meet or exceed last school year’s rate.

For academics and behavior, in SY16-17, there were 30,230 students flagged in DCPS’s Student Information System Aspen as needing academic supports, and 2,664 students were flagged as needing behavior supports. A total of 30,344 students were flagged as needing academic and/or behavior supports, which means that 114 students were referred only for behavior concerns, and 2,550 students were referred for behavior and academic concerns.

In, SY15-16 DCPS developed our SST/RTI database and required schools to track more consistently. Here we compare FY15 to FY17, and we see a dramatic increase in referrals/flags in SY16-17 because data tracking became uniform and mandatory.

	SY16-17	SY14-15
Referred – Academic	30,230	917
Referred – Behavior	2,664	524
Referred – Academic and/or Behavior	30,344	1,441
Students Served	4,696	1,011
% Served	15.5%	70%

SY17-18 referral and service data marks further evolution of DCPS’s approach to identifying and addressing student needs. This SY, both elementary schools and secondary schools have changed how student need is identified and documented, and what is tracked in the way of serving students with supports.

High Schools

At the end of the first term in SY17-18, 3247 students in our high schools were identified as off-grade level and/or failing at least 2 classes; as of January 5, 2018, 2022 (62%) of these identified students had an active academic plan in place. Intervention plans are created and monitored by a combination of school staff – Counselors, Assistant Principals, Social Workers, RTI Coordinators – and are expected to be updated with relevant information at each term. Intervention plans should specifically address why a student is off-track to graduate (including previous and current course failure) and create a concrete path towards on-time graduation. These plans can include behavior and attendance interventions as well, but are mainly focused on academics.

Middle Schools

As of January 16, 2018, the number of students flagged as needing plans for academics is 4,434. To date, 1,027 of those students have been served (23%). As of January 16, 2018, 371 middle school students were referred for behavior, of which 155 (42%) have been served through student supports.

Elementary Schools

Elementary Schools were given flexibility in selecting a system of monitoring that is conducive to staff familiarity and utilization in tracking RTI interventions and progress monitoring with fidelity. The tracking of interventions is monitored by ES Instructional Superintendents. Elementary Instructional Superintendents had to approve of these RTI frameworks and review student progress data with principals during monthly site visits.

- Q53: Describe in detail DCPS’ programs or interventions to address students’ truancy and increase attendance that were undertaken in FY17 and FY18 to date. Please include:
- a) The number of students each truancy program serves;
 - b) An account of any progress made in each program/initiative; and
 - c) Plans to expand truancy prevention programs.

DCPS is making several critical shifts on attendance in our five-year strategic plan, by focusing on prevention of attendance issues, ensuring students are engaged at school, and improving communication with families. Everyone must believe that attendance is the first step toward student achievement and every DCPS stakeholder has a role to play in improving attendance. DCPS is focused on:

- A unified communications strategy: DCPS is providing school and district leaders with common language and talking points to emphasize the importance of attendance. This also includes the creation of an attendance toolkit with resources, presentation slides, and documents with clear protocols and expectations for school leaders to engage in the conversation.
- Improved notifications to families: DCPS is alerting families when students miss any class. This includes updating the language in our absence letters to emphasize the academic impact of chronic absence, mailing letters daily to families, sending alerts and robocalls on a more frequent basis (including period-by-period for secondary schools), and upgrading email and texting systems so teachers and schools can keep families up to date on student absences.
- Multi-tiered System of Supports: DCPS is designing a multi-tiered system of supports, with an initial focus on reducing chronic absenteeism. Research shows that chronic absenteeism in schools is a primary cause of low academic achievement and a predictor of which students are at a higher risk for dropping out. Tier I represents universal strategies to encourage good attendance for all students. Tier II provides early intervention for students who need more support to avoid chronic absence. Tier III offers intensive support for students facing the greatest challenges to getting to school. This year, DCPS, via its attendance strategic work and the School Climate Initiative, has placed additional focus on Tier 1 universal strategies to ensure that all students feel welcomed and encouraged to attend school on time every day.
- Robust school-based supports: DCPS is providing on-the-ground supports for schools in implementing our attendance protocol and helping student support teams meet regularly to highlight and respond to student needs. This includes rigorous walkthroughs at targeted middle and high schools, recommendations to improve attendance structures, support in creating school-wide attendance plans, and professional development on best practices for supporting students. Schools receiving intensive attendance support are:

Middle Schools	# of Students	High Schools	# of Students
Brookland MS	237	Anacostia HS	380

Jefferson MS	314	Ballou HS	890
Johnson MS	255	Ballou STAY HS	500
Kelly Miller MS	387	Eastern HS	769
Kramer MS	193	Luke C. Moore HS	253
Sousa MS	228	Washington Metropolitan HS	196
		Woodson HS	489
Total: 4,895 students across 13 schools

- 100 percent attendance entry: DCPS is ensuring that attendance-taking policies are clear and systems support a 100 percent accurate attendance record every day. This includes clarifying and communicating attendance-entry expectations and daily monitoring of schools who do not enter attendance by 11:00 a.m. each day.
- Frequent and robust progress monitoring: DCPS is compiling and sending essential compliance data and key attendance metrics to school and district leaders on a weekly (or sometimes daily) basis to encourage continuous improvement cycles.

DCPS will monitor supports and data weekly around responding to (and preventing) chronic absence.

DCPS' approach to reducing truancy is based on six (6) main strategies: DCPS

- Works to ensure that the regular school day is academically engaging and enriching for all students;
- Focuses on improving school culture and climate;
- Reduces out-of-school suspensions, often using restorative justice practices;
- Increases compliance with requirements for referrals to other agencies to ensure that students with specific needs receive support;
- Provides ongoing professional development for staff and conduct broad community education; and
- Partners with internal and external programs and provide incentives to reduce truancy in key populations.

The collaborative approach to improve attendance and reduce truancy includes working with all school staff and partner organizations. Attendance is a critical concern of the district and we are working to expand our efforts and partnerships to ensure that all students are in school every day and to remove the barriers are students face. DCPS has expanded partnerships to share more information across agencies to support families through coordinated efforts in case management, including working with the Deputy Mayor of Education's Every Day Counts Initiative, Department of Health, and Department of Youth and Rehabilitative Services.

One facet of the work in reducing attendance issues and truancy is program partnerships, which are outlined below:

Parent Adolescent Support Services (PASS) Program

Parent and Adolescent Support Services (PASS) Program, housed within the DC Department of Human Services, works with youth ages 10-17 who are committing status offenses (skipping school, running away from home, violating curfew, and/or being extremely disobedient), and it operates as a voluntary prevention/intervention program. PASS provides Intensive Case Management, as well as Functional Family Therapy services to more than 300 youth and their families every year. PASS works with youth and families for an average of six months. PASS employs several evidence-based approaches to supporting families, including strength-based intensive case management; functional family therapy (in partnership with the Department of Behavioral Health (DBH), and the Transition to Independence Process (TIP), a case management system for older youth with emotional and behavioral challenges. In FY18, PASS served 272 youth, who received services such as intensive case management, functional family therapy, Individual Therapy, tutoring, mentoring, and connection to other community-based support systems. In addition to providing these services, PASS adopted the in-seat attendance calculation. The calculation is a validated tool with the National Center for School Engagement who has provided light technical assistance to the programs. The calculation also allows the programs to align data and discussion with the Every Day Counts Data Committee.

The Office of Victim Services and Justice Grants (OVSJG) provides funding to community-based organizations (CBOs) to implement truancy reduction programming within DCPS schools through the Show Up, Stand Out (SUSO) program and a high school truancy reduction pilot, which began in FY18. SUSO's mission is to reduce unexcused absences by mitigating barriers to school attendance of children and their families with five or more unexcused absences prior to escalation to Child and Families Services Agency (CFSA) or Child Support Services Division (CSSD). This initiative is designed to reduce chronic absenteeism by supporting schools with a focus on providing services to identified families, while fostering student achievement. SUSO has programs at 56 DC Public Schools. In FY17, SUSO served 3,528 students; in FY18, SUSO has served 5,044 students as of January 10, 2018. DCPS, as part of the Truancy Task Force, has leveraged the SUSO program funded by OVSJG, which focuses on intervention in elementary, middle, and high school. (See attachment for more information.) In FY18, OVSJG expanded to serve high schools through the following partnerships:

School	Partner
Anacostia High School	Access Youth Inc.
Ballou High School	Access Youth Inc.
Eastern High School	Access Youth Inc.
Roosevelt High School	Latin America Youth Center
ACE Phelps High School	Hillcrest Children and Family Center

Please refer to Q53 Attachment_ Truancy Prevention Initiatives for more detailed PASS and SUSO program information.

- Q54: Please provide information on the subsequent reenrollment and truancy patterns of students referred for an SST, or to CFSA or CSSD for SY15-16:
- a) Of the DCPS students referred for a SST meeting in SY15-16, how many reenrolled in DCPS for SY16-17?
 - b) Of the DCPS students who were referred for a SST meeting in SY15-16 and reenrolled in DCPS the following school year, how many were truant again during SY16-17?

Students referred to an SST	# of DCPS Students	% of DCPS Students
Graduated	588	4%
Did not graduate or re-enroll	1,728	11%
Re-enrolled	13,075	85%
- Re-enrolled and truant	6,741	52%

c) Of the DCPS students referred to CFSA during SY15-16, how many reenrolled in DCPS for SY16-17?

d) Of the DCPS students who were referred to CFSA during SY15-16 and reenrolled, how many were truant again during SY16-17?

Graduated	0	0%
Did not graduate or re-enroll	287	15%
Re-enrolled	1666	85%
- Re-enrolled and truant	963	58%

e) Of the DCPS students referred to CSSD during SY15-16, how many reenrolled in DCPS for SY16-17?

f) Of the DCPS students who were referred to CSSD during SY15-16 and reenrolled in DCPS the following school year, how many were truant again during SY16-17?

Students referred to CSSD	# of DCPS Students	% of DCPS Students
Graduated	64	6%
Did not graduate or re-enroll	111	11%
Re-enrolled	845	83%
- Re-enrolled and truant	747	88%

g) Overall, what percent of DCPS who were reported as truant in SY15-16 were truant again during SY16-17?

	# of DCPS Students	% of DCPS Students
Graduated	441	6%
Did not graduate or re-enroll	782	11%
Re-enrolled	6,165	83%
- Re-enrolled and truant	4,551	74%

h) Which grades had the highest truancy repeaters for SY16-17?

	Grade	Percentage of students
Re-enrolled and truant in 16-17	9 th	89%
	10 th	86%

	8 th	85%
	11 th	74%

*All "Truant 2016-2017" numbers include students with 10+ unexcused absences who turned 18 during the SY2016-2017 School Year, and so may not have been reported as truant

See Q54 Attachment_SY16_17 Truancy and Referrals

NOTE: All "Truant 2016-2017" numbers include students with 10+ unexcused absences who turned 18 during SY16-17, and so may not have been reported as truant

"C" grade levels noted in the table above represent certificate-eligible students (those not receiving a regular HS diploma), while the "XX" grade level indicates a negligible number of students – namely multiple-year repeaters - for whom the district has not coded a 9th grade enrollment year.

Q55: Regarding disciplinary hearings, please provide data quantifying the following for SY15-16:
a) The number of disciplinary hearings requested regarding suspensions and expulsions;

During SY16-17, DCPS requested 214 disciplinary hearings.

b) The number of disciplinary hearings that occurred;

During SY16-17, 197 disciplinary hearing occurred; 17 of the requested hearings resulted in voluntary dismissals.

c) The average number of school days that passed from the underlying disciplinary incident to the hearing;

The average number of school days that passed from incident occurrence to the hearing was 5.34.

d) The average number of school days from the hearing to the hearing officer's recommendation;

The average number of school days from the hearing to the hearing officer's recommendation was 6.40.

e) The number and percent of cases in which manifestation determination meetings were held by the multidisciplinary team at the child's school before a disciplinary hearing was convened;

As described in previous performance oversight responses, the district's Student Behavior Tracker (SBT) does not allow long-term suspensions for students with IEPs or 504 plans to be scheduled for a hearing without the results from a manifestation determination meeting being entered into the system; therefore, 100% of cases had that determination before a hearing was even scheduled.

f) The number and percent of cases in which the hearing officer dismissed the request to suspend or expel a student;

A hearing officer dismissed the request to expel or suspend a student in 31 cases (24.6%). Specifically:

- 13 cases: "DCPS Failed to Appear"
- 13 cases: "Failure to Meet Burden of Proof"
- 1 case: "Failure to follow Due Process"
- 4 cases: "Lack of Jurisdiction"

g) The number and percent of cases in which the hearing officer modified the tier of the request to suspend or expel a student; and,

A hearing officer modified the tier of the suspension or expulsion request in 40 cases (20%).

h) The number of and percent cases in which the Chancellor or her designee changed the length of discipline from that imposed in the hearing officer's decision, including the average number of days different from the hearing officer's decision, and the direction of the change (longer or shorter).

It is important to note that an Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) issues a recommendation for the length of a suspension; this is different from imposing the length of the suspension. In general, DCPS aligns most long-term suspensions to an upcoming mid- or end- point in the advisory. This is most often the next available calendar break and helps to ensure a smooth transition back to the student's home school. On rare occasions when a behavior is considered to be extremely severe, a suspension may extend for a longer period. Therefore, it is extremely rare that a suspension will align completely with an ALJ recommendation, as they do not use the DCPS calendar when recommending suspensions end periods.

Of the 196 cases heard, the ALJ (hearing officer) made a specific recommendation on the number of suspension days in 80 or 41% of cases. Based on the parameters detailed in the previous paragraph, in 50% of the suggested cases, DCPS assigned a higher number of suspension days than recommended and in 50%, DCPS assigned a lower number of days than recommended. During SY16-17, DCPS assigned -28 suspension days less than the ALJ's recommendation overall.

Q56: During SY15-16, 20 schools participated in a School Climate Initiative. Please also provide an update on DCPS' efforts to expand this initiative to include the remaining targeted schools during SY17-18. Also please indicate whether each of these schools conducted a school climate survey and please show the results.

The School Climate Initiative (SCI) supports the development of a healthy and positive learning environment for all students. The SCI framework is composed of six components: (1) leadership, (2) educational environment, (3) routines and procedures, (4) student recognition, (5) teaching and learning, and (6) interpersonal relationships. Schools participating in the initiative are supported in addressing these six components through a phased approach (this helps to increase implementation fidelity).

SCI is divided into three phases, and as schools show consistent progress in each phase, which is assessed through formal walkthroughs, they move into a new phase to include in their climate focus. Phase I is focused on school-wide and classroom level routines and procedures, along with baseline level student recognition. Phase II focuses on all levels of interactions in the school (i.e., staff/student, staff/staff, and staff/families), in addition to a focus on increasing stakeholder voice and meaningful family engagement. Phase III targets an increase in research-based social emotional learning opportunities for all students, in addition to a focus on respect for diversity and increases in positive student peer interactions.

During SY16-17, SCI expanded to include the 20 remaining (of the 40 targeted) in addition to two schools which opted in to participate. Each school completed a school climate plan and implemented aspects of their plan based on their Phase placement. By (end-of-year) EOY SY16-17, 4 of the initial 20 schools remained in Phase I; 5 progressed to Phase 1.5, 7 moved to Phase 2; 1 to Phase 2.5; and 3 progressed to Phase 3. In addition, of the 24 schools brought in at the start of SY16-17 as Cohort II, the following represents final Phase placement: Phase I: 7; Phase 1.5: 9; Phase 2: 6; and Phase 2.5: 2. In all schools represented, the learning environments continue to maintain stabilization or systems in place to respond to incidents quickly and efficiently, leading to a significant decrease in student discipline infractions, decreased suspensions, and more student time on task. By EOY SY16-17, the following data points were found regarding suspension:

Cohort I:

Total Suspensions SY16-17	Total Suspensions SY15-16	Percent Change	Total Suspension Days SY16-17	Total Suspension Days SY15-16	Percent Change
2471	2787	-11%	10,984	14,400	-14%

Cohort II:

1573	2071	-14%	7168	9915	-17%

All schools within DCPS are mandated to administer the Student Satisfaction Index in the Spring. Based on the results of the survey, SCI schools are continuing to see increases in the % of students reporting that they are satisfied with their school experience. Below are a few data points associated with the survey. Please see Q56

Please see Q56 Attachment_School Culture Division, FY17 for school level satisfaction scores.

- Of the 20 DCPS schools experiencing the highest gains in student satisfaction, 12 were SCI schools.
- SCI schools (Cohort I and II) had a 6% increase in Student Satisfaction when compared to SY15-16, landing at an 83% student satisfaction percentage.
- SCI schools in Cohort I had a 4% increase in student satisfaction when compared to SY15-16 and an 8% increase over the course of the two years within SCI.
- SCI schools in Cohort II had a 7% increase in student satisfaction when compared to SY15-16.

In SY17-18, DCPS has continued to increase the number of schools represented within the initiative and created a third Cohort with 29 additional schools. Currently SCI is serving a total of 73 schools. DCPS will continue to increase schools brought into SCI each year with an increased focus being placed on Social Emotional Learning opportunities being infused and represented at each Phase of the initiative.

Q57: For SY16-17 and SY17-18 to date, please provide a narrative on the work DCPS has done to support restorative justice programs and list the schools that have implemented restorative justice programs.

Over the course of SY16-17 and SY17-18 to date, DCPS has supported school staff and central office teams with overview trainings of Restorative Justice (RJ) and 5 and 3 days trainings leading to the facilitation of RJ practices such as community building and restorative circles. The following chart outlines the trainings and support which has been offered during the designated time to increase RJ practices within DCPS.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 5 day: Train the Trainer: January 23rd – January 27th 2017 • 3 day: Nov 15, 16, 18, 2016: Responsive Circles • Support Meeting for those trained: December 2nd 2016 (original cohort) • Train the Trainer Follow Up Session: Feb 23rd, 2017 & March 1st, March 21st • Monthly check in meetings with council up until March 2017, Started back up November 2017 • Central Office RJ overview trainings • School Leader Academy: RJ overview with School Leaders: April 2017 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Central Office RJ overview trainings: July 10,12 • July 19th: RJ overview and refresher for DCPS POCs • July 24th – 28th: Restorative Justice: 5 day: Responsive Circles • July 31st New Teacher Orientation: RJ overview • August 14th: Introduction to RJ: IYP • September 12-14th, 19th-21st: RJ Community Building Circles

DCPS has 9 staff members (and 2 staff members from our community partner Access Youth) trained to fully support the district in its implementation of RJ. These individuals have been trained in RJ as facilitators and trainers. They are currently working within the district to plan and facilitate restorative circles, provide technical assistance to staff at schools that are beginning to implement RJ, and provide trainings to create more understanding and clarity, increasing schools’ capacity around RJ.

During SY16-17, schools implementing RJ were reported out by cohort. The reporting has shifted to provide greater clarity regarding the capacity of schools based upon the level of training and support they’ve engaged in over the past two years. Schools implementing Restorative Justice along with their level of implementation are as follows:

Q58: Please quantify for each school the number of homeless youth enrolled in DCPS for SY16-17 and SY17-18 to date. How much did DCPS spend on homeless student support services in FY17 and what type of activities/efforts did that funding cover?

Students experiencing permanent housing instability are identified in ASPEN, DCPS' Student Information System, with one of the following housing status: hotel/motel, doubled-up, shelter, unsheltered, or unaccompanied youth. This is self-reported data and is captured using the DCPS Homeless Student Referral Form. The Homeless Student Referral Form is included in the DCPS enrollment packet and is used by schools and school-based homeless liaisons to assess the needs of displaced families. Data captured on this form includes the family's temporary housing address and contact information, night time residency status (sheltered, un-sheltered, doubled up, hotel/motel), student status (migratory or unaccompanied youth) and lists the areas of concern and service needs, including transportation, school supply and clothing/uniform assistance, academic records/testing, immunization and medical attention, and special education services. This data was used to determine what support services displaced families need most. There were 1,920 total students identified as homeless as of January 15, 2017. In SY17-18 there are 1,968 (as of 12/22/17) homeless youth in the District. For more details, see Q58 Attachment _ School Culture Division, 2017.

DCPS' Homeless Children and Youth Program (HCYP) identifies its displaced students and provides student-centered supports across the district each school year. Every DCPS school, as mandated by federal regulation, has an identified and trained school-based homeless student liaison who serves as the school's point of contact for homeless families. The liaisons work with homeless students to abate any barriers preventing immediate enrollment and attendance in school. Additionally, the liaisons link students to relevant services offered in DCPS and through community-based agencies. In FY17, HCYP spent $309,398.25 on homeless student supports. This funding supported transportation assistance for homeless families' travel to and from school; it supplemented the Kids Ride Free program by allowing an adult to travel to and from school with elementary-aged students and covering the additional travel cost for students placed in housing outside of the District. HCYP also utilized FY17 funding to provide emergency clothing, school supplies, student-centered enrichment programs, graduation fee assistance, etc. DCPS purchased and distributed school supplies and uniforms to needy families prior to the start of SY17-18.

In August 2017, HCYP partnered with The Department of Human Services (DHS) and The Community Partnership for the Prevention of Homelessness (TCP) hosted the Mayor's Back to School Family Event and School Supply Drive for displaced families residing at DC General Family Shelter. The event commenced the start of the SY17-18 and encouraged children currently residing at the DC General Family Shelter to focus on the upcoming school year. In December 2017 HCYP had its' annual cold weather coat drive. In SY16-17, (August 2016), HCYP held its second annual Back-to-School fair held at Payne ES. In addition to providing the mentioned supports, DCPS, in SY17-18 and SY16-17, uses its funding to host a professional development seminar, training its staff and support staff members on transient populations and their needs, as well as available DCPS supportive programming. Lastly, DCPS in SY17-18 and SY16-17 uses its funding to host informational workshops in the District’s largest homeless family facility and at city hotels used as emergency housing sites to inform parents and youth of their educational rights.

Q59: DCPS received a five-year HIV/STI Prevention grant funded by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) for use through 2018 in 22 priority schools. Please provide any outcomes observed in year three of this grant investment.

DCPS provided updates for Year 3 for the HIV/STI grant in FY16 Performance Oversight Responses. Year 4 updates are provided below.

DCPS is funded to implement targeted programming within 22 priority secondary schools with the highest need. DCPS initially selected these priority schools using the following criteria: DCPS 40/40 school status, DC CAS scores, STI incidence rates (from the school-based screening program), homelessness, free and reduced meals (FARM) data, and school feeder patterns. The grant’s priority schools remain as follows:

Middle Schools	High Schools
Cardozo EC (Middle School)	Anacostia
Eliot-Hine	Ballou HS
Hart	Ballou STAY
Johnson	Cardozo EC (High School)
Kelly Miller	Coolidge
Kramer	Eastern
McKinley Tech	H.D Woodson

Walker-Jones EC (Middle School)

a. A description of the work being done:

The HIV/STI Prevention program uses four approaches to drive the program goals and overall outcomes:

- Approach A: Exemplary Sexual Health Education - aims to increase confidence, competence, and comfort across health educators to teach sexual health education.
- Approach B: Sexual Health Services - works to increase access to sexual health resources for youth.
- Approach C: Safe and Supportive Environments - strives to improve safe and supportive school environments for all students and staff, with particular focus on the implementation of LGBTQ-inclusive activities.
- Approach D: Policy - promotes and educates stakeholders on existing policies that directly influence the HIV/STI Prevention Grant.

b. The program goals and any outcomes observed to date as a result of this investment.

Key program outcomes for FY17 include:

- DCPS continues its collaboration with OSSE and community partners. DCPS and OSSE have continued to work closely on administering the DC Youth Risk Behavior Survey to our 6th-12th graders, as well as maintaining DC's Youth Advisory Committee (YAC), made up of 22 youth leaders focused on combating sexual health concerns across the District, from DCPS and public charter schools. Our community partners Whitman-Walker Health and SMYAL (Supporting and Mentoring Youth Advocates and Leaders) to support our sexual health services and LGBTQ initiatives.
- DCPS has seen a significant increase in participation of LGBTQ initiatives across student and staff within DCPS. This increase is a result of active Gay-Straight Alliances (GSAs) in priority schools, participation in DCPS's annual Leading with Pride Summit for GSAs, and participation in the DCPS contingent of the Capital Pride Parade. Through the use of online registration tracking, DCPS collected more than 250 unique registrations for the Capital Pride Parade, and more than 70 student registrations for the "Leading with Pride" Summit. Participation in these events has become a staple for DCPS, and as a result, visibility of DCPS's LGBTQ initiatives continues to grow.
- DCPS and the DC Department of Health (DOH) continued to coordinate school supports to provide free and confidential STI screenings for chlamydia and gonorrhea across 12 high schools. Pop-up clinics were provided across high schools three-months following the full STI screening program, which provided students with the opportunity to retest for free, at their school.
- DCPS supported bathroom accommodations for transgender and gender non-conforming students across DCPS. DCPS developed a Bathroom Tour and Facilities Checklist, which was used to support schools in identifying all-gender, single-user restrooms that could be accessible to students in need of increased privacy. DCPS provided technical support and policy guidance to 100% of our 22 priority schools and found that 22% of the priority schools had one all-gender, single-user bathroom, and 78% had more than one all-gender, single-user bathroom.

DCPS built the capacity of more than 300 teachers and administrators to create supportive environments for LGBTQ students. Each internal DCPS division partner that supported LGBTQ initiatives through school modernization, family engagement, policy education and implementation, and other LGBTQ affirming practices were all provided training on our Transgender and Gender Non-Conforming Policy Guidance.

Specialized Instruction

Q60: How many Head Start Schoolwide Model classrooms did DCPS operate in FY17 and FY18 to date? Please identify the total number of Head Start eligible children the program served in FY17 and FY18 to date.

DCPS operates the Head Start School Wide Model (HSSWM) in Title 1 schools.

To be considered Head Start eligible, a child must have been affected by at least one of five circumstances since enrolling in DCPS:

- Family participated in TANF
- Family experienced homelessness
- Child lived in foster care
- Family income fell below the poverty line
- Family income fell between 100% and 130% of the poverty line (based on SNAP data)

Number of children enrolled:

- In FY18 (SY17-18) we have 2081 Head Start eligible children enrolled in these schools
- In FY17 (SY16-17) there were 2081 Head Start eligible children enrolled in these schools

Number of classrooms:

- In FY18 (SY17-18) there are 314 classrooms served through our Head Start School Wide Model.
- In FY17 (SY16-17) there were 316 classrooms served through our Head Start School Wide Model.

(Change between FY17 and FY18 are due to Francis Stevens status shifting from Title 1 to non-Title I school. Title 1 classrooms were reduced by 5. Three schools, Bunker Hill, Langley, and Payne, each added classrooms, increasing the number of classrooms in Title 1 schools by 3. We had a net loss of 2 Title I classrooms).

Q61: Provide an update on DCPS' public/private partnerships to provide special education services during SY16-17 and SY17-18 to date.

Ivymount

During SY17-18, the Ivymount School continues to provide consultation services and professional development opportunities for DCPS. These consults are conducted with the DCPS Communication and Education Supports (CES) team supporting the Autism Level 1 and 2 classrooms at School Without Walls at Francis-Stevens Education Campus, as well as CES classrooms in the rest of the district. The students served in these classrooms require specific instruction in social skills, behavior management, and executive functioning.

The Autism Levels 1-2 classrooms at Schools Without Walls at Francis Stevens are now fully staffed with DCPS employees. The Ivymount School of Rockville no longer has full-time employees in those programs serving students. In these programs, the ratio of adults to students is 1 teacher, 2 paraprofessionals per 8 students and 1 board certified behavior analyst (BCBA) to support all 16 children in the areas of social skills instruction, social groups, functional behavioral assessments (FBAs) and behavior intervention plans (BIPs). The programs continue to utilize the Ivymount School's Unstuck and On-Target curriculum for executive and social skills. Ivymount developed formal training materials to be shared with other DCPS staff members who work with students with autism. Ivymount provides professional development to CES teachers throughout the district, and invites select CES teachers and Board-Certified Behavior Analysts (BCBAs) to Ivymount for professional learning opportunities. Additionally, the executive function curriculum is taught in programs for students with learning disabilities in the Specific Learning Supports (SLS) program, grades 3-5. Research indicates that specific instruction in executive function will significantly reduce the amount of instructional time lost due to challenging behaviors.

Secondary Transition

During SY16-17 and SY17-18, DCPS continued its partnership with both private organizations and public agencies to provide secondary transition services to transition-age students with disabilities. These partnerships include Hilton Hotels - Project SEARCH, CVS Workforce Initiative, Marriott Bridges, The ARC of DC, Veterans Administration Hospital, and the Department on Disability Services Rehabilitation Services Administration (DDS/RSA). Collaboration with these partners offers a wide-range of services to DCPS students with a focus on post-secondary education, employment, and independent living.

DCPS works collaboratively with DDS/RSA to deliver pre-employment transition services (Pre-ETS) to transition age students with disabilities. These services include job exploration counseling, work-based learning experiences, counseling on opportunities for enrollment in comprehensive transition or post-secondary educational programs at institutions of higher education, workplace readiness training, and instruction in self-advocacy. The goal of DCPS' partnership with RSA is to improve postsecondary outcomes for students with disabilities, including improved outcomes in the number of students who participate in training, post-secondary education or employment following exit from secondary education.

Marriott Bridges (MB) provides support to DCPS in placing students with disabilities, who are pursuing a diploma, in competitive employment careers aligned to the postsecondary goal for employment on their Individualized Education Program (IEP) during the academic year. Additional transition services offered by MB include career development, placement and employment retention services, worksite supports for students, and assistance with travel training.

The ARC of DC has partnered with DCPS to deliver specialized instruction related to independent living, job exploration, and community based exploration. Students with significant intellectual and developmental disabilities, who are enrolled in the Independent Living Skills (ILS) course, learn how to utilize community resources and to effectively advocate for their needs in a postsecondary setting. The ARC of DC facilitates these learning experiences for students in locations such as the public library, a local police or fire station, or a community recreation center.

The CVS Workforce Initiative is a partnership between DCPS and CVS Health that provides work-based training and learning for students with disabilities. High school Seniors and Juniors receiving special education services and pursuing a Diploma, engage in paid job training at local CVS stores for Retail (Crew Member) and Pharmacy Technician positions. In support of students' growth and the growth of the company, this partnership is designed to attract and prepare students for careers with CVS Health.

Project SEARCH--Hilton Capital Area Region (formerly Embassy Suites DC) is a "school-to-work" transition program offered through a partnership between DC Public Schools, DC Rehabilitation Services Administration, Hilton Worldwide and SEEC (Seeking Equality, Empowerment & Community--a vendor secured by RSA that provides employment supports for Project SEARCH students). The one-year program, which features full immersion in a workplace setting, is designed to prepare DCPS adult students with intellectual and other developmental disabilities for competitive employment. Project SEARCH Interns receive daily instruction in employability skills and gain hands-on work experiences by rotating among three 10-week unique paid internships at one of five Hilton Worldwide host site locations. The goal for each student is competitive, integrated employment by the end of the experience.

Veteran Affairs Medical Center partners with DCPS as a workforce development site that assists with the exposure, skill identification and skill development for jobs of interest for DCPS students with disabilities.

ASPIRE Leadership Development

The ASPIRE program partners with the Flamboyant Foundation to increase school leaders' investment in and understanding of innovative family engagement strategies. The Flamboyant Foundation team meets with ASPIRE leaders 2-3 times annually to prepare school leaders to positively and productively engage families in their child's success with high-impact engagement strategies for all students, such as (1) goal-setting, (2) positive phone calls, (3) frequent, personalized communication, and (4) home visits.

Q62: How many students transitioned from a nonpublic school to a DCPS school in SY13-14, SY14-15, SY15-16, SY16-17, and SY17-18 to date

School Year	# Students

2013-14	24
2014-15	12
2015-16	11
2016-17	N<10
2017-18 To Date	N<10

DCPS believes the decline in non-public returns is directly correlated to the rise in DCPS neighborhood school programming for students with disabilities. Fewer students are returning to DCPS because they never left; we are better able to retain students and deliver the supports and services necessary for their free and appropriate public education (FAPE).

Q63: Describe the initiatives and policy changes the agency made in FY17 and FY18 to date to move DCPS’ special education services from a compliance driven focus to an outcome driven focus. Please also describe how these changes impacted student learning.

DCPS has made significant progress in complying with the legal requirements related to special education, and the ultimate goal is to ensure all students receive an education that prepares them for college and career. To this end, DCPS has placed special emphasis on program quality and student achievement over the past several years and is currently turning the focus toward dynamic instruction in inclusive environments and engaging families in their students’ education.

There have been a number of significant steps to support this shift in focus, including:

- The continued work of the 2016-2019 special education strategic plan that has four key areas: increasing academic achievement, including more students, involving families in their children’s success, and preparing students for college or the workforce;
- The inclusion of members from the Division of Specialized Instruction (DSI) in virtually every core initiative team of the new DCPS strategic plan proposed by Chancellor Wilson in Summer 2017. This ensures that as DCPS continues to evolve and improve as a system, students with disabilities will be represented in every area of planning and executing, including but not limited to: leadership development, teacher talent pipelines, school innovation and grade level improvements (K-2 literacy and MS);
- The creation of DCPS Strategic Priority 4: Educate the Whole Child, Core Initiative 6: Strengthen instruction for special education students and English Learners;
- The addition of another class of emerging leaders in the ASPIRE program for managers and directors of specialized instruction. This program coordinates with other DCPS leadership programs to ensure that principals prepared to invest in special education leadership in their buildings have a quality administrator to lead both compliance and instruction for students with disabilities. The ASPIRE program partners with the Flamboyant Foundation and the DCPS Office of Family and Public Engagement to ensure that families of students with disabilities receive home visits;
- The development of training and tools to assist teachers in delivering the DCPS scope and sequence of ELA and math. The inclusion team is working closely with the content team to build accommodations, modifications, and principles of Universal Design for Learning (UDL) into the DCPS general education curriculum so that students with disabilities both inside and outside general education settings have access to grade level content and teachers have meaningful tools built into the instructional design;

- The deployment of a team of specialists to provide job-embedded professional development to teachers and staff in full-time classrooms. In addition to supporting classroom staff with strategies to increase communication, decrease challenging behaviors, and promote safe learning environments, these specialists also support teachers in providing Common Core-aligned instruction to increase student achievement; and
- The inclusion of special education teachers in the DCPS social emotional learning (SEL) initiatives and the extensions of specialized trainings such as Ivymount's Unstuck and On Target curriculum training to a larger audience of special educators and paraprofessionals.
- The Workforce Development Center (WDC) at River Terrace Education Campus continues to provide work readiness and employment skills training to students with intellectual disabilities. During SY 2016-2017 students had the opportunity to learn and practice these skills at the following community partner locations: Embassy Suites Chevy Chase, Veterans Administration Hospital, and the University of the District of Columbia's (UDC) horticulture center. After the inaugural 2015-2016 program year, a few WDC students were selected to participate in the Project SEARCH job training program at the Embassy Suites Convention Center.

Q64: Please list which schools have special education coordinators during SY16-17 and SY17-18 to date. Please also indicate which schools have a shared special education coordinator.

DCPS ensures that each school has identified an LEA representative designee for purposes of special education. DCPS also offers a menu of special education leadership positions that meet the needs of different schools and student populations. Schools budget for, hire, and manage their chosen special education leadership positions independently.

In addition to the Special Education Coordinator position, in SY16-17, DCPS created additional special education leader positions (Director, Specialized Instruction; and Manager, Specialized Instruction) These positions are supported through a training and networking cohort known as the ASPIRE program, which was developed to support both special education compliance and high-quality specialized instruction. ASPIRE leaders manage the overall special education programming of the school – for both instruction and compliance. Fewer than 5 schools maintain an Assistant Principal for Special Education position, which schools create based on specific building needs.

Special education leadership positions can include:

Director of Specialized Instruction (DSI); Manager of Specialized Instruction (MSI): The Director of Specialized Instruction (DSI) is recommended for schools with over 100 students with IEPs, and the Manager of Specialized Instruction (MSI) is recommended for schools with under 100 students with IEPs. The DSIs/MSIs manage special education logistics and compliance while leading the implementation of specially designed instruction and related services in their building, i.e., co-planning and co-teaching, universal design for learning (UDL) and other inclusive practices. DSI and MSI positions require application through the Division of Specialized Instruction.

The general responsibilities of these leadership positions include:

- Ensuring special education teachers are meaningfully engaged in content-level co-planning, using student data to develop lessons that are aligned to the CCSS and appropriately modified and accommodated to meet the needs of individual students;
- Completing regular observation and feedback of teachers and paraprofessionals on the implementation of lesson plans;

Q65: Please provide school-level data regarding the timeliness of special education evaluations, IEP meetings, and service provisions for SY16-17.

The table below shows the percentage of IEPs that were completed in a timely manner, the percentage of special education eligibility determinations that were completed in a timely manner, and the percentage of prescribed related service minutes that were delivered. The related service rate reflects direct services during the traditional school year (no consultative services or ESY) and includes the following: Audiology, Behavioral Support Services, Occupational Therapy, Orientation and Mobility, Physical Therapy, and Speech-Language Pathology. The service delivery rate is based on the school in which students were enrolled at the time of service.

Q66: For each DCPS school other than River Terrace, please list the following information for SY16-17 and SY17-18 to date:

- a) Number of related service providers assigned to the school, by discipline (if a related service provider serves more than one school, please indicate the number of hours they have available to serve the school);
- b) Caseload of related service providers assigned to the school, by discipline;
- c) Number of special education teachers assigned to the school;
- d) Physical resources to support special education students (e.g., occupational therapy rooms, de-escalation spaces, hydrotherapy rooms, etc.);
- e) Whether the school is wheelchair-accessible; and
- f) Number of inclusion teachers allocated to each school.

DCPS allocates related service providers to schools based on the needs of the students in the school. DCPS has a cadre of related service providers from Specialized Instruction that provide itinerant services when the school population does not warrant allocation of a full-time staff member. School Mental Health oversees social worker and school psychologist positions, which are allocated through the school budget process. Occupational therapists, audiologists, speech language pathologists, and physical therapists are funded centrally and float between schools based on need. A complete list of related service providers by school can be found in Q66 Attachment_Related Service Providers by School.

Q67: For SY14-15, SY16-17 and SY17-18 to date, please provide the number of students who have Individualized Education Plans (IEPs) in DCPS in each of the following categories: (a) Students attending DCPS, (b) Students attending charter schools for which DCPS is the LEA, (c) Students attending non-public programs whose LEA is DCPS, and (d) Students attending residential treatment centers or psychiatric residential treatment facilities whose LEA is DCPS.

Q68: How many DCPS students currently have 504 plans? Please break down the numbers by grade level and school.

The total number of DCPS students with 504 plans is 1,020, as of 01/10/18. See Q68 Attachment Number of Students with 504 Plans, SY17-18 (as of 1-10-2018) for 504 plans by school and grade level. To protect student privacy, instances in which the student count was less than 10 are noted simply as “N<10.”

Q69: How many developmental screenings did the Early Stages program conduct in SY16-17 and SY17-18 to date? How many screenings were recommended for further evaluation? Please list the timeframe it took to complete the evaluations (i.e. the number and percentage of evaluations that were completed within 60 days, 90 days, 120 days, and the total that took longer than 120 days).

These data are based on fiscal year (October 1 through September 30), which Early Stages (ES) uses instead of a school year, since the program runs and measures performance over 12 months. Referral counts below also include children referred multiple times by different sources. In cases where a current screening already exists, Early Stages uses that screening and may analyze additional data to determine whether further evaluation is recommended.

FY17: 4,176 screened. Of these, 1,475 (35.3%) were recommended for further evaluation.

FY18 to date: 1142 screened. Of these, 33.5 (%) were recommended for further evaluation.

Please note that the data provided in the table below include all child find referrals processed through Early Stages. It includes children delayed due to sporadic parental engagement; in these cases, the District is not held accountable under IDEA compliance reporting.

Q70: Provide outcomes data for students with disabilities transitioning out of DCPS into adulthood, including the following data for SY16-17 broken down by disability classification:

- a) The number of students receiving an eligibility determination from RSA before graduation;
In SY16-17, a total of 284 DCPS students were referred to RSA. In SY17-18, through December 31, 2017, 100 students have been referred to RSA.
- b) The number of students connected to a postsecondary pathway to graduation; and,
During SY16-17, 981 students with disabilities were connected to a postsecondary pathway for graduation through participation in Career and Technical Education courses and Transition courses. Below is a breakdown of the number of students in each category.

Category	Number of Students*
Career and Technical Education courses	686
Transition courses	328

* This includes the number of unique students with IEPs who were enrolled in a course during SY16-17 as of June 14, 2017. 981 unique students were enrolled in either Career and Technical Education or Transition courses.

Transition courses provide a wide variety of skills that students are able to utilize as they successfully transition to postsecondary opportunities. The following list is a breakdown of student enrollment in the Transition courses.

Course Name	Number of Enrollments*
Character Development	57
Computer Skills	77
Independent Living Skills	192
General Exploration	167
Real World Applications	12

Self-Advocacy	180
Study Skills Development	20
Transition Study Skills	44
Total Enrollments	749

* This includes the number of enrollments of students with IEPs in Transition courses during SY16-17 as of June 14, 2017. Because students may be enrolled in more than one Transition course during the school year, this is not a unique student count.

In addition to the courses that are available to all DCPS students, students with disabilities are also able to engage in programming that is geared towards engaging students in meaningful workforce opportunities. The following programs were available to students in SY16-17.

Program	Number of Students*
Competitive Employment Opportunities (CEO)	39
CVS Internship Program	28
General Explorations Internship	66
Marriott Bridges: School to Work	30
Project SEARCH	N<10
Workforce Development Center (WDC)	37

* Marriott Bridges: School to Work includes all students who were referred to that program in SY16-17. The other programs include all students who successfully completed all components of the program in SY16-17

c) The number of students attending college within a year of high school graduation.

Each state maintains an Annual Performance Report (APR) evaluating the state’s implementation of Part B of IDEA and any plans for improvement. The State Performance Plan (SPP) that outlines those plans has 20 Indicators related to secondary transition; DCPS is responsible for Indicator 13, while OSSE is responsible for managing and reporting Indicator 14.

Indicator 13 focuses on preparing students to transition from high school into successful postsecondary and education outcomes. The areas of preparation are related to achieving outcomes in the following domains: Education and Training, Employment, and Independent Living. As of the last quarterly monitoring conducted by the OSSE (November 2017), DCPS received a secondary transition rating of 76.95% for Indicator 13 (target=100%). The DCPS annual transition compliance rate is 71% which is below the target data point to move us out of special conditions.

Indicator 14 focuses on the percentage of youth who are no longer in secondary school, had IEPs in effect at the time they left school, and were:

- A. Enrolled in higher education within one year of leaving high school;
- B. Enrolled in higher education or competitively employed within one year of leaving high school; and
- C. Enrolled in higher education or in some other postsecondary education or training program, or competitively employed or in some other employment within one year of leaving high school.

The Indicator 14 Secondary Transition data for FFY 2015 compiled by OSSE is presented in the table below.

Indicator 14, FFY 2015
A. Enrolled in higher education within one year of leaving high school	11%
B. Enrolled in higher education or competitively employed within one year of leaving high school	18%
C. Enrolled in higher education or in some other postsecondary education or training program, or competitively employed or in some other employment within one year of leaving high school	31%

Q71: What programs, if any, does DCPS offer for special education students in need of credit recovery? Please include the number of students these programs can serve; a description of the curricula used in these programs; and how students with special needs can recover credits in summer school.

Opportunity Academies

DCPS Opportunity Academies (Washington Met, Ballou STAY, Roosevelt STAY, and Luke C. Moore) offer a continuum of special education services for over-age, under-credited students with disabilities. This practice is consistent with the Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act (IDEA), which mandates that students with disabilities be provided access to the same curriculum as, and be educated with, their nondisabled peers to the maximum extent appropriate.

Washington Met and Ballou STAY have additional capacity to serve a limited number of students with IEPs that provide for twenty hours or more of specialized instruction outside of general education. Both Washington Met and Ballou STAY each have a Behavior and Education Supports (BES) and a Specific Learning Supports (SLS) classroom. The BES classroom ratio is 12 students to 3 classroom staff (1 teacher, 1 paraprofessional and 1 behavior technician) and the SLS classroom is 15 students to 2 classroom staff (1 teacher, 1 paraprofessional).

Opportunity Academies operate on semester schedules that enable students to earn credits more quickly and utilize a highly personalized instructional approach with an intensive focus on social emotional well-being and post-secondary success. Students engage as self-directed scholars in rigorous, competency-based learning through the Summit Personalized Learning platform. Students also have the opportunity to join Dangers of the Mind—a cutting edge program that supports students with social emotional and academic development through self-exploration, skill building, and reflection.

Credit Recovery: DCPS offers Evening Credit Recovery from 3:30 pm-6:30 pm Monday through Friday at all the comprehensive high schools and Opportunity Academies. Evening Credit Recovery provides an option for the implementation of a 9 weeks (.5 credit) or 18 weeks (1 credit) schedule. Credit Recovery is available for 9th - 12th grade students, including students with disabilities and English Language Learners (ELL) students.

Additionally, diploma-seeking students with disabilities or English Language Learners can also attend summer school for 5 weeks to make up credits, through an application process. They are subject to the same process for qualification as their non-disabled peers.

The Evening Credit Recovery (ECR) program provides students that have failed courses the opportunity to retake graduate required courses. By doing so, students have an increased chance of getting back on track or staying on track to graduate with their cohort.

Twilight gives over-age and under-credited students the chance to earn credits for graduation in a supportive, individualized, non-traditional school setting.

ECR and Twilight programming is managed by school-based coordinators who are supported by the Central Office ECR and Twilight Programming POC.

Summer School. DCPS Summer (High School) programs provide opportunities for students to recover credits from courses failed during the school year. Summer school is open to all high school students. All host sites are staffed with certified content area teachers and paraprofessionals who are identified specifically to support students with special needs. A 1:25 ratio should be followed. Teachers may use OTL-approved curriculum or OTL-approved online curriculum.

Q72: Please describe DCPS' efforts in SY16-17 and SY17-18 to date, to implement the provisions of the Enhanced Special Education Services Amendment Act of 2014 as it pertains to transition planning beginning at 14 years old and the identification of appropriate adult services at least one year prior to a students' completion of school.

Transition Planning Beginning at 14 years old

During SY16-17, the transition team continued its practice of meeting with middle school teams to prepare them for the impending changes in the law regarding secondary transition. Professional development was provided to assist teachers with the development of appropriate secondary transition plans. In the beginning of SY16-17, the transition team issued a memo to all middle schools stating that DCPS expected transition planning to begin in 6th grade regardless of student age. The purpose of issuing this directive was to exceed the expectations of the new legislation and to ensure that all middle schoolers with disabilities have a transition plan in place. DCPS has also allocated a staff member to solely support middle schools with the transition planning process.

In SY17-18, DCPS has expanded pre-employment transitions service programming to include middle school students. In partnership with The ARC of DC, middle school students at Hart, Sousa, and Stuart-Hobson have the opportunity to engage in community based instruction which focuses on accessing and utilizing community resources. Transition curricular support is also provided to special education teachers at Stuart-Hobson using the Project Discovery transition skills and career exploration kits. Additional transition programming is provided to Hart Middle School students through a self-determination pilot program in partnership with SchoolTalk where students engage in an online series designed specifically for 13-14 year old students with disabilities. The 6 courses in the series include: Your Journey to Self-Determination; Finding Your Voice; Listening for Understanding; Managing Emotions and Conflict; Collaborative Problem Solving; and Educational Planning Meetings.

Through these expanded efforts to provide robust transition services to middle school students, 64% of students aged 13-14 had transition plans as of September 2017, and 70% of students aged 13-14 had transition plans as of December 2017.

Identification of Appropriate Adult Services

During SY16-17, Project SEARCH program assessed students to identify their strengths, needs, and interests. Data is used to identify appropriate resources and supports that will be available to the student beyond the Project SEARCH year. As a workforce training program that serves students with intellectual disabilities, the team connects each student with DC Developmental Disabilities Administration, the public agency that provides coordination of long-term services for individuals with intellectual disabilities. The team supports students and their families through the application and intake process, and collaborates with Service Coordinators to facilitate wrap-around and long-term services. At the conclusion of the 16-17 program year, all eligible students were connected to adult services.

The DCPS Secondary Transition Team has partnered with the Department on Disability Services Rehabilitation Services Administration (DDS/RSA) to identify which adult services might be appropriate for a student prior to the completion of school. Students are referred to adult services utilizing the following timeline for eleventh (11th) grade students; (a) referrals occur by March 17 during a student’s junior year in high school, and (b) a twelfth (12th) grade referral is submitted by October 31 for students who missed the referral window during their junior year in high school. Across transition programs, all student participants are being referred to DC Rehabilitation Services Administration.

Note: As it relates to specialized instruction, all Twilight students are offered modified curriculum and instruction based on their individual needs, and as documented in their IEPs, during class time. Reading and math intervention and tutorials are also offered. Related services are not provided during the Twilight program. Students with related service hours receive these supports during the day program. The Twilight Coordinator at the school organizes services for students including individual socio-emotional counseling, mentoring, tutoring, workforce development, and paid internships. Some service providers are volunteers, day school staff or community based organizations.

Q74: Describe mechanisms DCPS has developed and implemented during SY16-17 and SY17-18 to date to provide oversight of the education of wards of the state who are enrolled by public schools, CFSA, DYRS, or DBH in schools or programs in other states.

DCPS currently has two Memoranda of Agreement (MOAs) concerning oversight for students with disabilities who are wards of the District enrolled in programs or schools in other states. The MOAs are with the Department of Youth Rehabilitation Services (DYRS) and the Child and Family Services Agency (CFSA) – agencies that serve as the placing agencies; and the Office of the State Superintendent for Education (OSSE) – the agency that provides oversight of the MOA. DCPS and the placing agencies, DYRS and CFSA, share information (enrollment forms and ward letters) when a student is placed in a facility. DCPS then enrolls the student and assigns a progress monitor who works to ensure that the student’s IEP is updated and that the student is receiving special education services at the out-of-state school/facility. DCPS monitors the students while they are enrolled out-of-state and facilitates the discharge planning process for the student to ensure a smooth transition to the District. DCPS also provides feedback to the placing agencies regarding the services and service delivery models that various facilities maintain. Additionally, DCPS has connected facilities to the OSSE to initiate the certificate of approval (COA) process for those that are not yet COA-certified by the OSSE.

Q75: Provide the total amount of funding that was allocated to and spent by each DCPS school for Title III in FY17 and FY18 to date. Please describe how these funds were spent to enhance student achievement.

The primary goal of Title III is to be used to supplement language education programs for English learners (EL) and immigrant children in schools. During FY17, DCPS was awarded $675,650.84 in Title III funds. Because this allocation translates to such a small per-pupil amount (compared to other title funds), DCPS does not allocate Title III funds by school and manages the funds centrally via the Language Acquisition Division (LAD) to ensure that more ELs benefit from this resource and so that we can track the expenses more effectively.

DCPS ensured its accountability for making English language proficiency progress and attainment and for making academic progress for limited English proficient (LEP) students through the guidelines and accountability measures set out in the DCPS Essential Practices Rubric. After reviewing PARCC data and Access for ELs data, the Language Acquisition Division (LAD) provided targeted professional development and technical assistance to schools that did not meet their language targets in an effort to support and guide schools on how to effectively meet the students’ language needs and ensure language proficiency growth and attainment. LAD provided training and technical support to all schools that serve ELs to maintain their progress in academic achievement and English language proficiency. English as second language teachers will measure progress and maintain data throughout the school year.

In FY17 our Title III funds were used districtwide for a number of allowable activities, including: One salary position (Newcomer Specialist); administrative premium for teachers to develop close reading modules and adapt units of study, extra duty pay for aides to assist during parent engagement workshops, training for new ESL teachers and general education teachers in the use of the WIDA English Language Proficiency (ELP) Standards, professional development for ESL/bilingual teachers and general education teachers; training on research-based strategies; and conference travel. Funds were also used to purchase education technology and Imagine Learning, a technology software intervention to enhance English language development, for a select group of students in addition to supporting specialized instruction for the EL students during Summer School. EL consultants were hired using funds to provide detailed analysis on the 2016 Access for ELLs and PARCC results and support several initiatives that relate to identifying and upgrading curricula, including individual school training on second language acquisition or a particular model, and lead teacher trainings. Funds also paid for the provision of tutoring services at selected schools for ELs through services from Latin American Youth Center, Asian American LEAD, and Georgetown University DC Project, ELlevation. Finally, a portion of the allocation was set aside for schools to access funds to support ELL parent involvement activities.

Thus far in FY18, DCPS’ Title III award is higher ($814,299.46) and will support very similar activities. A portion of the allocation has been set aside for schools to access funds to support EL parent involvement activities, afterschool support, upgrade technology, and to support the contract for the Internationals Network for Public Education which provides professional development support for Cardozo EC and Roosevelt SHS. During SY17-18, the DCPS Language Acquisition Division awarded targeted funding to schools based on their school plan. There are three Title III grants to which schools can apply to support their ELs:

- Academic Resources for supplemental materials to increase EL academic achievement or English language proficiency. Materials may include supplemental books for English language development, educational resources for teaching academic content to ELs, and educational software and technology.
- Afterschool and Saturday Enrichment Programs to either practice writing, increase academic achievement in reading or math, support Newcomers, or accelerate English language acquisition.
- Family Involvement for events and programs that create ongoing efforts to support EL parents and guardians.

In FY18 DCPS also has a small population of EL students who attend private schools instead of their neighborhood school – which generated $18,703.48 in Title III-base equitable services funding (In FY17, DCPS received $28,845 for these students). These funds are used to purchase computers, literacy software, and parent engagement supports (books, materials and technology), supporting student achievement and parent engagement through their native languages.

Q76: For FY15, FY16, FY17, and FY18 to date, please provide the number of students who are English language learners, by age, grade level and classification. If available, please provide the top five primary languages spoken by these students in SY16-17.

Please see Q76 Attachment_ELL.Status.DCPS

Q77: The number of ELL students in DCPS has been increasing for several years. Please describe the strategies and initiatives DCPS has implemented in SY16-17 and SY17-18 to date to provide these students with the level of support needed to succeed.

DCPS continues to see an increase of newcomer arrivals since SY13-14. In addition, due to recent changes in the scoring criteria of the Access for ELs 2.0 (our state English Language Proficiency assessment), we saw a decrease of students who exited EL status citywide. As a result, DCPS enrollment numbers for English learners have significantly increased. We are serving currently 1,000 more students than this time last year and we expect another 200 students before the end of the school year.

Strategies

DCPS continues to advocate for a small ratio in the staffing support to our schools who serve ELs. DCPS continues to fund schools at a ratio of 22 students to 1 teacher; a 100 students to 1 bilingual counselor; and 1 translation aide for every 50 students who are Level 1. These staffing formulas ensure that all EL students receive the support they need to acquire the English language and be successful in school. These ratios allow us to provide schools with increased staffing from SY16-17 to SY17-18 to meet the needs of the ELs.

Last year, DCPS invested in an EL data dashboard that allows schools to track hours of services, demographics, groupings, assessments, accommodations, progress, attainment, and many more functions to easily ensure that students are receiving services.

Initiatives

In August 2016, DCPS opened a second International Academy at Roosevelt serving 125+ recently arrived immigrant students.

DCPS expanded the ELL Summer Academic Program to three sites this past summer, enabling EL students able to participate in an expanded summer school programs with opportunity to receive original credit as well as credit recovery. DCPS has also added a middle school intensive summer program last summer which served 100 newcomer middle school students at Columbia Heights Education Campus.

During summer of 2017, the DCPS Language Acquisition Division, together with a select group of ELL teachers, revised the course catalog for Middle school and selected a newcomer curriculum for grades 6-12, and the division purchased the aligned supplemental materials for ELL middle school newcomer courses with Title III funds.

Aligned collaboration with content leaders- Because the Language Acquisition Division sits within the Office of Teaching and Learning, there has been more purposeful collaboration across content areas to ensure curricular and textbook selections, interventions, Cornerstones assignments, and assessments that are more responsive to the needs of English learners and more reflective of the cultural diversity of these students.

School mini-grants using Title III funds. DCPS Language Acquisition Division awarded small grants to schools based on their school plan. Schools can provide additional supports to students and their families by applying for mini grants in:

- Academic Resources for supplemental materials to increase EL academic achievement or English language proficiency. Materials may include supplemental books for English language development, educational resources for teaching academic content to ELs, and educational software and technology.
- Afterschool and Saturday Enrichment Programs to either practice writing, increase academic achievement in reading or math, support Newcomers, or accelerate English language acquisition.
- Family Involvement for events and programs that create ongoing efforts to support EL parents and guardians.

Stakeholder Engagement and Communication

Q78: Please describe DCPS' public engagement activities for FY17 and to date in FY18.

DC Public Schools values families and community as partners in improving academic outcomes for our students. To that end, and following on multiple listening sessions with stakeholders in 2017, DCPS has included “Engage Families” as one of five Capital Commitment strategic priorities.

This includes DCPS’ work to build capacity among our teachers and school leaders to engage with our families through home visits, as well as how we improve and increase communication and listening opportunities.

With the help of the DCPS community, the Office of Family and Public Engagement has worked to refine and enact a clear vision and strategy for partnering with DCPS stakeholders. This strategy accelerates the success of every student in the District.

- Our Vision Statement states simply and directly the change in DCPS we wish to see.
 - Every student’s success is accelerated by partnerships with families and communities.
- Our Mission Statement provides a clear, simple, and compelling framework for guiding behavior and decision-making.
 - The Office of Family and Public Engagement improves outcomes for every student in DC Public Schools by fostering collaborative partnerships between and among schools, families, and the greater DC community.
- To live our mission and strive to meet our vision, DCPS will ensure our work is aligned to a Theory of Action. If we...
 - Build and sustain relationships between and among DCPS, families, communities, and partners that increase trust;
 - Increase access to information, resources, and DCPS leadership and staff;
 - Increase transparency and provide stakeholders with timely and equitable opportunities to advise DCPS priorities;
 - Build capacity in schools and central office to partner with families and communities to improve student outcomes;
 - Then, every DCPS student's success will be accelerated by partnerships with families and communities.

Below is a list of how DCPS has led engagement efforts throughout FY17 and to date in FY18:

- 1. District-Level Engagement Activities
- 2. Targeted School and Stakeholder Engagement Activities and Resources
- 3. Chancellor and DCPS Leadership Engagement Activities
- 4. Digital Engagement Activities
- 5. Community Outreach and Relationship Building

1. District Level Engagement Activities

• DCPS Strategic Plan Development Public Engagement

Throughout March and April of 2017, Chancellor Antwan Wilson hosted conversations at schools across the city with families and faculty, led engagement sessions in every ward, and met with leaders representing faith, neighborhood, and business communities. DCPS also held a write-in campaign to reach community members who were not able to attend these sessions and still wanted the opportunity to provide their feedback. As part of the agenda for the events, attendees heard introductory remarks from the Chancellor and had the opportunity to participate in gallery walks, small group feedback sessions, and a question and answer session with the Chancellor.

- Meetings held across all eight wards captured data through worksheets, online capture through sli.do (an online polling platform), questions and comments presented in-person, and post-it feedback from the gallery walk, totaling 2,077 relevant pieces of data gathered from the 1,530 different documents collected from the meetings.

- For the write-in campaign, postcards were distributed throughout DCPS schools and well-attended recreation centers and libraries, asking community members what, in their eyes, represents success for themselves/their children, their school, and DCPS. 1,448 cards were collected, resulting in 2,109 distinct pieces of feedback.
- Budget Engagement (FY17 and FY18 to-date) – Each year, DCPS hosts a series of meetings to seek feedback from school communities on the budget for the upcoming fiscal year. In these meetings, participants help shape the district-level priorities for the upcoming budget, and they learn how school communities should work together to develop their own budgets. Specifically, this effort included:

FY17 Engagement (for the FY18 Budget)

- A statutorily-required public hearing was held at Kelly Miller Middle School on November 29, 2016 where testimony was received from those in attendance. Written testimony was collected, transcribed, and recorded.
- A Guide to FY18 Student Budget Chats was created to allow facilitated discussions led by teacher or student organization moderators (i.e. SS teachers, debate teams, SGA, etc.) to reflect on and provide feedback about their DCPS experiences. This feedback was collected and considered when finalizing the FY18 budget decisions. After the discussion, the teacher/moderator shared a summary of the activity with the school principal and LSAT Budget Chair. All responses were reviewed with DCPS senior leadership and a summary report of student and community feedback was published in February 2017.
- A webinar for principals and Local School Advisory Teams (LSAT) representatives was held on January 25, 2017 to discuss developing a school budget and communicating with a school community about the budget process. The webinar had two parts: Developing a Budget led by the School Funding Team and Communicating About a Budget led by the Community Engagement Team.

FY18 Engagement to-date (for the FY19 Budget)

- DCPS held its public hearing for the FY19 budget on November 14, 2017 at Stuart-Hobson Middle School. Written testimony was collected in addition to being transcribed and recorded.
- The Chancellor held Community Forums on November 7, 2017, December 12, 2017, and January 9, 2018 to engage with the community around the FY19 DCPS Budget. At these forums, community members had the opportunity to hear from Chancellor Wilson and DCPS leadership to learn more about the DCPS budget process as well as provide their own feedback and concerns for the FY19 budget.
- On December 21, 2017, Chancellor Wilson held an informal budget hearing to hear from about 40 students — two from each of the city’s public high schools- to get their feedback on how DCPS should distribute funds in their schools. The Chancellor asked students how the system could address their needs and how they would invest a hypothetical $1 million in schools.
- In SY17-18, the Community Engagement Team has hosted two webinars thus far for LSATs specific to budget engagement. On December 4, 2017, a webinar was conducted on Enrollment projections and on January 10, 2018 a webinar was conducted on School Budgets. There is one more webinar on budgets on February 21, 2018.

- Back to School Block Party

As a celebratory launch to the new Strategic Plan, and a chance to welcome the DCPS community back to school, OFPE led the coordination of the Back to School Block Party. In prior years this annual event was in the form of the State of Schools Address which was a more formal gathering to update stakeholders on DCPS work and programs.

- More than 1,000 DCPS parents, staff, community members, educators, and supporters attended the 2017 Back to School Block Party on Saturday, September 9, 2017 at Ron Brown College Preparatory High School.
- Highlights of the event included:
 - VIP Speakers including Mayor Bowser, Magic Johnson, Chancellor Wilson, and Ron Brown students/teacher (as MC for the event).
 - 25 total partner booths featured at the block party highlighted programs, provided resources and materials, and featured opportunities for hands-on fun.
 - Kids Zone with DJ, Moon Bounce, Inflatable Basketball Hoops (Wizards), golfing, arts and crafts, instrument “petting zoo”, corn hole, early childhood activities, books, etc.
 - 5 performances including Phelps Pep Band, Patterson Glee Club, Plummer Cheerleaders, a teacher performance, and CityDance partner-led performance.
 - Free swag, food, resources and information for all attendees
 - Tours of the Ron Brown College Preparatory campus throughout the event provided by student ambassadors.
- Partnering for Priorities: A Back to School Night for DCPS Partners
 - 34 Community Based Organizations (CBOs) attended this 2017 Back to School event for partners, held on September 27, 2017 at Anacostia High School.
 - The purpose of the event was to provide partners with the opportunity to (a) learn more about the new DCPS strategic plan: Capital Commitment 2017-2022, (b) engage directly with district-level leaders around specific content areas to promote alignment and (c) share new DCPS partnership policies and procedures to streamline partnership between schools and organizations.
 - Attendees participated in an opening session focused on the Capital Commitment 2017-2022 and then self-selected break-out sessions with DCPS subject experts. Topics included:
 - Working with DCPS Afterschool Programs
 - Arts Education
 - STEM
 - Literacy
 - Physical Activity and Health
 - Social-Emotional Learning
 - College and Career
 - Access to DCPS Data & Data Use
 - Relationship Building with School Staff
 - Including and Working with LGBTQ students

2. Targeted School and Stakeholder Engagement Activities and Resources

Often the Office of Family and Public Engagement works individually with schools, parent leaders, or neighborhoods to address specific issues or concerns. In these instances, we employ an engagement strategy that involves attending and hosting both ward- and community-level meetings as well as providing resources to community members and parents to help them determine how to be effective advocates for their students. Examples of all are below.

● Direct Support to Schools

- In FY18 the Community Action Team (CAT) continued to provide the support of the Community At-a-Glance (CAG) Sheets, an at-a-glance dashboard for new school leaders that helps in prioritizing stakeholder engagement in their first 90 days and over the school year. Information includes school partnerships, recent “hot” topics raised at the school among parents they should be aware of, listservs and local papers to subscribe to, and a listing of LSAT, PTA, Councilmember, SBOE, Ombudsman, and various other community resources with contact information. Because of their popularity, CAG sheets have been created for almost all of our schools.

- OFPE provides technical assistance and resources to school staff and parent leaders as requested. Examples of requests for assistance in FY16 and FY17 to date, include:
 - Co-planning and executing community canvassing walks for DCPS schools in spring and summer 2017 to increase their enrollment. This included outreach and recruitment strategies for schools with historic low-enrollment numbers prior to the start of the school year.
 - Working with new principals, especially those of new schools, on strategies to meet their community and create opportunities for parent involvement with activities such as coffee chats, parent nights, enrollment events, and family activities, among others.
 - Working with principals on the creation of the School Improvement Teams (SITs) to ensure there is equal representation from teachers, parents, and members from the broader community.
 - Providing Back to School Night and Open House guidance materials, technical assistance, and on-site support.
 - Bridging relationships between school staff and parents in schools where these relationships have been strained, so these individuals can work together productively to advance school goals and student outcomes.
 - Participating in the ESEA site monitor visits conducted by OSSE with special attention to sitting in the parent interviews to ensure alignment on areas of support needed at the respective school.
- Direct Support to Parent Leaders

The CAT works directly with the parent organizations of the schools in their wards to help them reach more parents and work effectively with school staff. CAT Coordinators also work with parent leaders of schools where there is no parent organization to assist them in starting and maintaining this type of organization.

 - Updated guidance documents for LSATs were posted to the DCPS website in the beginning of SY17-18 along with communications to school leaders informing them of a renewed emphasis on LSATs' roles at the school and district level.
 - To date, OFPE has gathered the LSAT rosters of 114 of 115 DCPS schools. The CAT is also collecting monthly LSAT meeting minutes from their schools.
 - OFPE provided professional development to school leaders during New Principal Orientation and Leadership Academy around LSATs. School leaders also provided feedback to OFPE on additional supports needed to ensure the fidelity of LSAT operations at schools.
 - In SY17-18, the CAT developed an online "toolkit" for LSAT members and principals. This toolkit contains around 50 items, including relevant templates and sample documents, FAQs, budget materials, and Spanish-language resources.
 - In SY17-18, the CAT has hosted three webinars for LSATs on 1) LSAT Overview and Updates for SY17-18, 2) Enrollment Projections, and 3) School Budgets. Those live webinars were also recorded and published to the DCPS website along with three previously created LSAT video trainings on 1) the purpose of the LSAT, 2) the make-up and election process of an LSAT, and 3) Frequently Asked Questions about LSATs. The CAT plans to continue hosting these webinars at least through the rest of SY17-18 and already has three additional scheduled through March.
 - The CAT continues to maintain a Parent Leader Listserv as a forum for LSAT and parent organization leaders to communicate and use each other as resources.

- Beginning in January 2018, the CAT is maintaining monthly office hours in their respective communities for LSAT consultation, support, and troubleshooting. CAT Coordinators also make themselves available to attend LSAT meetings at schools upon request or determined need.
- Resources for Families
 - A Parent Organization Start-up Guide is available on the DCPS website to every DCPS family with comprehensive information about the steps involved in creating a parent organization at the school level. A toolkit provided by the Washington Lawyers Committee is also available, which outlines the process for parent organizations seeking to start a Nonprofit 501c3.
 - Parent Curriculum Guides are available on the DCPS Website in 5 languages. These guides give families (K-HS) an overview of what their students are learning in DCPS and what they can do to support at home. Additionally, the Parent Resources section of the DCPS website houses other information for parents regarding school and enrollment information, program resources and guidance, immigration information, student athletics and activities, transportation information, policy statements, and the DCPS philosophy and approach.

3. Chancellor and DCPS Leadership Engagement Activities

DC Public Schools Chancellor Wilson has prioritized family and community engagement as a critical component to reaching our new Capital Commitment goals. OFPE has coordinated his, and his key leadership team's participation in several parent- and community-facing activities, including:

- Chancellor's Community Forums

The OFPE Community Engagement Division (CED) launched the Monthly Chancellor Community Forums in FY18. Chancellor Wilson and DCPS Leadership host community forums each month in different wards around the District, with a session in the morning and a session in the evening. During these sessions, parents and community members have the opportunity to engage directly with leaders who are designing the work to share their interests and ideas related to our initiatives as well as receive feedback from the community. Each session usually has several components: information sharing on funding, policies, or new data, small group break-outs and sharing out to other groups, feedback gathering, and a question and answer session with Chancellor and Leadership. DCPS has held four community forums to date: October 3, 2017, November 7, 2017, December 12, 2017 and January 9, 2018. Topics have included engaging around the DCPS Strategic Plan, the DCPS Budget Process, and DCPS Budget Priorities for FY19.

- October 3, 2017 (Strategic Plan Engagement)
 - Smothers Elementary School Attendance: 24
 - Kelly Miller Middle School Attendance: 22
- November 7, 2017 (FY19 Budget Engagement)
 - Luke C. Moore HS attendance: 50

- Chancellor’s Parent Cabinet

The Chancellor’s Parent Cabinet is a group of 24 DCPS parents from all eight wards that were selected through a competitive application process. At each meeting, the Cabinet hears from the Chancellor, and typically a DCPS leadership team member, about a relevant and timely DCPS policy or program and is tasked with giving feedback during each meeting. In advance of meetings, Cabinet members often receive questions to pose to their local school communities so their feedback in meetings represents a broader parent voice. They are encouraged to attend meetings in their wards to share updates around what is discussed in Cabinet meetings. DCPS uses this feedback to shape and inform how it makes decisions about those policies or programs.

This year, Chancellor Wilson’s first cohort of Cabinet members began meeting in September of 2017. The SY17-18 Parent Cabinet has engaged with Chancellor Wilson and other DCPS leadership team members around school budgets, middle school initiatives engagement strategies and college and career readiness. They have also heard updates from the Chancellor regarding the launch of the Excellence through Equity Funding, funding for Student Empowerment and Equity Programs such as Empowering Males of Color and Empowering Young Women as Leaders, as well as the DCPS Grading Policy.

- Living Room Chats

DC Public Schools Chancellor Wilson participated in two Living Room Chats. During these small and intimate meetings, the Chancellor and other DCPS leadership had the opportunity to meet with families and community members from Wards 7, 4, and 1.

- During the Meeting in Ward 7, about a dozen parents and community members discussed topics such as upcoming initiatives in the ward, programmatic offerings, and strategic school design for Ward 7.

- For the meeting in Ward 4 with Cleveland ES families, more than a dozen participants held the meeting in Spanish and discussed the needs of the LatinX, immigrant, and ELL DCPS families. Some topics discussed were Equity, Language Access, and academic rigor and preparedness for Middle School.

The next set of Living Room Chat meetings are scheduled to happen in Ward 3 in January and Ward 6 in February. Preliminary topics include College and Career readiness, academic rigor, middle schools and programmatic initiatives.

4. Digital Engagement Activities

DCPS is recognized as a leader among school districts for its use of social media as a tool for engaging parents and community members. Through our website, emails, and social media outlets, we provide critical updates about school closings, opportunities for parent and student involvement, and information that showcases what is happening in our schools.

- DCPS Website (dcps.dc.gov)

The DCPS website is the main digital platform for communicating information to our stakeholders. Between the end of FY16 and the end of FY17, there were more than 1 million users and more than 7.8 million page views on the DCPS website.
- Social Media
 - Twitter (Started in Jan. 2010)

Twitter is our most popular social media tool, where we share good news, critical information, and allow stakeholders to interact with us directly. This has also become a great “listening” tool for us to view what stakeholders are tweeting about so that we are better able to respond to their needs. DCPS has significantly increased our Twitter following over the last year. At the end of FY17 we had 58,000 followers, an increase of 16 percent from the prior year.
 - Instagram (Started in Aug. 2011)

DCPS uses Instagram to share photos of activities happening across DCPS and engage students, families, and community members. Instagram followers over the last year have grown by 10 percent to more than 8,800 followers at the end of FY17.
 - Facebook (Started in Jan. 2010)

Facebook is used to share good news and critical information, and provide an opportunity for our stakeholders to interact with Central Office and each other. With more than 18,200 fans at the end of FY17, we have increased our Facebook fans by more than 7 percent over the prior year.
 - Snapchat (Started in Aug. 2016)

DCPS launched a Snapchat account in SY16-17, but decided to stop using the Snapchat app once Instagram launched its “Stories” feature. Since our Instagram has far more followers than our Snapchat, we opted to maximize our Instagram audience. Our stories usually receive 500-1000 views each.
- DCPS Digital Communication Tools
 - Newsletters and Emails

From the Chancellor’s Desk, Chancellor Antwan Wilson’s weekly newsletter, goes to more than 80,000 subscribers. The distribution list includes parents, all DCPS employees, City Council and DC government members, community members, and others who have signed up to receive regular updates about DC Public Schools. The open rate averages about 20 percent for each distribution.

DCPS and Chancellor Wilson also send periodic emails to more than 80,000 subscribers with updates about key initiatives and priorities, including PARCC results, invites to district-wide events, and the launch of new five-year strategic plan. The open rate averages 20-25 percent for each distribution.

- Blackboard Connect

Blackboard Connect is the robocall, texting, and email service that all schools and central office use to do mass communications with parents and families. The system is also used by schools to send attendance calls and text messages when students are not in school.

5. Community Outreach and Relationship Building

Over the last several years OFPE expanded their work to reach all eight wards comprehensively and build more trusting and transparent relationships with key family, community and public stakeholders. Of particular note is the Community Engagement Division whose four-member Community Action Team has enabled the agency to connect more deeply with stakeholders DCPS has previously engaged and make connections with new stakeholders. The CAT is composed of four coordinators assigned to two wards each to expand DCPS’ presence in those communities and cultivate relationships with stakeholders. The goals of the CAT are to build trust with the community and create a feedback loop within central office to ensure community input and perspectives inform our policies and programs. CAT Coordinators also work closely with school staff in their wards to design school-level engagement strategies and support DCPS schools in involving stakeholders such as families, education advocates, ANCs, and State Board of Education representatives, among others.

Community Action Team

Wards	Name	Email Address
1 and 4	Raquel Ortiz	Raquel.Ortiz@dc.gov
2 and 3	Eli Hoffman	Elias.hoffman@dc.gov
5 and 6	Nicole D’Angelo	Nicole.dangelo@dc.gov
7 and 8	Sharona Robinson	Sharona.robinson@dc.gov

FY17 and FY18 Engagement Numbers

In FY17, the CAT engaged regularly with DCPS stakeholders through multiple channels and engagements, including family meetings, parent leader meetings, small group conversations, one-on-one meetings and ANC and Civic Meetings. Frequently discussed topics at the engagements include building modernizations, budget, school planning, curriculum, communication, and equity/diversity.

- In FY17 the CAT totaled 1,004 “Stakeholder Connections” across all eight wards, which included one-on-one meetings, community meetings and school meetings.
- In FY18 (October-December) to-date the CAT has totaled 328 “Stakeholder Connections” across all eight wards.

Q79: DCPS conducts student and parent surveys to provide valuable information to central office and school-based staff on such things as academic and extracurricular programming, communications, and facilities. How many surveys were collected of each regarding SY16-17? And what were the key findings of those surveys? How has the agency changed its practices as a result of such feedback?

Parent Surveys. DC Public Schools did not administer an annual parent survey in FY17.

The Office of Family and Public Engagement (OFPE) closely collaborates with and regularly seeks input from DCPS families. Such collaboration and engagement can take the form of one-on-one meetings, large-scale public meetings or even online surveys, and interactive online public engagement platforms. Not only does OFPE seek feedback on key strategic initiatives, policy, and programming, but following district-level engagements an exit survey is completed with attendees to ensure information is collected on the meeting format, and structure.

There have been multiple regular touch-points throughout FY17 and to-date in FY18 with DCPS families, including the Chancellor's Parent Cabinet which meets monthly and advises on initiatives including school budgets, middle schools, and college and career. In FY18 OFPE has added several additional monthly opportunities to engage, including the Chancellor's Monthly Community Forums. Chancellor Wilson and DCPS Leadership host the community forums each month in different wards around the District, with a session in the morning and a session in the evening. During these sessions, parents and community members have the opportunity to engage directly with leaders who are designing the work to share their interests and ideas related to our initiatives as well as receive feedback from the community. The Community Action Team (CAT) within the Office of Family and Public Engagement also allows DCPS to build trusting relationships with families and community members in order to solicit frequent and timely feedback on programming and policy.

During and after such engagement activities, the Office of Family and Public Engagement shares information regarding how families' input is being used to make key decisions around programming and policy. We also ensure complete transparency around how such key decisions are being made, and then eventually, what the final decision is, and why.

Additionally, at the school level, our teachers are working closely with families to build relationships through the family engagement home visits, parent-teacher conferences, and more formalized parent organizations (PTA/PTO). Such relationships and organizations also afford us the opportunity to have meaningful engagement, collect input, and alter practices if necessary.

DCPS is launching a new parent survey in FY18 to collect parent perspectives on satisfaction with their child's school, parent engagement and communication, and their child's social-emotional learning.

Student Surveys. DCPS administered satisfaction surveys to students in grades 3 and higher in the spring of 2017. In 2017, 80 percent of students responded to the survey, up from 78 percent in 2016, and 89 out of 113 schools had response rates of 80 percent or greater. As in FY16, the survey focused on student perceptions of school climate and questions were grouped into four categories. One of the categories is the Student Satisfaction Index – the overall measure used to gauge progress toward DCPS' A Capital Commitment Goal 4 – that 90 percent of students will say they like their school by 2017. In 2017, 84 percent of students said they liked their school, an increase from 82 percent the year prior.

Student Survey Key Findings

- Overall, 84% of students indicate that they like their school. This is up 6 percentage points from 78% in SY12-13.
- Response rates were up 2 points from FY16 to 80%.
- Student satisfaction is highest for grades 3-5 and lowest in middle grades (6-8)
- Satisfaction increased the most in HS grades. For instance, 85% of 12th grade students were satisfied compared to 78% the prior year.
- Black female students had the lowest satisfaction rates, particularly in middle schools (66% satisfied).

- Black male students’ satisfaction has increased over the past five years (up from 75% in FY14 to 83% in FY17).
- School Climate Initiative (SCI) schools saw increases in student satisfaction (up from 77% prior year to 83%).

How was the data used? The Student Satisfaction Index measures a student’s overall satisfaction with their school. To enable schools to use this information to understand the satisfaction of their students and develop action plans, DC Public Schools created data reporting tools for central office and schools to have easy access and useful ways to analyze the survey data.

DC Public Schools is also using the student survey results, in particular the Student Satisfaction Index, as a measure of success across a number of contexts. For the Empowering Males of Color (EMOC) initiative, the Student Satisfaction Index is a key metric on the EMOC scorecard provided to each school and used to gauge the outcomes for Males of Color at each school.

In addition, the Student Satisfaction Index is one of the metrics school leaders can use as a goal that they are held accountable for reaching each year through the IMPACT system.

FY18 Survey. In FY18, DCPS is launching a new student survey to measure student social-emotional learning, satisfaction, and engagement. This survey will replace the previous student survey and will be administered in the spring of 2018.

Q80: Please specify the student recruitment and outreach efforts that were implemented in FY17 and that will be made in FY18 to reach families and students. In addition, please specify:

a. The agency’s timeline for student recruitment;

Student recruitment within DCPS is a year-round commitment. However, the majority of recruitment efforts align with the My School DC lottery timeline, which will occur over the following period:

SY18-19 My School DC Lottery Application Timeline
Monday, December 11, 2017	My School DC Application Opens
Thursday, February 1, 2018, 11:59pm EST	Application Deadline (grades 9-12)
Thursday, March 1, 2018, 11:59pm EST	Application Deadline (grades PK3-8)
Friday, March 30, 2018	Lottery Results Released
Tuesday, May 1, 2018	Enrollment Deadline
Friday, October 5, 2018	Count Day

Before the launch of the My School DC lottery application in mid-December, many schools begin conducting open house events for prospective families as early as October and November. For many schools, these events are hosted up until the lottery application deadlines in February and March. This year, the fifth annual DC EdFEST hosted by My School DC took place in December. This event showcased all DCPS schools and participating charter schools, enabling families the opportunity to understand the variety of public school options they have within the district. Similar to last year, DCPS produced another updated version of the DCPS School Guide. Available in both English and Spanish, parents can use this guide to learn about the variety of programs offered at DCPS. See Q80 Attachment_DCPS School Guide SY18-19 – English.

b. The agency’s goals for student enrollment;

In SY17-18, DCPS did not see an increase in enrollment with a reported enrollment of approximately 48,171 students. As part of the five-year Capital Commitment strategic plan for 2017-2022, DCPS is striving for the goal of enrolling at least 54,000 students by 2022. Projected enrollment for SY18-19 is still in the process of being finalized. In an effort to support schools in reaching clear enrollment goals that are mapped to where they need to be in order to collectively achieve the larger 2022 Capital Commitment enrollment goal of 54,000, DCPS is approaching student enrollment and recruitment differently this year, with strategies that both manage and set clear expectations and benchmarks for schools throughout the enrollment season. New focus areas include:

- Establishing growth goals. Projections in and of themselves are not designed to encourage enrollment growth but are intended to be a predictive number based on historical trends. During the SY18-19 enrollment season, schools will be tracking toward two enrollment goals: a projection number and a growth number. For schools that have capacity, a growth goal sets a target above the projection that we will incentivize and support schools in meeting.
- Focus on re-enrollment. The time to re-enroll students is before the end of the school year. DCPS will be working with schools to maximize the time when students are in the school building through increased efforts to re-enroll students. This enables schools to use the summer to focus on final enrollment pushes.
- Differentiated supports. DCPS will provide supports to schools with growth goals that include, but are not limited to, development of marketing materials, event support, and grassroots support. In addition, DCPS will provide supports to schools targeted at specific grade levels that have seen low retention, schools that are going through changes (grade configuration change, expansion, relocation due to modernization, and schools impacted by charter opening or closure).

c. How DCPS publicized schools throughout the communities; and,

DCPS uses a variety of strategies to publicize our schools to the community, which include collaborating internally with other Central Office teams, as well as partnering with outside organizations.

Toolkit for Schools

The best community outreach is done at the school level. Launched in December 2017, the DCPS Student Recruitment Toolkit provides schools with key information, resources, and support toward a successful enrollment season. The Toolkit is broken out based on the annual cycles of enrollment season, and new installments are added based on school request and identified need. Toolkit entries include: open house best practices, customer service best practices, engaging feeder families, and marketing materials templates.

Marketing Campaign

An updated version of A Family Guide to DCPS High Schools, a promotional marketing material to help families learn about their DCPS feeder, selective, and out-of-boundary high school options, will be mailed to every DCPS eighth grade student. Each school can also use their school page for individual promotion. The guide will be disseminated via key community partners including Higher Achievement and SHAPPE (Senior High Alliance of Parents, Principals and Educators) and will be available in English and Spanish. DCPS is also engaging in a social media campaign promoting DCPS high schools on three channels (Facebook, Twitter, Instagram).

DCPS is also in the process of producing a similar version of this booklet that will showcase middle schools. Once completed, this guide will be mailed to every DCPS fifth grade student, and each school will be able use their school page for individual growth promotion. It will also be available in Spanish.

This winter, DCPS is launching an ad campaign on Metrobus, Metrorail, and radio. These ads highlight the variety of opportunities DCPS provides students through early childhood education, dual language schools and programs, college and career opportunities in high schools, middle schools, and more.

Feeder Promotion

New this year, DCPS will produce a DCPS feeder booklet that outlines all the individual feeder patterns and showcases the programming available in the individual schools in each patter. Once completed, the booklet will be mailed to all current families, and each school will be able to use their feeder page for individual promotion.

Community Engagement and Grassroots Outreach

The DCPS Community Action Team (CAT) is responsible for assisting DCPS stakeholders with access to information and resources; and with communicating emerging needs and trends back to DCPS. The CAT is comprised of four individuals who represent two Wards each.

The work of growing enrollment is largely driven by grassroots outreach. To promote SY18-19 enrollment growth, DCPS will contract with an external vendor who will add capacity for schools and the District for grassroots outreach. The external vendor will support schools in targeted promotional canvassing, go door-to-door to track down families and students that have not yet re-enrolled and/or attended, and phone-bank to support summer outreach designed to “keep families warm” who completed enrollment.

Early Action PK Campaign

PreK is available in Washington, DC, but not guaranteed. DCPS’ Early Action PreK guarantees access to in-boundary PK3 and PK4 programs for all families who enter the lottery. Four new schools have been identified for SY18-19 Early Action PreK, making this option available at 19 Title I DCPS schools. To support these efforts, Early Action schools will receive marketing materials, professional development support, and regular lottery application updates to track progress. See Q80 Attachment_Generic Early Action Flyer SY17-18.pdf. These materials will also be disseminated to local infant centers targeting rising PK3 families.

Website Update

In collaboration with the Office of the Chief Technology Officer (OCTO), DCPS launched a new, more visually engaging and dynamic stand-alone website to increase awareness and enrollment in DCPS schools. The new website is intended to dramatically improve the perception and increase awareness of DCPS enrollment opportunities. This website was launched in December 2017, to coincide with the beginning of the launch of the SY18-19 My School DC lottery season. Please visit: <http://enrolldcps.dc.gov/>

In addition to the main website, DCPS worked to develop 9 new websites for the following middle schools: Brookland, Eliot Hine, Charles Hart, Jefferson, Johnson, Kelly Miller, Kramer, Sousa, and Wheatley.

General Questions

Q81: Provide a current organizational chart for DCPS and the name of the employee responsible for the management of each office/program. If applicable, please provide a narrative explanation of any organizational changes made during FY17 or to date in FY18.

In conjunction with the launch of A Capital Commitment 2017-2022, DC Public Schools reorganized Central Office to better align supports to meet the six big goals outlined in the new strategic plan and meet the needs of all students, especially students furthest away from opportunity. The reorganization included creating four offices led by the Senior Leadership Team:

- Office of Innovation and Systems Improvement: Michael Gaal, Deputy Chancellor, Innovation and Systems Improvement
- Office of Social Emotional and Academic Development, Wanda Legrand, Deputy Chancellor, Social Emotional and Academic Development
- Office of General Counsel: Scott Barash, General Counsel
- Office of Chief of Staff: Anna Gregory, Chief of Staff

The Senior Leadership Team (SLT) was created to help the organization work more efficiently and effectively to meet our big goals. SLT members will work closely with the Chancellor to enable the work to move quickly, support Chancellor decision-making, and ensure collaboration across teams.

The Office of Social Emotional and Academic Development (SEAD) is a new office that brings together the academic, social emotional learning, and equity work into one office to support all students, especially students furthest from opportunity. SEAD includes:

- Office of Elementary Schools: Amanda Alexander, Chief of Elementary Schools. This office includes our instructional superintendents for elementary schools, early childhood education, and the 1st grade academy.

- Office of Equity: Brenda Elliot, Chief of Equity. This office leads work that explicitly focuses on equity, including creating great school cultures; ensuring social emotional learning; promoting disruptions to institutional bias through conversation about race, class, privilege, and bias as adults; and programs that ensure success for students of color, like Reign and Empowering Males of Color (EMOC). The Equity Office also includes the key levers for how we support and share expectations with our staff – LEAP, IMPACT, and leadership development.
- Office of Family and Public Engagement: Shanita Burney, Chief of Family and Public Engagement. This office includes our community and family engagement work, including home visits.
- Office of Secondary Schools: Currently led by Deputy Chancellor of SEAD. This office includes the superintendents for secondary schools, athletics, college and career, and pathways.
- Office of Teaching and Learning: Brian Pick, Chief of Teaching and Learning. This office includes curriculum, language acquisition, and special education.

The Office of Innovation and Systems Improvement (ISI) is a new office that brings together the work of building strong systems across workstreams so that schools and staff can serve all students equitably, especially students furthest from opportunity. ISI includes:

- Office of Chief Business Officer: Sara Goldband, Chief Business Officer. The new Business Office brings together all teams that manage financial systems and resources in order to be more aligned and transparent.
- Office of Chief Operating Officer: Carla Watson, Chief Operating Officer. This office includes compliance, attendance, facilities, IT, and school operations.
- Office of School Design and Continuous Improvement: Eugene Pinkard, Chief of School Design and Continuous Improvement. The new Office of School Design and Continuous Improvement ensures the development, growth, and continuous improvement of excellent schools by focusing on enrollment, school planning, and implementing a framework of differentiated supports and autonomies to schools.
- Office of Talent and Culture: Vacant, Chief of Talent and Culture. This office includes employee services, talent recruitment, and labor management.

Finally, the organization streamlined the number of direct reports to any manager to six, so that managers can effectively support the work in their offices.

Please see: Q81 Attachment_DCPS Org Chart.

Q82: Provide the agency’s performance plan for FY17. Did DCPS meet the objectives set forth in the FY17 performance plan? Please provide a narrative description of what actions the agency undertook to meet the key performance indicators, including an explanation as to why any indicators were not met.

In FY17, DCPS had 40 initiatives in its performance plan and completed major milestones in all 40 areas. Q82 Attachment B_DCPS_FY17 Performance Plan is the performance plan.

Please see Q82 Attachment A_DCPS_FY17 Performance Accountability Report for a description of the actions the agency undertook to meet key performance indicators and initiatives.

- DCPS met or nearly met 19 of 24 key performance indicator targets for FY17. In particular, DCPS increased and met the goals for the percentage of students scoring college and career ready (Level 4+) in ELA on PARCC (31.9%) and percentage of students scoring college and career ready (Level 4+) in Math (27.4%). The audited enrollment grew to 48,555 students.

- While these gains represent important progress toward improving student achievement, there is still much work to do to ensure students across the city are graduating ready for college and careers. This is why DCPS is focused on accelerating gains for boys and girls of color and improving low performing schools.
- DCPS did not meet 5 of 24 targets.
 - DCPS saw an increase in the percentage of students taking at least one AP exam. However, DCPS did not meet our ambitious goal. DCPS saw a rise in the percentage of AP exams passed.
 - On the 2017 PARCC, students at every grade level made gains, including strong gains among middle grades in both ELA and math. Students also saw gains by race, economic status, special education status, and English learning status. However, the achievement gap widened in math and ELA. DCPS will continue critical investments to schools that lead to PARCC gains, including Common Core-aligned curriculum designed by teachers, weekly teacher professional development led by schools with LEAP, and access to AP courses.
 - DCPS set a target to have 0 open HR constituent cases but 6 remained open at the end of FY17. This has decreased from 12 in FY13.
 - Finally, 78% of teachers in DCPS were Effective or Highly Effective on IMPACT, less than the target of 90%. In SY16-17, DCPS added three new robust measures of teacher effectiveness to IMPACT as a way to continue to ensure all DCPS students receive daily instruction that prepares them for the rigors of college, career, and life. DCPS began using the Essential Practices, a new rubric which signals the importance of not just “how to teach” but also “what is taught”. As a way to honor the voice of our most important stakeholders, our students, DCPS began using student survey data as a means to offer feedback to teachers on the instructional culture in their classes. And, for ELA and math teachers in grades 4-10, DCPS reintroduced individual value-added, a measure of student achievement aligned to the PARCC assessment. DCPS provided, and will continue to provide, a wealth of resources aligned to each measure to support teachers in meeting these new expectations.

In addition, for each position please note whether the position is filled (and if filled, the name of the employee) or whether it is vacant. Finally, please indicate the source of funds for each FTE (local, federal, special purpose, etc.).

Please see Q91 Attachment_Full Time Equivalent (FTE)

The data presented by OCFO this year mirrors the data submitted last year, and originates from PeopleSoft. This system is setup to track positions, and the people attached to those positions. Based on the report from OCFO, we currently have 12,030 positions. This includes full-time permanent positions, temporary positions, substitutes, summer school, and afterschool. Additionally, this includes employees receiving backpay for settlements, employees on FMLA/workers comp/administrative leave, and interim appointments. To summarize, this report gives a time-specific snapshot of all approved positions at DCPS, and whether or not an employee is attached to the position. It is very important to understand that many employees are attached to more than one position. Example: a substitute teacher is also teaching afterschool, and both positions would appear on this spreadsheet.

Q92: How many vacancies were posted for DCPS during FY17? To date in FY18? Which positions? Why was the position vacated? In addition, please note how long the position was vacant, what steps have been taken to fill the position, whether or not the position has been filled, and the source of funding for the position.

Please Q92 Attachment_Vacancies (FY17 and FY18) for details about posted vacancies.

Q93: How many employee performance evaluations were completed in FY17 and how was performance measured against position descriptions? To date in FY18? What steps are taken to correct poor performance and how long does an employee have to correct their performance?

Employees who do not serve a specific school and are not covered by IMPACT are evaluated twice each year, in the fall and spring. The employee's direct supervisor writes and delivers the assessment. Before each assessment round, managers receive training on what constitutes effective feedback. Employees are evaluated on general competencies including, Initiative and Results Orientation, Job Acumen, Constant Learning, Dependability, Adaptability, Customer Service Focus, Communication, and Teamwork. Managers apply these basic competencies to individuals' roles and responsibilities.

In FY17, DCPS managers completed more than 95% of evaluations in both evaluation periods for non-school-based employees, including both central office staff and school support staff not covered by IMPACT. Specifically, 800 employees were evaluated for the Spring 2017 assessment cycle, and 753 for the Fall 2017 assessment cycle. Strengths and growth areas are identified for each employee, and managers work with their employees throughout the upcoming assessment period to address growth areas and to find stretch assignments. During this time, managers provide direct feedback related to their growth areas. Employees who are deemed to not meet expectations for a performance cycle, are put on a specific performance improvement plan and must demonstrate improvement in identified areas prior to the close of the assessment cycle.

All school-based employees are evaluated through IMPACT based on the responsibilities of their role. In SY16-17, a total of 7,121 employees were evaluated: 3,850 teachers, 276 school leaders, and 2,995 other school-based staff. To date in SY17-18, 3824 teachers have received the first part of their evaluation (the Cycle 1 Essential Practices and Commitment to the School Community Assessments), and 259 principals and APs have received the first part of their evaluation (the Cycle 1 Leadership Framework assessment).

The following charts lay out the steps taken to correct poor performance, and how long an employee has to correct their performance:

Rating	Administrative Action and Timeline	Professional Development
Developing	Staff members who receive 3 consecutive Developing ratings are subject to termination.	These individuals were encouraged throughout the year to access professional development through the LEAP weekly seminar and coaching cycles, additional educational resources on Canvas, district-wide PD days, and through other avenues in order to further increase their effectiveness.
Minimally Effective	Staff members who receive 2 consecutive Minimally Effective ratings are subject to termination.	These individuals were encouraged throughout the year to access professional development through the LEAP weekly seminar and coaching cycles, additional educational resources on Canvas, district-wide PD days, and through other avenues in order to further increase their effectiveness.
Ineffective	Any staff member who receives an Ineffective rating is subject to termination.	These individuals were encouraged throughout the year to access professional development through the LEAP weekly seminar and coaching cycles, additional educational resources on Canvas, district-wide PD days, and through other avenues in order to further increase their effectiveness.

Q98: Please provide the following information for all purchase card transactions during FY17 and to date in FY18:

- a) Employee that made the transaction;
- b) Transaction amount; and
- c) Transaction purpose.

Purchase cards (p-card) are a procurement tool that allows DCPS schools and central office programs to make small purchases without the need for a purchase order; this helps to ensure that our students and staff obtain the resources they need more quickly. Schools and offices are continuing to integrate p-cards into their school business planning and operational cycles more and more each year. This has resulted in increased usage compared to previous fiscal years, and improved efficiency in providing goods and services to students. Total expenditures by fiscal year are as follows:

- FY17 (10/1/16 to 9/30/17) - $7,583,097 (14,973 transactions); and
- FY18 Q1 (10/1/17 to 12/31/17) - $1,213,371 (2,388 transactions)

These transactions can be found in Q98 Attachment_FY17 FY18 Purchase Card Purchases. Tab 1 lists the FY17 transactions and Tab 2 lists the FY18 (10/1/17 - 12/31/17) transactions.

Q99: Please list all settlements entered into by the agency or by the District on behalf of the agency in FY17 or FY18, to date, and provide the parties' names, the amount of the settlement, and if related to litigation, the case name and a brief description of the case. Terms and Conditions of Service Agreement

1. Defined Terms. Terms not defined in these Terms and Conditions shall have the meanings given to them in the Service Agreement between Rapiscan and Customer.

2. Platinum, Gold and Silver Services.

Rapiscan shall provide the following services (collectively "Services") to customers that have selected a Platinum, Gold or Silver Service Plan: (a) Telephone Support, (b) Preventative Maintenance and (c) System Repairs (each as individually defined below).

2.1. Telephone Support. "Telephone Support" consists of responding to telephone and email inquiries received by Rapiscan's Customer Service Department (24 hours per day, every day of the year) from the Customer Contact regarding Equipment Errors. The Customer Contact shall report all Equipment Errors to Rapiscan's Customer Service Department by calling 1-888-258-6684 (toll free in US) or +1-310-349-2477 or by emailing customerservice@rapiscansystems.com. "Equipment Errors" means a reproducible failure of the Equipment to operate in accordance with such Equipment's published specifications.

2.2 Preventative Maintenance. "Preventative Maintenance" consists of performing, one time per year, visual, electrical, image quality, and radiation checks necessary to confirm the that the Equipment is performing, at the time of such checks, in accordance with its technical specifications .

2.3. System Repairs. "System Repairs" consists of onsite remedial maintenance performed by Rapiscan to repair Equipment and shall include the furnishing of necessary replacement parts. If Customer has selected the Platinum Service Plan, (a) System Repairs shall be initiated within 24 hours of Customer's request, (b) System Repair work shall be available 24 hours per day, every day of the year, and (c) Rapiscan shall ship replacement parts to the Location by air or ground transportation, whichever is fastest. If Customer has selected the Gold Service Plan or the Silver Service Plan, (a) System Repairs shall be initiated within 48 hours of Customer's request, (b) System Repairs shall be performed between the hours of 8:00a.m. and 5:00p.m. (Location time), Monday through Friday, excluding Rapiscan Holidays, and (c) Rapiscan shall ship replacement parts to the Location by ground transportation whichever is fastest. If Customer has selected the Silver Service Plan, Rapiscan shall be entitled to charge Customer for travel (e.g., transportation, meals, lodging) incurred in connection with performing System Repairs at Locations that are more than 100 miles from a Rapiscan service center.

3. Preventative Maintenance Services. If Customer has selected the Preventative Maintenance Only Service Plan, the Services shall consist only of Preventative Maintenance and shall not consist of Telephone Support or System Repairs.

4. Meter Services. If Customer has selected the Meter Service Plan, the Services shall consist of Telephone Support and Meter Repairs, but shall not consist of System Repairs or Preventative Maintenance. "Meter Repairs" consists of replacement of the MELS Electronics Unit ("MELS Unit") of the Equipment. If, during Telephone Service, Rapiscan determines that the MELS Unit of any item of Equipment requires repair or replacement, Rapiscan shall issue to Customer a return materials authorization ("RMA") number. Following the issuance of an RMA number, Rapiscan shall deliver to Customer, within five business days, a replacement MELS Unit. Delivery shall be DDP Location (Incoterms 2000). Upon receipt, Customer shall carefully remove the replacement MELS unit and then, within two business days of its arrival at the Location, use the same packaging to return the non-working MELS Unit to Rapiscan. Delivery shall be DDP Rapiscan Address (Incoterms 2000).

DE Public Schools Rev 021716

Customer shall be responsible for installing the replacement MELS Unit. If the non-working MELS Unit is not returned to Rapiscan within five business days of the delivery to Customer of the replacement MELS Unit, Rapiscan shall be entitled to invoice Customer for the replacement MELS Unit (at Rapiscan's then-current spare parts pricing). In addition, if, upon return to Rapiscan, a MELS Unit is found in good working order, Rapiscan shall be entitled to invoice Customer for all shipping and handling expenses incurred by Rapiscan in connection with delivering the replacement MELS Unit, plus a fee of 20% of the MELS Unit price (for testing and re-stocking).

5. Access to Location(s). Customer agrees to grant Rapiscan prompt access to enter the Location(s), at any time during the Term, for the purpose of performing the Services, provided Rapiscan notifies Customer of its intent to enter the Location(s) prior to attempting entry. Customer warrants that it is either the owner of the Location(s) or that it has the authority to grant Rapiscan such access. If Customer is not the owner, Customer is responsible for obtaining all necessary approvals from the owner of the Location in order to allow Rapiscan into the Location(s) to perform the Services.

6. Service Limitation. Pursuant to Customer contract administrator management and oversight of the Services, Rapiscan reserves the right to refuse to perform any Services if: (i) Customer has failed to use the Equipment in accordance with Rapiscan's manuals, instructions and/or other procedures that Rapiscan has made available to Customer or that it makes available to purchasers of the Equipment generally; (ii) an item of Equipment is moved from its Location, unless the item was moved pursuant to a written agreement with Rapiscan; (iii) Rapiscan is not granted prompt access to a Location upon arrival during regular school site operating hours, or during any other service time agreed upon in writing by both Parties to perform Preventative Maintenance or System Repairs, (iv) an item of Equipment has been modified without Rapiscan's prior written consent; (v) an item of Equipment has been damaged by neglect, misuse, mishandling, user error, liquids, or as a result of any other cause external to the Equipment; (vi) Customer has failed, during the Term, to timely pay, in whole or in part, any invoice issued by Rapiscan pursuant to this Agreement; or (vii) Customer is in material breach of this Agreement (this statement shall not be construed to limit any other rights or remedies available to Rapiscan for any such breach); provided, however, Rapiscan notifies Customer of its intent not to perform such Services and Customer has not paid the outstanding invoice or cured the material breach within 10 days of receiving said notice. Rapiscan also reserves the right to refuse to perform any Services if, due to the age of an item of Equipment, Rapiscan is unable to procure, unable to timely procure, or unable to procure at a reasonable price, through Rapiscan's regular supply channels, the spare parts required to perform a Service. In such event, Rapiscan shall notify Customer and thereupon such item of Equipment shall no longer be deemed Equipment covered by this Agreement. Rapiscan shall also calculate the portion of the Annual Charge attributable to such item of Equipment and shall return to Customer a prorated amount, calculated based on the number of days remaining in such annual period. If such

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN THE OFFICE OF THE CITY ADMINISTRATOR, ON BEHALF OF BUYER AGENCIES,
AND
FOR THE CITYWIDE RADIO SYSTEM, INCLUDING EMERGENCY DISPATCHES (FISCAL YEAR 2018)

I. INTRODUCTION

This Memorandum of Understanding (“MOU”) is effective as of October 1, 2017, and is made by and between the District of Columbia Office of Unified Communications (“OUC” or “Seller”) and the District of Columbia Office of the City Administrator (“OCA” or “Buyer”) on behalf of the District agencies listed on Attachment B (which are collectively referred to in this MOU as the “Buyer Agencies” and each of which is referred to individually in this MOU as a “Buyer Agency”).

The Buyer has requested the services of the Seller to maintain, and provide access to, the District of Columbia’s Citywide Radio System for the Buyer Agencies.

II. PROGRAM GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

OUC provides centralized, District-wide coordination and management of the Citywide Radio System and other public safety wireless communication systems. The Citywide Radio System provides mission-critical communications for District of Columbia agencies and radio interoperability with regional and federal partners.

As part of its management of the Citywide Radio System, OUC plans, coordinates, implements, and operates all facets of the District’s radio networks. The Office of Unified Communications provides 24x7 technical support and maintenance on the Citywide Radio System and all public safety communication devices, manages building facilities that support public safety radio technology, and reviews and approves all agency proposals, purchase orders, and contracts for the acquisition of radio systems and services. OUC also develops and enforces policy directives and standards regarding public safety and non-public safety communications, and maintains a contract with Motorola for Citywide Radio System maintenance, biennial system upgrades, and extended warranties for all radios OUC purchases on behalf of another agency.

OUC’s primary goal is to ensure the Citywide Radio System adequately supports the city’s public safety agencies and first responders. OUC reviews and approves requests from non-public safety agencies to access the Citywide Radio System, obtain assistance procuring radios or radio equipment, or borrow loaner radio equipment.

The purpose of this MOU is to establish the terms and conditions upon which OUC will provide the Buyer Agencies access to and usage of the District’s Citywide Radio System.

OCA is executing this MOU on behalf of the Buyer Agencies.

III. DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of this MOU, the following terms shall have the meanings ascribed herein:

- A. The term "Radio Airtime Service Plan" means the multi-tiered costing options through which a District agency may purchase access to and usage of the Citywide Radio System.
- B. The term "Citywide Radio System" means the entirety of the District of Columbia public safety and non-public safety radio communications systems and other public safety and non-public safety wireless communications systems and resources centralized under the Office of Unified Communications.
- C. The term "Talk Group" means a virtual group assigned for a particular function and/or agency, which allows multiple users to share the same pool of frequencies by pairing the sending and receiving radios.

IV. SCOPE OF SERVICES

Pursuant to the applicable authorities and in the furtherance of the shared goals of the parties to carry out the purposes of this MOU expeditiously and economically, the parties do hereby agree:

A. RESPONSIBILITIES OF SELLER

- 1. The Seller shall provide to the Buyer Agencies access to and usage of the Citywide Radio System.
- 2. The Seller shall permit the Buyer Agencies' usage of OUC radios, based on the availability of spare equipment in OUC's existing inventory.
- 3. At the request of a Buyer Agency, OUC shall provide assistance to the Buyer Agency in procuring additional radios or other approved equipment to be used on the Citywide Radio System. If the Buyer Agency requests that OUC purchase the equipment on its behalf, a separate MOU will be executed based on the actual cost of the new radio equipment and fees associated with programming and provisioning the new equipment.
- 4. The Seller shall pre-program the radios and other approved equipment described in Subsections IV.A.2 and IV.A.3 of this MOU to access the Citywide Radio System using Buyer-Agency-assigned Talk Groups.
- 5. Annually, the Seller shall make arrangements with each Buyer Agency to perform battery life testing for the Buyer Agency's radio batteries on-site at Buyer Agency's location. A Buyer Agency may additionally request ad hoc battery life testing by bringing an individual radio to the OUC Radio Shop, located at 310 McMillan Drive NW. Replacement radio batteries shall be provided by the Seller to a Buyer Agency, at the Seller's cost, only if battery testing results indicate a need for battery replacement, as determined by the Seller.

6. The Seller shall be responsible for maintenance of warranties and manager's licenses for radios provided by OUC to the Buyer Agencies.
7. The Seller shall perform preventative maintenance, testing, calibration, and repair of the Citywide Radio System.
8. When the Seller upgrades or improves the Citywide Radio System, the Seller shall additionally perform any programming, calibration, installation, and testing of the Buyer Agencies' radio equipment necessary to implement the system-wide upgrades/improvements.
9. The Seller shall provide to the Buyer Agencies help desk support and troubleshooting services upon the request of a Buyer Agency as described in the Citywide Radio System Access and Usage Standards (Attachment A). The help desk (hereinafter referred to as the "OUC Radio Help Desk") shall be accessible twenty-four (24) hours a day and seven (7) days a week by calling (202) 373-3737.
10. The Seller shall provide to a Buyer Agency training related to access and usage of the Citywide Radio System upon request of the Buyer Agency.
11. The Seller shall provide to each Buyer Agency the annual radio usage report described in Subsection VIII.B.2 of this MOU, and such additional ad hoc usage reports as may be requested by a Buyer Agency. The Seller shall provide to the Buyer such ad hoc usage reports as the Buyer may request.
12. The Seller shall provide to a Buyer Agency loaner equipment while radio equipment provided to the Buyer Agency pursuant to this MOU is being repaired and/or replaced by the Seller.
13. If applicable, upon receipt of a request and OUC approval for emergency services from a Buyer Agency via channel "Citywide 1", the Seller shall enter the event into CAD and dispatch an appropriate response pursuant to the Seller's existing protocols.
14. If any of the radios described in Subsection IV.A.2 of this MOU are lost or stolen while in the possession of a Buyer Agency, the provisioning of replacement radios by the Seller shall be contingent upon execution of a separate MOU under which the Buyer Agency provides additional funding to the Seller for the costs to procure replacement radios.

B. RESPONSIBILITIES OF BUYER AND THE BUYER AGENCIES

1. The Buyer agrees to the terms, projected costs, and fund availability associated with the MOU on behalf of the Buyer Agencies.
2. Each Buyer Agency shall make an intra-District advance to the Seller for the cost of the goods and services provided by the Seller to the Buyer Agency under this MOU, in the amount set forth for the Buyer Agency in the FY18 Schedule of Radio Costs (Attachment B).

3. Each Buyer Agency shall access the Citywide Radio System using only equipment that is included on the District of Columbia Approved Radio Equipment List (Appendix C).
4. Each Buyer Agency shall comply with, and shall ensure the compliance of its designated radio users with, the Citywide Radio System Access and Usage Standards (Appendix A).
5. A Buyer Agency shall obtain the written permission of the Seller prior to implementing new fleetmap templates for talkgroup configurations and radio functionality for use in the Citywide Radio System.
6. A Buyer Agency shall notify the Seller of any issues related to the Citywide Radio System by contacting the OUC Radio Help Desk (referred to in Section IV.A.9 of this MOU) as soon as practicable after the Buyer Agency identifies the issue.
7. Each Buyer Agency shall provide the Seller with reasonable access to the Buyer Agency's premises for the purposes of inventory, preventative maintenance, repair, replacement, testing, calibration, programming, and installation of equipment used to access the Citywide Radio System.
8. Each Buyer Agency shall comply with the requirements of the OUC IT Reporting Procedure for Lost or Stolen District Assets (Attachment D).

OUC CITYWIDE RADIO MOU

ATTACHMENT A: CITYWIDE RADIO SYSTEM ACCESS AND USAGE STANDARDS

Citywide Radio System

The District's Citywide Radio System is maintained and managed by the Office of Unified Communications ("OUC") for primary use by public safety agencies and secondary use by all other District and regional partner agencies in furtherance of the duties and functions of those agencies. The system is designed with multiple layers of redundancy in its physical layer.

Talk Groups/Frequencies/Channels

A Buyer Agency may not change any talk group name, function, or alias without the express advance permission of the OUC System Manager.

Each Buyer Agency shall use only those talk groups that have been pre-programmed in radios provided to that Buyer Agency by OUC. Buyer Agency will ensure that its employees primarily use Buyer Agency's assigned talk groups for daily operations. Buyer Agency will direct its personnel to communicate on all other pre-programmed talk groups only when the specific conditions below have been met:

Citywide 1 Talk Group

Buyer Agency's approved personnel shall use the Citywide 1 talk group on the radio to connect with the radio operator and with dispatcher in charge of Citywide communications for emergencies only. This procedure is designed for emergency use only, and all other communications shall occur over the other designated Buyer Agency and mutual-aid channels. Use of this mechanism shall be limited to those radios specifically designated by Buyer Agency and OUC.

800 / 700 MHz Frequencies

800 MHz frequencies are 16 - FCC provided channels and 700 MHz frequencies are 10 - FCC provided channels. These channels are licensed to OUC for citywide radio usage. Users do not have the ability to change frequencies on the radios and the frequencies are only configurable on the radio system by OUC personnel. System management automates the assignment of a channel to a user. Buyer Agency shall limit use of the Citywide Radio System by its employees and agents to work-related operations only.

Radio Interoperability Zone (RIZ)

Buyer Agency will ensure that its employees use radio interoperability zone (RIZ) talk groups for multi-agency event communications only. Before using a talk group, Buyer Agency shall notify OUC Dispatch Operations at (202) 373-3700 of Buyer Agency's intent to use a RIZ talk group, the point of contact, and the length of the event. When the event is completed, notify OUC 911 Operations at the conclusion of the event.

DC National Public Safety Planning Advisory Committee (NPSPAC) channel

FCC established these five (5) mutual aid channels reserved for emergency regional use. These channels are not monitored by a dispatcher and are available for multi-jurisdiction interoperability communication only. Buyer Agency shall notify OUC Dispatch Operations at (202) 373-3700 before activating DC NPSPAC in repeat mode.

Talkaround (Direct)

Use of NPSPAC in talkaround (Direct) mode is restricted to pre-approved multi-agency communication or during an emergency that renders the Citywide Radio System out-of-service. The radio “bonks” when the channel is not available.

Emergency Button Support

Emergency alerting is used by specific agencies to alert users that they are experiencing an emergency and they can't talk over the radio, such as “man down” or “1033”. The alert tone automatically goes to the dispatch consoles, where the dispatcher will call the identified user to check on their welfare. Unless specified, most agencies do not have the emergency button enabled. If this function is enabled, an agency will be notified where the alert is directed. As an example, MPD and FEMS alerts are received by OUC.

Failsoft

In the event of a major loss of system resources, Buyer Agency-assigned talk groups have a “Failsoft” channel assignment and will maintain system access through the most severely debilitated, but still operational state of the District's Citywide Radio System.

Patches

OUC must approve all permanent or temporary patches to any radio channels on the Citywide Radio System before they become operational. Such patches include patches on the Trunked Simulcast radio system and conventional radio resources.

All other Buyer Agency talk group patches have to be pre-approved by the OUC. Patching an encrypted talk group to non-encrypted talk group is strictly prohibited without OUC management approval.

Console patching—notify OUC Dispatch operations before making any multi-agency patches. Once the communications event is complete, notify the OUC and take down the patch.

Help Desk Support and Troubleshooting

This section governs helpdesk response times for Remedy helpdesk tickets.

1. All initial calls for service by a Buyer Agency under the MOU should be made to the OUC Radio Help Desk helpdesk line (202)373-3737.
2. During normal operational hours (Mon-Fri 0730-1630), OUC technicians will respond to Radio helpdesk tickets within thirty (30) minutes. The OUC Radio Help Desk will notify the point of contact for the Radio helpdesk ticket within one (1) hour if the ticket has been resolved or escalated. If the ticket is escalated, the OUC Radio Helpdesk will provide an estimated timeline for resolution based on the severity and complexity of the issue.

3. Outside of normal operational hours, OUC technicians will respond to Radio helpdesk tickets within one (1) hour. The OUC Radio Help Desk will notify the point of contact for the Radio helpdesk ticket within two (2) hours if the ticket has been resolved or escalated. If the ticket is escalated, the OUC Radio Helpdesk will provide an estimated timeline for resolution based on the severity and complexity of the issue.

FCC Regulations

Buyer Agencies shall comply with all FCC regulations for radio communications use as described in FCC Rules and Regulations, Part 90, where applicable. Furthermore, pursuant to FCC Rules and Regulations, Part 90.631(a), a Buyer Agency's radios on the District network shall be counted towards the District's total system load.

Definitions

For the purposes of these standards, "Buyer Agency" means a District of Columbia government agency, other than OUC, that uses the Citywide Radio System through a memorandum of understanding with OUC.

RE: Revised OUC IT Reporting Procedure for Lost or Stolen District Assets

PURPOSE:

The purpose of this OUC IT Reporting Procedure is to update operational guidelines necessary to provide for the non-emergency reporting of District-owned radio communications equipment that has been deemed lost or stolen. These guidelines are designated as the OUC IT Reporting Procedure for Lost or Stolen District Assets. The Office of Unified Communications issues such equipment to other District agencies, referred to as “Buyer Agencies”, under the terms of a Citywide Radio Memorandum of Understanding (MOU).

SCOPE:

This reporting procedure applies as follows:

Which agencies does this procedure apply to?

“Buyer Agencies”, which are those agencies that have executed an MOU with OUC for Citywide Radio Services (or on whose behalf the City Administrator has executed such an MOU).

Which types of equipment does this procedure apply to?

Any radio communications equipment that meets one or more of the following categories:

- Equipment issued by the OUC to the Buyer Agency, including loaners
- Equipment procured by the OUC, on behalf of a Buyer Agency
- Equipment with access to the Citywide Radio System.

For the purposes of these guidelines, radio communications equipment includes but is not limited to:

- Portable Radios
- Mobile Radios
- Tough Books

- Cell phones with radio related technology installed, such as WAVE or CAD Mobile

AUTHORITY:

The Office of Unified Communications, Information Technology Department, shall have oversight of the OUC IT Reporting Procedure for Lost or Stolen District Assets.

Case reports resulting from the OUC IT Reporting Procedure for Lost or Stolen District Assets will be completed by the Radio Services Group and filed in Remedy CMBD Asset Management and Quickbase.

POLICY DESCRIPTION:

The OUC must maintain adequate control of radio communications equipment and provide an accurate inventory and status of all radio assets. As such, it is the policy of the Office of Unified Communications, Information Technology Division, that the following steps be employed, when OUC-issued radio equipment has been deemed lost or stolen:

PROCEDURE(S) FOR REPORTING:Responsibility:

1. At such time as a loss or theft of radio communications equipment occurs, the individual assigned to the respective equipment must:
 - a. Notify their superior, where applicable

2. Complete and file a police report utilizing the MPD Property Form PD84 within forty-eight (48) hours.
3. If the lost or stolen asset falls within the scope of loaner equipment, it is the responsibility of the Buyer Agency to reimburse OUC for the cost of the loaner equipment.

MEDICATION ADMINISTRATION

INTRODUCTION

Some children and adolescents are able to attend school outside of the home because of the effectiveness of medications in the treatment of certain disabilities and illnesses. However, if at all possible, students' medications should be administered at home. "When school districts consider whether or not to use over the counter (OTC) medications in schools, there are multiple factors to consider. The benefits include keeping students in school and providing symptom relief. Risks include occurrence of side effects from the OTC medications, masking underlying serious health conditions and potential liability for school districts." (Guidelines for over the counter medication use in the school setting, 2013, available in the resource section of this chapter)

The State of New Mexico Nursing Practice Act Rules governing administration of medication should be followed (16.12.2 NMAC <http://www.nmcpr.state.nm.us/nmac/parts/title16/16.012.0002.htm>).

Additional guidance is available in "Delegation of Health Services", Section XVIII of this Manual.

To ensure that students are medicated at school under maximum protection, the following guidelines should be followed:

- A school board approved policy and procedure for medication administration which includes an approved authorization form to administer prescription medications.
- An authorization to administer prescription medication, signed and updated annually by both the student's primary health care provider and parent/guardian should be on file at the school.
- The signed medication authorization form should be reviewed and approved by the Public Education Department (PED) licensed school nurse in the school district.
- A parent/guardian should provide the school with a pharmacy-labeled container or original manufacturer's/provider's container that holds the appropriate medication to be administered in the school setting.
- Unused medication should be disposed of or returned according to the school board approved policy and procedure for medication administration, FDA, DEA and NM Board of Pharmacy (BOP)

16.19.11 NMAC <http://www.nmcpr.state.nm.us/nmac/parts/title16/16.019.0011.htm>

MEDICATION ADMINISTRATION OPTIONS

The following options are suggestions for the PED-licensed school nurse to consider when developing plans, and obtaining signed authorization, for student medication administration at school. With all options, it is essential that the PED-licensed school nurse be involved in the development of the medication administration plan for each student with medication needs. Clear and explicit written communication between the primary health care provider, parent/guardian, and PED-licensed school nurse is essential for safe medication administration to occur in the school setting. (See sample medication authorization forms in the Resource Section of this Manual.) Regardless of the method of medication administration, each student should be instructed about his/her individual medication plan according to the student's level of ability and understanding.

PED-Licensed School Nurse Administration

Optimally, all student medications should be administered by a PED-licensed school nurse. The school nurse has the educational background, knowledge and licensure that provide the unique qualifications to administer (or direct the administration of) medications in the school setting.

All medications administered at school should be made available to the school nurse in a pharmacy-labeled container that provides the following information:

- Name of student
- Name of medication
- Drug strength and prescribed dosage
- Route of administration
- Time schedule of administration
- Name of prescribing health care provider

For Over the Counter medication the original container with dosing instructions should be available, as well as the students name should be on the container. It is up to the PED-licensed school nurse to verify that dosage of medication is in congruency with recommended dosage for age/weight of the student. For further information review the OTC section of this chapter.

Nurse Assigned/Delegated Medication Administration

In situations where a PED-licensed school nurse is not available to administer student medications, other arrangements to provide services must be made by the responsible PED-licensed school nurse. The NM Board of Nursing practice act rules allow nurses to assign or delegate to licensed and unlicensed persons only those nursing actions which that person is prepared, qualified, licensed or certified to perform. However, the nurse may not delegate the specific functions of nursing assessment, evaluation and nursing judgment to non-licensed persons. Based on his/her nursing assessment & judgment, the PED-licensed school nurse may assign the task of medication administration to a licensed practical nurse or delegate the task to a certified medication aide, health assistant, or other qualified unlicensed person (See "Delegation of Health Services", Section XV111, and 16.12.2.12.b NMAC <http://www.nmcpr.state.nm.us/nmac/parts/title16/16.012.0002.htm>).

Certified Medication Aide Administration

New Mexico certified medication aides (CMA) are unlicensed assistive personnel who have completed specialized training and are certified to administer medications under the supervision and direction of a registered nurse in New Mexico Board of Nursing approved facilities. (See 16.12.5 NMAC at <http://www.nmcpr.state.nm.us/nmac/parts/title16/16.012.0005.htm>). This additional training has been demonstrated to increase unlicensed assistive personnel competence and may therefore decrease the likelihood of errors.

Student Self-Administration

Students may be allowed to assume responsibility for carrying and administering their own medications (excluding controlled substances), provided that self-administration is approved in writing by the prescribing health care provider and the parent/guardian. Medication self-administration instructions should be provided by the parent/guardian or health care provider, followed by the PED-licensed school nurse's written assessment to evaluate the student's ability to perform safe and accurate self-administration. If School Board policy allows self-administration, it is recommended that only a one-day supply of medication be carried by a student at any given time.

STUDENTS' RIGHTS REGARDING ASTHMA, ANAPHYLAXIS, AND DIABETES MEDICATIONS

New Mexico law requires all schools, whether public or private, to grant to any student in grades K-12 authorization to carry and self-administer provider prescribed asthma treatment medication, anaphylaxis emergency treatment medication, and diabetes treatment medication under specific conditions. (See <http://www.nmcpr.state.nm.us/nmac/parts/title06/06.012.0002.htm> and <http://www.nmcpr.state.nm.us/nmac/parts/title06/06.012.0008.htm>).

Those specific conditions include:

- appropriate instruction has been given by the provider to the student in the correct and responsible use of the medication;
- the student has demonstrated adequate skill level to the school nurse to carry and self-administer identified medication;
- there is a written treatment plan on file with the school nurse;
- the school liability policy and the extent and duration of the authorization has been discussed with the parent/guardian.

SIX RIGHTS OF MEDICATION ADMINISTRATION

The six rights (Six R's) of assisting with medications include the following.

- Right student
- Right medication
- Right dosage
- Right time
- Right route
- Right documentation

The Six R's should be triple checked each and every time medication is administered.

- First, when taking medication out of storage area;
- Second, prior to administering the medication to the student; and
- Third, when returning medication to the storage area.

MEDICATION STORAGE

As part of fulfilling the role of guardian (loco parentis) for children entrusted to their care during the school day, schools need to provide for the safe and appropriate storage of all medications ordered by a physician for individual children's' use at school. Storage of certain emergency drugs and non-prescription medications may also be necessary.

The following guidelines should be considered when developing a policy for storage of medications kept at school.

- Routine medications should be stored in a locked cabinet in a secured area; in a cool, dark place, unless otherwise indicated. An exception is self-administered medication that students have permission to keep in their possession.
- Controlled substances require special attention in the school district's policies. FDA , DEA and NM Pharmacy rules require that all controlled substances always be stored in a double locked narcotic cabinet that is equipped with two separate locks and keys.
- Some medications, such as antibiotic elixirs, may require refrigeration. The refrigerator should be in a secure area, which is not accessible to unauthorized individuals. The temperature should be checked daily when school is in session, and should be maintained between 36 and 46 degrees Fahrenheit. Food should not be kept in the same refrigerator as medications.
- All medications (prescription and over-the-counter) should be kept in original labeled containers provided by the dispensing pharmacy/provider or the manufacturer.
- Any exceptions to the above guidelines should be noted on the relevant student's individualized health care plan.

TRANSPORTING MEDICATION

Each school district should develop a written School Board policy to ensure the safe and secure transporting of medications. Issues to address in this policy include:

- Medications transported to school
- Medications transported from school
- Medication transportation for emergency evacuation during the school day

UNUSED MEDICATION DISPOSAL

Parents/guardians should be informed that it is their responsibility to retrieve any unused doses of medication if the student is withdrawn from the school and/or at the end of the school year. The school should maintain a written policy to cover the following issues regarding those medications that are not retrieved.

- Written communication should be sent to the parents/guardians prior to the end of the school year with notification that unused medications must be retrieved by a specified date. The same communication needs to occur for any student who withdraws during the school year.
- Any medications not picked up by the designated date should be disposed of by the PED-licensed school nurse in the presence of another school employee in a manner to prevent any possibility of further use of the medication. Environmental considerations should be kept in mind when disposing of unused medications. Guidelines for safe disposal can be found at <http://www.fda.gov/ForConsumers/ConsumerUpdates/ucm101653.htm> .
- The school nurse and school employee in charge of the disposal of unused medications should document the name of the medication and amount disposed of along with the name of the student for which it was prescribed. Both individuals should sign the documentation.
- Unused medications should not be released to the student regardless of age, even with parental/guardian consent.

CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE TRACKING

Maintaining a daily pill count of all controlled medications stored at school is not usually necessary. If there is a concern regarding controlled substances, the following steps might be taken.

- When the medication is received in the health office, the amount should be documented by the PED-licensed school nurse or her/his designee and the parent/guardian or another school employee with both adults signing the documented count.
- The signed documentation that a student has received his/her daily dose can serve as the tracking log for any medication including controlled substances.

FIELD TRIP MEDICATIONS

Field trips often create challenging situations regarding those students who require medication administration. School district policy should address this issue from the standpoint that medications which cannot be self-administered require the services of the PED licensed school nurse or an adult, who is trained and deemed competent by the PED licensed school nurse, to administer the medication(s). It should be noted that the NM Nursing Practice Act Rules allow nurses to administer and (where appropriate) to delegate the administration of medications, but not prescribe or dispense (<http://www.nmcpr.state.nm.us/nmac/parts/title16/16.012.0002.htm>). Parental/guardian sign-off of all medication administration arrangements is recommended, and may provide the school district with some protection regarding legal responsibility in this arena.

Same-Day Field Trips

A separate single dose field trip supply of medications, in an originally-labeled pharmacy container, should be prepared by a pharmacist and brought to the school by the parent/guardian for the scheduled field trip. In the event that a separate supply of medication in an originally-labeled pharmacy container is not available for same-day field trips, the PED-licensed school nurse should use the originally-labeled pharmacy container being held at school. The PED-licensed school nurse or the adult who is trained and delegated the task of administering the medication should return the originally-labeled pharmacy container to the authorizing PED-licensed nurse, and sign-off on the school's daily medication log that the student received prescribed medication.

Extended Field Trip

Extended field trips include those that begin before and/or extend beyond the duty day for school staff. For such field trips the parent/guardian should be involved with school staff in making arrangements for safe administration of his/her child's medication during the field-trip day(s). It is also the parent/guardian's responsibility to provide all medications required during the field trip in an originally-labeled pharmacy container for the student; these medications should not come from the individual student's supply held at school. It is the school nurse's responsibility to collaborate with parents/guardians and trip chaperons and provide guidance regarding all medication issues for students on all field trips.

MEDICATION ERROR/INCIDENCE REPORT

A medication incident report form should be used to report medication errors and must be filled out every time a medication error occurs. Routine errors include the following.

- Wrong student
- Wrong medication
- Wrong dose
- Wrong route
- Wrong time

All medication incident reports should be shared between the PED-licensed school nurse, the parent/guardian and other appropriate school and health care personnel according to school policy. (Sample forms are available in the Resource Section of this Manual.)

Any medication error that requires an ambulance to be called, or requires the student to be transported to an emergency room or urgent care facility, is considered an adverse event and must be reported to the NM Dept. of Health Regional Health Officer (See Adverse Event Reporting in Section II, and in the Resource Section of this Manual).

The NM Poison Center : 1-800-222-1222 may be used as a resource for medication errors.

RECORD KEEPING/MEDICATION LOG

Documentation of medication given at school should be part of the school's written policy and practice for administering medications. Each dose of medication administered or witnessed by school staff should be documented on a medication log in ink or electronically. This log becomes a permanent health record for parents and health care providers, and provides legal protection to those who assist with medications at school. It also helps ensure that students receive medications as prescribed, and can help reduce medication errors.

Any hand written error should be corrected by drawing a single line through the error, recording the correct information, then initialing and dating the corrected entry, as with any medical record. PED-licensed school nurses, who maintain medication log on computer software programs should use strikeover to reflect the information in error, then enter correct information that reflects when and by whom the error was corrected.

The medication log should contain the following information:

- Student's name
- Prescribed medication and dosage
- Schedule for medication administration
- Name(s) and signature(s)/initial(s) or electronic identification of individual(s) authorized and trained to supervise self-administration of medications
- Picture of the student for identification purposes (optional)

Sample forms are available in the Resource Section of this Manual.

EMERGENCY MEDICATIONS

School districts are encouraged to have written policies and procedures regarding the administration of emergency medications in the school setting as part of the routine medication policies and procedures, as well as in the school district's emergency plan.

While schools are not expected to function as emergency care centers, there are students at high risk for life-threatening situations and for whom access to prescribed emergency medications may be life-saving. Policies and procedures for providing emergency care in the school setting in the absence of a licensed school nurse should be included in the school emergency plan.

Below are some guidelines to consider when developing local policy and plans.

- The most common emergency medications usually required in the school setting are epinephrine, albuterol, glucagon, seizure medications, and oxygen. Most often these medications are designated for high-risk individuals attending or staffing the school. The high-risk student's health care provider is responsible for writing medication orders and for providing clear guidelines regarding the circumstances under which emergency medications should be administered. These guidelines along with other emergency interventions that include mobilization of emergency services should be included in the student's individualized emergency care plan and signed by the parent/guardian. This plan should be developed in collaboration with the student, parents, primary care provider, and appropriate school staff, and with the student's safety and the school's capability in mind.
- Schools may need to identify unlicensed personnel to be trained to assist with emergency medications in the absence of a school nurse. Witness by unlicensed personnel of self-administration of any medication which the patient's condition and skill level allows should always be documented. The NM Nursing Practice Act Rules allow nurses to "assign/delegate to licensed and unlicensed persons only those nursing actions which that person is prepared, qualified, or licensed or certified to perform." (See Section SVIII, "Delegation of Health Services", for specific guidelines regarding delegation.)
- Emergency response to high-risk students/staff for whom emergency medications may be kept in the school setting, as well as those students/staff who are not known to be at risk but who might benefit from treatment with medications designated for a high-risk student, should also be considered in the school emergency plan.
- Depending upon the availability of 911 emergency services and the proximity to the school, 911 response might be the most appropriate solution for emergency response needs in the absence of a licensed health care provider to administer care. It is recommended that discussion between school district administration, school health personnel and the local 911 responders take place to determine the feasibility of this option as policy.

- The Individualized Health Plan (IHP) can establish acceptable and safe emergency intervention procedures and parameters. Such plans require parental signature as well as signature of responsible school staff. Loco parentis designation may be considered in such an IHP, specifically as it relates to mobilizing emergency response service.
- Potential legalities involved in not responding with emergency medication (if available), and intervention by a trained unlicensed individual in the absence of a licensed school nurse, should be considered when establishing school district policy, and developing the IHP for individual students. Keeping any emergency medication on school premises involves certain legal/ethical issues and may create even more complex issues around emergency medication administration. An example would be a situation in which a student is discovered in anaphylaxis and the only treatment readily available is epinephrine designated for a different high-risk student. Administration of the available epinephrine by any trained individual could be a life-saving step; failure of the individual to receive treatment could result in death for the victim and legal action against the trained licensed or unlicensed individual who does not respond.

PSYCHOTROPIC MEDICATIONS

Psychiatric medications treat mental disorders. Sometimes called psychotropic or psychotherapeutic medications, they have changed the lives of people with mental disorders for the better. Many people with mental disorders live fulfilling lives with the help of these medications. Without them, people with mental disorders might suffer serious and disabling symptoms. It is important for PED-licensed school nurses to understand adverse effects as well as withdrawal symptoms of psychotropic medications, in case a student is presenting with these concerns.

Common Side Effects (Adverse Effects)

Anticholinergic effects (ACEs): Dry mouth, blurred vision, constipation and urinary hesitancy. These effects result from the suppressive action of antipsychotic and antidepressant medications on the pyramidal nerve pathways.

Neuroleptic malignant syndrome: High fever, muscle rigidity and fluctuating levels of functioning.

Orthostatic hypotension: A sudden drop in blood pressure that occurs when rising from a lying or sitting position to a standing one, accompanied by dizziness, lightheadedness, weakness and unsteady walk.

Tachycardia: An increase in heart rate resulting from adverse effects of antidepressant medications.

Indicators of Medication Withdrawal

- Trouble sleeping (too much, too little)
- No energy
- Difficulty concentrating
- Irritability
- Confusion

- Feeling something terrible is going to happen to you
- Speech problems
- Thinking everyone can hear your thoughts
- Headaches (or pressure in your head)
- Heart pounding

GUIDELINES FOR OVER THE COUNTER MEDICATION USE POLICY FOR THE SCHOOL SETTING

District school administrative and health personnel, with support from other healthcare professionals as desired, should develop a process for considering the use of OTC medications in school(s) within their district. This may include not only whether or not to allow use, but also specific conditions (e.g., mild fever, mild headache, symptoms of seasonal allergies) that will be managed, and which OTC medications may be given. There are excellent resources for developing OTC medication use policy and procedures. These resources include:

- American Academy of Pediatrics Policy Statement Guidelines for the Administration of Medication in School, Pediatrics 2009;124:1244.
<http://pediatrics.aappublications.org/content/124/4/1244.full.pdf+html>
- National Association of School Nurses Position Statement NASN Position Statements- Medication Administration in the School Setting (Amended January 2012).

Evaluation of Children

- When students present with symptoms of minor illnesses, the use of non-pharmacologic comfort measures is recommended as first line measures (e.g., rest, ice, elevation, warm/cold compress).
- A student with symptoms of a minor illness or health condition must be assessed by a school nurse (RN) before an OTC is given. No OTC medications should be given without assessment by a school nurse (RN); if an LPN does the initial assessment, a supervising RN needs to review the assessment.
- After an assessment is made and it is determined that comfort measures are not providing relief from symptoms, an OTC may be indicated. Administration of OTC medications should use the following principles:
 - Written parental/guardian consent for providing an OTC medication is required. It is ideal to obtain this at the beginning of the school year, but may be provided or amended at any point during the school year. Parental consent lasts until the end of the current school year.
 - Follow directions on the medication label carefully, including age- or weight-based dosing.
 - Document the administration in the school health record as well as on the individual student medication (see attached)
 - If OTCs are used for more than 3 consecutive days, an order from a primary care provider (MD, DO, CNP, PA) is needed. Assessment by a primary care provider can be done in a school-based health clinic, if one is located in the school or a nearby school.

OTC Supplies

- Parents/guardians who permit a school nurse to administer an OTC medication, supply the medication in an unopened bottle of the OTC medication for which they are giving consent to be given to their child. (The smallest bottle possible is helpful due to space and monetary considerations). All medications need to be stored securely.
- All medications need to be labeled with the name and date of birth of the child for whom they are intended. If more than one child from a family is in the school, the names and dates of birth of all children may be placed on a single bottle of OTC medication. After initial opening to treat the child, the date of opening should be marked on the bottle with permanent marker – the bottle may be re-used to treat that child until empty, the medication expires, the school year ends, or one year from opening has passed, whichever comes first.
- The Office of School and Adolescent Health of the Public Health Division of the New Mexico Department of Health strongly recommends that stock bottles of OTC medications not be used for students. It is preferred that schools that permit the administration of OTC medications have the parents bring in an unopened bottle of the permitted OTC medications and labeled with their child's name. One of the disadvantages of using stock bottles of medications is that it is more difficult to determine which child received medication and how much medication was used for an individual child.

This guidance piece on OTC medications should be part of a larger policy and procedure on medications that also includes use of prescription medications and herbal remedies.

Note: It is not appropriate for unlicensed assistive personnel (UAP) to make an assessment or determination to offer OTC medications. However, an appropriately trained UAP may collect and report data to the licensed school nurse, who can make an assessment and determine whether or not to delegate the task of administering a single dose of an OTC to a specific student.

INTEGRATIVE THERAPIES

INTRODUCTION

Traditionally, western medical doctors (MDs) and doctors of osteopathy (DOs) have had prescriptive privileges in the state of New Mexico. In recent years the NM State Legislature has granted limited prescriptive privileges to the following health care providers.

- Nurse Practitioners (CNP)
- Nurse Midwives (CNM)
- Physician Assistants (PA)
- Rural Anesthetists
- Nurse Specialists
- Doctors of Oriental Medicine (DOM)
- Chiropractors (DC)

A licensure board with the authority to grant license, as well as to discipline and/or revoke licenses, oversees the practice of each of these groups.

Under the NM Nursing Practice Act (NMNPA), nurses may administer medications prescribed by any of these licensed health practitioners provided it is within the scope of the nurse's training, knowledge and experience. Administration of any prescribed medication should not contradict the NMNPA or any standing orders or protocols for school nurses. (See NMNPA www.state.nm.us/nursing.)

All providers with prescriptive privileges are expected to meet the same standards when prescribing medication for administration in the school setting as in any other situation. Medications delivered for administration at school should be in pharmacy-labeled containers or in the original provider-issued container, labeled with the same information routinely included on pharmacy labels. All medications administered in the school setting should be prescribed by a licensed practitioner with prescriptive authority; all medications are administered, stored, transported, disposed of and tracked according to the same guidelines.

Respect for the needs of all students and wishes of their parents/guardians should always be a consideration in providing safe, competent and culturally sensitive care in the school setting. However, the school nurse should keep in mind that medication administration in the school setting should take place only if permitted by local school district policy, by DOH guidelines in this School Health Manual, and in compliance with NMNPA. (See NMNPA at www.state.nm.us/nursing and NASN Position Statement at www.nasn.org).

RISK PERSPECTIVE

The following statements were extracted from Legal Issues in School Health Services by Schwab and Gelfman (2001).

- School nurses are expected to know and practice within the laws of their respective states.
- When the law does not sufficiently address an issue or ethical issues arise for the school nurse, a written opinion should be obtained from the local Board of Nursing. Collaboration with other Boards of Nursing, Medical and Pharmacy Boards, and the state departments of health and education are encouraged when appropriate.
- To explore and advise on issues, consideration should be given to convening a committee on ethics with appropriate representation and expertise from the school and community.
- School district policies should be developed to meet professional standards of practice and should be followed consistently through out the district.
- School policy should address students carrying and personnel administering any substance that could be identified as a medication (including natural remedies, herbs and nutritional supplements). Such policy should include requirements for an explicit order from an authorized provider in the state, parent authorization, verification that a product is safe to administer in the prescribed dosage, and information regarding therapeutic and untoward effects.
- There are no legal restrictions preventing a parent/guardian from administering a medication product in the school setting to his/her child. However school policy should include the parameters under which this activity may take place.

ADULT SCHOOL CROSSING GUARD REQUEST INSTRUCTIONS

How to Request an Adult School Crossing Guard

All requests for Adult School Crossing Guards must come from school principals or assistant principals. Parents, PTA presidents, and other community members who wish to request a new School Crossing Guard location may provide input to their school's principal/assistant principal to submit the request. In order to request a School Crossing Guard, the school principal or assistant principal must complete and submit the attached School Crossing Guard Request Form.

For School Crossing Guard requests, DDOT requires the school to count the number of student pedestrians and bicyclists crossing the street at the desired School Crossing Guard location during any one hour period. The count may take place during the morning or during the afternoon. If the location where the crossing guard is being requested is at the intersection of two streets, students may be counted if crossing either street but no student shall be counted more than once. When completing the Request Form, the principal must include information on the number of student pedestrians and bicyclists counted as well as the time and date that the count was conducted. The count should be conducted by the school principal or by another reliable person. DDOT will verify the count provided by the school.

For Which Locations May a School Crossing Guard be Requested?

- School Crossing Guards may be requested for any location with a crosswalk that serves a minimum of 20 student pedestrians and/or bicyclists during a one hour period. The purpose of Adult School Crossing Guards is to help children safely cross the street as they walk or bicycle to and from school. Adult school crossing guards will not be provided for the purpose of directing pick-up and drop-off traffic in front of the school.
- Locations are eligible for a School Crossing Guards request if they are within $\frac{1}{4}$ mile of at least one public or public charter school that includes the grades Pre-Kindergarten through Sixth grade.
- DDOT will not locate School Crossing Guards at uncontrolled locations (that is, locations without a traffic signal or stop sign) if the street is designated as high risk according to the Crossing Deficiency Analysis from the Pedestrian Master Plan (which can be found at the following website: <http://www.tooledesign.com/projects/dc/>). Streets that are high risk are the streets that are the most dangerous to cross without a traffic signal because they have heavy traffic volumes and many lanes of traffic. In these cases, DDOT recommends that students cross the street at the nearest traffic signal.

How DDOT Prioritizes School Crossing Guard Locations

Adult School Crossing Guards are a limited resource and as such there will always be unmet demand. DDOT will analyze all new requests for Crossing Guards according to the scoring factors outlined below. As part of the analysis, each requested location will receive a numerical score. The analysis will result in a prioritized list of locations for new School Crossing Guards. The locations with the highest score will receive first priority for new Crossing Guards. School Crossing Guards will be assigned to the highest scoring schools to the extent that resources allow.

The following scoring factors are used to prioritize School Crossing Guard locations. These factors are consistent with nationwide best practices for locating School Crossing Guard posts:

- Crossing Difficulty: This factor is based on the crossing deficiency analysis that was conducted as part of the DC Pedestrian Master Plan (which can be found at the following website: <http://www.tooledesign.com/projects/dc/>) and accounts for traffic volumes, the number of lanes of traffic, and traffic speeds. Research has shown that these factors influence the safety of a given street crossing.

- Number of Schools Affected: This factor measures the number of schools with grades PK-6 that would benefit from a School Crossing Guard at a particular location. More points are given to locations that would benefit more than one school.
- Distance to Existing School Crossing Guard: This factor accounts for the distance to the nearest existing School Crossing Guard. More points are given for locations that are far from existing School Crossing Guards.
- Other Engineering Factors: This factor measures a number of other elements that affect the safety of a given crossing location. These elements include, but are not limited to, sight distance, the complexity of the intersection, and the presence of turning vehicle conflicts.
- Pedestrian Volume: This factor measures the number of students who cross the street at the requested location. For a School Crossing Guard to be provided, a minimum of 20 student pedestrians and/or bicyclists are required during a one-hour period.
- Reported Pedestrian Crash History: This factor takes into account the number of police-reported pedestrian crashes that have occurred at the requested location during the most recent three years for which data is available.

How Long Does the Process Take?

DDOT will analyze all School Crossing Guard Requests within thirty days of receipt and will inform the school principal of the requested location's placement on the School Crossing Guard Waiting List. New School Crossing Guards will be assigned to the locations with the highest priority/ranking to the extent that they are available.

DRAFT

I. Executive Summary

A. Introduction

The District of Columbia Public Schools (DCPS) is committed to positive, healthy, and safe school experiences for all students. DCPS operates to ensure all schools respond to emergencies, disruptions, or other incidents in proactive, constructive ways that minimize risks to our students and the learning community. The School Security Team, located in the Office of the Chief Operating Officer, represents a vital component of maintaining a productive environment where teachers can teach, students can learn, and all professionals can thrive.

B. Purpose

The DCPS School Security Handbook is designed to provide all DCPS employees with a comprehensive understanding of how to execute appropriate responses to security and safety matters. The guidelines contained in this manual describe specific procedures which are designed to reduce the level of safety and security incidents. It is essential that all DCPS employees view themselves as responsible for school safety and security and that they work toward the shared goal of maintaining as safe and secure school environment.

C. Confidentiality and Privacy

All DCPS employees are responsible for maintaining student privacy and mitigating risk of disclosure of private student information. The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) requires schools to ask for written consent before disclosing a student's personally identifiable information to individuals other than his or her parents.¹ This right to privacy is further enshrined in local regulations.² Student records and personal information regarding school security are highly sensitive and DCPS treats this information with the utmost care. DCPS will take every step to ensure that all student records are kept private and secure and not shared with unnecessary parties. When a student's health or safety is at risk, DCPS may release student records to law enforcement, public health officials, or medical personnel, but this information will be limited to only that which is necessary to protect a child from harm.³

D. Roadmap

This manual first explains the organizational structure of security at DCPS and the responsibilities of specific officers in section "II. Roles and Responsibilities." In section "III. School Safety Procedures" the manual explains procedures for preventing safety incidents from occurring and how to initiate procedures such as lockdowns and shelter-in-place in response to dangerous conditions in a school. Section "IV. Incidents" describes security incidents which must be reported, procedures for reporting those incidents, and how to respond to a few common specific incidents. Finally, sections "V. Building Security" and "VI. Barring Notice Policy and Procedures" describe how to secure access to school buildings and how to bar certain individuals from access to school buildings.

³ See 34 CFR § 99.31(a)(10).

II. Roles and Responsibilities

A. Organizational Structure

The safety of our schools is managed through a partnership between Washington DC’s Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) and the DCPS School Safety Team (SST) located in the DCPS School Operations Division. These teams, working in tandem, coordinate a security operation involving hundreds of officers across 113 DCPS locations.

The School Operations & Programs division provides direct, day-to-day support to all DCPS schools. This division is made of the Strategic School Operations, Food & Nutrition Services, and School Security teams. The DCPS School Operations Division oversees responsibility for school operational support across DCPS schools. The Division directly handles school operational support, interagency partnerships and cooperation, and Central Office oversight of DCPS school security. The DCPS School Security Team (SST) is directly responsible for managing DCPS and contract security officers and maintaining safety in DCPS schools. The SST works alongside MPD. MPD’s School Safety Division (SSD) also provides security officers and safety resources to schools, working in partnership with DCPS. The roles and responsibilities of DCPS SST compared to MPD SSD are outlined in the chart below.

In addition to these offices, school administrators and staff play a vital role in maintaining a safe school environment and responding to emergency situations. School staff take a leading role in ensuring that security needs are communicated to security officers and in leading the School Safety Committee, whose duties and functions are outlined in section “C. School Safety Committee.”

B. Types of Officers

DCPS Security Staff: Special Police Officers (SPO)

Special Police Officers (SPOs) perform security and provide general law enforcement duties to ensure a safe school environment. SPO's establish and maintain a close partnership with school administrators, staff, students, and parents to provide a safe school environment.

DCPS SPO duties include:

- Handling general law enforcement duties for DCPS;
- Responding to emergency events that occur in schools;
- Conducting vehicle and foot patrols on DCPS properties;
- Monitoring security contract compliance in schools, in conjunction with MPD, reporting any observed or reported issues to the Director of School Security;
- Monitoring and dispatching alarms, camera systems, and emergency calls, including the CCTV camera systems and fire alarms;
- Discovering people attempting to gain unauthorized access to the school facility;
- Preparing detailed reports of security deficiencies to include unsecured schools, unsecured technology, unset alarms, unsecured doors, etc.;
- Interacting with other law enforcement agencies on behalf of DCPS;
- Responding to intrusion alarms at schools;
- Assisting School Administrators and MPD during school lockdowns, evaluations, and building emergencies;
- Supporting emergency planning, give guidance and ensure compliance as necessary;
- When requested by MPD, assisting with Safe Passage;
- Making arrests when necessary.

Contract Security Officers (SOs)

Contract Security Officers (SOs and SPO's) work for a privately-owned security corporation. DCPS and MPD collaborate to manage contract officers using a detailed process executed in a Memorandum of Understanding. Contract officers are school-based and work with the school principal and staff to ensure the safety of all students. For SY17-18, all SOs are employees of Security Assurance Management (SAM).

SO duties include:

- Prompting arrival and review of established Post Orders for the school;
- Controlling access to school, through viewing identification, weapons screening, and visitor sign-in logs for non-school or non-DCPS personnel;
- Providing escorts as requested by School Administrators;
- Acting as emergency responders along with law enforcement;
- Conducting frequent walking patrols and serving as primary point of contact (POC) for conducting security patrols throughout the building;
- Assisting in investigations of administrative misconduct, criminal offenses, accidents, injuries to persons, damages to property and complaints within the perimeters of the assigned worksite;

- Monitoring all common spaces, hallways, stairwells, restrooms, entrances, and exits;
- Providing security coverage at athletic and school based events;
- Performing exterior and interior building security checks at the end of the school day to ensure premises are completely secure;
- Performing entrance screenings for students and guests, and ensuring visitor sign in;
- Preparing incident reports;
- Preparing Daily Activity Logs, starting within the 1st hour of reporting for duty.
- SOs should not be used as hall monitors.

Some SOs have enhanced authority, including the ability to arrest and detain individuals. These SOs, though still contract officers and not employees of DCPS, are considered Contract SPOs with similar duties and authority to a DCPS SPO. These types of SOs can be identified by the patch on their uniform (see Appendix G).

School Resource Officers (SRO)

School Resource Officers (SROs) are MPD police officers who specialize in supporting schools. SROs are a part of MPD's School Safety Division. SROs lead in delivering security services and safety resources to DCPS schools on a full-time basis. SROs are deployed according to a "cluster model" and are responsible for supporting multiple schools at a time, including both DCPS schools and public charter schools.

SRO duties include:

- Developing and maintaining an expert knowledge of the physical layout, organizational structure, academic support staff, characteristics of the student body, events and operations, incidents, and procedures and policies around school safety, including DCMR Chapters 24 and 25;
- Patrolling and monitoring all areas of the DCPS campus grounds and buildings;
- Responding when notified of the need for police assistance in and around their assigned schools;
- Preventing and responding to threats or crime against student, staff, and property;
- Making arrests when necessary, but partnering with DCPS and others to pursue alternative methods for addressing disorder and conflict;
- Participating in school safety committee meetings and other meetings scheduled to address security concerns with contract security, school staff, and when appropriate, parents and students;
- Conducting school security assessments focused on crime prevention;
- Maintaining contact with first responders assigned to the area for training and exchanging information related to school emergency planning;
- Assisting DCPS in the coordination of the Safe Passage Program to provide safe routes for youth to and from targeted middle and secondary schools;
- Identifying and providing support to at risk youth, by way of conducting home visits to chronically truant or suspended students;
- Serving as a point of contact on MPD related programs;
- Auditing SO contract security to maintain a high quality of work;
- Remaining at assigned school for entire tour of duty unless relieved by the School Resource Officer Coordinator;

- Serving as a role model for the students, staff, and parents by exemplifying the MPD Oath of Office and Code of Conduct and supporting the DCPS Student Code of Conduct and school values.

SRO's should also serve as a school's POC for any MPD detention of juveniles on the basis of truancy. MPD operates truancy enforcement throughout the entire school district and will begin to pick-up truant youth after 9:30am. The students will be returned to their schools once their enrollment has been verified.

C. School Safety Committee

In a proactive effort to support school safety, all secondary clusters and other schools identified by either the Chief of the Office of Elementary Schools or the Chief of the Office of Secondary Schools will be required to hold monthly School Safety Committee (SSC) meetings. These meetings will provide a forum for all members of the school community to engage in meaningful ongoing dialogue and collaboration focused on ensuring safe learning environments are maintained. Additionally, stakeholders within the community at large will collaborate on shared concerns and identify additional resources to support our students and schools. The SSC will share in the responsibility of establishing and communicating safety procedures, plans, expectations and responsibilities to all necessary parties.

Required Members

The School Safety Committee must include:

- A Building Administrator (i.e. the school's Principal or Designee);
- A WTU representative;
- A Local School Advisory Team (LSAT) representative;
- A representative from the parent/teacher association;
- A representative from contracted school security;
- A representative from student behavior;
- And the president of the student government association (if one exists).

It is also recommended that individuals of the following roles be included:

- SRO;
- DCPS SPO Representative;
- MPD Representative;
- Roving Leaders Representative;
- HAS Representative;
- Special Education Representative.

Responsibilities

Each school is responsible for creating a School Safety Committee (SSC) to identify school-wide safety, health, and security risks and to compose a local School Safety Plan to address those risks.

The SSC plays an essential role in the establishment of safety procedures, the communication of expectations and responsibilities of students and staff, and the design of prevention and intervention strategies and programs specific to the needs of the school.

The SSC must hold monthly meetings to provide a forum for all members of the school community to engage in meaningful ongoing dialogue and collaboration focused on ensuring that a safe learning environment is maintained. This meeting must occur no later than the 15th day of each month.

The SSC is responsible for conducting ongoing communication regarding all aspects of safety within the school community. The SSC should bring together stakeholders from the community at large to collaborate on shared concerns and identify additional resources to support the school and students.

Topics which the School Safety Committees should address are:

- Security: Post orders and issues, physical security (camera, doors, alarms, window's, etc.), communication (phones, radios, etc.);
- Department of General Services Issues: Outstanding work orders, facility issues;
- Emergency planning and Guidance: Safety drills evacuation routes;
- School based issues: Arrival and dismissal, supervision for transitions and lunch, special events, policy and procedures;
- Reviewing Student Behavior tracker (SBT) Data;
- Identifying Community Supports and Building Relationships;
- Any Other Key Concerns Specific to the School Community.

Schools must submit required documentation of meeting agendas, minutes, and sign in sheets to Central Office no later than 24 hours after the meeting is held.

School Safety Plan

The School Safety Committee designs a local discipline plan for the school consistent with Chapter 25. This plan should be submitted to a joint DCPS/WTU Committee within the first thirty days of every school year. The School Safety plan is a series of written guidelines tailored to the needs to the individual school, implemented and administered by the school principal. This comprehensive document must define the roles of staff and guide the actions of the school community both in responding to crisis situations and in day-to-day activities to prevent crises from arising. A sample template for the School Safety Plan can be found in Appendix D.

III. School Safety Procedures

A. Safety Preparedness

Identifying Threats and Vulnerabilities

DCPS is committed to the prevention of negative or harmful incidents happening on its premises. Part of this work happens in the fostering of a positive school climate where children can feel that there are ample outlets for solving their conflicts in a peaceful and respectful manner. However, the offices responsible for security at DCPS also perform valuable work in the identification of potential threats and vulnerabilities and in planning for negative incidents before they do occur. To this end, DCPS, through its partnership with MPD, provides hundreds of security officers to perform patrols, respond to incidents, protect students, and serve as a resource for students and school based staff on security issues. Security officers are present at every single school and are available outside of school hours for events. MPD officers patrol routes to and from school to ensure that students can reach school safely. In addition to this, DCPS School Security Team operates the Central Command Center, from which DCPS centrally monitors alarms and security camera in partnership with MPD.

Contract Officer Roving Procedures

Contract security officers at DCPS facilities perform roving patrols of DCPS campuses and external building perimeters, including the main school building, administrative and maintenance facilities, delivery areas, parking lots, playgrounds, sidewalks and walking paths, etc. SOs will have primary responsibility for conducting routine patrols, on a regularly scheduled basis. This includes patrolling campus grounds at least once before school opens, before classes are dismissed for the day, as students are being dismissed, and a final patrol to ensure that all entrances to the building are secure before closing the security station for the day. SOs will report to MPD SROs any suspected criminal activity.

SOs on patrol ensure that all vehicles parked in lot are authorized and will notify SROs of any unauthorized vehicles on the premises. DCPS SPOs or SROs will investigate suspicious vehicles in accordance with established the search procedures.

B. Emergency Response Protocols

Alert Status Procedures

Alert status is a protocol used in emergency conditions which require immediate secured access to the building(s). Alert status is declared when an incident dictates a heightened state of alert to visitors, deliveries, and others who desire access to the facility. Alert status restricts access by students and personnel to outside areas such as sport fields, playgrounds, and courtyards during the school day. During alert status, classes and school activities continue as normal while school security is on heightened alert. The procedures for initiating alert status are as follows:

1. The principal or the principal's designee declares Alert Status by acting as IC. In most cases, this will result from information received from the Executive Support Team (EST) as a result of a community emergency. However, this can also be ordered by the IC during a Level I emergency;
2. Activate the SERT for possible deployment;
3. Secure the facility by locking all doors from the inside (Do not chain any doors);

4. Inform staff of the Alert Status. Inform students, in an age-appropriate manner, of the heightened Alert Status. Secondary students may be informed by use of the intercom. Elementary students may need to have teachers explain the situation to each class;
5. Post security officers and MPD school resource officers near the front entrance of the building to permit people with proper identification to enter the building to conduct their business and to secure the entrance when people exit;
6. Conduct classes and activities within the building in a normal manner;
7. Check e-mail continually (at least once each half-hour) during Alert Status for new bulletins from the Office of the Chancellor;
8. Bulletins will address areas such as athletic events or practices, field trips, band activities, and evening activities. Follow all directions communicated through the bulletins.

The principal or the principal's designee will complete the After Action Report on the web-based application DC Emergency and Safety Alliance Website at <https://esa.dc.gov/service/esa-reporting-forms>.

Lockdown Procedures

Lockdown is a protocol used in response to emergency conditions which dictate securing the building to protect occupants from potential dangers within or outside the building, generally threats to physical safety. The principal or the principal's designee, acting as the IC, is the only person authorized to order a lockdown. The procedures for initiating lockdown are as follows:

Note: School Emergency Response Plans are implemented by school principals once an emergency incident arises or as directed by the EST Leader. MPD and/or FEMS emergency procedures will supersede any site-based plan.

Initiating Lockdown

1. If an emergency requires immediate action to protect the safety of students and staff, activate a Universal Emergency Response using the Public Address (PA) system, or word of mouth by the Communication Coordinator or other School Emergency Response Team members;
2. Using the intercom, make a general announcement informing all students and staff members that the building will be under Lockdown Status until further notice;
3. Activate the SERT;
4. Security Officers, MPD, SROs, and administrators should check hallways, restrooms, locker rooms, storage areas, and other areas that may be occupied to ensure that everyone is evacuating to the closest classroom where a teacher is present;
5. Students in the main office, guidance office, health suite, cafeteria, and/or multipurpose rooms for lunch, assemblies, or large group activities will remain at these locations under the direction of the staff present at the time;
6. Provide assistance to individuals needing special assistance;
7. Security will be responsible for locking front lobby doors and office doors. Building services workers will check and verify that all exterior doors are securely closed and locked;
8. Close and secure (lock if possible) windows and doors of classroom, pull down blinds, and turn off the lights and do not leave the room while lockdown is in effect. Students are to sit on the

- floor away from any windows and doors. Barricade the door if it can be done quickly as a secondary response. Stay quiet and await further instructions;
9. Display the School Emergency Procedures Guide cover in a door window (or under the door) to indicate the following:
 - Red Side Out—Need Assistance/Help.
 - Green Side Out—No Assistance Needed/All Clear.
 10. An administrative staff member will contact 911 to alert emergency responders that the building is under Lockdown and provide as much information as possible concerning the nature of the emergency.

Ending Lockdown

1. On conclusion of the emergency and confirmation that the safety of students and staff are no longer threatened, the principal may declare that the Lockdown is ended;
2. Administer first aid as necessary;
3. Students should report to their home rooms, and teachers must take roll and report to the designated Attendance Counselor the names of any missing persons;
4. Designated administrative staff members will determine that all staff members and visitors are accounted for and report findings to the Student Accounting Coordinator;
5. Follow up notifications should be made using the specific Emergency Incident Protocols based on the nature of the emergency.

The principal or the principal's designee will complete the After Action Report on the web-based application DC Emergency and Safety Alliance Website at <https://esa.dc.gov/service/esa-reporting-forms>

Active Shooter / Armed Subject Procedures

All school and office personnel must be prepared to carry out plans in the event of gunfire or what is called an active shooter in the school or on school grounds.

In the unfortunate event that gunfire erupts within a school or on school property, the term Active Shooter should be used when notifying the Metropolitan Police Department (911). This allows for appropriate allocation of police resources. The procedures for responding to an active shooter/armed subject are as follows:

1. Take immediate action to protect students and staff by announcing "Lockdown" and following Lockdown procedures over the school's PA system. If there is no PA system, procedures must be in place that immediately alert the school population to the danger (alternative communication methods identified in your school plan);
2. Notify the MPD (911). Indicate clearly to the police dispatcher that there is an "Active Shooter." Give the name, location, and telephone number of the school. If the principal has a cell phone, provide the number to the police. The principal must keep the cell phone on and in his/her possession;
3. Activate the plan for a Hostage Situation that instructs students and staff (if feasible) to Lockdown and Drop and Cover. When classrooms or offices are used to lockdown, all persons must stay away from windows and doors and remain as quiet as possible. All classroom and office doors should be locked from the inside, if possible, with the appropriate color displayed in the door window or under the door using the School Emergency Procedures Guide (flipchart). Barricade the door if it can be done quickly as a secondary response;

4. All persons are to remain in place until they receive instructions from the police;
5. Notify security;
6. Notify EST Manager;
7. When police arrive, they will assume jurisdiction over the event. Follow Metropolitan Police instructions. Be prepared to report as much specific information regarding the event (i.e., number of gunmen, location, number of injured persons, etc).

The principal or their designee will complete the After Action Report on the web-based application DC Emergency and Safety Alliance Website at <https://esa.dc.gov/service/esa-reporting-forms>.

Shelter-in-Place/Hazardous Materials Incident Occurring Outside the School Building

Fire and/or police department officials will contact a school when an incident involving hazardous materials may affect the health and safety of a school population. There are two basic responses to addressing this type of emergency: sheltering students and staff inside following the Shelter-in-Place Procedure and evacuating the school to a safer location following the Evacuation and Relocation procedures. Emergency personnel will determine if students and staff need to evacuate the school or if sheltering them in place is the appropriate response.

Students and staff shelter in place when there is hazardous weather or air conditions outside of the school building. Shelter-in-place procedures are as follows:

1. The principal or principal's designee makes a general announcement informing all students and staff that the building will be under Lockdown until further notice, usually using the intercom;
2. Activate School Emergency Response Team as needed;
3. Students and staff take shelter in a readily accessible location that puts as much indoor air and mass between the individual and the outside hazard;
4. Close all doors, windows, and vents, shut off all ventilation and HVAC systems and seal doors and windows from outside contaminants with damp towels or, if available, plastic sheeting and adhesive tapes;
5. Isolate the immediate area of the spill or release. Do not attempt to clean up a spill unless you have been properly trained to do so. Seek information from product label and/or material safety data sheets (MSDS) on recommended cleanup procedures;
6. In the absence of information concerning the nature of the hazards associated with the spilled or released material, or proper cleanup procedures, always contact 911 for assistance from trained Hazardous Material Responders. Even with information on the hazard's nature, 911 should be notified;
7. Based on the nature of the spill or release incident (the hazard posed by the material or lack of information concerning the hazardous material), it may be necessary to Evacuate the building to protect safety and health of students and staff.

The principal or their designee will decide when to call an end to the shelter-in-place. They will then complete an After Action Report and submit it to the DC Emergency and Safety Alliance, via their website at <https://esa.dc.gov/service/esa-reporting-forms>.

C. Requests for Contract Security Officers

DCPS Schools and Programs

Schools are responsible for ensuring that security services are present every time students or staff are present at school-sponsored event on school grounds, including outside of regular school hours. If a DCPS program or school needs to request security for an event, they should contact the School Security Team at least 10 days prior to the event date. DCPS programs and schools are not responsible for the cost associated with security when using DCPS space for school-sponsored events, these costs will be handled by the School Security. A school-sponsored event is one that is initiated and facilitated by school or DCPS staff as part of an official school program, it is not an event that is run by a non-DCPS community member, including alumni and family members.

Community Members and Organizations

Community members and outside organizations are responsible for providing security for DCPS buildings and grounds outside of the regular school day. These organizations must send an application to school security with an estimate of the cost for providing this security. These applications must be submitted at least five (5) business days prior to the proposed event; applications received late will not be processed. Non-DCPS entities are responsible for the cost of security when they are using a DCPS school to host a program or event. This includes alumni, neighbors, family members, and other community members who might be associated with the school.

D. Searches

Student Searches

School administrators may conduct searches of students that are reasonable to maintain the security, discipline, and educational atmosphere of the environment. An example of this is weapons abatement screenings carried out by SROs as students enter the school. A search should not be undertaken unless there is a reasonable suspicion that a violation of either the student discipline rules exists or immediate security and safety of students is in jeopardy in accordance with the DCMR.

Reasonable suspicion presumes any one or more of the following circumstances exist:

- School officials observe contraband or other prohibited property, or conduct suggests the presence of contraband or other prohibited property;
- General, suspicious conduct, such as a student being in a restricted area without approval;
- A tip from an informant, either known to the school official to be reliable or, if anonymous, possessing some attribute, knowledge, or relationship to the school, student, or community that gives credence to the information;
- Observation of furtive or evasive behavior to suggest concealment of a weapon, contraband, or stolen property or perpetration of an offense in violation of school regulations or laws.

In deciding whether to undertake a search, the student's age, history, and school record must be considered in the context of the nature of the infraction.

Searching Desks and Lockers

Random searches of lockers, desks, and other property provided by DCPS will be undertaken in a manner consistent with overall need to maintain safety and security of DC schools. Searches must occur under the auspices of the DCPS School Security and, where appropriate, the MPD and the DCPS Office of the General Counsel unless circumstances compel immediate action to avoid imminent danger to self or others.

Metal Detectors

Magnetometers and other metal-detecting devices may be utilized by school officials at the entrances to schools to deter weapons being brought on to school grounds as determined by DCPS School Security and MPD.

Cellphones and Other Technological Devices

School administrators, or other school staff specifically designated by administrators, may search a student's personal technological device under certain limited circumstances. The official must have a reasonable suspicion that the student used or is using the device to endanger the school, other students, or staff, and that the device contains evidence of the suspected violation. MPD SRO's and contract officers, School Security should be contacted in each instance and a school incident report should be prepared and submitted to School Security. Contract officers should not be utilized in schools to collect and return phones to students as this is not a security related function.

DRAFT

IV. Incidents

A. Reporting of Security Incidents

Responsibility for Security Incident Reporting

To create an environment in which all DCPS students and staff feel safe and able to express their concerns about the school environment, all schools must establish procedures which afford students and staff a mechanism to comfortably and confidentially report incidents which affect them.

All school leaders and school based staff are responsible for the reporting all security incidents that occur in or within close proximity of their schools during business hours, as soon as possible. The incident must be reported to the Office of School Security and the Instructional Superintendent. The Principal in charge of the site will ensure that the contract Security Officer prepares the Security Incident Report, with assistance from school staff and leadership, and submits it to the School Security team.

Security Incident Report Requirements

The following information must be included on the Security Incident Report form. Be sure to gather this information prior to completing the report.

- Incident Category
- Incident Location
- Address of School
- Incident Dates
- Date of the Report
- Name of Reporting Officer
- Contact Phone Number

Transmission of Incident Reports

Incident reports are transmitted from the schools to the School Security Team via fax at 202-576-6593. Once the incident reports are received by School Security Team, the incident report is immediately logged into their system and a tracking number is assigned. When incidents involve allegations of corporal punishment, discourteous treatment, or other serious employee misconduct, the reports will be referred to the Compliance Investigations team for intake and potential investigation.

Notice to Parents

Parents will be notified on the phone or in writing whenever their child is involved in an incident. School staff will ensure that this notice is in a form accessible to the parent and information about a student being involved in an incident is not unnecessarily transmitted to parties other than the parent, law enforcement, or medical professionals.

B. Child Abuse and Neglect

Mandated reporters are professionals obligated by law to report known or suspected incidents of child abuse and neglect. Mandated reporters are part of a citywide safety net that provides life-saving interventions for vulnerable children and youth in the District of Columbia.

All DCPS employees and contractors, including school officials, teachers, coaches, nurses, and mental health professionals must report suspected child abuse and neglect, as mandated reporters. Any employee who suspects that a student attending a DCPS school or program is a victim of child abuse or neglect (or is in danger of being subjected to abuse or neglect) should immediately make an oral report of the suspected abuse to the Child and Family Services Agency (CFSA), MPD, and your school principal.⁴ You must make this report immediately, even if you believe that someone else has already made a report on the same issue.

Employees have a legal obligation to report such knowledge or suspicion to:

- The Child and Family Services Agency (CFSA) by calling 202-671-SAFE (7233); AND
- The D.C. Metropolitan Police Department by notifying the school's SRO, or by calling 911. If you must dial 911, please clarify whether you have any immediate safety concerns.

After making a report to CFSA and MPD, notify the school principal and your school security officer about your concerns, so an incident report can be filed with DCPS' Office of School Security (OSS) and the principal can fulfill his or her independent obligation to make a report to MPD and CFSA.

The employee is then required to create a written report of the case if requested by CFSA or MPD, or in all cases where the suspected abuse involves drug-related activity. The report must include the following information, if known by the person making the report:

- The name, age, gender, and address of:
 - The child who is the subject of the report;
 - Each of the child's siblings and other children in the household; and
 - Each of the child's parents or other persons responsible for the child's care;
- The nature and extent of the abuse or neglect of the child and any previous abuse or neglect, if known;
- All other information which the person making the report believes may be helpful in establishing the cause of the abuse or neglect and the identity of the person responsible for the abuse or neglect; and
- The identity and occupation of the reporter, how to contact the reporter, and a statement of the actions taken by the reporter concerning the child.

Employees should make their report immediately upon learning about the suspected abuse or neglect. The knowledge of suspected abuse or neglect should be treated as an emergency and as if there is an active threat to the child's safety. Reporters should not wait until they have proof of the abuse or neglect before reporting; waiting for proof may involve grave risk for the child. In fact, employees should not try to attempt any investigation or questioning. These steps should be left to qualified reporters. As a mandated reporter, you will not experience retribution for filing a report in good faith, you will not be disciplined, and your identity will remain confidential unless a case goes to trial.

- Injury by a bullet, knife, or sharp object

Penalties for Failing to Report

Failure to abide by your affirmative duty to report an incident of suspected or substantiated abuse/assault/exploitation/exposure may result in disciplinary action for willful nonperformance or inexcusable neglect of duty. In addition, in accordance with D.C. law, failure to make a report may result in legal action, including the assessment of a fine and prosecution.

Annual Training Requirement

All DCPS employees are required to become certified Mandated Reporters of Child Abuse and Neglect within 31 days of employment. Free training is available online at dc.mandatedreporter.org. This training provides useful information concerning the types and signs of child abuse and neglect and reporting obligations. The Mandated Reporter Training must be re-taken each year. Additional information regarding employee's responsibilities as mandated reporters can be found at <https://dc.mandatedreporter.org/pages/Welcome.action>.

Special Procedures for Truancy

Employees who are concerned about having not seen a particular student in school and suspect truancy should report their concerns to the school's attendance counselor or designee. The attendance counselor or designee will make a referral to CFSA.

Employees should make this report no later than two (2) school days after students age five (5) to thirteen (13) accrue ten (10) unexcused absences within one (1) school year.

C. Reporting to Law Enforcement

Routine disciplinary matters should always be handled as such, and referrals to law enforcement should only be made when necessary. Calls to 911 cannot be made simply to discipline a student or to regain control of a classroom. They should only be made when crimes are being committed and during actual during emergencies.

When students appear to be in crisis such as screaming, cursing, or kicking their limbs in the air and no one has been seriously injured or is in danger of serious injury, 911 should not be called. Immediately contact the parent by phone and connect the parent to the student to try and calm the student. Ask any appropriate support teams for additional support, such as the school based mental health support team. If needed, those staff members can initiate contact with CHAMPS. The principal, parents, and key building personnel should be made aware if MPD or CHAMPS is contacted.

There are emergency situations where school staff may not feel equipped to address severe behaviors and/or safety threats. In those situations, it may be appropriate to call 911. The following scenarios are appropriate for calling 911:

1. Serious injury or threats of serious injury or violence;
2. Weapons offenses including guns and/or potential bomb related materials;
3. Threats of violence against the school including bomb threats and/or active shooter concerns;
4. Large groups of students and/or individuals who appear overtly aggressive and threatening;
5. Irate and uncontrollable community members, parents, etc;
6. When a child under the age of 18 leaves the building and school staff cannot persuade the student to return to school;
7. A child has signs of physical/sexual abuse (also contact CFSA).

Calling 911 should be reserved for true emergency situations. Try to resolve nonemergency situations by contacting your school's SRO.

E. Specific Incident Responses

Drugs, Alcohol, and Other Illegal Substances

DCPS employees should confiscate any illegal substance found on school grounds and should ensure that it is properly delivered to an administrator for storage. Each administrator (the Principal or their designee) should immediately secure the substance by:

1. Carefully placing the substance in a plastic bag and stapling the bag closed;
2. Affixing masking or adhesive tape along of the four sides of the bag;
3. Affixing a white label in the upper right corner of the package detailing the location where the substance was received and logged, the date it was acquired, the person or place from where the substance was acquired, the date and time that school security was notified of the substance, and the name of the person who located and received the substance;
4. The administrator should immediately contact available security personnel to take possession of the substance. While this is taking place, the substance should not be left unattended or placed in a drawer or filing cabinet—it should be monitored by a member of staff until it is relinquished to law enforcement;
5. When security personnel take possession of the substance, an incident report should be prepared which contains the name of the school official transferring the substance, the name of the security personnel receiving the substance, and the date and time of the transfer, along with all other required information for an incident report.

Weapons Abatement

Firearms on School Property

In the event firearms (gun, rifle, shotgun) or what is believed to be a firearm (including replicas such as BB guns) is found on school property, security personnel are directed to immediately report this to the principal/administrator, who should immediately call the MPD at 911, the principal, and School Security at 202-576-6950/53.

The area surrounding the firearm must be secured and cordoned off to the best extent possible. School personnel should not attempt to handle, move, or tamper with the firearm themselves unless emergency circumstances warrant immediate action.

If personnel are required to handle the firearm, it should be done with extreme caution. If you believe that you must handle the weapon, the following is recommended:

- Always assume that the firearm is loaded;
- Pick up the weapon by its handle or stock;
- Under no circumstances place your finger or thumb on the trigger of the firearm;
- Point the firearm toward the ground;
- Never point the firearm at yourself or others;
- Secure the firearms immediately (i.e., obtain a trash can or cover and place it over the firearm);
- Await the arrival of the police.

Security at Athletic Events

Athletic events are an opportunity for DCPS students to represent their schools with pride. They are also often highly emotional events, and the student, staff, and parental investment in athletic success can lead to many incidents and security concerns. Contract security must be scheduled 10 days prior to the game or event through School Security. The Office of Athletics works in tandem with the SST to ensure that schedules for all games are communicated to all necessary parties and that school leadership and the SST are fully informed of any last-minute changes to the scheduling of athletic events. The following are mandatory steps to ensure safety at athletic competitions:

- Have a visible contact and DCPS Security presence at all games;
- Have clear written and posted guidelines and expectations for every athletic event;
- Have clear written and distributed Codes of Conduct for student athletes and coaches;
- Have a clear written and distributed spectator policy;
- Have a specific safety plan written pertaining to athletic events;
- Conduct a review of resources prior to each home game (game environment, support staff, school staff, school safety, MPD, etc.);
- Review game posts and responsibilities with all necessary parties;
- Conduct meetings with all coaches and teams prior to the first game of the season. Use this time to review expectations and cover possible scenarios that could lead to a crisis;
- Check in with coaches prior to all games.

Coaches are often in the best position to de-escalate incidents at athletic events. Ensure that all coaches receive de-escalation training and training on appropriate ways to identify warning signs of potential negative behavior. Regular meetings led by the School Safety Committee with all relevant stakeholders to review and monitor the success of game-day procedures and to analyze the response to specific incidents will help to ensure that school personnel are fully prepared for incidents at athletic events. Finally, a proactive approach to fostering a positive school climate in the realm of athletics will decrease the percentage of negative incidents. Bullying, harassment, and/or “hazing” among sports team should never be permitted or excused as a way to “toughen up” participants. This kind of locker room behavior is often indicative of a toxic culture that can directly lead to negative behaviors on the field. Promoting team values such as sportsmanship, integrity, and humility as well as competitiveness will create a climate in which teams can represent DCPS at their very best.

Emergencies

DCPS adheres to the Incident Command System (ICS) which is an emergency response system based on the School Emergency Response Plan and Management Guide. ICS is a framework for structuring the roles and responsibilities of staff and agency members during an incident or an emergency. Response to school emergencies are generally overseen by the Incident Commander (IC), usually the school’s principal or designee, with the help of the School Emergency Response Team (SERT), a collection of school based staff prepared for emergency response. The following is a few basic procedures for recurring emergencies related to school security. More detailed information on the implementation of ICS and school emergency response can be found in the DCPS School Emergency Response Policy.

Fires

- a) The fire alarm must immediately be activated and the building evacuated without delay.
- b) DC FEMS must be called regardless of the size or severity of the fire.
- c) After evacuation, SERT team members assigned to, and trained in, fire suppression may attempt to extinguish the fire if it is safe to do so.
- d) No students or staff are permitted to re-enter the affected school until DC FEMS has searched the building and declared the building safe to enter.

Violence, Riots, Sit-Ins, and Large-Scale Fights

- a) The IC will activate their SERT and contact law enforcement and school security for assistance;
- b) SO’s will chronologically document the full events of the incident;
- c) SO’s, SPO’s, SRO’s, and SERT will be responsible for managing student safety and deescalating current conflicts;
- d) SRO’s and other MPD personnel will handle necessary detention and arrests;
- e) Parents will be notified if students have been removed or arrested.

Armed Subject

- a) In the event an active shooter is in the school building, the IC or designee will call law enforcement and School Security immediately and implement lockdown procedures;
- b) All students and staff will avoid windows and doors while remaining as quiet as possible. Doors shall be locked, if possible, from the inside and the appropriate color, as provided by the School Emergency Procedures Flipchart, will be displayed for first responders to view status of the room from windows, doors, or on the floor under the doorway. Barricade the door if it can be done quickly as a secondary response.
- c) Everyone shall remain in place until law enforcement provides further instructions. The IC or designee will notify security and the Executive Support Team (EST) Manager as soon as it is safe to do so.

Bomb Threats

- a) Upon receipt of a credible bomb threat, all individuals will evacuate the threatened building;
- b) The IC and the SERT will ensure that all evidence of the threat is preserved as much as possible;

- c) School, staff, and other individuals will refrain from using wireless communication devices during the duration of the threat.

General Threat Management

- a) Student Threat: IC or designee must contact security personnel and determine the level of threat. Depending on the threat level, the IC shall notify other designated emergency employees, including DCPS emergency personnel or MPD as necessary, that their services are needed as appropriate. Nurses will be contacted for medical threats. School counselors shall be contacted for other threats. MPD shall be notified in cases of danger.
- b) Employee/Visitor Threat: In the event that there is a threat of immediate physical harm, the IC shall contact law enforcement, security, and the EST Manager. If there is no immediate danger, the IC will inform appropriate school personnel to report threats or threatening behavior they may witness. The IC or designee will contact the EST Manager and security.

V. Building Security

A. Securing School Buildings

Building Access

Regular School Hours

All schools should establish a system with requirements that everyone entering the school building must register and identify themselves. The main entrance to the school building should be used for all visitor entries and exits. The number of entrances and exits used in schools should be limited to the number needed to efficiently and safely conduct school business.

The following groups may also use school buildings and grounds during normal school hours, as long as their use does not conflict with schools' operations and does not generate additional costs for DCPS:

- PTA's and HAS's (also allowed four free meetings per year outside of normal operating hours of their schools);
- Local School Community Boards;
- Parental and School Advisory Committees established pursuant to federal or local laws;
- City-wide education organizations or affiliates of national organizations;
- Organizations providing volunteer support for the school.

After School Hours

DCPS buildings and facilities ultimately fall under the purview of the DC Department of General Services (DGS). The usage of DCPS facilities after regular school hours must be approved by a building use agreement (BUA) or lease. This agreement must be approved by the respective school principal and issued by DGS. Furthermore, organizations with valid building use agreements will be expected to have DCPS school security at their events. Requests for this security must be placed to the School Security Team no later than ten (10) business days before the event in question. Furthermore, non-DCPS organizations will be expected to cover all costs of additional security.

Trespassers/Unauthorized Entry

If school staff spot an unknown individual on school grounds who is not wearing a visitor badge, did not enter school grounds through the main entrance, or is in an area restricted for staff and students only, that individual is considered a trespasser on school grounds. Staff should attempt to identify the subject and to ensure that the trespasser is advised that they are trespassing and must leave the premises. The principal should be notified right away with a description of the trespasser and their location. Law enforcement should be contacted if necessary and take measures to ensure that students are kept safely away from the trespassing individual. The principal or a designee should determine whether it is necessary to implement lockdown procedures.

Prohibited Use of School Grounds

The following will not be permitted on a school facility at any time. Engaging in these actions can terminate an individual's or organization's otherwise legitimate permission to use the school facility:

- Unlawful discrimination against any individual;⁵
- Any activity of service which violates any federal or state Constitutional, statutory, or regulatory provisions including violation of the Establishment Clause of the First Amendment to the United States Constitution;⁶
- Operation by private or parochial schools of elementary or secondary programs where that operation would not comport with, or would adversely affect, the local public school;⁷
- Sale or consumption of alcoholic beverages⁸ with the exception of leased facilities which have obtained the appropriate license form the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board;⁹
- Sale or use of tobacco and tobacco products with the exception of use of such products in designated smoking areas;¹⁰
- Gambling with the exception of bingo games or raffles relayed by the District of Columbia Lottery and Charitable Games Control Board;¹¹
- Traveling shows such as circuses and animal shows;¹²
- Erecting any unapproved or unauthorized signs or permanent installations;¹³
- Unapproved fundraising activities¹⁴ or private commercial purposes.

Key Control for School Buildings

A limited number of people should be in control of keys which allow full access to the school building. Persons authorized to have access to the entire school building are the principal, the principal's building and facilities designee, the head custodian, and any assistant principals. If it becomes necessary to loan these keys on a temporary basis, it is incumbent upon the individual loaning the key to immediately retrieve it after its specifically designated use. At no time should the keys be in possession of students.

When a key-holding employee is transferred or separated from a building, it is the principal's responsibility to collect all keys and have locks changed or rekeyed immediately. Principals have the authority to designate a central location for keys that are frequently used. A sign in and out procedure should be established whereby a key-holding employee can monitor who has access to the key at all times and will take responsibility for retrieving the key at the end of its prescribed use.

VI. Barring Notice Policy and Procedures

A person's privilege to enter the school building or premises may be revoked by the issuance of a Barring Notice. Principals may request permission to deny a person's request to enter a school building or to be present on school premises in certain instances and after following the barring notice procedures set forth below. The ability to enter the school building or premises, or to remain on the school grounds, may be revoked for the following reasons:

1. A person has posed a disruption to school activities, school events, or classroom instruction.
2. A person has attempted to pose a disruption to school activities, school events, or classroom instruction.
3. A person poses, has posed, or attempted to pose a threat to any student or staff or otherwise compromise student or staff safety.
4. A person has endangered or intentionally caused destruction to school property.

A principal must be able to clearly articulate the facts that justify the need to issue the Barring Notice. Barring Notices are not to be used as punishment. Their purpose is to protect the educational environment from threat of disruption, threat to the safety of students or staff or threat of personal injury. The conduct of the individual being barred must be consistent with one of the four reasons stated above. Principals should exhaust all reasonable options to resolve concerns before requesting a Barring Notice.

Violation of the terms of a Barring Notice or a verbal order to leave the school grounds or premises may result in the individual being subject to arrest and prosecution.

Procedures for Issuing a Barring Notice

To initiate issuance of a Barring Notice, the principal or designee must submit a written request to the school's Instructional Superintendent. The written request must specify the reasons for the Barring Notice and include any documentation that supports the proposed barring. Such documentation includes, but is not limited to, security incident reports, police reports, witness statements, and video footage. The principal only has authority to request a Barring Notice for the school for which they are responsible. For other DCPS facilities not presided over by a principal, the Chancellor, the Director of School Security, or their respective designees retains authority to issue a Barring Notice.

Requests for Barring Notice must be approved by the Instructional Superintendent before being submitted to the Chief of Schools for approval. Once the Chief of Schools approves the Request for Barring Notice, it is then sent to DCPS Office of General Counsel (OGC) for review and approval. After OGC approves the Request for Barring Notice, it is sent to the Chancellor for final review and approval. The finalized and approved Barring Notice may be provided to the barred individual in person or by mail, but it is not enforceable until then. The School Security Team or its designee shall be responsible for serving and enforcing the Barring Notice, in conjunction with MPD when deemed appropriate.

Instructions for how to seek review of the Barring Notice must be provided to the individual being barred at the time the Barring Notice is delivered, along with a copy of the How To Seek Review of a DCPS Barring Notice guide.

Until the Barring Notice is fully approved by all the above parties and served to the barred individual, the Barring Notice is not in effect.

A request for a Barring Notice should be approved by the Instructional Superintendent and submitted to the Chief of Schools for approval no later than 2 school days after the occurrence of the incident that the request is based on. If the request is based on a series of incidents, it should be approved by the Instructional Superintendent and submitted to the Chief of Schools for approval no later than 2 school days after the most recent incident.

Barring Notice Requirements

The Barring Notice must include (1) the name of the school from which the individual has been barred and (2) a term or expiration date for the Barring Notice. This can be for however is long enough to settle the threat of disruption or threat to security, but cannot include a term that extends beyond the current school year.

The duration of a Barring Notice may be increased or decreased depending on changes in the circumstances of the threat to disruption or threat to security caused by the barred individual. If a Barring Notice is set to expire and the barred individual's behavior still necessitates that they be barred from the school, the duration of the Barring Notice may be extended subject to the same approval process as an initial Barring Notice.

All decisions to rescind, extend, or reduce a previously-issued Barring Notice must be reviewed and approved by the Chief of Schools and the Chancellor (or a designee) in consultation with OGC. If a principal believes that a Barring Notice should be given a shorter duration due to a change in circumstances, the principal may request that the duration of the Barring Notice be decreased or that the Barring Notice be rescinded.

The school principal may temporarily suspend the Barring Notice for a specific event (e.g. parent teacher conference, school graduation, school program) provided the barred individual does not pose a specific threat during that event. The principal must inform the Chancellor's Office and OGC of the temporary Barring Notice suspension by e-mail (dcps.barringnotices@dc.gov). The principal must also notify the Instructional Superintendent of the temporary suspension.

Barring of Parents

When determining whether an individual should be barred from a school, a principal should give greater consideration to whether the individual to be barred is a parent/guardian with a child enrolled in the school. If a parent/guardian is barred, school staff must still ensure that the parent/guardian has access to their child's education records and data. Parent-teacher conferences may be held by conference call and communication may also occur through email. If the parent/guardian can only receive education records or information in person by visiting the school (e.g. the individual does not have access to email), the school must make reasonable efforts to accommodate a visit to the school of limited duration by the barred individual for the limited purpose of picking up the records. The visit must be coordinated with school officials and school security and be scheduled on a specific date and time.

The committee is responsible for conducting ongoing communication regarding all aspects of safety within the school community. The committee is also tasked with addressing identified concerns and safety matters, and then proposing appropriate recommendations to the necessary parties.

It is the responsibility of the principal to ensure that these committees are established and monthly meetings are held.

The committee shall be comprised of, at a minimum, individuals of the following roles:

- Principal/Designee
- School Behavior POC
- School Security POC
- Dean(s)
- SO Representative

It is also recommended that individuals of the following roles be included:

- SRO
- SPO
- MPD Representative
- Roving Leaders Representative
- HSA Representative
- WTU Representative
- Special Education Representative

Schools will be required to provide documentation of meeting dates and attendees to a shared Google doc and meeting minutes to a share drive folder. Each school should also document this information in the ESA monthly training and orientation of their Emergency Response Plan.

Appendix E: FAQ on Abuse and Neglect

At DCPS, who must report allegations of child abuse and neglect?

All DCPS employees and contractors, including school officials, teachers, coaches, nurses, and mental health professionals must report suspected child abuse and neglect, as mandated reporters.

When am I obligated to make a report of abuse or neglect?

You must make a report of abuse or neglect whenever you suspect or know that a student has been or is in danger of being subjected to any of the following (please see appendix for expanded definitions):¹⁵

- Mental injury: Harm to a child's psychological or intellectual functioning due to another individual's acts or omissions.
- Physical abuse: Physical harm or threatened harm to a child, other than by accident, perpetrated by another individual.
- Physical assault: Any physical contact with another person without their consent.
- Neglect: Harm or threatened harm to a child's health or welfare due to a parent or caregiver's failure to provide adequate food, shelter, clothing, medical care, or access to education.
- Sexual abuse: Sexual contact or sexual penetration with a child.
- Sexual exploitation: Allowing, permitting, or encouraging a child to engage in prostitution or to be depicted in a sexual act.
- Sexual assault: Illegal sexual contact that usually involves force or that is inflicted upon a person who is incapable of giving consent (because of age or physical or mental incapacity).
- Exposure to illegal drug-related activity: Ingestion of illegal drug due to guardian's negligence or regular exposure to illegal drug-related activity in the home.
- Exposure to domestic violence: Witnessing physical, sexual, and/or psychological abuse to an individual perpetrated by that individual's current or former intimate partner.

Additionally, you must make a report whenever you suspect or know that a student:

- Has been injured by a bullet, or injured by a knife or other sharp object.

A report must be made no matter who fired the gun or held the sharp object that caused the injury.

How do I report suspected cases of abuse or neglect?

By DCPS policy, you must report each of the above incidents to:

- The Child and Family Services Agency (CFSA) by calling 202-671-SAFE (7233); AND
- The D.C. Metropolitan Police Department by notifying the MPD officer in your school (i.e. your School Resource Officer or SRO), or by calling 911. If you must dial 911, please clarify whether you have any immediate safety concerns.

After making a report to CFSA and MPD, notify the school principal and your school security officer about your concerns, so an incident report can be filed with DCPS' Office of School Security (OSS) and the principal can fulfill his or her independent obligation to make a report to MPD and CFSA.

¹⁵ In addition to these obligations, staff members are required to report when a child dies in the District of Columbia. A report of the child's death shall be made to the Registrar of Vital Records (202-442-9303) as soon as practicable, but no later than within 5 business days of the employee's knowledge of the child's death.

How soon do I have to make the report to MPD and CFSA?

The report must be made immediately upon learning about the suspected abuse or neglect. You should treat your knowledge of suspected abuse or neglect as you would any emergency concerning the safety of a child. For example, request emergency class coverage, so you can make reports to CFSA and MPD.

What do I do if I'm not sure whether what I've learned could constitute abuse or neglect?

If you suspect a student is being subjected to abuse or neglect, you must make a report. You cannot be punished for filing a report in good faith. You also cannot be disciplined at work for making a report or for cooperating in an investigation. Further, your identity will be confidential unless a case goes to trial.

Should I investigate the allegation myself before making a report?

No. School staff must refrain from questioning a suspected victim, abuser, or witnesses. You are to simply report your suspicions (as indicated above) and allow trained investigators to investigate the allegation. By attempting to perform investigations of abuse you risk compromising any formal investigation by CFSA or MPD, and you may be considered to have tampered with the investigation.

If I believe someone else has already made a report to MPD and CFSA, must I make a report?

Yes. The staff member who initially receives the report of abuse or neglect and the school principal (or the principal's designee) must always report the alleged abuse or neglect to MPD and CFSA, even if it is believed that another person has already reported the alleged abuse or neglect. Likewise, notifying your supervisor or other agency administrator does not satisfy your legal obligation to file a report. By law, both the person who was first to receive the report of abuse or neglect and the school principal (or a designee of the principal) must report each suspected instance of abuse or neglect.¹⁶

Do I follow this protocol when I suspect a staff member has engaged in corporal punishment?

Yes. Corporal punishment by staff is prohibited and must be reported. An act of corporal punishment could also constitute abuse, so you must report suspected corporal punishment as indicated above.

Do I follow this reporting protocol when the alleged perpetrator of abuse is also a child?

Yes. Abuse can be perpetrated by children and must still be reported according to these procedures.

After I've determined that a report must be made, how do I address the student?

First ensure that the student's immediate medical needs are addressed by the nurse or by calling 911 (in case of emergency). If immediate medical attention is not needed, escort the student to any member of the school-based crisis response team (i.e., social worker, psychologist, counselor, or nurse), who will assume responsibility for the student. Please keep your concerns confidential from other students.

What information might be requested of me when I file my report?

You may be asked to provide the name, age, sex, and address of the child who is the subject of the report, the nature and extent of the suspected abuse or neglect of the child, your identity and occupation, your contact information, and a statement of the actions taken by you concerning the child.

¹⁶ This dual reporting requirement can be found in D.C. Code § 4-1321.02(b).

What happens if I fail to make a report?

If you fail to make a report, a child in danger may not receive the attention he or she needs. The penalty for failing to make a report is a fine of up to $300 or imprisonment for up to 90 days or both.

Truancy is not covered here. How do I report my concerns about a frequently absent student?

Truancy follows a different reporting protocol from the one described above. Suspicion of truancy (i.e., 10 or more unexcused absences) should only be reported to your school's attendance counselor and/or attendance designee.

Keeping DC Schools Safe for All Protocol for DC School Officials

As we navigate the current climate, it is important that we provide appropriate guidance to our educators, administrators and other officials who work with DC students and families. We must ensure that our policies follow applicable DC and federal laws while making all Washingtonians feel safe and included.

The following points provide guidance that can help to protect DC students, DC families and those who work at DC schools. Please take a moment to review this information.

ADVICE FOR SCHOOL PERSONNEL

What can I tell my students and their families?

- Assure students and their families that all students, regardless of immigration status, have a constitutional right to a public education. DCPS and our charter schools continue to welcome children, regardless of their immigration or citizenship status. According to Plyler v. Doe, a Supreme Court case from 1982, a State cannot bar undocumented children from public school. This would violate the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment. Even if Plyler did not exist, barring undocumented students would violate our DC values. This means that kids enrolled in school, regardless of status, may take advantage of all school related programs other than ones necessitating a passport, regardless of status. That is, they can participate in school meal programs; they are entitled to special education services where needed; they get the same Kids Ride Free benefits; they can participate in the same school sponsored after school activities; they get the same services from the school nurse. They are treated the same.

- Point students toward helpful resources. DC schools are allowed to distribute Know Your Rights information and lists of organizations that can provide help. Ask your principal/ administrative leader if your school has information to share, such as a Know Your Rights handout or list of nonprofit organizations. Though you cannot take affirmative steps to conceal or harbor an undocumented individual, you can serve your students, support your students and connect them with helpful services. Please note, though, that you should only distribute materials that have been reviewed by the Office of General Counsel. This is to ensure the accuracy of any information disseminated.
- Remind students that schools, daycare centers and school activity events are sensitive locations. According to a 2011 ICE Memorandum ("Sensitive Locations Policy"), as expanded under the Trump Administration, ICE cannot conduct enforcement activities at, near or in a way that would disrupt the operation of "sensitive locations" — unless the agents have prior approval from ICE. "Sensitive locations" include known and licensed daycares, pre-schools, primary schools, secondary schools, scholastic or education-related activities/events, colleges, universities, vocational/trade schools and marked/known school bus stops during periods when school children are present. Though this policy does not create an enforceable right, the guidance should provide some comfort to immigrant students and their families.

What should I be doing in my classroom?

- Do not ask students about immigration status. Do not put students in an uncomfortable situation. Do not make examples of them, even if your motives are rooted in kindness. Do not ask students to protest or voice dissent with federal immigration policies; you could be putting them in an uncomfortable or risky situation. Plyler bars school officials from "discouraging" participation in education. Remember that schools are not required to ask immigration status. If anyone asks you for this information, say that DCPS does not inquire into immigration status. Then report this to your principal or administrative leader.
- Issue frequent reminders to update emergency contact information. Because a student's parents may be detained, try to have accurate and updated contact information — including contact information for other family members, a family friend or guardian who can help. If families have specific questions about assigning a "power of attorney" or immigration issues generally, consult the DCPS Office of the General Counsel for a list of nonprofit and legal services organizations that may be willing to help.
- Do not assume that foreign-born students, English language learners, or anyone else is here without documentation. About 1/7 of DC residents were born abroad. A much smaller percentage of our international population is here without documentation.
- Advise students and their families that they can "opt out" of directory information disclosure. Although the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) protects personally identifiable information (PII), FERPA permits schools to disclose "directory" information without consent unless parents, guardians or eligible students (generally to students 18 and older) have "opted out" of disclosure. Directory information includes a student's name, address and dates of attendance, as well as the student's date and place of birth. Parents/guardians or eligible students may "opt out" of directory information disclosure using the Release of Student Directory Information form on the Enrollment Forms page of the DCPS website.

DCPS does not share personally identifiable information (PII) with immigration officials except where legally required to do so. Consider making copies of the Release of Student Directory Information form readily available, in all languages that are used by students' families, and reminding students that "opt out" must occur each year if they want to protect directory information that may be private or sensitive.

- Address bullying proactively. If you see bullying based on immigration status or anything else, follow the District-Wide Bullying Prevention Policy. The District-Wide Bullying Prevention Policy can be accessed at <http://dcps.dc.gov/publication/dcps-bullying-prevention-policy>.

What do I do if ICE comes to my school?

- Do not disclose private information. You and your school must comply with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). This means that you cannot release educational records without the consent of the parent/ guardian or eligible student (generally refers to students 18 and older) unless a very limited set of circumstances apply (e.g. there is a court order or lawfully issued subpoena). If you get a request for a student record, immediately report this request to your principal or administrative leader. If you receive a court order or subpoena, or otherwise need guidance concerning a request for a student record, please consult with the DCPS Office of the General Counsel at (202) 442-5000.
- Schools are considered "sensitive" locations and ICE's guidelines discourage anyone from being picked up when he/she is at school. Because schools are "sensitive locations" under Department of Homeland Security (DHS) guidance, ICE agents should not come to school buildings. Should ICE agents come to your DCPS campus, immediately contact your principal or administrative leader, who will then contact the Office of the Chief of Schools at (202) 939-5298 and the Office of the General Counsel at (202) 442-5000. If you are at a public charter school, contact your school's administrative leader and/or general counsel. You can also call 877-21NTAKE or Joint.Intake@dhs.gov to open a DHS complaint. Remember that ICE agents cannot conduct enforcement actions at sensitive locations — like your school — unless they have agency approval.
- If a federal immigration or ICE official requests student information, seek immediate guidance. As noted above, DC schools are bound by FERPA. If you are at DCPS and federal immigration or ICE agents request student information, immediately consult your principal and the DCPS Office of the General Counsel at (202) 442-5000. Seek this guidance before providing the federal immigration or ICE agents with a response. If you are at a public charter school, contact your school's administrative leader and/or general counsel.
- If a federal immigration or ICE official requests a meeting with a student, seek immediate guidance. If you are at DCPS and you receive such a request, you should immediately contact your principal, who will then contact the Office of the Chief of Schools and the Office of the General Counsel. If you are at a public charter school, contact your school's administrative leader and/or general counsel. To report unauthorized ICE activity, you can also call 877-21NTAKE or Joint.Intake@dhs.gov to open a DHS complaint.

We must ensure that our policies follow applicable DC and federal laws while making all Washingtonians feel safe and included.

ADVICE FOR SCHOOL ADMINISTRATORS

What can I tell my students and their families?

According to Plyler v. Doe, a Supreme Court case from 1982, a State cannot bar undocumented children from public school. This would violate the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment. schools and marked/known school bus stops during periods when school children are present. Though this policy does not create an enforceable right, the guidance should provide some comfort to immigrant students and their families.

- Do not ask students about immigration status. Do not put students in an uncomfortable situation. Do not make examples of them, even if your motives are rooted in kindness. Do not ask students to protest or voice dissent with federal immigration policies; you could be putting them in an uncomfortable or risky situation. Plyler bars school officials from "discouraging" participation in education. DCPS does not share personally identifiable information (PII) with federal immigration officials except where legally required to do so. Consider making copies of the Release of Student Directory Information form readily available, in all languages that are used by students' families, and reminding students that "opt out" must occur each year if they want to protect directory information that may be private or sensitive.

How can I support my students?

- Issue frequent reminders to update contact information. Because a student's parents may be detained, try to have accurate and updated contact information — including contact information for other family members, a family friend or guardian who can help. If families have specific questions about assigning a "power of attorney" or immigration issues generally, consult the DCPS Office of the General Counsel for a list of nonprofit and legal services organizations that may be willing to help.
- Address bullying proactively. If you see bullying based on immigration status or anything else, follow the District-Wide Bullying Prevention Policy. The District-Wide Bullying Prevention Policy can be accessed at <http://dcps.dc.gov/publication/dcps-bullying-prevention-policy>.
- Offer resources for students and their families. Several organizations and government agencies in the greater DC Metro Area provide assistance for students and their families through Know Your Rights trainings, educational materials and direct services. One way to support your students and their families is to help connect them with these resources. If you are interested in obtaining Know

Your Rights brochures and other online resources (e.g. those created by nonprofit groups), providing referrals to legal counsel or conducting Know Your Rights training on campus, please contact the Office of the Chief of Schools and the Office of the General Counsel for guidance.

- Provide resources to help teachers, counselors and administrators emotionally support their students. For many families, fear of deportation raids may create significant anxiety. To ensure that teachers, counselors and school officials are equipped to handle this stress, consider booking a training on trauma-informed care. Trainings may be coordinated through your school's mental health team. These practices could help teachers to support their students — and have side benefits for all students who have experienced or are experiencing trauma.

What should I be doing to support my staff?

- Set a school policy that no teacher, administrator or other personnel should inquire about immigration status. Section 1373(g) of the Immigration and Nationality Act states that states/localities cannot forbid employees from voluntarily sharing information — specifically, information about citizenship or immigration status — with ICE. However, the law does not require any actor to ask about immigration status. In the education context, even asking about immigration status could create a hostile environment for immigrant students, potentially violating our constitutional duty to provide educational opportunity. In the words of the federal Department of Education, "student enrollment practices that may chill or discourage the participation, or lead to the exclusion, of students based on their or their parents' or guardians' actual or perceived citizenship or immigration status. . . contravene Federal law." See Letter from U.S. Department of Justice Civil Rights Division and U.S. Department of Education Office for Civil Rights to State and Local Education Agencies (May 8, 2014). Remember that under Plyler, no State can bar undocumented children from attending public school.
- Be sure that all Security Personnel understand school immigration-related policies. Your school may have DCPS Security Staff, School Resource Officers or Security Officers working in your building. These individuals must obey school policy on immigration. DC school personnel, including DCPS Security Staff, cannot help apprehend undocumented immigrants. Moreover, they must obey school policies like not inquiring into immigration status. If you are concerned about security personnel knowing or following these policies, consider drafting a directive that states the relevant rules. This directive could prove helpful if DHS guidance changes. Contact the Office of the Chief of Schools and the Office of the General Counsel for guidance and support.
- Train your teachers in FERPA and immigration-related policies. At an upcoming faculty meeting, consider going over the laws, policies and procedures surrounding FERPA and immigration status. Make sure that all school officials are clear on the right processes. In this training, consider including guidance surrounding how teachers should address immigration-related concerns in class. If you would like to have someone present DC law or policy, contact the Office of the Chief of Schools and the Office of the General Counsel.

What do I do if ICE comes to my school?

- If ICE shows up, follow established protocols for guests. If ICE seeks to enter any area where students have a reasonable expectation of privacy, basically anywhere that is not open to the public, you should follow your established protocol for guests. In January 2017, DCPS issued a School Visitor Policy that all visitors to D.C. schools must report to the school's administrative office and receive permission to enter the premises. Please review Chancellor's Directive 260.2, School Visitor Policy. Once ICE is in the school's administrative office, immediately call the Office of the Chief of Schools and the Office of the General Counsel. Once engaged, the appropriate DCPS officials will likely demand to know whether the agents have proof of ICE approval and a judicial warrant.

- If ICE requests information, follow established protocols on PII. You must follow established policies on safeguarding personally identifiable information (PII). Section 1373 of the Immigration and Nationality Act makes it clear that government institutions — so DCPS schools and government programs — cannot forbid anyone from voluntarily sharing information with ICE. As such, do not advise, require or suggest noncooperation with immigration enforcement. However, do follow established policies on protecting private information because educational institutions are bound by FERPA. Should you get any request for private information, immediately contact the Office of the Chief of Schools and the Office of the General Counsel so that legal counsel can assess the FERPA implications.

DC charter schools, as they are not government entities, may set policies that prohibit information sharing with ICE.

- Check that school property is clearly demarcated. While ICE cannot enter school areas that are not open to the general public, such as school buildings and playgrounds, ICE can enter areas that are open to the public. To prevent any confusion or misunderstandings regarding which school areas are not open to the public, please consult with the DCPS Office of the Chief Operating Officer to explore options for ensuring that school property is clearly fenced-off or otherwise distinguished.

GOVERNMENT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

Ensuring the Security of Our Government Institutions

Guidance for District of Columbia Government Agencies

Given recent developments in United States immigration policy, it is important to ensure that all District of Columbia (DC) agencies understand and are ready to execute DC policy regarding Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) inspections. The following points briefly restate DC policies and procedures surrounding federal enforcement of immigration laws. Please ensure that your agency and any contractors review this memo. Contact your Office of General Counsel if you have questions.

If ICE shows up, immediately contact your Office of General Counsel.

- Have your OGC meet the ICE agent. If you work in a building that is open to the public and an ICE agent comes, make sure that someone from your Office of General Counsel (“OGC”) meets him/her immediately and attempts to accompany him/her constantly.
- Watch for targeting. GCs should remind ICE agents of the DC Human Rights Act, which forbids discrimination based on numerous protected classes, including race, color, national origin and personal appearance. They should document whether the agent is apparently singling out persons and/or records based on a protected class.
- Remind clients that answering ICE is voluntary, but we are not their lawyers. Even if the GC/agency representative is with the ICE agent when he/she is in the facility, the GC/agency representative is not personal counsel for any employees, contractors or clients. The GC/agency representative only represents the agency. The GC/agency representative may remind interviewees that they can choose whether to answer ICE questions, as such answers are voluntary and could be used against them in civil, criminal, administrative, or immigration proceedings. However, this advice must come with a reminder that the GC/agency representative is not representing any DC residents.
- Follow guest protocol. If ICE seeks to enter any area that is generally closed to the public, you should follow your established protocol for guests. Have ICE report to the visitor entrance, while you contact your OGC. Unless ICE officials present a warrant that is signed by a judge, ICE officials may not have authority to enter the premises. Your OGC should ask for the warrant and make a copy. He/she can determine if the warrant is legally sufficient.
- Do not refuse cooperation. When interacting with ICE, do not refuse cooperation. Pursuant to 8 USC §1373, the DC government does not forbid cooperation with ICE. However, DC government is firmly committed to protecting our residents, our offices, the security of our data that we hold, and the orderly functioning of our operations. This means that policies designed to ensure general safety and security must be enforced equally against all visitors – including ICE.
- Take special care at “sensitive locations.” If you work at a “sensitive location” – a church or a school – it is particularly important that you direct ICE to the visitor office. Besides presentation of a warrant, ICE must have special approval to enter sensitive locations. Your OGC can contact the Department of Homeland Security regarding whether the ICE officers have appropriate permission.

- Let your GC handle all interactions with ICE. Employees are under no obligation to speak with ICE agents or answer any questions when there is not a warrant specifically naming the person.

If ICE requests information, follow established protocols on personally identifiable information.

- Follow existing laws protecting PII. If you work in an educational or medical facility, you likely have access to personally identifiable information (PII) about DC residents. The DC government does not advise, require or suggest noncooperation with immigration enforcement. However, providing PII could break other laws, whether or not ICE is involved.
Abide by all privacy laws, such as FERPA (school records) and HIPAA (medical privacy).
Your OGC will provide specific guidance for your situation.
- Protect data where possible. Where possible, protect data that the District has that might indicate someone is here without documentation.

If ICE requests to interview detained persons in your agency's custody, or clients who are not free to leave, follow Mayor's Order 2011-174.

- Allow ICE interviews for criminal investigations – with written disclosure. If you work at a detention facility, you may receive a request to let ICE interview detained persons.
Again, the DC government does not forbid cooperation with ICE. However, Mayor's Order 2011-174 states that these interviews must follow the Constitution and federal law. This means that DC only makes detained persons available for criminal investigations.
Furthermore, the detained person must sign a written disclosure that all information provided to federal agents – including ICE agents – may be used in a criminal case, immigration, deportation, or other collateral proceedings.
- Do not make DC facilities available for civil interviews. Our DC government facilities are not available for immigration interviews that lack a criminal nexus. Asking if someone has a right to be here is a civil, not criminal, question.

Know your agency and its agreements.

- Familiarize yourself with any agreements your agency may have entered into with the federal government. If you are working on a federally funded project, or administering federal benefits, your agency may have agreed to federal inspections. But you might have only agreed to inspections without notice by the agency with which you have a contract, or inspections for a limited purpose, that do not cover ICE agents arriving unannounced.

Be prepared to verify employment eligibility.

- Maintain I-9 documentation. Abide by laws requiring verification of an employee's eligibility to work in the United States – I-9 forms – and maintain this documentation.
- Ensure contractor I-9 compliance. Require all contractors to certify that they are in compliance with federal law regarding employment eligibility. It is prudent to keep copies of the documentation the employee presented to the employer verifying eligibility to work, and a copy of the I-9 must be retained. When you receive a Notice of Investigation for employment authorization, you will benefit from having this information ready.

Meeting Type	Date(s)	Topic(s)	Location	Who Should Attend:	Objectives of your training
Professional Development	8/17/2016	Using a Trauma Lens in the Classroom	HD Woodson HS	All social workers, School Psychologists	This is the first in a series of five training-of-trainer sessions to support the system-wide School Culture Initiative. This training will equip school mental health teams to deliver a workshop to help school staff to recognize predictable and recurring ways that trauma manifests in schools and classrooms, and provide strategies to staff that most effectively mitigate the impact. Additionally, providers will receive coaching on training best practices and continue school team action planning for delivery of the training series.
Professional Development	8/18/2016	Smart But Scattered	HD Woodson HS	All social workers/ school psychologists	Children who have deficient executive skills often have trouble getting started on tasks, get distracted easily, lose papers or assignments and forget to hand in homework. They make careless mistakes, put off work until the last minute and have no sense of time urgency. Workspaces are disorganized and teachers often refer to their backpacks or lockers as "black holes." Often considered chronic underachievers, these children are at risk for academic failure as well as emotional and behavioral difficulties. Dr. Dawson, co-author of the best-selling books Executive Skills in Children and Adolescents, 2nd Ed. (2010), Smart but Scattered (Guilford, 2009) and Smart but Scattered Teens (2013, Guilford) uses case examples along with interactive discussion to demonstrate how the executive skills manifest in daily home and school activities. Learn how to assess these skills and take home evidence-based strategies to help children and adolescents overcome executive skills weaknesses. Objectives: As a result of this workshop, participants will: 1. Understand executive skills within the context of brain development. 2. Be able to identify how executive skills impact school performance and daily living. 3. Be familiar with assessment strategies, including interview, rating scales, and standardized tests used to assess executive functioning. 4. Have access to a repertoire of strategies to improve executive skills in students. These will include how to design environmental modifications, how to teach executive skills, and how to use incentives, as well as an introduction to coaching as an intervention strategy to support executive skill development.

	12/2/2016	Positive and Reinforcing Language	Woodson SHS	School Psychologists & Social Workers	Participants will utilize positive adult language, professional use of words and tone of voice to enable students to learn in an engaged, active way. This includes learning social skills to guide children toward choosing and maintaining positive behaviors, school adults need to carefully choose the words and tone of voice we use when speaking to them. Learning to use positive language with children takes time and practice. Any enhancements you make in your language will do much to help children choose positive behaviors. The following three essentials offer a good starting place. Convey belief in children To choose positive behaviors, children need to see themselves as capable individuals and responsible community members. Adults can use positive language to help children build that self-perception By using positive language to convey your belief in children's abilities and intentions, you help them internalize a positive identity and develop more awareness and self-control. As a bonus, your language helps those within earshot form a positive perception of the child, which further enhances the child's self-perception and helps to promote positive behavior Use direct language Whether giving directions, noting positive behaviors, prompting children to remember rules, stopping misbehavior, or holding a discussion, it's important to use clear, direct language that is free of innuendo or sarcasm. With words, tone of voice, facial expression, and body posture, you can communicate calmness and respect. In this way, you'll avoid shaming and judging children, keep the focus on the positive behavior you want to see, and reduce the likelihood of power struggles. Reinforce children's positive behaviors Reinforcing language identifies and affirms students' specific positive actions and encourages them to continue their appropriate behavior. For example, to a group that showed welcoming behavior toward one another at lunch, an adult might say, "I saw that you included everyone in your conversations. That helped make lunchtime pleasant for everyone at your table." With these words, the adult lets the children know that he noticed their positive behaviors. He also helps them see how they and their classmates benefited from those behaviors.

This evidence-based method has been proven effective for treatment after multiple traumas or a single traumatic event, and therapists trained in TF-CBT are frequently able to help children experiencing the emotional effects of trauma address and resolve these effects. The Development of TF-CBT The clinical work and research of Judith Cohen, Anthony Mannarino, and Esther Deblinger led to the development of TF-CBT. Out of a desire to better understand the difficulties faced by traumatized children and adolescents, they expanded traditional cognitive behavioral methods, extending their reach by incorporating family therapy and using a trauma-sensitive approach in the therapy's application to children and youth. Preliminary research on this treatment model was followed by five randomized controlled trials, which demonstrated the effectiveness of the TF-CBT model on the target population. Many other researchers have gone on to replicate these results, proving the efficacy of this model in treating children and adolescents who have experienced traumatic stress. How TF-CBT Works In TF-CBT, interventions specifically tailored to meet the needs of children and adolescents experiencing emotional and psychological difficulties as a result of a trauma are integrated with humanistic, cognitive behavioral, and familial strategies. This treatment is short-term and generally lasts no more than 16 sessions, as more than 80% of traumatized children see improvement in this time.

Q29 Attachment_FCA_Summary
January 23, 2018

Until recently, the Facility Condition Assessments (FCAs) were performed by DGS every 5 - 6 years. DGS has now committed to perform or update FCAs once every three years, and in Fiscal Year 2017 conducted the first third of the actual assessments. After evaluation of previously prepared reports, DCPS and DGS recognized that several improvements were needed:

- We hired a new consultant to update and prepare FCA reports.
- Previous assessments were based on a 1 year life cycle cost for systems in our school families, which does not necessarily paint an accurate picture of the condition of our facilities or give us enough data to do long-term Small Capital planning. The new reports provide one, five, and ten year life cycle evaluations. This data will help DCPS and DGS prioritize our Small Capital projects.
- To ensure we were using a consistent data source and comparing “apples to apples” in the PACE modeling, the “Phase I” schools were scheduled first. The next batch of approximately 35 schools will be walked in Fiscal Year 2018, and by Fiscal Year 2019, all schools will have an updated FCA report.

A summary of the schools walked and their one and five year Facility Condition Index (FCI) scores can be found in the table below. The reports for each of the assessments can be downloaded here: https://hayatbrown.sharepoint.com/_layouts/15/guestaccess.aspx?folderid=0de5e3db61f38494f9ae2d8c334e1537c&authkey=AcvRFYPtmIvXySuhJIYvhrI&e=J0saU5

Evening Credit Recovery Program & Twilight Operations Manual

Evening Credit Recovery Program & Twilight

The Goal of Evening Credit Recovery (ECR) and Twilight is to increase the graduation rate by successfully recruiting and targeting all students that have failed a course and need to recover a credit in the evening in SY 2017–2018. In SY 2017, 30 percent of ECR students and 40 percent of students that participated in Credit Recovery and Twilight districtwide were underclassmen.

This Operations Manual contains policies, timelines and other essential information. We hope that you find it useful in your work, and we welcome questions and feedback throughout the year.

Building on the success of SY 2016-2017, DCPS high schools will incorporate social and emotional dimensions of student learning as a part of their academic mission. Research has indicated that social emotional learning (SEL) increases the graduation rates for students of color and decreases school suspensions by nearly 50 percent. This will allow schools to design and implement programs that work best for your students and staff. This is an important step that will make it possible for all students to reach their fullest potential and centrally will support the school teams to prioritize social and emotional learning (SEL). As you plan, please keep the following principles in mind:

- ECR exists to support student academic progress and to increase the Adjusted Cohort Graduation Rate, especially as we drive towards a 75 percent graduation rate for the Class of 2018.
- Even though credit recovery courses may differ in many ways from original credit courses, schools must maintain the same level of rigor—holding firm DCPS’ standards of curriculum, instruction, accountability, and expectations. Working along with the content leads and providing a comprehensive syllabus of instructions and grading metrics that are aligned with DCPS’ Teaching and Learning Scope and Sequence Framework.
- Our goal this year is to successfully engage every student who needs to recover a course. Targeting every student who is indicated on your failure data report is our collective responsibility. All students deserve the opportunity to recover credits and graduate along with their cohort.

Academic Planning and Support (APS), as a part of the Office of the Chief of Schools (OCOS) and Student Academic and Athletic Support, is here to support Credit Recovery and Twilight Coordinators, students, teachers and families working on credit recovery. If you have questions concerning the program, please contact Tamara N. Covington 202-727-8648 or tamara.covington@dc.gov or Shyra Gregory 202-596-4901 or shyra.gregory@dc.gov.

We look forward to a successful program—thank you for your dedication to DCPS student success!

ECR Overview

Student Eligibility

- All DCPS high school students are eligible for ECR, provided they have failed at least one course.
- A student may take ECR courses only if the student's day-school counselor certifies that ALL of the following conditions are met:
 - The student has previously taken and failed the course.
 - The course fulfills a graduation requirement the student needs to meet.
 - The student is not currently taking the course during his/her daytime schedule.
- Students may be approved to take one original credit course during ECR if (1) the course is needed to fulfill graduation requirements and (2) the student will be potentially eligible for graduation by June or August 2018. The APS Team must approve these requests. Original credit in ECR will not be approved for students seeking to be third year graduates.

Student Enrollment Process

- All students should complete and submit the Credit Recovery Program Student Application form.
- The school counselor will verify each student's eligibility for the ECR course based on the criteria above.
- If the student is eligible, the counselor will enroll the student in the correct ECR course in Aspen.
- Online courses only: ECR teachers must verify student profiles in the Online Learning platform prior to Day One.

Courses

- Course offerings each term depend on student needs, budget, and teacher availability.
- DCPS recommends that schools keep open only ECR courses with at least 10 students enrolled and attending. Course sections should have a maximum enrollment of 25 students.
- Online and regular instruction courses may be offered for credit recovery. All online courses must adhere to online course policies.

Attendance

- Students may accrue no more than three (3) unexcused absences during an ECR course to remain eligible to receive credit.
- Students may accrue no more than nine (9) unexcused tardies during an ECR course to remain eligible to receive credit (i.e., three (3) unexcused tardies = one (1) unexcused absence).

Schedule

- Standard ECR terms for SY17–18:
 - August 21, 2017 – October 27, 2017 (Term 1)
 - October 30, 2017 – January 19, 2018 (Term 2)
 - January 22, 2018 – April 6, 2018 (Term 3)
 - April 9, 2018 – June 13, 2018 (Term 4)
 - Extended Year/Day: April 30, 2018 – July 13, 2018
- Terms run for 9 weeks.
- Standard ECR classes run Monday through Thursday, 3:30–6:30 pm.

- There are 34 total teaching days per standard ECR term.
- Teachers are traditionally paid for 30 minutes of planning time for each 3-hour day worked.

ECR/Twilight Coordinator Responsibilities

The ECR/Twilight Coordinator is ultimately responsible for all parts of ECR, including course scheduling, budgeting, hiring, and ongoing student and course management. The Coordinator is also responsible for communicating the school staff duties outlined below to other school staff members.

ECR/Twilight Coordinator

Budgeting

1. Determine how many teachers can be hired and how many courses can be offered per term, based on student need and the Admin Premium amount provided for SY 2017-2018.
2. Decide the number of ECR courses each term, based on student needs.
3. Maintain ongoing financial records which track payroll payments and remaining ECR funds.
4. Submit, in conjunction with the appointed time keeper or business manager, the time sheets and admin premium documentation on a weekly or bi-weekly basis. General oversight of the accuracy of the submitted documentation including signatures, reported time and dates.

Course Scheduling and ECR Design

1. Work with counselors to determine ECR student needs and course offerings.
2. Work with counselors and Master Scheduler to prepare courses in Aspen prior to the start of each term.
3. Work with teachers to make sure courses and students are properly loaded into Online Learning prior to the start of each term.
4. Assign classroom locations. If online courses are being offered, verify computer lab availability and functionality.
5. Confirm teaching materials and resources as needed.
6. Collect and keep Day One surveys, student applications, teacher agreements, and other paperwork relevant to ECR programming. Maintain these paper documents in a secure file management system.

Teacher Recruitment, Hiring, and Management

1. Recruit ECR teachers who are good matches for program needs.
2. Ensure teachers who will be teaching online courses receive Online Learning training prior to the start of each term.
3. Provide instructional and behavior-management support to teachers and students as needed.
4. Arrange potential substitute teachers who are ET-15's.
5. Approve or monitor approval of admin premium in PeopleSoft for Credit Recovery teachers.
6. Make sure data is being collected in a timely manner in Aspen, including attendance and grades.
7. Collect and archive academic records each term, including copies of teacher grade books and documentation of teacher outreach related to absences.
8. If the coordinator is an AP or Instructional Coach, observe every teacher at least once in the first two weeks of the course to ensure that instruction is being delivered per the Teaching and Learning Framework. If the coordinator is not an AP or Instructional Coach, coordinate with an administrator or coach to conduct these observations.

6. Plan for and teach the entire class period ("bell to bell") daily for each course's full term.
7. Maintain timely records such as daily attendance, progress reports, and final grades.
8. If teaching an Online Learning-based course, teachers will maintain the Online Learning system for each student, including verifying student profiles prior to the start of school, updating course sections as completed, and administering final course evaluations.
9. Conduct and document outreach to parents/guardians in absences, excessive tardiness, and before withdrawing a student for excessive absences. This outreach should be documented in Aspen's journal entries.

The following chart lists the courses that may be offered in ECR. Course offerings at a given site depend on student demand and the availability of certified teachers to teach the courses.

Online Courses

The goal of technology-enhanced learning is to provide students with quality educational experiences through an alternative instructional model that blends in-person and online learning. Use of online courses for credit toward graduation must adhere to the following guidelines:

Basic Policies

1. Only DCPS-approved online courses can be offered for Credit Recovery.
2. Students may not take online courses for original credit.
3. Each student participating in an approved online course will be assigned an Online Learning-trained teacher of record who must be certified to teach the subject matter of the course.
4. Students may enroll in only one online credit recovery class at a time.
5. Students taking an online course will be provided access to appropriate computer resources and connectivity in school.
6. The student's parent, counselor, ECR teacher, and principal/designee must review and agree with the student's request to take an online course for credit. Students must complete the Student Safety and Use Policy for Internet and Technology Acknowledgement Form (see Appendix [X]).

Enrollment and Scheduling

1. All stand-alone online credit recovery courses must be created in Aspen and must use the suffix "OL."
2. The teacher of record and student enrollment lists must match in Aspen and on the Online Learning Tool.
3. If a student completes a course prior to the end of a term, they may enroll in one additional online credit recovery course each term, for a total of two online credits possible per term.
4. If a student does not complete an online course during the regular nine-week ECR term, the student should be withdrawn from that course and re-enrolled in the same ECR course for the next ECR term. A list of all students needing these extensions should be sent to tamara.covington@dc.gov by the start of each new term.
5. No student may be enrolled in an online course after April 16 or May 7th for Extended Year/Extended Day. Students needing credit recovery after these dates should be enrolled in Summer School.

Grades and Records

1. Students must complete all course requirements prior to taking exams.
2. All course evaluations, including Unit and Mastery tests must be taken in person at the ECR site and proctored by school staff.
 - Net Top Vision blocking software should be employed on computers.
 - Student phones and electronic devices must be collected prior to any testing.
3. Students will receive traditional letter grades for online courses.
4. To receive course credit, students must successfully complete requirements assigned an Online Learning course unit in each teacher's syllabus .
5. ECR teachers should use the following formula to calculate letter grades for online ECR courses:

- 20% is the online final grade as calculated by the Online Learning software, which factors in unit tests and quizzes.
- 80% is the input of the ECR teacher of record, and may include things like additional assignments, project based learning, and time on-task.
- The grading metric should include the component of the grade that includes the online learning tool. This requires teachers to collaborate with the content lead or the instructional coach so that the coursework meets the teaching and learning framework.

Hiring Teachers for Evening Credit Recovery

ECR/Twilight Coordinators will need to work with principals to identify and recruit teachers for ECR courses prior to the start of each term.

- Teachers must be licensed, certified in the relevant content area, and rated as effective or higher.
- All staff must be ET-15 union members to receive Admin Premium payments. Aides and other non-WTU members cannot be paid with ECR funds.
- Teachers must maintain DCPS standards of rigor, instructional quality, and teacher/student expectations in courses.

A sample teacher agreement form is included in the Appendix to this manual. You may choose to use it as-is or to modify it for your needs.

Paying Teachers for Evening Credit Recovery

Starting this school year, all ECR teachers will be paid out of Administrative Premium funds. The admin premium rate is $34.00/hour. DCPS recommends that you also pay ECR teachers at least one half-hour of planning time per three hours in the classroom.

Only DC Teachers Union members (ET-15) can receive Admin Premium money.

Schools cannot pay substitute teachers or aides who are not ET-15 from Admin Premium, so you will need to identify full-time teachers who are willing to serve as substitute teachers in another course.

ECR/Twilight Coordinators must submit a timesheet to the school timekeeper with teacher names and their hours worked at the end of each pay-period. The school timekeeper will fill out an Admin Premium request form and will enter the teacher hours in PeopleSoft. Teachers should only be paid for hours worked – if a teacher leaves early or misses a day, they should not be paid for the hours missed.

ECR/Twilight Coordinators should keep a record of the hours worked by ECR teachers to keep track of the ECR budget and potentially adjust plans for future terms/course offerings. Copies of completed timesheets and admin premium request forms must be forwarded to Tamara N. Covington at the end of each pay-period by email (tamara.covington@dc.gov) or by fax (202-442-4540).

Online Course Teachers

For online courses, teachers may teach several courses concurrently, but only within their fields of certification. For example, a math teacher might teach Online Learning Algebra I, Online Learning Algebra

II and Online Learning Geometry at the same time, but should not also be the teacher of record for an Online Learning DC History course.

All teachers teaching online courses MUST attend an Online Learning training session prior to the start of the term. Please contact Tamara N. Covington or Kevin Wentzel for more information about these sessions.

To take advantage of the increased flexibility of moving ECR funds into admin premium within schools' budgets, schools are encouraged to think about new ways to meet ECR staffing needs. The following budget worksheet can be used to follow the traditional ECR budgeting process. Please contact Tamara N. Covington with questions or if you are interested in modifying the traditional ECR structure/schedule.

Budget worksheet

Assumptions:

- Each teacher hour costs $34.00.
- Teachers who teach the full three hours are also paid for a half hour of planning time.
- $34.00 x 34 days x 3.5 hours a day = $4,046.00 per teacher per term.
- 9 week/18 week term.

Calculations:

- a. _____ (write the total ECR admin premium loaded into school budget)
- b. _____ /3 (divide by the 3 terms ECR will be offered)
- c. _____ (this represents the total amount available per term)
- d. _____ /4046 (divide by the total cost per teacher per term)
- e. _____ (this represents the # of ECR teachers you can hire per term)

Any fractional amount left over can be used to pay teachers (ET-15 only) to substitute, to hire an extra teacher for one term, or to pay ECR teachers for professional development or other training activities.

Student Behavior and Discipline Guide

Below are the expectations for ensuring that the ECR Program aligns with the expectations for student behavior and discipline as outlined in Chapters 24 & 25 in the D.C.M.R.

Intentional School Culture

- Every school and classroom cultivates a welcoming, positive, safe, orderly, and healthy environment that supports teaching and learning, is student-centered, and is developmentally appropriate.
- All people in schools actively build a positive community, fostering academic, behavioral and social/emotional growth.
- School communities ensure the physical and emotional safety of every individual.
- School-wide procedures and classroom instruction are structured to support positive student behavior.

Comprehensive Student Support

- Students and their families are connected to support services necessary to engage students in school.
- All school staff members work collaboratively to provide comprehensive support for students' academic and social/emotional needs.
- Staff members use reinforcement, re-direction, de-escalation, mediation, conflict resolution, and other non-disciplinary interventions to correct misbehavior.
- Staff members provide targeted support to students who have difficulty meeting behavior expectations, especially students returning from suspensions.

Instructional Approach to Behavior and Discipline

- School staff communicates and models clear and high expectations for appropriate behavior for every person in the community.
- School staff provides explicit and intentional instruction, structures, and supports to help students learn how to meet these expectations, including social and emotional skills to empower them to make good choices about their behavior.
- School staff provides a range of disciplinary responses that hold students accountable when they do not meet expectations.
- School staff works with students to correct misbehavior and prevent occurrences by re-teaching behavior expectations.
- School staff enables and encourages students to reflect on their actions, learn from mistakes, and restore relationships that have been negatively impacted.

Consistent, Progressive Discipline Responses that Minimize Disruption of Instructional Time

- School-wide discipline policies and procedures are developed in collaboration with students, teachers, and families; each school has expectations and rules for student behavior that are aligned to district-wide expectations.
- Teachers' classroom rules and expectations reflect school-wide expectations.
- Discipline policies are developmentally appropriate, equitable, and consistently enforced.
- Disciplinary responses progress from less severe to more severe until the behavior improves.
- Disciplinary responses respect individuals, balance interests of the school community, and minimize disruptions to academic instruction. Responses must be logical, consistent, and instructive.
- Intervention and remediation strategies are used along with disciplinary responses.

- Student discipline data is systematically analyzed to inform policies and practices.

Bancroft was one of initial pilot schools and returned to the program this year with the same Director of Strategy & Logistics continuing. The School Strategy & Logistics program is designed to have a high quality person directly leading the operational work at each participating school in an effort to allow principals more time to focus on instruction. In last year's survey data, the 2014-15 principal reported that she had more time to spend on instruction than the previous year. Additionally, the principal and assistant principal (now the new principal), reported that they spend less time on operations this year than last year. TLI Overview- Teacher Leadership Innovation (TLI) is a unique opportunity for teachers and school leaders to design and implement innovative teacher leadership roles that allow a teacher to spend part of the day teaching and part of the day leading other adults in the building. Excellent teachers are provided the training and resources to take on leadership roles that address a top school priority, expanding their reach to improve school-wide student achievement. All teacher leader roles include coaching of other teachers, increasing the amount of observation, feedback, and practice that teachers receive to improve their craft. Takoma TLI Teacher-Leader Roles are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Two Literacy Coaches, focused on Literacy unit planning and vertical alignment • Two Math Coaches, one focused on grades K-1, the other focused on grades 2-5 • Two RTI Coaches, both focused on ELA intervention in grades 1-5 Family Engagement Flamboyant Foundation Family Engagement Partnership - Supported by the Flamboyant Foundation, the Family Engagement Partnership (FEP) helps school leaders and teachers engage families in ways that benefit student learning. Participating schools have seen significant academic growth, along with more active and engaged school communities. The Partnership includes these components: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Relationship-Building Home Visits • Academic Parent Teacher Teams (APTT) • Regular and Positive Communications Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) - Used to support staffing for Afterschool programs. DCPS' Office of Data & Strategy performed value added student achievement analysis, which revealed that the afterschool program had an overall positive effect on participants compared with similar nonparticipants in the areas of DIBELS, TRC, and school-day attendance. On all of these metrics, there were some sites that showed a medium/large effect. The funds are allocated based on the following components: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Student Enrollment: OSTP calculated the funding using the average daily attendance for the school's afterschool program during SY14-15, adjusting for any fluctuations in the projected SY15-16 enrollment. • Staffing: A school's staffing allocation is based on a 20:1:1 (student: teacher: instructional aide) ratio. Schools are also allotted one administrative aide to manage the day-to-day operations in coordination with the school's principal and OSTP. • Schools' staffing plans must account for the entire TANF allocation and serve, at a minimum, the number of students identified by OSTP. However, a principal may choose to supplement the TANF allocation with other flexible funds in order to expand or enrich the program. For example, a principal may choose to hire additional staff, extend teachers' tours of duty, purchase additional resources, or hire their own full-time, school-based afterschool coordinator.

Students in the ELS program classrooms have full-time IEPs (20 or more hours of outside of general education) and frequently require a range of related services, such as speech and language, occupational therapy, and physical therapy. All curricula in ELS classrooms are aligned to the Common Core State Standards. Students in the ELS program also work to achieve IEP goals and objectives. Instruction is focused on developing essential skills in both reading and numeracy and is intended to provide students with the skills necessary to access a less restrictive setting over time. Teachers utilize a modified literacy and math block aligned to the general education curriculum as well as the Common Core State Standards. These blocks incorporate rigorous instruction and allow the pacing needed for students with special needs to acquire and retain skills. Students have access to research-based interventions that support growth in literacy and math, which is delivered through a center-based model. This approach allows for effective differentiation intended to maximize academic growth. For the 2014-2015 school year OSI will continue to partner with Lindamood-Bell Learning Processes to provide targeted literacy intervention to students in ELS program classrooms. Schools are also allotted one administrative aide to manage the day-to-day operations in coordination with the school's principal and OSTP. • Schools' staffing plans must account for the entire TANF allocation and serve, at a minimum, the number of students identified by OSTP. However, a principal may choose to supplement the TANF allocation with other flexible funds in order to expand or enrich the program. Each classroom provides a safe and structured learning environment that prioritizes effective communication among the home, school, and community. BES program classrooms provide comprehensive and specialized instructional programs for students in small, structured, and supportive classroom settings. Students in BES program classrooms receive their education primarily outside of the general education setting; however, students may gradually return to a general

Secondary BES program classrooms utilize a combination of instructional models and techniques to ensure students receive specialized instruction and have the opportunity to earn Carnegie Units toward high school graduation. This includes ensuring students have the required elective credits to earn a high school diploma. "Blended instruction" is utilized in some high school BES program classrooms and consists of online instruction supported by a classroom teacher. Other models utilized by BES program classrooms to support students earning Carnegie Units can include the following: a) dual certified teachers, b) highly qualified general education teachers in consultation with special education teachers and classroom instructional paraprofessionals, c) highly qualified special education teachers and classroom instructional paraprofessionals in consultation with highly qualified general education teachers. Communication & Education Support Program Classroom: The Communication & Education Support program serves students in PK3 through 12th grade. DCPS' Office of Data & Strategy performed value added student achievement analysis, which revealed that the afterschool program had an overall positive effect on participants compared with similar nonparticipants in the areas of DIBELS, TRC, and school-day attendance. On all of these metrics, there were some sites that showed a medium/large effect. The funds are allocated based on the following components:

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Student Enrollment: OSTP calculated the funding using the average daily attendance for the school's afterschool program during SY14-15, adjusting for any fluctuations in the projected SY15-16 enrollment. • Staffing: A school's staffing allocation is based on a 20:1:1 (student: teacher: instructional aide) ratio. Schools are also allotted one administrative aide to manage the day-to-day operations in coordination with the school's principal and OSTP. Schools' staffing plans must account for the entire TANF allocation and serve, at a minimum, the number of students identified by OSTP. However, a principal may choose to supplement the TANF allocation with other flexible funds in order to expand or enrich the program. For example, a principal may choose to hire additional staff, extend teachers' tours of duty, purchase additional resources, or hire their own full-time, school-based afterschool coordinator. Early Learning Support Program: The Early Learning Support (ELS) program is designed to meet the individual needs of students with identified delays. Students in the ELS program classrooms have full-time IEPs (20 or more hours of outside of general education) and frequently require a range of related services, such as speech and language, occupational therapy, and physical therapy. All curricula in ELS classrooms are aligned to the Common Core State Standards. Students in the ELS program also work to achieve IEP goals and objectives. Instruction is focused on developing essential skills in both reading and numeracy and is intended to provide students with the skills necessary to access a less restrictive setting over time. Teachers utilize a modified literacy and math block aligned to the general education curriculum as well as the Common Core State Standards. These blocks incorporate rigorous instruction and allow the pacing needed for students with special needs to acquire and retain skills. Students have access to research-based interventions that support growth in literacy and math, which is delivered through a center-based model. This approach allows for effective differentiation intended to maximize academic growth. For the 2014-2015 school year OSI will continue to partner with Lindamood-Bell Learning Processes to provide targeted literacy intervention to students in ELS program classrooms. This partnership includes small group and one-to-one literacy intervention for students and regular coaching for teachers in select ELS program classrooms. Behavior & Education Support (BES) Program: Behavior & Education Support (BES) program classrooms are full-time classrooms designed for students who are identified as having emotional/behavioral disabilities or who exhibit behaviors that significantly interfere with learning despite multiple interventions. Teachers and classroom instructional paraprofessionals have access to regular support from BES coaches who are trained in Safety-Care and positive behavioral supports. Each classroom provides a safe and structured learning environment that prioritizes effective communication among the home, school, and community. BES program classrooms provide comprehensive and specialized instructional programs for students in small, structured, and supportive classroom settings. Students in BES program classrooms receive their education primarily outside of the general education setting; however, students may gradually return to a general education setting if they demonstrate success and if the IEP team determines the general education setting is appropriate. Many BES students are active participants in the school community and join after-school activities, athletic teams, and social clubs. Special education teachers provide whole-group, small-group, and individual instruction, as well as accommodations and modifications included in students' IEPs. All instruction is aligned to both DCPS standards and Common Core State Standards. Coaches prepare general education teachers for the successful inclusion of BES students when data indicate that students are ready and the IEP team decides the transition is appropriate. Secondary BES program classrooms utilize a combination of instructional models and techniques to ensure students receive specialized instruction and have the opportunity to earn Carnegie Units toward high school graduation. This includes ensuring students have the required elective credits to earn a high school diploma. "Blended instruction" is utilized in some high school BES program classrooms and consists of online instruction supported by a classroom teacher. Other models utilized by BES program classrooms to support students earning Carnegie Units can include the following: a) dual certified teachers, b) highly qualified general education teachers in consultation with special education teachers and classroom instructional paraprofessionals, c) highly qualified special education teachers and classroom instructional paraprofessionals in consultation with highly qualified general education teachers. Sensory Impairment (Hearing) Support Program: The Sensory Support Programs offer students who are deaf/hard of hearing or blind/visually impaired a full array of services and supports to meet their unique educational needs. Students who are deaf/hard of hearing receive instruction in American Sign Language and audiology services. Students receive the specific accommodations, supports, and assistive technology required to access the general education curriculum as determined by their IEP. Head Start Model: is a federal program for preschool children three to five years of age in low-income families. On all of these metrics, there were some sites that showed a medium/large effect. The funds are allocated based on the following components: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Student Enrollment: OSTP calculated the funding using the average daily attendance for the school's afterschool program during SY14-15, adjusting for any fluctuations in the projected SY15-16 enrollment. • Staffing: A school's staffing allocation is based on a 20:1:1 (student: teacher: instructional aide) ratio. Schools are also allotted one administrative aide to manage the day-to-day operations in coordination with the school's principal and OSTP. • Schools' staffing plans must account for the entire TANF allocation and serve, at a minimum, the number of students identified by OSTP. However, a principal may choose to supplement the TANF allocation with other flexible funds in order to expand or enrich the program. For example, a principal may choose to hire additional staff, extend teachers' tours of duty, purchase additional resources, or hire their own full-time, school-based afterschool coordinator. Communication & Education Support Program Classroom: The Communication & Education Support program serves students in PK3 through 12th grade. These classrooms provide services to students with Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD) and related disorders based on the principles of Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA). The curriculum in CES classrooms is aligned to the Common Core State Standards. Students in the early grades have access to the Direct Instruction curriculum as well as interventions available to their general education peers. The CES instructional model includes the utilization of targeted literacy and mathematics interventions STAR Autism, Connecting Math Concepts, Reading Mastery, and Visualizing/Verbalizing. Communication & Education Support teachers implement ABA techniques, such as discrete trial instruction, natural environment training, prompting and fading, reinforcement, and task analysis. Head Start Model: is a federal program for preschool children three to five years of age in low-income families. It delivers fluency in basic addition, subtraction, multiplication and division, while advancing higher-order thinking skills such as mental math, problem solving, pattern sensing, reasoning and number sense through Deep Practice. Activities on the First In Math® site employ Deep Practice techniques to rapidly increase computation, problem solving, critical thinking and other essential math skills. Deep Practice is much more powerful than normal practice. Skills that may take months of regular practice can be mastered in a matter of weeks, or even days, using Deep Practice techniques. Research shows that up to 90% of what students are taught in school is forgotten after 30 days. The 10% that is retained occurs from active learning-through Deep Practice. Deep Practice consists of stopping when an error occurs, practicing that one skill until it is perfected, then continuing. Students learn by repeating, reassessing and "fixing" their skills in the process of learning them, with immediate feedback and error-correction. Scientific research shows that this type of learning causes myelin, a neural insulation, to grow and thicken around axons, which connect the brain's neurons to each other. Increased myelin makes the information signal that passes through the neural network faster, stronger, and longer lasting. The result is quicker thinking, and better retention. Literacy Supports: Assistant Principal of Literacy and Reading Specialist: strengthens literacy instruction and intervention through intense teacher professional development and additional time for students in need. Schools implementing this intervention will also work together as a cohort to share best practices relating to literacy instruction. Turnaround's mission is guided by the belief that poverty presents a knowable, predictable, and recurring set of challenges to schools, classrooms and children. It is the existence of such a pattern that makes it possible to deploy a targeted and precise set of strategies to mitigate these challenges. Turnaround's deepest expertise is in creating conditions in schools which optimize the learning environment so that rigorous instruction can take place and achievement becomes possible. Turnaround for Children: Turnaround has developed a school transformation model that establishes such conditions in the following three domains of a school's operation: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Establishing and/or optimizing a high-functioning, high-capacity system of targeted student support and intervention ▪ Developing the capacity of teachers to address two critical classroom challenges—disruption and engagement – and to foster a classroom environment that mitigates stress and develops in students the motivation, goal-orientation, and social efficacy essential to engagement and learning. ▪ Increasing the capacity of the school's leadership to drive a systematic school improvement process that is focused, appropriately resourced, and proactively managed and monitored over time using a tightly-aligned set of formative and summative metrics.  Head Start Model: is a federal program for preschool children three to five years of age in low-income families. Q53 Attachment: Truancy Prevention Initiatives

Alternatives to the Court Experience (ACE) Diversion Program and Parent Adolescent Support Services (PASS) Program

The Alternatives to the Court Experience Diversion Program (ACE) is an inter-agency initiative spearheaded by the Department of Human Services, Parent and Adolescent Support Services Program (PASS) and the Department of Behavioral Health (DBH) in collaboration with community-based service providers. ACE is the City's sole formal diversion program, serving over 700 youth and their families per year. 43 % of the youth diverted to participate in ACE have committed status offenses. The overall goal of the initiative is to create a sustainable diversion system to reduce the number of Court-involved youth by linking them with clinically appropriate behavioral health services. In the long run, the initiative seeks to reduce recidivism, reengage youth in school, improve youths' functioning at home and in the community, and strengthen the family unit. ACE lasts for 6 months and services provided depend on the individual youth's needs. Depending on the individual needs of the diverted youth, ACE offers a menu of services, including evidence-based practices, as well as individual behavioral health services, case management, and community-based support services such as mediation, mentoring, and after-school programming.

Parent and Adolescent Support Services (PASS) Program, housed within the DC Department of Human Services, works on behalf of some of the City's most disadvantaged and at-risk residents, with the ultimate goal of enhancing participating families' ability to work effectively on their own when problems arise. PASS works with youth ages 10-17 who are committing status offenses (skipping school, running away from home, violating curfew, and/or being extremely disobedient), and it operates as a voluntary prevention/intervention program. PASS provides Intensive Case Management, as well as Functional Family Therapy services to over 300 youth and their families per year. PASS works with youth/families an average of six months. PASS employs several evidence-based approaches to supporting families, including, strength-based intensive case management; functional family therapy (in partnership with the Department of Behavioral Health (DBH), and the Transition to Independence Process (TIP) (in partnership with Department of Behavioral Health), a case management system for older youth with emotional and behavioral challenges.

- A. The number of youth served by ACE in FY18Q1: 351(In FY17, 54% of youth in ACE attended DCPS)
 - a. The number of youth served by PASS in FY18, Q1: 272
- B. An account of progress made in each program: Over 70% of youth receive services such as Intensive Case Management, Functional Family Therapy, Individual Therapy, Tutoring, Mentoring, connection to CSAs for CBI, etc. These services help address root causes of truancy such as

- Undiagnosed or mistreated learning disabilities
- Victimization by school bullies, teachers, or school staff
- Fear of school
- Family issues such as abuse, neglect, or obligations to care for parents or younger siblings

In addition to providing these services, both programs have adopted the in-seat attendance calculation. The calculation is a validated tool with the National Center for School Engagement who has provided light technical assistance to the programs. The calculation also allows the programs to align data and discussion with the Every Day Counts Data Committee.

- C. Plans to expand truancy prevention programs: Both PASS and ACE intend to contract more community-based organizations to specifically address truancy prevention efforts.

Teen Parent Assessment Program (TPAP)

The Teen Parent and Assessment Program (TPAP), provides case management services for teen parents under the age of 18 who reside in the District of Columbia. TPAP provides the youth with case management services to assist them with enrollment in educational and vocational programs, counseling services, parenting classes and assistance with obtaining day care vouchers. The goal of TPAP is to provide the supportive services to teen parents to ensure they complete an educational program that will assist them in becoming independent caregivers to their child/ren and themselves by their 19th birthday. Referrals for TPAP are received from TANF provider agencies and community programs. Participation is voluntary unless the teen is the primary TANF beneficiary.

- A. The number of students each truancy program serves: In FY 17 the TPAP serviced 47 teen parents. In FY18Q1 34 Teen parents were served.
- B. An account of any progress made in each program/initiative: In FY17 over 60% of the TPAP parents re-enrolled in educational programs after giving birth. In FY18Q1, 82% of the teens are in educational programs (including awaiting assignments in Job Corps, after acceptance).
In FY17, 98% of the teens did not have a repeat pregnancy. In the first quarter of FY18, there were no repeat pregnancies.
- C. Plans to expand truancy prevention programs: No current plans to expand the program.

Office of Victim Services and Justice Grants' Show Up, Stand Out Program Progress Sheet, January 2018

Vision

The District of Columbia values the highest quality education for all students attending the District of Columbia Public and Charter Schools. Show Up, Stand Out strives to ensure that all students in the District of Columbia will have the opportunity to access services and programs that are designed to enhance students' learning experiences and engage students more holistically in the educational environment.

Mission

Show Up, Stand Out's mission is to reduce unexcused absences by mitigating barriers to school attendance of children and their families with five or more unexcused absences prior to escalation to Child and Families Services Agency (CFSA) and/or Child Support Services Division (CSSD). This initiative is designed to reduce chronic absenteeism by supporting schools with a focus on providing services to identified families while fostering student achievement.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

A Message from Chancellor Wilson

Dear Families,

Choosing what school and academic setting best provides what your children need to be successful in school and life is an important decision that I'm delighted you are considering. At DC Public Schools, we are committed to ensuring that every student feels loved, challenged, and prepared to positively influence society and thrive in life.

We have schools in every ward and neighborhood that provide rigorous, joyful, and inclusive academic and social emotional learning experiences to ensure all students are college and career ready. At DC Public Schools, we value every student, every school, every day.

As a school district, we are on the rise. Join us.

Respectfully,

Antwan Wilson
Chancellor, DC Public Schools

"By focusing on excellence and equity at DCPS, we have been able to expand opportunities for students, take family engagement to new levels, and build a system of schools that ensures every family, in every neighborhood, has access to a high-quality education. As we build on this progress, we look forward to working with all of our families to set our young people up for success at every stage of their academic careers."
— Mayor Muriel Bowser

Program Guide

In addition to rigorous academic content that can be found at every DC Public School, a number of specialized programs are offered at schools to further enrich student experiences in the classroom.

Early Childhood Academic Programs

Listed below are the main curricula being implemented in DCPS Early Childhood classrooms. If you are interested in learning more about how these curricula are being implemented in a specific school, attend an open house or contact the school directly for more information.

Creative Curriculum® provides developmentally appropriate, content-rich programming for children with diverse backgrounds and skill levels.

Montessori education fosters a child's natural inclination to learn. Montessori teachers guide rather than instruct, linking each student with activities that meet their interests, needs, and developmental levels. The classroom is designed to allow movement and collaboration as it promotes concentration and a sense of order.

Tools of the Mind helps young children develop the cognitive, social-emotional, self-regulatory, and foundational academic skills they need to succeed in school and beyond.

Dual Language

At DCPS dual language schools, students study grade-level content in both English and Spanish, developing reading, writing, listening, and speaking skills in every grade and subject. Dual language is offered at the following schools:

Bancroft Elementary School	page 6

"I love the positive atmosphere at Hendley. The staff knows and cares about everything, and they're willing to help you. When parents come here, they don't have to worry about what's going to happen with their child. They have people they can really count on to love their kids."

The mission of DC Public Schools is to ensure that every DCPS school provides a world-class education that prepares ALL of our students, regardless of background or circumstance, for success in college, career, and life. A Capital Commitment - In spring 2012, DCPS launched a five-year strategic plan, A Capital Commitment that set five goals for 2017. Fiscal year 2016 (FY16) is the fourth full year of the plan. The goals are:

1. At least 70% of our students will be proficient in reading and math, and we will double the number of advanced students in the district.
2. Our 40 lowest-performing schools will increase proficiency rates by 40 percentage points.
3. At least 75% of entering 9th graders will graduate from high school in four years.
4. 90% of students will say they like their school.
5. DCPS will increase its enrollment over five years.

Summary of Services

DCPS delivers all services required to provide students with a quality education. These include: 1. Operating schools that provide a consistent foundation in academics, strong support for social/emotional needs, and challenging themes and programs; 2. Hiring, developing, and rewarding teachers, principals, aides, and other staff; 3. Developing and implementing academic programs that provide all students with meaningful options for life; 4. Collecting data and providing decision- and policy-makers with accurate information about how our students and the school district are performing; 5. Providing schools the administrative and operational support they need to foster student achievement; creating forums for interaction and continued dialogue between DCPS and its community stakeholders.

Strategic Plan Launch: Capital Commitment 2017 – 2022	DCPS launched the new Strategic Plan, Capital Commitment 2017-2022 in September. For more information, please review https://dcps.dc.gov/capitalcommitment .	In shaping DC Public Schools’ five-year strategic plan for 2017-2022, A Capital Commitment, we heard from more than 4,500 students, parents, educators, and community members. Their ideas and feedback will guide our work as we strive to become a district of both excellence and equity—a place where every family feels welcome and every child is given the opportunities and support they need to thrive.
Washington Teachers Union Contract	For more information, please review: https://dcps.dc.gov/release/mayor-bowser-dc-public-schools-and-washington-teachers-union-announce-new-contract	Mayor Muriel Bowser, DC Public Schools (DCPS) Chancellor Antwan Wilson, and Washington Teachers Union (WTU) President Elizabeth Davis announced an agreement on a new contract that significantly increases compensation for teachers in DC Public Schools. The agreement will also add additional funding to the District’s education budget, which is already the largest commitment in DC’s history. Under the proposed contract, educators will receive: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> i. salary increases, including a 4 percent retroactive increase in Fiscal Year 2017, a 3 percent increase in Fiscal Year 2018, and a 2 percent increase in Fiscal Year 2019; ii. additional benefits; and iii. structured collaborative engagement between DCPS and the WTU on various issues, including extended-year schools.

school year. All schools organized LEAP teams, led by content-specific leaders, that met for 90 minutes per week with weekly one-on-one follow-up coaching for each teacher; 85% of teachers reported that their teams met on a weekly basis as prescribed. According to surveys administered in partnership with researchers at UVA, 94% of principals and LEAP leaders reported that LEAP was an improvement on professional development offered in previous years. LEAP is 100% complete for SY16-17. LEAP will continue to be a focus for SY17-18.

quality. That’s why DCPS has focused so much of its attention over the past several years on ensuring that every classroom is filled with a top-notch teacher. To take the next leap forward, DCPS is making an unprecedented investment in teacher development through a new program called LEAP (LEarning together to Advance our Practice). At its core, LEAP is about helping teachers become truly expert at teaching the DCPS Common Core-aligned curriculum – so that every student across the city experiences rich, engaging, and challenging instruction every day. To do this, teachers will engage in a weekly cycle of development in small content-specific professional learning communities (LEAP Teams) at their schools. These teams will be led by content experts (LEAP Leaders) at their schools. LEAP is built around the concepts of collaboration, practice, a Common-Core aligned adult curriculum, and having the right LEAP leaders and training in place for teachers.

Despite these gains, we fell short of our goal of improving by five percentage points. In FY17, DCPS was undertaking a number of changes that impacted math performance including implementing a new curriculum across all our schools (Eureka Math), new short-cycle assessments for teachers to pinpoint student needs, and the LEAP professional development model. DCPS expects that we will make even more progress as we enter the second year of implementation in FY18.

DCPS began using the Essential Practices, a new rubric which signals the importance of not just “how to teach” but also “what is taught”. As a way to honor the voice of our most important stakeholders, our students, DCPS began using student survey data as a means to offer feedback to teachers on the instructional culture in their classes. And, for ELA and math teachers in grades 4-10, DCPS reintroduced individual value-added, a measure of student achievement aligned to the PARCC assessment. DCPS provided, and will continue to provide, a wealth of resources aligned to each measure to support teachers in meeting these new expectations.

2017 Strategic Initiatives

Title	Description	Complete to Date	Status Update	Explanation
OFFICE OF COLLEGE & CAREER (6 Strategic initiatives)
Increase student access to and success in courses worth college credit	In SY2015-2016, DCPS had formalized Dual Enrollment Partnership Agreements with five local colleges (Georgetown University, Catholic University, Howard University, George Washington University, and University of the District of Columbia – Community College). We have exceeded the goal we set for ourselves that by June 30th, all comprehensive DCPS high schools would have at least one college dual enrollment partner. This year, each comprehensive high school has at least three dual enrollment college partners: Georgetown University, UDC-CC, and at least one other college. By June 30, 2017, we aim to have increased the proportion of DCPS students completing dual enrollment programs by ten percentage points.	Complete	By the end of Q4, 79% of students who participated in DCPS Dual Enrollment in SY2016-17 (including Summer 2017) earned a C or better in at least one course. This is just short of our goal to increase the pass rate by 10%-pts. (Note: This figure does not include the SWW/GW students.)
Implement Career Academies that better equip high school students with the skills necessary for college and careers	In SY2015-2016, DCPS established two new NAF Career Academies at HD Woodson High School (IT & Engineering), which will enroll its first class of students in SY2016-2017. In total in SY2015-2016, DCPS had 10 operating NAF Career Academies across 8 high schools (Ballou, Cardozo, Columbia Heights Education Campus, Dunbar, McKinley Tech, Phelps, Wilson, Woodson). These Academies are focused on one or more of the following industries: Engineering, IT, and Hospitality (associated with three of the District's highest wage, highest demand career sectors). The academies integrate strong college and industry partnerships, paid internships, work-based learning experiences and rigorous curricula and culminate in industry-recognized certifications. This year, 250 DCPS NAF Academy students have completed paid internships in their respected fields of study; an additional 290 students in additional Career Education Programs participated in paid	Complete	By the end of Q4, DCPS exceeded its Career Academy internship goals, with 656 NAF Academy and Career Education interns placed with over 190 host employers throughout the city in FY17. The Coolidge Academy of Health Science also successfully completed its Year of Planning (YOP) with NAF, earning the highest NAF

	summer internships. In SY2016-2017, DCPS aims to begin a year of planning for a Health Science Career Academy at Coolidge High School that will open in SY2017-2018		YOP Assessment score for any DC Academy. The Academy launched in SY2017-18 with an initial cohort of 32 students.
Provide middle grades students with exposure to college and career experiences	Through College & Career Clubs, DCPS is offering middle grades students the opportunity to lead one another, via peer to peer instruction and mentoring, through a college and career exposure curriculum, guest speaker, and college and career field trip model. Nationwide, students who have participated in College & Career Clubs were found to have higher short and long-term academic aspirations, improved attendance rates, and decreased behavior issues. In SY2015-2016, we offered College & Career Clubs at three middle grade schools: Browne EC, Hart MS, and Eliot-Hine, and over 350 students participated in the program. By June 30, 2017, our goal is to offer College & Career Clubs at a minimum of seven middle grade schools, and serve at least 600 students.	Complete	By the end of the third quarter, DCPS is continuing the College and Career Clubs program at seven middle schools (Brookland, Brown, Hart, Johnson, LaSalle-Backus, Eliot-Hine, Kramer) with just over 700 students having participated in the club to date this year.
Increase student access to meaningful college tour experiences	In SY2015-2016, DCPS implemented a College Tour Program, which provided funds for college tours to each of our seven comprehensive 40/40 high schools (Anacostia, Ballou, Cardozo, Coolidge, Dunbar, Roosevelt, Woodson) and middle grade schools participating in the College & Career Clubs Program. This year, 1,243 students took at least one college tour. In SY2016-2017, we aim to have 25% more students taking at least one college tour.	Complete	By the end of the third quarter, DCPS has sent over 1650 unique high school and middle grade students on a college tour, exceeding our goal of a 25% increase throughout SY17; and we continue to send students on tours throughout the summer.
Provide college going data to high schools	SY2016-2017, DCPS will continue to share with each high school leadership team current school-specific data on college enrollment, persistence, and completion data. The data will help drive discussions about the importance of smart college choices at the school and student-level. In SY2016-2017, there will be a focus on providing direct supports to school-based staff on utilizing the data to inform schools' programming and information-sharing with students and families around the college search process.	Complete	By the end of the third quarter, DCPS has fully implemented the monthly data sharing of college application and milestones data with Principals and key school staff. Additionally, key data points have been integrated into the monthly instructional superintendents meeting data dashboard.
Expand SAT Test Prep Opportunities	DCPS offers high schools SAT Test Prep Offerings for high school students through partnerships with Khan Academy/College Board and private test prep providers, including Kaplan, Princeton Review, Transcend Academy, & Bell Curves. As of last year, all of our high schools had access to the Khan Academy/College Board self-paced online test prep system, and 9 high schools (Anacostia, Ballou, Banneker, Cardozo, Coolidge, Eastern, Ellington, Phelps, & Woodson) had test prep programs from private providers (funded by OSSE or private donors). In SY2016-2017, DCPS aims to expand its private test prep offerings to 16 schools (adding Ballou STAY, Columbia Heights Education Campus, McKinley Technology, Roosevelt, Roosevelt STAY, and Wilson high schools), and also add free online test prep to all 11th	Complete	By the end of the third quarter, DCPS has completed the expansion of SAT Test Prep opportunities for FY17. Each of the 16 schools that had test prep funded through the OSSE SAT Prep Expansion Grant or Don Graham Kaplan Donation in FY17 has expressed satisfaction and 12th grade students through Naviance and Edgenuity online platforms.		with their prep program and wishes to continue (or expand) their SAT Test Prep opportunities in FY18.

OFFICE OF FAMILY & PUBLIC ENGAGEMENT (3 Strategic initiatives)

Teach mindsets and skills to improve and sustain academically-focused relationships with families	Since SY2011-2012, DCPS has worked with the Flamboyant Foundation to transform the ways in which teachers and families collaborate with one another – in particular through home visits and whole-class family meetings focused on academic performance and strategies for home support (Academic Parent Teacher Teams). DCPS is continuing to provide professional development through the Family Engagement Partnership (FEP) for teachers on home visits and academic parent teacher teams in schools that have met a set of prerequisites to adopt the program. In SY2016-2017 the partnerships has grown from 22 schools to 31 schools and schools will be using a Leadership Actions Trajectory rubric to assess where they are in the family engagement work.	Complete	By Q3, the Family Engagement Partnership is operating in 31 of 31 schools with staff training complete with ongoing professional learning. A total of 10,892 DCPS students received a Home Visit as part of the Family Engagement Partnership (89% of the 12,248 students in those schools). Total home visits for all of last school year in the FEP was 7,680. All schools are meet targets for implementing alternate-model parent teacher conferences (whole class, data-driven conferences in elementary schools; student-led conferences in middle schools).
Expand DCPS community outreach and relationship building with stakeholders	DCPS will provide opportunities for district families and community members to engage in authentic ways by listening to them about things that matter to them, engaging & consulting them on policies that impact their child’s academic success, using this feedback to inform our policies and initiatives in DCPS, and sharing with them how their feedback has influenced decision making. These efforts will be executed in multiple ways including a 4 -person ward based Community Action Team (CAT), hosting small and large citywide engagement efforts in DCPS, expanding technical support for cross-collaborative central office engagement, and tracking and monitoring our work so we can be more data driven and adaptive in our efforts as necessary. In SY2016-2017, school-level support by the CAT will include providing detailed “Community-at-a-Glance” information sheets and additional supports and guidance around parent organizations (PTO, PTAs and LSATs).	Complete	DCPS hosted the DCPS Back to School Block Party at Ron Brown HS, with ~ 1000 in attendance, including the Mayor and Mr. “Magic” Johnson, speakers, special performances by students, teachers and partners, as well as 25 partner booths with info. DCPS launched new comprehensive school guidance on engaging Local School Advisory Team (LSAT). Enhancements include LSAT Guidance, FAQ and templates, 3 Technical Assistance Webinars, and hands-on outreach.

Partnerships formed through this program are expected to host at least three school-based engagements and one donation effort over the course of one school year. During this collaboration, partners and schools will work together to determine how to best connect partner resources and interests with the school's unique needs. This relationship is a joint effort led by the school and partner, and supported by the DCPS School Partnerships Division (SPD) and is in its second year of implementation. OFFICE OF INSTRUCTIONAL PRACTICE (2 Strategic initiatives)

Rigorously evaluate teacher performance	DCPS will continue to implement its rigorous teacher evaluation system (IMPACT) which outlines clear expectations for effectiveness and provides opportunities for ongoing feedback and aligned support. IMPACT includes multiple measures of teacher effectiveness including classroom observations conducted by school leaders, measures of student achievement, and a measure of a teacher's commitment to the school community. For SY2016-2017, DCPS has developed a new, shorter rubric that better aligns with the content expectations of the Common Core Era, the DCPS Essential Practices. IMPACT also now includes Student Surveys of Practice as a new component for general education teachers in third grade and higher. Student surveys of instructional practices are research-based tools that capture and value the unique perspectives of our most important stakeholders -- our students. In addition, the survey results will provide teachers of students in Grades 3 and above with specific, actionable feedback they may use to inform their instruction. Lastly, value-added is returning for general education teachers of ELA and math in fourth through tenth grade. Final scores and IMPACT ratings will be available after the end of the school year. DCPS uses information from IMPACT to recognize and retain our best teachers, provide additional support to those who need it, and remove ineffective teachers.	Complete	By the end of Q4, DCPS completed the evaluation of all school based staff for the 2016-17 school year, via IMPACT, with full fidelity. In Q4 we calculated and shared individual value added (IVA) scores and final ratings for teachers whose scores were dependent on PARCC data, and finalized goal scores and ratings for school leaders. DCPS disseminated over $15M in IMPACTplus bonuses to Highly Effective teachers, staff, and school leaders.
Develop the best possible teacher talent through Learning Together to Advance our Practice (LEAP)	At school, the single most important factor for student success is teacher quality. That's why DCPS has focused so much of its attention over the past several years on ensuring that every classroom is filled with a top-notch teacher. OFFICE OF TALENT AND CULTURE (6 Strategic initiatives)

Recruit and select the best possible teacher talent	In order to provide DCPS students with high-quality instruction and fill vacancies as they arise, DCPS must recruit and select teachers who demonstrate the potential to be effective in our classrooms. To that end, DCPS will continue to engage in national recruitment efforts including: headhunting teachers with prior experience and a track record of success, attending career fairs at universities around the country, continuing to build the DCPS brand through the JoinDCPS website and an expanded social media presence, and revising the teacher selection process to be as streamlined and rigorous as possible. The changes for SY2016-2017 will align our selection process with the Essential Practices rubric, the new, shorter rubric that better aligns with the content expectations of the Common Core Era. We will particularly focus on ensuring that we attract diverse teachers and generate sufficient applications to fill our highest-need subject areas.	Complete	By the end of Q4, 99% of WTU vacancies at extended year schools known by July 1 were filled with a hire request by August 15, 2017. Currently, 1213 of 1221 WTU vacancies are filled, with many open vacancies being temporary. All DCPS classrooms are covered and the DCPS team continues to promptly address any vacancies as they arise.
Retain the best teacher talent	DCPS has a growing number of effective and highly effective educators. Especially in the context of national teacher shortages, it is imperative that DCPS continues to retain our best teacher talent at high rates. DCPS will recognize highly effective teaching through the annual Standing Ovation event. Additionally, we will provide teachers with an opportunities newsletter twice a month to support teachers' continual career growth. Targeted retention emails will be sent to all highly effective teachers in the district, reminding them that the district values them. Furthermore, for teachers who are interested in seeking a position in another school, we will be making the transfer process within DCPS more straightforward and accessible, in order to maximize the extent to which we retain teachers in DCPS overall and assist them to find schools that are their best fit. We will also host programs like our Chancellor's Teachers' Cabinet and Teachers Central to Leadership (TCTL) to provide teachers with leadership opportunities and to deepen connections between the school-based and the Central Office so that top teachers can provide feedback about their experiences. Over the year, we will continue to provide principals with reminders about the importance of teacher retention and specific resources they can use to directly recognize and engage irreplaceable teachers in their school. Lastly, we are working to retain our teachers by providing meaningful professional development on a weekly basis in small content-specific professional learning communities (LEAP Teams) at their schools. These teams will be led by content experts (LEAP Leaders) at their schools.	Complete	By the third quarter, DCPS contacted 1,500 teachers with specific retention emails. We organized the annual Teacher Shadow Day, an event that allows central office staff members to shadow teachers across all schools during Teacher Appreciation Week. This year, over 60 central office staff members signed up to shadow 47 teachers. Five TCTLs are working with teams in the Central Office this summer. This year, 292 teachers completed the DINR process. (Last year was 298).
Recruit and select the best possible school leadership	DCPS will continue to identify and recruit high-potential school leaders for every principal vacancy with a particular emphasis on instructional leadership. This is a continuing initiative. Internally, this talent will include high-potential leaders, such as highly-effective assistant	Complete	By the end of the third quarter, DCPS recruited and made appointment decisions for all school

Externally, DCPS will identify and recruit award-winning school leadership talent from across the country for both principal and AP vacancies. OTC, in collaboration with OIP, will continue to ensure that high-potential, rising DCPS leaders are preparing for the principalship through the Mary Jane Patterson Fellowship, which will be launching its fifth cohort in January 2016. OTC will continue to review School Leader IMPACT data of recent principal and AP hires to determine if further enhancements to the selection process are warranted to improve the quality of hire. This year the district's focus on instructional leadership is expanding in support of the LEAP initiative and the increased role that school leaders have played in guiding instruction in recent years.		leader vacancies. OTC was able to support the appointments of 18 new principals. 100% of these new school leaders are talent internal to DCPS [and four are specifically Mary Jane Patterson Fellows (Davis, Kiplinger, Plenty, and Jackson)].
Retain the best school leader talent	DCPS will continue to implement an aggressive performance-based salary scale for principals and assistant principals, and a bonus system for all Highly Effective school leaders, including special incentives to serve and continue leading in the 40 targeted schools. DCPS will also continue to target training and support to existing school leaders in a number of ways, including providing Principal Partners for first-year principals and ensuring every principal is managed and supported by a highly experienced instructional superintendents – who each receive comprehensive training and support in “Blended Coaching” (from experts at the New Teacher Center). This year, we are aligning the Principal Partners so that they support new principals in their own cluster and we have also added in monthly Professional Learning Communities for first year principals led by Principal Partners. In addition, DCPS will provide opportunities for principal representatives to participate in the Chancellor’s Principal Cabinet and on other system-wide committees. Finally, the quarterly Leadership Academies this year will assign each principal to a Problem of Practice group, where central office leaders will strategize alongside principals to improve an issue or structure for the 2017-2018 school year. Topics include Addressing the Achievement Gap, Special Education Supports, and Budget and School Planning.	Complete	By the end of Q4, DCPS continued to target support to school leaders in a number of ways, including New Principal and New AP Orientation. Principal Partners were assigned to first-year principals and we continued monthly Professional Learning Communities. By the end of Q4, DCPS has retained a majority of its best school leader talent. The district has retained 89 % of school principals and 84% of assistant principals.
Provide efficient and customer service-oriented Human Resources	DCPS will continue to focus on the development of process improvements, including self-service and electronic resources. Many human resources processes have been streamlined and moved to an online platform, providing a user-friendly, expedited way for employees to access the information they need. The online leave of absence application automates requests for leave, provides information related to leave programs, and provides critical staff tracking data to schools. To date, more than 600 employees have used the online tool to submit completed requests for leaves of absence. DCPS has also started to centralize requests for extra duty pay through an online application, which monitors extra duty positions and facilitates the submissions of extra duty payment requests to the Office of the Chief Financial Officer. Finally, DCPS has implemented a new internal, online tool that tracks the submission and request of retroactive payments, allowing us to communicate to employees where their requests are in the workflow.	Complete	In addition to the the Leave of Absence database, additional compensation, and retro payment tools, DCPS launched other customer service-oriented process improvements, including allowing employees to submit a request online for a retirement computation, and sending automatic notifications through the Leave of Absence database to employees out of work on workers’ compensation.

Second, DCPS will continue to partner with instructional superintendents to conduct "Talent Strategy Meetings" with individual school leaders to develop a strong human capital plan for to retain high-performing staff members and plan to make early hiring decisions for anticipated vacancies. Finally, DCPS will further streamline and automate the hiring process so that a high volume of school-based hires are able to be processed quickly and efficiently, before they are lost to charters and neighboring school districts.		implemented the live roster tool. Members of OTC have demonstrated continuous, individualized, and differentiated support to all school leaders in planning for vacancies and filling those vacancies. For the SY17-18 hiring season, OTC increased the percentage of signed offer letters for WTU positions by 6 percentage points and non-WTU positions by 11 percentage points, demonstrating an expedited hiring process.

OFFICE OF TEACHING AND LEARNING (6 Strategic initiatives)

Develop core curricular resources aligned to the Common Core State Standards	DCPS curricular documents for each content area offer guidance on how to prepare students to meet standards. Unit guides, lesson plans, and sample lessons are developed centrally through partnership between teachers and content specialists. By providing the framework and general foundation for instruction, teachers spend less time creating new material on their own, and more time innovating and tailoring instruction to meet the needs of their students. In SY2016-2017, DCPS is introducing new curriculum in key areas, including a new mathematics curriculum for all schools. Students are ensured equal access to the same high quality content regardless of where they attend school.	Complete	By the end of the third quarter, DCPS has continued to partner with teachers to develop high quality, CC aligned curriculum. This curriculum continues to be updated and regularly available for teachers through their online resource, Canvas.
Ensure every student has rigorous learning experiences by implementing Cornerstone lessons	Cornerstones are powerful lessons taught as part of the DCPS curriculum. Every student in every grade level experiences Cornerstones across each content area (English Language Arts, Math, Science, Art, Music, Physical Education, Health, World Language and Social Studies). Cornerstones make meaningful real-world connections through engaging and rigorous content, taught through proven, high-impact instructional models. In SY2016-2017, we have strengthened and extended our Cornerstones to include better access for students with special needs and a focus creating a culture of excellence in the classroom. The second grade bike Cornerstone also now includes an advocacy component, with students creating posters or advertisements; this aligns with the Safer, Stronger DC Priority Area. Connections to the real world have been extended to include cutting edge tools and compelling contexts; for example, mathematical modeling using a 3-D printer, blogging, and applying academics to social and geopolitical contexts, from city-wide access to healthy food to Iranian nuclear inspections.	Complete	By the end of the third quarter, DCPS strengthened and extended Cornerstones to include better access for students with special needs and a focus creating a culture of excellence. The 2nd grade bike Cornerstone now includes an advocacy component. Connections to the real world have been extended to include cutting edge tools and compelling contexts; i.e., mathematical modeling using a 3-D printer, blogging, and applying academics to social and geopolitical contexts.

In SY2016-2017, DCPS will increase the number of schools to 70 utilizing the suite of interventions for advanced and high ability students including Junior Great Books, DCPS Advanced Readers Extensions (DARE), M-Squared/M-Cubed math, Pre-Advanced Placement extensions, the Schoolwide Enrichment Model (SEM), as well as the Summer Enrichment Program for rising middle grade students.		quarter, DCPS hosted professional development for each of the initiatives highlighted in this section. By the end of this quarter, we have either trained directly or sent out almost 200 individual DCPS teachers to be trained on these programs whose purpose it is to increase access to advanced programming in all schools.
Ensure Higher Quality Instructional and Developmental Support in Early Childhood Education programs	Young children must be supported in developing a strong foundation for learning. In SY2016-2017, DCPS will work to provide higher quality instructional and developmental supports for children enrolled in Pre-K and Kindergarten. As part of our ongoing Cornerstone work to ensure every student has rigorous learning experiences, DCPS will implement the first preschool Cornerstone lesson, focused on health and wellness. DCPS will also enhance instruction through continuing to focus on emotionally and culturally responsive teaching practices. In addition, DCPS will expand a pilot program on "Teaching Young Boys of Color" from three to six schools. In addition, DCPS has created a Direct Services Team, consisting of seven full-time mental health clinicians, who will be providing school-based mental health support for young children and their families. Finally, DCPS will implement the Quality Rating and Improvement System (QRIS) to measure instructional practices at all DCPS early childhood programs in SY2016-2017.	Complete	By the end of the third quarter, ECE has successfully launched the PK Health Cornerstone, expanded the Young Boys of Color program, and in March 2017 launched the Direct Services program, which has now already served over 100 children and families experiencing acute trauma.
Increase the percentage of students with disabilities served in general education classes	DCPS is creating new opportunities that will ensure the number of students with disabilities served in general education classes continues to increase. New opportunities include: an inaugural, school-based leadership program known as ASPIRE. This program develops special education leadership on the school level and emphasized the role of inclusive instruction and compliance. Another new opportunity is content specific, professional development opportunities in ELA and math via the LEAP program. Both inclusion and select full-time program teachers will participate in this new model of professional learning to ensure that students are prepared to learn in the least restrictive environment. Further, related service providers will be trained in specific inclusive strategies. We are also improving existing systems to increase student inclusion including revising the inclusion matrix for IEP teams to determine IEP hours based on content; updating inclusion matrix guidance for secondary schools, early childhood settings and English language learner populations, and improving partnerships with our successful non-public schools to return students to their least restrictive environments.	Complete	By the end of third quarter, DCPS has increased the rate of inclusion of students with disabilities in the general education setting from 53.6% at the start of SY16-17 to 60.7% by June 2017. The next level of work is to continue increasing the percentage of students served in general education classrooms to meet/exceed the national average.
Improve Advanced Placement performance by providing AP-like instructional	Beginning in SY2016-2017 DCPS will launch a Pre-Advanced Placement series of curricular extensions consisting of additional texts and assignments for students in Honors English 1-3, referred to as Pre-AP English 9-11. For SY2016-2017 schools can choose to implement these Pre-AP curricular/assessment extensions either within their currently existing Honors English courses or as part of their non-Honors, core English 9-11 classes for students who are interested in and would benefit from a more challenging academic experience in their English classes.	can be used for AP English Language and Literature. In Social Studies, a Pre-AP World History course with curricular documents were created as well as Pre-AP science inserts for the science curriculum. In math, we focused on developing a strong Advanced Math Pathway where students can take algebra and geometry earlier.

OFFICE OF THE CHIEF OF SCHOOLS (13 Strategic initiatives)

Ensure that schools promptly identify struggling students and assign them intervention services	DCPS is developing greater capacity in each school to identify students with challenges to school success (e.g., behavior, attendance, and math or reading challenges) and provide the appropriate interventions to address those challenges. In SY2016-2017, DCPS will implement a Response to Intervention Database which will consolidate the process for how student data is gathered, viewed, responded to, and tracked to ultimately help to ensure students who are struggling receive timely and aligned interventions. In addition, the database will facilitate school staff in monitoring the progress of students receiving interventions and knowing when they should continue or change course. Lastly, having all schools tracking this work in one database will facilitate the identification of both positive and negative trends in effectiveness of interventions. The database will include: attendance, behavior, and academic performance data based on Early Warning Indicators. DCPS is also rolling out the new Response to Intervention (RTI) Implementation Rubric and will be assessing and supporting schools on RTI implementation and progress monitoring of students.	Complete	By the end of Q4, DCPS successfully implemented the full RTI Database and it was available to all DCPS schools for use. 98% of schools entered Intervention Plans for students with either behavior, math or literacy challenges. DCPS also implemented a new RTI rubric as well as had central staff visit every school and observe at least one intervention being provided to students, to get a baseline overview of intervention provision across DCPS.
Support incoming freshmen at comprehensive high schools through Ninth Grade Academies	In SY2016-2017, DCPS will continue to implement targeted Ninth Grade Academy programs at nine comprehensive high schools (Ron Brown College Prep HS was added in SY2016-2017) across the District to help first-year ninth grade students successfully complete the first year of high school and develop proficiencies necessary for success in tenth grade and beyond. The Academy model meets academic and socio-emotional needs with close progress monitoring and rapid response to intervene with students who fall off track, and is based on best practices, research and successful programs in other urban school districts.	Complete	By the end of Q4, DCPS has successfully completed this initiative with 85% of first-time 9th graders promoting to the 10th grade. This meets the original goals of the initiative which were set in 2013 when the Ninth Grade Academies began.
Ensure schools with middle grades have rigorous and engaging course offerings and	Middle grades are an important transitional period. Well-adjusted and prepared middle grade students are the key towards a successful ninth grade transition and increase graduation rates. As a continuation of the work started last year, DCPS will provide each and every sixth through eighth grade student access to rigorous course offerings that are a fundamental and important part of the middle grades experience. In addition to the engaging and rigorous course offerings,	Complete	By the end of Q4, DCPS provided schools with middle grades an additional $28,000 in funding to support field trips, excursions, clubs and activities. Increase the amount of learning time through the implementation of Extended Year and Extended Day in DCPS schools	DCPS is implementing extended learning time at targeted DCPS schools to reduce summer learning loss and improve student achievement. DCPS will implement an Extended Year at 11 DCPS schools; this program will extend the year by 20 days in these schools, which is the equivalent of an extra year of learning by the time students in these programs reach the 8th grade. In addition, DCPS will continue the Extended Day Program in targeted schools. During the extra 1-2 hours a minimum per day, students have the opportunity to engage in more instructional time and teachers are able to impart more information. Ideally, this instruction is delivered by the same content teachers that students learn from during the day and there is no transition, thus maintaining the integrity of the natural extension.	Complete	By the end of Q4, DCPS completed Year 2 at Raymond EC and Year 1 at the 10 remaining Extended Year (EY) sites. We have begun 17-18 and have added two secondary Opportunity Academies. We used stakeholder feedback to improve programming. Extended Day completed 16-17. 14 of the 28 comparable sites showed increases in ELA and Math. 8 increased in ELA and 6 in Math.
Ensure the supports for our 40 lowest performing schools are implemented with increased fidelity	The 40/40 schools are our highest-need category of schools, and as such, require specialized evaluation and support coordinated across central office functions. To that end, the School Turnaround and Performance Division will conduct strategic analysis of schools' assets and needs. These mid-year and end-of-year reviews will drive differentiated allocation of district responses to four major strands of school improvement: (1) instructional leadership; (2) school culture; (3) intervention; and (4) teacher capacity. Each school will receive increased support in at least one of these areas through one of the following: twice annual Priority/Focus consultative visits from district staff, twenty days of extended year programming, or inclusion in a cluster of schools with ongoing support from an Instructional Superintendent with dedicated support staff from multiple offices. The Turnaround and Performance Division will generate data reports for school use and for the purpose of tracking progress.	Complete	By the end of Q4, DCPS fulfilled its school improvement commitments, which is one of the original aims of the 40/40 goal. Throughout the school year, the offices provided supports to 40 lowest performing schools focusing on core instruction/PD, school culture, leadership/ALT, and interventions/partnerships by developing strong turnaround leadership, leveraging turnaround partnerships, and implementing evidence-based turnaround strategies such as Extended Year and Cluster X.

Elective courses are designed to give students access to engaging experiences that align with their interests or career aspirations. Examples of engaging elective courses include Choir, Band, Financial Planning, Yearbook, Student Government, Street Law and Swimming. Implement mandated interventions for truancy with fidelity	Success in the classroom depends on students attending school every day. DCPS is working to reduce student truancy and increase in-seat attendance by identifying and providing support to students who are missing school. DCPS is providing additional support to schools to find appropriate student incentives and engagement activities that improve attendance. The Director of Attendance and six Attendance Specialists monitor compliance with the truancy protocol on a weekly basis and provide coaching and supports, as needed, to increase compliance.	Complete	At the end of Q4, DCPS had the following attendance compliance results: CFSA-80% of the required referrals (goal 100%); Office of Attorney General Court referrals-60% of the required referrals (goal 50%) ; Court Social Services referrals-34% of the required referrals (goal 50%); Attendance SST's-75% of the required referrals (goal 80%). DC was working towards ending the year with a 20.5% truancy and 90.5% ISA rate. EOY rates were 25.5% and 88.9% respectively.
Provide school leaders and staff with training and support for increasing in-seat attendance	DCPS provides quarterly attendance professional development opportunities for school staff. It also collaborates with internal and external partners to provide professional development for school-based attendance workers. These offices, programs and agencies include but are not limited to: Attendance Works, DC Action for Children, Child and Family Services, Court Social Services, Justice Grants Administration, and the Office of the Attorney General. Each school's attendance designee will be required to complete an online assessment to show they can competently perform their duties.	Complete	By the end of Q4, DCPS completed its quarterly professional development requirement for staff requirement and 95% of the staff completed an assessment to show they can competently perform their duties.
Expand the school climate initiative to more DCPS schools	Last year, DCPS launched its first ever School Climate Initiative (SCI), supporting a group of our highest need schools in developing a school climate which promotes high student achievement, a proactive and positive approach to discipline, and an emphasis on supporting the social and emotional needs of students. In SY2016-2017, DCPS will double the number of schools participating in this initiative. The SCI focuses on improving six components of climate: (1) leadership, (2) educational environment, (3) routines and procedures, (4) student recognition, (5) teaching and learning, (6) and interpersonal relationships. DCPS supports schools in creating an individualized school climate plan and increasing implementation fidelity through weekly site visits focused on building capacity among the staff. Improve HIV/STI prevention through enhanced sexual health curriculum and services	Through a federal grant from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, DCPS continues to work with 22 priority schools to implement sexual health curriculum, increase access to sexual health services, and enhance safe and supportive environments for all students, including LGBTQ students. DCPS will provide ongoing professional development to build comfort, confidence, and competence in health educators teaching sexual health education. DCPS also will strengthen its Sexual Health Liaison cohort in 10 priority high schools, preparing school staff to provide sexual health information and condoms, and make referrals for services. In-person trainings highlighting available sexual health resources on and off school campuses, skills-based trainings on proper condom usage and other barrier methods as prevention strategies, coordinated bi-monthly phone calls with other liaisons, and in-person technical assistance from DCPS are offered throughout the school year to ensure the Sexual Health Liaison cohort is supported and meeting the needs of each school. In partnership with DC's Department of Health and the Office of the State Superintendent of Education, DCPS will implement HIV and STI screening for high school students and expand student access to services. DCPS will strengthen its LGBTQ Liaison cohort across 22 priority schools, train school staff to implement the new DCPS Transgender and Gender-Nonconforming Policy Guidance, and continue to demonstrate commitment to the LGBTQ school community through Youth Pride and the Capital Pride Parade.	Complete	By the end of Q4, DCPS completed this initiative. During Q4, DCPS provided training for Sexual Health Liaisons and LGBTQ Liaisons at the 22 priority schools on being a trusted adult, LGBTQ health, referring students to school-based health centers and supporting the STI screening program. Bi-monthly calls and on-site technical assistance continued, as well as trainings on the DCPS's Transgender and Gender-Nonconforming Policy Guidance. DCPS participated in the Capital Pride Parade.
Reduce suspensions by implementing alternative approaches to disciplinary issues	DCPS encourages school officials to implement re-direction, mediation, parent involvement, counseling, or other appropriate alternatives to suspension when responding to student behavior issues, particularly when responding to non-violent negative behaviors. DCPS will continue to implement Restorative Practices as a tool to address negative behaviors, decrease the number of disciplinary issues and promote positive school climate in a targeted group of schools. During SY2016-2017, DCPS is expanding the Restorative Justice Initiative to include a total of 20 schools. These schools will receive training and technical support throughout SY2016-2017 focused on creating a welcoming school culture and climate building on a foundation of preventing and restoring negative behaviors. Additionally, these schools will implement the restorative practices in all aspects of their day to day operations including staff collaborative times.	Complete	At the end of SY1617 DCPS reduced the total number of suspensions by 811 and the total number of suspension days by 6,311. Additionally, the 20 schools that were in Restorative Justice initiative reduced their total number of suspensions by 521 and their total number of suspension days by 4,910.
Increase promotion and post-secondary readiness for over-aged and under-credited students through Pathways programming	In SY2016-2017, DCPS will introduce school-based Pathways Coordinators in comprehensive and alternative high schools who will monitor, support and connect over-age and under-credited students to successful pathways. In addition, the four alternative schools will undergo a redesign to focus on project-based and competency-based learning. Finally, the student placement protocol will be revised to ensure students who are falling behind academically have a clear pathway to the school that will best meet their needs.	Complete	By the end of Q4, 56% of Pathways students advanced one or more statuses within the ACGR tracker. 66% of Pathways students whose first 9th grade year was 2013-2014 caught up and graduated "on-time." 78% of Pathways students starting in grades 9-11 promoted one or more grade level(s). In Opportunity Academies, the Summit pilot was successful, the Opportunity Athletics League is underway and the placement guidance is being used to make placement decisions.

Ensure that at least 1,000 males of color students receive tailored, academic and personal supports	These supports include mentoring, character development opportunities, internships and specialized classes. Over 250 students have been matched with mentors through partner organizations. In addition, the Empowering Males of Color Innovation grants to 16 schools have funded character development programs, excursions, and community building experiences and ethnic/cultural courses of study at individual schools. Student matches to programs will depend on individual student needs, and programmatic "fit" for the school. This work will be reinforced as DCPS school leaders and teachers implement instructional rubrics that assess the creation of an inclusive learning environment.	Complete	By the end of Q4, DCPS provided supports to close to 800 male students of color through EMOC-specific programs. We feel confident that by including programs run directly by schools, over 1000 male students of color have received mentoring, character development, academic enrichment and/or internship supports and opportunities.

OFFICE OF THE CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER (4 Strategic initiatives)

Ensure schools are prepared for computer-based assessments and learning by upgrading and aligning hardware, network and IT support	Over the last several years, DCPS has transitioned to computer-based assessments to measure student learning, including but not limited to PARCC. The DCPS' Technology Initiatives team within the Office of the Chief Operating Officer will support the implementation of these assessments in three distinct ways: devices, network, and technical support. DCPS will ensure that all schools have the current appropriate devices and student to device ratio, network bandwidth and technical support for testing. In addition to ensuring students and schools have the support needed for online assessments, we have expanded our scope in school year 2016-2017 to developing plans to ensure schools are better equipped to support blended learning through which students receive a portion of their instruction on a computer. In some cases, blended learning requires lower student to computer ratios, upgraded networks, and increased infrastructure support beyond what is needed for assessments. The focus for SY2016-2017 will be determining best how to do so and beginning to put these supports in place.	Complete	4 DCPS schools are equipped with 1:1 computer to student/teacher ratio, and all schools have the PARCC minimum device standards of 1:3. All DCPS schools are assigned technicians to provide technology support. Ubiquitous WI-FI coverage is available in all designated learning spaces with 88 schools operating at 1GBPS bandwidth. The remaining schools meet the standards and will be upgraded to 1GBPS by the end of the current school year.
Ensure students receive the most healthy, delicious, and	Healthy, delicious food is important for student achievement and overall satisfaction as well as for DCPS to remain compliant with its legal obligations. DCPS also believes it must be good stewards of public funds, paying the lowest cost possible for goods and services. That is why DCPS selected new vendors to provide food services in	Complete	By Q3, DCPS has completed its first year of the new food service contracts in full compliance and set cost-effective meals possible	DCPS starting in SY2016-2017. We will monitor these vendors closely to ensure they are meeting their contractual obligations, including but not limited to developing and implementing student satisfaction plans, developing healthy and varied menus, and providing excellent customer service. We know students are more interested in eating healthy food when they know where it comes from and have watched and helped it grow. As part of this objective, we will continue to work with the Office of the State Superintendent to support our school gardens.		benchmarks for success in the upcoming year. We have also received plans from vendors to increase meal participation and satisfaction. DCPS is actively working with OSSE's school garden team to identify opportunities for garden lessons into the kitchen and expand the work with FoodPrints from SY16-17.

Increase enrollment in DCPS	As outlined in the Chancellor's A Capital Commitment, increasing enrollment is a top priority for DCPS. The Office of the Chief Operating Officer, in collaboration with several other DCPS offices, will work to implement initiatives and new programs to attract families to DCPS schools. A few examples for SY2016-2017 include: Launch MacFarland MS in SY16-17: MacFarland will reopen with community support as a dual-language program with coursework in both Spanish and English in SY16-17; support Ron Brown College Prep HS; Launch a global studies program at Roosevelt in SY16-17. Roosevelt will be re-launching with a global-studies program that includes a dual-language program (where students receive instruction in English and Spanish) and an international academy for students who have recently immigrated to the United States; IB program at Eliot-Hine MS; Ensure success of Brookland MS. Brookland opened in SY15-16 with a global curriculum in a newly modernized building for 300+ students.; Dual language at Houston ES; NAF Career Academies at Anacostia and Woodson; and, new AP courses and electives across high schools. DCPS is also in the planning stages for launching online student enrollment for school year 2017-2018. Much of the planning and implementation for this launch will occur during the current school year.	Complete	DCPS had an audited enrollment of 48,555 for SY16-17. MacFarland began the SY17-18 with 132 sixth and seventh graders. Ron Brown began the SY17-18 with 209 9th and 10th graders.
Launch Ron Brown College Preparatory High School	Black and Latino males graduate high school at rates lower than their peers across the district, 55 and 59 percent respectively. In SY2016-2017, DCPS will design and open a new high school for males. This school will be designed to provide targeted and research-based supports to keep male students stay on a path to graduation, college and careers.	Complete	By the end of the third quarter, DCPS opened Ron Brown with 105 9th graders enrolled. DCPS is projecting 220 students in 9th and 10th grade next school year.

2017 Strategic Initiatives

Strategic Initiative Title	Strategic Initiative Description	Proposed Completion Date
OFFICE OF COLLEGE & CAREER (6 Strategic initiative-operation links)
Increase student access to and success in courses worth college credit	In SY2015-2016, DCPS had formalized Dual Enrollment Partnership Agreements with five local colleges (Georgetown University, Catholic University, Howard University, George Washington University, and University of the District of Columbia – Community College). We have exceeded the goal we set for ourselves that by June 30th, all comprehensive DCPS high schools would have at least one college dual enrollment partner. This year, each comprehensive high school has at least three dual enrollment college partners: Georgetown University, UDC-CC, and at least one other college. By June 30, 2017, we aim to have increased the proportion of DCPS students completing dual enrollment programs by ten percentage points.	09-30-2017
Implement Career Academies that better equip high school students with the skills necessary for college and careers	In SY2015-2016, DCPS established two new NAF Career Academies at HD Woodson High School (IT & Engineering), which will enroll its first class of students in SY2016-2017. In total in SY2015-2016, DCPS had 10 operating NAF Career Academies across 8 high schools (Ballou, Cardozo, Columbia Heights Education Campus, Dunbar, McKinley Tech, Phelps, Wilson, Woodson). These Academies are focused on one or more of the following industries: Engineering, IT, and Hospitality (associated with three of the District's highest wage, highest demand career sectors). The academies integrate strong college and industry partnerships, paid internships, work-based learning experiences and rigorous curricula and culminate in industry-recognized certifications. This year, 250 DCPS NAF Academy students have completed paid internships in their respected fields of study; an additional 290 students in additional Career Education Programs participated in paid summer internships. In SY2016-2017, DCPS aims to begin a year of planning for a Health Science Career Academy at Coolidge High School that will open in SY2017-2018	09-30-2017
Provide middle grades students with exposure to college and career experiences	Through College & Career Clubs, DCPS is offering middle grades students the opportunity to lead one another, via peer to peer instruction and mentoring, through a college and career exposure curriculum, guest speaker, and college and career field trip model. Nationwide, students who have participated in College & Career Clubs were found to have higher short and long-term academic aspirations, improved attendance rates, and decreased behavior issues. In SY2015-2016, we offered College & Career Clubs at three middle grade schools: Browne EC, Hart MS, and Eliot-Hine, and over 350 students participated in the program. By June 30, 2017, our goal is to offer College & Career Clubs at a minimum of seven middle grade schools, and serve at least 600 students.	09-30-2017
Increase student access to meaningful college tour experiences	In SY2015-2016, DCPS implemented a College Tour Program, which provided funds for college tours to each of our seven comprehensive 40/40 high schools (Anacostia, Ballou, Cardozo, Coolidge, Dunbar, Roosevelt, Woodson) and middle grade schools participating in the College & Career Clubs Program. This year, 1,243 students took at least one college tour. In SY2016-2017, we aim to have 25% more students taking at least one college tour.	09-30-2017
Provide college going data to high schools	SY2016-2017, DCPS will continue to share with each high school leadership team current school-specific data on college enrollment, persistence, and completion data. The data will help drive discussions about the importance of smart college choices at the school and student-level. In SY2016-2017, there will be a focus on providing direct supports to school-based staff on utilizing the data to inform schools' programming and information-sharing with students and families around the college search process.	09-30-2017
Expand SAT Test Prep Opportunities	DCPS offers high schools SAT Test Prep Offerings for high school students through partnerships with Khan Academy/College Board and private test prep providers, including Kaplan, Princeton Review, Transcend Academy, & Bell Curves. As of last year, all of our high schools had access to the Khan Academy/College Board self-paced online test prep system, and 9 high schools (Anacostia, Ballou, Banneker, Cardozo, Coolidge, Eastern, Ellington, Phelps, & Woodson) had test prep programs from private providers (funded by OSSE or private donors). In SY2016-2017, DCPS aims to expand its private test prep offerings to 16 schools (adding Ballou STAY, Columbia Heights Education Campus, McKinley Technology, Roosevelt, Roosevelt STAY, and Wilson high schools), and also add free online test prep to all 11th and 12th grade students through Naviance and Edgenuity online platforms.	09-30-2017
OFFICE OF FAMILY & PUBLIC ENGAGEMENT (3 Strategic initiative-operation links)
Teach mindsets and skills to improve and sustain academically-focused relationships with families	Since SY2011-2012, DCPS has worked with the Flamboyant Foundation to transform the ways in which teachers and families collaborate with one another – in particular through home visits and whole-class family meetings focused on academic performance and strategies for home support (Academic Parent Teacher Teams). DCPS is continuing to provide professional development through the Family Engagement Partnership (FEP) for teachers on home visits and academic parent teacher teams in schools that have met a set of prerequisites to adopt the program. In SY2016-2017 the partnerships has grown from 22 schools to 31 schools and schools will be using a Leadership Actions Trajectory rubric to assess where they are in the family engagement work.	09-30-2017

Expand DCPS community outreach and relationship building with stakeholders	DCPS will provide opportunities for district families and community members to engage in authentic ways by listening to them about things that matter to them, engaging & consulting them on policies that impact their child's academic success, using this feedback to inform our policies and initiatives in DCPS, and sharing with them how their feedback has influenced decision making. These efforts will be executed in multiple ways including a 4 -person ward based Community Action Team (CAT), hosting small and large citywide engagement efforts in DCPS, expanding technical support for cross-collaborative central office engagement, and tracking and monitoring our work so we can be more data driven and adaptive in our efforts as necessary. In SY2016-2017, school-level support by the CAT will include providing detailed "Community-at-a-Glance" information sheets and additional supports and guidance around parent organizations (PTO, PTAs and LSATs).	09-30-2017
Develop meaningful partnerships at the school level that support student success	DCPS will provide opportunities for corporate and community organizations to partner with schools to support student success for a minimum of one academic year through the Adopt-a-School Program. Partnerships formed through this program are expected to host at least three school-based engagements and one donation effort over the course of one school year. During this collaboration, partners and schools will work together to determine how to best connect partner resources and interests with the school's unique needs. This relationship is a joint effort led by the school and partner, and supported by the DCPS School Partnerships Division (SPD) and is in its second year of implementation. The SPD will provide guidance, tools, and on-going partnership support throughout the year to ensure the collaboration is a success for all.	09-30-2017
OFFICE OF INSTRUCTIONAL PRACTICE (2 Strategic initiative-operation links)
Rigorously evaluate teacher performance	DCPS will continue to implement its rigorous teacher evaluation system (IMPACT) which outlines clear expectations for effectiveness and provides opportunities for ongoing feedback and aligned support. IMPACT includes multiple measures of teacher effectiveness including classroom observations conducted by school leaders, measures of student achievement, and a measure of a teacher's commitment to the school community. For SY2016-2017, DCPS has developed a new, shorter rubric that better aligns with the content expectations of the Common Core Era, the DCPS Essential Practices. IMPACT also now includes Student Surveys of Practice as a new component for general education teachers in third grade and higher. Student surveys of instructional practices are research-based tools that capture and value the unique perspectives of our most important stakeholders -- our students. In addition, the survey results will provide teachers of students in Grades 3 and above with specific, actionable feedback they may use to inform their instruction. Lastly, value-added is returning for general education teachers of ELA and math in fourth through tenth grade. Final scores and IMPACT ratings will be available after the end of the school year. DCPS uses information from IMPACT to recognize and retain our best teachers, provide additional support to those who need it, and remove ineffective teachers.	09-30-2017
Develop the best possible teacher talent through Learning Together to Advance our Practice (LEAP)	At school, the single most important factor for student success is teacher quality. That's why DCPS has focused so much of its attention over the past several years on ensuring that every classroom is filled with a top-notch teacher. To take the next leap forward, DCPS is making an unprecedented investment in teacher development through a new program called LEAP (LEarning together to Advance our Practice). At its core, LEAP is about helping teachers become truly expert at teaching the DCPS Common Core-aligned curriculum – so that every student across the city experiences rich, engaging, and challenging instruction every day. To do this, teachers will engage in a weekly cycle of development in small content-specific professional learning communities (LEAP Teams) at their schools. These teams will be led by content experts (LEAP Leaders) at their schools. LEAP is built around the concepts of collaboration, practice, a Common-Core aligned adult curriculum, and having the right LEAP leaders and training in place for teachers.	09-30-2017
OFFICE OF TALENT AND CULTURE (6 Strategic initiative-operation links)
Recruit and select the best possible teacher talent	In order to provide DCPS students with high-quality instruction and fill vacancies as they arise, DCPS must recruit and select teachers who demonstrate the potential to be effective in our classrooms. To that end, DCPS will continue to engage in national recruitment efforts including: headhunting teachers with prior experience and a track record of success, attending career fairs at universities around the country, continuing to build the DCPS brand through the JoinDCPS website and an expanded social media presence, and revising the teacher selection process to be as streamlined and rigorous as possible. The changes for SY2016-2017 will align our selection process with the Essential Practices rubric, the new, shorter rubric that better aligns with the content expectations of the Common Core Era. We will particularly focus on ensuring that we attract diverse teachers and generate sufficient applications to fill our highest-need subject areas.	09-30-2017
Retain the best teacher talent	DCPS has a growing number of effective and highly effective educators. Especially in the context of national teacher shortages, it is imperative that DCPS continues to retain our best teacher talent at high rates. DCPS will recognize highly effective teaching through the annual Standing Ovation event. Additionally, we will provide teachers with an opportunities newsletter twice a month to support teachers' continual career growth. Targeted retention emails will be sent to all highly effective teachers in the district, reminding them that the district values them. Furthermore, for teachers who are interested in seeking a position in another school, we will be making the transfer process within DCPS more straightforward and accessible, in order to maximize the extent to which we retain teachers in DCPS overall and assist them to find schools that are their best fit. We will also host programs like our Chancellor's Teachers' Cabinet and Teachers Central to Leadership (TCTL) to provide teachers with leadership opportunities and to deepen connections between the school-based and the Central Office so that top teachers can provide feedback about their experiences. Over the year, we will continue to provide principals with reminders about the importance of teacher retention and specific resources they can use to directly recognize and engage irreplaceable teachers in their school. Lastly, we are working to retain our teachers by providing meaningful professional development on a weekly basis in small content-specific professional learning communities (LEAP Teams) at their schools. These teams will be led by content experts (LEAP Leaders) at their schools.	09-30-2017
Recruit and select the best possible school leadership talent	DCPS will continue to identify and recruit high-potential school leaders for every principal vacancy with a particular emphasis on instructional leadership. This is a continuing initiative. Internally, this talent will include high-potential leaders, such as highly-effective assistant principals (APs) and members of the fourth cohort of the Mary Jane Patterson Fellowship. Externally, DCPS will identify and recruit award-winning school leadership talent from across the country for both principal and AP vacancies. OTC, in collaboration with OIP, will continue to ensure that high-potential, rising DCPS leaders are preparing for the principalship through the Mary Jane Patterson Fellowship, which will be launching its fifth cohort in January 2016. OTC will continue to review School Leader IMPACT data of recent principal and AP hires to determine if further enhancements to the selection process are warranted to improve the quality of hire. This year the district's focus on instructional leadership is expanding in support of the LEAP initiative and the increased role that school leaders have played in guiding instruction in recent years.	09-30-2017

Retain the best school leader talent	DCPS will continue to implement an aggressive performance-based salary scale for principals and assistant principals, and a bonus system for all Highly Effective school leaders, including special incentives to serve and continue leading in the 40 targeted schools. DCPS will also continue to target training and support to existing school leaders in a number of ways, including providing Principal Partners for first-year principals and ensuring every principal is managed and supported by a highly experienced instructional superintendents – who each receive comprehensive training and support in “Blended Coaching” (from experts at the New Teacher Center). This year, we are aligning the Principal Partners so that they support new principals in their own cluster and we have also added in monthly Professional Learning Communities for first year principals led by Principal Partners. In addition, DCPS will provide opportunities for principal representatives to participate in the Chancellor’s Principal Cabinet and on other system-wide committees. Finally, the quarterly Leadership Academies this year will assign each principal to a Problem of Practice group, where central office leaders will strategize alongside principals to improve an issue or structure for the 2017-2018 school year. Topics include Addressing the Achievement Gap, Special Education Supports, and Budget and School Planning.	09-30-2017
Provide efficient and customer service-oriented Human Resources	DCPS will continue to focus on the development of process improvements, including self-service and electronic resources. Many human resources processes have been streamlined and moved to an online platform, providing a user-friendly, expedited way for employees to access the information they need. The online leave of absence application automates requests for leave, provides information related to leave programs, and provides critical staff tracking data to schools. To date, more than 600 employees have used the online tool to submit completed requests for leaves of absence. DCPS has also started to centralize requests for extra duty pay through an online application, which monitors extra duty positions and facilitates the submissions of extra duty payment requests to the Office of the Chief Financial Officer. Finally, DCPS has implemented a new internal, online tool that tracks the submission and request of retroactive payments, allowing us to communicate to employees where their requests are in the workflow.	09-30-2017
Ensure schools have the staff to meet their needs by providing strategic staffing support	Hiring great people is fundamental to the success of any school. Given that school leaders have various levels of human capital experience and expertise, DCPS will pursue three core strategies to support school leaders in making timely, strong hiring decisions for SY2017-2018. First, to support school leaders in tracking and reacting quickly to new vacancies during the spring and summer, DCPS will develop a live school roster that can be accessed by a school leader at any time, including real-time data relating to school personnel and budget information. Second, DCPS will continue to partner with instructional superintendents to conduct “Talent Strategy Meetings” with individual school leaders to develop a strong human capital plan for to retain high-performing staff members and plan to make early hiring decisions for anticipated vacancies. Finally, DCPS will further streamline and automate the hiring process so that a high volume of school-based hires are able to be processed quickly and efficiently, before they are lost to charters and neighboring school districts.	09-30-2017
OFFICE OF TEACHING AND LEARNING (6 Strategic initiative-operation links)
Develop core curricular resources aligned to the Common Core State Standards	DCPS curricular documents for each content area offer guidance on how to prepare students to meet standards. Unit guides, lesson plans, and sample lessons are developed centrally through partnership between teachers and content specialists. By providing the framework and general foundation for instruction, teachers spend less time creating new material on their own, and more time innovating and tailoring instruction to meet the needs of their students. In SY2016-2017, DCPS is introducing new curriculum in key areas, including a new mathematics curriculum for all schools. Students are ensured equal access to the same high quality content regardless of where they attend school.	09-30-2017
Ensure every student has rigorous learning experiences by implementing Cornerstone lessons	Cornerstones are powerful lessons taught as part of the DCPS curriculum. Every student in every grade level experiences Cornerstones across each content area (English Language Arts, Math, Science, Art, Music, Physical Education, Health, World Language and Social Studies). Cornerstones make meaningful real-world connections through engaging and rigorous content, taught through proven, high-impact instructional models. In SY2016-2017, we have strengthened and extended our Cornerstones to include better access for students with special needs and a focus creating a culture of excellence in the classroom. The second grade bike Cornerstone also now includes an advocacy component, with students creating posters or advertisements; this aligns with the Safer, Stronger DC Priority Area. Connections to the real world have been extended to include cutting edge tools and compelling contexts; for example, mathematical modeling using a 3-D printer, blogging, and applying academics to social and geopolitical contexts, from city-wide access to healthy food to Iranian nuclear inspections.	09-30-2017
Increase access to advanced programming in DCPS schools.	Differentiated learning approaches ensure all students are able to meet but also exceed and accelerate learning. In SY2016-2017, DCPS will increase the number of schools to 70 utilizing the suite of interventions for advanced and high ability students including Junior Great Books, DCPS Advanced Readers Extensions (DARE), M-Squared/M-Cubed math, Pre-Advanced Placement extensions, the Schoolwide Enrichment Model (SEM), as well as the Summer Enrichment Program for rising middle grade students.	09-30-2017
Ensure Higher Quality Instructional and Developmental Support in Early Childhood Education programs	Young children must be supported in developing a strong foundation for learning. In SY2016-2017, DCPS will work to provide higher quality instructional and developmental supports for children enrolled in Pre-K and Kindergarten. As part of our ongoing Cornerstone work to ensure every student has rigorous learning experiences, DCPS will implement the first preschool Cornerstone lesson, focused on health and wellness. DCPS will also enhance instruction through continuing to focus on emotionally and culturally responsive teaching practices. In addition, DCPS will expand a pilot program on “Teaching Young Boys of Color” from three to six schools. In addition, DCPS has created a Direct Services Team, consisting of seven full-time mental health clinicians, who will be providing school-based mental health support for young children and their families. Finally, DCPS will implement the Quality Rating and Improvement System (QRIS) to measure instructional practices at all DCPS early childhood programs in SY2016-2017.	09-30-2017
Increase the percentage of students with disabilities served in general education classes	DCPS is creating new opportunities that will ensure the number of students with disabilities served in general education classes continues to increase. New opportunities include: an inaugural, school-based leadership program known as ASPIRE. This program develops special education leadership on the school level and emphasized the role of inclusive instruction and compliance. Another new opportunity is content specific, professional development opportunities in ELA and math via the LEAP program. Both inclusion and select full-time program teachers will participate in this new model of professional learning to ensure that students are prepared to learn in the least restrictive environment. Further, related service providers will be trained in specific inclusive strategies. We are also improving existing systems to increase student inclusion including revising the inclusion matrix for IEP teams to determine IEP hours based on content; updating inclusion matrix guidance for secondary schools, early childhood settings and English language learner populations, and improving partnerships with our successful non-public schools to return students to their least restrictive environments.	09-30-2017

Improve Advanced Placement performance by providing AP-like instructional experiences in the courses prior to Advanced Placement	Beginning in SY2016-2017 DCPS will launch a Pre-Advanced Placement series of curricular extensions consisting of additional texts and assignments for students in Honors English 1-3, referred to as as Pre-AP English 9-11. As part of our three-year plan, this Pre-AP work is designed to better prepare students, at as early an age as sixth grade, to be able to access core courses in English, math, science, and social studies which contain enhanced instructional expectations that are designed to better prepare the student for the rigor and challenge of an AP class later in her/his academic career. For SY2016-2017 schools can choose to implement these Pre-AP curricular/assessment extensions either within their currently existing Honors English courses or as part of their non-Honors, core English 9-11 classes for students who are interested in and would benefit from a more challenging academic experience in their English classes.	09-30-2017
OFFICE OF THE CHIEF OF SCHOOLS (13 Strategic initiative-operation links)
Ensure that schools promptly identify struggling students and assign them intervention services	DCPS is developing greater capacity in each school to identify students with challenges to school success (e.g., behavior, attendance, and math or reading challenges) and provide the appropriate interventions to address those challenges. In SY2016-2017, DCPS will implement a Response to Intervention Database which will consolidate the process for how student data is gathered, viewed, responded to, and tracked to ultimately help to ensure students who are struggling receive timely and aligned interventions. In addition, the database will facilitate school staff in monitoring the progress of students receiving interventions and knowing when they should continue or change course. Lastly, having all schools tracking this work in one database will facilitate the identification of both positive and negative trends in effectiveness of interventions. The database will include: attendance, behavior, and academic performance data based on Early Warning Indicators. DCPS is also rolling out the new Response to Intervention (RTI) Implementation Rubric and will be assessing and supporting schools on RTI implementation and progress monitoring of students.	09-30-2017
Support incoming freshmen at comprehensive high schools through Ninth Grade Academies	In SY2016-2017, DCPS will continue to implement targeted Ninth Grade Academy programs at nine comprehensive high schools (Ron Brown College Prep HS was added in SY2016-2017) across the District to help first-year ninth grade students successfully complete the first year of high school and develop proficiencies necessary for success in tenth grade and beyond. The Academy model meets academic and socio-emotional needs with close progress monitoring and rapid response to intervene with students who fall off track, and is based on best practices, research and successful programs in other urban school districts.	09-30-2017
Ensure schools with middle grades have rigorous and engaging course offerings and activities	Middle grades are an important transitional period. Well-adjusted and prepared middle grade students are the key towards a successful ninth grade transition and increase graduation rates. As a continuation of the work started last year, DCPS will provide each and every sixth through eighth grade student access to rigorous course offerings that are a fundamental and important part of the middle grades experience. In addition to the engaging and rigorous course offerings, each school with middle grade students is expected to provide opportunities for field trips and excursions as well as to offer an array of clubs, with an emphasis on high performing clubs such as robotics, engineering, junior achievement, chess, debate, and student government.	09-30-2017
Increase the amount of learning time through the implementation of Extended Year and Extended Day in DCPS schools	DCPS is implementing extended learning time at targeted DCPS schools to reduce summer learning loss and improve student achievement. DCPS will implement an Extended Year at 11 DCPS schools; this program will extend the year by 20 days in these schools, which is the equivalent of an extra year of learning by the time students in these programs reach the 8th grade. In addition, DCPS will continue the Extended Day Program in targeted schools. During the extra 1-2 hours a minimum per day, students have the opportunity to engage in more instructional time and teachers are able to impart more information. Ideally, this instruction is delivered by the same content teachers that students learn from during the day and there is no transition, thus maintaining the integrity of the natural extension.	09-30-2017
Ensure the supports for our 40 lowest performing schools are implemented with increased fidelity	The 40/40 schools are our highest-need category of schools, and as such, require specialized evaluation and support coordinated across central office functions. To that end, the School Turnaround and Performance Division will conduct strategic analysis of schools' assets and needs. These mid-year and end-of-year reviews will drive differentiated allocation of district responses to four major strands of school improvement: (1) instructional leadership; (2) school culture; (3) intervention; and (4) teacher capacity. Each school will receive increased support in at least one of these areas through one of the following: twice annual Priority/Focus consultative visits from district staff, twenty days of extended year programming, or inclusion in a cluster of schools with ongoing support from an Instructional Superintendent with dedicated support staff from multiple offices. The Turnaround and Performance Division will generate data reports for school use and for the purpose of tracking progress.	09-30-2017
Ensure all comprehensive high schools have an engaging variety of high school offerings	All DCPS secondary students need access to rigorous classes and electives that align with their personal and academic goals. To that end, DCPS has provided funding, guidance and monitoring to ensure that in SY2016-2017 all comprehensive high schools offer at least eight Advanced Placement courses -- up from six -- and at least 20 engaging electives built into their master schedules and available to students across the district. Elective courses are designed to give students access to engaging experiences that align with their interests or career aspirations. Examples of engaging elective courses include Choir, Band, Financial Planning, Yearbook, Student Government, Street Law and Swimming. Also, all comprehensive high schools will maintain a yearlong schedule, providing students the opportunity to engage in more learning time, allowing teachers more instructional time, and creating consistent schedules across DCPS high schools.	09-30-2017
Implement mandated interventions for truancy with fidelity	Success in the classroom depends on students attending school every day. DCPS is working to reduce student truancy and increase in-seat attendance by identifying and providing support to students who are missing school. DCPS is providing additional support to schools to find appropriate student incentives and engagement activities that improve attendance. The Director of Attendance and six Attendance Specialists monitor compliance with the truancy protocol on a weekly basis and provide coaching and supports, as needed, to increase compliance.	09-30-2017

Provide school leaders and staff with training and support for increasing in-seat attendance	DCPS provides quarterly attendance professional development opportunities for school staff. It also collaborates with internal and external partners to provide professional development for school-based attendance workers. These offices, programs and agencies include but are not limited to: Attendance Works, DC Action for Children, Child and Family Services, Court Social Services, Justice Grants Administration, and the Office of the Attorney General. Each school's attendance designee will be required to complete an online assessment to show they can competently perform their duties.	09-30-2017
Expand the school climate initiative to more DCPS schools	Last year, DCPS launched its first ever School Climate Initiative (SCI), supporting a group of our highest need schools in developing a school climate which promotes high student achievement, a proactive and positive approach to discipline, and an emphasis on supporting the social and emotional needs of students. In SY2016-2017, DCPS will double the number of schools participating in this initiative. The SCI focuses on improving six components of climate: (1) leadership, (2) educational environment, (3) routines and procedures, (4) student recognition, (5) teaching and learning, (6) and interpersonal relationships. DCPS supports schools in creating an individualized school climate plan and increasing implementation fidelity through weekly site visits focused on building capacity among the staff. Monitoring of the initiative occurs through the use of quarterly walkthroughs, student and staff surveys, and student focus groups.	09-30-2017
Improve HIV/STI prevention through enhanced sexual health curriculum and services	Through a federal grant from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, DCPS continues to work with 22 priority schools to implement sexual health curriculum, increase access to sexual health services, and enhance safe and supportive environments for all students, including LGBTQ students. DCPS will provide ongoing professional development to build comfort, confidence, and competence in health educators teaching sexual health education. DCPS also will strengthen its Sexual Health Liaison cohort in 10 priority high schools, preparing school staff to provide sexual health information and condoms, and make referrals for services. In-person trainings highlighting available sexual health resources on and off school campuses, skills-based trainings on proper condom usage and other barrier methods as prevention strategies, coordinated bi-monthly phone calls with other liaisons, and in-person technical assistance from DCPS are offered throughout the school year to ensure the Sexual Health Liaison cohort is supported and meeting the needs of each school. In partnership with DC's Department of Health and the Office of the State Superintendent of Education, DCPS will implement HIV and STI screening for high school students and expand student access to services. DCPS will strengthen its LGBTQ Liaison cohort across 22 priority schools, train school staff to implement the new DCPS Transgender and Gender-Nonconforming Policy Guidance, and continue to demonstrate commitment to the LGBTQ school community through Youth Pride and the Capital Pride Parade.	09-30-2017
Reduce suspensions by implementing alternative approaches to disciplinary issues	DCPS encourages school officials to implement re-direction, mediation, parent involvement, counseling, or other appropriate alternatives to suspension when responding to student behavior issues, particularly when responding to non-violent negative behaviors. DCPS will continue to implement Restorative Practices as a tool to address negative behaviors, decrease the number of disciplinary issues and promote positive school climate in a targeted group of schools. During SY2016-2017, DCPS is expanding the Restorative Justice Initiative to include a total of 20 schools. These schools will receive training and technical support throughout SY2016-2017 focused on creating a welcoming school culture and climate building on a foundation of preventing and restoring negative behaviors. Additionally, these schools will implement the restorative practices in all aspects of their day to day operations including staff collaborative times.	09-30-2017
Increase promotion and post-secondary readiness for over-aged and under-credited students through Pathways programming	In SY2016-2017, DCPS will introduce school-based Pathways Coordinators in comprehensive and alternative high schools who will monitor, support and connect over-age and under-credited students to successful pathways. In addition, the four alternative schools will undergo a redesign to focus on project-based and competency-based learning. Finally, the student placement protocol will be revised to ensure students who are falling behind academically have a clear pathway to the school that will best meet their needs.	09-30-2017
Ensure that at least 1,000 males of color students receive tailored, academic and personal supports	These supports include mentoring, character development opportunities, internships and specialized classes. Over 250 students have been matched with mentors through partner organizations. In addition, the Empowering Males of Color Innovation grants to 16 schools have funded character development programs, excursions, and community building experiences and ethnic/cultural courses of study at individual schools. Student matches to programs will depend on individual student needs, and programmatic "fit" for the school. This work will be reinforced as DCPS school leaders and teachers implement instructional rubrics that assess the creation of an inclusive learning environment.	09-30-2017
OFFICE OF THE CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER (4 Strategic initiative-operation links)
Ensure schools are prepared for computer-based assessments and learning by upgrading and aligning hardware, network and IT support	Over the last several years, DCPS has transitioned to computer-based assessments to measure student learning, including but not limited to PARCC. The DCPS' Technology Initiatives team within the Office of the Chief Operating Officer will support the implementation of these assessments in three distinct ways: devices, network, and technical support. DCPS will ensure that all schools have the current appropriate devices and student to device ratio, network bandwidth and technical support for testing. In addition to ensuring students and schools have the support needed for online assessments, we have expanded our scope in school year 2016-2017 to developing plans to ensure schools are better equipped to support blended learning through which students receive a portion of their instruction on a computer. In some cases, blended learning requires lower student to computer ratios, upgraded networks, and increased infrastructure support beyond what is needed for assessments. The focus for SY2016-2017 will be determining best how to do so and beginning to put these supports in place.	09-30-2017
Ensure students receive the most healthy, delicious, and cost-effective meals possible	Healthy, delicious food is important for student achievement and overall satisfaction as well as for DCPS to remain compliant with its legal obligations. DCPS also believes it must be good stewards of public funds, paying the lowest cost possible for goods and services. That is why DCPS selected new vendors to provide food services in DCPS starting in SY2016-2017. We will monitor these vendors closely to ensure they are meeting their contractual obligations, including but not limited to developing and implementing student satisfaction plans, developing healthy and varied menus, and providing excellent customer service. We know students are more interested in eating healthy food when they know where it comes from and have watched and helped it grow. As part of this objective, we will continue to work with the Office of the State Superintendent to support our school gardens.	09-30-2017

Increase enrollment in DCPS	As outlined in the Chancellor's A Capital Commitment, increasing enrollment is a top priority for DCPS. The Office of the Chief Operating Officer, in collaboration with several other DCPS offices, will work to implement initiatives and new programs to attract families to DCPS schools. A few examples for SY2016-2017 include: Launch MacFarland MS in SY16-17: MacFarland will reopen with community support as a dual-language program with coursework in both Spanish and English in SY16-17; support Ron Brown College Prep HS; Launch a global studies program at Roosevelt in SY16-17. Roosevelt will be re-launching with a global-studies program that includes a dual-language program (where students receive instruction in English and Spanish) and an international academy for students who have recently immigrated to the United States; IB program at Eliot-Hine MS; Ensure success of Brookland MS. Brookland opened in SY15-16 with a global curriculum in a newly modernized building for 300+ students.; Dual language at Houston ES; NAF Career Academies at Anacostia and Woodson; and, new AP courses and electives across high schools. DCPS is also in the planning stages for launching online student enrollment for school year 2017-2018. Much of the planning and implementation for this launch will occur during the current school year.	09-30-2017
Launch Ron Brown College Preparatory High School	Black and Latino males graduate high school at rates lower than their peers across the district, 55 and 59 percent respectively. In SY2016-2017, DCPS will design and open a new high school for males. This school will be designed to provide targeted and research-based supports to keep male students stay on a path to graduation, college and careers.	09-30-2017
