Total of 132 Sexual Harassment complaints/inquiries were filed between July 1, 2018 – January 19, 2019

Note: All customer complaints are currently under EEO review and will have a final resolution by March 10th.

Below is a brief description of OEEO's investigative procedure for investigating sexual harassment complaints.

Sexual Harassment complaints may come to the attention of OEEO in various ways

- Telephone
- WMATA Email and/or OEEOHotline Email
- Management Referral
- U.S. mail
- CEO
- Co-worker referral

Once contact is made with OEEO, a tracking number is assigned to that matter and it is assigned to a Consulting EEO & Employee Relations Officer¹ ("Investigator") for handling.

The process of assigning the matter to the Investigator requires the Civil Rights Coordinator to also provide a form containing the tracking number and the name of the caller. <T:\Forms-Quick\Info Required for Docket No...docx>

The Investigator should set up an electronic file and save an activity log in the electronic file folder to keep track of important conversations. <T:\Forms-Quick\Activity Log.docx>.

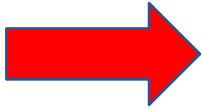

The Investigator must attempt initial contact with the caller within 24 hours of case assignment. During the initial contact, the investigator should begin to build trust by thanking the caller for coming forward and stressing that we take all complaints seriously. The Investigator will ascertain if the matter is properly in OEEO or whether it should be referred to other offices, such as the Office of Employee Relations or the Office of Labor Relations. The goal at this point is to determine if the facts implicate one or more bases of the EEO Policy, the Anti Sexual Harassment and Other Harassment Policy or the Non-Retaliation Policy².

If the Investigator is satisfied that the matter is properly within OEEO, s/he will schedule an appointment to meet with the individual to discuss the matter more fully and sign a formal complaint, if desired. The investigator may want to set up a working physical file for notes and other papers prior to scanning into the electronic file.

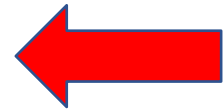

The investigator, having now determined important information about the concern, must provide information from PeopleSoft regarding the Complainant's and the Respondent's Department and location, Union represented as well as a brief summary of the allegations and appropriate designation of the "basis(es)" and issues of claim involved. Once this form is completed, the investigator will return the form to Civil Rights (OEEO) Coordinator for further administrative handling.

² Both the EEO Policy and the Sexual Harassment Policy contain non-retaliation provisions.

Note: If the matter is not properly within OEE0, the investigator will inform the Caller that the matter will be referred to the appropriate office. If for example, the matter should be handled by the Office of Employee Relations (OER), the investigator will send an email to the Director of OER with a brief summary, attaching any relevant documents. When OER accepts the matter, the Investigator will document that the matter has been referred. This may be done by saving an email to the file, completing an activity log, or writing a memorandum to the file, depending upon the facts. Additionally, the Investigator must fill out the “Closing” section of the form indicating why it is being closed in OEE0 along with the date and send to the OEE0 Coordinator for close-out.

The Investigative Plan

The Investigator may want to sketch out an Investigative Plan (IP) which will outline the main issues, ascertained thus far, the burden of proof for each claim, the names of other parties and witnesses. The Plan will also include basic contact information for the Caller, as well his or her title and location. Most helpful, is that the Plan will layout possible questions to ask each witness based on information learned as the case goes on. It will serve the Investigator throughout the investigation by providing important details. However, an IP is not a requirement for experienced Investigators.

The Investigator should draft some preliminary questions with basic information at the top, such as the name of the witness, the name of the case, the case number, the date of interview, then name of the Investigator conducting the interview and any other helpful information. Questions may be drafted on the Interview Notes Template. T:\Forms-Quick\Interview_Notes_Template.docx. If there is an investigative plan with questions already listed, you may cut and paste those questions into the form since you have already taken the time to think through the issues.

Meeting with the Complainant:

Preliminary Matters

An in-person meeting with the Complainant is the Investigator’s opportunity to set the tone for the relationship by continuing to build trust and managing expectations. The Investigator should demonstrate his interest in the situation by engaging in eye-to-eye contact, pausing to hear everything the individual has to say and inviting questions throughout.

At the in-person meeting, the Investigator should clarify that OEE0 does not advocate for any party, but rather our goal is to determine if there has been a violation of one of our policies. The Investigator should discuss the importance of handling the matter with discretion and avoiding loose talk about their involvement with co-workers who are not relevant to the process.

Additionally, the Investigator should explain the process and the time permitted to thoroughly investigate the complaint. (See Time Requirement, below).

Conducting the Interview

The Investigator should be careful not to be too wed to pre-written questions, as if they are a script. Rather the Investigator should listen closely to determine if follow-up questions are necessary for clarification. Explore any new areas of information. As the Investigator draws to a close, s/h should be sure to:

1. Ask if there are any relevant documents, including emails and text messages from the Complainant;
2. Ask about witnesses who may have seen or heard something, being sure to obtain their contact information.
3. Ask if the witness has anything more to add.

The Formal Complaint

While the Complainant is still present at the interview, the Investigator should reflect back to the Complainant the essence of what has been shared. When the Investigator is comfortable that s/he has a clear understanding of what the Complainant has shared, the complaint should be completed, using the Formal Complaint form in Microsoft Access.

The Investigator may type the information into the Access form and read it to the Complainant. If the Complainant has any changes, the Investigator should make the changes, print out the form and allow the Complainant to read the form again. Once the Complainant is satisfied that the complaint states what he or she intended to say, the Complainant may sign and date the form.

Alternatively, the Complainant may write out the complaint in long hand, sign and date.

Additional pages may be appended to the formal complaint form but the same should be clearly identified by adding the complaint number to each page and having the Complainant sign at the end of the additional pages.

The Investigator should provide a copy of the form to the Complainant. Finally, the Investigator should save the complaint into the electronic file and document the Activity Log in the file as to the recent events. This will keep the OEEEO office apprised in the event the Investigator is out.

After meeting with the Complainant:

Determine if the facts are egregious enough to warrant removing the Respondent(s) from the Complainant's work location, for example if a supervisor/subordinate quid pro quo situation is alleged. Now that you know the issues, save a copy of the relevant policy in the electronic file.

If there are many witnesses, you may want to set up a witness list which includes, names and contact information for people you will have to contact throughout the investigation.

If Complainant Decides Not To Go Forward

If the Complainant notifies the investigator that s/he does not want to go forward, the Investigator may not close the file at that point. The Investigator, should try to ascertain why the Complainant does not want to pursue the complaint, in order to rule out the possibility of retaliation. If retaliation is at the root of the Complainant's decision not to go forward, the Investigator should move forward on behalf of the Authority, with a full-scale investigation and "retaliation" as an additional basis of the complaint. Notify the Coordinator to update PeopleSoft and all other tracking methods.

If an investigation is not warranted, the Investigator should meet with the Respondent to conduct an EEO Counseling, which involves reviewing the Policy with the Respondent, giving the Respondent the Policy and having the Respondent indicate that he or she has received the policy and understands it by signing and dating the EEO Counseling form. The signed form should be saved to the electronic file. An EEO counseling is not disciplinary in nature and will not go into the employee's personnel file. This information is now being tracked on the "assignment sheet", the Coordinator will have to be notified to update the sheet. This information will also have to be updated on the "info required" form.

Notice to Senior Management:

Draft a notice to senior management. Send to Director and Coordinator for review. When approved, Coordinator will send to the appropriate senior management official. This notifies the senior management official that a complaint has been filed against one of their employees. The notice goes to senior management officials in the Respondent's chain of command.

Requesting Documents:

Where documents are relevant to the investigation, address a Request for Documents to the custodian of the documents indicating a due date. Send the request via an attachment to email.

Interviewing the Respondent:

The first person to interview is the Respondent. This will save a lot of time if the Respondent readily admits to the conduct. Contact the Respondent and schedule a meeting. Prepare your questions in advance using the interview notes template. (See link above). If you created an investigative plan, you may cut and paste from the IP to the interview notes form. During this meeting, Respondents are also allowed to provide a witness list.

Interviewing Witnesses:

If the Respondent does not admit to the conduct, schedule meetings with the other witnesses, ideally in person. Draft your questions should be on the interview notes template just as you did for the Complainant and the Respondent. Review questions prior to the meeting and adjust where necessary.

Writing the Report of Investigation

Where discipline is being considered, meet with the Director and then consult with Office of Employee Relations or Office of Labor Relations for recommendation. The Report Of Investigation (ROI) should have a caption, Background Section, Facts, Analysis and Findings and Recommendation section. See template for guidance.

After the Report of Investigation is Written

Once the Draft ROI is written, the Investigator should prepare the relevant to submit to the Director along with the ROI. The additional documents are:

- The Determination
- Cover letter to the Complainant
- Cover letter to the Respondent
- Memorandum of Determination to Management

Submitting to Director

Once the draft ROI and drafts of all of the associated documents are ready for review, email them as attachments to the Director with a copy to the OEEO Coordinator. Review comments and edit in accordance with the Director's changes. Convert to PDF form and save in electronic folder.

Schedule Close-out Meetings

Once the ROI is finalized, the Director will meet with senior management to advise them of the findings and any recommendations. The next Close-out meeting will be scheduled with the Complainant and then with the Respondent. During the close-out meeting, the parties will receive a copy of the Determination with a cover letter.

Schedule EEO Counseling

If counseling is warranted, the Investigator should meet with the Respondent to perform an EEO Counseling. Normally, this happens immediately follows the Close-out meeting. However, before the EEO Counseling session, the Investigator should prepare the written form and have a copy of each policy to be discussed already printed out for the Respondent.

If there are no outstanding documents, such as proof of discipline or training, the file may be closed. Coordinator must be notified of the "closeout" date for entry into PeopleSoft, per File Closure Instructions, below.

Disciplinary Documents

If discipline has been recommended. The file cannot be closed until all disciplinary documents are received, they should be saved to the file and the file may now be closed, per File Closure instructions, below.

File Closure

When all actions have been completed, including the receipt of documentation of disciplinary action, EEO counseling sessions, etc., the file is ready to be closed. The Investigator will then fill out the second page of the "Information Required" form, indicating why the file is being closed and the date. Where the file is closed for administrative reasons, the investigator should include a summary. Again, be sure notify the Coordinator to ensure that the matter is closed out in PeopleSoft.

File Review

After the file is closed, the Director will perform an audit of the electronic file to ensure all documents are included in the file.

Time Requirements

OEEO has 90 days to complete an investigation which includes writing the report, drafting letters and meeting with the parties. It is imperative to complete the investigation and close-out meetings within 60 days when the Respondent is a member of Local 689. This is to ensure that management has time to impose any recommended discipline.

Office of Labor Relations

WMATA's five Collective Bargaining Agreements (CBAs) include grievance and binding arbitration provisions for its Employees and the Unions to address matters of contract interpretation and discipline. In FY 2018, 382 grievances were submitted to the Office of Labor Relations as the final step in the grievance process prior to eligibility for arbitration. In FY2019 to date, 208 grievances were submitted to the Office of Labor Relations as the final step in the contractual grievance process. These grievances have been answered and resolved in the following manner: granted in whole or in part, denied, settled and/or withdrawn, and in some cases resulted in submittal to arbitration by the Unions.

Bargaining Unit and Description	CBA Expiration	Number of Employees
Amalgamated Transit Union Local 689 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Transit Operators, Mechanics, Admin and Clerical personnel 	June 30, 2020	7,588
International Brotherhood of Teamsters Local 922 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bus Operators and Mechanics at Landover Bus Division 	October 31, 2016 (In negotiations)	380

International Brotherhood of Teamsters Local 639 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Special Police Officers in MTPD 	September 30, 2016 (In negotiations)	104

NOTE: WMATA has a total of 11,550 employees as of February 4, 2019, including the union represented employees, above, and 2,141 non-represented employees.

According to the WMATA Compact (WMATA's enabling legislation adopted by its funding jurisdictions and approved by Congress), all Labor disputes that cannot be resolved by the Parties (WMATA and the respective Union), must be submitted to binding arbitration. Each of WMATA's five CBAs includes a multiple-step grievance procedure, starting with a filing of a formal grievance by an employee or the union, alleging either a violation by WMATA of a specific CBA provision ("contract interpretation") or a violation of WMATA's right to discipline (including discharge) for just cause. If not resolved at Step 1, the grievance may be appealed through the Management ranks by the respective Union's representative through the final Step, where it may be appealed to WMATA's General Manager, or designee. WMATA's Office of Labor Relations is the General Manager's designee for answering all last-step grievances. If not settled at the last Step the Union may elect to submit it to binding arbitration. The decision resulting from arbitration, after Hearing, becomes final and binding on all Parties (Authority, Union and Employee), and for all practical purposes, is not appealable except under very limited circumstances.

WMATA PEOPLE STRATEGY

IBOP is leading WMATA's People Strategy efforts. The objective of the People Strategy is to build a workforce capable of delivering its two goals: Preferred Mobility Provider and Employer of Choice in the region. The People Strategy has three key components:

1. A set of people priorities, reflecting key gaps between today's workforce and the desired future workforce
2. An evidenced-based view on which elements of Metro's employee management lifecycle need to be improved to achieve those priorities
3. A portfolio and roadmap of specific initiatives to deliver those improvements

Based on Metro's business strategy and goals, the proposed people priorities are to:

- Promote and celebrate outstanding customer service
- Build a vibrant, accountable and respectful culture
- Refresh critical skills and expertise
- Develop smart and empowered leaders

Five highest priority initiatives are in the process of being launched across Metro. It is anticipated that these initiatives will be designed, developed, and implemented over the course of FY20-FY22 in phases. Each initiative has Executive Sponsors across WMATA's Executive Leadership Team.

Service Investments and Changes for Metrobus In the District of Columbia During Calendar Year 2018

The past year has seen significant efforts to improve the reliability of Metrobus services, expand capacity and travel opportunities and to enhance the customer experience of bus riders. Working with WMATA, recent DC Council investments in major corridor bus services improved access, reliability and capacity for travelers in NW, NE and SE. The result is a more connected and competitive community benefitting both residents and commuters.

- The addition of MetroExtra G9 service along the Rhode Island Avenue NE Corridor has increased over all ridership in the corridor and 12,000 riders per month are able to travel the quicker, straighter path of the MetroExtra G9.
- During the Summer 2018 Red Line extended shutdown, MetroExtra G9 ridership grew by 115% to add resiliency to the District's transportation network.
- The 2018 investment in the Deanwood-Alabama Ave Line, route W4 and restructuring of the Benning Heights-Alabama Ave Line, routes V7,V8 line services along the Alabama Avenue SE has increased capacity, frequency, ridership and ease of connections across Ward 7 and 8 benefitting workers and students with improved services
- Fourteenth Street NW represents a major transformative corridor and last year's (2018) restructuring of bus services has expanded opportunities for workers and families throughout the corridor. Over all ridership has increased nearly 4% and service is operated 24 hours per day, 7 days per week in support of employment and entertainment centers along the corridor.
- Student ridership has also burgeoned along 14th Street with new campuses at the former Walter Reed Center served and travel times reduced by the new MetroExtra route 59.
- Additionally, with the extension of route 52 to SW Waterfront, two of the most dynamic employment and recreation areas of the City are now linked seamlessly together.
- The performance of the three new major service investments is summarized in the following table, reflecting significant ridership gains in a year of slow reduction in overall ridership within the City.

Corridor Name	New Routes and Inception Dates	Comparison Routes, Before	Comparison Routes, After	Percent Ridership Gain (Loss)
Benning Heights - Alabama Ave	V7 and V8, Jun '18	W4+ U8	W4+ V7+ V8	2.7%

MetroExtra G9 provided an alternate to the Red Line during the Summer 2018 closure and has retained additional riders since.

MetroExtra G9 Average Monthly Ridership,	Ridership Base and Ridership Gain (%)

Major Project-Related Detours in 2018

In the course of every-day operations, Metrobus implemented nearly 1,000 temporary route detours for 1st Amendment events, holiday celebrations, roadwork and development-related construction. Projects with longer lasting impact included Metrobus adjustments for several major projects during the year.

1. DC General – Hill East: To facilitate ongoing operations during demolition and construction of this new development, WMATA staff worked with a team of DC

Offices to create new stops and pathways for Metrobus routes B2 and 96 to continue to serve residents and workers at this important community location in SE DC.

2. Friendship Heights Metrobus Station was closed for 50 days during the summer to enable construction work by Chevy Chase Land on their office building above the bus station. The work on the Friendship Heights Station bus loop ended on Friday, September 28, 2018 at 11:59 p.m. The fencing, equipment and materials will be removed by 2am on Saturday, September 29, 2018 .

Routes 30N, 30S, 31, 33, E6, L2 (late night service only to/from Bethesda), N2, N4, N6 will conclude their detours, and go back to their regular routes, serving their regular bus stops inside the Friendship Height Station Bus Loop for service on Saturday, September 29, 2018.

3. The Stanley Cup Games and Parade, involving the Washington Capitals, required extensive detours and service modifications during a two-week period to accommodate viewing parties, ancillary events and a well-attended parade.
4. The Monroe Street Bridge Replacement Project required recurring, rolling and emergency detours throughout the year. DDOT's Monroe Street Bridge project progressed to the point where the detour for Routes 80, G8, H1, H2, H3, and H4 were lifted in November 2018.
5. DC Water's Clean Rivers Northeast Boundary Tunnel construction project began over the summer and required rerouting of the Hospital Center Line, Route D8 and Rhode Island Avenue Line, Route G8 for the duration of the project.
6. The National Law Enforcement Officers Visitor Center and Museum long-term construction project ended and the Sibley Hospital -Stadium Armory Line, Route D6 detour was ended and service restored to E Street NW.
7. DC Water's Oregon Avenue NW Sewer Rehabilitation Project is now completed ending the E6 detour, which has been in effect since January 2017.
8. Summer 2018 Red Line Extended Shutdown. From July 21 to September 2, 2018, the Red Line was closed between Ft Totten Station and NOMA Station, impacting bus and rail services at Rhode Island Avenue and Brookland Stations. WMATA operated a local shuttle, two express shuttles, all day MetroExtra G9 service and regular Metrobus services. Both WMATA and contract staff were involved in the project, transporting over 416,000 riders during the 44-day project.
