

COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
AD HOC COMMITTEE IN THE MATTER OF COUNCILMEMBER JACK EVANS
MARY M. CHEH, CHAIR

Next Steps

At today's meeting of the Ad Hoc Committee, members of the committee voted unanimously to recommend to the full Council the expulsion of Councilmember Jack Evans. On December 10th, that Committee will vote on the report memorializing that recommendation.

At that point, the matter will be referred to the Chairman of the Council, who will set the matter for a hearing. That hearing will occur no sooner than one week from transmission of the report to the Chairman, but the actual date will be determined by the Chairman. At that hearing, Mr. Evans will have the opportunity to appear, make a statement, and call witnesses on his behalf.

For the decision on expulsion to be final, eleven members of the Council must adopt a resolution at a legislative meeting on a date set by the Chairman of the Council.
