Councilmember Elissa Silverman, Chairperson of the Committee on Labor and Workforce Development, announces a public hearing before the Committee on B23-531, Collective Bargaining Fair Compare Amendment Act of 2019. The legislation would amend the comparators that determine what is competitive compensation for the Career, Educational, Legal, Excepted, and Management Supervisory Services. Currently, compensation is competitive if it falls within the range of salaries in the D.C. Standard Metropolitan Statistical Area; under the legislation compensation would be competitive if it falls within the range of compensation of employees in jurisdictions with similar costs of living and working conditions to the District. The hearing will be held at 10 a.m. on Wednesday, December 4, 2019, in Room 500 of the John A. Wilson Building.

Those who wish to testify before the Committee are asked to contact Ms. Charnisa Royster at labor@dccouncil.us or (202) 724-7772 by 5:00 p.m. on Monday, December 2, 2019, to provide their name, address, telephone number, organizational affiliation and title (if any), as well as the language of oral interpretation, if any, they require. Witnesses who anticipate needing language interpretation, or require sign language interpretation, are requested to inform the Labor Committee of the need as soon as possible, but no later than five (5) business days before the proceeding, or by 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday, November 26, 2019. Those wishing to testify are encouraged, but not required, to bring 15 copies of written testimony to the hearing. Those representing organizations will have five minutes to present their testimony, and other individuals will have three minutes to present their testimony; less time will be allowed if there are a large number of witnesses.
