Schannette,

I have another envelope of checks for you guys and will be back in town early next week. I also wanted to try and arrange a meeting between Jack and my financing guys in a week or so. They just want to come in and say hello. This is the fund that is funding the build out of the internal displays. Jack already met with [REDACTED] our JV partner now this is [REDACTED] that is supplying the debt for the buildout. They just want to let you know they are committed to the market and looking forward to deploying 12 million in investment dollars in DC. Let me know some times that work over the next couple of weeks.

Thanks for everything,

Sign regs...got it. I just needed some context. I thought that's what you were referring too but I wasn't sure.

No issue there changing the sign regs again and I have some thoughts that I think would be helpful. They have delayed the comment period again and I just want to keep you up to speed.

Happy Tuesday Don!

I hope you had a great weekend. Sorry for the delayed response. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] If you are available Thursday to meet, that would be awesome. I am crazy backed up today
[REDACTED]) and we have our budget mark up tomorrow so it will be another hectic day.

Also, could you give me a bit more information about DCRA delaying the responses to the proposed changes. What specifically are they looking to change (what's the subject matter)?

If Thursday doesn't work, I can also meet on Friday. I look forward to hearing from you.

Schannette

Happy Thursday!

I hope you are having a great week. I am writing to follow up to your email from about two weeks ago regarding the Constituent Services Fund. I know you stated you were going to be sending a check last week and I just wanted to make sure I didn't miss it. We have been having some issues with the mail and I since I was expecting your letter, I wanted to reach out.

If you haven't sent it yet, that is totally fine. I just wanted to confirm that because of the issues we've been having.

Thank you again very much for your donation.
