Schannette,

I hope you are doing well and I know this week is a crazy week with the budget. Let me know a good time to give you a call and we can talk about John Evans interning with Digi. Also I have a few extra seats for Thursday's National's opening game and if you and Jack would like to come that would be great or if you have folks you would like to share the tickets with that would be great as well. Please let me know as soon as possible on both fronts.

Warmest Regards,
