Happy Thursday Sir!

Jack will stop by tomorrow by he does not plan to stay for dinner so he said please feel free to give them ticket for the seat away.

Also, we are still interested in having John intern with you this summer so be sure to mention that to Jack tomorrow as well.

Have a great weekend.

Jack,

I hope you are doing well. David just let us know about the WTEF ball this Friday and we jump on a table and would love to have anyone from your office come. We have 3 available seats and just let us know if you guys or your team is interested.

On another note please let me know if your son is still interested in interning this summer. We have set aside a spot for him and think he would be a great addition to our marketing and creative team.
