Jackson – don't let [REDACTED] (who's a man desperate to find an issue that keeps him relevant) and others focusing first on "more money" drag you along (and, down) with them. That likely won't succeed. Instead, you've demonstrated that by being honest and tough, by not being an apologist or enabler, folks will give you audiences and respect in an unparalleled way. Possible slogan: "No Restructure, No Reform, No Money".

Did John R offer any updates on EZ Zone thoughts before he went on vacation?

Hope your weekend was great.
