Subject: RE: Conflict Attorney

Yes... conflicts that may arise with Jack Evans as an elected official and clients of Manatt's that may have matters before the Council. We have been advised by our General Counsel that Jack would need to recuse himself from matters before the Council involving clients of Manatt. I'm attempting to be put in contact with the person who would be responsible for ensuring there are no conflicts for Members of the firm.

Please feel free to call me if you need further clarification.

Thanks

Schannette

Are you referring to conflicts that may arise regarding Manatt's representation of a certain client?
