JACK EVANS
STRATEGIC PLAN
OCTOBER – 2014

Since June 1, 2014, I have been reaching out to a number of my contacts to determine if they would be interested in retaining Squire Patton Boggs (SPB) to represent them. I have taken the approach to explain what we can do for them. The following is a brief summary of these actions.

A. I have had meetings with representatives of the following companies and am in the process of doing research and conflict checks with [REDACTED]. After this is complete, I will determine who in the firm should meet with representatives and present our case.

1. The Forge Company

[REDACTED] and I met with the Present of the company Rusty Lindner. SPB has been retained to do work on legislation currently before the U.S. Congress.

2. Exelon

I have met with the [REDACTED] of Exelon, [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] is preparing a report for me and we will proceed to put a team together form SPB to meet with representatives of Exelon.

7. District of Columbia

For several years, Patton Boggs represented the DC Government. Patton Boggs lobbied on DC's behalf for federal funding. I will pursue this in the new administration.

8. Wilco

I met with Richard Cohen, President of Wilco. He is interested in retaining SPB for help with GSA and NIH.
