

Exhibit 6

Gifts from Prohibited Sources

- As a general rule, employees may not solicit or accept, either directly or indirectly, any gift from a prohibited source.
- What is a “prohibited source?” A person or entity that:
 - Has or is seeking to obtain contractual or other business or financial relations with District government;
 - Conducts operations or activities that are subject to regulation by District government; or
 - Has an interest that may be favorably affected by the performance or non-performance of the employee’s official responsibilities.
- Basic presumption is that a person or entity offering a gift is a prohibited source, even if there’s nothing associated with the source that is directly before the Council.
