"Section 1. Statement of Policy. It is hereby declared to be the policy of this Department to investigate promptly and fully all allegations of improper actions by any member of the Metropolitan Police Department. The procedures in this Chapter are established for the purpose of insuring fair and impartial disposition and review of cases involving infractions of discipline, improper actions or violations of law by members of the Metropolitan Police Department, whether such cases arise from reports of officials of the Department or complaints of persons other than members of the Department.

"Section 2. Disciplinary Boards and Offices. The following Boards and Offices, in cooperation with the Chief of Police and the Director of Public Safety, are primarily responsible for assisting the Chief in maintaining discipline in the Department:

"Section 3. Selection of Boards and Examiners. The Hearing Examiner and members of the Boards shall be selected as follows:

"(a) The Mayor shall appoint such Hearing Examiners as he deems necessary.

"(b) The Mayor shall appoint 30 adult, civilian residents of the District who shall constitute the Police Trial Board Panel which shall be broadly representative of the citizens of the District of Columbia. "(c) The Civilian Complaint Review Board shall receive a report of the Action taken by the Chief of Police on all civilian complaints against the police department. If the Civilian Complaint Review Board determines that the Chief recommended dismissal of a complaint when the complaint should have been referred to a Police Trial Board, the Review Board shall direct the Chief to send the case to a Police Trial Board for a full hearing.

"(d) The Hearing Examiner, each Police Trial Board, and the Civilian Complaint Review Board shall consider all relevant reports, statements, and evidence in reaching their decisions.

"(b) When a formal complaint is filed, the date and time of receipt of the complaint shall be noted on the complaint. Copies of the complaint shall be transmitted to the Chief of Police, the Director of Public Safety, and the Complaint Review Board as soon as possible.

"(c) Each office in which a complaint is filed shall render every possible assistance to the complainant and shall explain the complaint-grievance procedure to the complainant and advise the complainant of his right to be represented by an attorney.

"Section 6. Disposition of Complaints by the Chief of Police.

"(a) Upon receipt of a complaint the Chief of Police shall order an investigation of the complaint by the Division of Internal Affairs. He shall without delay inform the accused officer of the complaint and provide him with a copy thereof. The accused officer shall answer the complaint promptly.

"(b) At any time after a complaint has been filed against a police officer the Chief of Police may make any temporary changes he deems appropriate in the accused officer's hours, location or kind of duty, or he may place the officer on administrative leave without loss of pay or benefits. Any such administrative changes shall not be considered as disciplinary action.

"(c) The Division of Internal Affairs shall investigate all cases referred to it by the Chief of Police, and shall report back to him the results of such investigation within 10 days after the Chief requests such investigation. Additional time for investigations may be granted by the Chief of Police for good cause shown by the Inspector in charge of the Internal Affairs Division. A copy of the investigation report shall be forwarded to the Complaint Review Board, the Director of Public Safety, the complainant and the accused officer simultaneously with delivery to the Chief of Police.

"(d) Within 5 days following receipt of the investigation report, the Chief of Police shall dispose of the complaint in one of the following manners:

"(2) In appropriate cases involving matters wholly internal to the Metropolitan Police Department the Chief may, with the consent of the accused officer, impose summary disciplinary action. Summary disciplinary action shall be a fine not to exceed $100 or suspension from duty not to exceed 10 days, or extra duty without compensation not to exceed 4 days. The Chief of Police shall notify the complainant and the Director of Public Safety of his findings in the case and the discipline consented to in all cases of summary discipline. If the accused officer does not accept the summary discipline recommended by the Chief of Police, the Chief shall convene the Hearing Examiner and prefer charges against the officer before the Examiner.

"(3) In a case involving matters wholly internal to the Metropolitan Police Department in which the Chief of Police finds that the case may warrant disciplinary action more severe than that which he may impose by consent under subsection (2) hereof, the Chief of Police shall convene the Hearing Examiner and prefer charges against the officer before the Examiner. The Chief of Police shall advise the Director of Public Safety of the action taken in all such cases.

"(4) In a case involving a complaint against a police officer wherein the alleged misconduct involves action against or behavior towards any person not a member of the Metropolitan Police Department on active duty in which the Chief of Police finds that the case may warrant disciplinary action, the Chief of Police shall convene a Trial Board and prefer charges against the officer before such Board. "(iii) the Trial Board which will be convened

"(v) the Civilian Complaint Review Board.

"Section 7. Actions by Complaint Review Board: (a) Within 5 days of receipt of notification by the Chief of Police that he finds a complaint within Trial Board jurisdiction to be unfounded and not warranting any disciplinary action, the Review Board shall review the full report and if it deems necessary, fix a time and place for a Complaint Review Board Hearing on the complaint. Such hearing shall convene within 20 days following receipt of notification from the Chief. If after review or hearing the Review Board finds that there is probable cause to believe that the accused officer is guilty of the alleged misconduct the Review Board shall issue an order convening a Trial Board and send the full report of the case to:

"(i) The Corporation Counsel who shall draw up the formal charges against the police officer for use at the Trial Board hearing.

"(ii) the complainant.

"(iii) the accused officer.

"(iv) the Trial Board which will be convened.

"(e) Each member of a Police Trial Board shall take the following oath, administered by the Chief Clerk of the Metropolitan Police Department:

"I _____ having been designated a member of a Police Trial Board of the Metropolitan Police Department do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully and truly, without partiality or favor, render judgment and finding upon such evidence as may be submitted to me sitting as a member of the said board. So help me God."

"(f) A challenge to any member of a Police Trial Board shall be made to the Chairman thereof at least twenty-four hours before the date set for trial. Said challenge shall be in writing and set forth specific reasons for the challenge. The Civilian Complaint Review Board shall decide whether the challenge is justified and if it finds the challenge to be justified shall appoint another member to the Trial Board from the appropriate panel.

"(g) Any member of the force cited to appear before a Trial Board either as a defendant or a witness shall not be excused from attendance except upon reasonable proof of illness or other emergency.

"(h) The members of the Trial Board shall insure both the complainant and the accused an opportunity to present all facts which, in their judgment, have a bearing on the complaint.

"(i) All Police Trial Board hearing shall be open to the public and such hearings shall be conducted in a manner to afford all parties an opportunity to present all facts which in their judgment have a bearing on the hearing. The Hearing Examiner may remove spectators from the hearing room with the consent of the parties or whenever it is necessary to do so to avoid disruption of an orderly and fair hearing procedure. Each hearing shall be stenographically recorded, and such record shall be transcribed when necessary for appeal or other purposes.

"(j) The Trial Board shall render its decision within ten days from the time the hearing is concluded. During this period the Board may, in its discretion, reconvene to receive additional evidence. If new evidence is received the Board's decision must be rendered within ten days of the receipt of such evidence.

"(k) The Trial Board shall determine whether or not there is clear and convincing evidence that the police officer did, in fact, commit the offense with which he is charged. "(i) The Chief of Police;

"(ii) The accused officer;

"(iii) The Complainant;

"(iv) The Civilian Complaint Review Board;

"(v) The Mayor.

"(l) The Chief of Police shall act on the recommendations of the Police Trial Board within 5 working days after he receives them. If the Chief believes the recommended punishment to be unfair he shall, in writing, so inform the Civilian Review Board. The Chief shall recommend another punishment to the Review Board, and the Review Board shall determine which punishment shall be imposed upon the police officer.

"(m) An officer who is found by a Police Trial Board to have committed a punishable offense may appeal the findings of the Board and/or the punishment imposed to the Commissioner. The Commissioner may set aside the verdict of the Trial Board and/or decrease the punishment imposed.
