The hearing will be held on Thursday, June 24, 2021 at 2:00 p.m. live via Zoom Video Conference Broadcast.

The stated purpose of PR 24-238 is to approve the installation of a commemorative work, to be known as the "Abraham Lincoln Spirit of Freedom Emancipation Statue," on the public space adjacent to the African American Civil War Museum. The site is located in front of the historic Archibald Grimke School at 1925 Vermont Avenue N.W., and is across the street from the existing African American Civil War Memorial. Under the Commemorative Works Act, the sponsor of a proposed commemorative work on public space may submit an application through the Office of Planning and the Commemorative Works Committee (CWC). The Commemorative Works Committee acts in an advisory capacity to the Mayor and the Council and may recommend an application for approval, which it did on May 3, 2021. The Council must approve a proposed commemorative work by resolution or act.
