“(a) When a person detains possession of real property without right, or after his right to possession has ceased, the Superior Court of the District of Columbia, on complaint under oath verified by the person aggrieved by the detention, or by his agent or attorney having knowledge of the facts, may issue a summons in English and Spanish to the party complained of to appear and show cause why judgment should not be given against him for the restitution of possession.

“(b) The person aggrieved shall not file a complaint seeking restitution of possession pursuant to this section for nonpayment of rent in an amount less than $600. Nothing in this subsection shall prevent the person aggrieved from filing a complaint to recover the amount owed.

“(c)(1) Prior to January 1, 2022, the person aggrieved shall not file a complaint seeking relief pursuant to this section, except when:

“(A) The complaint alleges that the tenant’s continuing presence at the housing accommodation where the tenant resides presents a current and substantial threat to the health and safety of tenants, on-site agents, or employees of the owners of the housing accommodation, or household members or guests of other tenants, or residents of immediately adjacent properties, because the tenant has violated an obligation of tenancy by engaging in an unlawful possession of a firearm, threats or acts of violence, or assault;

“(B) The complaint alleges that the tenant has willfully or wantonly caused significant damage to the unit, building, premises, or property of the housing provider; or

106 “(C)(i) The complaint alleges non-payment of rent, the complaint was 107 filed on or after October 12, 2021, and the person aggrieved provides documentation at the time
108 of filing demonstrating that:

109 “(I) He or she has applied for emergency rental assistance
110 through the STAY DC program on behalf of the tenant, or initiated the application on behalf of 111 the tenant by completing all landlord portions of the application, the tenant has been notified in 112 writing of the application, and the housing provider is eligible to seek possession pursuant to § 113 42-3505.01(b-1)(1); and

114 “(II) The tenant has been served with a written notice
115 which meets the requirements of § 42-3505.01(b-1)(2) and all other requirements under District
116 law.

117 “(3) It shall be a dispositive affirmative defense requiring dismissal of a complaint
118 for non-payment of rent filed between October 12, 2021 and December 31, 2021 if a tenant can 119 demonstrate with substantial evidence provided through testimony that:

120 “(A) The housing provider did not pursue rental assistance as required
121 timely or in good faith;

122 “(B) The tenant did not receive notice of the rental assistance application;

123 “(C) The housing provider did not provide a notice that meets the 124 requirements of 42-3505.01(b-1)(2), and all other requirements under District of Columbia law;

125 “(D) The tenant or their authorized representative submitted an application
126 for emergency rental assistance prior to or during the 60 days after receiving a past due rent

“(4) For complaints filed pursuant to (c)(1)(B) of this subsection, it shall be a dispositive affirmative defense requiring dismissal of a complaint if a tenant can demonstrate with substantial evidence that the housing provider willfully or negligently contributed to the significant damage of the unit, premises, building, or property that are the subject of the complaint.

“(5) Where a complaint filed pursuant to subparagraph (1) alleges non-payment of rent during the COVID-19 covered period, a tenant shall have the right to raise financial hardship during the covered period as a defense. In determining whether a tenant has suffered a financial hardship, the court shall consider, among other relevant factors, the following:

“(A) Whether the tenant’s income prior to or during the COVID-19 covered period was below 40 percent area median income;

“(B) Whether the tenant experienced reductions in income or an increase in expenses during the COVID-19 covered period because of the public health emergency or coronavirus and would be unlikely to find a similar sized rental unit for a lower market rent within the District of Columbia; or

“(C) Whether the tenant is currently eligible or was eligible for cash assistance, supplemental nutrition assistance program (food stamps), supplemental security income (SSI), Medicaid or DC Healthcare Alliance, or unemployment insurance or benefits during the COVID-19 covered period.

“(C) Whether vacating the premises and moving into new permanent housing would pose a significant health risk because the tenant or one or more members of the tenant’s household have an increased risk for severe illness or death from COVID-19 due to being over the age of sixty-five, having a disability or having an underlying medical condition, which may include but is not limited to being immunocompromised.

“(6) If the court finds the tenant has established a financial hardship defense, the court shall not enter a judgment for possession against the tenant. A tenant may establish a financial hardship defense by submitting a financial hardship declaration to the court or by providing testimony, documentation, or other evidence of the factors in this subsection to the court. Nothing in this subsection shall prevent the court from entering a money judgment where the housing provider meets all other requirements under District law for the entry of a money judgment.

“(7) For purposes of this subsection, the term:

“(A) “Act of violence” shall have the same meaning as “crime of violence” as provided in § 23-1331(4).

“(C) (C) “COVID-19 covered period” means March 11, 2020 until July 24, 2021.

“(D) “Significant damage” includes large holes in the walls of the unit that cannot be repaired with plaster and paint, destruction of major building systems such as electric or plumbing, destruction of appliances such as ovens, refrigerators or dish washing machines in the unit, or damage to large areas of flooring such that the housing provider will have to replace the damaged flooring.

“(E) “Threat” shall be construed according to § 22-407.

“(F) “Unlawful possession of a firearm” shall be construed according to § 22-4503.

“(8) Nothing in this section shall be construed to create an obligation on the part of any person to pursue an eviction action under this subsection.

“(9) No tenant shall be evicted from a rental unit based on a complaint filed under this subsection unless the court determines by a preponderance of the evidence that the alleged violation of an obligation of tenancy meets all of the requirements of this subsection.

“(10) At the initial hearing for any complaint for non-payment of rent, if the complaint does not allege sufficient facts or the person aggrieved has not produced sufficient documentation to meet all pre-filing requirements under District law, the Court shall dismiss the complaint.

“(d)(1) The person aggrieved shall not file a complaint seeking restitution of possession pursuant to this section without a valid registration or claim or exemption issued pursuant to § 42-3502.05, and a current license for rental housing issued pursuant to § 47-2828(c)(1) presented at the time of filing.

“(2) The Court may waive the requirements for a current license for rental housing in this subsection if the person aggrieved can demonstrate that the housing provider for the housing accommodation was unable to obtain or renew a current rental housing license due to extenuating circumstances.

195 “(3) The requirements of this subsection shall not apply to complaints involving 196 subtenants.

197 “(e) The person aggrieved shall not file a complaint pursuant seeking relief to this section
198 based on consistent late payment of rent by a tenant occurring between the dates of March 11,
199 2020, and 60 days after the expiration of the public health emergency declared in response to the 200 novel 2019 coronavirus (SARS CoV-2).

201 “(f) Complaints seeking relief pursuant to this section that are not permitted to be filed
202 pursuant to subsection (c) of this section shall not be filed until January 1, 2022, at the earliest.

205 tenants.”.

206 (2) Section 16-1503 is amended to read as follows:

207 “When, upon a trial in a proceeding pursuant to this chapter, it appears that the 208 plaintiff is entitled to the possession of the premises, judgment and execution for the possession
209 shall be awarded in his favor, with costs, except where the court finds the residential tenant has 210 established a financial hardship defense under § 16-1501(c)(5); and if the plaintiff becomes 211 nonsuit or fails to prove his right to the possession, the defendant shall have judgment and 212 execution for his costs.”.

213 (b) Section 501 of the Rental Housing Act of 1985, effective July 17, 1985 (D.C. Law 6-
214 10; D.C. Official Code Sec. 42-3505.01) is amended as follows:

215 (1) Subsection (a) is amended as follows:

216 (A) Paragraph (1) is amended to read as follows:

217 “(1) Except as provided in this section, no tenant shall be evicted from a rental
218 unit, notwithstanding the expiration of the tenant’s lease or rental agreement, so long as the 219 tenant continues to pay the rent to which the housing provider is entitled for the rental unit;
220 provided, that the nonpayment of a late fee shall not be the basis for an eviction. No tenant shall 221 be evicted from a rental unit for any reason rent unless the tenant has been served with a written 222 notice which meets the requirements of this section. Notices to vacate for all reasons other than 223 for nonpayment of rent shall be served upon both the tenant and the Rent Administrator. All 224 notices to vacate shall contain a statement detailing the reasons for the eviction, and if the
225 housing accommodation is required to be registered by this chapter, a statement that the housing
226 accommodation is registered with the Rent Administrator. The Rent Administrator shall provide
