Agency D.C. Department of Human Resources

Fiscal Year 2021

Mission The mission of the DC Department of Human Resources (DCHR) is to strengthen individual and organizational performance and enable the District government to attract, develop, and retain a highly qualified, diverse workforce

Summary of Services DCHR offers executive management to District government officials and/or agencies by providing personnel-related services to help each agency meet daily mission mandates. Specific services provided include position classification and recruitment services, the interpretation of personnel-related policy, as well as oversight control (such as the adherence to regulatory requirements) for effective recruitment and staffing, strategic and financial restructuring through realignment assistance, and resource management. In addition, the agency provides D.C. government employees with a variety of services, including employee benefits and compensation guidance, performance management, compliance, audit assessments, legal guidance on personnel matters, and training/development.

2021 Accomplishments

Accomplishment	Impact on Agency	Impact on Residents
Response to the Pandemic: DCHR was instrumental in providing employee support and guidance during the pandemic. This ranged from: publishing guidance on various issues including COVID sick leave, social distancing, and vaccination and related incentives, expanding wellness opportunities, detailing employees to assist with urgent needs such as the 2020 election, and providing needed legal guidance and Districtwide employee communication.	DCHR’s functions continued throughout the emergency. Employees within the agency were provided with the necessary information to maintain engagement, health and to stop the spread via communications about social distancing, return to work policies and precautions, and general wellness.	This accomplishment allowed for DC Residents to receive essential services through the continuation of functions throughout the pandemic. DC Residents received assistance at the polls during the 2020 election due to DCHR detailing employees to assist.
Updated Electronic Processes: To enhance delivery of services, DCHR updated and/or enhanced key electronic processes that included upgrading to a new learning management platform that provides a tailored employee experience with recommended training and books based on topic areas selected by the employee. In the first quarter after release 3,578 unique users accessed content with a 61% return rate and earned 7,155 badges. In addition, DCHR drafted business requirements that will allow personnel action attachments in our Human Resources Information System, a call back feature in our call management system, a chat feature on our website, and updated business intelligence dashboards.	As a result of this accomplishment, DCHR has a more modern approach to learning/development, processing personnel actions, communication with internal and external partners, and data analysis.	This accomplishment will allow for DC Residents to have easier and more modern communication channels with DCHR, through the call management call back feature and the website chat feature. DC Residents will also benefit from receiving services provided by workers with increased training.
Career Pathways: During the fiscal year, DCHR recruited and selected our first set of apprentices who then began their formal apprenticeship programs. DCHR provided needed coaching, training, and support to selected apprentices and associated guidance to sponsor agencies. In addition, DCHR collaborated with multiple stakeholders across the District to draft standards including educational curriculum for additional apprentice programs.	DCHR developed the Pathways program and training that will help to develop the skillsets of apprentices. Also, one of the apprentice programs is an HR Program, which will help to improve and enhance the next generation of HR professionals within DCHR and HR offices throughout the District.	DCHR selected, coached, and trained the DC Resident apprentices – giving them an opportunity to gain a foothold into middle-class, public service careers. This accomplishment will continue to positively impact DC Residents, through the selection and training of additional apprentices.

2021 Strategic Initiatives

Strategic Initiative Title	Strategic Initiative Description	Completion to Date	Status Update	Explanation for Incomplete Initiative
Health, Pension, Retirement, and Wellness Programs (1 Strategic Initiative)
Wellness Program Enhancement	DCHR will enhance our wellness programs to focus on trauma informed care and employees' mental, emotional and financial wellness. DCHR will also provide various virtual wellness opportunities including wellness webinars/seminars on several topics including virtual fitness, stress management, and work/life balance.	Complete	In FY21, DCHR successfully transitioned wellness programming to virtual opportunities and provided virtual Webinars and Seminars. The agency partnered with providers to facilitate courses including mental health/mindfulness at home, stress management, nutrition and fitness, financial well-being and trauma incidents. DCHR also offered Health Coaching and Assessments including tobacco cessation, diabetes management, disease management, health risk assessments, biometric health screenings promotion, and flu shot immunization promotion. DCHR continued to utilize the wellness suite to help to prepare the District Workforce for the return to work and the associated adjustments. DCHR hosted over 150 wellness events during FY21. In FY22, DCHR aims to return to fully hosting onsite health screenings, flu shot clinics, and open enrollment fairs.
HR Information Systems Administration (1 Strategic Initiative)

Strategic Initiative Title	Strategic Initiative Description	Completion to Date	Status Update	Explanation for Incomplete Initiative
Optimize HR Information Technology Program	In FY21, DCHR will optimize its Information Technology program through converting physical official personnel files to electronic official personnel files for more effective and refined record keeping.	50-74%	This fiscal year, DCHR collaborated with OCTO to draft business requirements for the electronic official personnel folder. To draft requirements, DCHR met with internal stakeholders and the external HR community to understand the best way to ensure adoption, customer ease, and success of this project. DCHR and OCTO used business requirements to build a prototype for the attachment framework in the HR Processing component of PeopleSoft. This major component for the eOPF is scheduled for release in December 2021. In FY22, Q1 DCHR will pilot test this new functionality with the HR community, and gather feedback. OCTO will also begin work on the other needed components for the eOPF, including the employee and administrator work center.	OCTO developed the majority of the attachment framework that DCHR and partners will begin testing. Additional components will be built during the first two quarters of FY22.
Learning and Development Programs (3 Strategic initiatives)
Identifying Skills Gaps	In FY21, DCHR will launch a series of learning opportunities that will bridge identified skills gaps and provide opportunities for cross organizational skill development. DCHR will also expand its coaching and mentoring program to better equip managers with the skills needed to lead productive and engaged teams. DCHR will conduct or coordinate 10 or more trainings in FY21.	Complete	In FY21, DCHR created and implemented several tools and/or technology to improve the identification and addressing of skill gaps. These include: 1. A skill gap analysis tool that was tested with several agencies. This tool assists agencies and managers in determining critical future skills and the level of those skills currently in the organization. The tool then helps managers identify potential strategies for increasing needed skills. 2. An electronic mentoring platform piloted by two agencies that assist new and current employees in building key skills including business communication, leadership, and strategic thinking skills. The pilot test was highly successful and DCHR is determining how the program can be extended. 3. Enhanced coaching opportunities are provided bi-weekly with small groups. The coaching experience focuses on collective dialogue, appreciative inquiry, and peer learning amongst the MSS and leadership levels.
Pathways Program	In FY21, DCHR will promote pathways to entry-level DC government jobs for resident District graduates via a partnership and apprenticeship program. DCHR will (a) establish a team, operating framework, and process that will create at least 3 partnerships to promote the hiring of resident District graduates into entry-level positions, (2) work with relevant stakeholders to identify five apprenticeable DC government occupations, and (3) develop a program structure and curriculum development plan. DCHR will employ heavy marketing strategies in Wards 7 & 8.	Complete	In FY21, DCHR and the Department of Employment Services, Office of Apprenticeship, Information and Training established four apprenticeship programs approved by the District Apprenticeship Council in the critical areas of Information Technology, Human Resources and Medicaid program support. Recruitment for three of the apprenticeship programs commenced in December 2020 and continued through March of 2021. The first Apprenticeship program with the Department of Parks and Recreation started February 2021. The Career Pathways Program and HRSA conducted joint trainings with the District Human Resources Officers and Agency HR teams. The District -wide meetings focused on explaining the Career Pathways legislations; and the process for recruitment and hiring to include who qualifies for the career pathways priority, position posting requirements, how candidates apply for positions, are screened, and evaluated. Also, DCHR released Issuance Career Pathways Entry Level Jobs for Resident District Graduates 1-2021-11, which provides additional information about the Career Pathways Program, how District agencies support the Program, and how District residents may take advantage of the Program to gain a foothold into middle-class, public service careers. In addition, DCHR increased the number of courses in the areas of Writing for Essential Communication, Strategic Communication, Emotional Intelligence, Administrative Professionalism, and Unpacking Bias and Understanding JEDI (Justice, Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion). Additionally, we have offered the technical courses to include Understanding the District's Budget, Grants Management (City University), Contracting and Procurement (City University). With the launch of Percipio, the District's newest e-Learning platform, the District's workforce has access to over 500+ curated course channels, journeys, and multi-modality offerings that support 21st Century Skills development and attainment. Through this platform, employees will have real-time access to a myriad of skills offerings while earning digital badges and technical certification exam prep opportunities.
Preparing for a Season of Change	To ensure successful adaption of workforce changes during and after the COVID-19 pandemic, DCHR will create and implement manager training that prepares managers to address changing employee needs. In addition, DCHR will evaluate and update current policies to better align with the updated employee experience.	Complete	In FY21, DCHR hosted a weeklong manager summit entitled "From Challenge to Change" to assist managers with adopting to changes due to the pandemic. The weeklong event included over 25 different courses that addressed mental health, employee productivity, unconscious bias, emotional intelligence, mindfulness, and stress relief, building motivation and increasing morale, and wellness. Over 1,200 unique managers participated during the week and provided very positive feedback. DCHR recorded the sessions and shared those presentations with all the managers. DCHR also led a Future of Work working group that included stakeholder and external partners on the future of telework in the District. DCHR and a partner vendor interviewed leadership across the District, surveyed non-union employees, and hosted a two-day event to gather input. A final recommendation for the future of work was provided.
Measurement, Analysis, and Planning (3 Strategic initiatives)

Strategic Initiative Title	Strategic Initiative Description	Completion to Date	Status Update	Explanation for Incomplete Initiative
Understanding and Addressing Various Customer Needs	To build a more efficient workforce in the HR Community, DCHR will draft, implement and analyze feedback surveys to better identify and address various customer needs. This will include a Hiring Managers Survey, an Exit Interview Survey, an Engagement Survey, and an HR Community Survey.	Complete	In FY21, DCHR launched a new exit interview survey for all separating employees and a telework survey for all non-union employees. DCHR also drafted a survey for employees and managers of new employees and a HR community survey that will be released in early FY22.
Diversity, Equity and Inclusion	To ensure diversity, equity and inclusion across the District government, DCHR will publish and analyze quarterly data for all agencies on the District's workforce representation and identify where under-representation is evident. DCHR will then use this data to assist agencies in recruiting and workforce planning efforts that result in a more diverse workforce. In addition, DCHR will develop and conduct trainings for employees on diversity, equity and inclusion.	Complete	In FY21, DCHR implemented and provided community access to a dashboard that shows the gender, ethnicity, and age of current employees. DCHR also developed and distributed a user guide for this dashboard. In addition, DCHR hosted a managers' summit for all District managers. During the summit, DCHR presented an "Understanding and Unpacking Bias" training. 262 managers attended the training and it received many kudos. In addition to regularly offering this course, DCHR also provided agency-specific sessions for the class. Finally, DCHR worked to secure a vendor that will implement a LGBTQ study. The purpose of the study is to evaluate the hiring, retention, and promotion of employees who identify as transgender and non-binary. The study will also analyze employee experiences and any pay disparities for employees who identify as transgender and non-binary. DCHR selected the vendor and the vendor is working to release the survey in early FY22.
Human Resources Information System (HRIS) Strategic Plan	In FY21, DCHR will collaborate with the Office of the Chief Technology Officer to create a three-year HRIS strategic plan. The plan will focus on previous accomplishments, identified gaps, yearly priorities, user training, and governance structure.	50-74%	In FY21, DCHR met with stakeholders and drafted a project plan and draft strategic plan that examines the current environment of the District Human Resources Information System (HRIS), client feedback and a SWOT analysis, a framework of enabling, enterprise, and business initiatives, and future investment for success. In FY22, DCHR will work with partners to finalize the strategic plan.	A draft plan was created, but will be finalized in FY22.
Shared Services (1 Strategic Initiative)
Outreach for Agency Partners	In FY21 to better serve the HR community, DCHR will pilot a multi-functional DCHR outreach team that will visit 10 agencies twice during the fiscal year, with heavy emphasis on engaging HR staff. The effort will provide seminars on a variety of topics, as well as an engagement forum that will allow DCHR to better understand their clients' needs. DCHR will also work to strengthen the collaborative relationships within the Districtwide HR Community by establishing communities of practices for Talent Acquisition, HR Policies, Employee Relations, and Strategic Human Capital.	Complete	In FY21, DCHR introduced communities of practice that focus on the HR community sharing best practices and learning from each other about various HR topics. Based on discussions, the HR community suggested five communities of practice: diversity, equity, and inclusion, recruitment and onboarding, employee relations, data analytics/reporting, and payroll/time and labor. DCHR created Microsoft Team sites for the five communities of practice and they are now engaging. Although this work will continue, the initial implementation is complete.

Diversity, Equity and Inclusion	To ensure diversity, equity and inclusion across the District government, DCHR will partner with the Office of Racial Equity to expand current diversity, equity, and inclusion training offerings. In addition, DCHR will pilot the use of the Racial Equity Impact Assessment (REIA) tool to evaluate key employee policies.	09-30-2022

DCHR FY21 Key Performance Indicators

KPI	Target	Actual	Met/Unmet	Explanation
Average number of days to fill vacancy from post to offer acceptance	60 days	77.5 days	Unmet	DCHR's target this year was a stretch goal. DCHR's progress with this measure shows in the decrease from 86.6 days in FY20 to 77.5 days in FY21. DCHR held a hiring event in November 2021 and is planning another event for Spring of 2022 which will help to decrease overall time to fill. DCHR is also meeting with agency leaders and updating tools provided to agencies to assist with time-to-fill tracking.
Percent of new hires that are DC residents	60%	52.7%	Unmet	DCHR increased the goal this fiscal year as an increased challenge. DCHR aims to meet our target in the coming fiscal year by reviewing existing resources with agencies, expanding our marketing to District residents, and having focused discussions with agency leaders.
Percent of DC Government employees that are DC residents	60%	42.8%	Unmet	This was a stretch goal for DCHR and the agency will continue efforts to increase District residency in FY22 as described above.
Percent of DC Government employees participating in the deferred compensation program	60%	51.1%	Unmet	New Employees are automatically enrolled into the 457(b) program upon hire, with the option to opt out. In FY21, only 320 of over 2,400 new hires opted out. DCHR increased the target for this measure from 40% in FY20 to 60% in FY21. The percentage enrolled increased from 45% in FY20 to 51.1% in FY21, reflecting the consistent improvement in this measure. To increase this percentage, DCHR will continue efforts through retirement seminars and information sessions.
New Hire Turnover Rate	10%	6.93%	Met	N/A
Percent of Official Personnel Folders converted to electronic files	N/A: New Measure	0%	N/A	Due to the pandemic, DCHR was not able to complete this task. DCHR has taken steps to begin this process in FY22.

Dear Director Gibson and Chief Financial Officer DeWitt:

This letter informs you that the Office of the Inspector General (OIG) plans to audit the District of Columbia's Employee Benefits Programs. The audit objectives are to (1) evaluate District employee benefits controls, and (2) determine compliance with federal and District employee benefit policies and procedures. We will conduct this audit in accordance with generally accepted government auditing standards.

This audit is included in the OIG's Fiscal Year 2020 Audit and Inspection Plan and will be conducted under project code OIG No. 20-1-25MA. Please reference this project code in all correspondence involving this audit. Our preliminary audit fieldwork will begin on or about July 29, 2020.

Robert Binelli, Audit Director, will call to arrange an entrance conference to discuss the audit process and objectives and to answer questions. If you have questions in the interim, please contact me or Fekede Gindaba, Acting Assistant Inspector General for Audits, at (202) 727-2540.

Sincerely,

District Government Workforce Suitability Report

Criminal Background Checks

DCHR performed 7,117 criminal background checks for new hires and re-certifications between October 2020 and March 2021.

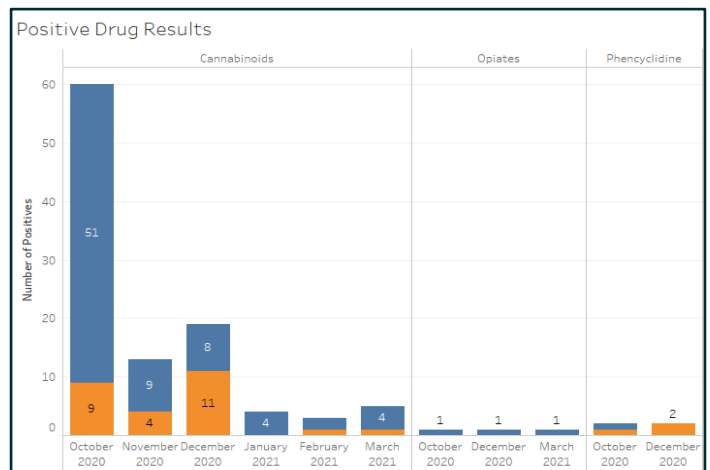

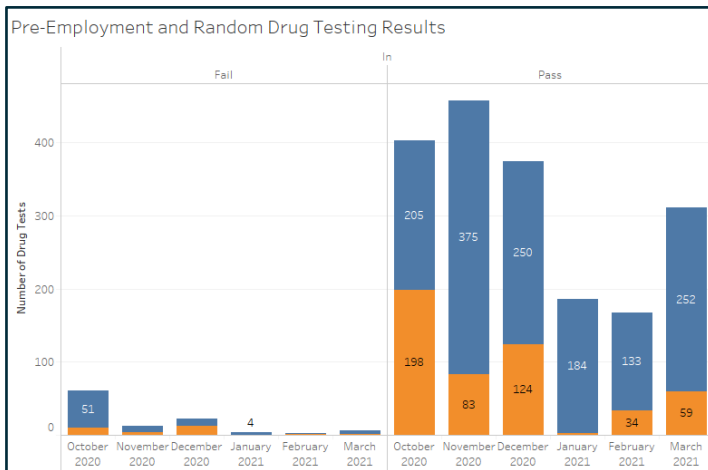

The vast majority received suitable designations. Approx. 6% were referred to agencies (DCPS, FEMS) for final decision-making.

The three people (.04%) who received unsuitable determinations based on criminal background were not onboarded or were removed from their position. DCHR closed 14 pending investigations for DPW due to the end of Leaf Season. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the District implemented a hiring freeze of all non-essential positions.

Mandatory Drug Testing

Level
■ Pre-Employment
■ Random Drug Screen

1,899 (94.6%) of 2,008 pre-employment and random drug tests conducted were negative for drugs. Of the 109 positive tests, 104 (95.4%) tested positive for cannabinoids.

Pre-employment candidates who tested positive for cannabinoids may be allowed to test again if agency needs allow. The candidates who tested positive for Opiates or Phencyclidine (PCP) were disqualified from employment.

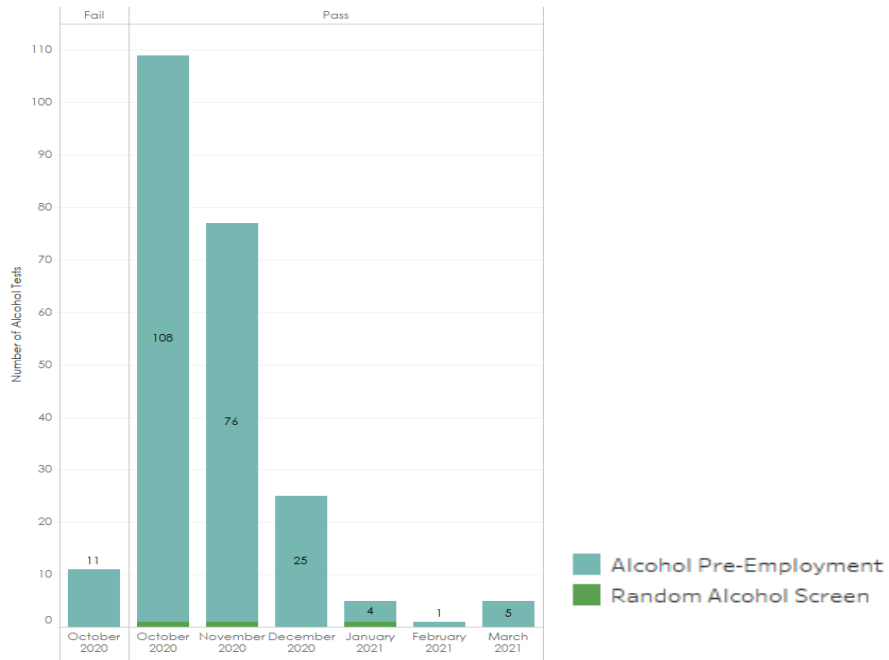

Employees in safety sensitive positions who tested positive for marijuana were suspended without pay for five workdays for their first offense. No employees tested positive for marijuana a second time. Employees who tested positive for Opiates or PCP were separated from their positions.

District Government Workforce Suitability Report

Alcohol Testing

Only 11 of the 233 (5.7%) tested candidates and employees tested positive for alcohol. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, DCHR minimized alcohol testing during this period. Candidates who failed the breathalyzer test were not selected for the position. No employees failed the breathalyzer test during this period.

Credit and Traffic Checks

MURIEL BOWSER
MAYOR

April 26, 2021

The Honorable Phil Mendelson
Chairman
Council of the District of Columbia
1350 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Suite 504
Washington, DC 20004

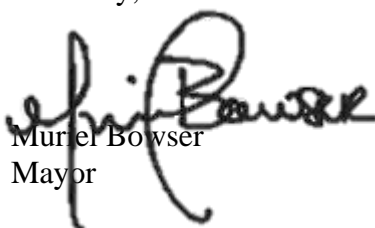

Dear Chairman Mendelson:

I am pleased to transmit to the Council of the District of Columbia the Fiscal Year 2020 District Government Workforce New Hire Residency by Agency report, prepared by the Department of Human Resources (“DCHR”). As provided by section 106 of the Jobs for D.C. Residents Act of 2007, effective May 23, 2019 (D.C. Law 22-135; D.C. Official Code § 1-515.06), the report outlines the hiring rate of District residents for both subordinate and independent agencies and lists the employees granted residency waivers or removed from their position due to residency violations.

The report, also available via DCHR’s public SharePoint link, details agency hiring by residency for fiscal year 2020. Of the employees hired in fiscal year 2020, 56.6% lived in the District of Columbia. Between October 2019 and December 2020, two employees received residency waivers, and two employees were found out of compliance and forfeited their position. A one-page overview of the report findings is also enclosed for the Council’s convenience.

I am available to discuss any questions you may have regarding this report. In order to facilitate a response to your questions, please have your staff contact Justin Zimmerman, Associate Director of Policy and Compliance Administration, DCHR, at (202) 727-1568 or justin.zimmerman@dc.gov.

Sincerely,

Muriel Bowser
Mayor

District Government Workforce Residency Report

Employee B	 Manager	MSS	Domestic Related

Residency Violation and Removals

With the recent updates to D.C. Code § 1-515 and District of Columbia Municipal Regulations 6-B3, DCHR has created a more efficient audit, investigatory, and removal process for residency violations. As such, we anticipate residency discrepancies will be discovered and resolved more rapidly.

In FY2020, 2 employees violated their residency preference and forfeited their position with the District Government. The employee's information is in corresponding chart. Currently, there are 4 residency investigations ongoing.

Name	Violation	Outcome
Employee A	Residency Preference	Separation
Employee B	Residency Preference	Separation

New Hire Residency – FY2020

Each year, the D.C. Department of Human Resources must submit an annual report to the Council detailing the hiring rate of District residents for the preceding fiscal year. (See D.C. Official Code § 1-515.06. This report fulfills this reporting requirement for Fiscal Year 2020.) The District Government hired 5,987 employees. 3,386 (56.6%) of these employees were District residents. The following data, organized by agency, lists the records pertaining to employees hired in FY20 by agency, pay schedule, position title, and jurisdiction of residence.

QUALITATIVE DESCRIPTION OR SUMMARY STATEMENT

Pursuant to section 208(a)(9) of the D.C. FOIA, provide in the space below or as an attachment, “[a] qualitative description or summary statement, and conclusions drawn from the data regarding compliance [with the provisions of the Act].”

In FY2020, DCHR processed 68 of the 73 FOIA requests it received or had pending from the previous fiscal year. DCHR experienced a 22% increase in FOIA requests from FY2019. During FY2020, the city experienced the COVID-19 public health emergency, and the Council passed emergency legislation that excluded the period of time during which the Mayor has declared a public health emergency for the COVID-19 pandemic for an agency to respond to a FOIA request. Notwithstanding the extension, DCHR worked as quickly as practicable to respond to requesters.

QUALITATIVE DESCRIPTION OR SUMMARY STATEMENT

Pursuant to section 208(a)(9) of the D.C. FOIA, provide in the space below or as an attachment, “[a] qualitative description or summary statement, and conclusions drawn from the data regarding compliance [with the provisions of the Act].”

In FY2021, DCHR processed 64 of the 68 FOIA requests it received or had pending from the previous fiscal year. During FY2021, the city continued to experience the COVID-19 public health emergency. As a result, the Council allowed for additional time to respond to FOIA requests during part of the declared public health emergency. Notwithstanding the extensions, DCHR worked as quickly as practicable to respond to requesters.

DCHR - Information Technology Support Assistant - Apprenticeship Program
"A Pathway to District Entry Level Jobs"

*DCHR - Information Technology Support Assistant - Apprenticeship Program
"A Pathway to District Entry Level Jobs"*

I. PURPOSE AND SCOPE

The District of Columbia Department of Human Resources (DCHR) provides human capital services that strengthen individual and organizational performance, and enables the District government to attract, develop and retain a well-qualified, diverse workforce. DCHR provides services to nearly 36,000 talented and dedicated District Government employees who serve over 700,000 city residents.

By developing and implementing a successfully managed Information Technology Support Assistant Apprenticeship Program (Apprenticeship Program), DCHR (Sponsoring Agency), in partnership with the Department of Parks and Recreation (DPR), the hosting agency, can utilize its extensive knowledge of information technology to introduce the career field to those who may not be aware of the career opportunities in the path of information technology.

The Information Technology Support Assistant apprentices will be working within DPR - delivering front line support to managers and employees by supporting efforts to develop, implement, and maintain the agency's IT and telecommunications infrastructure; develop agency wide applications; establish and oversee the information enterprise infrastructure; and advise the agency on technology solutions to improve service delivery.

Specifically, DCHR in partnership with DPR, is offering this pathway to a career-ready skill in information technology to graduates of Friendship Collegiate Public Charter School.

DCHR's goal is to allow Career Pathways candidates to become exposed to the information technology curricula through training instruction, on-the-job rotation and professional development. The Apprenticeship Program will establish a base foundation for training and employment in the area of information technology to those who may not be aware of the great career opportunities. By developing a talent pool based in the District of Columbia, DCHR's ability to recruit more citizens of the District of Columbia will significantly increase. The Apprenticeship Program will create a resource of new talent who will have the requisite knowledge to become competent Information Technology Support Assistants. The apprentices, upon completion of the one-year Apprenticeship Program, will be well prepared with the required workforce skills as qualified Information Technology Support Assistants with DPR or a District government agency.

The goals of the Apprenticeship Program are:

- Generate broader career interest and promote opportunities in information technology.

"A Pathway to District Entry Level Jobs"

- Meet the Pathways to District Government Careers Amendment Act of 2018's goal of expanding the number and range of jobs and ensure access to District government entry-level positions through appropriate skills training.
- Utilize vast experience and expertise of DCHR and DPR leadership, management and subject matter experts to train and develop highly skilled apprentices who, with the combination of one-year on-the job learning and classroom training, will become highly qualified for entry-level information technology positions at DPR.

II. EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY PLEDGE

III. AFFIRMATIVE ACTION PLAN

DCHR shall provide for outreach and positive recruitment of minorities and women in the participation of the Apprenticeship Program. When the number of apprentices employed reaches five (5), DCHR will develop and submit an Affirmative Action Plan pursuant to the D.C. State Plan for Equal Employment Opportunity in Apprenticeship (Sections II and III).

IV. ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

In order to be eligible to participate in the Apprenticeship Program, qualified candidates must meet the following Qualifications:

Age:	18 and over.
Education:	A high school graduate of District of Columbia Public Schools (DCPS) or District of Columbia Public Charter Schools (DCPCS) or received a G.E.D. or its equivalent from the District of Columbia. Applicants must furnish DCHR with documentation showing proof of graduation or a District of Columbia issued G.E.D. certificate or its equivalent.
Experience:	Prior work experience in information technology or closely related field is preferred but not required.
Residency:	Must be a District resident.

"A Pathway to District Entry Level Jobs"*

Physical Ability:	Must be physically able to perform the duties of the occupation or trade.
Testing:	Successfully pass written and/or oral exams on fundamental reading, writing, general math and critical thinking as administered by DCHR or the relevant education/training provider. The applicant must possess the prerequisite basic reading, writing, math and communication skills.
Skills:	Strong verbal and written communication skills, computer skills.
Suitability:	Pre-employment criminal background check; Pre-employment drug and alcohol test.

V. APPLICATION PROCEDURES AND SELECTION CRITERIA

How to Apply:

1. Recruitment for apprentice positions will be done via DCHR's website, dchr.dc.gov. Applications must be submitted online via DCHR's website through the "Career Pathways" program tab. Applicants can obtain assistance by visiting the DCHR Customer Care Center located at 1015 Half Street, SE, 9th Floor, Washington, DC 20003 or by contacting the Career Pathways Outreach Specialist to obtain assistance.
2. Once submitted, DCHR will screen applications to determine which are suitable for acceptance (i.e., those that meet all applicable eligibility requirements). DCHR will then contact the applicant to schedule an interview.
3. DCHR will conduct interviews. A maximum number of applicants will be determined prior to interview sessions.
4. Applicants will be placed in order based upon DCHR determined ranking factors.

Interview Process:

1. An interview panel of DCHR and DPR leadership and managers shall conduct all applicant interviews.
2. As part of application supporting documents, the interview panel should have a copy of each candidate's application, resume, high school diploma or transcript, proof of age and government issued identification.
3. The interview panel will provide introduction and general program overview to each candidate during the interview, then pose a series of questions, all geared towards a determination of each candidate's level of work experience, ethics, communication and interpersonal skills. Each applicant will be asked the same questions in fairness and equal evaluation.

*DCHR - Information Technology Support Assistant - Apprenticeship Program
"A Pathway to District Entry Level Jobs"*

4. Evaluation of an applicant's interview responses will be categorized as Superior, Good, Satisfactory, and Unsatisfactory. A score of Superior will be given a numerical value of 4, Good = 3, Satisfactory = 2, and Unsatisfactory = 1.
5. After panel questions, the applicant is given an opportunity to ask any questions they have concerning the Apprenticeship Program or the process.
6. All notes on the applicant's responses shall be documented for records and retained for the applicant's file.
7. Each applicant selected for the Apprenticeship Program will be instructed to attend a mandatory orientation which provides an in-depth program overview.

Applicant Rating System:

Once an applicant is deemed eligible to apply for the Apprenticeship Program, the applicant shall be selected based on the following criteria:

1. References (20)
2. Interview (25)
3. Ability to Meet Career Pathways Criteria: District Resident and District High School Graduate or GED recipient (50)
4. Previous work experience (5)

VI. TERMS OF APPRENTICESHIP

The term of apprenticeship for the Information Technology Support Assistant occupation is one-year consisting of approximately 2,000 hours of on-the-job learning. The hours for on-the-job learning for this occupation are identified in the work process.

VII. RELATED INSTRUCTION

To assure all around mastery of the Information Technology Support Assistant occupation, apprentices will be required to complete classwork in the technical and theoretical subjects related to their occupation. Apprentices will have to complete up to 90 quarter credit hours of college credit leading to an Associate Degree. Strategic Education, Inc. (SEI), through Strayer University, will provide the apprentices related instruction. Strayer University will not charge the apprentice for tuition, textbooks, or any other obligatory fees for each apprentice's related instruction as long as each apprentice remains in the Apprenticeship Program. Any non-obligatory fees, such as overdue library books, are the sole responsibility of the apprentice. The related instruction will prepare the apprentice for the following:

*DCHR - Information Technology Support Assistant - Apprenticeship Program
"A Pathway to District Entry Level Jobs"*

Apprentice will be responsible for ensuring proper computer operation so that end users can accomplish business tasks. This includes receiving, prioritizing, documenting, and actively resolving end-user help requests and escalating incidents when considered appropriate and necessary to maintain Service Level Agreements (SLA) expectations. Problem resolution may involve the use of diagnostic and help request tracking tools, as well as in-person, hands on help at the desktop level.

The apprentice must attend related instruction as provided by SEI, through Strayer University. While the apprentice will be completing the apprenticeship at the same time as earning an Associate Degree, neither should adversely affect the apprentice's performance in the other. Apprentices are free to attend class at an appropriate time of their choosing. Hours of attendance of related instruction shall be reported to DCHR monthly. Each apprentice will be required to sign a release authorizing SEI, through Strayer University, to disclose his or her attendance and academic records to DCHR.

VIII. APPRENTICE SAFETY

DCHR and DPR shall always provide adequate and safe equipment and facilities for on-the-job learning, adequate supervision to promote safe working conditions and safety training for apprentices, both on-the-job and in related instruction.

IX. SUPERVISION OF APPRENTICES

Each apprentice will be paired with a professional, experienced staff mentor for all related office work. The Apprenticeship Program Manager and DCHR Career Pathways Team shall be responsible for overall supervision and assurance of specified work instruction and training hours for each apprentice. The DPR Program Manager will be responsible for approving time and attendance and providing six-month progress reports.

X. NUMERICAL RATIO OF APPRENTICES

In order to ensure the highest quality of training and work experience as well as reasonable employment opportunity following the Apprenticeship Program completion for apprentices, DPR shall assign one (1) apprentice to one (1) experienced staff mentor.

XI. REGISTRATION OF APPRENTICES

DCHR shall prepare an Apprenticeship Agreement as required and provided by the D.C. Apprenticeship Registration Agency (Registration Agency). The Apprenticeship Agreement shall contain a clause making these standards part of the Agreement.

1. All agreements shall be signed by DCHR, DPR and the apprentice and forwarded to the Registration Agency for registration within forty-five (45) calendar days of consummation.
2. DCHR, DPR, the apprentice, and other stakeholders will receive a copy of the Registration Agreement for their records.

"A Pathway to District Entry Level Jobs"

3. In the event that DCHR is unable to fulfill its obligations under the Apprenticeship Agreement, the apprentice may be transferred to another apprenticeship sponsor under a registered program with full credit to the apprentice for satisfactory time and training earned.
4. DCHR shall notify the Registration Agency in writing within forty-five (45) calendar days of any transfers, modification, cancelation, suspension, or termination of the agreement, with cause for the same, and of completion of the apprenticeship.

No person shall be considered a bona-fide apprentice until he or she is registered with the Registration Agency.

XII. PROBATIONARY PERIOD

All apprentices shall be subject to a one-year probationary period. Full credit towards the apprenticeship term shall be given to those apprentices who successfully complete the probationary period. Apprentices selected for the Apprenticeship Program will remain in a probationary status for one-year (1-year) beginning on the first day of the Apprenticeship Program.

XIII. PERIODIC EVALUATION

The apprentice's Supervisor will conduct bi-annual progress evaluations to prepare reports and determine apprentice eligibility for advancement in wage progression pursuant to the District of Columbia Personnel Manual. The apprentice's Supervisor may seek input from senior-level managers and staff who work directly alongside apprentices for evaluations. If the apprentice's Supervisor's mid-year or yearly evaluation of the apprentice reveals that the apprentice's work performance is unsatisfactory, an initial counseling session will be arranged between the employer and the apprentice to communicate unsatisfactory level of work and present a performance improvement plan. If a subsequent evaluation reveals continued unsatisfactory performance improvement, DCHR will proceed with disciplinary action.

XIV. DISCIPLINARY ACTION

DCHR will make a significant financial and human resources investment in the training and education of each apprentice. DCHR may elect to take disciplinary action, including termination, against an apprentice for failure to comply with the Apprenticeship Agreement, Apprenticeship Standards, District of Columbia laws, rules, policies or procedures, or failing to attend related instruction. If the necessary action is termination, the apprentice is hereby terminated from employment with the agency and the Apprenticeship Agreement is canceled. Any apprentice removed from the Apprenticeship Program will be ineligible to reapply.

Apprentices must continuously be enrolled at Strayer University and remain in good academic standing. If DCHR does not see progress or evaluates the apprentice as a less than ideal fit for the position, DCHR can terminate the apprentice at any time from the Apprenticeship Program.

DCHR - Information Technology Support Assistant - Apprenticeship Program
"A Pathway to District Entry Level Jobs"

XV. CERTIFICATE OF COMPLETION

Upon the apprentice's satisfactory completion of the Apprenticeship Program, DCHR shall certify the names of each graduating apprentice to the Registration Agency and recommend that a Certificate of Completion be awarded.

XVI. GRANTING OF ADVANCE CREDIT

DCHR may, but is not required to, provide advance credit or standing to applicants for prior technical training or on-the-job learning from another registered apprenticeship program. However, if advance credits or standing are granted, the advance credits and standing will be provided up to one-fourth ($\frac{1}{4}$) of the apprenticeship term, and shall be granted to all applicants equally, for demonstrated competency, acquired experience, training or skills according to the advanced standing granted that is related to the Information Technology Support Assistant occupation. However, granting applicants credit in excess of one-fourth ($\frac{1}{4}$) the apprenticeship term shall receive prior approval of the Registration Agency. Granting of advance credit for prior technical training or on-the-job learning from another registered apprenticeship program is not granting credit of any kind to related instruction provided by SEI.

XVII. MAINTENANCE OF RECORDS

Each apprentice will be required to sign a release authorizing SEI, through Strayer University, to disclose his or her attendance and academic records to DCHR. DCHR shall keep adequate records of the Apprenticeship Program. These records will include, but will not be limited to the following: original applications of applicants applying to the Apprenticeship Program, selection and rejection of applicants, promotion, termination, rates of pay, evaluation of apprentice's work and training performance and any other records pertinent to a determination of compliance with these standards, as may be required by the Registration Agency. These records will be maintained for a period of five (5) years as required and made available to the Registration Agency upon request.

XVIII. COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

DCHR or the apprentice may consult with the representative of the Registration Agency on the differences of opinion that may arise in the interpretation of any provision of these standards.

Any controversy or difference arising under an Apprenticeship Agreement, which cannot be resolved locally, may be submitted by the apprentice or the apprentice's authorized representative to the Registration Agency for review. The complaint must be in writing and signed by the complainant, or authorized representative, and submitted within sixty (60) calendar days of the final local decision. In the event of a hearing, all procedures shall be in accordance with the D.C. Apprenticeship Registration Agency Rules and Regulations, sections 1110.1 through 1110.8.

To the extent that a complaint pertains to Strayer University, those complaints should be submitted through the processes laid out in the Strayer University Catalog and Student Handbook.

XIX. APPRENTICE WAGE PROGRESSION

Wage/Compensation: Entry-Level Grade: 7; Step 1: $42,273.00

To advance from program start to program completion, the apprentice shall have met the following requirements:

1. Satisfactorily completed the indicated on-the job work hours;
2. Satisfactorily completed the indicated months in the Apprenticeship Program; and
3. Satisfactorily completed the indicated related and supplemental instructional school hours.

After completion of the Apprenticeship Program, the apprentice is entitled to receive within-grade increases based on the compensation policies in the District of Columbia Personnel Manual (Chapter 11).

An employee occupying a permanent position who has not reached the maximum rate of his or her grade shall be granted a within-grade increase if he or she meets all the following requirements:

1. The employee must have completed the required waiting period for advancement to the next higher step of the grade of his or her position;
2. The employee must not have received an equivalent increase during the waiting period; and
3. The employee's performance rating assigned for the most recent rating period that ended prior to the completion date of the required waiting period must be either Satisfactory or better or Meets Expectations or better, as applicable.

The apprentice's advancement to the next higher step of the grade of his or her position will be as follows:

1. An apprentice will advance to step 2, after successfully completing their apprenticeship. As a skilled Information Technology Support Assistant, the waiting periods for advancement to the following steps in all District Service salary schedule grades shall be as follows: Steps 3, 4 and 5, fifty-two calendar weeks of creditable service/work; and
2. Steps 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10, one hundred four (104) calendar weeks of creditable work/service.

*DCHR - Information Technology Support Assistant - Apprenticeship Program

XX. CANCELATION OF APPRENTICESHIP AGREEMENT

If an apprentice fails to adhere to District personnel rules and regulations or for not performing required job functions, DCHR may remove the apprentice pursuant to the District of Columbia Personnel Manual. The apprentice will be given the required notice and a reasonable opportunity for corrective action where appropriate as required by the District of Columbia Personnel Manual. The apprentice and Registration Agency shall be notified of final action taken.

Though not an exhaustive list, the following classes of conduct and performance deficits constitute cause and warrant disciplinary action up to removal:

- a. Failure to show progress to completion of the Apprenticeship Program;
- b. Failure to stay in good academic standing with Strayer University;
- c. Failure to meet performance standards;
- d. Neglect of duty;
- e. Insubordination;
- f. Inability to carry out assigned responsibilities or duties;
- g. Conviction of a felony or criminal offense that is related to the employee's duties or his or her agency mission;
- h. Unexcused tardiness;
- i. Unauthorized absence;
- j. Sexual misconduct;
- k. Falsification of official records concerning attendance;
- l. Using, being under the influence of, or testing positive for an intoxicant while on duty.

Additionally, failure to adhere to SEI and Strayer University policies and procedures, failure to maintain good academic standing, or dismissal from apprenticeship employment will result from removal from the Apprenticeship Program. In the event an apprentice is dismissed from the Apprenticeship Program, the apprentice may choose to continue to pursue an Associate Degree from Strayer University, if the apprentice was not expelled from Strayer University; however, the apprentice will have to establish a method of payment as the apprentice will no longer be permitted to attend Strayer University tuition-free. The apprentice will be responsible for any remaining tuition balance still due.

"A Pathway to District Entry Level Jobs"*

Neither SEI nor Strayer University can seek reimbursement from the apprentice for tuition, textbook or other costs that have already been paid if the apprentice is terminated from the Apprenticeship Program or if the Apprenticeship Program is canceled.

XXI. DEREGISTRATION OF PROGRAM

The Apprenticeship Program may be canceled upon voluntary action of DCHR by requesting cancelation of the registration. The Apprenticeship Program may also be deregistered for reasonable cause by the Registration Agency, as outlined in section 1106 of the D.C. Apprenticeship Registration Agency Rules and Regulations.

If, at the request of DCHR, the Apprenticeship Program is canceled or the Apprenticeship Program is deregistered for reasonable cause by the Registration Agency, DCHR shall, within thirty (30) calendar days from the date of acknowledgement of action, notify all apprentices of the deregistration, the effective date and that the apprentices are no longer registered, and ensure that the apprentices receive any remittance due them.

XXII. PROVISIONS FOR MODIFICATION OR AMENDMENTS

DCHR may submit any significant proposed modifications or amendments to these Apprenticeship Standards to the Registration Agency for approval. Minor changes to the standards may be made solely by DCHR with notification to the Registration Agency. The Registration Agency will make a determination on whether to approve such modifications or changes within ninety (90) calendar days from the date of receipt. If approved, the modification or changes will be recorded and acknowledged within ninety (90) calendar days of approval as an amendment to the Apprenticeship Program. Modification or changes to these standards shall not alter conditions of apprenticeship already in effect, without the consent of all parties involved.

XXIII. NOTIFICATION

DCHR shall notify the D.C. Office of Apprenticeship on any given apprenticeship action within two (2) weeks of the action.

XXIV. WORK PROCESS

The Apprenticeship Program will combine principles of experience and training with demonstrated competency. The total program hours will be broken up into the following areas:

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY SUPPORT ASSISTANT-APPRENTICESHIP PROGRAM

*Department of Parks & Recreation (DPR)
& Department of Human Resources (DCHR)*

"A Pathway to District Entry Level Jobs"

TERM OF APPRENTICESHIP: The standard term of apprenticeship shall be 2000 on-the-job hours and 90 quarter credit hours of college-level related and supplemental instruction, completed within 12 months.

HOURS OF WORK AND WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Hours per day: 8 hours
- Hours per week: 40 hours

Apprentices will generally work the same hours as agency staff, except that no apprentice will be allowed to work if it interferes with attendance in related instruction classes.

ON-THE-JOB TRAINING: An Information Technology Support Assistant will be responsible for ensuring proper computer operation so that end users can accomplish business tasks. This includes receiving, prioritizing, documenting, and actively resolving end-user help requests and escalating incidents when considered appropriate and necessary to maintain Service Level Agreements (SLA) expectations. Problem resolution may involve the use of diagnostic and help request tracking tools, as well as in-person, hands on help at the desktop level. On the Job Learning Tasks include:

Fundamental IT Concepts

- Differentiate between information and data
- Identify the elements of the system development life cycle
- Describe the role of technology in converting data and information into organizational knowledge
- Understand concepts of server, desktop, application, and virtualization
- Understand the purpose and function of fundamental communication system hardware, including end user devices, switches, routers, cabling, wireless access points, and radio towers
- Demonstrate fundamental understanding of, and skills with, common operating systems, software applications, and programming languages
- Differentiate between systems software and application software
- Understand the potential for integration of system and software components
- Understand different types of information processing (real-time, event-driven, batch, etc.)
- Demonstrate knowledge of IT procurement processes (services and equipment)
- Demonstrate knowledge of IT equipment disposal processes
- Demonstrate knowledge of user centered design principles and practices, including universal design as it relates to users with disabilities
- Demonstrate fundamental understanding of principles of accessible technology as they relate to users of computerized content who have disabilities and individuals with sensory, and/or functional limitations
- Understand major IT specialization roles and functions
- Explain the importance of good recordkeeping, documentation, and institutional knowledge preservation

"A Pathway to District Entry Level Jobs"

- Explain the importance of information security, assurance, and privacy to individuals, organizations, industries, and societies.

IT in Business

- Demonstrate behavior that reflects professional business ethics (e.g., honesty, integrity, responsibility)
- Understand the concept of business analytics and the importance of ensuring that data and information systems support business goals and processes
- Explain the importance of IT service level agreements (SLA) and their relationship to service provision
- Demonstrate knowledge of the data requirements of business activities and their relationship to processing functions
- Explain the need for business impact assessments and the importance of minimizing system down times and user impacts
- Explain the importance of IT systems that are easy for IT Users to use and the importance of User support
- Understand the fundamentals of insourcing (internally acquired and managed) versus outsourcing (externally managed "cloud-based") IT solutions
- Understand how an IT department in an organization is typically organized, its mission, function, decision-making processes, and internal and external roles
- Demonstrate knowledge of laws and regulations which require compliance reporting, including laws and regulations which require accessibility of information technology for employees, customers, and members of the public with disabilities
- Demonstrate knowledge of business resiliency and resumption concepts
- Explain the importance of user accessibility in achieving business goals, communicating with the public, and meeting federal equal employment opportunity requirements
- Explain the importance of developing thorough, realistic IT solutions that support organizational objectives
- Understand common hardware purchasing, licensing, and maintenance agreements
- Understand common business processes for installing, managing, and maintaining enterprise hardware and software

Databases and Applications:

- Understand fundamental concepts of database design and the need for database architectural strategies to fit business or industry requirements
- Differentiate between databases and flat files
- Differentiate between hierarchal and relational databases
- Understand metrics used to characterize data and different kinds of data (structures, unstructured, text-based, character limits)
- Understand importance of large, unstructured data sets that must be managed and queried in new ways to find meaning and value ("Big Data")
- Demonstrate ability to analyze data requirements
- Explain the role and relationships of data, information, and databases in organizations, specifically their role in business intelligence

"A Pathway to District Entry Level Jobs"

- Describe mechanisms for data collection and management, e.g., automated data collection, input forms, source documents, external devices, interfaces, relational characteristics, and dependencies
- Demonstrate knowledge of identifying and protecting privacy data and sensitive information
- Be able to create and query a basic database
- Understand how other applications interact with databases to create and retrieve data

Networks, Telecommunication, Wireless, and Mobility

- Fundamentals of Networking and Telecommunication
- Identify and describe differences between Local Area Networks (LAN), Wide Area Networks (WAN), Virtual Private Networks (VPN), Internet, intranets, extranets, telephony, Voice over IP (VoIP), and other networks
- Describe common network topologies
- Differentiate between common networking protocols
- Explain the purpose and properties of IP addressing
- Explain the purpose and properties of routing and switching
- Explain DNS concepts
- Explain the purpose and properties of DHCP
- Recognize common network media and connector types
- Identify and explain the need for common network monitoring resources
- Understand basic telephony (e.g., analog vs. digital signals) and how it is integrated into IP networks
- Recognize methods of network optimization
- Explain the functionality, integrity, accessibility, and security of internet services
- Explain different server roles, their purpose, and how they interact in a network context
- Differentiate between Cloud-based applications, local server-based applications, and applications installed on a local computer, and know when to choose between them
- Understand key tasks performed during the maintenance, administration, and securing of Local Area Networks
- Identify common network infrastructure troubleshooting techniques

Risk Management

- Explain the concepts and use of risk management frameworks and how to determine threat levels using concepts of vulnerabilities, threat source, motivation, likelihood, and impact
- Explain concepts of risk-avoidance, transference, acceptance, mitigation, and deterrence in the context of an organization's risk threshold
- Understand the importance and use of personnel security and background investigations
- Understand the concept of inherent risk in end user behavior
- Understand "insider threat"
- Understand the importance of organization-wide awareness of risk management policies

Compliance

- Abide by a Code of Ethics for professional conduct
- Explain the difference between local laws, regulations, and technical standards
- Follow governance, risk management, and compliance procedures

- Explain software licensing agreements and the importance of ensuring that software is properly licensed prior to performing installation
- Understand the concept of an End User License Agreement (EULA)
- Differentiate between open source and proprietary licenses

User and Customer Support

- Describe the importance of understanding different user groups and their perspectives, concerns, and technology uses
- Demonstrate ability to communicate with users/customers for the purpose of assessing their needs and helping them solve problems
- Assess the user implications of new IT solutions, including the business benefits
- Explain the importance of maintaining business and process continuity throughout IT changes such as software or hardware modifications
- Provide customer service and support for common software/hardware issues
- Provide customer services and support for common accessibility issues, including activating built-in software accessibility features and facilitating compatibility and interoperability with assistive technology devices
- Provide training on new hardware/software
- Demonstrate ability to troubleshoot problems in person or remotely
- Analyze symptoms to identify broad area of user error or technical failure
- Identify measurement techniques for increased productivity due to information support implementation
- Identify and describe quality assurance concepts
- Implement and provide guidance for the evolution of an IT solution (upgrades)
- Understand the importance of identifying and classifying incident types and service interruptions
- Describe the importance of good documentation and recordkeeping in customer service operations
- Describe how call centers typically operate

TOTAL HOURS: 2,000

RELATED INSTRUCTION: SEI, through Strayer University, will offer an Associate in Arts in Information Technology through the Apprenticeship Program. This program allows apprentices to explore state of the art information technology systems and concepts in order to gain a broader awareness of the competencies and skills required to support such systems.

COURSE TITLE:	DESCRIPTION:
BUS 100 Introduction to Business	Course: Provides a foundation in today's business operations with a focus on the major functions of a business (management, production, marketing, finance and accounting, human resource management, and various support functions). The course also provides an overview of business organizations and the competitive business environment, strategic planning, international business, ethical considerations, quality assurance and more.

CIS 106 Introduction to Information Technology	Course: This course provides a foundational overview to the discipline of Information Technology that illuminates key computing concepts and describes how those concepts relate to other computing disciplines. Students are presented the diverse context in which information technology is used and the challenges inherent in the diffusion of innovative technologies.
CIS 110 Computer Programming Design	Course: The course introduces students to fundamental programming concepts to include event-driven programming, object-oriented programming, basic data structures, and algorithmic processes. Emphasis is placed on structure, decision-making, looping, arrays, methods, objects, events, databases, pseudo coding and visual flowcharting to construct workable programs.
CIS 109 Introduction to Management Information Systems	Course: This course provides an introduction to contemporary information systems and demonstrates how these systems are used throughout the organization. The focus of this course will be on the key components of information systems—people, software, hardware, data, and communication technologies, and how these components are developed, acquired and integrated to create a competitive advantage.
CIS 111 Introduction to Relational Database Management Systems	Course: This course provides the students with an introduction to the theory and applied concepts of database design, database management and information management. Students will focus on identifying organizational information requirements, express those requirements using conceptual data modeling techniques, verifying the structural characteristics with normalization techniques and convert conceptual data models into physical database models.
CIS 175 Introduction to Networking	Course: This course introduces students to the fundamentals of networking technology. The focus of the course will include networking protocols, topologies, hardware and operating systems. Topics include data communications, telecommunications, infrastructure security, inter-/intranetworking and the application of networking to multimedia, information storage and distribution.
CIS 312 Computer Architecture	Course: This course presents students with concepts and essential skills required to administer operating systems, networks, software, file systems, file servers, web systems, database systems, system documentation, policies and procedures. Topics include the methods required to select, deploy, integrate and administer computing platforms or components that support an organization's information technology infrastructure. The fundamentals of hardware and software and how they integrate to form essential components of systems are also explored.

PURPOSE AND SCOPE

The District of Columbia Department of Human Resources (DCHR) provides human capital services that strengthen individual and organizational performance, and enables the District government to attract, develop and retain a well-qualified, diverse workforce. DCHR provides services to nearly 36,000 talented and dedicated District Government employees who serve over 700,000 District residents.

The Department of Employment Services' (DOES) mission is to connect District residents, job seekers, and employers to opportunities and resources that empower fair, safe, effective working communities. DOES provides comprehensive employment services to ensure a competitive workforce, full employment, life-long learning, economic stability, and the highest quality of life for all District residents.

By developing and implementing a successfully managed Call Center Representative Apprenticeship Program (Apprenticeship Program), DCHR (Sponsoring Agency), in partnership with the Department of Employment Services (DOES), the employment agency, can utilize its extensive knowledge of customer service and technical skills to introduce the career field to those who may not be aware of the career opportunities in the path of a call center representative.

The Call Center Representative apprentices will provide top quality customer service, by responding to customer problems or complaints, refer customers to appropriate personnel, create and maintain documentation, communicate effectively with supervisors, peers and clients, and establish and maintain interpersonal relationships. The apprentices' work will include handling day-to-day phone inquiries and providing advice as well as working on professional development training.

DCHR's goal is to allow Career Pathways' candidates to become exposed to the Customer Service and Call Center curricula through classroom related training instruction, on-the-job learning and professional development. The Apprenticeship Program will establish a base foundation for training and employment in the area of a Call Center Representative. By developing a talent pool based in the District of Columbia, DCHR's ability to recruit more citizens of the District of Columbia will significantly increase. The Apprenticeship Program will create a resource of new talent who will have the requisite knowledge to become competent Call Center Representatives. The apprentices, upon completion of the one-year Apprenticeship Program, will be well prepared with the required workforce skills as qualified Call Center Representatives at DOES.

The goals of the Apprenticeship Program are:

- Generate broader career interest and promote opportunities in the DOES Call Center and enhance Customer Service skills.
- Meet the Pathways to District Government Careers Amendment Act of 2018's goal of expanding the number and range of jobs and ensure access to District government entry-level positions through appropriate skills training.

- Utilize the vast experience and expertise of DCHR and DOES leadership, management and subject-matter-experts to train and develop entry level workers (apprentices) who, with the combination of one-year on-the-job learning and classroom training, will become highly skilled Call Center Representatives within DOES' workforce.
- To cultivate, develop and maintain a talented pool of Call Center Representatives. Produce highly skilled training for eligible District residents through apprenticeship, who will be prepared with the required skills needed to pursue a long term-career within the District government.

II. EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY PLEDGE

III. AFFIRMATIVE ACTION PLAN

DCHR shall provide for outreach and positive recruitment of minorities and women in the participation of our Apprenticeship Program. When the number of apprentices employed reaches five (5), DCHR will develop and submit an Affirmative Action Plan pursuant to the D.C. State Plan for Equal Employment Opportunity in Apprenticeship (Sections II and III).

IV. ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

In order to be eligible to participate in the Apprenticeship Program, qualified candidates must meet the following Qualifications:

Age:	18 and over
Education:	A high school graduate of District of Columbia Public Schools (DCPS) or District of Columbia Public Charter Schools (DCPCS) or received a G.E.D. or its equivalent from the District of Columbia. Applicants must furnish DCHR with documentation showing proof of graduation or a District of Columbia issued G.E.D. certificate or its equivalent.
Vaccination	Be fully vaccinated against COVID-19 virus or be approved by DCHR & MPD for religious or medical exemption.
Experience:	Prior work experience in Customer Service or closely related field is preferred but not required
Residency:	Must be a District resident and agree to remain a resident until the completion of the program
Physical Ability:	Must be physically able to perform the duties of the occupation or trade
Testing:	Successfully pass written and/or oral exams on fundamental reading, writing, general math and critical thinking as administered by DCHR or the relevant education/training provider. The applicant must possess the prerequisite basic reading, writing, math and communication skills.
Skills:	Strong verbal and written communication skills, computer skills
Suitability:	Pre-employment criminal background check; Pre-employment drug and alcohol test.

V. APPLICATION PROCEDURES AND SELECTION CRITERIA

How to Apply:

1. Recruitment for apprentice positions will be done via DCHR's website, dchr.dc.gov. Applications must be submitted online via DCHR's website through the "Career Pathways" program tab. Applicants can obtain assistance by visiting the DCHR Customer Care Center located at 1015 Half Street, SE, 9th Floor, Washington, DC 20003 or by contacting the Career Pathways Outreach Specialist to obtain assistance (email address: careerpathways@dc.gov, phone number: 202-442-9700).
2. Once submitted, DCHR will screen applications to determine which are suitable for acceptance (i.e., those that meet all applicable eligibility requirements). DCHR will then contact the applicant to schedule an interview.

3. DCHR will conduct interviews. A maximum number of applicants will be determined prior to interview sessions.
4. Applicants will be placed in order based upon DCHR determined ranking factors.

Interview Process:

1. An interview panel of DCHR and DOES leadership and managers shall conduct all applicant interviews.
2. As part of application supporting documents, the interview panel should have a copy of each candidate's application, resume, high school diploma or transcript, proof of age and government issued identification.
3. The interview panel will provide introduction and general program overview to each candidate during the interview, then pose a series of questions, all geared towards a determination of each candidate's level of work experience, ethics, communication and interpersonal skills. Each applicant will be asked the same questions in fairness and equal evaluation.
4. Evaluation of an applicant's interview responses will be categorized as Superior, Good, Satisfactory, and Unsatisfactory. A score of Superior will be given a numerical value of 4, Good =3, Satisfactory =2, and Unsatisfactory =1.
5. After panel questions, the applicant is given an opportunity to ask any questions they have concerning the Apprenticeship Program or the process.
6. All notes on the applicant's responses shall be documented for records and retained for the applicant's file for five (5) years.
7. Each applicant selected for the Apprenticeship Program will be instructed to attend a mandatory orientation which provides an in-depth program overview.

Applicant Rating System:

Once an applicant is deemed eligible to apply for the Apprenticeship Program, the applicant shall be selected based on the following criteria:

1. References (20)
2. Interview (25)
3. Ability to Meet Career Pathways Criteria: District Resident and District High School Graduate or GED recipient (50)
4. Previous work experience (5)

VI. TERM OF APPRENTICESHIP

The term of apprenticeship for the Call Center Representative occupation is one year consisting of approximately 2,000 hours of on-the-job learning. The hours for on-the-job learning for this occupation are identified in the work process.

VII. RELATED INSTRUCTION

To assure all around mastery of the Call Center Representative Customer Service occupation, apprentices will be required to complete classwork in the technical and theoretical subjects related to their occupation. Apprentices will have to complete up to one hundred and fifty (150) hours of related instruction. The University of the District of Columbia- Community College (UDC-CC), DCHR and the Graduate School (also referred to as "DCHR Educational Partners") will provide the apprentices related instruction. They will not charge the apprentice for tuition, textbooks, or any other obligatory fees for each apprentice's related instruction as long as each apprentice remains in the Apprenticeship Program. Any non-obligatory fees, such as overdue library books, are the sole responsibility of the apprentice. The apprentice must attend related instruction as provided by DCHR and DCHR Educational Partners. While the apprentice will be completing the apprenticeship at the same time as earning a Certificate, neither should adversely affect the apprentice's performance in the other. Hours of attendance of related instruction shall be reported to DCHR monthly. Each apprentice will be required to sign a release authorizing each DCHR Educational Partner to disclose his or her attendance and academic records to DCHR.

VIII. APPRENTICE SAFETY

DCHR and DOES shall always provide adequate and safe equipment and facilities for on-the-job learning, adequate supervision to promote safe working conditions and safety training for apprentices, both on-the-job and in related instruction.

IX. SUPERVISION OF APPRENTICES

Each apprentice will be paired with a professional, experienced staff mentor for all related office work. The Apprenticeship Program Manager and DCHR Career Pathways Team shall be responsible for overall supervision and assurance of specified work instruction and training hours for each apprentice. The DOES Program Manager will be responsible for approving time and attendance and providing six-month progress reports.

X. NUMERICAL RATIO OF APPRENTICES

In order to ensure the highest quality of training and work experience as well as reasonable employment opportunity following the Apprenticeship Program completion for apprentices, DOES shall assign one (1) apprentice to one (1) experienced staff mentor employed.

XI. REGISTRATION OF APPRENTICES

DCHR/DOES shall prepare an Apprenticeship Agreement as required and provided by the D.C. Apprenticeship Registration Agency (Registration Agency). The Apprenticeship Agreement shall contain a clause making these standards part of the Agreement.

1. All agreements shall be signed by DCHR, DOES and the apprentice and forwarded to the D.C. Registration Agency for registration within forty-five (45) calendar days of consummation.
2. DCHR, DOES, the apprentice, and other stakeholders will receive a copy of the Registration Agreement for their records.

3. In the event that DCHR is unable to fulfill its obligations under the Apprenticeship Agreement, the apprentice may be transferred to another apprenticeship sponsor under a registered program with full credit to the apprentice for satisfactory time and training earned.

DCHR shall notify the D.C. Registration Agency in writing within forty-five (45) calendar days of any transfers, modification, cancellation, suspension, or termination of the agreement, with cause for the same, and of completion of the apprenticeship.

No person shall be considered a bona-fide apprentice until he or she is registered with the D.C. Registration Agency.

XII. PROBATIONARY PERIOD

All apprentices shall be subject to a one-year probationary period. Full credit towards the apprenticeship term shall be given to those apprentices who successfully complete the probationary period. Apprentices selected for the Apprenticeship Program will remain in a probationary status for one -year (1-year) beginning on the first day of the Apprenticeship Program.

XIII. PERIODIC EVALUATION

The apprentice's Supervisor will conduct bi-annual progress evaluations to prepare reports and determine apprentice eligibility for advancement in wage progression pursuant to the District of Columbia Personnel Manual. The apprentice's Supervisor may seek input from senior-level managers and staff who work directly alongside apprentices for evaluations. If the mid-year or yearly evaluation of the apprentice reveals that the apprentice's work performance is unsatisfactory, an initial counseling session will be arranged between the employer and the apprentice to communicate unsatisfactory level of work and present a performance improvement plan. If subsequent evaluation reveals continued unsatisfactory performance improvement, DCHR will proceed with disciplinary action.

XIV. DISCIPLINARY ACTION

DCHR will make a significant financial and human resources investment in the training and education of each apprentice. DCHR/DOES may elect to take disciplinary action, including termination, against an apprentice for failure to comply with the Apprenticeship Agreement, Apprenticeship Standards, District of Columbia laws, rules, policies and procedures, or failing to attend related instruction. If the necessary action is termination, the apprentice is hereby terminated from employment with the agency and the Apprenticeship Agreement is canceled. Any apprentice removed from the Apprenticeship Program will be ineligible to reapply.

Apprentices must continuously be enrolled in classes with each DCHR Educational Partner as scheduled and remain in good academic standing. If DCHR does not see progress or evaluates the apprentice as less than an ideal fit for the position, DCHR/DOES can terminate the apprentice at any time from the Apprenticeship Program.

XV. CERTIFICATION OF COMPLETION

Upon the Apprentice's satisfactory completion of the Apprenticeship Program, DCHR/DOES shall certify the names of each graduating apprentice to the DC Registration Agency and recommend that a Certificate of Completion be awarded.

XVI. GRANTING OF ADVANCE CREDIT

DCHR may, but is not required to, provide advance credit or standing to applicants for prior technical training or on-the-job learning from another registered apprenticeship program. However, if advance credits or standing are granted, the advance credits and standing will be provided up to one-fourth (¼) of the apprenticeship term and shall be granted to all applicants equally, for demonstrated competency, acquired experience, training or skills according to the advanced standing granted that is related to the Call Center Representative occupation. However, granting applicants credit in excess of one-fourth (¼) the apprenticeship term shall receive prior approval of the DC Apprenticeship Registration Agency. Granting of advance credit for prior technical training or on-the-job learning from another registered apprenticeship program is not granting credit of any kind to related instruction provided by each DCHR Educational Partner.

XVII. MAINTENANCE OF RECORDS

Each apprentice will be required to sign a release authorizing each DCHR Educational Partners to disclose his or her attendance and academic records to DCHR. DCHR shall keep adequate records of the Apprenticeship Program. These records will include but will not be limited to the following: original applications of applicants applying to the Apprenticeship Program, selection and rejection of applicants, promotion, termination, rates of pay, evaluation of apprentice's work and training performance and any other records pertinent to a determination of compliance with these standards, as may be required by the Registration Agency. These records will be maintained for a period of five (5) years as required and made available to the Registration Agency upon request.

XVIII. COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

DCHR/DOES or the apprentice may consult with the representative of the D.C. Registration Agency on the differences of opinion that may arise in the interpretation of any provision of these standards.

Any controversy or difference arising under an Apprenticeship Agreement, which cannot be resolved locally, may be submitted by the apprentice or the apprentice's authorized representative to the D.C. Registration Agency for review. The complaint must be in writing and signed by the complainant, or authorized representative, and submitted within sixty (60) calendar days of the final local decision. In the event of a hearing, all procedures shall be in accordance with the D.C. Apprenticeship Registration Agency Rules and Regulations sections 1110.1 through 1110.8.

XIX. APPRENTICE WAGE PROGRESSION

Wage/Compensation: Entry-Level Grade 7; Step 1: $42,273.00

To advance from program start to program completion, the apprentice shall have met the following requirements:

- I. Satisfactorily completed the indicated on-the-job work hours;
2. Satisfactorily completed the indicated months in the Apprenticeship Program; and
3. Satisfactorily completed the indicated related and supplemental instructional school hours.

After completion of the Apprenticeship Program, the apprentice is entitled to receive within- grade increases based on the compensation policies in the District of Columbia Personnel Manual (Chapter 11).

An employee occupying a permanent position who has not reached the maximum rate of his or her grade shall be granted a within-grade increase if he or she meets all of the following requirements:

1. The employee must have completed the required waiting period for advancement to the next higher step of the grade of his or her position;
2. The employee must not have received an equivalent increase during the waiting period; and
3. The employee's performance rating assigned for the most recent rating period that ended prior to the completion date of the required waiting period must be either Satisfactory or better or Meets Expectations or better, as applicable.

The apprentice's advancement to the next higher step of the grade of his or her position will be as follows:

- I. An apprentice will advance to Step 2, after successfully completing their apprenticeship. As a skilled Call Center Representative, the waiting periods for advancement to the following steps in all

District Service salary schedule grades shall be as follows: Steps 3, 4 and 5, fifty-two (52) calendar weeks of creditable work/service; and

2. Steps 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10, one hundred four (104) calendar weeks of creditable work/service.

XX. CANCELLATION OF APPRENTICESHIP AGREEMENT

If an apprentice fails to adhere to District personnel rules and regulations or for not performing required job functions, DCHR may remove the apprentice pursuant to the District of Columbia Personnel Manual. The apprentice will be given the required notice and a reasonable opportunity for corrective action where appropriate as required by the District of Columbia Personnel Manual. The apprentice and Registration Agency shall be notified of final action taken.

Though not an exhaustive list, the following classes of conduct and performance deficits constitute cause and warrant disciplinary action up to removal:

- a. Failure to show progress to completion of the Apprenticeship Program;
- b. Failure to stay in good academic standing with each DCHR Educational Partner;
- c. Failure to meet performance standards;
- d. Neglect of duty;
- e. Insubordination;
- f. Inability to carry out assigned responsibilities or duties;
- g. Conviction of a felony or criminal offense that is related to the employee's duties of his or her agency mission;
- h. Unexcused tardiness;
- i. Unauthorized absence;
- j. Sexual misconduct;
- k. Falsification of official records concerning attendance;
- l. Using, being under the influence of, or testing positive for an intoxicant while on duty.

Additionally, failure to adhere to a DCHR Educational Partner's policies and procedures, failure to maintain good academic standing, or dismissal from apprenticeship employment will result with the removal of the apprentice from the Apprenticeship Program.

In the event an apprentice is dismissed from the Apprenticeship Program, the apprentice may choose to continue to pursue Certification from UDC-CC, if the apprentice was not expelled from UDC-CC; however, the apprentice will have to establish a method of payment as the apprentice will no longer be permitted to attend UDC-CC tuition-free. The apprentice will be responsible for any remaining tuition balance still due.

UDC-CC or the Graduate School USA cannot seek reimbursement from the apprentice for tuition, textbook or other costs that have already been paid if the apprentice is terminated from the Apprenticeship Program or if the Apprenticeship Program is canceled.

XXI. DEREGISTRATION OF PROGRAM

This Apprenticeship Program may be canceled upon voluntary action of DCHR by requesting cancellation of the registration. The Apprenticeship Program may also be deregistered for reasonable cause by the D.C. Registration Agency, as outlined in section 1106 of the D.C. Apprenticeship Registration Agency Rules and Regulations.

If, at the request of DCHR, the Apprenticeship Program is canceled or the Apprenticeship Program is deregistered for reasonable cause by the D.C. Registration Agency, DCHR shall, within thirty (30) calendar days from the date of acknowledgement of action, notify all apprentices of the deregistration, the effective date and that the apprentices are no longer registered, and ensure that the apprentices receive any remittance due them.

XXII. PROVISIONS FOR MODIFICATION OR AMENDMENTS

DCHR may submit any significant proposed modifications or amendments to these Apprenticeship Standards to the D.C. Registration Agency for approval. Minor changes to the standards may be made solely by DCHR with notification to the Registration Agency. The Registration Agency will make a determination on whether to approve such modifications or changes within ninety (90) calendar days from the date of receipt. If approved, the modification or changes will be recorded and acknowledged within ninety (90) calendar days of approval as an amendment to the Apprenticeship Program. *DCHR- Human Resources Support Assistant -Apprenticeship Program
A Pathway to District Entry Level Jobs"*

I. PURPOSE AND SCOPE

The District of Columbia Department of Human Resources (DCHR) provides human resources management services that strengthen individual and organizational performance, and enables the District government to attract, develop and retain a well-qualified, diverse workforce. DCHR provides services to nearly to 36,000 talented and dedicated District Government employees who serve over 700,000 city residents.

The mission of DCHR is to provide human resources management services that enable the District Government to attract, develop and retain a well-qualified diverse workforce. DCHR is committed to effectively managing the employee experience throughout the employee lifecycle from hire to retire.

By developing and implementing a successfully managed Apprenticeship Program in the human services assistant occupation, DCHR can utilize its extensive knowledge of the human resources lifecycle and introduce the career field to those who may not be aware of the career opportunities in the path of human resources.

Human Resources Assistant apprentices will be working within the agency as part of the HR function delivering front line support to managers and employees. Their work will likely to include handling day to day queries and providing HR advice; working on a range of HR processes, ranging from transactional to relatively complex, from recruitment through to retirement; using HR systems to keep records; providing relevant HR information to the agency.

DCHR's goal is to allow Career Pathways candidates, to become exposed to the existing human resources training curricula through training instruction, on-the-job rotation and professional development where the human resources fundamentals will be demonstrated through real application. The Apprenticeship Program will establish a base foundation for training and employment in the area of human resources to those who may not be aware of the great career opportunities. By developing a talent pool based in the District of Columbia, DCHR's ability to recruit more citizens of the District of Columbia will significantly increase. The Apprenticeship Program will create a resource of new talent who will have the requisite knowledge of human resources to become competent human resources assistants. The apprentices upon completion of the one-year program will be well prepared with the required workforce skills as qualified human resources assistants with DCHR.

The goals of the program are:

- Generate broader career interest and promote opportunities in human resources.

- Meet the goal of Pathways to District Government Careers Amendment Act's goal of expanding the number and range of jobs and ensure access to District government entry-level positions through appropriate skills training.
- Utilize vast experience and expertise of DCHR leadership, management and subject-matter-experts to train and develop highly skilled apprentices who within the combination of one-year on-the-job learning and classroom training to become highly qualified for entry-level human resources positions at DCHR and District government agencies.
- To cultivate, develop and maintain a talented pool of human resources professionals. Produce highly skilled apprentices who are prepared with the required workforce skills needed to pursue entry-level, human resources careers within the District government.

II. EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY PLEDGE

The District of Columbia Government is an Equal Opportunity Employer. All qualified candidates will receive consideration without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, marital status, personal appearance, sexual orientation family responsibilities, matriculation, physical handicap, or political affiliation.

The recruitment, selection, employment and training of apprentices during their apprenticeship program, shall be without discrimination because of age, race, color, religion, national origin or sex. DCHR will take affirmative action to provide equal opportunity in apprenticeship and will operate the apprenticeship program as required under Title 29 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Part 30 and equal employment opportunity regulations of the District of Columbia State Plan.

III. AFFIRMATIVE ACTION PLAN

DCHR shall provide for outreach and positive recruitment of minorities and females in the participation of our apprenticeship program. When the number of apprentices employed reaches five (5), DCHR will develop and submit an Affirmative Action Plan pursuant to the D.C. State Plan for Equal Employment opportunity in Apprenticeship (Sections II and III).

IV. ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

In order to be eligible to participate in the DCHR Apprenticeship Program, qualified candidates must meet the following Qualifications:

- Learning & Development

The Apprentice must attend related instruction as provided by DCHR. Time spent in related instruction will be during normal work hours and will not adversely affect the apprentice on-the-job learning. Hours of attendance of related instruction shall be reported to DCHR every six (6) months.

VIII. APPRENTICE SAFETY

DCHR shall at all times provide adequate and safe equipment and facilities for on-the-job learning, adequate supervision to promote safe working conditions and safety training for apprentices, both on-the-job and in related instruction.

IX. SUPERVISION OF APPRENTICES

Each apprentice will be paired with professional, experienced staff mentor for all related office work. The Apprenticeship Program Manager and DCHR Career Pathways Team shall be responsible for overall supervision and assurance of specified work instruction and training hours for each apprentice. A DCHR Program Manager will also be responsible for approving time and attendance and six-month progress reports.

X. NUMERICAL RATIO OF APPRENTICES

In order to ensure the highest quality of training and work experience as well as reasonable employment opportunity following program completion for apprentices, DCHR shall assign one (1) apprentice to one (1) experienced staff mentor.

XI. REGISTRATION OF APPRENTICES

DCHR shall prepare an Apprenticeship Registration Agreement as required and provided by the D.C. Registration Agency. The Apprenticeship Agreement shall contain a clause making these standards part of the Agreement.

1. All agreements shall be signed by DCHR and the apprentice and forwarded to the D.C. Registration Agency for registration within forty-five days of consummation.
2. DCHR, the apprentice, and other stakeholders will receive a copy of the Registration Agreement for their records.
3. In the event that DCHR is unable to fulfill its obligations under the Apprenticeship Agreement, the apprentice may be transferred to another apprenticeship sponsor under a registered program with full credit to the apprentice for satisfactory time and training earned.

4. DCHR shall notify the D.C. Registration Agency in writing within forty-five (45) days of any transfers, modification, cancellation, suspension, or termination of the agreement, with cause for the same, and of completion of the apprenticeship. No person shall be considered a bona-fide apprentice until he/she is registered with the D.C. Registration Agency.

XII. PROBATIONARY PERIOD

All apprentices shall be subject to a one-year probationary period. Full credit towards the apprenticeship term shall be given to those apprentices, who successfully complete the probationary period. DCHR apprentices selected for program will remain in probationary status for one -year (1-year) beginning on the first day of the Apprenticeship Program.

XIII. PERIODIC EVALUATION

Apprentice Supervisor will conduct bi-annual progress evaluations to prepare reports and determine apprentice eligibility for advancement in wage progression pursuant to the District of Columbia Personnel Manual. Supervisor may seek input from senior-level managers and staff who work directly alongside apprentices for evaluations. If the Supervisor's mid-year or yearly evaluation reveals apprenticeship work performance is unsatisfactory, an initial counseling session will be arranged between employer and apprentice to communicate unsatisfactory level of work and present performance improvement plan. If subsequent evaluation reveals continued unsatisfactory performance improvement, DCHR will proceed with disciplinary action.

XIV. DISCIPLINARY ACTION

DCHR may elect to take disciplinary action against an apprentice for failure to comply with the Apprenticeship Agreement, Apprenticeship Standards, or District of Columbia personnel regulations. If the necessary action is termination, the apprentice is hereby terminated from employment with the agency and the apprenticeship agreement is canceled. Any apprentice removed from the DCHR program will be ineligible to reapply.

Amendment to Apprenticeship Standards for the Occupations of Medicaid Program Support
Assistant and Information Technology Program Support Assistant

APPROVED AND REGISTERED WITH THE D.C. APPRENTICESHIP COUNCIL

Registration Number:

Medicaid Program Support Assistant

The following amendment to the current apprenticeship standards for Medicaid Program Support Assistant and adding the Information Technology Support Assistant occupation shall be considered an integral part of our apprenticeship program. It is our commitment to extend apprenticeship opportunities to all qualified District residents who have graduated from District of Columbia Public Schools (DCPS), or District of Columbia Public Charter School (DCPCS) or earned a high school equivalency from the District of Columbia, interested in the occupations .

I. Term of Apprenticeship

The term of apprenticeship for the trade of Medicaid Program Support Assistant is 2 years.

The Department of Human Resources (DCHR) and the Department of Health Care Finance (DHCF) request to add the Information Technology Program Support Assistant to the approved Standards for Medicaid Program Support Assistant. This new occupation will be utilized to increase the number of qualified DC residents under the Career Pathways Act 2018.

I. Eligibility Requirements

In order to be eligible to participate in the Apprenticeship Program, qualified candidates must meet the following Qualifications:

Age:	18 and over
Education:	A high school graduate of District of Columbia Public Schools (DCPS) or District of Columbia Public Charter Schools (DCPCS) or received a G.E.D. or its equivalent from the District of Columbia. Applicants must furnish DCHR with documentation showing proof of graduation or a District of Columbia issued G.E.D. certificate or its equivalent.
Experience:	Prior work experience in information technology or closely related field is preferred but not required
Residency:	Must be a District of Columbia resident
Physical Ability:	Must be physically able to perform the duties of the occupation or trade
Testing:	Successfully pass written and/or oral exams on fundamental reading, writing, general math and critical thinking as administered by DCHR or the relevant education/training provider. The applicant must possess the prerequisite basic reading, writing, math and communication skills.

Skills:	Strong verbal and written communication skills, computer skills
Suitability:	Pre-employment criminal background check; Pre-employment drug and alcohol test.

II. Term of Apprenticeship

The term of apprenticeship for the Information Technology Support Assistant and Medicaid Program Support Assistant occupations is two years consisting of approximately 2,000 hours per year of on-the-job learning. The hours for on-the-job learning for this occupation are identified in the work process.

III. Related Instruction

To assure all around mastery of the Information Technology Support Assistant and Medicaid Program Support Assistant occupations, apprentices will be required to complete classwork in the technical and theoretical subjects related to their occupation. Apprentices will have to complete up to 385 hours of related instruction. DCHR and other training providers, including the University of the District of Columbia (UDC), will provide the apprentices related instruction. UDC will not charge any apprentice for tuition, textbooks, or any other obligatory fees for each apprentice's participation in related instruction in the Workforce Development and Lifelong Learning trainings at UDC, as long as each apprentice remains a District of Columbia resident. Any non-obligatory fees, such as overdue library books, are the sole responsibility of the apprentice. The related instruction will prepare the apprentice for the following:

Apprentice will be responsible for ensuring proper computer operation so that end users can accomplish business tasks. This includes receiving, prioritizing, documenting, and actively resolving end-user help requests and escalating incidents when considered appropriate and necessary to maintain Service Level Agreements (SLA) expectations. Problem resolution may involve the use of diagnostic and help request tracking tools, as well as in-person, hands on help at the desktop level.

The apprentice must attend related instruction as provided by UDC. Time spent in related instruction will be during normal work hours and will not adversely affect the apprentice's on-the-job learning. Hours of attendance of related instruction shall be reported to DCHR monthly. Each apprentice will be required to sign a release authorizing UDC to disclose his or her attendance and academic records to DCHR.

IV. Apprentice Wages

Wage/Compensation: Entry-Level Grade 7; Step 1: $42,273.00

To advance from program start to program completion, the apprentice shall have met the following requirements:

1. Satisfactorily completed the indicated on-the job work hours;
2. Satisfactorily completed the indicated months in the Apprenticeship Program; and
3. Satisfactorily completed the indicated related and supplemental instructional school hours.

After completion of the Apprenticeship Program, the apprentice is entitled to receive within-grade increases based on the compensation policies in the District of Columbia Personnel Manual (Chapter 11).

An employee occupying a permanent position who has not reached the maximum rate of his or her grade shall be granted a within-grade increase if he or she meets all of the following requirements:

1. The employee must have completed the required waiting period for advancement to the next higher step of the grade of his or her position;
2. The employee must not have received an equivalent increase during the waiting period; and
3. The employee's performance rating assigned for the most recent rating period that ended prior to the completion date of the required waiting period must be either Satisfactory or better or Meets Expectations or better, as applicable.

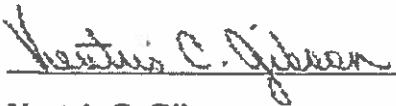

The apprentice's advancement to the next higher step of the grade of his or her position will be as follows:

1. An apprentice will advance to step 2, after successfully completing their apprenticeship. As a skilled Information Technology Support Assistant, the waiting periods for advancement to the following steps in all District Service salary schedule grades shall be as follows: Steps 3, 4 and 5, fifty-two calendar weeks of creditable service/work; and

2. Steps 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10, one hundred four (104) calendar weeks of creditable work/service.

This amendment is hereby accepted and adopted by DC Human Resources (DCHR) and by the DC Department of Health Care Finance (DHCF).

I. PURPOSE AND SCOPE

The District of Columbia Department of Human Resources (DCHR) provides human capital services that strengthen individual and organizational performance, and enables the District government to attract, develop and retain a well-qualified, diverse workforce. DCHR provides services to nearly to 36,000 talented and dedicated District Government employees who serve over 700,000 city residents.

By developing and implementing a successfully managed Medicaid Program Support Assistant Apprenticeship Program (Apprenticeship Program), DCHR (Sponsoring Agency), in partnership with the Department of Health Care Finance (DHCF), the hosting agency, can utilize its extensive knowledge of health care administration to introduce the career field to those who may not be aware of the career opportunities in the path of health care.

The Medicaid Program Support Assistant apprentices will be working within DHCF delivering front line support to managers and employees. The apprentices work will include handling day to day queries and providing Medicaid advice; working on a range of Medicaid policies; and providing a reasonable and consistent system of oversight of the Medicaid program which effectively encourages compliance accountability, protection of public funds and payments made in the correct amount for covered services.

DCHR's goal is to allow Career Pathways candidates to become exposed to the Medicaid administration curricula through training instruction, on-the-job learning and professional development. The Apprenticeship Program will establish a base foundation for training and employment in the area of health care administration. By developing a talent pool based in the District of Columbia, DCHR's ability to recruit more citizens of the District of Columbia will significantly increase. The Apprenticeship Program will create a resource of new talent who will have the requisite knowledge to become competent Medicaid Program Support Assistants. The apprentices, upon completion of the one-year Apprenticeship Program, will be well prepared with the required workforce skills as qualified Medicaid Program Support Assistants with DHCF.

The goals of the Apprenticeship Program are:

- Generate broader career interest and promote opportunities in health care administration.
- Meet the Pathways to District Government Careers Amendment Act of 2018's goal of expanding the number and range of jobs and ensure access to District government entry-level positions through appropriate skills training.
- Utilize vast experience and expertise of DCHR and DHCF leadership, management and subject-matter-experts to train and develop highly skilled apprentices who, with the combination of one-year on-the-job learning and classroom training, will become highly qualified for entry-level support positions at DHCF.

DCHR - Medicaid Program Support Assistant -Apprenticeship Program
"A Pathway to District Entry Level Jobs"

- To cultivate, develop and maintain a talented pool of health care administration professionals. Produce highly skilled apprentices who are prepared with the required workforce skills needed to pursue entry-level careers within the District government.

II. EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY PLEDGE

III. AFFIRMATIVE ACTION PLAN

DCHR shall provide for outreach and positive recruitment of minorities and women in the participation of our Apprenticeship Program. When the number of apprentices employed reaches five (5), DCHR will develop and submit an Affirmative Action Plan pursuant to the D.C. State Plan for Equal Employment Opportunity in Apprenticeship (Sections II and III).

IV. ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

In order to be eligible to participate in the Apprenticeship Program, qualified candidates must meet the following Qualifications:

Age:	18 and over
Education:	A high school graduate of District of Columbia Public Schools (DCPS) or District of Columbia Public Charter Schools (DCPCS) or received a G.E.D. or its equivalent from the District of Columbia. Applicants must furnish DCHR with documentation showing proof of graduation or a District of Columbia issued G.E.D. certificate or its equivalent.
Experience:	Prior work experience in health care administration or closely related field is preferred but not required
Residency:	Must be a District resident
Physical Ability:	Must be physically able to perform the duties of the occupation or trade
Testing:	Successfully pass written and/or oral exams on fundamental reading, writing, general math and critical thinking as administered by DCHR or the relevant education/training provider. The applicant must possess the prerequisite basic reading, writing, math and communication skills.

Skills:	Strong verbal and written communication skills, computer skills
Suitability:	Pre-employment criminal background check; Pre-employment drug and alcohol test.

V. APPLICATION PROCEDURES AND SELECTION CRITERIA

How to Apply:

1. Recruitment for apprentice positions will be done via DCHR's website, dchr.dc.gov. Applications must be submitted online via DCHR's website through the "Career Pathways" program tab. Applicants can obtain assistance by visiting the DCHR Customer Care Center located at 1015 Half Street, SE, 9th Floor, Washington, DC 20003 or by contacting the Career Pathways Outreach Specialist to obtain assistance.
2. Once submitted, DCHR will screen applications to determine which are suitable for acceptance (i.e., those that meet all applicable eligibility requirements). DCHR will then contact the applicant to schedule an interview.
3. DCHR will conduct interviews. A maximum number of applicants will be determined prior to interview sessions.
4. Applicants will be placed in order based upon DCHR determined ranking factors.

Interview Process:

1. An interview panel of DCHR and DHCF leadership and managers shall conduct all applicant interviews.
2. As part of application supporting documents, the interview panel should have a copy of each candidate's application, resume, high school diploma or transcript, proof of age and government issued identification.
3. The interview panel will provide introduction and general program overview to each candidate during the interview, then pose a series of questions, all geared towards a determination of each candidate's level of work experience, ethics, communication and interpersonal skills. Each applicant will be asked the same questions in fairness and equal evaluation.

DCHR - Medicaid Program Support Assistant -Apprenticeship Program
"A Pathway to District Entry Level Jobs"

4. Evaluation of an applicant's interview responses will be categorized as Superior, Good, Satisfactory, and Unsatisfactory. A score of Superior will be given a numerical value of 4, Good =3, Satisfactory =2, and Unsatisfactory = 1.
5. After panel questions, the applicant is given an opportunity to ask any questions they have concerning the Apprenticeship Program or the process.
6. All notes on the applicant's responses shall be documented for records and retained for the applicant's file.
7. Each applicant selected for the Apprenticeship Program will be instructed to attend a mandatory orientation which provides an in-depth program overview.

Applicant Rating System:

Once an applicant is deemed eligible to apply for the Apprenticeship Program, the applicant shall be selected based on the following criteria:

1. References (20)
2. Interview (25)
3. Ability to Meet Career Pathways Criteria: District Resident and District High School Graduate or GED recipient (50)
4. Previous work experience (5)

VI. TERM OF APPRENTICESHIP

The term of apprenticeship for the Medicaid Program Support Assistant occupation is one year consisting of approximately 2,000 hours a year of on-the-job learning. The hours for on-the-job learning for this occupation are identified in the work process.

VII. RELATED INSTRUCTION

To assure all around mastery of the Medicaid Program Support Assistant occupation, apprentices will be required to complete classwork in the technical and theoretical subjects related to their occupation. Apprentices will have to complete up to 485 hours of credit leading to a Certificate in Health Care Administration. The University of the District of Columbia-Community College (UDC-CC) will provide the apprentices related instruction. UDC-CC will not charge the apprentice for tuition, textbooks, or any other obligatory fees for each apprentice's related instruction as long as each apprentice remains in the Apprenticeship Program. Any non-obligatory fees, such as overdue library books, are the sole responsibility of the apprentice. The related instruction will prepare the apprentice for the following:

*DCHR - Medicaid Program Support Assistant -Apprenticeship Program
"A Pathway to District Entry Level Jobs"*

- Improve access to high-quality, person-centered services that produce positive health outcomes for individuals;
- Promote efficiencies that ensure Medicaid's sustainability for beneficiaries over the long term;
- Support coordinated strategies to address certain health determinants that promote upward mobility, greater independence, and improved quality of life among individuals;
- Strengthen beneficiary engagement in their personal healthcare plan, including incentive structures that promote responsible decision-making;
- Enhance alignment between Medicaid policies and health insurance products to facilitate smoother beneficiary transition; and
- Advance innovative delivery system and payment models to strengthen provider network capacity and drive greater value for Medicaid.

The apprentice must attend related instruction as provided by UDC-CC. While the apprentice will be completing the apprenticeship at the same time as earning a Certificate, neither should adversely affect the apprentice's performance in the other. Hours of attendance of related instruction shall be reported to DCHR monthly. Each apprentice will be required to sign a release authorizing UDC-CC to disclose his or her attendance and academic records to DCHR.

VIII. APPRENTICE SAFETY

DCHR and DHCF shall always provide adequate and safe equipment and facilities for on-the-job learning, adequate supervision to promote safe working conditions and safety training for apprentices, both on-the-job and in related instruction.

IX. SUPERVISION OF APPRENTICES

Each apprentice will be paired with a professional, experienced staff mentor for all related office work. The Apprenticeship Program Manager and DCHR Career Pathways Team shall be responsible for overall supervision and assurance of specified work instruction and training hours for each apprentice. The DHCF Program Manager will be responsible for approving time and attendance and providing six-month progress reports.

X. NUMERICAL RATIO OF APPRENTICES

In order to ensure the highest quality of training and work experience as well as reasonable employment opportunity following the Apprenticeship Program completion for apprentices, DHCF shall assign one (1) apprentice to one (1) experienced staff mentor.

*DCHR - Medicaid Program Support Assistant -Apprenticeship Program
"A Pathway to District Entry Level Jobs"*

XI. REGISTRATION OF APPRENTICES

DCHR shall prepare an Apprenticeship Agreement as required and provided by the D.C. Apprenticeship Registration Agency (Registration Agency). The Apprenticeship Agreement shall contain a clause making these standards part of the Agreement.

1. All agreements shall be signed by DCHR, DHCF and the apprentice and forwarded to the D.C. Registration Agency for registration within forty-five (45) calendar days of consummation.
2. DCHR, DHCF, the apprentice, and other stakeholders will receive a copy of the Registration Agreement for their records.
3. In the event that DCHR is unable to fulfill its obligations under the Apprenticeship Agreement, the apprentice may be transferred to another apprenticeship sponsor under a registered program with full credit to the apprentice for satisfactory time and training earned.
4. DCHR shall notify the D.C. Registration Agency in writing within forty-five (45) calendar days of any transfers, modification, cancelation, suspension, or termination of the agreement, with cause for the same, and of completion of the apprenticeship.

No person shall be considered a bona-fide apprentice until he or she is registered with the D.C. Registration Agency.

XII. PROBATIONARY PERIOD

All apprentices shall be subject to a one-year probationary period. Full credit towards the apprenticeship term shall be given to those apprentices, who successfully complete the probationary period. Apprentices selected for the Apprenticeship Program will remain in a probationary status for one -year (1-year) beginning on the first day of the Apprenticeship Program.

XIII. PERIODIC EVALUATION

The apprentice`s Supervisor will conduct bi-annual progress evaluations to prepare reports and determine apprentice eligibility for advancement in wage progression pursuant to the District of Columbia Personnel Manual. The apprentice`s Supervisor may seek input from senior-level managers and staff who work directly alongside apprentices for evaluations. If the apprentice`s Supervisor`s mid-year or yearly evaluation of the apprentice reveals that the apprentice`s work performance is unsatisfactory, an initial counseling session will be arranged between the employer and the apprentice to communicate unsatisfactory level of work and present a performance improvement plan. If subsequent evaluation reveals continued unsatisfactory performance improvement, DCHR will proceed with disciplinary action.

DCHR - Medicaid Program Support Assistant -Apprenticeship Program
"A Pathway to District Entry Level Jobs"

XIV. DISCIPLINARY ACTION

DCHR will make a significant financial and human resources investment in the training and education of each apprentice. DCHR may elect to take disciplinary action, including termination, against an apprentice for failure to comply with the Apprenticeship Agreement, Apprenticeship Standards, District of Columbia laws, rules, policies and procedures, of failing to attend related instruction. If the necessary action is termination, the apprentice is hereby terminated from employment with the agency and the Apprenticeship Agreement is canceled. Any apprentice removed from the Apprenticeship Program will be ineligible to reapply.

Apprentices must continuously be enrolled at UDC-CC and remain in good academic standing. If DCHR does not see progress or evaluates the apprentice as less than ideal fit for the position, DCHR can terminate the apprentice at any time from the Apprenticeship Program.

XV. CERTIFICATE OF COMPLETION

Upon the Apprentice's satisfactory completion of the Apprenticeship Program, DCHR shall certify the names of each graduating apprentice to the DC Registration Agency and recommend that a Certificate of Completion be awarded.

XVI. GRANTING OF ADVANCE CREDIT

DCHR may, but is not required to, provide advance credit or standing to applicants for prior technical training or on-the-job learning from another registered apprenticeship program. However, if advance credits or standing are granted, the advance credits and standing will be provided up to one-fourth (¼) of the apprenticeship term and shall be granted to all applicants equally, for demonstrated competency, acquired experience, training or skills according to the advanced standing granted that is related to the Medicaid Program Support Assistant occupation. However, granting applicants credit in excess of one-fourth (¼) the apprenticeship term shall receive prior approval of the DC Apprenticeship Registration Agency. Granting of advance credit for prior technical training or on-the-job learning from another registered apprenticeship program is not granting credit of any kind to related instruction provided by UDC-CC.

XVII. MAINTENANCE OF RECORDS

Each apprentice will be required to sign a release authorizing UDC-CC to disclose his or her attendance and academic records to DCHR. DCHR shall keep adequate records of the Apprenticeship Program. These records will include, but will not be limited to the following: original applications of applicants applying to the Apprenticeship Program, selection and rejection of applicants, promotion, termination, rates of pay, evaluation of apprentice's work and training performance and any other records pertinent to a determination of compliance with these standards, as may be required by the Registration Agency. These records will be maintained for a period of five (5) years as required and made available to the Registration Agency upon request.

*DCHR - Medicaid Program Support Assistant -Apprenticeship Program
"A Pathway to District Entry Level Jobs"*

XVIII. COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

DCHR or the apprentice may consult with the representative of the D.C. Registration Agency on the differences of opinion that may arise in the interpretation of any provision of these standards.

Any controversy or difference arising under an Apprenticeship Agreement, which cannot be resolved locally, may be submitted by the apprentice or the apprentice's authorized representative to the D.C. Registration Agency for review. The complaint must be in writing and signed by the complainant, or authorized representative and submitted within sixty (60) calendar days of the final local decision. In the event of a hearing, all procedures shall be in accordance with the D.C. Apprenticeship Registration Agency Rules and Regulations sections 1110.1 through 1110.8.

XIX. APPRENTICE WAGE PROGRESSION

Wage/Compensation: Entry-Level Grade 7; Step 1: $42,273.00

To advance from program start to program completion, the apprentice shall have met the following requirements:

1. Satisfactorily completed the indicated on-the job work hours;
2. Satisfactorily completed the indicated months in the Apprenticeship Program; and
3. Satisfactorily completed the indicated related and supplemental instructional school hours

After completion of the Apprenticeship Program, the apprentice is entitled to receive within-grade increases based on the compensation policies in the District of Columbia Personnel Manual (Chapter 11).

An employee occupying a permanent position who has not reached the maximum rate of his or her grade shall be granted a within-grade increase if he or she meets all of the following requirements:

1. The employee must have completed the required waiting period for advancement to the next higher step of the grade of his or her position;

*DCHR - Medicaid Program Support Assistant -Apprenticeship Program
"A Pathway to District Entry Level Jobs"*

2. The employee must not have received an equivalent increase during the waiting period; and
3. The employee's performance rating assigned for the most recent rating period that ended prior to the completion date of the required waiting period must be either Satisfactory or better or Meets Expectations or better, as applicable.

The apprentice's advancement to the next higher step of the grade of his or her position will be as follows:

1. An apprentice will advance to Step 2, after successfully completing their apprenticeship. As a skilled Medicaid Program Support Assistant, the waiting periods for advancement to the following steps in all District Services salary schedule grades shall be as follows: Steps 3, 4 and 5, fifty-two calendar weeks of creditable work/service; and
2. Steps 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10, one hundred four calendar weeks of creditable work/service.

XX. CANCELLATION OF APPRENTICESHIP AGREEMENT

If an apprentice fails to adhere to District personnel rules and regulations or for not performing required job function DCHR may remove the apprentice pursuant to the District of Columbia Personnel Manual. The apprentice will be given the required notice and a reasonable opportunity for corrective action where appropriate as required by the District of Columbia Personnel Manual. The apprentice and Registration Agency shall be notified of final action taken.

Though not an exhaustive list, the following classes of conduct and performance deficits constitute cause and warrant disciplinary action up to removal:

- a. Failure to show progress to completion of the Apprenticeship Program;
- b. Failure to stay in good academic standing with UDC-CC;
- c. Failure to meet performance standards;
- d. Neglect of duty;
- e. Insubordination;
- f. Inability to carry out assigned responsibilities or duties;

*DCHR - Medicaid Program Support Assistant -Apprenticeship Program
"A Pathway to District Entry Level Jobs"*

- g. Conviction of a felony or criminal offense that is related to the employee's duties or his or her agency mission;
- h. Unexcused tardiness;
- i. Unauthorized absence;
- j. Sexual misconduct;
- k. Falsification of official records concerning attendance;
- l. Using, being under the influence of, or testing positive for an intoxicant while on duty.

Additionally, failure to adhere to UDC-CC policies and procedures, failure to maintain academic good academic standing, or dismissal from apprenticeship employment will result with the removal from the Apprenticeship Program. In the event an apprentice is dismissed from the Apprenticeship Program, the apprentice may choose to continue to pursue Certification from UDC-CC, if the apprentice was not expelled from UDC-CC; however, the apprentice will have to establish a method of payment as the apprentice will no longer be permitted to attend UDC-CC tuition-free. The apprentice will be responsible for any remaining tuition balance still due.

UDC-CC cannot seek reimbursement from the apprentice for tuition, textbook or other costs that have already been paid if the apprentice is terminated from the Apprenticeship Program or if the Apprenticeship Program is canceled.

XXI. DEREGISTRATION OF PROGRAM

This Apprenticeship Program may be canceled upon voluntary action of DCHR by requesting cancelation of the registration. The Apprenticeship Program may also be deregistered for reasonable cause by the D.C. Registration Agency, as outlined in section 1106 of the D.C. Apprenticeship Registration Agency Rules and Regulations.

If, at the request of DCHR, the Apprenticeship Program is canceled or the Apprenticeship Program is deregistered for reasonable cause by the D.C. Registration Agency, DCHR shall, within thirty (30) calendar days from the date of acknowledgement of action, notify all apprentices of the deregistration, the effective date and that the apprentices are no longer registered, and ensure that the apprentices receive any remittance due them.

XXII. PROVISIONS FOR MODIFCATION OR AMENDMENTS

DCHR may submit any significant proposed modifications or amendments to these Apprenticeship Standards to the D.C. Registration Agency for approval. Minor changes to the standards may be made solely by DCHR with notification to the Registration Agency. The Registration Agency will make a determination on whether to approve such modifications or changes within ninety (90) calendar days from the date of receipt. If approved, the modification or changes will be recorded and acknowledged within ninety (90) calendar days of approval as an amendment to the Apprenticeship Program. Modification or changes to these standards shall not alter conditions of apprenticeship already in effect, without the consent of all parties involved.

DCHR - Medicaid Program Support Assistant -Apprenticeship Program
"A Pathway to District Entry Level Jobs"

XXIII. NOTIFICATION

DCHR shall notify the D.C. Office of Apprenticeship on any given apprenticeship action within two (2) weeks of the action.

XXIV. WORK PROCESS

The Apprenticeship Program will combine principles of experience and training with demonstrated competency. The total program hours will be broken up into the following areas:

DCHR

C.A. No. 2019 CA 007261 P(MPA)

INITIAL ORDER AND ADDENDUM

Pursuant to D.C. Code § 11-906 and District of Columbia Superior Court Rule of Civil Procedure (“Super. Ct. Civ. R.”) 40-I, it is hereby ORDERED as follows:

(1) Effective this date, this case has assigned to the individual calendar designated below. All future filings in this case shall bear the calendar number and the judge’s name beneath the case number in the caption. On filing any motion or paper related thereto, one copy (for the judge) must be delivered to the Clerk along with the original.

(2) Within 60 days of the filing of the complaint, plaintiff must file proof of serving on each defendant: copies of the summons, the complaint, and this Initial Order and Addendum. As to any defendant for whom such proof of service has not been filed, the Complaint will be dismissed without prejudice for want of prosecution unless the time for serving the defendant has been extended as provided in Super. Ct. Civ. R. 4(m).

(3) Within 21 days of service as described above, except as otherwise noted in Super. Ct. Civ. R. 12, each defendant must respond to the complaint by filing an answer or other responsive pleading. As to the defendant who has failed to respond, a default and judgment will be entered unless the time to respond has been extended as provided in Super. Ct. Civ. R. 55(a).

(4) At the time and place noted below, all counsel and unrepresented parties shall appear before the assigned judge at an initial scheduling and settlement conference to discuss the possibilities of settlement and to establish a schedule for the completion of all proceedings, including, normally, either mediation, case evaluation, or arbitration. Counsel shall discuss with their clients prior to the conference whether the clients are agreeable to binding or non-binding arbitration. This order is the only notice that parties and counsel will receive concerning this Conference.

(5) Upon advice that the date noted below is inconvenient for any party or counsel, the Quality Review Branch (202) 879-1750 may continue the Conference once, with the consent of all parties, to either of the two succeeding Fridays. Request must be made not less than seven business days before the scheduling conference date.

No other continuance of the conference will be granted except upon motion for good cause shown.

(6) Parties are responsible for obtaining and complying with all requirements of the General Order for Civil cases, each judge’s Supplement to the General Order and the General Mediation Order. Copies of these orders are available in the Courtroom and on the Court’s website <http://www.dccourts.gov/>.

ADDENDUM TO INITIAL ORDER AFFECTING
ALL MEDICAL MALPRACTICE CASES

In accordance with the Medical Malpractice Proceedings Act of 2006, D.C. Code § 16-2801, et seq. (2007 Winter Supp.), "[a]fter an action is filed in the court against a healthcare provider alleging medical malpractice, the court shall require the parties to enter into mediation, without discovery or, if all parties agree[,] with only limited discovery that will not interfere with the completion of mediation within 30 days of the Initial Scheduling and Settlement Conference ("ISSC"), prior to any further litigation in an effort to reach a settlement agreement. The early mediation schedule shall be included in the Scheduling Order following the ISSC. Unless all parties agree, the stay of discovery shall not be more than 30 days after the ISSC." D.C. Code § 16-2821.

To ensure compliance with this legislation, on or before the date of the ISSC, the Court will notify all attorneys and pro se parties of the date and time of the early mediation session and the name of the assigned mediator. Information about the early mediation date also is available over the internet at <https://www.dccourts.gov/pa/>. To facilitate this process, all counsel and pro se parties in every medical malpractice case are required to confer, jointly complete and sign an EARLY MEDIATION FORM, which must be filed no later than ten (10) calendar days prior to the ISSC. D.C. Code § 16-2825 Two separate Early Mediation Forms are available. Both forms may be obtained at www.dccourts.gov/medmalmediation. One form is to be used for early mediation with a mediator from the multi-door medical malpractice mediator roster; the second form is to be used for early mediation with a private mediator. Both forms also are available in the Multi-Door Dispute Resolution Office, Suite 2900, 410 E Street, N.W. Plaintiff's counsel is responsible for eFiling the form and is required to e-mail a courtesy copy to earlymedmal@dcsc.gov. Pro se Plaintiffs who elect not to eFile may file by hand in the Multi-Door Dispute Resolution Office.

A roster of medical malpractice mediators available through the Court's Multi-Door Dispute Resolution Division, with biographical information about each mediator, can be found at www.dccourts.gov/medmalmediation/mediatorprofiles. All individuals on the roster are judges or lawyers with at least 10 years of significant experience in medical malpractice litigation. D.C. Code § 16-2823(a). If the parties cannot agree on a mediator, the Court will appoint one. D.C. Code § 16-2823(b).

The following persons are required by statute to attend personally the Early Mediation Conference: (1) all parties; (2) for parties that are not individuals, a representative with settlement authority; (3) in cases involving an insurance company, a representative of the company with settlement authority; and (4) attorneys representing each party with primary responsibility for the case. D.C. Code § 16-2824.

No later than ten (10) days after the early mediation session has terminated, Plaintiff must eFile with the Court a report prepared by the mediator, including a private mediator, regarding: (1) attendance; (2) whether a settlement was reached; or, (3) if a settlement was not reached, any agreements to narrow the scope of the dispute, limit discovery, facilitate future settlement, hold another mediation session, or otherwise reduce the cost and time of trial preparation. D.C. Code § 16-2826. Any Plaintiff who is pro se may elect to file the report by hand with the Civil Actions Branch. The forms to be used for early mediation reports are available at www.dccourts.gov/medmalmediation.

My name is Tameka Garner Barry, I have been working as a program analyst for approximately 7 1/2 years. Although my official title is a parking enforcement officer, a mistake that I am seeking to correct.

- On November 16,2018 I reached out to our Human Resources Manager Freddie Lebraun with the intent on obtaining the desk audit form. I received the desk audit form and was advised to speak with Angela McNair whom is the Hr Specialist for classification. In November 2018 I reached out to Angela McNair via phone with the intent on setting up a meeting for the desk audit. December 12,2018 Ms. McNair informed me that she would come to my office, however, that did not occur. On December 20, 2018 at 11:00 am Ms. McNair and I met at her office per her request to discuss the desk audit.
- The desk audit did not occur. Ms. McNair requested my resume. Ms. McNair informed me that if I pursued with getting the desk audit done, that retaliation would occur and she could not assist me.
- On May 9, 2019 Ms. Jenkins along with Lynsi Burts conducted the desk audit with my coworkers and I. The desk audit occurred in our office .

- July 23,2019- I received the desk audit from Supervisor Lorraine Green via email
- On the 2nd page of the desk Audit report that I have attached for your review, Angela McNair's signature is present. However, Ms. Green stated in the emails that Ms. McNair would not be working with this desk audit, she assigned Tenisha Jenkins.
- On page 7, of the desk audit it stated that on February 25,2019 , a position clarification review was completed. I was not present at work on February 25,2019. I have attached a copy of my time sheet for your review.

- July 25,2019 Appealed desk audit with the Director of DCHR

- September 20,2019- Classifications specialist Mbambo, McEwan arrived at my agency to do a 2nd desk audit. In my opinion he appeared unprepared. Throughout our entire meeting, I had to keep informing him about the emails that I sent. In addition, I informed him that the initial desk audit involved my other 2 coworkers as well, he informed me that he had no awareness of this. I asked him to review the program and duties that we were performing, but he informed me that it was not necessary.

- October 11,2019- I received an email from DCHR with the desk audit result that was completed on October 3,2019.

My name is Tameka Garner Barry; I have been working as a program analyst for approximately 7 1/2 years. Although, my official title is a parking enforcement officer. I am appealing a desk audit decision conducted by DCHR.

For approximately 7 1/2 years, I have worked in Tic Pic operating as an program analyst. Tic Pic is a program that was created to drive down the officers' error rates, reduce the amount of overturned tickets via the adjudication process, and reduce the number of challenged tickets by eventually allowing the public access to the same data base through a public portal. On a daily basis I track and evaluate operational and program performance. I independently identify and resolve issues and prepare and present reports and sound recommendations. My duties consist of evaluating issued parking citations in comparison to submitted ticket pictures to determine the citation's validity and integrity. I reject ticket pictures and determine unsupportive of the relative parking citation, utilizing the Mobile Enforcement System (MES) Officer Command Center. I approve ticket pictures for public posting which are found to substantiate the relative parking citation, utilizing the Mobile Enforcement System (MES) Officer Command Center. I communicate priority requests to internal and external customers.. On a daily basis I develop and maintain strong professional relationships with key customers internally and externally. Our customers included the Parking Enforcement Management Team, The Booting and Towing division, Customer Service Dispatch Unit, DMV, City Council and GTechna.

I used advanced qualitative and quantitative methods to analyze the effectiveness of the Ticpic program. I extract and record officers' errors identified during the Tic Pix Program review process. Based on officers' error frequency, I make recommendations to the appropriate training and supervisory staff regarding training or performance counseling needs. I convey the Mobile Enforcement System (MES) Officer Command Center's problems and malfunctions to the appropriate parties. I monitor and report the daily production of reviewed parking citations and ticket pictures in contrast to the records remaining. I conduct analyses of statistical data queried and identified during the Tic Pix Program review process for supervisory and managerial consideration. I provide high level summaries of complex data included in reports, studies and city council. I reconcile data received from external sources compared to information retrieved during the Tic Pix Program review process. I prepare daily programmatic reports and briefing summarizing production progress, providing data management and analysis for establishing trends and patterns and maintained assigned projects. I am required to attend management trainings and staff meetings. According to the desk audit this positions was rated as a grade 8.

The parking officer position is a grade 6. As a parking enforcement officer, my duties consisted of patrolling the streets in an assigned area on foot or in a vehicle to cite illegally parked vehicles and to enforce motor vehicle parking regulations. In addition, I recorded license plate numbers into the handheld systems. I investigated resident, business, visitor and government agency requests for parking enforcement services received through the Mayor's City-wide call center. In addition, I determined if there were violations and if they were appropriate actions were made to satisfy the service requests by issuing citations, requesting towing or recommending to the appropriate official action to alleviate the problem. As a parking officer I was required daily to operate and monitor a radio transmitter which enabled me to keep in contact with appropriate officials and dispatch centers to inform them of any circumstances requiring police or emergency assistance and acts in accordance with instructions received.

The overall purpose of the work as a parking enforcement officer is to insure and enforce public safety, security and in some cases the free flowing of commerce. Excessive illegal parking in the downtown business and commercial districts can increase peak hour traffic congestion and put transit and ride sharing at a competitive disadvantage.

My work was utilized at the benefit of the agency and the program, but I did not receive an equivalent benefit. Therefore, I am requesting to be upgrade to a Program Analyst ranging from the grade 9-11. In addition I am requesting back pay for 7 ½ years and retroactive seniority. Last but not least no retaliation.

Thankyou

Respectfully

Tameka Garner Barry

D.C. DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN RESOURCES

MEMORANDUM

Office of the Director

To: Tameka Garner Barry, Parking Enforcement Officer, Department of Public Works

From:  Ventris C. Gibson, Director, Department of Human Resources

Date: Thursday, October 3, 2019

Subject: Classification Appeal Decision

This is in response to your classification appeal dated August 8, 2019. I have reviewed the information you submitted, along with the information prepared by DCHR classification team, and determined the final classification of your position. Based upon my review, I am upholding the original classification decision that your position is properly classified as a Parking Enforcement Officer, CS-1802-08.

According to our reviews you are responsible for reviewing parking tickets issued by Parking Enforcement Officers under the TicPlx program - a program that allows motorists to view pictures of the violations for which they received a ticket so that they can understand why tickets were issued. In this role, you review parking citations issued by parking enforcement officers who work in the field to determine their validity and integrity. You approve substantiated tickets and reject those that cannot be substantiated. You enter tickets with errors in another database (the ErrorLog) so that supervisors (Supervisory Parking Enforcement Officers) can take appropriate action by, say, nullifying them.

DCHR found that your work assignments closely match the description of support work. Employees performing support work follow established methods and procedures. They have specific boundaries narrowly restricting their work. They use a limited variety of techniques, standards, or regulations. Support work involves handling problems which are often recurring and have precedents. Like support work, your assignments are of a continuing, repetitive nature typical of a data entry clerk's work environment. You perform duties including receiving tickets (pictures taken by field staff) through an automated OfficerCommand database, reviewing them for accuracy of the violation cited and entering data into another database (Error Log), if errors are identified.

Your position is appropriately assigned to the Compliance, Inspection and Support Series, CS-1802. That series includes positions which perform or supervise inspectional or technical support work in assuring compliance with or enforcement of the law, regulations, or other mandatory guidelines and which are not classifiable in another, more specific, occupational series. The work requires knowledge of prescribed procedures, established techniques, directly applicable guidelines, and pertinent characteristics of regulated items or activities. Similar to positions in the CS-1802 series, you provide administrative and technical support to the Department of Public Works' parking enforcement program and staff by ensuring that parking citations are valid for the type of violation reported by parking enforcement officers in the field and are in full compliance with prescribed agency policies and techniques.

As stated in the memorandum from Lorraine Green, Human Resources Manager dated July 23, 2019. Your official position is classified as a Parking Enforcement Officer, CS-1802-08, Management has decided to include the work performed under the TicPix Program in the official position of all Parking Enforcement Officer positions. We agree with Management's decision to use this work to assign employees to perform this work on a temporary, as needed basis, rather than downgrading the position to a grade 6 level. Therefore, your official position will remain Parking Enforcement Officer, grade 8.

As provided in § 1110, Position Classification Appeals, of Chapter 11A of the D.C. personnel regulations, Classification, this serves as the final decision from DCHR concerning this matter. Pursuant to § 1110.6 of Chapter 11A, you may appeal this decision to the Superior Court of the District of Columbia.

Parking Enforcement Officer
CS-1802-08

INTRODUCTION

This position is located in the Parking Enforcement Division, Parking Enforcement Management Administration in the Department of Public Works. The Parking Enforcement Division has responsibility to insure the adequate availability of parking in commercial, business areas and in neighborhoods through the enforcement of meter parking regulations, neighborhood zone parking and other general parking regulations. The enforcement of these parking regulations ensures driver and pedestrian safety; continuous flow of traffic during rush hours and emergencies; accessibility to commercial and business services; free flow and access of emergency vehicles and improved quality of life for residents and visitors.

The incumbent of this position wears a uniform and badge. The incumbent is responsible for explaining and enforcing the multitude of parking and traffic codes of the District of Columbia. These codes include parking, vehicular and pedestrian traffic. It is expected that the incumbent of this position will be required to work any shift, rotating shifts, weekends and holidays and may be required to work overtime.

MAJOR DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Parking Enforcement Officer patrols the streets in an assigned area on foot or in an official government vehicle to cite illegally parked vehicles and to enforce motor vehicle parking regulations.

Records identifying information into hand held computer. Investigates resident, business, visitor and government agency requests for parking enforcement services received through the Mayor's City-wide Call Center, by telephone, mail, electronic correspondence or personal contacts.

Incumbent determines if there is a violation and takes the appropriate action to satisfy the service request by issuing citations, requesting towing or recommending to the appropriate official action to alleviate the problem.

Investigates customer inquiries regarding the status of vehicles for more than 72 consecutive hours on the public roadway or on other public spaces. Determines if vehicles should be cited for parking violations or identifies the vehicles as abandoned based on current legal criteria and recommends removal.

Identifies and documents malfunctioning parking meters, and conflicting or missing parking signs or traffic control signs. Submits a written account of the meter and sign locations to the appropriate official for action. The missing sign or malfunctioning meters are called in via cellular radio when they present undue hardships for the customer.

Operates and monitors a radio transmitter to keep in contact with appropriate officials and dispatch centers to inform them of any circumstances requiring police or emergency assistance and acts in accordance with instructions received.

Parking Enforcement Officer
CS-1802-08

Maintains daily logs to document actions taken in line of duty and prepares detailed reports describing unusual problems encountered or instances observed relating to parking control.

Appears at adjudication hearings and other hearings associated with disputed tickets and citations to present justification relating to contested citations. Incumbent is responsible for explaining parking and traffic regulations.

Provides information and directions in response to questions about routes of travel, points of interest, distances and related matters to the public.

Participates, as required, in pilot projects, e.g. "Georgetown Night Patrol" and "Principal Tow Patrol".

Serves as a rotational member of the "TicPix" program. Reviews ticket pictures for public posting, evaluates issued parking citations in comparison to submitted ticket pictures to determine the citation's validity and integrity.

Identifies and submits ticket errors to the IT Team and the supervisor.

Performs other duties as assigned.

KNOWLEDGE REQUIRED BY THE POSITION

Knowledge of Public Safety and Security to include; relevant equipment, policies, procedures and strategies to promote effective local security operations for the protection of people, property and institutions.

Knowledge of communication and information dissemination techniques and methods to keep residents, visitors, business owners, parking and traffic violators informed of rules, regulations, codes governing parking and traffic.

Knowledge of the District of Columbia's parking enforcement laws, regulations, codes, Mayor's orders, and Agency rules, to effectively administer parking enforcement.

Knowledge of geographical layout of the District of Columbia in order to provide directions, identify alternative routes to visitors and residents.

Knowledge of administrative processes, rules and procedures in order to complete reports, collect information and prepare daily logs of parking and traffic enforcement activities.

Skill in writing and the ability to prepare reports, daily logs and other required documents.

Skill in conveying ideas, concepts and decisions verbally in order to support or sustain citations written, defend recommendations.

Parking Enforcement Officer
CS-1802-08

Skill in reading comprehension, and the ability to interpret reports, rules, regulations, DC code, and other legal instruments.

Ability to operate a hand held computer in order to input information and to receive information pertaining to parking and traffic enforcement activities.

Ability to operate a hand held radio in order to communicate with appropriate officials during emergencies or other important circumstances.

SUPERVISORY CONTROLS

The incumbent works under the general supervision and direction of a Supervisory Parking Enforcement Officer and receives guidance and instruction from a Senior Lead Parking Enforcement Officer. The supervisor and/or the senior or Lead Parking Enforcement Officer and the incumbent discuss assignments and jointly outline objectives to be achieved. The discussion for parking enforcement activities includes a general review of assigned patrol area issues, special concerns of business owners or residents and other pertinent information that will assist the Parking Enforcement Officers to carry out their assignments. The incumbent independently carries out assignments, only seeking assistance in extremely abnormal circumstances. Daily logs and reports are reviewed for completeness, understandability, and compliance with rules, regulations, laws, orders and procedure.

The supervisor and/or senior/leader discusses with incumbent the activities associated with the overall requirements and expectations. Objectives are outlined. The incumbent carries out assignments, in accordance with instructions. The supervisor conducts random checks to determine compliance with guidelines and instructions. Contacts the appropriate officials within the police department or other departments or agencies based on their personal observation of situations and circumstances associated with difficult situations or problems. Articulates clearly the situation and makes recommendations.

GUIDELINES

Guidelines include complex and a wide variety of rules, regulations, laws, codes of the District of Columbia government as well as federal government components. Some of these include: residential regulations; registration and reciprocity requirements; business district requirements; loading zone enforcement; posted sign enforcement; handicapped regulations; embassy zone enforcement; diplomatic enforcement; homeland security restrictions and regulations; state of emergency enforcement. Extreme judgment must be exercised in carrying out the parking enforcement functions to ensure the citations given are in fact valid and meet all the requirements for that particular area.

Parking Enforcement Officer
CS-1802-08

COMPLEXITY

The assignments of the Parking Enforcement Officer involves the application of a wide variety of complex rules, regulations, laws, codes, and practices associated with the performance of parking enforcement activities. The applicable rule or regulation may change from block to block, within an assigned block and may vary from neighborhood to neighborhood. The incumbent must have total mastery of the multitude of options available to them in determining the best course of action in determining if a citation should be written, the vehicle tagged as abandoned, or other appropriate action.

SCOPE AND EFFECT

The purpose of the work is to insure and enforce public safety, security and in some cases the free flowing of commerce. Excessive illegal parking in the downtown business and commercial districts can increase peak hour traffic congestion and put transit and ride sharing at a competitive disadvantage. Inadequate enforcement of curbside regulations can force delivery vehicles to unload in moving lanes causing safety and traffic problems. Traffic and public safety hazards contribute to diminished sight distances at intersections, reduced effective road widths, obstructed and inaccessible fire hydrants and alleys and blocked crosswalks. Illegal parking causes safety hazards, interferes with transit services, increases bus travel times and causes the blocking of access to bus stops. Effective parking management has an impact on accessibility of services, reducing hazards to drivers and pedestrians, adverse environmental impacts of traffic congestions, decreasing commuter intrusion in residential neighborhoods, increasing availability of customer parking and truck access for businesses and determining driver violation recidivism.

PERSONAL CONTACTS

Personal contacts include citizens, visitors, business owners, members of other departments and agencies such as the Metropolitan Police Department, and other DC agencies and the federal government.

PURPOSE OF CONTACTS

The purpose of these contacts is to provide directions obtain information, clarify information, clarify and interpret applicable regulations to motorists protesting citations and impound actions. Contacts are to explain and provide directions to visitors using a thorough knowledge of the City. Contacts are also for the purpose of notification of violation, complying with service requests, providing information on enforcement activities, ticket issuance policies and procedures. Contacts provide explanations to owners of towed vehicles the procedures to retrieve, and provide the answers to a wide range of questions from both visitors and residents concerning the location of traffic routes to historical and cultural sites of interests. Many of the individuals encountered concerning parking rules regulations and citations, are uncooperative and argumentative.

Parking Enforcement Officer

PHYSICAL DEMANDS

The work requires extensive walking up to 10 miles during a period of up to 7 hours or driving and data entry for up to 7 hours. Driving, bending and carrying light items, such as hand held computers, hand held radios, belt mounted ticket books and printer. The incumbent wears a required distinctive uniform. The incumbent is exposed to severe weather conditions including rain, snow, and sleet, heavy pollen, and hot and cold temperatures.

WORK ENVIRONMENT

The majority of the work is performed outdoors in all types of weather. The incumbent is exposed to noise and vehicular exhaust. The incumbent also is exposed to hostile and uncooperative behavior and potential abuse from members of the general public.

OTHER SIGNIFICANT FACTORS

LICENSURE

The incumbent must possess and maintain a valid driver's license.

The incumbent must wear a prescribed distinctive uniform throughout the tour of duty.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS

NOTE: The incumbent of this position will be subject to enhanced suitability screening pursuant to Chapter 4 of DC Personnel regulations, Suitability. This position has been designated as a safety sensitive position.

DCHR Classification Decision: Parking Enforcement Officer, CS-1802-08

Introduction

On August 8, 2019, the D.C. Department of Human Resources (DCHR) received a position classification appeal request from Ms. Tameka Garner Barry, who occupies a position of Parking Enforcement Officer, CS-1802-08, in the Department of Public Works. Ms. Garner Barry requested that her position be classified as Program Analyst at the CS-11 grade level.

This classification appeal decision was decided by considering the audit findings and all information of record furnished by Ms. Garner Barry and DPW, including her official position description of record dated July 22, 2019.

Classification Standards Referenced

Position Information

Ms. Garner Barry is responsible for reviewing parking tickets issued by Parking Enforcement Officers under the TicPix program - a program that allows motorists to view pictures of the violations for which they received a ticket so that they can understand why tickets were issued. In this role, Ms. Garner Barry reviews parking citations issued by parking enforcement officers in the field to determine their validity and integrity. She approves substantiated tickets and rejects those that cannot be substantiated. She enters tickets with errors in another database (the ErrorLog) so that supervisors (Supervisory Parking Enforcement Officers) can take appropriate action by, say, nullifying them. According to Ms. Garner Barry, she reviews up to a thousand tickets per day.

Series, Title, and Standard Determination

Ms. Tameka Garner Barry's position is assigned to the Compliance Inspection and Support Series, GS-1802, and titled Parking Enforcement Officer. However, Ms. Garner Barry believes that her duties and responsibilities warrant classification to the Management and Program Analysis Series, GS-343.

To decide the proper series, we must first determine whether the work performed by Ms. Garner Barry is one-grade interval administrative support or two-grade interval administrative in nature. Guidance on distinguishing between one-grade and two-grade interval work is available in The Classifier's Handbook.

Ms. Garner Barry's work assignments closely match the description of support work. Employees performing support work follow established methods and procedures. They have specific boundaries narrowly restricting their work. They use a limited variety of techniques, standards, or regulations. Support work involves handling problems which are often recurring and have precedents. Like support work, Ms. Garner Barry's assignments are of a continuing, repetitive nature typical of a data entry clerk's work environment. She performs duties including receiving tickets (pictures taken by field staff) through an automated OfficerCommand database, reviewing them for accuracy of the violation cited and entering data into another database (Error Log), if errors are identified.

Ms. Garner Barry's position is appropriately assigned to the Compliance, Inspection and Support Series, GS-1802. That series includes positions which perform or supervise inspectional or technical support work in assuring compliance with or enforcement of the law, regulations, or other mandatory guidelines and which are not classifiable in another, more specific, occupational series. The work requires knowledge of prescribed procedures, established techniques, directly applicable guidelines, and pertinent characteristics of regulated items or activities. Similar to positions in the GS-1802 series, Ms. Garner Barry provides administrative and technical support to the agency's parking enforcement program and staff by ensuring that parking citations are valid for the type of violation reported by parking enforcement officers in the field and are in full compliance with prescribed agency policies and techniques.

Ms. Garner Barry's position is currently titled and classified as Parking Enforcement Officer. The standard for the GS-1802 series prescribes no titles for positions in that series. Therefore, the agency may use any appropriate title consistent with the titling instructions in Part III of the Introduction to the Position Classification Standards.

The standard for the GS-1802 series contains no grading criteria. Depending on the kind of work performed, positions classified in that series are evaluated by reference to classification guides and standards for specific occupational series involving analogous knowledge and skills. To evaluate Ms. Garner Barry's duties we have cross referenced to the grading criteria in the Position Classification Standard for Management and Program Clerical and Assistance Series, GS-344, in conjunction with the Primary Standard.

Grade Determination

The GS-344 series includes positions involved in supervising or performing clerical and technical work in support of management analysis and program analysis, the purposes of which are to evaluate and improve the efficiency, effectiveness, and productivity of organizations and programs. The grading criteria in the GS-344 standard may be used to determine the grade of a position in another series when the nature of the work is equivalent to the intent of the factor level descriptions and work illustrations in this standard. Although Ms. Garner Barry's work is not appropriately classified in this series, the kind of work processes and functions involved in her duties, as well as the level of difficulty and responsibility of her work, are sufficiently comparable to those outlined in the GS-344 standard to support application of the criteria.

The GS-344 standard is published in the Factor Evaluation System (FES) format. Under the FES, positions are evaluated by comparing the duties, responsibilities, and qualifications required with nine factors common to nonsupervisory positions. A point value is assigned to each factor in accordance with the factor-level descriptions. For each factor, the full intent of the level must be met to credit the points for that level. The total points assigned for the nine factors are converted to a grade by reference to the grade conversion table in the standard. A factor-by-factor analysis of the appealed work is provided.

As stated in the Classifier's Handbook, the Primary Standard establishes factor levels in broad conceptual terms. As a result, the Primary Standard may not be used alone to classify a position except to point rate an individual position factor when that factor fails to meet the lowest, or exceeds the highest, factor level in the applicable FES standard. Hence it has been used for those factors that were deemed to have exceeded the highest factor levels described in the GS-344 standard.

Factor 1, Knowledge required by the position - Level 1-4 (550 Points)

This factor measures the nature and extent of information or facts a worker must understand in order to do acceptable work and the nature and extent of skills needed to apply these knowledges.

Work at Level 1-3 requires a practical knowledge of a body of established clerical or technical procedures and requirements related to the assigned management and/or program analysis duty or task. It also requires a general knowledge of one or a few similar, established, and relatively stable management or program operations. In addition, some of the work requires one or more of the following: skill in compiling readily available data from prescribed sources and recognizing and correcting obvious discrepancies and data omissions; knowledge of the basic principles of arithmetic to use established formulas to make routine calculations such as standard production rates, staff hours, or funding use; or familiarity with one or more established automated systems to enter, correct, and retrieve factual information, compile reports, produce charts and graphs, or monitor project or program status. Employees use this knowledge to perform a full range of standard duties, tasks, or assignments and to resolve recurring problems.

Level 1-4 requires knowledge of an extensive body of management and/or program analysis technical rules, guidelines, regulations, and precedents. It also requires knowledge of the basic objectives and policies governing various management or program operations. Some work also requires skill in basic data gathering methods, such as standard interviewing, to collect various types of factual information. Some employees also apply knowledge of the standardized processes and procedures for evaluating management or program operations to perform duties such as planning the steps to take to complete assignments, identifying problems from collected data, and selecting solutions from alternatives in guidelines and precedent cases. Some employees also use writing skills to prepare clear, concise reports that describe the data collection techniques and other processes and procedures used, conditions of management or program operations, and recommended improvements. Employees apply this knowledge to individual, nonstandard technical assignments whether the nature of these assignments stems from a changing mix of work or represents diversity within a defined management or program operation. Assignments may involve limited aspects of higher level work.

The knowledge required and nature of skills needed by Ms. Garner Barry to perform her work fully meet but do not exceed Level 1-4. She uses her knowledge of the parking enforcement laws when reviewing tickets in the database. She clicks on the ticket to open and visually see the vehicle's license plate, make and the cited violation and compares it to the applicable law to determine its validity. She has to be knowledgeable of the different areas of parking violations to accept or reject the ticket.

Level 1-4 is credited for 550 points.

Factor 2, Supervisory controls - Level 2-4 (450 points)

This factor considers the nature and extent of direct or indirect controls exercised by the supervisor, the employee's responsibility, and the review of completed work.

At Level 2-3, the supervisor defines the objectives, priorities, and deadlines for projects or assignments and assists the employee with unusual situations, problems, or studies that do not have clear precedents. The employee plans and carries out the successive steps of technical projects and assignments and handles problems in accordance with policies or accepted practices. The supervisor evaluates completed work for technical soundness, appropriateness of conclusions or recommendations, consistency, relevance of support material, and compliance with policies and requirements. The methods used in arriving at the end results are not reviewed in detail.

At Level 2-4, the supervisor sets the overall objectives and resources available. The employee and supervisor, in consultation, develop deadlines, projects, and work to be done. The employee, having developed expertise in the line of work, is responsible for planning and carrying out the assignment, resolving most of the conflicts that arise, coordinating the work with others as necessary, and interpreting policy on own initiative in terms of established objectives. In some assignments, the employee also determines the approach to be taken and the methodology to be used. The employee keeps the supervisor informed of progress and potentially controversial matters. Completed work is reviewed only from an overall standpoint in terms of feasibility, compatibility with other work, or effectiveness in meeting requirements or expected results.

Ms. Garner Barry's position fully meets but does not exceed the supervisory controls described at Level 2-4 in the Primary Standard. The supervisor determines the objectives of the TicPix program but provides limited supervision. Ms. Garner Barry, in conjunction with her supervisor, develop targets for the review of tickets and she independently reviews and analyses tickets in the database.

Level 2-4 is credited for 450 points.

Factor 3, Guidelines - Level 3-3 (275 points)

This factor covers the nature of the guidelines used and the judgment needed to apply them. At Level 3-2, a number of established instructions and procedures for doing the work are readily available and clearly applicable to most assignments. The number and similarity of guidelines and work situations require the employee to use judgment in locating, selecting, and applying the most appropriate instructions, references, or procedures to technical assignments. The employee refers situations involving significant deviations from established guidelines to the supervisor for guidance or resolution.

At Level 3-3, guidelines lack specificity or are not completely applicable to the work requirements, circumstances, or problems because of the unique or complicating characteristics of the assignments. The employee uses judgment in interpreting and adapting guidelines to apply to specific situations such as determining the cause or extent of deviations from established production rates or resource use or determining whether an organization's proposed directives, publications, or functional statements are within the scope of its established delegated authority or assigned function.

The guidelines used and the judgment required to apply them in Ms. Garner Barry's position fully meet but do not exceed Level 3-3. Guidelines used by Ms. Garner Barry include parking enforcement laws, codes and regulations as well DPW's policies, procedures and objectives of the parking enforcement program, including TicPix program. She uses judgment in applying these guidelines to the specifics involved in each unique case in order to identify and determine what is relevant to the cited violation.

Level 3-3 is credited with 275 points.

Factor 4, Complexity - Level 4-3 (150 points)

This factor covers the nature, number, variety, and intricacy of tasks, steps, processes, or methods in the work performed; the difficulty in identifying what needs to be done; and the difficulty and originality involved in performing the work.

The work at Level 4-2 consists of duties involving related procedures, processes, or methods to perform individual technical assignments or tasks. The employee decides what needs to be done by identifying easily recognizable differences in the basic characteristics and nature of one or a few similar program operations. The operations involve easily identifiable steps and procedures or clear-cut processes, structures, and workflow. The employee identifies the basic instructions and procedures to follow from among a few established procedural alternatives related to the specific function. The employee considers the nature of the duty, basic purposes and other characteristics of the operations involved, or readily available sources of information to complete routine or standard assignments.

At Level 4-3, the work consists of various duties, projects, or assignments involving different and unrelated technical processes and procedures. Assignments involve various actions or steps that are not completely standardized or prescribed in precedent cases; adaptation or modification of established procedures and methods; various types and sources of information; and nonrecurring problems, trends, or issues. The employee decides what needs to be done by considering the characteristics, practices, objectives, and interrelationships of various program operations. The employee studies and analyzes issues such as the nature of the assignments; the various sources of information; the nature and requirements of the operations; and the applicability of precedent cases, rules, and objectives. The employee selects, adapts, and applies the most suitable practices, procedures, methods, and precedents to collect and analyze various types of information, formulate conclusions, define needs, and/or make recommendations for resolving problems to higher level employees.

The complexity of Ms. Garner Barry's work fully meets but does not exceed that described at Level 4-3. She uses established procedures and methods to conduct fact-finding on numerous parking tickets and to report the results by either accepting the citation as correct or rejecting it and entering the information into an ErrorLog. Problems encountered in her assignments involve discovering and establishing facts of the issued tickets by applying appropriate parking regulatory guidelines. She reviews extensive amounts of technical data in identifying and isolating the photographic images of tickets. She must determine if there is sufficient information to substantiate the citation.

Level 4-3 is credited for 150 points.

Factor 5, Scope and Effect - Level 5-3 (150 points)

This factor covers the relationship between the nature of the work and the effect of work products or services within and outside the organization.

At Level 5-2, the purpose of the work is to apply specific rules, regulations, or procedures to perform a full range of clerical and technical tasks, duties, and assignments. These assignments typically comprise a complete segment of a broad project, study, or process. The work affects the accuracy, reliability, quality, and timeliness of products, recommendations, studies, projects, and processes.

At Level 5-3, the purpose of the work is to plan and carry out assignments or projects to improve the efficiency and productivity of program operations. Employees use established methods, practices, and criteria to identify, study, and recommend solutions for resolving conventional problems or questions. The work affects the evaluation and improvement of operating program efficiency and effectiveness and the use and management of staff, funding, equipment, and other resources.

The scope and effect of Ms. Garner Barry's position fully meet but do not exceed that depicted at Level 5-3. She retrieves parking ticket data (images) and analyzes evidence of the violation which impacts ongoing parking inspections and adjudication cases.

Level 5-3 is credited for 150 points.

Factor 6, Personal contacts, and Factor 7, Purpose of contacts - Level 2b (75 points)

These factors include face-to-face contacts and telephone dialogue with persons not in the supervisory chain and pertain to the reasons the contacts are made.

The standard describes two levels of persons contacted. At Level 1, contacts are with employees within the immediate organization, office, project, or work unit. The contacts typically include other support personnel, management analysts, program analysts, administrative officers, or managers. Some positions at this level may involve contacts with members of the general public in very structured situations. At Level 2, contacts are with employees in the same agency, but outside the immediate organization. Persons contacted are managers, employees, and other representatives of the programs involved or organizations served. Some positions at this level may involve contacts with members of the general public, as individuals or groups, in moderately structured settings.

The standard also describes two levels for the purpose of contacts. At Level a, the purpose of the contacts is to obtain, clarify, or provide facts or information. At Level b, the purpose of the contacts is to plan, coordinate, or advise on work efforts; discuss significant findings; or resolve operating problems by influencing or motivating individuals or groups who are working toward mutual goals.

Ms. Garner Barry has contacts with employees from other DPW administrations and members of the public. These contacts are comparable to those described in Level 2 under Persons Contacted. The purpose of her contacts is to exchange information concerning evidence for the violation. The purpose of her contacts is equivalent to Level b.

Level 2b is credited for 75 points.

Factor 8, Physical demands - Level 8-1 (5 points)

This factor covers the requirements and physical demands placed on the employee by the work assignments. This includes physical characteristics and abilities and the physical exertion involved in the work.

The physical requirements involved in Ms. Garner Barry's work are a match for Level 8-1. Her work is primarily sedentary.

Level 8-1 is credited for 5 points.

Factor 9, Work environment - Level 9-1 (5 points)

This factor considers the risks and discomforts in the employee's physical surroundings and the safety regulations required.

The work environment of Ms. Garner Barry's position compares to Level 9-1 because the work is mostly performed in an office setting.

Level 9-1 is credited for 5 points.

Summary

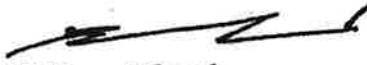

The table below summarizes the evaluation.

FACTOR	LEVEL	POINTS
1. Knowledge Required By The Position	1-4	550
2. Supervisory Controls	2-4	450
3. Guidelines	3-3	275
4. Complexity	4-3	150
5. Scope and Effect	5-3	150
6. Personal Contacts, and 7. Purpose of Contacts	2b (6-2 & 7b)	75
8. Physical Demands	8-1	5
9. Work Environment	9-1	5
TOTAL		1660

The total of 1660 points falls within the GS-08 range (1605 - 1850) on the grade conversion table provided in the Primary Standard.

Notice is hereby given that Petitioner John McFarland, by and through counsel, appeals to the Superior Court of the District of Columbia (“Superior Court”) from the District of Columbia Department of Human Resources (“DCHR”) Final Decision dated November 5, 2019 and issued on November 18, 2019. A copy of the Final Decision and Exhibits sought to be reviewed is attached to this petition.

Petitioner was employed at District of Columbia Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs (“DCRA”) and requested a desk audit on March 8, 2011. Initially, Peter Delate of DCHR was assigned to conduct Petitioner’s desk audit. The DCHR claims that Mr. Delate left before completing the audit’s conclusion, and Leon Norman from DCHR completed the desk audit on October 28, 2013, stating that Petitioner was correctly classified as a Grade 9. Petitioner filed a Classification Appeal and later appealed the decision to this Court and the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia (“Court of Appeals”). On February 16, 2017, the Court of Appeals stated Petitioner did not show the existence of a signed Classification Desk Audit Decision.

Petitioner subsequently submitted FOIA requests, and as part of the response, Petitioner received evidence that Mr. Delate completed Petitioner’s desk audit before his departure and recommended Petitioner be upgraded to a Grade 11. Based on this new information previously withheld by the DCHR throughout the three appeals, Petitioner requested that the DCHR reconsider its October 28, 2013 Classification Desk Audit Decision on August 28, 2017. The DCHR concluded “there is insufficient evidence to warrant reconsideration.”

Petitioner appealed the decision to the Superior Court of the District of Columbia (“Superior Court”). See McFarland v. Dist. Of Columbia Dept. of Human Resources, 2017 CA 007722 P(MPA) (D.C. Sup. Ct. September 17, 2019). The DCHR submitted a 223-page administrative record to the Superior Court in reference to the case on February 22, 2018, which was incomplete and did not contain Mr. Delate’s decision. The Superior Court held that the “exclusion of the May 2011 Classification Appeal Decision was clearly erroneous. As the Agency’s decision in the instant case was dependent upon an erroneous Agency record,” the Superior Court vacated and remanded the decision. See id. In reaching its decision, the Superior Court found the Agency's argument challenging the standard of Mr. Delate's 2011 determination irrelevant. Id.

The DCHR then directed Dr. Keisha Hawkins, Associate Director of the HRSA to advise the DCHR on "which decision [Peter Delate or Leon Norman's decision] was made in accordance with approved position classification standards." Dr. Hawkins did not receive the entire 223-page administrative record and instead received 23 pages picked from the administrative record. Dr. Hawkins selected Leon Norman's decision based on the requested comparison of the 23 pages, and DCHR affirmed Leon Norman's decision in its Final Decision. The DCHR's final decision did not address the critical failings noted by the Superior Court. The DCHR cites no legal authority that authorizes it to make Petitioner's classification appeal decision based on a comparison of which classification decision better conforms with standards – even though it is entirely possible that neither abide by the standard – based on ten percent of the administrative record.

Petitioner hereby files this Petition for Review of the DCHR Final Decision dated November 5, 2019 and issued on November 18, 2019.

Apt. 716
New Carrollton, MD 20784Subject: Classification Appeal Determination: Confirmed

Dear Mr. McFarland,

The District of Columbia Department of Human Resources (DCHR) received a letter from you dated August 28, 2017, in which you requested that the October 28, 2013 Classification Desk Audit Decision (and subsequent 2014 Classification Appeal decision) in your case be reversed. As you know, DCHR reviewed your request and responded to you in a letter dated October 16, 2017. In that letter, DCHR explained that it had reviewed the information available to it, including the documents included with your request and the case records in your District of Columbia Superior Court and D.C. Court of Appeals matters, and determined that it did not have sufficient reason to reconsider the 2013 decision.

Since that correspondence, you have provided additional documentation, including a document prepared by Peter Delate with a signature date of May 3, 2011, titled "Classification Appeal Decision." On May 15, 2019, you entered this document into the Superior Court record in Case No. 2017 CA 007722 P(MPA) attached to your Opening Brief as Exhibit 7. On September 17, 2019, the Court issued an Order signed by Judge Robert Rigsby stating that, given the availability of the 2011 document, its exclusion from the Agency Record (and thus from the decision-making process leading to the October 16, 2017 decision) was erroneous. Judge Rigsby vacated Case No. 2017 CA 007722 P(MPA) and remanded it back to DCHR to reconsider the October 16, 2017 decision with the additional documents in the record.

In accordance with the Court's Order, DCHR is now issuing a decision with thorough consideration of both the 2011 classification audit documents you provided, and the 2013 and 2014 determinations. To conduct our reconsideration, DCHR requested a review of the revised record from a Classification team member without any prior involvement in your case. DCHR provided both of the 2011 determination documents (the memo titled "Desk Audit of Mr. John T. McFarland, Program Support Specialist," dated March 30, 2011 and prepared by Mr. Delate; and the document titled "Classification Appeal Decision," dated May 3, 2011 and prepared by Mr. Delate). DCHR also provided the Classification team with the 2013 document titled "Classification Desk Audit Decision" prepared by Lewis Norman and issued by Karla Kirby on October 28, 2013; and the 2014 "Classification Appeal Decision" prepared by Lewis Norman and issued by Shawn Stokes on July 16, 2014. DCHR requested that the Classification team member review all the documents, and provide a determination as to whether either, neither, or both of the classification appeal determinations comported with established classification standards such that DCHR could confidently rely on the determination.

The Classification team's review of the requested documents is memorialized in the attached memorandum. The Classification team determined that the 2011 classification review prepared by Mr. Delate did not comport with established classification standards. The October 28, 2013 Classification Desk Audit Decision prepared by Mr. Norman and the ensuing 2014 Classification Appeal Decision issued by DCHR on July 16, 2014, however, were in compliance with the established method used by the Classification team for an audit. Therefore, DCHR concludes that the 2014 decision that your role as a Program Support Specialist was correctly classified as a Grade 9 was properly founded and will stand.

This serves as a final decision from DCHR concerning this matter. Pursuant to §1110.6 of Chapter 11A of the D.C. personnel regulations, final decisions can be reviewed by the Superior Court for the District of Columbia.

We appreciate your continued service with the District of Columbia at the Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs. If you have any further questions regarding this matter, please contact the DCHR Office of the General Counsel, Deputy General Counsel at zoec.thomas@dc.gov.

Sincerely,

Ventris C. Gibson

MEMORANDUM

Human Resources Solutions Administration

To: Ventris C. Gibson, Director, D.C. Department of Human Resources

From: Dr. Keisha Hawkins, Associate Director, HRSA

Date: Monday, November 4, 2019

Subject: Opinion on Previous Classification Appeal Decisions

This is the D.C. Department of Human Resources' (DCHR) Human Resources Solutions Administration's (HRSA) response to your request for an advisory opinion on two contradicting classification appeal decisions, one made in 2011 and another in 2014 in regard to an appeal by Mr. John McFarland of the Department of Consumer & Regulatory Affairs.

A March 30, 2011 memorandum from Peter Delate to Staci Mason states that he audited Mr. McFarland's position and that based on his review, he (Peter) believed that Mr. McFarland was performing duties of a grade 11 Program Support Specialist. Then, a May 3, 2011 document formatted as an appeal and signed by Peter Delate says that, for evaluation purposes, the Program Support Specialist, CS-0301-09 was reviewed against the CS-0301- series and the two position descriptions. Based on this analysis, the document states that the appellant was working within the parameters of the Program Support Specialist, 0301, grade 11. We compared the 2011 process to the July 16, 2014 decision issued by Shawn Stokes as an appeal of the 2013 audit results that found that Mr. McFarland's position was properly classified as a Program Support Specialist, CS-0301-09.

The DCHR's Office of the General Counsel asked HRSA to advise them on which decision was made in accordance with approved position classification standards.

Background

The DCHR's HRSA Classification Section is responsible for classifying positions in accordance with the classification standards under the Federal Classification System. The District government is required to follow the Federal Classification System, in accordance with D.C. Official Code § 1-611.01(c).

As provided in Section 1104.3 (a), Classification of Positions, of Chapter 11A of the D.C. personnel regulations, Classification, the District government shall classify its positions in conformance with accepted standards published by the U.S. Office of Personnel Management

Memorandum - Opinion on Previous Classification Appeal Decisions

(OPM) and/or special guides or standards published by the DCHR or, if no published standards apply directly, consistently with published standards.

As stated under Section 1110, Position Classification Appeals, of the District personnel regulations, a District government employee has the right to appeal the classification of their position to DCHR (for agencies under the personnel authority of the Mayor) at any time to obtain necessary corrections. The outcome of the appealed position can be either no change, an upgrade, or a downgrade.

Upon receipt of an appeal, HRSA assigns the appeal to a classifier other than the one who originally classified the position. The classifier handling the appeal then collects information to ascertain the nature and scope of the duties, responsibilities, and qualification requirements of the position. This fact-finding mission includes having face-to-face or telephone interviews with the employee and his/her supervisor. Whether classifying a new position, conducting a desk audit, or reviewing an appealed position, the classification process is the same. The Factor Evaluation System (FES) developed by the OPM is used to classify General Schedule occupations or Career Service, in the case of District government. The FES includes nine factors common to most nonsupervisory positions in General Schedule occupations or Career Service, in the case of District government. These nine factors are:

1. Knowledge required by the position;
2. Supervisory controls;
3. Guidelines;
4. Complexity;
5. Scope and effect;
6. Personal contacts;
7. Purpose of contacts;
8. Physical demands; and
9. Work environment.

As listed in OPM's Classifier's Handbook, the basic steps to follow when evaluating a position under the FES are:

1. Prepare a position description in FES format;
2. Select the appropriate FES standard and grade criteria;
3. Determine the grade level by assigning a factor level and the corresponding number of points to each of the nine factors in the position description;
4. Convert the total point value of all factors to a grade using the established FES point conversion chart; and
5. Record the results of the evaluation.

Evaluation is essentially a matter of comparison. The classifier looks at the duties and responsibilities assigned to the position and how those duties are exercised and compares that information with the various types of work described by OPM in its published standards. They do not compare characteristics of one position to another as the basis for deciding its classification.

Memorandum - Opinion on Previous Classification Appeal DecisionsComparison

Below is the comparison of the two classification appeal decisions:

	2011 Review	2014 Review
Series Determination	0301 Series	0301 Series
Title Determination	Program Support Specialist	Program Support Specialist
Grade Determination	No grading criteria selected. Compared Grade 9 position description to Grade 11 position description	Used OPM's Administrative Analysis Grade Evaluation Guide
Factor 1: Knowledge required by the position	Compared knowledge of grade 9 position description to that of Grade 11 and did not use point system	Compared position knowledge to factor levels described in guide and assigned 950 points
Factor 2: Supervisory controls	Compared position information of Grade 9 to that of Grade 11 and did not use point system	Compared position information to factor levels in guide and assigned 275 points
Factor 3: Guidelines	Compared position information of Grade 9 to that of Grade 11 and did not use point system	Compared position information to factor levels in guide and assigned 275 points
Factor 4: Complexity	Compared position information of Grade 9 to that of Grade 11 and did not use point system	Compared position information to factor levels in guide and assigned 150 points
Factor 5: Scope & Effect	Compared position information of Grade 9 to that of Grade 11 and did not use point system	Compared position information to factor levels in guide and assigned 150 points
Factors 6 & 7: Personal contacts & Purpose of contacts	Compared position information of Grade 9 to that of Grade 11 and did not use point system	Compared position information to factor levels in guide and assigned 180 points
Factor 8: Physical demands	Compared position information of Grade 9 to that of Grade 11 and did not use point system	Compared position information to factor levels in guide and assigned 5 points
Factor 9: Work environment	Compared position information of Grade 9 to that of Grade 11 and did not use point system	Compared position information to factor levels in guide and assigned 5 points

Memorandum - Opinion on Previous Classification Appeal Decisions

	2011 Review	2014 Review
Total Points	None	Came up with a total of 1990 points
Grade Conversion	None	Used grade conversion table provided in the Guide to arrive at grade CS-9

Analysis

From the above comparison, we note that the 2011 classification review did not use the point factor system because no grading criteria was selected to determine the grade of the position in question. Instead, the classifier compared one position (Grade 9) to another (Grade 11). On the other hand, the 2014 review used the point factor system and selected the Administrative Analysis Grade Evaluation Guide developed by the OPM to determine the grade level of the position.

Therefore, we conclude that the classification decision of 2014 was prepared in accordance with classification standards adopted by the District government in that it appropriately used OPM guidelines to review the classification of the position appealed by Mr. John McFarland. This is consistent with accepted standards published by OPM.

SUBJECT: Desk Audit of Mr. John T. McFarland, Program Support Specialist

Thank you for your time last Tuesday. I appreciate both the time I was able to spend with Mr. McFarland and the time both you and Mr. Cooks gave me with regard to my review of Mr. McFarland's position.

I have completed my audit of Mr. McFarland's position. In my audit I reviewed the position descriptions for both the Program Support Specialist at the grade 9 (Mr. McFarland's present description) and the grade 11, the information provided by Mr. McFarland in answer to a series of questions prior to my meeting with him, my notes from my meeting with Mr. McFarland, my notes of my conversation with you and Mr. Cooks, and Mr. Cooks' responses to questions I put to him after our meeting.

The grade 9 position description starts a number of its major duty statements with "Participates in.", "Assists, as directed...", and "Assists in...". The grade 11 position description starts these same duty statements with: "Identifies...", "Develops...", and "Develops and maintains...". In Factor 2 - Supervisory Controls, the grade 9 position description states: "Works under general supervision. The incumbent works independently in defined areas with continuing responsibility for assuring continuity and consistency between assignment. The supervisor provides additional guidance on all matters not specifically covered in the original instruction or guidelines. The supervisor maintains control through the review of the work, reviewing completed work for accuracy, adequacy and adherence to instructions and established procedures." The same factor for the grade 11 states: "Incumbent works under the general supervision of the supervisor, who establishes policy, procedures, and general guidance criteria. The incumbent independently plans and carries out assignments, conferring with the supervisor on extremely controversial situations. Through regular individual and staff conferences, keeps supervisor informed on significant situations that arise. Work is reviewed for conformance to established policies, and effectiveness in meeting the objectives, deadlines, and expected results." A comparison of the language indicates that the predominate difference between the two is that the grade nine is less independent. This was echoed by Mr. Cooks who stated that he believed the difference between the two levels was that the grade nine "required more support" than the grade eleven.

In his position, Mr. McFarland is the support to two Boards: the Board of Accountancy (BA) and the Board of Professional Engineering (BPE) and has recently been assisting in supporting the DC Funeral Director Board. Principally, he is the point of contact for questions regarding licensure and examination requirements. He reviews applications for the CPA examination and informs applicants of any deficiencies, the deadline to correct deficiencies, and approves for testing those that meet the established criteria. Additionally, Mr. McFarland supports the Boards by taking minutes and ensuring the Board members have all necessary information to conduct business. While the various web sites (DCRA, Pearson Vue, and the various professional associations) are vigorous, the public (candidates for licensure or examinations) typically have individual questions about their situation(s) that fall to Mr. McFarland. Mr. McFarland is not only responsible for answering their inquiries but pointing them, as well, to the applicable code/rule/regulation for clarification/support.

Based on my review of the work performed by Mr. McFarland as compared to the two descriptions it is my belief that Mr. McFarland is performing the duties of the grade 11 Program Support Specialist.

In our conversation, and Mr. Cooks' response to additional questions I posed, Mr. Cooks indicated that keeping management informed (particularly when action is/may be required by management) is an item that indicated Mr. McFarland is not operating at the grade 11 and timeliness regarding action items was another item indicating Mr. McFarland was operating at the lower lever. These are, in fact, performance issues. The fact that management needs to be kept informed actually indicates that Mr. McFarland is operating independently, but not well.

Management has the right to assign duties and responsibilities. As such, you have the ability to curtail Mr. McFarland's independence and more closely review his work - ensuring he performs within the grade nine, or you could provide him with an action plan to improve his performance at the grade 11.

Should you have any questions, please feel free to contact me.

Thank you.

CLASSIFICATION APPEAL DECISION

Appellant: Mr. John T. McFarland

Current Position Classification: Program Support Specialist, CS-0301-09

Organization: Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs,
Occupational and Professional Licensing Division

Reason for Classification Appeal :

Mr. McFarland is appealing his classification as an Program Support Specialist, CS-0301-09, stating the following:

"...my position is similar to the work being done by Leon Lewis, who is also a liaison to professional boards with in the Occupational and Professional Licensing Division of the Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs."

Appeal Review:

This review does not and cannot speak to nor compare the appellant's duties and responsibilities to the duties and responsibilities of another employee nor does it speak to, affirm, or question the validity of the allocation and classification of that employee's position. By law, DCHR must classify positions solely by comparing the incumbent's or applicant's duties and responsibilities to the appropriate standard(s) and/or guideline(s) (5 U.S.C. 5106 and 5107). In as much as comparison to the appropriate standard(s) is the exclusive method for arriving at the allocation or classification of any and all positions, one cannot compare the position encumbered by an appellant to any other position as a rationale for rendering a decision. As the subject position is classified as Program Support Specialist, CS-0301-09, and in a career ladder, for evaluation purposes, subject position is, reviewed against the CS-0301 series and the two descriptions of the career ladder.

In adjudicating this appeal, the concern is to make an independent decision on the proper classification (level) of this position. By law, this must be decided solely by comparing the appellants current duties and responsibilities to the descriptions and OPM standards and guidelines (5 U.S.C. 5106 and 5107). Therefore, the appellant's statements are considered only insofar as they are relevant to making that comparison.

In reaching the classification decision, all information furnished by the appellant and his first and second level supervisors was reviewed, including the two official position descriptions.

FILE COPYPosition information

The appellant is assigned to a generic, career ladder Program Support Specialist, CS-0301-09 position description with promotional potential to an existing generic Program Support Specialist, CS-0301-11 within DCRA. The appellant's supervisor and manager have certified the overall accuracy of the two position descriptions.

As the appellant's position description is generic and both the appellant and the appellant's supervisor and manager indicated that a more descriptive title would be preferred, it was pointed out that such a title was permissible and should be included on the OP8 in #16, "Organizational Title of Position(If different from official title)".

The appellant does not contest the accuracy of the descriptions, but is appealing the classification of his position as a grade 09.

Duties and Responsibilities performed by the Appellant

The appellant, works for the Occupational and Professional Licensing Division within the Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs. He is the support to two Boards: the Board of Accountancy (BA) and the Board of Professional Engineering (BPE) and has recently been assisting in supporting the DC Funeral Director Board. Principally, he is the point of contact for questions regarding licensure and professional examination requirements. He reviews applications for the CPA examination and informs applicants of any deficiencies, the deadline to correct deficiencies, and approves for testing those that meet the established criteria. Additionally, he supports the Boards by taking minutes and ensuring the Boards have all necessary information to conduct business. While the various web sites (DCRA, Pearson VUE, and the various professional associations) are vigorous, the public (candidates for licensure or examinations) typically have individual questions about their situation(s) that fall to the appellant who is not only responsible for answering their inquiries but pointing them to the applicable code/rule/regulation for clarification/support.

A comparison of the duties of the grade 9 position description versus the grade 11 position description indicate that the grade 9 position description starts a number of its major duty statements with "Participates in...", "Assists, as directed...", and "Assists in...". The grade 11 position description starts these same duty statements with : "Identifies...", "Develops...", and "Develops and maintains...". As the appellant acts independently, the appellant does not "assist" anyone.

Series, title, and standard determinations

The 0301 series includes positions the duties of which are to perform, supervise, or manage nonprofessional, two-grade interval work for which no other series is appropriate. The work requires analytical ability, judgment, discretion, and knowledge of a substantial body of administrative or program principles, concepts, policies, and objectives. As mentioned above in Position Information, while the appellant questions the title and series determination for the position he encumbers (the subject position is classified as a Program Support Specialist within the 0301 series - Miscellaneous Administration and Program Series), he does not contest it.

FILE COPYGrade determination (factor comparison)

The grades of the two descriptions is not in question – rather which description applies to the appellate. The two position descriptions are written in the Factor Evaluation System (FES) format and are compared below.

Factor 1, Knowledge required by the position

This Factor measures the nature and extent of information or facts that the engineer must understand to do acceptable work (e.g., steps, procedures, practices, rules, policies, theories, principles, and concepts) and the nature and extent of skills necessary to apply this knowledge.

The difference between the two descriptions on this factor is that in the grade 9 description the factor states, in the second paragraph, "Knowledge of ..." whereas the grade 11 states, "Thorough knowledge of ..." and in the grade 9 the fourth paragraph states, "...to assist with the formulation ..." where as the grade 11 states, "to formulate...".

The appellate has and exercises a thorough knowledge of the applicable laws, rules, and regulations of DCRA and his Boards on a daily basis as confirmed by the supervisor and manager. In fact, when asked what his major duty/responsibility was, the appellate responded, "Read and understand the statutes and regulations governing professional licensing of certified public accountants (CPA's) and professional engineers (P.E.s)."

Factor 2, Supervisory controls

This factor covers the nature and extent of direct or indirect controls exercised by the supervisor, the appellant's responsibility, and the supervisory review of completed work.

In the grade 9 description this factor reads: "Works under general supervision. The incumbent works independently in defined areas with continuing responsibility for assuring continuity and consistency between assignments. The supervisor provides additional guidance on all matters not specifically covered in the original instruction or guidelines. The supervisor maintains control through the review of the work, reviewing the completed work for accuracy, adequacy and adherence to instructions and established procedures."

In the grade 11 description this factor reads: "Incumbent works under the general supervision of the supervisor, who establishes policy, procedures and general guidance criteria. The incumbent independently plans and carries out assignments, conferring with the supervisor on extremely controversial situations. Through regular individual and staff conferences, keeps supervisor informed of significant situations that arise. Work is reviewed for conformance to established policies, and effectiveness in meeting the objectives, deadlines, and expected results."

This review indicates that the predominate difference between the two is that the grade nine is less independent. This was echoed by the program manager who stated that he believed the difference between the two levels was that the grade nine "required more support" than the grade eleven. Per the appellant and the manager, the incumbent does independently plan and carry out assignments. Per the manager it is only that he does not keep the supervisor/manager informed of significant situations that arise that is an issue which is a performance issue and not a classification issue.

FILE COPY

Factor 3, Guidelines

This factor covers the nature of the judgment needed to apply guidelines. Since individual assignments vary in the specificity and applicability of guidelines, the constraints and judgment demands placed upon engineers also vary. For this factor, guidelines refer to standard guides, precedents, methods, and techniques including agency manuals or instructions, standard textbooks, and the governing policies and procedures of the agency.

The difference between the two descriptions in this factor is that in the grade 9 description, "the incumbent uses judgment in locating and selecting the most appropriate guidelines. Any deviations are referred to the supervisor." whereas in the grade 11 it states that the "Incumbent is required to exercise sound judgment in selecting appropriate guidelines.

The supervisor and the manager indicated that while they might question the appellant's judgment it was not with regard to guidelines which he selects and applies by himself.

Factor 4, Complexity

This factor covers the: "Nature of the Assignment"; "What Needs to be Done"; and the "Difficulty and Originality Involved".

The Factor 4 for the grade 9 description states, "The work includes various assignments requiring different and unrelated processes and methods, such as gathering information, identifying and analyzing issues, and for providing information and assistance regarding specific program matters and resolution of problems." The Factor 4 for the grade 11 description states, "The work involves different and unrelated processes and methods. Decisions regarding what needs to be done include the assessment of unusual circumstances, variation in approach, and incomplete or conflicting data. The work requires analysis of the subject matter, interpretation of data, judgment and innovative thinking as it relates to each assignment. Incumbent must use own capability in determining all possible strategies of effective control."

The work of the appellant with regard to certification/examination requirements falls into the description of the grade 11 factor. The appellant analyzes the coursework and credentials of applicants and determines if they are eligible to take the exam and if not what they need. If clarification is required (such as a particular course being suitable for a requirement) the appellant is the one who researches and makes that decision.

Factor 5, Scope and effect

This factor covers the relationship between the nature of the work, i.e., the purpose, breadth, and depth of the assignment and the effect of work products or services both within and outside the organization. Effect measures such things as whether the work output facilitates the work of others, provides timely services of a personal nature, or affects the adequacy of research conclusions.

The Factor 5 for the grade 9 description states, " The purpose. this position is to provide programmatic and administrative support work to the staff. The work contributes to the overall productions effectiveness and efficiency in program operations for the administrative support activities. The accuracy, reliability and successful completion of the work affect the efficiency and effectiveness of the performance of the assigned program." The Factor 4 for the grade 11 description states, "The purpose of the work is to provide program and administrative support for the office. Incumbent performs special projects, and prepares comprehensive reports on studies and other special assignments under the direction of the supervisor. The work affects a wide range of agency activities and the accuracy, reliability, or acceptability of further processes or services."

In as much as the work performed is for neither staff or an office, per se, it is for two Boards. Reports as well as minutes and notices could be construed as "comprehensive reports on studies and other special assignments" however, these are done independent of direction from the supervisor and the work affects the actions/processes of the Boards.

Factor 6, Personal Contacts

This factor includes face-to-face and remote dialogue with persons not in the supervisory chain. The levels described consider the work required to make the initial contact, the difficulty of communicating with those contacted, the setting in which the contact takes place, and the nature of the discourse. The nature of the discourse defines the reason for the communication and the context or environment in which the communication takes place. For example, the reason for communication may vary from exchanging factual information to negotiation.

This factor is the same in both descriptions and is, therefore, not an issue.

Factor 7, Purpose of Contacts

09 Contacts are for the purpose of obtaining and exchanging information, monitoring task assignments, seeking cooperation in meeting project deadlines, performing duties and resolving problems.

11 The purpose of the contacts is to resolve problems, clarify or provide information, or answer questions pertaining to program goals, objects and responsibilities.

Factor 8, Physical demands

This factor covers the requirements and physical demands placed on the engineer by the work assignment. This includes the physical characteristics and abilities and physical exertion involved in the work. To some extent, the frequency or intensity of physical exertion is also considered.

This factor is the same in both descriptions and is, therefore, not an issue.

Factor 9, Work Environment

This factor considers the discomfort and risk of danger in the employee's physical surroundings and the safety precautions required. Although safety regulation and techniques can reduce or eliminate some discomfort and dangers, they typically place additional demands upon the employee.

FILE COPY

This factor is the same in both descriptions and is, therefore, not an issue.

Summary

The appellant is performing work without the assistance of the supervisor and/or manager. Additionally, the appellant is exercising a thorough knowledge of his two Boards and their requirements for examination/certification and the present level of supervision is not as described in the grade 9 description but rather that as is described in the grade 11 description. (The level of supervision being the prime delineator between the two descriptions per the manager.)

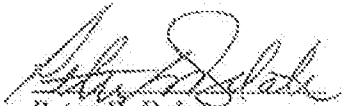

Decision:

Based on the forgoing, the appellant is working within the parameters of the Program Support Specialist, 0301, grade 11.

Management has the right to assign and/or change duties and responsibilities. As such and in as much as management has indicated it has issues with the appellant's performance, it is recommended that management more closely supervise the appellant and his work as well as work with him on the scope of his job and his personal interactions which would lower the appellant to the grade 09.

Appeal Summary:

The responsibility to ensure that all positions, groups, and/or classes of positions are equitably placed in classes and grades consistent with the appropriate standard(s) begins with management. In as much as management did indicate that it had employees supporting Boards in different series/descriptions, should management decide that a review of a group or class of positions is needed to ensure equity of grade levels, management may, at any time, request that the Office of Human Resources conduct such a review. POSITION CLASSIFICATION REVIEW DECISION
Program Support Specialist, CS-0301-09
Department of Consumer & Regulatory Affairs (DCRA)

Introduction

On January 7, 2011, the D.C. Department of Human Resources (DCHR) received a position classification review request from John T. McFarland, a Program Support Specialist, CS-0301-09, the Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs.

Mr. McFarland's request for position classification review was assigned to Peter B. Delate, a Human Resources Specialist assigned to DCHR. Mr. Delate left DCHR before completing the classification review, and the classification review was assigned to and completed by Lewis C. Norman, also a Human Resources Specialist at DCHR.

Our classification decision was decided by considering the audit findings and all information of record furnished by Mr. McFarland and DCRA, including his official position description received by DCHR on October 18, 2013.

General Issues

Mr. McFarland believes that his position is classified inconsistently with another position within his agency. In accordance with DC personnel regulations (DPM Chapter 11, Classification), DCHR must classify positions solely by comparing the duties and responsibilities to standards and guidelines issued by the District of Columbia and the U.S. Office of Personnel Management. Positions that may appear superficially similar may differ significantly in their duties, level of authority, or organizational context to support a difference in their grade levels.

Mr. McFarland is assigned to a generic position of Program Support Specialist, CS-0301-09, with promotional potential to an existing generic Program Support Specialist, CS-0301-11, within his agency. Mr. McFarland's supervisor and higher-level manager have noted the accuracy of the CS-09 and CS-11 position descriptions. Mr. McFarland believes that his position should be classified at the grade 11 level, based upon the similarity of the two positions. The supervisors disagree with his assessment and indicate that the grade 09 position is an accurate description of the work performed by Mr. McFarland.

During the extended period of this audit, our classification decision was delayed because (1) Mr. McFarland failed to attend scheduled meetings with his supervisor and DCHR to discuss his position description, as required by DPM Chapter 11, 1.16—Employee Request for Position Review/Desk Audit, and (2) Mr. McFarland's detail from his position of record from October 2011 to the present.

Position Information

The primary function of Mr. McFarland's position is to serve as a Program Support Specialist in DCRA. In this capacity, he provides program and administrative support for the assigned office. Mr. McFarland, and other employees assigned to this generic position description, performs special projects and prepares comprehensive reports on studies and other special assignments.

Classification Decision

On October 18, 2013, DCRA certified the accuracy of Mr. McFarland's generic position description. Based upon the information furnished by the agency, we find that Mr. McFarland's position description is accurate in its depiction of the duties and responsibilities assigned to his position description.

Series and Title Determinations

The GS (CS) – 301 series includes positions that perform, supervise, or manage non-professional, two-grade interval work for which no other series is appropriate. The work requires analytical ability, judgment, discretion, and knowledge of a substantial body of administrative or program principles, concepts, policies, and objectives. The administrative work of this series involves skills such as analytical, research, and writing ability, and requires the application of judgment typically demonstrated by substantial, responsible experience, or that equivalent to a college level education. Mr. McFarland's position is correctly assigned to this series.

There are no titles specified for positions in the GS- 301 series. The previously assigned title, Program Support Specialist, adheres to position titling guidance contained in District and U.S. Office of Personnel Management classification practices.

Grade Determination

The standard for the GS-301 series does not contain grade-level criteria. It instructs that positions in this series be evaluated by using standards for other series, depending on the position's content and work environment. Accordingly, for grade determination, this position was evaluated by using the Administrative Analysis Grade Evaluation Guide.

The Administrative Analysis Grade Evaluation Guide uses the Factor Evaluation System (FES). It places positions in grades by comparing their duties, responsibilities, and qualification requirements with nine (9) FES factors common to nonsupervisory General Schedule positions. A point value is assigned to each factor based on comparison of the position's duties with the factor- level descriptions in the Guide. The total points assigned are converted to a grade by use of the grade conversion table in the Guide. Application of the Guide to Mr. McFarland's is summarized in the attached FES report.

Re: Classification Appeal Decision

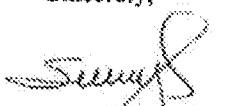

Dear McFarland:

This letter is in response to your classification appeal received in the Department of Human Resources (DCHR) on June 17, 2014. In your letter, you appealed DCHR's decision of a desk audit on your position of Program Support Specialist (CS-0301-09) in the Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs (DCRA).

We decided this appeal by considering our desk audit findings and all other information of record furnished by you and your agency, including your official position description. Based upon a thorough review of the information made available to us in this appeal, we have made a determination that your position is properly classified as Program Support Specialist (CS-0301-09).

Please be advised that in accordance with section 1110, Position Classification Appeals, of Chapter 11A of the D.C. personnel regulations, Classification, this serves as the final decision from DCHR concerning this matter. Pursuant to subsection 1110.6 of the chapter, you may appeal this decision to the Superior Court of the District of Columbia.

Sincerely,

Shawn Y. Stokes
Director

POSITION CLASSIFICATION APPEAL DECISION

For

John T. McFarland
Program Support Specialist, CS-0301-09

Department of Consumer & Regulatory Affairs (DCRA)

Introduction

On June 17, 2014, the D.C. Department of Human Resources (DCHR) received a position classification appeal request from John T. McFarland, who occupies the position of Program Support Specialist, CS-0301-09, in the Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs. Mr. McFarland requested that his position be classified at the CS-12 level.

Mr. McFarland previously requested a desk audit (position classification review) of his position on March 8, 2011. In his request for a desk audit, Mr. McFarland requested promotion to CS-301-11. On October 28, 2013, DCHR stated that Mr. McFarland's position-of-record is properly classified at the CS-09 level.

This classification appeal decision was decided by considering the audit findings and all information of record furnished by Mr. McFarland and DCRA, including his official position description received by DCHR on October 18, 2013.

General Issues

Mr. McFarland believes that his position is classified inconsistently with another position within his agency. In accordance with DC personnel regulations (DPM Chapter 11, Classification), DCHR must classify positions solely by comparing the duties and responsibilities to classification standards and guidelines issued by the District of Columbia and the U.S. Office of Personnel Management. Positions that may appear superficially similar may differ significantly in their duties, level of authority, or organizational context to support a difference in their grade levels. Since comparison to classification standards is the exclusive method for classifying positions, DCHR cannot compare Mr. McFarland's position to others as a basis for deciding his appeal.

Mr. McFarland is assigned to a generic position of Program Support Specialist, CS-0301-09, with promotional potential to an existing generic Program Support Specialist, CS-0301-11, within his agency. Mr. McFarland's supervisor and higher-level manager have noted the accuracy of the CS-09, CS-11 and CS-12 position descriptions. Mr. McFarland believes that his position should be classified at the grade 12 level, based upon the similarities between the two positions. The supervisors disagree with his assessment and indicate that the grade 09 position is an accurate description of the work performed by Mr. McFarland.

During the extended period of the desk audit, our classification decision was delayed because (1) Mr. McFarland failed to attend scheduled meetings with his supervisor and DCHR to discuss his position description, as required by DPM Chapter 11, 1.16—Employee Request for Position Review/Desk Audit, and (2) Mr. McFarland's extended detail from his position-of-record.

Position Information

The primary function of Mr. McFarland's position is to serve as a Program Support Specialist in DCRA. In this capacity, he provides program and administrative support for the assigned office. Mr. McFarland, and other employees assigned to the generic position description, performs special projects and prepares comprehensive reports on studies and other special assignments.

Classification Decision

On October 18, 2013, DCRA certified the accuracy of Mr. McFarland's generic position description. Based upon the information furnished by the agency, we find that Mr. McFarland's position description is accurate in its depiction of the duties and responsibilities assigned to his position description.

Series and Title Determinations

The GS (CS)-301 series includes positions that perform, supervise, or manage non-professional, two-grade interval work for which no other series is appropriate. The work requires analytical ability, judgment, discretion, and knowledge of a substantial body of administrative or program principles, concepts, policies, and objectives. The administrative work of this series involves skills such as analytical, research, and writing ability, and requires the application of judgment typically demonstrated by substantial, responsible experience, or that equivalent to a college level education. Mr. McFarland's position is correctly assigned to this series.

There are no titles specified for positions in the GS-301 series. The previously assigned title, Program Support Specialist, adheres to position titling guidance contained in District and U.S. Office of Personnel Management classification practices.

Grade Determination

The standard for the GS-301 series does not contain grade-level criteria. It instructs that positions in this series be evaluated by using standards for other series, depending on the position's content and work environment. Accordingly, for grade determination, this position was evaluated by using the Administrative Analysis Grade Evaluation Guide.

The Administrative Analysis Grade Evaluation Guide uses the Factor Evaluation System (FES). It places positions in grades by comparing their duties, responsibilities, and qualification requirements with nine (9) FES factors common to nonsupervisory General Schedule positions. A point value is assigned to each factor based on comparison of the position's duties with the factor-level descriptions in the Guide. The total points assigned are converted to a grade by use of the grade conversion table in the Guide. The evaluation of Mr. McFarland's position with respect to the nine factors follows.

Factor 1, Knowledge Required by the Position: Level 1-6, 950 Points

This factor measures the nature and extent of information or facts that a worker must understand to do acceptable work (e.g., steps, procedures, practices, rules, policies, theories, principles, and concepts) and the nature and extent of the skills needed to apply this knowledge.

At Level 1-6, positions with this level of knowledge require skill in applying analytical and evaluative techniques to the identification, consideration, and resolution of issues or problems of a procedural or factual nature. The issues or problems deal with readily observable conditions (e.g., office or shop layout, workflow, or working conditions), written guidelines covering work methods and procedures such as performance and production standards, and information of factual nature. Included at this level is knowledge of the theory and principles of management and organization, including administrative practices and procedures common to organizations, such as those pertaining to areas of responsibility, channels of communication, delegation of authority, routing of correspondence, filing systems, and storage of files and records. Assignments typically involve using qualitative and quantitative analytical techniques and require skill in conducting interviews with supervisors and employees to obtain information about organizational missions, functions, and work procedures.

The position meets Level 1-6. Comparable to this level of knowledge, the position requires knowledge of the mission, function and operational policies and procedures of the Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs, the assigned administration, and operating entities to effectively, accurately and expeditiously complete work assignments in concert with established operational objectives; knowledge of pertinent regulatory laws, regulations, codes and practices to appropriately resolve problems, make sound recommendations, and provide information to support recommendations; and knowledge of, and skill in applying analytical and evaluative methods and techniques to resolve problems, conduct research, gather information, and make recommendations.

The position does not fully meet Level 1-7. At that level, assignments require knowledge and skill in applying analytical and evaluative methods and techniques to issues or studies concerning the efficiency and effectiveness of program operations carried out by administrative or professional personnel, or substantive administrative support functions (i.e., internal activities or functions such as supply, budget, procurement, or personnel which serve to facilitate line or program operations). This level includes knowledge of pertinent laws, regulations, policies and precedents which affect the use of program and related support resources in the area studied. Projects and studies typically require knowledge of the major issues, program goals and objectives, work processes, and administrative operations of the organization. At Level 1-7, the knowledge is used to plan, schedule, and conduct projects and studies to evaluate and recommend ways to improve the effectiveness and efficiency of work operations in a program or support setting. Knowledge is applied in developing new or modified work methods, organizational structures, records and files, management processes, staffing patterns, procedures for administering program services, guidelines and procedures, and automating work processes for the conduct of administrative support functions or program operations. The position's work does not require this level or breadth of knowledge to accomplish assignments.

Level 1-6 is credited for 950 points.

Factor 2, Supervisory Controls: Level 2-3, 275 Points

This factor covers the nature and extent of direct or indirect controls exercised by the supervisor, the employee's responsibility, and the review of completed work.

At Level 2-3, the supervisor assigns specific projects in terms of issues, organizations, functions, or work processes to be studied and sets deadlines for completing the work. The employee plans, coordinates, and carries out the successive steps in fact-finding and analysis of issues necessary to complete each phase of assigned projects. The supervisor or higher grade analyst provides assistance on controversial or unusual situations. Completed work is reviewed for conformance with overall requirements, consistency of facts and figures, choice of appropriate analytical methods, and practicality of recommendations. Similar to this level, the position's supervisor provides additional guidance on all matters not specifically covered in the original instruction or guidelines. The supervisor maintains control through the review of the work, reviewing the completed work for accuracy, adequacy and adherence to instructions and established procedures. The incumbent works independently in defined areas with continuing responsibility for assuring continuity and consistency between assignments.

The position does not meet Level 2-4 because, at that level, the employee and supervisor develop a mutually acceptable project plan which typically includes identification of the work to be done, the scope of the project, and deadlines for its completion. The employee is responsible for planning and organizing the study, estimating costs, coordinating with staff and line management personnel, and conducting all phases of the project. Completed work is reviewed for compatibility with organizational goals, guidelines, and effectiveness in achieving intended objectives.

Level 2-3 is credited for 275 points.

Factor 3, Guidelines: Level 3-3, 275 Points

This factor covers the nature of guidelines and the judgment needed to apply them.

At Level 3-3, guidelines consist of standard reference material, texts, and manuals covering the application of analytical methods and techniques and instructions and manuals covering the subjects involved (e.g., organizations, equipment, procedures, policies, and regulations). Analytical methods contained in the guidelines are not always directly applicable to specific work assignments. The employee uses judgment in choosing, interpreting, or adapting available guidelines to specific issues or subjects studied. The subject studied is covered by a wide variety of administrative regulations and procedural guidelines, and the employee must use judgment in researching regulations and in determining the relationship between guidelines and organizational efficiency, program effectiveness, or employee productivity.

Comparable to Level 3-3, the position's guidelines include the legislation and pertinent regulations applicable to the work of the assigned program, Mayor's Orders, policy and procedural issues for the D. C. Council, District of Columbia Codes, D. C. Administrative Procedures Act, policies, procedures, precedents and general requirements of the Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs. The incumbent uses judgment in locating and selecting the appropriate guidelines. Any deviations are referred to the supervisor.

The position's guidelines do not meet Level 3-4. At that level, guidelines consist of general administrative policies and management and organizational theories which require considerable adaptation and/or interpretation for application to issues and problems studied. At this level, administrative policies and precedent studies provide a basic outline of the results desired, but do not go into detail as to the methods used to accomplish the project. Administrative guidelines usually cover program goals and objectives of the organization, such as agency controls on size of workforce, productivity targets, and similar objectives. In the case of the subject position, specific instructions are provided by the supervisor. The position does not require considerable adaptations or interpretations of general administrative policies for application to issues or problems studied for the use of the assigned office as would be indicative of a position evaluated at Level 3-4.

Level 3-3 is credited for 275 points.

Factor 4, Complexity: Level 4-3, 150 Points

This factor covers the nature, number, variety, and intricacy of tasks, steps, processes, or methods in the work performed; the difficulty in identifying what needs to be done; and the difficulty and originality involved in performing the work.

At Level 4-3, the work principally involves dealing with problems and relationships of a procedural nature rather than the substance of work operations, issues, or other subjects studied. The employee analyzes the issues, then selects and applies accepted analytical techniques to the resolution of procedural problems. Projects take place within an organization with related functions and objectives, although organization and work procedures differ from one assignment to the next. Typically, the employee prepares a report containing a statement of the issue or problem, background, observations, options for change, and recommendations for action. Findings and recommendations are based upon analysis of work observations, review of records or similar documentation, research of precedent studies, and application of standard administrative guidelines.

In addition to improving conditions of a procedural nature, the work at Level 4-4 involves gathering information, identifying and analyzing issues, and developing recommendations to resolve substantive problems of effectiveness and efficiency of work operations in a program or program support setting. Information about the subject is often conflicting or incomplete, cannot readily be obtained by direct means, or is otherwise difficult to document. This work requires the application of qualitative and quantitative analytical techniques that frequently require modification to fit a wider range of variables.

The position's work includes various assignments requiring different and unrelated processes and methods, such as gathering information, identifying and analyzing issues, and for providing information and assistance regarding specific program matters and resolution of problems. This work meets Level 4-3 where the employee analyzes the issue and selects and applies accepted analytical techniques to resolve the problem. Level 4-4 is not met because there is no evidence to show that the information about the subject is often conflicting or incomplete, cannot readily be obtained by direct means, or is otherwise difficult to document.

Level 4-3 is credited for 150 points.

Factor 5, Scope and Effect: Level 5-3, 150 Points

This factor covers the relationship between the nature of the work, i.e., the purpose, breadth, and depth of the assignment, and the effect of the work products or services both within and outside the organization.

The scope and effect of the position's work match Level 5-3. At that level, the purpose of the work is to plan and carry out projects to improve the efficiency and productivity of organizations and employees in administrative support activities. Employees at this level identify, analyze, and make recommendations to resolve conventional problems and situations in work-flow, work distribution, staffing, performance appraisal, organizational structure, and/or administration. Similar to this level, the purpose of the position's work is to provide programmatic and administrative support work to the staff. The accuracy, reliability and successful completion of the work affect the efficiency and effectiveness of the performance of the assigned program.

The position does not meet Level 5-4. At that level, the purpose of the work is to assess the productivity, effectiveness, and efficiency of program operations or to analyze and resolve problems in the staffing, effectiveness and efficiency of administrative support and staff activities. At this level work involves establishing criteria to measure and/or predict the attainment of program or organizational goals and objectives.

Level 5-3 is credited for 150 points.

Factors 6 and 7, Personal Contacts & Purpose of Contacts: Level 3-C, 180 Points

Factor 6 includes face-to-face contacts and telephone and radio dialogue with persons not in the supervisory chain. Under Factor 7, the purpose of personal contacts ranges from factual exchanges of information to situations involving significant or controversial issues and differing viewpoints, goals, or objectives.

At Level 6-2, persons contacted are employees, supervisors, and managers of the same agency, but outside of the immediate office, or employees and representatives of private concerns in a moderately structured setting. The position exceeds this level because it has contacts with contractors, property owners and tenants.

At Level 6-3, persons contacted are persons outside the agency which may include consultants, contractors, or business executives in a moderately unstructured setting. This level may also include contacts with the head of the employing agency or program officials several managerial levels removed from the employee when such contacts occur on an ad hoc basis. Similar to this level, the position's contacts include the general public, contractors, property owners, tenants, and others involved in the sale, renovation, or other business.

Level 6-4 is not met because, at that level, contacts are with high-ranking officials such as other agency heads, top congressional staff officials, state executive or legislative leaders, mayors of major cities, or executives of comparable private sector organizations.

At Level 7-b, the purpose of personal contact is to advise managers on noncontroversial organization or program related issues and concerns. Contacts typically involve such matters as identification of decision-making alternatives, appraisals of success in meeting goals, or recommendations for resolving administrative problems. The purpose of the position's contacts exceeds this level because, apart from resolving problems and appraising success, the position seeks cooperation from those contacted.

At Level 7-c, the purpose is to influence managers or other officials to accept and implement findings and recommendations on organizational improvement or program effectiveness. Positions at Level c may encounter resistance due to such issues as organizational conflict, competing objectives, or resource problems. Comparable to Level 7-c, the position's contacts are for the purpose of monitoring task assignments, seeking cooperation in meeting project deadlines and resolving problems.

Level 7-d is not met because, at that level, the purpose is to justify or settle matters involving significant or controversial issues; e.g., recommendations affecting major programs, dealing with substantial expenditures, or significantly changing the nature and scope of organizations.

Level 3-C is credited for 180 points.

Factor 8, Physical Demands: Level 8-1, 5 Points

This factor covers the requirements and physical demands placed on the employee by the work assignment.

The position matches Level 8-1. At that level, the work is primarily sedentary, although some slight physical effort may be required. Like Level 8-1, the position's work is primarily sedentary with intermittent periods of walking, standing and carrying of lightweight objects.

The position does not meet Level 8-2 because, at that level, assignments regularly involve long periods of standing, bending, and stooping to observe and study work operations in an industrial, storage, or comparable work area.

Level 8-1 is credited for 5 points.

Factor 9, Work Environment: Level 9-1, 5 Points

This factor considers the risks and discomforts in the employee's physical surroundings, or the nature of the work assigned and the safety regulations required.

The position matches Level 9-1, where work is typically performed in an adequately lighted and climate controlled office and may require occasional travel. Similar to this level, the position's work is primarily performed in routine office setting, although some site visits may be required.

The position does not meet Level 9-2 because, at that level, assignments regularly require visits to manufacturing, storage, or other industrial areas, and involve moderate risks or discomforts. Protective clothing and gear and observance of safety precautions are required.

Level 9-1 is credited for 5 points.

Summary

The table below summarizes the evaluation.

Factor	Level	Points
Knowledge Required	1-6	950
Supervisory Controls	2-3	275
Guidelines	3-3	275
Complexity	4-3	150
Scope and Effect	5-3	150
Personal Contacts & Purpose of Contacts	3-C	180
Physical Demands	8-1	5
Work Environment	9-1	5
	Total Points	1990

The total of 1990 points falls within the GS-09 range (1855 - 2100) on the grade conversion table provided in the guide.

Classification Decision

Based on the foregoing analysis, the position is properly classified as Program Support Specialist, CS-0301-09.

FACTS

4. In May of 1972, Lucas was accepted into the District of Columbia Police Academy as a sworn Cadet. The previous Federal Civil Service competitive system was in effect at that time. He completed his training and began working for the Metropolitan Police Department (“MPD”). This was not a temporary appointment; it was a career appointment.

5. Lucas served adequately and honorably with the MPD before being inducted into the United States Military during the time of the Vietnam Conflict in December of 1972.

6. Lucas gave the MPD proper notice of his induction into the military. However, Lucas was never offered or provided any separation counseling as required, nor was he otherwise given any counseling, advice or information regarding his employment rights. Lucas was never informed of his employment right to a military furlough if he was leaving government service to enter directly to military service during time of war.

7. Inexplicably, although the MPD knew Lucas was leaving to enter the military, he was not afforded a military furlough. Instead, Lucas was coerced into submitting his resignation in January 1973 so that he could enter the United States Marine Corps (“USMC”). The reason for his resignation was noted on the Personnel Action form as “to enter the armed services.” Lucas was not fired nor otherwise terminated by MPD prior to entering the military. Lucas entered the Marines on February 3, 1973.

8. Lucas’ military service should have been treated as a military furlough under the District Personnel Manual because Lucas’ employer knew that he was leaving federal employment to enter the armed services during war.

9. Lucas served honorably in the Marines, and he was discharged in February of 1978 with a disability.

10. Lucas wrote to the MPD on February 15, 1978, within days of his discharge. In his handwritten correspondence, Lucas stated that he is a disabled veteran who had been previously employed by MPD before he was inducted into the USMC, and he requested “reinstatement” to his previous MPD position. Lucas chose the term “reinstatement” rather than “restoration” upon erroneous instruction from the Desk Sergeant. Anyone reading Lucas’ letter, should have understood that Lucas was requesting “restoration” after leaving the MPD to serve in the military during the war.

11. Through subsequent communications with MPD, Lucas was informed that MPD had no record of his having been employed with the department, and on February 17, 1978, MPD denied Lucas’ request for restoration to the MPD. Lucas was denied restoration rights to which would have otherwise been available to him because of the MPD’s failure to give him a military furlough.

12. At no time thereafter was Lucas advised, informed or otherwise provided information regarding his employment rights or the mechanisms by which he could pursue those rights. Accordingly, Lucas did not know that this was an adverse personnel decision that could be disputed.

13. At no time did Lucas clearly or unequivocally waive, relinquish or discharge his right to reemployment which would have allowed him to reenter the MPD without losing any compensation, benefit(s), or professional advancement opportunities, including but not limited to promotions, or rank and step increases.

14. As a result of MPD’s failure to properly restore Lucas into his prior employment, he was forced to seek other work. He ultimately joined the U.S. Marshals Service.

15. When the District’s Home rule took effect on January 2, 1980, Lucas lost, albeit unknowingly, all previous federal benefits related to his prior employment with the MPD, because of the separation of federal employment from the new D.C. Municipal government.

16. Eventually, Lucas returned to employment with the MPD in September 1982 and, despite having been employed by MPD previously, was hired on in a probationary status at a lower salary than he otherwise would have earned as a result of his prior service. He was also put into the post-home rule District municipal retirement plan as opposed to the federal retirement plan he was entitled to had he properly been granted a military furlough and properly restored to duty with MPD in 1978. When he rejoined the MPD, Lucas did not know that the District's Home Rule had ended federal civil service in DC or else he never would have went back to his former employment which was now under municipal retirement rules.

17. Finally learning that he would have to serve many more years in order to be eligible for District retirement, Lucas obtained employment in 1994 as a D.C. Corrections Officer because that position offered Lucas a continuation of eligibility for federal retirement.

18. In April of 1994, upon acceptance into the D.C. Corrections position, Lucas was reinstated to the Federal Civil Service Law Enforcement retirement system.

19. Lucas retired from the D.C. Department of Corrections on May 16, 2005.

20. On the day of his retirement, Lucas had a meeting with Wanda Montcrieff (D.C. Office of Personnel). It was at this time that Lucas discovered that his previous service with the MPD had in fact been found and recorded by Department of Human Resources ("DCHR"), and the Office of Personnel Management ("OPM"), despite what he was told by the MPD in 1978. Without informing him, Lucas' total service computation sheet was changed to reflect the action of a military furlough, which included stopping Lucas' police service on one date, and starting his active duty service the next.

21. Lucas' federal retirement benefits were approved by the DCHR in May of 2005. As a result, his OPM total service computation sheet appeared to have been "corrected" to reflect his initial employment with MPD, proving that DCHR actually had a record of his initial service with MPD.

22. The District Personnel Manual as well as OPM regulations state that under this circumstance, his military duty would count as a continuation of his previous federal employee service with MPD and there would be no requirement to pay for this military service before his retirement.

23. Lucas' retirement benefits, however, were calculated using his accrued federal service of 29 years, 8 months, 2 days and a monthly annuity of $2,281.46; unknown to Lucas, this data did not reflect the higher salary, rank, or years of MPD service he was entitled to had the original mistake not been made in 1978; nor did the data include interim years of employment that should have been included under the federal system had he been properly restored in 1978.

24. At some point after Lucas' federal retirement was approved by the District in 2005, Lucas' service computation sheet was audited by OPM. On February 3, 2007, Lucas received correspondence from the Office of Personnel Management signed by Mr. J.C. Trask, informing him that twenty-two years of his previously credited federal service would not be eligible for annuity, unless he paid $55,419 plus interest into the federal Civil Service Retirement System immediately. He was also told that his military service time should have been re-deposited and paid for before retiring, and that at 65-years of age, it would be deducted from his computation. This was Lucas' first indication an error had possibly occurred when calculating his federal benefits. At no time prior thereto, did Lucas have any notice that his rights had been impeded, due to the fact that he had not received the requisite exiting counseling in 2005.

25. On February 9, 2007, Lucas received another letter from OPM, stating that he now owed $5,955.87 because of overpayments made to him due to erroneous DCHR calculations since his retirement in May of 2005, even though that retirement had been approved by DCHR.

26. Lucas responded to these letters from OPM promptly and requested an investigation be conducted in good faith, although it is unknown whether such an investigation was instituted by OPM or any other responsible agency. Lucas was informed by OPM that $165.00 would be withheld from his monthly annuity until the alleged overpayment was recouped. He received no further contact from OPM, except to state that his retirement was under federal law enforcement provisions from the DC government.

27. The newly-corrected federal service calculations deprived Lucas of many years of federal retirement eligibility he should have earned. Further, because his benefits were being computed at a lower final salary than he should have been entitled to, Lucas' retirement benefits were substantially lower than what he otherwise would have been entitled to receive.

28. On March 1, 2007 Lucas' retirement deposit was drastically reduced without explanation.

29. On or about March 7, 2010, Lucas filed a formal grievance with the D.C. Office of Personnel. See Grievance Letter, Exhibit 1. This formal grievance was in the form of a letter addressed to Wanda Moncrieff, Human Resource Specialist. Id. The subject of this letter reads: "Official Grievance/Request Investigation." Id. The letter asks that "an investigation be conducted, to get to the bottom of this." Id. The letter further reads "I formally request that the D.C. Office of Personnel (DCHR) and the Mayor's Office conduct an investigation into the grievance. Please notify your superiors of my grievance and complaint. I have served my city and my country honorably. This is not fair to me or my family." Id.

30. Between March 2007 and March 2010, Lucas contacted OPM and the District of Columbia Retirement Board approximately 52 times. He received nothing but the “run-around,” with OPM advising him to speak with DC officials, and vice versa.

31. On or about March, 26, 2010, Lucas submitted another formal grievance to the District of Columbia Retirement Board. See Grievance Letter (without original attachments), Exhibit 2. The letter requests “the correction of and restoration of rights and benefits acquired during my service as an Officer with the Metropolitan Police Department.” Id. The letter concludes with the following: “[b]ased upon the above information and attached comments I am requesting that the District of Columbia Retirement Board resolve these inconsistencies and make the appropriate adjustment reflecting my correct retirement agency and lost police benefits.” Id.

32. On or about April 27, 2010, Lucas received a response from the District of Columbia Retirement Board acknowledging his grievance dated March 26, 2010. See Response, Exhibit 3. The letter states: “DCRB has no authority, however, to either determine eligibility for retirement, which is the responsibility of the Police and Firefighters’ Retirement and Relief Board (PFRRB), or to determine employment rights with the District of Columbia Metropolitan Police Department (DCMPD). Id. Consequently, I am forwarding your letter and its attachments to the PFRRB, with a copy of same to the DCMPD’s Human Resources office. Id.

33. On or about August 18, 2010, Lucas met with Wanda Montcrieff, Sheila Ford-Haynes (MPD Human Resource Specialist) and Pamela Brown, (Police and Firefighters’ Retirement and Relief Board, Assistant Attorney General). During the meeting, Wanda Montcrieff acknowledged that Lucas had not received proper separation counseling, by the lack of entry of this on his separation form. Pamela Brown then conceded that Lucas should have been given such counseling by MPD. Both Pamela Brown and Sheila Ford-Haynes further acknowledged that Lucas had left his employment with MPD for military duty, and had been eligible for military furlough. Sheila Ford-Haynes stated that MPD offered Lucas his job back two-years later in response to his restoration request. Lucas answered that he should have been immediately reemployed with MPD when he requested restoration upon his honorable discharge in 1978, thereby remaining within the federal retirement system, and questioned Sheila Ford-Haynes' response. At this point, Pamela Brown demanded that Sheila Ford-Haynes stop speaking, and ended the meeting by agreeing to further investigate the grievance.

34. In 2012, on behalf of Lucas, undersigned counsel began to follow up with Pamela Brown. Specifically, letters to Pamela Brown were sent on February 7, 2012, March 6, 2012, March 28, 2012, and September 20, 2012.

35. On October 9, 2012, Pamela Brown, as Assistant Attorney Advisor for the D.C. Police and Firefighters' Retirement and Relief Board, responded to Lucas' "correspondence" and indicated that the Police and Firefighters' Retirement and Relief Board had "completed its investigation of the matter presented by Mr. Allan Lucas' former counsel." See Correspondence, Exhibit 4. The letter indicated that the claims are barred by laches and concluded that it had been "determined that the D.C. Police and Firefighters' Retirement and Relief Board has no jurisdiction in this matter. Nor does the Board possess any statutory regulatory authority to decide personnel issues, such as determining Mr. Lucas' right to any benefits pursuant to the VRRRA and USERRA." Id.

36. Lucas has exhausted his administrative remedies under the Comprehensive Merit Personnel Act by submitting formal grievances to the D.C. Office of Personnel/District of Columbia Department of Human Resources, District of Columbia Retirement Board, and the D.C. Police and Firefighters' Retirement and Relief Board. The District of Columbia Retirement Board deferred to the D.C. Police Firefighters' Retirement and Relief Board, who in conjunction with DCHR and MPD representatives, then took the position that it does not have jurisdiction over the matter. As such, this action is not preempted by the Comprehensive Merit Personnel Act.

37. In the event that Lucas has not exhausted his administrative remedies, any further resort to the administrative process would be futile and useless because the D.C. Police and Firefighters' Retirement and Relief Board has already indicated that it does not have jurisdiction over the dispute. The D.C. Police and Firefighters' Retirement and Relief Board has already taken its position on this issue and indicated its unwillingness to reconsider the issue. Moreover, administrative remedies would be inadequate and Lucas would suffer irreparable injury absent immediate judicial review. Lucas is of retirement age and has been diligently attempting to rectify the harm done to him for years to no avail. This matter is ripe for federal judicial review.

38. On February 4, 2013, Lucas filed a federal lawsuit in this Court against the District of Columbia arising out of the foregoing facts. See Lucas v, District of Columbia, No.: 13-00143. That action was dismissed without prejudice on September 30, 2015.

39. Lucas continues to be deprived of the retirement benefits he rightfully earned in over 30 years of honorable federal and military service. To wit, Lucas did not receive proper credit for his actual 33 years of service, and he was forced to complete four additional probationary periods during that time instead of the customary one, which improperly and unnecessarily decreased the salary Lucas was earning at the time of his retirement in 2005. Additionally, due to his term of initial service with MPD he would not have been removed from the federal retirement system, as he should have been “restored” as an MPD employee under the federal retirement system before District of Columbia home-rule took effect.

COUNT I

(Entitlement to Back Pay and Attorney’s Fees Pursuant to 5 U.S.C.A. § 5596)

40. Lucas hereby incorporates paragraphs 1-39 as if fully stated herein.

41. Lucas was the recipient of unjustified and unwarranted personnel actions, which have resulted in the withdrawal and reduction of his pay, allowances, and benefits.

42. As per § 5596, Lucas is entitled to receive an amount equal to the salaries, titles, promotions, and benefits of which he was deprived, including the amount he was denied due to an improperly reduced retirement benefit.

43. Lucas is also entitled to attorney’s fees associated with this matter.

COUNT II

(Entitlement to Compensation for Loss of Wages and Benefits Pursuant to former 38 U.S.C.A. § 2201, et seq. Vietnam Veterans Reemployment Rights Act)

44. Lucas hereby incorporates paragraphs 1-43 as if fully stated herein.

45. Lucas’ initial service with MPD was unlawfully ended in 1973 when he entered military service with USMC. He was honorably discharged from the USMC in 1978.

46. Reemployment with MPD was not impossible or unreasonable, nor would MPD have suffered any undue hardship by reemploying Lucas.

47. Per former 38 USC § 2021, et seq., Lucas retained reemployment rights which should have yielded him proper benefits, compensation, advancement opportunities, etc., due to him had he been properly reinstated to his former employment by MPD.

48. Per former 38 USC § 2023(a), Lucas is entitled to receive an amount equal to the salaries, wages, and all other benefits of which he was deprived, including the amount he was denied due to an improperly reduced retirement benefit.

COUNT III
(Breach of Contract)

49. Lucas hereby incorporates paragraphs 1-48 as if fully stated herein.

50. The District Personnel Manual (“Manual”) was applicable to Lucas when he was employed by MPD from 1972 to 1973. The Manual was incorporated into the terms of Lucas’ employment at that time.

51. Chapter 8, Subpart 12.2(G)(2) of the Manual states that before an employee leaves for military duty, the employee is to be informed of his/her restoration rights, including how to exercise the rights, time limits applicable to the rights, and how, where and when to appeal to obtain those rights. Lucas was never given such counseling, even though his superiors were aware he was leaving MPD in 1973 in order to join the USMC, and that such reason is reflected on his paperwork.

52. Chapter 8, Subpart 13.1(A)(1) of the Manual states that an employee who leaves for military duty is entitled to restoration rights upon his or her return: “that when restored to his or her employment status [the position] is the same as if the employee had never left his or her employment.” Lucas was denied such restoration rights.

53. As a direct and proximate result of defendant’s breach of their contractual obligations under the Personnel Manual, Lucas has suffered a tremendous loss of earnings and retirement payments.

54. Notwithstanding the contractual obligations as set forth in paragraphs 32 and 33, defendant breached its contract with Lucas by failing to provide him the required separation counseling as well as failing to properly restore him to his previous employment upon his honorable discharge from military service.

55. As a direct and proximate result of defendant's breach, Lucas has been caused to suffer damages; has incurred lost wages; and has lost retirement benefits duly owed.

COUNT IV
(Negligence)

56. Lucas hereby incorporates paragraphs 1-55 as if fully stated herein.

57. Chapter 8, Subpart 13.3(A) of the District Personnel Manual states, in pertinent part: "Agencies are required to safeguard the rights of employees who are absent because of...military duty...To this end, agencies must...maintain the records necessary to assure that the rights granted these employees by law and regulation are preserved..."

58. At all times material, defendant had a duty to keep proper records reflecting and related to Lucas' employment within its agencies and to properly calculate his retirement benefits as a result of his service.

59. Notwithstanding the duties as set forth in paragraphs 38 and 39, defendant breached its duty of care by failing to keep appropriate records of Lucas' employment, failing to properly calculate his benefits, and failing to correct the error when brought to its attention.

60. As a direct, proximate result of defendant's negligence, Lucas was deprived of full employment salaries, titles, promotions, and benefits. Such deprivation caused Lucas to suffer improperly reduced retirement benefits. Further, as a direct and proximate result of defendant's negligence, plaintiff Lucas suffered a career loss of earnings and retirement payments.

61. At all times relevant, Lucas has been free of negligence and/or contributory negligence.

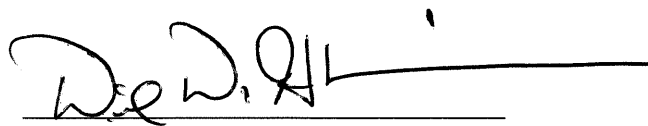

WHEREFORE, plaintiff Allan Earl Lucas, Jr. demands judgment against defendant District of Columbia in the sum of Two Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($2,500,00.00), plus pre-judgment interest, post-judgment interest, attorney's fees and costs associated with bringing this action and such further relief which this Court deems appropriate.

A TRIAL BY JURY IS DEMANDED.

Respectfully submitted,

ALLAN EARL LUCAS, JR.

Subj: Official Grievance / Request Investigation
Dear Ms. Moncrieff,

You completed my retirement package on May 16, 2005 and allowed me to retire from the Federal Civil Service Retirement system under the law enforcement provision. I received my Federal I.D. card and my monthly retirement checks for almost 2-years. Last month I received notice from OPM, that almost 20-years of my service years are not creditable to federal service.

This month, my retirement payment was drastically reduced. I was told that since I received a military furlough, I had to be restored to continue my original federal benefits. And that since I was not restored to OASD in 1978, none of my years of police service since 01/02/73, are creditable towards my retirement. What is going on, Ms. Moncrieff?

What does OPM mean by saying, "that I received a foulup but was not treated?" You sat with me and went through my career with me, to certify my years of service. You approved me for retirement. Now my retirement is being taken away from me. Something is terribly wrong, and I request an investigation be conducted, to get to the bottom of this.

I formally request that the D.C. Office of Personnel and the Mayor's Office conduct an investigation into this grievance. Please notify your superiors of my grievance and complaint. I have served my city and my country honorably. This is not fair to me or my family. I am quite sure that Mayor Fenty will not tolerate the way that I am being treated, and I respectfully request that your agency head notify him of my Official Grievance.

Please correspond to me in writing, to confirm that you have received this grievance.

Sincerely yours,
Allan C. Lucas, Jr.

Re: Adjustment of Retirement Status

Dear DCRB Member Services Representative:

Pursuant to my recent telephone conversation with your office, I am hereby requesting the correction of and restoration of rights and benefits acquired during my service as an Officer with the Metropolitan Police Department.

This request is based upon the following relevant facts: (1) On January 4, 1973 after working with the MPD since May 1, 1972 (attachment #1), I notified the MPD of my enlistment into the United States Marine Corps on February 3, 1973; (2) The date of January 20, 1973 was established by MPD as my official date of separation from the agency, instead of the day before my induction date. (3) This created the 10-day break in service between my exit from MPD, and my entry into the United States Marine Corps. (4) I was separated without the benefit of absence for military duty or employment restoration. (5) Due to this adverse action, I was denied restoration to MPD after being honorably discharged. (6) This denial caused me to lose my pre-home rule federal civil service law enforcement retirement and benefits with MPD.

Upon my return to Washington, D.C., after receiving an honorable discharge from the United States Marine Corps, I went to the MPD to seek restoration rights as an employee returning from active military service with an honorable discharge consistent with the provisions of § 13.1 of the District of Columbia Personnel Manual. At that time I made a request to be reinstated to my previous position as a Police Officer (attachment #2). I was informed that I would receive a response in writing within two weeks. Dated February 17, 1978 I received written notice that my reinstatement was denied (attachment #3). I subsequently followed up on the denial with an actual visit to the Recruiting Department and I was told that no record of my prior service with MPD was on file. They were sorry, but there was no job available for me.

Subsequently, I was fortunate enough to obtain employment with the United States Marshal's Service from 1980-1982 (attachment #4). In 1982 the Metropolitan Police Department contacted me regarding employment and I returned to their employ as a newly recruited Police Officer under post-home rule District retirement (attachment #4), successfully completed the Police Academy and worked as a District Police Officer until the fall of 1993, when I was reinstated to the federal Civil Service Law Enforcement Retirement System as a D.C. Corrections Officer (attachment #5).

It was not until my retirement in 2005, that I discovered that my original pre-Home Rule federal civil service time was listed on my total computation sheet from OPM, and proved that MPD did have a record of my original employment in 1972 (attachment #6), and that MPD should have restored me to duty upon my honorable discharge. I had a federal right to restoration to my previous MPD employment.

It was not until recently, that I discovered from my original SF 52 from MPD service, that I had been "terminated by military" by MPD in 1973, and that my action was listed as a "resignation," instead of an absence for military duty as required by law. This is the adverse action that created a break-in-service, and a denial of my restoration rights.

Listed on my SF-52 is the information that on May 30, 1973, 4-months after I left for active duty, the MPD initiated a Personnel Action stating that I had been terminated based upon a resignation to enter the armed services instead of being listed as an Absence by Military Duty (attachment #7). This was done, despite the entry clearly stating that the reason for the action was "to enter the armed forces." Yet no evidence is listed, that I was informed of my right to restoration, or that my employment would be held for me upon my discharge (attachments #8 - #9).

The effect of this was the denial of my restoration rights, thereby adversely impacting the reinstatement of my Civil Service police career, and my inability to retire as a Police Officer with my correct and full Federal Civil Service Law Enforcement benefits.

Based upon the above information and attached documents I am requesting that the District of Columbia Retirement Board resolve these inconsistencies and make the appropriate adjustment reflecting my correct retirement agency and lost police benefits.

Your assistance in this matter is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

cc: Senator Mitch McConnell

Dear Mr. Lucas:

This is in response to your letter of March 26, 2010, requesting that DCRB review and adjust your pension under the District of Columbia Police Officers and Firefighters' Retirement Plan (the "Plan") to reflect the District, federal, and military service noted in your letter and its attachments.

As the Plan's Administrator, DCRB has the responsibility to calculate and pay benefits that members have accrued under the provisions of the Plan. DCRB has no authority, however, to either determine eligibility for retirement, which is the responsibility of the Police and Firefighters' Retirement and Relief Board (PFRRB), or to determine employment rights with the District of Columbia Metropolitan Police Department (DCMPD), which is the responsibility of DCMPD. Consequently, I am forwarding your letter and its attachments to the PFRRB, with a copy of same to the DCMPD's Human Resources Office.

In the event that a review by PFRRB and DCMPD of the information you provided in your letter results in changes that affect your pension benefit, PFRRB and/or DCMPD will send that information to DCRB and we will recalculate your benefit.

Should you have questions concerning this matter, please contact me at (202) 343-3238 or at joan.passerino@dc.gov.

Sincerely,

Joan M. Passerino

Washington, DC 20011

Dear Ms. Wynne:

The District of Columbia Police and Firefighters' Retirement and Relief Board ("Board") is in receipt of your client's correspondence and has completed its investigation of the matter presented by Mr. Allan Lucas' former counsel, Karl Carter, Jr. Mr. Carter requested an adjustment of his client's pension to include his service with the D.C. Metropolitan Police Department (hereinafter referred to as "DCMPD" or "Department") during the period of May 1, 1972, through January 1, 1973. This request was based on the fact the United States Office of Personnel ("OPM") issued a Notice of Annuity Adjustment to Mr. Lucas on February 5, 2007, decreasing his monthly annuity because of an overpayment.

ISSUE PRESENTED

- I. Whether the Annuitant, Allan E. Lucas, Jr., a former employee with the DCMPD was erroneously denied a military furlough in January 1973, and therefore, entitled to an adjustment in his pension.
- II. Whether DCMPD erroneously denied Mr. Lucas reemployment with the Department in February 1978 when he returned from service with the Armed Forces.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Annuitant, a former Correctional Officer, voluntarily retired from his position with the D.C. Department of Corrections on May 16, 2005. He was awarded an annuity in accordance with Civil Service Retirement for Law Enforcement Officers. On February 5, 2007, the U.S. Office of Personnel ("OPM") issued A Special Notice to Annuitant informing him that his annuity was being reduced because he did not have sufficient creditable service with the Civil Service Retirement System to justify the payments he had been receiving. The OPM reduced the annuity to recover overpayments made to Mr. Lucas from the date he received his first annuity payment in 2005 until February 2007. The decreased pension was scheduled to go into effect on March 1, 2007. Mr. Lucas was advised he had a right to file a request for reconsideration within thirty days of OPM's notice.

On April 27, 2010, the District of Columbia Retirement Board ("DCRB") issued a letter to Annuitant, responding to his inquiry requesting that it review and adjust his pension under the District of Columbia Officers and Firefighters Retirement Plan (the "Plan"). According to DCRB's response, on March 26, 2010 Annuitant requested an adjustment of his pension to reflect his District, federal and military service. Ms. Joan Passerino, the Chief Benefits Officer for the DCRB, wrote that the Police and Firefighters' Retirement and Relief Board (the "PFRRB") has the responsibility of determining a member's eligibility for retirement, and that the District of Columbia Metropolitan Police Department ("DCMPD" or "Department") has the responsibility of determining an individual's employment rights with its Department. A copy of Ms. Passerino's April 27, 2010 letter to Annuitant was forwarded to the "Human Resources Office, MPD," and to PFRRB.

On May 13, 2010, Annuitant wrote the PFRRB "requesting help from [our] office" because he was "attempting to correct [his] career-service retirement, due to an adverse action that occurred during [his] service as an Officer with the Metropolitan Police Department." This letter was accompanied by a number of attachments which purports to establish the facts surrounding his employment with the DCMPD, his military service with the United States Marine Corps, and his attempt to obtain reinstatement with the Department after completing his military service. The attachments are listed as follows:

- 1) Attachment #1: Personnel Action, dated "04-28-72," which details the appointment of Mr. Lucas to a full-time position with the Department as a Police Officer, subject to the completion of a probationary period;
- 2) Attachment #2: A letter to the Department, Recruiting Branch, Inspector Addison Davis, from Mr. Lucas, dated "02-15-78," wherein he requests reinstatement to his previous job.
- 3) Attachment #3: A memorandum from Investigator Laurence J. Wade, Recruiting Branch, through Sergeant Donald H. Christian, to Commanding Officer Addison L. Davis, dated "Feb. 17, 1978;"
- 4) Attachment #4: Notification of Personnel Action, dated "11-26-80," which details the appointment of Mr. Lucas to the U.S. Marshals Service, as a Deputy U.S. Marshal;
- 5) Attachment #5: Personnel Action, dated "05-20-82," which details a Career Service Appointment to the Department as a Police Officer;

- 6) Attachment #6: Personnel Action, dated "04-26-94," which details the reinstatement of Mr. Lucas to a Career position as a Correctional Officer;
- 7) Attachment #7: Certified Summary of Federal Service, Civil Service Retirement System for Mr. Lucas, bearing the following information at the top of the page: "Apr 13 10 11:41 a Lucas Security Sv,"
- 8) Attachment #8: Personnel Action, dated "05-30-73," Mr. Lucas' resignation from the Department;
- 9) Attachments #9 & 10: Request for Personnel Action, listing the date of request as "01-11-73," detailing Mr. Lucas' resignation from the Department, effective "01-20-73," and processed by the Personnel Office on "5-21-73" and "5-29-73."

On July 29, 2010, Karla Kirby, then Chairperson of the Police and Firefighters' Retirement and Relief Board, issued a response to Annuitant's request for a review and adjustment of his Pension under the District of Columbia Police and Firefighters' Retirement Plan. Mrs. Kirby acknowledged that she reviewed the documents Annuitant submitted in support of his request. She determined that by affixing his signature to Part II of the SF-52 (Personnel Action) Annuitant acknowledged and accepted the resignation date of January 30, 1973. Mrs. Kirby also wrote that there was no evidence presented to indicate that Annuitant had requested a military furlough instead of resigning from the Department.

In addition to the above findings, Mrs. Kirby determined that Annuitant retired from the D.C. Department of Corrections as a Correctional Officer, a position covered under the Civil Service Retirement System for Law Enforcement ("CSRS LE"); that he was employed with DCMPD during three separate periods; and that at the time he resigned from DCMPD on January 20, 1973, he was employed as a Police Cadet, a non-law enforcement position, which was not covered by CSRS LE.

Additionally, Mrs. Kirby determined that Annuitant was employed with the Department during a second period from September 20, 1982, through July 14, 1984. He resigned and withdrew his retirement contributions from the D.C. Police Officers' and Firefighters' Retirement Plan, a plan separate and distinct from CSRS LE. This was followed by a third tour of duty with the Department from March 18, 1985, until he resigned in September 1993. Annuitant received a refund of his retirement contributions from the Plan on November 10, 1993. Finally, she determined that Annuitant served a total of eleven (11) years and sixteen days under the Police and Firefighters' Plan, but that he did not meet the retirement criteria for an active police officer. In addition, he did not retain any creditable service under the plan because he had withdrawn his retirement contributions.

On August 17, 2010, Annuitant participated in an informal meeting with the Attorney-Advisor to the Police and Firefighters' Retirement and Relief Board Pamela Brown. He was accompanied by his counsel, Mr. Karl Carter and Mr. Michael Davis.

441 4th Street, NW, Suite 330S, Washington, D.C., 20001

Also in attendance were Supervisory Human Resource Specialist Sheila Ford, and Human Resource Specialists Alicia Cooper and Wanda Moncrieffe.¹ Annuitant reiterated the information that was previously relayed in his letters to the Board. Mr. Carter provided counsel with case law to support his client's position. On August 19, 2010, Mr. Carter submitted additional copies of the same paperwork to the attention of Ms. Brown for her review. On September 20, 2011, Mr. Carter submitted additional records to the attention of Ms. Brown, including an "Appointment Affidavits," which purports to be an oath of office taken by Annuitant. The words "District of Columbia Government" are typed on the top line, followed by the handwritten words "Metropolitan Police Dept. Wash. D.C.," bearing a date of May 1, 1972. The remaining documents were more legible copies of documents previously submitted for review.

Annuitant maintains he is entitled to creditable civilian service for the period he served with the Department from May 1972 through January 1973, and for his military assignment. Annuitant argues that the Department did not comply with existing federal law when it failed to counsel him regarding his restoration rights. He asserts that this would place him in a position to receive creditable service for the two tours of duty he spent in the military and enable him to collect a higher annuity.

JURISDICTION

With the implementation of the District of Columbia Home Rule, the Mayor was vested with the authority to administer the personnel functions of the District. The Mayor's authority covers employees from all District departments, boards, commissions, offices and agencies, with some exceptions which are noted in the statute. See D.C. Official Code § 1-204.22(3). Personnel legislation enacted by Congress prior to or after January 2, 1975, including, but not limited to legislation pertaining to retirement for all District government employees, was to continue in effect until the newly formed Council could provide coverage under a District government merit system. As a result, individuals employed by the District government preceding the effective date of the legislation continued to participate in the Federal Civil Service System, including its other applicable retirement systems.

The legislative history of this section indicates the District of Columbia Government Comprehensive Merit Personnel Act ("CMPA") was enacted in 1978 pursuant to section 422(3) of the District of Columbia Home Rule Act (87 Stat. 790; Public Law 93-198; D.C. Code § 1-242(3) with respect to the compensation of District of Columbia employees.²

¹ Ms. Ford and Ms. Moncrieffe are no longer employed with the D.C. Department of Human Resources.
² Bill No. 2-139 was adopted by the Council on first and second readings on October 17, 1978, and October 31, 1978. The Mayor signed the Bill on November 22, 1978, and it was transmitted to both Houses of Congress for its review. D.C. Code § 1-636.02 states that the CMPA became effective on March 3, 1979. The enactment of Home Rule and the CMPA took place long after Annuitant resigned from his first stint with the Department in January 1973.

- (a) Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, unless specifically exempted from certain provisions, this chapter shall apply to all employees of the District of Columbia government, except the Chief Judges and Associate Judges of the Superior Court of the District of Columbia and the District of Columbia Court of Appeals and the nonjudicial personnel of said Courts. With the exception of subchapters V and XVII of this chapter, and § 1-608.01(e), employees of the D.C. General Hospital and the D.C. General Hospital Commission shall be exempt from the provisions of this chapter.
- (b) Repealed.
- (c) The provisions of subchapter XV-A shall apply to employees of all District agencies, including, but not limited to employees of subordinate agencies, independent agencies, the District of Columbia Board of Education, the Board of Trustees of the University of the District of Columbia, the District of Columbia Housing Authority, and the Metropolitan Police Department.

The District of Columbia Council enacted the CMPA with the intention of providing District employees with their exclusive remedies for claims arising out of employer conduct in handling personnel ratings, employee grievances and adverse actions. See District of Columbia v. Thompson, 593 A.2d 621, 623-24 (D.C. 1991).

D.C. Official Code § 1-604.02 established the Office of Personnel, and permitted the Mayor to delegate his authority exclusively to the Director of Personnel. In addition, the Mayor was given authority to issue rules and regulations to govern the District's personnel, pursuant to D.C. Official Code § 1-604.04. D.C. Official Code § 1-604.06, specifically places personnel authority for the District of Columbia government with the Mayor, with some exceptions.

In D.C. Official Code § 1-601.01(2) the Council of the District of Columbia promulgated the following:

The provisions of sections §§ 1-202.01(f), 1-202.04(g), 1-204.22(3), 1-207.13(c) and (d), and 1-207.14(c), guarantee certain benefits to incumbent employees of the District of Columbia government and those persons transferred to the District of Columbia government from the formerly independent National Capital Housing Authority, District of Columbia Redevelopment Land Agency and the District of Columbia Department of Manpower including, without limitation, benefits relating to appointments, promotions, discipline, separation, pay, unemployment, compensation, health, disability and death benefits, leave, retirement, insurance, and veterans preference.

D.C. Code § 1-602.04 (2006 Repl.) establishes the status of those employees employed by the District of Columbia government on the date the CMPA became effective as provided in § 1-636.02. It also addresses retention of the employees' existing rights. More specifically, it states:

- (a) Persons employed by the District of Columbia government serving on the date that this chapter becomes effective, as provided in § 1-636.02, shall be guaranteed rights and benefits at least equal to those currently applicable to such persons under provisions of personnel law and rules and regulations in force on the date immediately prior to the date that this chapter becomes effective as provided in § 1-636.02.
- (b) All provisions of existing contracts between the District government and labor organizations shall be honored until their expiration.
- (c) On January 1, 1980, all persons employed by the District of Columbia government, including those persons employed by the District of Columbia government on the date that this chapter becomes effective as provided in § 1-636.02, shall automatically transfer into the appropriate personnel system established pursuant to subchapters VIII and VIII-A of this chapter or § 1-609.09. The classification and compensation for the position assumed upon transfer, and the rights and benefits inhering in such position, shall be at least equal to the classification, compensation, rights and benefits associated with the position from which said employee is transferred. The rights and benefits protected under this subsection shall be only those applicable to said employees under the provisions of personnel laws and rules and regulations in force on December 31, 1979; Provided, however, that no employee covered under the provision of this subsection shall be reduced in pay except as provide in subchapter XXIV of this chapter.
- (d) After January 1, 1980, persons employed by the District of Columbia government on the date that this chapter becomes effective as provided in § 1-636.02 and who transfer into the appropriate personnel system, pursuant to subsection (c) of this section, shall be governed by the provisions of this chapter, with the exception of subsection (e) of § 1-608.01 and subsection (d) of § 1-608.01a.
- (e) Employees hired on or after the date that this chapter becomes effective as provided in § 1-636.02 shall be governed by all the provisions of this chapter without exception.

On the other hand, the D.C. Police and Firefighters' Retirement Board ("PFRRB") was created under a separate and distinct statutory provision, and its duties are fairly limited in scope. D.C. Official Code § 5-721 (a) states:

- a) The Mayor shall consider all cases for the retirement of members and all applications for annuities under this subchapter subject to review and final determination by the District of Columbia Retirement Board. In each case of retirement of a member the Mayor shall certify in writing the physical condition of the member for whom retirement is sought. The Mayor shall give written notice to any member under consideration by him for retirement to appear before him and to give evidence under oath. The proceedings before the Mayor involving the retirement of any member, or any application for an annuity under this subchapter, shall be reduced to writing and shall show the date of appointment of such member, his age, his record in the service, and any other information which may be pertinent to the matter of such retirement or annuity. . . .

Further, a Member of the Police and Firefighters' Plan is defined in D.C. Official Code § 5-701(A) as :

[A]ny officer or member of the Metropolitan Police force, of the Fire Department of the District of Columbia, of the United States Park Police force, of the United States Secret Service Uniformed Division, and any officer or member of the United States Secret Service Division to whom this subchapter shall apply, but does not include an officer or member of the United States Park Police force, of the United States Secret Service Uniformed Division, or of the United States Secret Service Division, whose service is employment for the purposes of title II of the Social Security Act and chapter 21 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and who is not excluded from coverage under chapter 84 of title 5, United States Code, by operation of 8402 of such title.

In addition, D.C. Official Code § 5-706(b)(2) states:

Any member who is an officer or member of the Metropolitan Police force or the Fire Department of the District of Columbia with less than 5 years of police or fire service who is separated from his department, except for retirement under § 5-709, § 5-710, or § 5-712, shall be refunded the amount of the deductions made from his salary under this subchapter. The receipt of payment of such deductions by such member shall void all annuity rights under this subchapter, except that if such member is subsequently reappointed to any department whose members come under this subchapter and such member elects, at the time of such reappointment, to redeposit the amount refunded to him pursuant to the preceding sentence plus interest computed in accordance with § 5-717(c), then credit shall be allowed under this subchapter for the prior period of service. Such redeposit (and the interest required thereon) may be made, at the election of the member, in a lump sum or in not to exceed 60 monthly installments, except that if such member dies before depositing the full amount due under the preceding sentence, the requirements of such sentence shall be deemed to have been met. (Emphasis added)

Clearly, the statutory language above does not delegate personnel authority to the PFRRB. The sole purpose of the PFRRB is to determine whether a Member is eligible to retire, and whether he is eligible to receive an annuity based on his years of service to his department. PFRRB also determines if an active member has incurred a disability in the performance of his duties with the department. Therefore, determining whether the Annuitant is entitled to additional creditable service is purely a personnel function, well outside the scope of the authority of the PFRRB.

On the other hand, Mayor's Order 2008-81, dated June 5, 2008, delegates joint personnel authority in the area of recruitment and selection for all Career, Legal and Management Supervisory Service positions to the D.C. Department of Human Resources and the heads of certain covered agencies, including, but not limited to, the D.C. Metropolitan Department. This Order specifically vests authority in the DCMPD to "appoint, assign to duty, and promote all officers and members of the DCMPD as provided in D.C. Official Code § 5-105.04 (2006 Repl.)."³ This order was subsequently amended by Mayor's Order 2009-117, on June 19, 2009, and DCMPD was delegated joint personnel authority for purposes of "personnel and rulemaking authority vested in the Mayor over officers and members of the MPD under D.C. Code §§ 1-604.04 and 1-604.06 (2006)." This language was inadvertently omitted from Mayor's Order 2008-81. Thus, the issue of whether or not Annuitant was entitled to re-appointment to the Department upon the completion of his military service, and consequently, entitled to additional creditable service, is a personnel function solely within the province of the DCMPD as set forth in Mayor's Orders 2008-81 and 2009-117.

Annuitant makes two arguments in support of his position that he should be awarded creditable time for the period he served with the Department from May 1, 1972, through January 1, 1973. First, he argues that the Department committed a "key error and/or omission" when it failed to provide him with a military furlough, "knowing that [he] was leaving Federal service to enter the Armed Forces during a time of war." He maintains that the Department failed to counsel him regarding his rights; that the Department should have advised him that he had a right to take a military furlough instead of resigning from his position with the Department. Second, Annuitant asserts that the "downward adjustment of his pension . . . was a "direct result of the [Department's] failure to grant a military furlough and to restore [him] to uniformed service as required by Federal law."

The documents Annuitant presented for review reflect that he was first employed with the District of Columbia Government in 1972. A copy of a Personnel Action Form, dated April 28, 1972, indicates the Annuitant was appointed to the position of, police cadet, GS 301, Grade 2, Step 1, with an annual salary of $5,510.00, effective May 1, 1972. This document reflects that Annuitant was a probationary employee, in a Career Conditional appointment, for D.C. Government only. It also notes that he was placed in the "CS Retirement" category. A copy of a second document, dated May 30, 1973, indicates that Annuitant voluntarily resigned from DCMPD, approximately seven months later, while still a probationary employee. The resignation was effective January 20, 1973. Again, Annuitant is listed as enrolled in the "CS Retirement" system.⁴ This document also states that Annuitant was employed full-time, and a "termination code" number "5" was placed in the box, denoting military. Under the Section for "Remarks", a typewritten entry was made which states: "Reason to enter the armed services. . . .

Forms issued SF55 and unemployment compensation sheet pay leave.” On the reverse side of this document, under the section titled “Separation Data”, a handwritten “x” is placed in the box beside the words “during probation”. A handwritten note, also states: Reason: to enter the armed forces.” The record reflects Annuitant was subsequently enrolled in the U.S. Marine Corps for at least two tours of duty, from January 2, 1973 through February 13, 1975, and from February 14, 1975, through February 3, 1978, a total of five (5) years and one (1) month. According to another document submitted for review, Annuitant was honorably discharged from both tours of duty.

On February 15, 1978, upon his discharge from the military, Annuitant purportedly submitted a handwritten letter to DCMPD which indicated he is a “disabled veteran” and requesting reinstatement. He specifically wrote he “wished to have his job again.” Ostensibly, Annuitant requested reinstatement in his former position as a probationary police cadet. Accompanying this letter was a response from DCMPD, dated “Feb. 17, 1978” which denied Annuitant’s request. It bears a handwritten notation, to wit: “not recom-----,” followed by a signature of “Sgt. Donald H. Christian,” and a handwritten date of “02/18/78” below the signature.

According to the Certified Summary of Federal Service, Civil Service Retirement System, Annuitant was subsequently hired by the National Gallery of Art on March 12, 1978. He resigned from that federal agency on March 26, 1978. Annuitant was also employed with the U.S. Marshal Service (April 2, 1980 through September 18, 1982), followed by two additional tours with DCMPD (September 20, 1982 through July 14, 1984, and March 18, 1985 through September 18, 1993). This position was subject to completion of an eighteen month probationary period. Annuitant was notified that since he was a non-District resident, his appointment with the Department was contingent upon him complying with the residency requirement. The final position held by Annuitant was as a Correctional Officer, with the D.C. Department of Corrections (hereinafter referred to as “Corrections”). This was a Career appointment, effective April 18, 1994. Annuitant voluntarily retired from this position on May 16, 2005.

The Military Selective Service Act of 1967, previously codified at 50 U.S.C. App. § 459(b), was in effect during the time Annuitant resigned his position with the Department to enter the military. The Military Selective Service Act provided reemployment rights to those service members who left their civilian positions to enter the military. In order to benefit from this statute, civilians were required to give advance written or verbal notice to their employers of their upcoming military service. In addition, to be eligible for reemployment they had to receive an honorable discharge from the military.

The Military Selective Service Act was subsequently replaced by the Veterans Reemployment Rights Act (“VRRA”), previously codified at 38 U.S.C.A. §§ 2021 et seq. The VRRA was in effect at the time Annuitant was discharged from the Marine Corps. Both of these statutes have been replaced by the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 1994 (“USERRA”) which added some additional substantive provisions to strengthen the law, as well as provide more clarity and simplify the rights of the veterans.

The VRRRA provisions are still applicable to the Annuitant's case which arose before the 1994 effective date of USERRA. See Fernandez v. Dep't of the Army, 234 F.3d, 553, 557 (Fed. Cir. 2000). One court held that the retroactive application of USERRA is prohibited to cases which occurred prior to 1994 because it could "impair rights a party possessed when he acted, increase a party's liability for past conduct, or impose new duties with respect to transactions already completed." Landgraf v. USI Film Prods., 511 U.S. 244, 280, 114 S. Ct. 1483 (1994).

Like its predecessor, the statutory provisions of the VRRRA mandate re-employing individuals in the positions they held prior to their military stint and awarding them the perquisites associated with those jobs, provided it is reasonably certain the individual would have received them. Furthermore, upon reemployment the individual is to be treated as not having a break in service for purposes of participation in a pension plan. VRRRA establishes specific rights for reemployed service members. Presumably this covers employee pension benefit plans maintained by an employer that provide retirement income covered by the plan. Once a member of the pension plan is reemployed, he is treated as if there were no break in coverage. It is treated as an uninterrupted period of employment with the employer for purposes of calculating pension.

In the event, the employee has sustained a service-connected disability, an additional requirement may be imposed upon the employer to determine if the employee can be brought back to the Department in his original position with reasonable accommodations. If the employee is unable to perform his duties with accommodations, the employer must determine if the employee can be placed in an "equivalent" position for which he is qualified. If not, the employer has an obligation to look at whether an alternative position can be identified, and which actually exists, in which the employee should be considered. It is incumbent upon the employer to conduct this type of analysis in order to protect the rights of returning veterans. The answers to these questions and many cannot be answered in that more than Annuitant was obligated to notify the Department that he was seeking reemployment upon completing his service with the U.S. Marine Corps, and in fact was obligated to submit an "application for reemployment" no later than 90 days after completion of his service, or within two years if the member was hospitalized or spent time convalescing from an illness or injury incurred in the performance of service in the uniformed services. It is not clear from the documents submitted to the undersigned if the Annuitant complied with these requirements. This is information known only to the appropriate personnel authority, DCMPD. The copy of the letter Annuitant purportedly submitted to the Department on February 15, 1978, may not necessarily qualify as an "application for reemployment." The alleged "denial" by the Department, as set forth in the copy of the letter dated "Feb 18, 1978", bearing the signature Sgt. Donald Christian, may not necessarily qualify as a "denial" of reemployment. In any event, the reasons or basis for the "denial" are not contained within the four corners of the document. These reasons are ostensibly known only to Sgt. Donald Christian, someone who was employed with the Department more than 34 years ago. Additionally, there is no record of the Annuitant appealing Sgt. Christian's decision to a higher authority. There is only a record of the Annuitant being reemployed with the Department some 4 ½ years later on September 20, 1982. No evidence or records were presented to establish whether Annuitant was advised of his rights as they pertain to his pension. Annuitant served approximately 22 months with the Department before he resigned on July 14, 1984.

The Annuitant was reemployed with the Department on March 18, 1985, and served for another 8 ½ years before he resigned for the third and final time on September 18, 1993. Again, no evidence was presented to establish if he was advised of his rights as they pertain to his pension. However, information obtained from DCRB indicate the Annuitant withdrew his retirement contributions, thereby nullifying his entitlement to a pension/annuity calculated based on funds received during this time period. Although, Annuitant is entitled to creditable time for these periods of service, his pension was subject to a reduction because of this withdrawal. There is no record that the Annuitant re-deposited the withdrawn amounts into his retirement account.

The question arises whether the Annuitant acted in a timely manner in pursuing this claim against the District. Arguably, he has not. Annuitant's claim is time-barred pursuant to the doctrine of laches. Annuitant argues that he did not know that he was being denied creditable service for the time he served in DCMPD in 1972-1973, and for the period he served in the military, until he received a special notice of from OPM, dated February 5, 2007, reducing his annuity. However, this assertion is contrary to the evidence. The Annuitant attempted to exercise his rights pursuant to the Military Selective Service Act or VRRRA when he wrote a letter to the Department in February 1978 requesting re-employment. Upon receipt of the letter from Sgt. Christian dated February 18, 1978, the Annuitant was placed on notice that he may have been "denied" his rights pursuant to the federal statute. It was at this point in time, more than 34 years ago, that the Annuitant was under an obligation to pursue his rights. Instead, the Annuitant chose to find employment outside the District Government.

In fact, the Annuitant was reemployed with the Department in September 1982, more than 4 ½ years after he was "denied" employment in 1978. The Annuitant knew, or should have known, that he may have had a claim against the Department at that time. However, there is no record that he pursued this matter with the Department at that time. He resigned in July 1984. After a hiatus of approximately eight months, the Annuitant was reemployed with the Department a third time in March 1985. Again, there is no record of him pursuing the matter regarding his pension. And once again, the Annuitant resigned his position with the Department.

Because more than 32 years passed before the Annuitant sent letters to the DCRB and the PFRRB seeking additional creditable service, the Department has been prejudiced by his unreasonable delay and negligence. This failure on his part to pursue his claim in either "1973" or "1978," for whatever reasons, are known only to him. The Annuitant committed an unreasonable delay in failing to assert his rights with regard to this issue, thereby causing prejudice to the employer. For example, it has been more than 30 years since DCMPD decided not to reemploy the Annuitant in 1978. Thus, the whereabouts of potential Department witnesses is unknown, and crucial evidence may have been lost

Counsel's reliance on Staub v. Proctor Hospital, 131 S. Ct. 1186 (2011), is misplaced. In that case the petitioner alleged that he was discharged from his employment because his supervisors were openly hostile to him because of his military reservist obligations. Petitioner was terminated from his job and immediately filed a grievance with his employer based on discriminatory treatment. The Court noted that USERRA was similar in nature to Title VII which prohibits employment discrimination on a variety of bases. The Court held:

[I]f a supervisor performs an act motivated by antimilitary animus that is intended by the supervisor to cause an adverse employment action, and if that act is a proximate cause of the ultimate employment action, then the employer is liable under USERRA. (footnotes omitted)

Unlike the petitioner in Staub, the record is devoid of any evidence of "motivating factors" on the part of the Department to discriminate against Mr. Lucas by not restoring him to his previous employment with the Department as a police cadet. The reasons the Department did not reemploy Mr. Lucas in February 1978 are known only to the parties involved in the Department's hiring practices at that time. Thus, there is no evidence of an adverse action being taken against Mr. Lucas.

Similarly, counsel's reliance on King v. St. Vincent's Hospital, 502 U.S. 215 (1991), is also misplaced. In that case, the petitioner, a National Guard member, i.e., a reservist, immediately notified his employer that he had accepted a 3-year full-time appointment with the Guard, and requested a leave of absence. The employer denied his request on the basis that the length of time the petitioner requested was unreasonable. The Supreme Court analyzed whether 38 U.S.C. 2024(d) implicitly limits the length of military service after which a member of the Armed Forces retains a right to civilian reemployment. It held that it does not. The Court noted that the statute was silent on the matter, but that other provisions in section 2024 imposed explicit time limitations on enlisted servicemen and active duty members; however, it did not do so with regard to reservists. Ultimately, the Court determined that the petitioner's leave request was reasonable and protected by the VRRRA. No evidence has been presented to establish that Mr. Lucas informed the Department that he requested a four or five year leave of absence in order to perform service with the Armed Forces, and that the Department found his request unreasonable.

Section 2022 of the VRRRA was amended in 1974 to provide that no state statute of limitations is applicable to any proceedings under the Act. Prior to 1974, some courts were actually applying state statute of limitations. See Gruca v. United States Steel Corp., 495 F.2d 1252 (1974, CA3 Pa) (the veteran delayed more than 9 years in bringing his case; 6 year statute of limitations imposed). They also employed the doctrine of laches both before and after the amendment to Section 2022. See Goodman v. McDonnell Douglas Corp. 606 F.2d 800 (1979, CA8 Mo.), cert den., 446 U.S. 913, (year); Churma v. United States Steel Corp. 514 F.2d 589, (1975, CA3 Pa)

Mr. Lucas bears the burden of proving any equitable reasons he has for failing to raise this matter in a timely manner. He chose to focus on the date of the receipt of his Special Notice from the U.S. Office of Personnel Management (“OPM”), which is dated February 5, 2007, as the date he first became aware that his annuity had been substantially reduced because he was not reemployed by the Department in 1978 when he returned from serving time with the U.S. Marine Corps. At that time, OPM advised Mr. Lucas that he must file a request for reconsideration within 30 days of the date of its notice. This was essential to preserve any appellate rights he may have to the U.S. Merit Systems Protection Board (“MSPB”), however, there is no evidence to show that he complied with this mandate.

Although, Mr. Lucas would have us believe that he pursued this matter in a timely manner, the fact remains that the underlying action that precipitated his current request took place more than 30 years ago. Mr. Lucas failed to act reasonably and exercise due diligence when he failed to follow up on the Department’s “recommendation” not to reemploy him, thereby unequivocally waiving his reemployment rights. There are a number of potential and very critical pitfalls associated with trying to investigate the facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, more than three decades after their alleged occurrence. First, and foremost, the individuals who worked for the Department, including but not limited to Donald H. Christian, Sergeant, Squad #2, Addison L. Davis, Commanding Officer for the Recruiting Branch, and Laurence J. Wade, Investigator for the Recruiting Branch, are no longer employed with the Department.

Second, the individuals who signed Mr. Lucas’ Personnel Action Form 52 in “1973” may no longer be with Department. The Department may have wished to dispute the allegations made by Mr. Lucas and bring forth an array of witnesses and documents known only to their agency. Alternatively, witnesses and documents that would shed light on this matter may have been lost over the past 30 years.

Third, there are a number of other factors to be addressed in the event the Department seeks to hire or reemploy a former employee. For example, there may be a dispute regarding the disability Mr. Lucas alluded to in his correspondence to the Department. Annuitant would have had to meet the appropriate physical and mental fitness standard requirements of the day, as well as successfully complete the D.C. Police Cadet Training Program. He would also have had to successfully pass a background investigation. These factors were important thirty years ago and would have to have been addressed by the appropriate hiring personnel in February 1978.

In any event, allowing a claim in this matter to go forward after more than three decades have passed, would be extremely prejudicial to the Department at this late date. The doctrine of laches bars any claim in this matter because of Mr. Lucas’ unreasonable delay in pursuing this matter, more than 30 years later.

Furthermore, the fact that Mr. Lucas was reemployed by the Department during two intervening periods raises the question of whether either of them addressed the reemployment issue of “1973” and “1978” when Mr. Lucas was hired in 1982 and/or

In the Matter of Allan E. Lucas, Jr., Annuitant

1986, including, whether the parties had any dialogue or discussion surrounding Mr. Lucas' pension.

For all of the foregoing reasons, I have determined that the D.C. Police and Firefighters' Retirement and Relief Board has no jurisdiction in this matter. Nor does the Board possess any statutory or regulatory authority to decide personnel issues, such as determining Mr. Lucas' right to any benefits pursuant to the VRRRA and USERRA.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA et al

INITIAL ORDER AND ADDENDUM

Pursuant to D.C. Code § 11-906 and District of Columbia Superior Court Rule of Civil Procedure (“Super. Ct. Civ. R.”) 40-I, it is hereby ORDERED as follows:

(1) Effective this date, this case has assigned to the individual calendar designated below. All future filings in this case shall bear the calendar number and the judge’s name beneath the case number in the caption. On filing any motion or paper related thereto, one copy (for the judge) must be delivered to the Clerk along with the original.

(2) Within 60 days of the filing of the complaint, plaintiff must file proof of serving on each defendant: copies of the summons, the complaint, and this Initial Order and Addendum. As to any defendant for whom such proof of service has not been filed, the Complaint will be dismissed without prejudice for want of prosecution unless the time for serving the defendant has been extended as provided in Super. Ct. Civ. R. 4(m).

(3) Within 21 days of service as described above, except as otherwise noted in Super. Ct. Civ. R. 12, each defendant must respond to the complaint by filing an answer or other responsive pleading. As to the defendant who has failed to respond, a default and judgment will be entered unless the time to respond has been extended as provided in Super. Ct. Civ. R. 55(a).

(4) At the time and place noted below, all counsel and unrepresented parties shall appear before the assigned judge at an initial scheduling and settlement conference to discuss the possibilities of settlement and to establish a schedule for the completion of all proceedings, including, normally, either mediation, case evaluation, or arbitration. Counsel shall discuss with their clients prior to the conference whether the clients are agreeable to binding or non-binding arbitration. This order is the only notice that parties and counsel will receive concerning this Conference.

(5) Upon advice that the date noted below is inconvenient for any party or counsel, the Quality Review Branch (202) 879-1750 may continue the Conference once, with the consent of all parties, to either of the two succeeding Fridays. Request must be made not less than seven business days before the scheduling conference date.

No other continuance of the conference will be granted except upon motion for good cause shown.

(6) Parties are responsible for obtaining and complying with all requirements of the General Order for Civil cases, each judge’s Supplement to the General Order and the General Mediation Order. Copies of these orders are available in the Courtroom and on the Court’s website <http://www.dccourts.gov/>.

ADDENDUM TO INITIAL ORDER AFFECTING
ALL MEDICAL MALPRACTICE CASES

In accordance with the Medical Malpractice Proceedings Act of 2006, D.C. Code § 16-2801, et seq. (2007 Winter Supp.), "[a]fter an action is filed in the court against a healthcare provider alleging medical malpractice, the court shall require the parties to enter into mediation, without discovery or, if all parties agree[,] with only limited discovery that will not interfere with the completion of mediation within 30 days of the Initial Scheduling and Settlement Conference ("ISSC"), prior to any further litigation in an effort to reach a settlement agreement. The early mediation schedule shall be included in the Scheduling Order following the ISSC. Unless all parties agree, the stay of discovery shall not be more than 30 days after the ISSC." D.C. Code § 16-2821.

To ensure compliance with this legislation, on or before the date of the ISSC, the Court will notify all attorneys and pro se parties of the date and time of the early mediation session and the name of the assigned mediator. Information about the early mediation date also is available over the internet at <https://www.dccourts.gov/pa/>. To facilitate this process, all counsel and pro se parties in every medical malpractice case are required to confer, jointly complete and sign an EARLY MEDIATION FORM, which must be filed no later than ten (10) calendar days prior to the ISSC. D.C. Code § 16-2825 Two separate Early Mediation Forms are available. Both forms may be obtained at www.dccourts.gov/medmalmediation. One form is to be used for early mediation with a mediator from the multi-door medical malpractice mediator roster; the second form is to be used for early mediation with a private mediator. Both forms also are available in the Multi-Door Dispute Resolution Office, Suite 2900, 410 E Street, N.W. Plaintiff's counsel is responsible for eFiling the form and is required to e-mail a courtesy copy to earlymedmal@dcsc.gov. Pro se Plaintiffs who elect not to eFile may file by hand in the Multi-Door Dispute Resolution Office.

A roster of medical malpractice mediators available through the Court's Multi-Door Dispute Resolution Division, with biographical information about each mediator, can be found at www.dccourts.gov/medmalmediation/mediatorprofiles. All individuals on the roster are judges or lawyers with at least 10 years of significant experience in medical malpractice litigation. D.C. Code § 16-2823(a). If the parties cannot agree on a mediator, the Court will appoint one. D.C. Code § 16-2823(b).

The following persons are required by statute to attend personally the Early Mediation Conference: (1) all parties; (2) for parties that are not individuals, a representative with settlement authority; (3) in cases involving an insurance company, a representative of the company with settlement authority; and (4) attorneys representing each party with primary responsibility for the case. D.C. Code § 16-2824.

No later than ten (10) days after the early mediation session has terminated, Plaintiff must eFile with the Court a report prepared by the mediator, including a private mediator, regarding: (1) attendance; (2) whether a settlement was reached; or, (3) if a settlement was not reached, any agreements to narrow the scope of the dispute, limit discovery, facilitate future settlement, hold another mediation session, or otherwise reduce the cost and time of trial preparation. D.C. Code § 16-2826. Any Plaintiff who is pro se may elect to file the report by hand with the Civil Actions Branch. The forms to be used for early mediation reports are available at www.dccourts.gov/medmalmediation.

COMPLAINT

COMES NOW, Plaintiff, Terri Lea, by and through her attorney, John F. Pressley, Jr., Esq., and for her Complaint against the defendants herein, alleges as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a civil action brought pursuant to federal civil rights law (42 U.S.C. §1983) and the common law of the District of Columbia seeking monetary damages and injunctive relief for violation of the plaintiff's civil, constitutional and common law rights.

II. JURISDICTION

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to D.C. Code §11-921 (2001 ed., as amended).
3. Notice pursuant to D.C. Code §12-309 (2001 ed., as amended) was served on the Mayor of the District of Columbia on September 10, 2018.

III. THE PARTIES

4. The plaintiff, TERRI LEA, at all times relevant to the Complaint was a resident of Maryland or the District of Columbia.
5. Defendant DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA is a municipal corporation that operates and manages the Department of For-Hire Vehicles and the Department of Human Resources (DCHR). In the events relevant to this case, the District of Columbia acted through its agents, employees, and servants.
6. Defendant VENTRIS C. GIBSON, at all times relevant to the complaint, was Director of the District of Columbia Department of Human Resources and as such was a final policy making official with delegated personnel authority over District of Columbia government agencies. At all times relevant to the complaint, said defendant acted under color of District of Columbia law.
7. Defendant ERNEST CHRAPPAH, at all times relevant to the complaint, was Director of the District of Columbia Department of For-Hire Vehicles (DFHV). Mr.

Chrappah is currently the District of Columbia Director of the Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs (DCRA).

IV. STATEMENT OF FACTS

8. On November 9, 2017, plaintiff, Terri Lea, applied for the position of General Counsel for the District of Columbia's Department of For-Hire Vehicles (DFHV).
9. On November 27, 2017, plaintiff was interviewed by three (3) members of the DFHV cabinet, including the Acting General Counsel, Monique Bobcock and Director, Ernest Chrappah.
10. On November 27, 2017, Ms. Lea was also interviewed by Tanya Ricks, the Director of Human Resources for the DFHV, who informed her of the agency's six (6) stage hiring process.
11. On November 27, 2017, Ms. Lea received a questionnaire and personality test from Ms. Ricks and was given 48 hours to answer six (6) essay questions and complete a personality test.
12. On November 29, 2017, Ms. Lea completed the personality test and submitted her responses to the interview questionnaire.
13. On January 8, 2018, Ms. Lea was contacted by Thomas Moir, the Chief of Staff for the Mayor's Office of Legal Counsel (MOLC), who informed her that she had successfully completed 4 stages of the DFHV interview process and had advanced to the fifth stage which entailed being interviewed by the Director of the Mayor's Office of Legal Counsel.
14. On January 10, 2018, Ms. Lea was interviewed by the Director and Chief of Staff of the MOLC, Mark Tuohey and Thomas Moir, respectively.
15. Following an extensive and extended interview, Ms. Lea was informed by Director Tuohey that he was recommending her for the position of General Counsel of the DFHV.
16. Later in January, 2018, Ms. Lea participated in a telephone interview with Mr.

Ernest Chrappah, Director of the DFHV. Following the interview, Ms. Lea was informed by the Director that she was selected for position of General Counsel of DFHV. She was reminded that she would have to comply with the District of Columbia residency requirement, if she accepted the appointment.

17. On February 14, 2018, Ms. Ricks requested that Ms. Lea submit her Certificate of Good Standing for her District of Columbia Bar license. On February 20, 2018, Ms. Lea submitted her requisite Certificate of Good Standing to practice law in the District of Columbia. She also executed all necessary authorizations for release of information and provided references to the District of Columbia Office of Human Resources on March 8, 2018.
18. On March 13, 2018, Ms. Lea was contacted by Director Chrappah who ensured her that she would receive her official offer letter on March 15, 2018; and advised that she give notice to her present employer immediately upon receipt of the letter. He also strongly requested that she modify/accelerate her start date as General Counsel of the DFHV. Her start date was scheduled for April 9, 2018.
19. On March 15, 2018 after this long and very competitive search, Ms. Lea received her official offer for the position of General Counsel for the District of Columbia DFHV (the offer).
20. The offer was extended on behalf of the District of Columbia government in a letter signed by Ventris C. Gibson, Director of the District of Columbia Department of Human Resources (DCHR).
21. The only contingencies and/or conditions indicated in Ms. Lea's offer of employment with the District of Columbia government as General Counsel of the DFHV were that Ms. Lea complete and comply with requirements for a) a criminal background check, b) a consumer credit check, and c) the residency requirement.
22. The offer indicated that Ms. Lea had five (5) days to accept. She accepted the offer on March 15, 2018, the same day that the offer was made.

23. Pursuant to the offer and acceptance of the position and representations made by representatives of the D.C. government, Ms. Lea resigned from her employment at the time, where she had been employed for more than four (4) years.
24. Ms. Lea was scheduled to attend orientation on April 9, 2018.
25. In compliance with the residency requirement, Ms. Lea relinquished her lease in Maryland and pursued a new lease in the District.
26. Ms. Lea executed all necessary documentation to successfully complete the requisite criminal background and consumer credit checks in a timely fashion.
27. On March 29, 2018, however, to Ms. Lea's deep chagrin, the District of Columbia government, by and through Ventris C. Gibson, Director of the District of Columbia Department of Human Resources, summarily rescinded the offer to Ms. Lea.
28. The revocation of the offer to Ms. Lea had nothing to do with either the criminal or consumer credit background checks, the only contingencies stated in the offer.
29. The District government, nonetheless, proceeded with the revocation of the offer to Ms. Lea despite a thorough investigation, vetting and hiring process.
30. The reason given for the revocation was that despite her superior performance in the highly competitive hiring process, Ms. Lea was allegedly "not suitable for the position", a clearly derogatory, disparaging and defamatory assessment and characterization of Ms. Lea's current professional capabilities. Ms. Lea was not provided an explanation as to why anything in her distant past would disqualify her from presently serving in the position for which she had applied.
31. Despite the scathing defamatory assessment and characterization by the District government, Ms. Lea's was in good standing with the District of Columbia Bar and determined to be fit to practice law in the District of Columbia, without limitation.
32. Subsequent to the District's sudden and unanticipated withdrawal of the offer and the concomitant defamatory declaration of Ms. Lea's alleged unsuitability, the - District government failed to accord her a proper, fundamental name clearing hearing.

33. Ms. Lea was only afforded a perfunctory, pro forma, inadequate pseudo paper appeal by the District government. This process failed to even provide an explanation as to why anything in her distant past would disqualify her from presently serving as General Counsel of the DFHV.
 34. Despite the determination that Ms. Lea was in “good standing” pursuant to the rigorous professional standards of the District of Columbia Bar, Ms. Gibson in the final notice of June 8, 2018, nonetheless, continued to declare that Ms. Lea was “unsuitable for employment as a General Counsel . . .”, further defaming and besmirching Ms. Lea’s reputation.
 35. Subsequent to the revocation of Ms. Lea’s offer to serve as General Counsel for the DFHV, she submitted numerous applications for legal positions in the D.C. government to no avail, she got no where.
 36. Ms. Lea who had previously been offered a highly competitive legal position in the D.C. government, at the highest senior level in the government, all of a sudden had the door to D.C. government employment shut.
 37. Indeed, the apparent disdain for Ms. Lea among the District government employment gatekeepers was so palpable that she was not even accorded the courtesy of an interview, despite numerous subsequent applications for legal positions in the District.
 38. As a result, Ms. Lea, who had looked forward to embarking on a new legal career in the D.C. government, essentially found herself foreclosed from such a pursuit as she was instead automatically determined to be “unsuitable” and disqualified for any such positions.

COUNT I

(42 U.S.C. § 1983 - Fifth Amendment Due Process: Reputation-Plus, Stigma-Plus)
(District of Columbia)

39. The plaintiff adopts and incorporates each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 1 - 38 as if fully set forth herein.
40. At all times relevant to the Complaint, defendant Ventris C. Gibson, Director of the District of Columbia Department of Human Resources, was the government official with delegated personnel authority over District of Columbia government agencies with respect to personnel matters.
41. At all times relevant to the Complaint, defendant Gibson acted under color of District of Columbia law as the final policy making government official with respect to personnel matters.
42. On November 9, 2017, plaintiff, Terri Lea, applied for the position of General Counsel for the District of Columbia's Department of For-Hire Vehicles (DFHV).
43. After a lengthy application and vetting process, as outlined above, Ms. Lea clearly established that she was superbly qualified for the position of General Counsel for the Department of For-Hire Vehicles. She prevailed over all other applicants and was offered the position by defendant Gibson on March 15 with the only contingencies being successful completion of criminal background and consumer credit checks. Ms. Lea Ms. Lea accepted the government's offer on the same day
44. Ms. Lea accepted the government's offer on the same day of the offer and subsequently completed both background checks..
45. Soon thereafter, however, on March 29, 2018, the offer made to the plaintiff for the position of General Counsel for the Department of For-Hire Vehicles was summarily revoked by defendant Gibson and Ms. Lea's brief employment with the District of Columbia government was terminated.
46. In the process of revoking Ms. Lea's offer of employment and terminating her, defendant Gibson declared that Ms. Lea was "unsuitable for employment as a General Counsel . . ." and in the process blatantly defamed and impugned Ms. Lea's professional competence and reputation.

47. This bogus allegation was stated by Ms. Gibson despite the fact that Ms. Lea was in good standing with the District of Columbia Bar and determined to be fit to practice law in the District of Columbia, without limitation. Moreover, Ms. Lea had successfully completed the aforementioned, tremendously thorough vetting process whereby it was unanimously determined that Ms. Lea was the best qualified of all applicants for the position.
48. Ms. Gibson's grossly defamatory and false assessment of Ms. Lea's capabilities was memorialized and put in her personnel file which was maintained with the D.C. Department of Human Resources (DCHR).
49. Defendant Gibson was fully aware that placement of Ms. Lea's personnel file in DCHR records ensured that Ms. Gibson's disreputable mischaracterizations of Ms. Lea's alleged "unsuitability" would be routinely disclosed to all future D.C. government agency personnel officials and prospective hiring decision makers throughout the District of Columbia government pursuant to any and all applications filed by Ms. Lea for a legal position in the D.C. government.
50. As a result, it was foreseeable that Ms. Lea's reputation throughout the D.C. government would be thoroughly stigmatized and her ability to fairly apply for legal positions in the D.C. government, and beyond, would be woefully impaired.
51. Indeed, in the period following the revocation of her job offer, Ms. Lea applied for numerous legal positions at different levels throughout the District of Columbia government, to no avail.
52. Although Ms. Lea was more than qualified for the positions for which she sought employment, she was never once even accorded an interview and was routinely and summarily denied consideration. Such blatant and consistent rebuffs clearly established that any real prospect of pursuing employment with the District of Columbia government in any legal position was completely foreclosed.

53. The liberty rights of Ms. Lea, pursuant to the Fifth Amendment, were well established at all times relevant to the Complaint. Moreover, Ms. Lea had a right to a name clearing hearing prior to her termination. She was denied this basic and fundamental hearing.
54. The foregoing treatment thus resulted in the gross infringement of Ms. Lea's protected liberty interests as guaranteed by the Fifth Amendment for which she seeks full redress as stated, infra.

COUNT II
(Negligent Misrepresentation)
(District of Columbia, Ventris C. Gibson, Ernest Chrappah)

55. The plaintiff adopts and incorporates each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 1 - 54 as if fully set forth herein.
56. On November 9, 2017, plaintiff, Terri Lea, applied for the position of General Counsel for the District of Columbia's Department of For-Hire Vehicles (DFHV).
57. On March 13, 2018, after a long and thorough background investigation and vetting process, defendant Ernest Chrappah, Director of the DFHV, insured Ms. Lea that she would receive her official offer letter on March 15, 2018. Director Chrappah further advised Ms. Lea to immediately give notice to her present employer upon receipt of the letter.
58. On March 15, 2018, as Mr. Chrappah had indicated, defendant Ventris C. Gibson notified Ms. Lea that she, in fact, had been selected and was offered the position of General Counsel for the Department of For-Hire-Vehicles.
59. In the offer letter, Ms. Lea was informed that two contingencies remained in the hiring process. These contingencies required that Ms. Lea "successfully pass a criminal background and consumer credit check as a condition of employment" No further contingencies or conditions were indicated in the offer letter.
60. Assuming the representations in the offer letter to be true and confident that she could pass the criminal background and consumer credit checks, Ms. Lea accepted the offer on March 15, 2018, the same day that it was extended. As anticipated, Ms. Lea successfully completed and passed the criminal background and consumer credit checks in a timely fashion.

61. In further reliance upon the representations and promises of employment made by the defendants, Ms. Lea followed Director Chrappah's advise and resigned from her job and relinquished her Maryland apartment lease and she sought residency in the District of Columbia as required for high level D.C. government officials.
62. On March 29, 2018, however, to Ms. Lea's great chagrin, defendant Ventris C. Gibson, Director of the District of Columbia Department of Human Resources, summarily terminated Ms. Lea.
63. The reason given for Ms. Lea's termination was that pursuant to a suitability assessment it was determined that she was not suitable for the subject position of General Counsel of the DFHV. Ms. Lea, however, had never been informed of an additional suitability assessment contingency. Indeed, there had been no mention of it in the offer letter.
64. As a result, the suitability assessment arose without warning, after the fact, as a key, material factor with respect to the circumstances relating to the offer and acceptance of employment process. Failing to timely disclose this vital consideration left Ms. Lea in dire straights, with neither employment nor a lease.
65. Indeed, if the suitability assessment was so critical and a normal part of the vetting process, the District government had a duty to fully disclose this highly relevant, material consideration.
66. The failure to disclose the suitability assessment requirement put Ms. Lea in a position where she made a critical decision, believing that she had the position subject only to the successful passing of the criminal background and consumer credit checks.

67. Because the existence of the suitability requirement was never disclosed to Ms. Lea, she never had an opportunity to understand and determine what the suitability requirement was all about and to assess how best to proceed prior to resigning from her job and relinquishing her lease, as she was advised to do by Mr. Chrappah.
68. Nonetheless, the question of “suitability” was significant with respect to the hiring decision and the defendants had a duty to indicate as much to the plaintiff prior to putting her in a position of jeopardizing her family’s stability and financial welfare.
69. The statements and representations by defendants Gibson and Chrappah relating to the offer of employment, which only mentioned two contingencies and never disclosed or mentioned the suitability requirement, were thus false and grossly misleading.
70. Moreover, said statements induced the plaintiff to take uninformed actions detrimental to her immediate economic welfare and her future career.
71. At all times relevant to the above allegations, defendants Ventris C. Gibson and Ernest Chrappah were working within the scope of their employment with the District of Columbia government.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, plaintiff Terri Lea prays that this court:

- a. Award plaintiff $1,000,000 in compensatory damages against all defendants;
- b. Award plaintiff $500,000 in punitive damages against the individual defendants;
- c. Enjoin and prohibit the District of Columbia from foreclosing the plaintiff from employment as an attorney with the District of Columbia government;
- d. Enjoin dissemination of derogatory information in plaintiff’s personnel file;

- e. Enforce the promise made by the District with respect to the employment of the plaintiff as General Counsel for the Department of For-Hire Vehicles;
- f. Award plaintiff costs against all defendants;
- g. Award plaintiff attorney's fees; and
- h. Grant such other relief as it may deem just and proper.
