

A BILL

IN THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

To establish a scholarship program for high-need health care careers to be administered by the Mayor; to establish eligibility requirements for applicants to the program; to require commitments for program participant; to establish eligibility and selection criteria for participating training programs and schools; to allow the Mayor rule making authority to implement this program; to expand the Health Recruitment Program to include loan repayments for medical specializes, sub-specialties and part-time hours in medically underserved areas; to allow the Mayor to issue schedules for the loan payment program and to allow the Mayor rule making authority to implement this program.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, That this act may be cited as the “High Need Healthcare Career Scholarship and Health Professional Loan Repayment Program Temporary Amendment Act of 2022”.

TITLE I. HIGH-NEED HEALTHCARE CAREER SCHOLARSHIP AND SUPPORTS PROGRAM.

Sec. 101. Authorization to establish the High-Need Healthcare Careers Scholarships and Supports Program.

(a)(1) The Mayor shall establish the High-Need Healthcare Careers Scholarships and Supports Program ("Program") to increase the number of healthcare workers in high-need healthcare careers in the District by providing supports and services to individuals who agree to serve as such workers in the District.

(2) The Program may pay for expenses incurred by:

(A) Program participants to obtain credentials to serve as healthcare workers in high-need healthcare careers, including the costs of education, training, and examinations; and

(B) Approved schools and training programs for providing education and training to program participants.

(b) To participate in the Program, an applicant must:

(1) Be a citizen or permanent resident of the United States;

(2) Submit a completed application, in such form and with such information and documentation as may be required by the Mayor; and

(3) Be selected for participation by the Mayor based upon:

(A) Relevant experience of the individual;

(B) The individual's ability to successfully complete the necessary education, training, examination, and licensing, certification, or registration requirements to serve as a healthcare worker in a high-need healthcare career in the District;

(C) The individual's ability to serve successfully as a healthcare worker in a high-need healthcare career;

(D) The individual's commitment to serve as a healthcare worker in a high-need healthcare career in the District for at least 2 years following their licensure, certification, or registration as a healthcare worker; and

(E) Such other factors as the Mayor may establish, which may include preferential consideration for:

(i) Residents of the District;

(ii) Applicants committed to enrolling in a school or training program located in the District;

(iii) Residents of a health professional shortage area or medically underserved area, as those terms are defined in section 2(4) and 2(5) of the District of Columbia Health Professional Recruitment Program Act of 2005, effective March 8, 2006 (D.C. Law 16-71; D.C. Official Code § 7-751.01(4) and (5));

(iv) Applicants who are immediately eligible and available for education or training;

(v) Applicants who agree to commit to longer periods of service as a healthcare worker in a high-need healthcare career in the District;

(vi) Applicants who are fluent in Spanish, Chinese, Vietnamese, Korean, or Amharic; and

(vii) Applicants demonstrating a desire to reside within the District.

(c) Each applicant selected for participation in the Program shall enter into a contract with the District agreeing to complete the necessary education, training, and examinations, serve a minimum of 2 years as a healthcare worker in a high-need healthcare career in the District, and provide such information and reports on the individual's participation in the program as may be required by the District. The contract may provide the District with specific remedies for a program participant's breach of the contract, and the District shall have the general right to enforce the contract in law or equity.

Sec. 102. Eligibility requirements for participating schools and training programs.

(a) A school or training program applying to participate in the Program shall be licensed to operate and in good standing in the District or another state.

(b) Eligible schools and training programs shall be competitively reviewed and selected by the Mayor for participation in the program based upon:

(1) The number of years during which the school or training program has successfully provided education or training in the healthcare sector and in high-need healthcare careers;

(2) The quality of the education or training provided by the school or training program;

(3) The school or training program's commitment to train individuals for high-need healthcare careers; and

(4) Such other relevant factors as the Mayor may establish by rule.

(c) Preferential consideration for participation in the program shall be given to eligible schools and training programs located in the District.

(d) Each school or training program selected to participate in the program shall enter into a contract with the District agreeing to:

(1) Educate or train program participants;

(2) Assist program participants in the required examinations;

(3) Pay the examination fees necessary for the program participant's licensure, registration, or certification in a high-need health care career;

(4) Assist program participants in submitting applications for their licensure, registration, or certification in a high-need health care career; and

(5) Submit such reports and information regarding the school or training program's Program participation as the Mayor may require.

(e) The contract may provide the District with specific remedies for a school or training program's breach of the contract, and the District shall have the general right to enforce the contract in law or equity.

Sec. 103. Rulemaking authority.

The Mayor, pursuant to Title I of the District of Columbia Administrative Procedure Act, approved October 21, 1968 (82 Stat. 1024; D.C. Official Code § 2-501 et seq.), may issue rules to implement the provisions of this title.

TITLE II. CONFORMING AMENDMENT; FISCAL IMPACT; EFFECTIVE DATE.

Sec. 201. Section 47-1803.02(a)(2) is amended by adding a new sub-paragraph (RR) to read as follows:

"(XX) The amount received by an individual or a school or program on behalf of an individual to cover tuition, fees, or other expenses pursuant to Title I of the High-Need Healthcare Career Scholarship and Supports Program Emergency Amendment Act of 2022, passed on emergency basis on June 7, 2022 (Enrolled version of Bill 24-XXX).".
