DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
FIRE AND EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES DEPARTMENT

BULLETIN NO. 27

July 2018 (Revised)

SEXUAL HARASSMENT

I. Purpose

Pursuant to Mayor's Order, 2017-313, sexual harassment is recognized as one of the most unjust, demeaning, and demoralizing examples of workplace misconduct. The purpose of this Order is to establish clearly and unequivocally that the Department prohibits sexual harassment by its employees in any form. The Department will take appropriate action, up to and including termination, of any employee found to have engaged in sexual harassment as defined herein. All employees are expected to act professionally within the workplace at all times. Officers, supervisors and managers within the Department are held to a higher standard of conduct and are expected to set a positive tone and environment of professional conduct and leadership for employees. This includes off-duty conduct of officers, managers and supervisors that can negatively impact employees and the workplace, and adversely affect and undermine the overall intent and meaning of this Order. Managers, supervisors and officers are expected to report all complaints of sexual harassment to the appropriate individuals as outlined in this policy, and failure to properly report complaints of sexual harassment can lead to further disciplinary action.

II. Individuals Affected

a. Prohibitions

The District of Columbia prohibits workplace sexual harassment by all District of Columbia employees, officials, and all employees under the Mayor's jurisdiction. The prohibition applies to members of District of Columbia Boards and Commissions that report up to the Mayor during the course of their duties; board members are bound by the procedures and deadlines set forth herein. The prohibition also applies to third parties doing business with, or carrying out the goals and objectives of the District of Columbia government, such as vendors, contractors, grantees, customers, and other persons visiting or working at District of Columbia worksites inside and outside District of Columbia agencies. Further, while carrying out their duties as contractors or grantees for the government, contractors and grantees of the District of Columbia may not engage in workplace sexual harassment, although not every procedure set forth in this Order applies to persons not working for the District government.

b. Protections

The protections against workplace sexual harassment extend to employees, contractors, interns, and any other persons engaged by the District of Columbia to provide permanent or temporary employment services at District of Columbia worksites inside and outside District of Columbia agencies, and to applicants for District government employment, although not every procedure set forth in this Order applies to persons not working for the government. District of Columbia employees are protected from sexual harassment by contractors, grantees, clients, applicants, and members of the public with whom they interact as part of their District of Columbia employment. Members of Boards and Commissions that report up to the Mayor are also protected as employees. Without limiting this broad definition, persons protected by this Mayor's Order will be referred to as "employees."

III. Definitions of Sexual Harassmenta. Quid Pro Quo Sexual Harassment

Quid pro quo sexual harassment is defined as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when any one of the following criteria is present:

1. Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment; or
2. Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as a basis for employment decisions affecting the individual.

b. Hostile Environment Sexual Harassment

Other conduct – if severe or sufficiently pervasive as to alter working conditions – may create a "hostile environment" and is also prohibited. Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment. Unless the conduct was particularly severe or pervasive, where no warning or admonition is necessary, the person creating such an environment must have been told that the conduct is unwelcome or must stop.

The following are examples of unwelcome conduct that may create an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment and that are not acceptable in the District of Columbia employment environment, including during work related travel:

1. Sex acts;
2. Display of sexual organs;

3. Giving a preference to a third party who is engaged in a sexual or romantic relationship, to the disadvantage of an employee who is not engaged in a sexual relationship with a supervisor, hiring official, or person exercising authority over the disadvantaged party, (described legally as a “paramour preference”);
4. Using sexually oriented or sexually degrading language describing an individual or his/her body, clothing, hair, accessories or sexual experiences;
5. Sexually offensive comments or off-color language, jokes, or innuendo that a reasonable person would consider to be of a sexual nature, or belittling or demeaning to an individual or a group's sex, sexual orientation, or gender identity;
6. “Sexting” or seeking or sending pictures of intimate body parts, or taking or displaying pictures of body parts meant to be covered up (such as “upskirting” pictures), including by sending messages of a suggestive nature on self-destructive messaging apps where documentation of the written word or images is difficult to document;
7. Displaying or disseminating sexually suggestive objects, books, screensavers, magazines, photographs, music, cartoons, or computer internet sites or references;
8. Unnecessary and inappropriate touching or physical contact, such as intentional and repeated brushing against a colleague's body, touching or brushing a colleague's hair or clothing, massages, groping, patting, pinching, or hugging, that a reasonable person would consider to be of a sexual nature;
9. Leering, ogling, or making sexually suggestive gestures or sounds, such as whistling or kissing noises;
10. Making inquiries about someone's private sex life or describing one's own sex life;
11. Workplace sexual comments, conduct, displays and suggestions between two willing parties that would cause a reasonable third party to be offended;
12. Any unwanted repeated contact, including, but not limited to in-person, or telephonic, for romantic or sexual purposes; and
13. Sexual assault, stalking, trapping someone such that they are not free to leave and a sexual encounter is expected or threatened, threats of bodily harm relating to sex or the refusal to have sex, or other crimes related to egregious acts of sexual harassment.

c. Sexual Harassment is Prohibited by and Between All Persons

1. Sexual harassment may be committed by persons of the same sex, or perceived sex, and by those who share the same sexual orientation or the same gender identity or expression, as well as by persons of the opposite sex or gender identity, and shall be prohibited.

2. Sexual harassment is not limited to inappropriate exercise of authority by persons in power over an employee. It can even occur by an employee towards a supervisor.
3. Supervisors are responsible for ensuring a workplace free of sexual harassment.
4. When sexual harassment occurs between colleagues or by clients or customers upon an employee, and it is brought to an appropriate person's attention, the agency must investigate and remedy the situation.

IV. Consensual Relationships

- a. In order to avoid complaints of favoritism, loss of objectivity, abuse of authority, sexual harassment, hostile environment, gender based discrimination, and government ethics violations, romantic or sexual relationships between employees and supervisors in the employee's chain of command are strongly discouraged.
- b. Should an officer, manager or supervisor be involved in a sexual or romantic relationship with a subordinate employee, he/she is prohibited from engaging in conduct that constitutes or creates the perception of a "paramour preference," as described in section IIIb.3.
- c. The existence of a consensual sexual or romantic relationship between an employee and a supervisor may be a factor in any proceeding in which the relationship is alleged to have contributed to a hostile work environment and/or adversely affected the terms and conditions of employment of the involved parties or a third party.
- d. Employees who engage in a limited consensual relationship with a supervisor or colleague, such as going out to dinner or on dates, remain free to refuse further sexual overtures and have the right to demand that sexual or sexually harassing conduct going beyond that which was consented to must stop. Alternatively, they also may seek the assistance of a supervisor or manager, the agency General Counsel, or the person designated by the agency pursuant to Section V, below, to demand that sexually harassing conduct cease.
- e. Conduct that was once welcome or consensual may become unwelcome. Once the conduct is no longer welcome, and the formerly-consenting employee, or a supervisor, agency designee or counsel, tells the other party to stop, all unwelcomed behavior of a sexually harassing nature must cease.
- f. If legal action is commenced against the District of Columbia and/or a supervisor who engaged in a sexual/intimate relationship with an employee, or a person engaged in a potentially-conflictual relationship, the existence of the sexual or romantic relationship will be a factor in the District of Columbia's decision to provide legal representation to the supervisor or the employee(s) engaged in a potentially-conflictual relationship.

V. Procedures for Stopping Sexual Harassment, Reporting, and Investigating Sexual Harassment Claims

a. Agency Responsibilities

1. Within thirty (30) days after the effective date of this Order, company officers or managers shall require that all Department review this Bulletin. Company officers and managers shall display, in noticeable and conspicuous locations accessible and used by a substantial number of Department employees, notices setting forth the District of Columbia's policy prohibiting sexual harassment. Each notice shall contain the identity and location of the Department's designated Sexual Harassment Officer, and office, who is responsible for receiving claims of sexual harassment and ensuring that they are investigated. The notice shall advise employees that a sexual harassment complaint and any subsequent investigation shall be kept confidential to the greatest extent possible consistent with their investigation and resolution.
2. The best preventative measure to combat sexual harassment is for the workplace to be a place of respect for all persons, at all times. At work, at all times, we seek to serve the residents of the District of Columbia, a mission that is compromised whenever and wherever sexual harassment occurs.

b. Employee Communication

1. If an employee feels sexually harassed, the employee must either: (A) tell the person who is engaging in offensive or inappropriate sexual conduct to stop and that such conduct is unwelcome; or (B) ask the employee's supervisor or counsel or the Department's designated Sexual Harassment Officer to advise the person that the conduct is offensive and unwelcome. Employees and others engaged in intervention are encouraged to document all intervention efforts or requests to cease reported inappropriate sexual conduct, including conversations, text, or email exchanges. Some conduct is so egregious that no warning is necessary before personnel action or other consequences ensue; other times, it is necessary to indicate that the conduct is unwelcome.
2. Employees who believe they are being sexually harassed are urged to collect and preserve evidence of any offensive conduct. However, even in the absence of emails, pictures, or other physical evidence, employees should report sexual harassment as described below.

c. Reporting Inappropriate or Potentially Inappropriate Conduct of a Sexual Nature

1. All District of Columbia employees are responsible for ensuring the workplace is free of sexual harassment. Employees who know of incidents of sexual harassment, as well as behavior which may create an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment, or who are victims of sexual harassment or inappropriate conduct, should report the sexual harassment or inappropriate conduct to the Sexual Harassment Officer or office designated by the agency, or the supervisor or manager of the employee engaging in inappropriate conduct, or to their own supervisor. If the alleged harasser is the employee's immediate supervisor, then the employee should report the conduct to the alleged harasser's supervisor, or to the Sexual Harassment Officer. The DCFEMS Sexual Harassment Officer (SHO) is the Diversity Manager/EEO Officer and the alternate SHO is the EEO Counselor. See the Department's current roster for contact information.
2. If the complaint is against an agency director, the report shall be submitted to the appropriate Deputy Mayor for review. If the complaint is against a Deputy Mayor the report shall be submitted to the City Administrator. If the report is against the City Administrator, the report shall be submitted to the Mayor's General Counsel, who shall also receive complaints against any agency director in the Executive Office of the Mayor. If the complaint is against the Mayor's General Counsel or the Mayor, an independent consultant shall be hired to conduct an investigation, and a final investigative report shall be submitted to the Inspector General for the District of Columbia for review.
3. The procedures and remedies specified herein are not intended to preclude an employee from seeking any remedies he or she may have in a court of law.

d. Agency Review and Investigation of Reported Claims

1. Any supervisor or manager who receives a complaint or concern regarding sexual harassment or inappropriate conduct must take immediate steps to notify the Sexual Harassment Officer, who will ensure that an investigation is conducted and take other appropriate action. Any such effort shall be documented.
2. Where there is an allegation of criminal misconduct, including for example, sexual assault, kidnapping, stalking, and threats to do bodily harm, the Department may, after consulting its General Counsel, place the victim and/or the alleged harasser on administrative leave with pay pending final administrative resolution of the complaint or any criminal proceeding. The complainant at his or her choice may report the alleged criminal violation to a law enforcement agency, including the Metropolitan Police Department (MPD). Where either the Department or an appropriate law enforcement officer determines that a criminal violation occurred, the Department shall recommend discipline of the perpetrator up to, and including, termination,

- consistent with District law and Department policy and collective bargaining agreements.
3. When an allegation of sexual harassment is reported, including allegations of criminal conduct, the Department shall notify the agency's General Counsel, who in turn must notify MOLC of the allegation.
 4. Allegations of sexual harassment shall be investigated and resolved as soon as practicable, but no later than sixty (60) days after reporting. The Sexual Harassment Officer or office investigating the charges must provide the employee and the alleged harasser with a written notification of its findings and conclusions after the sixty (60) day period, and shall convey the same to MOLC.
 5. The agency shall also require that any employee found to have engaged in inappropriate conduct who is not terminated must attend mandatory sexual harassment training within sixty (60) days of receipt of the findings. Such training is supplemental to any disciplinary actions and must occur even if the employee recently received training.
 6. Complainants of sexual assault or other possible crimes are reminded of the existence of the DC Victim Hotline. The Hotline, 1-844-443-5732, is available 24/7 by telephone, text or online chat to seamlessly connect victims of crime to free resources to help them navigate the physical, financial, legal, and emotional repercussions of crime. In particular, through the Hotline, victims may be matched with an advocate who can help them decide whether to pursue a matter through the criminal justice process.

e. Employee Responsibility to Participate in Agency Investigation

1. All Department employees are expected to cooperate in the Department's investigation of sexual harassment complaints.
2. If an employee who alleges sexual harassment, or is believed to have been the victim of sexual harassment, declines to assist and/or participate in the investigation of the allegation, the Department may on its own initiative initiate and conduct an investigation.
3. The Department is required to balance the need to respect a victim's wishes not to proceed or cooperate with an investigation, with its responsibility to ensure a respectful workplace free of sexual harassment. Employees who were not themselves victimized, who, after a direct request of the Department, decline to participate in a sexual harassment investigation, may be subject to disciplinary action. Any consideration of whether to recommend disciplinary action for failure to cooperate in an investigation requires heightened sensitivity on the part of the Department, and will be conducted in consultation with the agency's General Counsel and MOLC.

f. Timely Filing; Statute of Limitations

All complaints of sexual harassment shall be reported as promptly as possible. The Department may consider alleged acts of sexual harassment for disciplinary purposes beyond the legal statute of limitations, consistent with the District Personnel Manual and any collective bargaining agreements, taking into consideration the sensitive nature of the alleged offense, the pressure the complainant may have felt not to report the conduct, when the victim became aware of behavior that was not immediately apparent, or a pattern of harassing behavior that developed over time. The statute of limitations for complaints filed at OHR is within one year of the harassment or its discovery.

g. Rights of the Alleged Harasser

Persons accused of sexual harassment deserve the full protections afforded to them under the law in administrative matters, including, but not limited to, the right to respond to allegations of sexual harassment; to counsel and representation, including a union representative or other representative of their choosing; and the presumption of innocence, unless and until there is a finding of harassment after an investigation by the agency or where appropriate, OHR. The right to counsel does not include the right to have counsel paid for by the government.

h. Interim Remedial Actions

Pending final resolution of a sexual harassment complaint, and in order to protect the rights of the alleged victim as well as the alleged harasser, the Department may take prompt temporary personnel actions that do not result in any adverse employment action to either party. When an agency becomes aware of an allegation of sexual harassment, the agency shall notify the alleged harasser of the reported behavior to ensure that any such alleged conduct ceases immediately and is not repeated.

Interim remedial actions are administrative rather than disciplinary and may include, but are not limited to, transfers, reassignment of duties or reporting requirements, mandatory administrative leave with pay, or other appropriate measures that do not result in reduction of pay, demotion in title or responsibility, or other loss of employee benefits. Where a request for separation, such as a job reassignment, from the alleged harasser is made by the alleged victim, the agency must require the victim to make the request in writing. The Department may find alternative, reasonably comparable placements, even in different agencies, during the pendency of an investigation for the accuser or accused in lieu of administrative leave with pay, where possible.

i. Discipline for Making False Statements or Representations

In recognition of the seriousness of workplace sexual harassment charges, the Department shall, consistent with Department collective bargaining agreements, recommend disciplinary action, up to and including termination, of any employee found to have knowingly and intentionally made materially false statements or representations in relation to a sexual harassment claim or investigation. Termination in accordance with this Bulletin is only available if such statements were in writing and the allegations were formally made with warnings as to their legal force, or under oath.

Consideration of whether to recommend disciplinary action against an employee who is also the alleged victim of sexual harassment requires heightened sensitivity on the part of the Department and will be conducted in consultation with the agency's General Counsel and MOLC.

j. Discipline after a Finding of Sexual Harassment

The Department, consistent with collective bargaining agreements, shall recommend appropriate disciplinary action, up to and including termination of any employee found to have engaged in sexual harassment as defined in Section III of this Order.

k. Referral to the Board of Ethics and Government Accountability (BEGA)

Some claims of sexual harassment may also involve ethical violations, such as if an employee is giving gifts to an employee for sexual favors or to a potential reporter of sexual harassment, or if an employee is using government resources to copy and disseminate inappropriate pictures. Credible violations of the Code of Conduct should be reported to BEGA. Its penalties are in addition to any personnel actions taken by the Department.

VI. Concurrent Remedies and Jurisdiction

a. Filing a Formal Complaint with the Office of Human Rights

In addition to pursuing action within the agency, an alleged victim of sexual harassment, or a person acting on the victim's behalf with or without the victim's consent, may report a sexual harassment claim within one year of the alleged harassment or its discovery, to OHR using its Intake Questionnaire Form.

b. EEO Counseling Option When Filing a Claim with OHR

EEO Counseling is not required prior to the filing of a sexual harassment complaint with OHR; however, if the employee wishes to first seek informal resolution, EEO Counseling is available. To exercise this option, the employee must contact a certified EEO Counselor within 180 days of the alleged harassment, in accordance with Bulletin 26. The EEO Counselor must then resolve the complaint within thirty (30) days, or at maximum sixty (60) days, and issue an Exit Letter outlining the rights of the individual reporting the claim as well as the counselor's efforts to resolve the claim. If the employee is not satisfied with the outcome of the counseling effort, the employee may file a formal complaint with OHR within fifteen (15) days of receiving the Exit Letter. EEO Counselors will not conduct an investigation. They will simply review the case and try to achieve an informal resolution.

VII. Prohibition against Retaliation

a. Retaliation Prohibited

Retaliating against an employee for reporting or filing a claim of sexual harassment, assisting another person in filing or asserting a claim of sexual harassment, opposing sexual harassment, acting as a witness in a sexual harassment investigation, refusing to follow orders that would result in sexual harassment, intervening to protect others from sexual harassment or advances, or challenging an allegation of sexual harassment, is strictly prohibited. Employees shall not be penalized as a result of their assertion of rights provided under the District of Columbia Human Rights Act or providing truthful information in connection with an investigation (whether on behalf of a complainant or a respondent). Retaliatory behavior can include but is not limited to unwarranted reprimands, unfairly downgrading personnel evaluations, transfers to less desirable positions, verbal or physical abuse, and altered and more inconvenient work schedules. Employees found to have engaged in retaliatory behavior shall be recommended for termination.

b. Process for Alleging Retaliation

Employees who believe they have been retaliated against must file a complaint with an EEO Counselor within 180 days of the alleged retaliation and subsequently file a complaint with OHR within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the Exit Letter, if the employee is not satisfied with the outcome of EEO Counseling.

c. Limits

Lodging a sexual harassment claim or triggering an investigation does not shield an employee from all discipline or discharge. The Department is free to discipline or terminate employees if it is motivated by non-retaliatory and non-discriminatory reasons that would otherwise result in such consequences.

VIII. Confidentiality

The complaint file, including all information and documents contained in the file as well as information received during investigation of the complaint, shall be confidential. The Department shall take all reasonable steps to ensure that no information contained in the complaint file is disseminated except in furtherance of the investigation, resolution of the allegations, execution of any consequences stemming from the investigation, when lawfully released, or when required by court order.

The Department will take all reasonable efforts during the conduct of an investigation to protect the identities of the alleged harasser and the alleged victim, as well as witnesses for either party. However, the alleged harasser shall be promptly advised of the complaint and its substance and be given an opportunity to respond to the allegations.

This confidentiality requirement does not preclude the Department from reporting a suspected illegal or improper act, or conduct related to the investigation, to an appropriate enforcement, investigating and/or legal organization or from cooperating in any related investigation.

IX. Applicability of Personnel Rules

Any proposed personnel action instituted under this Order is subject to the District of Columbia Personnel Regulations as set forth in the District of Columbia Personnel Manual and Department Collective Bargaining Agreements.

5 2022 STRATEGIC INITIATIVES

In FY 2022, Fire and Emergency Medical Services Department had 9 Strategic Initiatives and completed 88.89%.

Title	Description	Completion to Date	Update	Explanation for Incomplete Initiative
Launch a DC Resuscitation Committee to analyze the state of cardiac arrest outcomes.	During FY 2022, the Department will coordinate and launch a DC Resuscitation Committee (DCRC) that will analyze the state of cardiac arrest outcomes in the District of Columbia. The committee will include FEMS representatives and members from the Office of Unified Communications, DC Health, community health care organizations, and hospitals. The DCRC will determine the current challenges in improving outcomes; demonstrate the complexity of the system that responds to and treats cardiac arrest; and foster motivation to drive change for improvement in patient outcomes.	Complete	In FY 2022, the DC Resuscitation Committee (DCRC) was launched and met quarterly throughout the fiscal year. The committee included Fire and EMS Department representatives, Hospital and Emergency Department (ED) representatives, Office of Unified Communication (OUC) representatives, and District of Columbia community members
Sponsor workshops on the promotional process to increase equity and inclusion.	During FY 2022, the Department will host three workshops for members preparing to take promotional tests for the ranks of sergeant, lieutenant, and captain in an effort to increase equity and inclusion in the promotional process. The workshops will be videotaped and provided to all department members. The following items will be covered: the process components and development of promotional exams; a review of study materials; effective study planning and techniques (including for students with learning disabilities), and a review of test-taking principles. (EQUITY INITIATIVE)	Complete	In FY 2022, the Department held three promotional exam workshops at the training academy for members preparing to take promotional tests. Several specialty units were on display to provide candidates exposure to equipment and units they might not normally come in contact with on a day to day basis. The exhibition included a Hazmat Unit, Tower 3, a Rescue Squad, and a Metro Rail Simulator.

Public education program for elementary students.	During FY 2022, the Department will partner with DC Public Schools (DCPS) to deliver at least 25 public education programs (in-person or virtually) to elementary age students. The program will present age-appropriate fire safety education topics such as: Stop, Drop and Roll, What's Hot and What's Not, Smoke/CO Alarm identification and response, and Exit Drills in the Home.	Complete	During the 4th quarter of FY 2022, Fire Safety Educators held eight presentations for DCPS elementary age students and reached over 150 children. In total in FY 2022, educators delivered 33 presentations and reached over 850 individual students. The presentations focused on age-appropriate topics regarding the importance of fire safety and the appropriate actions to take in the event of an emergency.
Deliver a fire safety public education program to seniors with an emphasis on hoarding.	During FY 2022, the Department will partner with the DC Department of Aging and other community partners such as independent and assisted living senior residential buildings and management to deliver at least 50 public education programs entitled "Pathway to Safety." The virtual (online) or in person fire safety program will focus on hoarding and safety tips on how to declutter and reduce fire safety hazards. The program will include escape planning in case of fire, electrical and home heating fire prevention, smoking and oxygen safety, smoke alarm/carbon monoxide alarm maintenance, and fall prevention. Our Operations Division will receive training on how to recognize hoarding situations and report them appropriately and materials will be developed for members to provide to residents about resources that are available throughout the District.	Complete	During the 4th quarter of FY 2022, the Department delivered 12 hoarding recognition and reporting presentations and reached over 490 individual seniors. In total in FY 2022, educators delivered 33 presentations to over 1,500 individual seniors. All members of the Operations Division have received training in recognizing and reporting hoarding conditions and educators will continue to present the Pathway to Safety Program throughout the next fiscal year.

Develop a strategic plan to implement NFPA 1500 requirements and update Respiratory Protection Plan (RPP).	During FY 2022, the Department will evaluate its compliance with National Fire Protection Association Standard 1500 and develop a strategic plan to implement improvements where needed. NFPA 1500 specifies the minimum requirements for an occupational safety and health program for fire departments or organizations that provide rescue, fire suppression, emergency medical services, hazardous materials mitigation, special operations, and other emergency services. Updates to the Respiratory Protection Plan (RPP) will be made to include the newest adopted OSHA requirements. The RPP provides guidance on protecting officers and members from oxygen deficient environments, toxins, gasses, contaminants, and contagions that may compromise the respiratory tract and other bodily systems.	75-99%	During the 4th quarter of FY 2022, the Department finalized the NFPA 1500 evaluation and is currently drafting a document to memorialize the assessment and outline a strategic plan to be used for compliance. As of the close of FY 2022 the document is 90% complete. The Respiratory Protection Plan (RPP) is awaiting decisions on the final components to be included. It is anticipated that the plans will be finalized by the end of Quarter 2 in FY 2023.	Final decisions on content with regards to the RPP have taken longer than anticipated due to the size and scope of the assessment.
Enlarge health and wellness program to include expanded assessments and counseling, workshops and member access to content.	During FY 2022, the Department will further grow its health and wellness program to include expanded fitness assessments and counseling; workshops with practical and classroom education for all members on maximizing performance through the “Eat, Sweat, Thrive” methodology. The program will also start providing access for all members to a tactical athlete portal that will allow each member to receive daily fitness and nutritional content and individualized custom reports.	Complete	During FY 2022, the Department expanded health and wellness education for members. Moving forward, a series of workshops is to be held in the fall of 2022 with four modules (topics) covered including Injury/Risk Reduction, Mental Performance, Building Resilience and Fueling for Performance.

Provide implicit bias training for firefighters, EMS personnel and company officers.	During FY 2022, the Department will provide Department-wide implicit bias training to at least half (50%) of all firefighters, EMS personnel and company officers. This training will build on the Leading with Awareness sessions already delivered to executive senior staff and chief officers in FY 2021. The training will be designed to teach students the definition of implicit bias, how to recognize it in themselves and others, and how it impacts every day interpersonal interactions with peers, supervisors, and customers. The goal is to empower members with this knowledge so they can improve teamwork within their areas of responsibility, as well as to provide improved service to the diverse residents of and visitors to the District of Columbia. (EQUITY INITIATIVE)	Complete	During FY 2022, 1189 employees received implicit bias training, over 50% of the Department's workforce. The student evaluations were overwhelmingly positive about the instructors and content. The training will be repeated for the remainder of the workforce in FY 2023.
Build and launch a simulation lab for EMS education at the Department's Training Academy (TA).	During FY 2022, the Department will build and launch a new state-of-the-art simulation lab for EMS education at the Department's Training Academy (TA). Currently, all recruit and in-service EMS training is conducted in classroom lectures and with outdated, non-automated manikins. Recruit providers typically do not receive hands-on EMS skills training until they leave the academy and work with patients in the field. In-service training for tenured employees is also classroom based. This simulation lab will provide a risk-free hands-on environment that allows providers to make mistakes while practicing skills. This initiative will support improved patient care and outcomes in compliance with nationally established best practices. <Budget Enhancement>	Complete	During FY 2022, the Denise Beales Immersive Lab and Education Center was opened and has become a vital part of our training experience at the academy. Scenarios for training have included conflict resolutions, at a skating park area, busy traffic situations, and medical scenes within the DC WMATA (Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority). Medical directors from New Orleans have traveled to see our model of education and we have had several other visitors from surrounding jurisdictions.

Redevelop current EMS training and mentoring program for recruits to add more field experience.	During FY 2022, the Department will redesign our EMS training and mentoring program for new firefighter EMT recruits to feature a longer training period in the Training Academy that will include five to six weeks riding ambulances in the field and education in the Department's new EMS simulation lab. Currently, the training is heavily focused on classroom lectures and "studying to the test" with minimal hands-on skill opportunities. New firefighter EMTs typically do not have real life experience with patients until after graduation and during their probationary period in the firehouse, which can lead to uneven training and standards. This will improve the preparedness of new firefighter EMTs to care for patients competently and compassionately.	Complete	During FY 2022, the Department redesigned the EMS training and mentoring program for new firefighter EMT recruits to successfully increase the time spent in the Training Academy. This includes 14 weeks of didactic training and 6 weeks on a transport unit. To date, the succession rate of students is an approximate percentage rate of 87% and on average each student is spending 90 hours training in the simulation lab.

Percent of high-rise structure fire calls when a first alarm assignment arrived in 11 minutes 30 seconds or less	Up is Better	59.7%	63.8%	90%	74.1%	55.6%	61.5%	63.2%	63.6%	Unmet	Rising hospital drop times and call volume has a trickle-down effect on unit availability. These problems affect the availability of transport units because fire trucks are waiting on the scene longer for transport units and transporting to the hospital more frequently as the ALS resource. Due to these factors, when a high-rise fire is dispatched there is less fire unit availability which results in units being dispatched from further distances away creating longer response times.
Percent of EMS patient transport calls when a FEMS transport unit returned to service in 30 minutes or less after arriving at a hospital with a patient	Up is Better	18.2%	17.4%	50%	11.3%	14.3%	12.4%	10.1%	11.9%	Unmet	Historically high hospital drop times and the related decreased availability of AMR units have significantly eroded the Department's unit availability to levels not see since 2015. This has negatively impacted EMS response times.

Percent of residential structure fires without a working smoke alarm	Down is Better	15.5%	13.2%	8%	11.1%	6.7%	7.6%	7.6%	8.3%	Nearly Met	We are very pleased that we have been able to make progress in this critical area in the last 3 years. It is clear that our efforts to install smoke alarms is paying benefits. Although we didn't quite meet our goal, we have improved each year since FY 2020 (15.5% in FY20 to 13.2% in FY 21 to well below 10% in FY 22).
Percent of EMS responses originating from a 911 request for patients who receive treatment to correct their hypoglycemia	Up is Better	New in 2021	68.9%	100%	71.4%	71.3%	74.6%	64.5%	69.5%	Unmet	The adoption of NEMSQA measures for the Department are still new, and we are just beginning to see performance data for this measure. In FY 23, we will continue to monitor after the transition to a new Records Management System to ensure adequate documentation methods. We have prioritized improvement of this measure.

Up is Better	New in 2021	83.3%	95%	84.9%	87.4%	93.7%	95.9%	90.8%	Nearly Met	Despite a narrowly missed target for this measure, 4 quarters of consistent improvement while achieving a benchmark in the 4th quarter demonstrates no need to make additional improvements. In FY 23, we will continue to monitor after the transition to a new Records Management System to ensure adequate documentation methods.
Percent of EMS responses originating from a 911 request for patients 2-18 years of age with a diagnosis of asthma who had an aerosolized beta agonist administered	Up is Better	New in 2021	58.7%	100%	57.5%	66.4%	58.1%	59.9%	60.1%	Unmet	The adoption of NEMSQA measures for the Department are still new, and we are just beginning to see performance data for this measure. We will continue to monitor performance moving forward. It was observed that our drop in performance in FY 22 was partially attributed to low ratings associated with transport and not the NTL.
Percent of patients overall who experienced a sudden cardiac arrest that survived to hospital discharge	Up is Better	New in 2021	4.7%	10%	3.7%	5.8%	6%	6.5%	5.5%	Unmet	After seeing a decrease in performance for this measure during the COVID-19 pandemic, we are pleased to be observing some progress. Misconduct Allegations and Grievances Report Fiscal Year 2021

Executive Summary

The District of Columbia Fire and Emergency Medical Services Department’s “Misconduct Allegations and Grievances Report” for FY 2021 provides an overview of Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) cases, discipline of uniformed employees, and grievance cases filed by uniformed employees or collective bargaining units (labor organizations). The reporting period is by fiscal year, beginning October 1, 2020 and ending on September 30, 2021. The Department is required to report annually to the Mayor and Council concerning misconduct and grievances filed by or against members of the Department.¹

*Duplicate Case

Note on cases related to ADA/Shaving: In March 2020, the Department updated its policy on facial hair to prohibit hair between an employee’s face and the seal of the facemask. This policy is intended to ensure members’ safety and compliance with the manufacturer’s instructions for Department Personal Protective Equipment (PPE). A number of employees challenged the new policy on grounds of ADA, race, and religious discrimination.

*Duplicate Case

Note on cases related to ADA/Shaving: In March 2020, the Department updated its policy on facial hair to prohibit hair between an employee’s face and the seal of the facemask. This policy is intended to ensure members’ safety and compliance with the manufacturer’s instructions for Department Personal Protective Equipment (PPE). A number of employees challenged the new policy on grounds of ADA, race, and religious discrimination.

Executive Summary

FULFILLMENT of MISSION

Under all circumstances, the District of Columbia, Fire and Emergency Medical Services (FEMS) must fulfill its mission to preserve life and promote health and safety through excellent pre-hospital treatment and transportation, fire prevention, fire suppression and rescue activities and homeland security awareness. While the impact of a crisis on FEMS itself cannot be predicted, planning for operations under such conditions can reduce the impact of the emergency on its people, facilities, and mission and help FEMS perform its essential functions.

PERFORMANCE of ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS

This Continuity of Operations (COOP) Plan provides for resuming and sustaining essential functions as soon as possible during and after a localized, District-wide, or catastrophic emergency affecting FEMS. The COOP plan enables FEMS to resume essential functions as soon as possible after the emergency event and to sustain them for up to 30 days.

ACTIVATION

The Fire & EMS Chief or their authorized successor has the authority to activate this COOP plan. As soon as emergency response personnel have minimized injury, loss of life, and property damage to FEMS, this COOP plan should be implemented.

NOTIFICATION and RELOCATION

If the Fire & EMS Chief decides to activate the COOP plan, due to reduced operational capacity, or if a FEMS primary facility becomes unavailable, a message of the COOP plan activation will be disseminated through the usual chain of command. Division heads are responsible for ensuring that all FEMS personnel within their divisions are aware of the COOP plan activation. The activation message will also include instructions on relocation to an alternate facility.

COOP PERSONNEL

This COOP plan identifies COOP personnel within every FEMS division who are responsible for carrying out Essential Functions. COOP personnel will relocate to their pre-designated alternate facility to carry out Essential Functions, should their primary facility become unusable. Non-COOP personnel are expected to remain in a safe location and await further instructions from their supervisors.

ORDER OF SUCCESSION

FEMS will implement the following Order of Succession for its executive leadership:

1. Fire & EMS Chief
2. Assistant Fire Chief, Operations
3. Assistant Fire Chief, Emergency Medical Services
4. Assistant Fire Chief, Technical Services
5. Assistant Fire Chief, Professional Development
6. Assistant Fire Chief, Services

See Order of Succession section for orders of succession for positions within each FEMS division.

ALTERNATE FACILITIES

Should a primary FEMS facility become unusable or inaccessible, FEMS COOP personnel will relocate to a pre-designated Alternate Facility.

Primary Facility	Alternate Facilities
Reeves Center 2000 14 th Street, NW Washington, DC	DC Fire & EMS Training Academy 4600 Shepherd Pkwy SW Washington, DC Additional sites allocated to FEMS by DGS for usage during a COOP event: Northwest: Fort Stevens Recreation Center / 1327 Van Buren St. NW Northeast: Lamond Recreation Center / 20 Tuckerman St. NE Southwest: Randall Recreation Center / South Capitol & I St. SW Southeast: Ridge Road Recreation Center / 830 Ridge Road SE

RECONSTITUTION

Once FEMS can resume normal operations and primary facilities have been restored to operational capacity, each FEMS division will reconstitute. The Fire & EMS Chief (FEMS Director) or his designee will decide, based on the circumstances, the order and schedule of each division's return to normal operations. If any facility cannot become operational, the affected divisions should operate from their alternate facility until a viable permanent location is determined.

EXERCISES and MAINTENANCE

This COOP Plan is a living document; thus, staff must perform training and exercises on the plan and its contents to keep it current and effective. This plan identifies a timeline and entities that must perform this maintenance regularly.

The Homeland Security Division is responsible for coordinating the implementation of this COOP plan. Should you have questions regarding any aspect of this plan, please contact:

Introduction

The Fire and Emergency Medical Services Department is a cabinet-level agency within the District of Columbia, under the direction of the Mayor of the District of Columbia. FEMS's mission is to preserve life and promote health and safety through excellent pre-hospital treatment and transportation, fire prevention, fire suppression and rescue activities and homeland security awareness.

If FEMS operations are disrupted, they must efficiently and effectively resume. In light of the necessity for continuously performing essential functions, FEMS has developed this Continuity of Operations (COOP) Plan, which supports the District Response Plan (DRP) and any FEMS internal Emergency Operating Procedures, such as any evacuation plans, Designated Assembly Areas, and Shelter-in-Place plans. The information contained within this COOP Plan is relevant for FEMS personnel and contractors, as it provides the guidance, they will follow during an event that impacts the agency's ability to function. The information contained within the COOP Plan is available only to personnel with a need to know, such as those employees who would respond to a COOP team deployment, and other key FEMS, District, and federal government personnel deemed necessary to know.

Purpose

The purpose of establishing a COOP Plan for FEMS is to ensure the continuity of essential organizational functions after a disaster. The plan is an "all-hazards" plan, meaning it will allow the agency to continue its essential functions after any type of emergency, large or small. The key purposes of this COOP Plan are to:

1. Ensure continuous performance of and mitigate disruptions to essential functions and operations
2. Identify COOP personnel responsible for carrying out Essential Functions
3. Ensure the succession of FEMS leadership, if required, on a temporary basis, and maintain or re-establish control and direction of FEMS;
4. Identify Vital Records, Databases, Systems and Equipment needed to carry out Essential Functions
5. Identify Alternate Facilities which may be used to carry out Essential Functions if a primary facility becomes unusable
6. Achieve a timely and orderly recovery from the emergency and resumption of normal operations.

Applicability and Scope

The provisions of this COOP plan are applicable to all FEMS divisions:

- Office of the Fire & EMS Chief
- Risk Management Division
- Apparatus Division
- Fire Prevention Division
- Training Division
- Property Management & Logistics Division
- Office of Unified Communications
- Information Technology
- Office of Internal Affairs
- Homeland Security Division
- Budget Office
- Professional Standards
- Health Care Services
- Office of the Medical Director
- Human Resources
- General Counsel
- Medical Services Division

This plan applies to all manmade and natural emergencies and threats. The plan provides for resuming the FEMS's Essential Functions as soon as possible after an emergency and sustaining these functions for a period of up to 30 days.

In addition, this plan addresses the issues related to recovery after COOP activation and provides detailed plan maintenance procedures.

How to Use This Plan

The plan is organized into three major sections which are labeled Phase I: Activation; Phase II: COOP Operations; and Phase III: Recovery. Following these sections is a section on Exercise and Maintenance of COOP Plan. The Plan concludes with an Appendix.

Concept of Operations

EOC (1) - Steady State — The JAHOC operations represent the continuously activated section of the EOC. EOC (1) operations are conducted by the JAHOC and are active at all times encompassing routine activities and incident coordination conducted 365 days a year. EOC (1) operations remain active at all times and include the EOC's day-to-day operations, including coordination of regularly occurring incidents. The JAHOC acts as the District's communications and coordination hub, monitoring news, public safety, traffic, and weather. The JAHOC maintains regular contact with federal, state, local, and regional operations centers and all District service centers; disseminates information; and initiates notifications in accordance with this Standard Operating Procedures (SOP). During expanding incidents, the JAHOC is scalable in size and capability. When an incident grows beyond the steady state capability or capacity of the JAHOC, the Watch Commander may transition to an Enhanced Steady State condition or EOC (2).

Trigger to EOC (2): Transition from EOC (1) into EOC (2) occurs when HSEMA activates additional resources, capabilities, or functions necessary to manage an emerging incident.

EOC (2) - Enhanced Steady State — While District and/or NCR resources and existing mutual aid agreements are capable of addressing most incidents; the JAHOC may activate additional staff from partner agencies. This support is usually in the form of ELOs, agency level support, and EOC IMT support up to and including the Command and General staff. These personnel may assist in information and coordination requirements and/or incident management without need for a Stage 3 activation of the EOC.

Regardless of the stage of activation, The JAHOC maintains its core functions of monitoring, sending notifications, and providing coordination for day-to-day operations and steady state incidents.

Trigger to EOC (3): Transition to EOC (3) occurs with the full activation of the EOC. This will occur when the Red or Blue EOC IMT4 is activated at the direction of the Director of HSEMA, in coordination with the HSEMA SLT. This activation will usually be the result of significant coordination or resource requirements exceeding the capacity of the JAHOC to manage.

EOC (3) – Full Activation — During EOC (3), the activated EOC Team (Red or Blue) takes over the EOC management of the escalated critical incident from the JAHOC in accordance with the District's SOG.

EOC (3) operations typically involve significant federal involvement, including coordination with federal entities and the request for and use of federal resources. EOC (3) may activate necessary ELOs or ESFs based on the specific incident, and normally Emergency Management Assistance Compact (EMAC) agreements will be used during this stage. The CMT is intimately involved during stage three. When EOC (3) operations are activated to manage an escalated critical incident, the JAHOC maintains its core functions of monitoring, sending notifications, and providing coordination for day-to-day operations and EOC (1) stage incidents.

Activation and Notification Procedure

This section provides the overview of how individuals within FEMS will be notified that the COOP Plan has been activated.

Please note that COOP implementation occurs only after the response to emergency has been initiated and the situation has been stabilized. For details on emergency response, please refer to relevant FEMS policies on building evacuation, designated assembly areas, shelter-in-place, etc.

The FEMS, Fire & EMS Chief or their authorized successor has the authority to activate the COOP plan.

A COOP plan activation communication will come down the FEMS chain of command. Division heads will be responsible for ensuring that all personnel within their divisions are aware of the COOP plan activation.

All available technologies and methods will be used to alert FEMS personnel of COOP plan activation, including:

- Email
- Agency-issued cell phone
- 800 MHZ Radio
- Face-to-face communication
- Alert Text Messages

Once all FEMS personnel are notified of the COOP activation, only Essential Functions will be performed. All non-essential functions will be suspended until operational capacity allows for their resumption.

Additionally, COOP personnel will relocate to their pre-designated alternate facility should their primary place of work be unusable.

All non-COOP personnel are expected to remain in a safe location and be available to receive communications and instructions from their supervisors. Non-COOP personnel may be called on to support COOP personnel in performing Essential Functions.

Communications

Definition: Communication is the act of gathering and verifying information to notify employees and the public of COOP activation and ensure that leadership has accurate information on which to base decisions.

This section identifies the Public Information Officer who is responsible for disseminating consistent and accurate information to external stakeholders.

The section also identifies emergency communications equipment that will be used by FEMS personnel to communicate during an emergency.

Communications Objectives:

1. Provide up-to-date information about the effect of the emergency on FEMS operations.
2. Provide current information on revised or amended FEMS processes and procedures. Inform the public where necessary. Respond to rumors with accurate information.

Public Information Officer

The Public Information Officer (PIO) is the single point of contact that is designated to disseminate information to the Incident Command Team, all employees, the media, public and other external stakeholders.

As soon as this COOP plan is initiated, the FEMS Public Information Officer (PIO) should be contacted, using the contact information below.

The PIO or the FEMS Director should handle all inquiries from the mass media and the public, unless the FEMS Director provides instructions to the contrary. This will ensure that the public message is consistent and accurate.

PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICER (PIO) CONTACT INFORMATION

Position	Name	Contact
Communications Director	Jennifer Donelan	202-673-3331
Public Information Officer (PIO)	Vito Maggiolo	202-673-3331

Emergency Communications Equipment

Emergency Communications Equipment is equipment that may be used to communicate during an emergency. Communications with all stakeholders will be necessary but may not be available through regular means. Emergency communications equipment should be interoperable and redundant.

Emergency communication equipment must be maintained and tested regularly prior to an emergency occurring. During an emergency, FEMS personnel must be ready and able to utilize the equipment to communicate.

Pre-Emergency

- Program emergency communications equipment with phone numbers of key internal and external contacts, where possible.
- Train COOP personnel on use of the devices.
- Keep all equipment charged and change batteries regularly, if necessary.

During Emergency

- All FEMS personnel must be prepared to receive communications at any time.
- Individuals assigned communications equipment tune to the assigned channel to communicate.
- Use plain language to describe the situation in order to avoid confusion.

Vital Records, Databases, & Systems

Definition: Vital records, databases, & systems are records, databases, or systems, regardless of media (paper, microfilm, audio or video tape, computer disks, etc.) that, if damaged or destroyed, would disrupt FEMS's essential functions, cause considerable inconvenience, and require replacement or re-creation at considerable expense.

PHASE III RECOVERY

Recovery

Definition: Recovery is the process by which an agency resumes all operational functions. After the threat or disruption subsides, each office will need to transition back to pre-event status.

Recovery actions will include:

1. Returning the office to pre-incident work levels; and
2. Assessing the COOP activation response and documenting the lessons learned.

Procedures:

Recovery procedures will commence when the Director ascertains that the emergency situation has ended and is unlikely to recur. Once this determination has been made, one or a combination of the following options may be implemented, depending on the situation.

1. Continue to perform essential functions at the alternate facility for up to thirty (30) days;
2. Begin an orderly return to FEMS facilities and reconstitute full operations; and/or
3. Begin to establish a reconstituted FEMS facility elsewhere.

The order to enter or reoccupy a primary or alternate facility will be issued once the Director, or designee, has received a confirmation of safety from safety officials.

A designated FEMS employee will oversee the orderly transition of all FEMS functions, personnel, equipment, and records from the alternate site to the FEMS primary facility or a new facility. The designated FEMS employee will oversee the messaging informing staff of orders to return to work at a new facility or at the restored facility. Information will also be distributed on hours of operations, work assignments and other pertinent information regarding recovery.

When necessary equipment and documents are in place at FEMS facilities, the staff remaining at the alternate site will transfer essential functions and resume normal operations.

Recovery Checklists:

Personnel Issues: Recovery may include the following personnel issues:

- Defusing on-scene stress management;
- The need to quickly recruit, screen and hire temporary or permanent workers;
- Unforeseen demands on the District of Columbia to fund medical, leave and pension funds; and
- Additional training and supervision.

Equipment and Supplies: Restocking and rehabilitating emergency resources after deployment is critical to returning FEMS to its pre-COOP activation status. This may include:

- Returning the equipment and supplies to pre-incident readiness;
- Replacing lost, stolen or damaged equipment;
- Re-outfitting supply caches and response kits;
- Dealing with sensitive or proprietary items; and
- Investigating and documenting property loss.

Reimbursement: Processes and procedures must be in place to ensure that resource providers are reimbursed in a timely fashion, including mechanisms for:

- Providing documentation required and fulfilling other requirements for reimbursement;
- Collecting bills;
- Validating costs against the scope of work; and
- Ensuring that the proper authorities are involved.

EXERCISE
COOP PLAN

Exercise and Maintenance of COOP Plan

Exercises are a variety of simulated disasters designed to keep this plan viable. The exercise portion of a plan may call for activation several times throughout a year to evaluate the state of readiness of the District government to respond to differing incidents.

The Homeland Security Exercise and Evaluation Program (HSEEP) define seven types of exercises, each of which is discussions-based or operations-based.

Discussions-based exercises familiarize participants with current plans, policies, agreements, and procedures, or may be used to develop new plans, policies, agreements, and procedures. Types of discussion-based exercises include:

- Seminar. A seminar is an informal discussion, designed to orient participants to new or updated plans, policies, or procedures (e.g., a seminar to review a new Evacuation Standard Operating Procedure).
- Workshop. A workshop resembles a seminar, but is employed to build specific products, such as a draft plan or policy (e.g., a Training and Exercise Plan Workshop is used to develop a Multi-year Training and Exercise Plan).
- Tabletop exercise (TTX). A tabletop exercise involves key personnel discussing simulated scenarios in an informal setting. TTXs can be used to assess plans, policies, and procedures.
- Game. A game is a simulation of operations that often involves two or more teams, usually in a competitive environment, using rules, data, and procedure designed to depict an actual or assumed real-life situation.

Operations-based exercises validate plans, policies, agreements and procedures, clarify roles and responsibilities, and identify resource gaps in an operational environment. Operations-based exercises include:

- Drill. A drill is a coordinated, supervised activity usually employed to test a single, specific operation or function within a single entity (e.g., a fire department conducts a decontamination drill).
- Functional exercise (FE). A functional exercise examines and/or validates the coordination, command, and control between various multi-agency coordination centers (e.g., emergency operation center, joint field office, etc.). A functional exercise does not involve any "boots on the ground" (i.e., first responders or emergency officials responding to an incident in real time).
- Full-Scale Exercise (FSE). A full-scale exercise is a multi-agency, multi-jurisdictional, multidiscipline exercise involving functional (e.g., joint field office, emergency operation centers, etc.) and "boots on the ground" response (e.g., firefighters decontaminating mock victims).

Training: To maintain a viable Plan, it is vital to train and educate employees about the plan and its activation. In order for employees to understand their responsibilities during activation, it is necessary to conduct formal trainings on a regular basis. Trainings also should be provided at any new employee orientations.

Multiyear Strategy and Program Management Plan (MYSMP): A plan that defines long-term goals for improving and managing the COOP plan. The MYSMP should include:

- A reference to the general COOP planning requirements.
- A description of the elements that ensure a viable COOP capability.
- Identification of the resources required to establish each element.
- Discussion of organization-specific management and policy issues (e.g., resource requirements, internal policies).
- A schedule for establishing COOP capability and plan approval.
- An endorsement sheet signed by the agency leader.
- The budget required to accomplish the strategy.

Life cycle of plan

The COOP plan follows a life cycle by which it is constantly being evaluated and updated. The plan will lose its usefulness if it becomes outdated.

Maintenance and Planning Responsibilities

To ensure that the COOP plan remains current, a FEMS entity will be responsible for updating certain sections of the plan and conduct any related tests and maintenance. The required actions and responsible entities are identified below:

Action	Tasks	Responsible Position	Frequency
Train new staff	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Include COOP information in new employee orientation 	DFC Homeland Security	Semi-Annually
Review and update all plan sections, as necessary	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Review each section of the plan for accuracy 2. Incorporate lessons learned from real-life activations and from training and exercises 	DFC Homeland Security	Quarterly
Plan and conduct exercises	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Conduct internal COOP exercises 2. Test Vital equipment and Vital records backup strategies 	DFC Homeland Security	Annually
Monitor and maintain vital records and vital equipment	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Monitor volume of materials 2. Assist staff with updating/removing files 	DFC Homeland Security	As needed

Plan Distribution and Plan Storage

The COOP plan must be accessible to all FEMS personnel. It will be distributed as indicated below:

Level of COOP Plan Distributed	Designated Personnel
Complete COOP Plan for FEMS with all personnel contact information (work and home) and attachments included.	Director/Deputy Director/Division Heads
COOP Plan for FEMS with all personal contact information redacted.	All FEMS personnel

The latest version of the COOP Plan should be stored in hardcopy and electronically at the following locations:

- Desks of the Fire & EMS Chief and all Division Directors.
- FEMS intranet for viewing by all FEMS personnel
- Alternate Facilities
- The homes of all personnel staff with ICS, EOC, and Crisis Management Team roles.

SECURITY NOTICE REMINDER

The COOP Plan contains confidential and sensitive information. When determining the proper storage location, particularly with regards to off-site storage, remember that the COOP Plan should be accessible, but secure.

Such order shall define (1) the existence, nature, extent, and severity of the public emergency; (2) the measures necessary to relieve the public emergency; (3) the specific requirements of the order and the persons upon whom the order is binding; and (4) the duration of the order. Upon issuing the order, the Mayor may issue an emergency executive order, which shall state:

§ 7-2202.0 – 2208. Establishes in the District government an Office of Emergency Preparedness (designated the Emergency Management Agency by Mayor’s Order 98-189, Jan. 8, 1999, hereinafter referred to as EMA). EMA is authorized and directed, subject to the discretion and control of the Mayor, to do the following: (1) prepare a comprehensive plan and program for civil defense, to be integrated into federal civil defense plans and those of nearby states and appropriate political subdivisions; (2) institute training and public information programs, organize, equip, and train civil defense units, and take other preparatory steps in advance of actual disaster; (3) conduct studies and surveys of District civil defense resources and capabilities and plan for the emergency use thereof; (4) develop and enter into mutual aid agreements with states and political subdivisions thereof for reciprocal civil defense aid and mutual assistance, consistent with the national civil defense plan and program; (5) employ personnel and expend funds; (6) cooperate with governmental and nongovernmental agencies, organizations, associations, and other entities to coordinate civil defense activities in the District; (7) accept facilities, supplies, and funds from the federal government; (8) use services, supplies, and facilities of District departments, offices, and agencies and, when authorized by the Mayor, use District funds to match federal funds for the purchase of civil defense equipment and supplies; and (9) perform such other functions as the Mayor may assign.

§ 7-2209. Authorizes the Mayor to enter into and execute to interstate civil defense compacts with the states and sets forth the substance of the language to be used for such compacts.

§ 1-204.11. Subsection (b) provides that the chairman of the D.C. Council acts as the Mayor when the Office of the Mayor is vacant.

§ 1-204.23. Provides that the Mayor shall be the central planning agency for the District. He shall be responsible for the coordination of planning activities of the municipal government and the preparation and implementation of the District's elements of the comprehensive plan for the National Capital, which may include land use elements, urban renewal and redevelopment elements, a multi-year program of municipal public works for the District, and physical, social, economic, transportation, and population elements.

§ 1-204.50a. Subsection (a) establishes an emergency cash reserve fund that may be used for unanticipated and nonrecurring extraordinary needs of an emergency nature, including a natural disaster or calamity as defined by the Stafford Act or in the event of a state of emergency declared by the Mayor. Subsection (b) establishes a contingency cash reserve fund to be used for nonrecurring needs, including expenses associated with unforeseen weather or other natural disasters, unexpected obligations created by federal law, or new public safety or health needs or requirements.

SUMMARY OF FEDERAL LAWS RELATED TO EMERGENCY PLANNING AND OPERATIONS

6 U.S.C. § 101. Establishes the Department of Homeland Security to a) prevent terrorist attacks within the United States; b) reduce the vulnerability of the United States to terrorism; and c) minimize the damage, and assist in the recovery, from terrorist attacks that do occur within the United States.

Homeland Security Presidential Directive-5. Establishes a unified, comprehensive nationwide incident management system, the purpose of which is to assist the prevention, preparation, response, and recovery from terrorist attacks, significant disasters, and other emergencies. This system would enable all levels of government throughout the country to work together efficiently and effectively.

42 U.S.C. § 5121. To allow the federal government to provide state and local government the means to alleviate suffering and damage resulting from disasters by 1) revising and broadening the scope of existing disaster relief programs; 2) encouraging the development of comprehensive disaster preparedness and assistance plans, programs, capabilities, and organizations by states and local governments; 3) achieving greater coordination and responsiveness of disaster preparedness and relief programs; 4) encouraging individuals, states, and local governments to protect themselves by obtaining insurance coverage to supplement or replace governmental assistance; 5) encouraging hazard mitigation measures to reduce losses from disasters, including development of land use and construction regulations; and 6) providing federal assistance programs for both public and private losses sustained in disasters.

Appendix B: Planning Considerations and Assumptions

This COOP plan is based on the following assumptions:

COOP ACTIVATION

- FEMS is vulnerable to a full range of all hazards (man-made and natural disasters).
- Activation of the COOP plan may be required at any time—during business hours or non-business hours.
- The Director or his/her designee is responsible for all pre-activation measures.
- All DC Government Agencies, including FEMS, are self-sufficient for up to 72 hours.
- The COOP plan is a guide; however, authority for emergency response activities also rests with local public safety and emergency responders.
- Pre-established priorities of the resumption of essential functions may require alteration once the actual extent of the threat has been identified,
- Each FEMS division manager will act under the leadership of the Director and the Associate Directors and will be responsible for coordinating COOP plan activities for his or her respective division.
- The COOP plan will always be accessible and in all primary and alternate locations,
- Alternate facilities are compatible with all needed telecommunications, internet systems, mail services, and public access.
- Each division manager or his/her designee will be responsible for disseminating administrative and logistical information to their personnel.

TRAINING AND EXERCISES

- Appropriate funding and resources will be provided to support COOP planning, training, and exercises.
- Based on planning, training, and exercises, the COOP plan will be maintained and updated.
- Cross-training will be provided within offices to the fullest extent possible.
- It is suggested that each employee is responsible for creating and stocking his/her own Go-Kit containing Vital Records, Vital Equipment and personal items, such as water, snacks, and medicines.

Appendix C: After-Action Report/Improvement Plan (AAR/IP) Matrix

After-Action Report/Improvement Plan (AAR/IP)

An After-Action Report/Improvement Plan (AAR/IP) is the final product of an exercise. The AAR/IP has two components: an AAR, which captures observations and recommendations based on the exercise objectives as associated with the capabilities and tasks; and an IP, which identifies specific corrective actions, assigns them to responsible parties, and establishes targets for their completion. The lead evaluator and the exercise planning team draft the AAR and submit it to conference participants prior to an After-Action Conference. The draft AAR is distributed to conference participants for review no more than 30 days after the exercise. After the conference, an IP will be created and will be disseminated to participants no more than 60 days after the exercise. The IP should contain a matrix such as the one below that lists each capability along with the associated observations, recommendations, corrective actions, capabilities, responsible agency and point of contact (POC), and start and completion dates:

Improvement Plan Matrix
