25. Does your "agency" have key performance indicators? If yes, list them.

ANSWER: NONE

26. (a) How much was raised in each of the last three years (FY 2020, 2021, and 2022) from the check off on the District's individual tax return?

Year	Check off on the District's Individual Tax Return
FY2020	$72,317.54
FY2021	$104,827.29
FY2022	$68,712.99

(b) How, if at all, would you like this program changed?

ANSWER: The Delegation Members would like the restriction on payment of Direct Salaries to Members from Tax-Check Off Funds repealed.

(c) How much was transferred in each of the last three years to the Commission or your 3 offices?

ANSWER:

Year	Transferred
FY2020	$54,000.00
FY2021	$0.00
FY2022	$41,000.00

(d) How has the Commission, or your offices, spent these funds?

ANSWER: The Commission has generally used the funds to offset revenue shortfalls in the area of agency spending, specifically over-spending in the Personnel Services Category, Object Class 12 and Fringe Benefits, Object Class 14.

Additionally, some of the Funds are transferred pursuant to the Agency's Discretionary Authority pursuant to DC Code Section § 1-129.32(c)(2)(A). Specifically, these funds are important to individual delegation members when receiving Official Visitors, or while on Official Travel. These funds enable the Agency and Members to cover the costs of meals, sponsorships of receptions and official entertainment or certain miscellaneous expenses for which the use of Appropriated funds would not be otherwise permitted.
