A CEREMONIAL RESOLUTION

IN THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

To recognize, honor, and celebrate the FRESHFARM H Street NE Market, on the occasion of its 20th anniversary, for its continued presence as a beloved community gathering place and its decision to expand to year-round operations in 2025.

WHEREAS, on June 5, 2004, the FRESHFARM H Street NE Market debuted on the 600 block of H Street NE, in the parking lot between the (since relocated) Department of Employment Services and the Department of Human Services;

WHEREAS, in 2004, H Street Main Street, the Department of Employment Services, the Department of Human Services, the Office of Planning, the Office of Property Management, and the H Street Community Development Corporation all worked with FRESHFARM to help create the farmers market at a time when the H Street NE corridor neighborhood had limited options for shopping for fresh groceries;

WHEREAS, in 2004, the FRESHFARM H Street NE Market ran every Saturday until October 30, 2004, and it has operated every year from spring through fall since then;

WHEREAS, in 2008, the FRESHFARM H Street NE Market was the first farmers market in the District to accept SNAP/EBT benefits;

WHEREAS, in 2009, the FRESHFARM H Street NE Market became the first market in the District and among the first in the country to offer an incentive match (today called FreshMatch), which provides a dollar-for-dollar match on all federal benefits spent at the market, helping shoppers take home more fresh produce and nutritious foods and helping stretch federal nutrition dollars further;

WHEREAS, over the past 2 decades, shoppers have spent more than $250,000 in nutrition benefits and incentives at the FRESHFARM H Street NE Market, which has helped establish the FRESHFARM H Street NE Market as a pioneering example of how farmers markets can foster food security, create robust revenue streams for the local food economy, and support community resilience;

48 WHEREAS, on November 20, 2010, FRESHFARM H Street NE Market was the first
49 market where FRESHFARM conducted a FRESH Food Drive in partnership with First Church of 50 Christ Holiness, where shoppers made cash donations and FRESHFARM worked with farmers at 51 the market to purchase fresh, local food, which First Church of Christ Holiness used to create
52 Thanksgiving baskets for food-insecure families;

53
54 WHEREAS, in subsequent years, FRESHFARM has conducted FRESH Food Drives at all
55 FRESHFARM markets, raising tens of thousands of dollars to purchase fresh, local food from
56 regional farmers and producers, which FRESHFARM donates to food recovery and emergency
57 food assistance partners across the greater Washington, DC metro area;

58
59 WHEREAS, since 2010, First Church of Christ Holiness has been the weekly food rescue
60 partner for the FRESHFARM H Street NE Market, collecting unsold produce and other foods at 61 the end of market and distributing them to neighbors;

62
63 WHEREAS, in 2012, the 600 block of H Street NE underwent development, and
64 FRESHFARM H Street NE Market relocated to 13th Street NE between H and I Streets;

65
66 WHEREAS, on Sunday, May 31, 2015, First Church of Christ Holiness gave the 2015 First
67 Church Partnership Award to FRESHFARM in appreciation for their 5 years of commitment and 68 devotion, and recognizing that between 2010 and 2015, FRESHFRM H Street NE Market donated
69 12,000 pounds of food to help fight hunger in our community;

70
71 WHEREAS, for 2 decades, the FRESHFARM H Street NE Market has been a vital food
72 access point and beloved community gathering place for thousands of families and neighbors;

73
74 WHEREAS, the FRESHFARM H Street NE Market will operate every Saturday (9am to 75 12:30pm) at 13th Street NE between H and I Streets from January 4 through December 27, 2025,
76 and for many years to come;

78 WHEREAS, the FRESHFARM H Street NE Market will host a rotating lineup of one
79 dozen farmers and producers from Maryland, Pennsylvania, Virginia, and the District, who will 80 bring a robust mix of seasonal fruits and vegetables, artisan baked goods, pastured meat and eggs,
81 locally roasted coffee and distilled spirits, and perhaps most importantly, a deep understanding of 82 our local food system, our local environment, and a passion to educate and nurture our community
83 through their stewardship; and

85 WHEREAS, on December 14th, 2024, FRESHFARM will host a community block party
86 at the market with music, sampling, and giveaways to mark the year-round transition and its 20th
87 anniversary.

88
89 RESOLVED, BY THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, that this
90 resolution may be cited as the “FRESHFARM H Street NE Market 20th Anniversary Recognition
91 Resolution of 2024”.

93           Sec. 2. The Council of the District of Columbia recognizes, honors, and celebrates the 94 FRESHFARM H Street NE Market, on the occasion of its 20th anniversary, for its continued
95 presence as a beloved community gathering place and its decision to expand to year-round
96 operations in 2025.
