A BILL

IN THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

To require, on a temporary basis, that providers of commercial or residential rental property offer and maintain any rent payment plan agreed upon between March 11, 2020, and July 25, 2022, with eligible tenants, and to maintain the minimum requirements for such a plan.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE COUNCIL DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, That this act may be cited as the “Tenant Payment Plan Phasing Temporary Act of 2025”.

Sec. 2 Tenant payment plans.

(a) From March 11, 2020, through July 25, 2022 ("program period"), a provider shall offer a rent-payment-plan program ("program") for eligible tenants. Under its program, a provider shall:

(1) Make a payment plan available to an eligible tenant for the payment of gross rent, contractual increases agreed to in a commercial lease's rent escalation tables, and any other amounts that come due under the lease during the program period and prior to the cessation of tenancy ("covered time period"), with a minimum term length of one year unless a shorter payment plan term length is requested by the eligible tenant;

(2) Waive any fee, interest, or penalty that arises out of an eligible tenant entering into a payment plan;

32 (3) Not report to a credit reporting agency as delinquent the rent subject to the 33 payment plan;

34 (4) Provide that an eligible tenant does not lose any rights under the lease by 35 entering into the payment plan; and

36 (5) Notify all tenants of the availability, terms, and application process for its 37 program.

38 (b)(1) Tenants entering into a payment plan shall be required to make payments in equal
39 monthly installments for the duration of the payment plan unless a different payment schedule is 40 requested by the tenant.

41 (2) A provider shall permit a tenant that has entered into a payment plan to pay an 42 amount greater than the monthly amount provided for in the payment plan.

43 (3) A provider shall not require or request a tenant to provide a lump-sum
44 payment under a payment plan.

45 (4) A provider shall agree in writing to the terms of a payment plan.

46 (c) A provider shall utilize existing procedures or, if necessary, establish new procedures
47 to provide a process by which an eligible tenant may apply for a payment plan, which may 48 include requiring the tenant to submit supporting documentation. A provider shall permit an 49 application for a payment plan to occur online or by telephone.

50 (d) A provider shall approve each application for a payment plan submitted during a
51 covered time period in which an eligible tenant:

52 (1) Demonstrates to the provider evidence of a financial hardship resulting 53 directly or indirectly from the COVID-19 public health emergency, regardless of an existing

54 delinquency or a future inability to make rental payments established prior to the start of the 55 COVID-19 public health emergency; and

56 (2) Agrees in writing to make payments in accordance with the payment plan.

57 (e)(1) A provider who receives an application for a payment plan shall retain the 58 application, whether approved or denied, for at least 3 years.

59 (2) Upon request of the tenant, a provider shall make an application for a payment
60 plan available to:

61 (A) For residential tenants, the Rent Administrator and the Office of the 62 Tenant Advocate; and

63 (B) For commercial tenants, the Department of Licensing and Consumer
64 Protection.

65 (f)(1) A residential tenant whose application for a payment plan is denied may file a
66 written complaint with the Rent Administrator. The Rent Administrator shall forward the 67 complaint to the Office of Administrative Hearings for adjudication.

68 (2) A commercial tenant whose application for a payment plan is denied may file
69 a written complaint with the Department of Licensing and Consumer Protection.

70 (g) Tenant payment plans may not contain any waiver of the tenant's rights under the 71 tenant's lease or District of Columbia law. A tenant entering into a tenant payment plan retains 72 the right to contest the amount of rent due unless this is agreed to in writing by both parties.

73 (h) During the program period, unless the provider has offered a rent payment plan
74 pursuant to this section and approved a rent payment plan pursuant to subsection (d) of this
75 section, that provider shall be prohibited from filing any collection lawsuit or eviction for 76 nonpayment of rent; provided, that the tenant does not default on the terms of the payment plan.
