The costs of the bill come from two sources: 1) requiring the Mayor to submit an annual report to Council with data from the Rapid Re-Housing Program; and 2) establishing a program to promote housing stability among former Rapid Re-Housing clients. To collect data and submit an annual report on Rapid Re-Housing to Council, DHS will need 2 FTEs. To manage and provide services for a housing stability program for former Rapid Re-Housing clients, DHS will need 5 FTEs. In total, these 7 FTEs will cost about $700,000 a year once the new requirements are in place for a full year. Only sections 2(nn) and (oo) are s2a.	($451)	($687)	($699)	($711)					($2,547)
