Corie Colgan
Chief,
Teaching and Learning

The mission of the Office of Teaching and Learning (OTL) is to provide educators with curricular resources, academic programs, and aligned professional development to ensure rigorous and joyful learning experiences for every student.

Office of Schools

The School Leader Recruitment, Selection, and Development division recruits, selects, and develops the best school leaders for DC Public Schools

The Director of Schools support major initiatives across all DCPS schools to ensure all schools and departments are supported.

Instructional Superintendents supervise clusters of 7–14 principals. Instructional Superintendents provide principals with feedback, coaching, guidance, and the support necessary for them to be effective school leaders—with a particular focus on instructional leadership. They help principals develop their staff's capacity to reach student achievement goals, and build positive relationships with their communities, while ensuring their schools are well-run, nurturing places of learning.

Office of School Improvement and Supports

Office of Teaching and Learning

Corie Colgan
Chief, Teaching and Learning

Alison Williams
Senior Deputy Chief, Content and Curriculum

The Content and Curriculum division sets the vision for equity and excellence for each content area in DCPS schools by researching, creating, and curating curricular materials and providing aligned professional development experiences to ensure that all students have access to rigorous and joyful learning experiences every day in every content area. The division also supports schools and develops curriculum and programming in arts, health, physical education, library programs, educational technology, STEM, global programs, advanced and enriched instruction, and curriculum and assessment innovation.

Abigail Daniels
Senior Deputy Chief, Early Childhood Education
