OPENING DATE: April 28, 2026	CLOSING DATE: Open until filled
SALARY RANGE: $80,000 - $90,000	TOUR OF DUTY: Monday-Friday: 9am-5:30pm
NO. OF VACANCIES: One (1)	OFFICE: Councilmember Matthew Frumin
TYPE OF APPOINTMENT: Full-Time Excepted Service	DURATION OF APPOINTMENT: At-Will
AREA OF CONSIDERATION: Open to the Public	LOCATION: John A. Wilson Building 1350 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW Washington, DC 20004

This position is NOT in a collective bargaining unit.

POSITION OVERVIEW:

Councilmember Matt Frumin seeks a Legislative Assistant for the Committee on Human Services to support the implementation of the policy and legislative strategy for the committee and the member. The committee's jurisdiction includes Department of Human Services, Interagency Council on Homelessness, DC Public Library System, Office of Cable Television, Film, Music and Entertainment, Office of the Deputy Mayor for Planning and Economic Development (DMPED), and the Office of Lottery and Gaming.

This position involves advising the Councilmember on public policy, oversight, and budget issues affecting District residents as part of a legislative team. Responsibilities include reviewing and drafting legislation, tracking legislation and developments within assigned issue areas, and preparing for and staffing the Councilmember at public hearings and legislative meetings.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Conducts research on policy and oversight topics related to District government agencies.
- Recommends strategies and tactics on legislative and public policy initiatives.
- Drafts legislation on assigned topics in collaboration with stakeholders.
- Oversees the progression of bills related to a specific policy portfolio, ensuring timely action and resolution.
- Prepares the Councilmember for public hearings on bills, budget and performance oversight hearings, and legislative meetings.
- Analyzes and reviews proposed operating and capital budgets and other financial information associated with assigned departments, agencies, offices, or programs.

- Evaluates proposed contracts and reprogramming.
- Collaborates with Executive Branch officials, other Council offices, citizen and business stakeholders, and advocacy groups on proposed or pending legislation.
- Responds to constituent requests related to committee matters.

SKILLS AND QUALIFICATIONS:

- 2+ years of experience working on policy, legislation, and government budgets.
- JD or advanced degree in a relevant field strongly preferred.
- Prior policy experience related to economic development is desirable.
- Demonstrated ability to perform data-driven research, synthesize complex information rapidly, and maintain meticulous factual accuracy. Advanced skills in Microsoft Excel are highly desirable.
- Exceptional written and verbal communication skills, with the ability to summarize complex data into digestible information for a general audience.
- Proven ability and organizational skills to multitask and maintain productivity across multiple legislative priorities.
- Must be a resident of the District of Columbia at the time of appointment or obtain residency within 180 days of appointment.

PERFORMANCE ENVIRONMENT:

This is a full-time, hybrid position with four days per week in-person at the Wilson Building in downtown Washington, DC, and one day per week remote, with additional occasional work from home opportunities. Incumbents will work in a collaborative team environment. Evening and occasional weekend availability is required. Regular recess periods and the cyclical nature of the Council’s legislative calendar, as well as the office leave policy, provide opportunities to balance out periods of necessarily high-intensity work. This position reports to the Committee Director.

HOW TO APPLY:

All packages must include:

- Cover Letter
- Resume
- Three References
- Please include “Legislative Assistant - Committee” in the subject line.
- Please submit application package materials to Chief of Staff, Leigh Catherine Miles lcmiles@dccouncil.gov. Applications received before May 4, 2026, will be given priority.
- NO PHONE CALLS, please. Applicants will only be notified if granted an interview.

DOMICILE REQUIREMENT:

An appointee to the Excepted Service is required to be domiciled in the District of Columbia at the time of his or her appointment or become a domiciliary of the District of Columbia within 180 days of appointment and shall maintain such domicile during the period of appointment. (D.C. Official Code §§ 1-609.06(a) and 1-610.59; and 6 DCMR B 305.)

SALARY AND BENEFITS:

The Council of the District of Columbia offers a compensation package that includes a competitive salary; medical, dental, and vision coverage; long- and short-term disability program; a 457(b) program with a 3 percent employer match and a 5 percent entirely-employer funded contribution; 13 to 26 days of annual leave, based on years of employment; 13 days of sick leave; 8 weeks of paid family leave; 11 paid holidays and subsidized public transportation.

DRUG-FREE WORKPLACE:

Pursuant to the requirements of the Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988, the individual selected to fill this position will, as a condition of employment, be required to notify his/her immediate supervisor, in writing, not later than five (5) days after conviction of or a plea of guilty to a violation of any criminal drug statute occurring in the workplace.
